

Brief History of Arbor Day

1982 is the 100th anniversary of the observance of Arbor Day in schools. All over the nation, school children will be celebrating this traditional American holiday by planting trees. For free information on obtaining low-cost trees to plant at homes or schools write Centennial Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, Arbor Lodge 100, Nebraska City, NE 68410. Arbor Day began in Nebraska. Settlers moving west in the mid-19th century found the Nebraska Territory to be an open, treeless plain. These pioneers missed the trees of their eastern homes, and they also needed trees for windbreaks to reduce soil erosion and for fuel, building material and shade.

J. Sterling Morton of Detroit and his wife were among the pioneers who went west in 1854. Mr. and Mrs. Morton were nature lovers and their 160-acre claim near Nebraska City was soon planted with trees, shrubs and flowers. By 1858, even an apple orchard graced their claim in the area that is now southeastern Nebraska.

Morton, a journalist, became editor of Nebraska's first newspaper. Through his articles, he spread agricultural information and his own enthusiasm for planting trees. He realized that although the plains were treeless, they had a climate and soils favorable to tree growth. His articles talked about the trees best suited to the area and encouraged settlers to plant trees on their homesteads.

Morton also advocated tree planting by schools, civic organizations and groups of every kind. His editorials and speeches encouraged men such as future Nebraska Gov. Robert W. Furnas to plant the area that became the great commercial orchard section of eastern Nebraska.

By 1872, Morton had become secretary of the Nebraska Territory. He was able to use that position to stress the importance of agriculture, family life and trees. On January 4, 1872, he first proposed an annual tree planting day, to be called Arbor Day. His resolution to the State Board of Agriculture included a prize of $100 to the county which properly planted the largest number of trees and a farm library valued at $25 to the individual who did the same.

The first Arbor Day was observed in Nebraska on April 10, 1872. It was a huge success. More than one million trees were planted in Nebraska on that day.

During the 1870's other states passed legislation to observe Arbor Day. Several U.S. presidents have proclaimed a national Arbor Day, but many states continue to celebrate the holiday at different times of the year. Some states observe national Arbor Day on the last Friday in April with programs emphasizing the ideals of the holiday. But they do their actual tree planting on the state's own Arbor Day, which varies from January and February in the south to May in the northernmost states because of differences in climate.

Morton's home in Nebraska City became Arbor Lodge and it now contains extensive plantings of more than 160 species and varieties of trees. After Morton died in 1902, a memorial to him was placed at Arbor Lodge and was dedicated by President Grover Cleveland in 1905. One of Morton's favorite sayings adorns the marker: "Other holidays repose upon the past - Arbor Day proposes for the future."

Manchester Family Service, Inc. Report

Reporting on Manchester Family Service, Inc. annual meeting, the local volunteer agency gives the following statistics: 101 family units were assisted in 1981; 245 individuals were served; 112 of these were children and 48 senior citizens; 7233 miles were driven for 254 trips.

Contrary to some myths in the community Manchester Family Service serves all families in the area not just those who are on assistance. It is a volunteer agency established in 1965 covering the Manchester School District. Services include limited emergency help with food, fuel, clothing and medical aid; transportation; referral service to other agencies for all special needs and a Christmas Project in cooperation with the Department of Social Services.

Volunteer motor service consisted of 15 drivers this year (we can always use more). The Call-A-Ride Senior Citizens program for medical aid has relieved the agency immensely by taking over transportation for those 55 years or over. (Call Ray Gonyer of MFS for this service). MFS volunteers will attempt to transport anyone in the area in dire need of keeping appointments for medical aid, Social Services, Social Security, Legal Aid, other County Agencies, and emergency situations.

Furniture donations are handled by calling the chairman, Mrs. Franklin Reck 428-8852 or the vice-chairman Mrs. William Schwab 428-8976. Distribution is arranged between the "have" and "need" families and the chairman will keep a list of both provided she is informed by the families. Turn-over for furniture can be quick or it can take sometime to match the two.

Clothing and household items are distributed to low-income and needy families at pre-arranged "Shops" late in May, early in September and the middle of December each year. Clothing should be for the season indicated—we can not handle winter clothing in the spring, for instance. To contribute to this project contact either of the chairmen. Storage is next to impossible, so special arrangements must be made for delivery on specific days previous to the shops. Volunteer assistance is a tremendous factor in handling this project and groups or individuals who can help are welcome to apply.

Temporary emergency hardship cases and "burn-outs" (we hope we don't have any) are part of the agency's work in cooperation with the Red Cross and the Salvation Army. Fuel emergencies are handled for the Community Service Agency in this area. Cooperation with the Washtenaw County Health Department for assistance and homemakers is of primary importance. And referrals to the House-by-the-Side-of-the-Road can be made for low-income and assistance families.

The Christmas Project is done for the Department of Social Services in the School District and all of Manchester Township. A full report of this past year's activity was given in the Enterprise last January.

Thanks to the United Way, all the churches in the area, many, many individuals and organizations, Manchester Family Service had a successful year.

Auxiliary Donates Flag To Klager Community Education

Mrs. Edna Knauss, representing the American Legion Auxiliary presented a new flag to Klager Elementary on Friday. The new flag was a much appreciated gift since the winter took quite a toll on the elementary school's old one.

Fourth graders Brian Bell and Sean Lowery prepare to raise the flag for the first time with Mrs. Edna Knauss.

Board Of Education Adopts Election Results

The annual school election scheduled for Monday, June 14, 1982 will provide local voters with the opportunity to cast ballots for three (3) persons nominated for positions on the Board. Two four year positions will be available. Nominated to fill these positions are Kent Talcott and Earl Horning both of whom are incumbents. Nominated to fill the one (1) year position remaining on an unexpired term are Thomas Golding and JoAnn King Okey. Both are newcomers to Board of Education activities although both have a long history of involvement in school and student activities.

Also appearing on the ballot will be a proposition asking whether or not the school district may sell 1.4 million dollars of bonds in order to obtain funds necessary to provide renovation of school buildings. Of this total approximately 1.1 million dollars worth of work is slated for the high school.

The decision was made against requesting an extension of the current millage at this time. While all Board Members felt that continued economic stability for the school district was a high priority concern, it was expressed that too many economic issues on the ballot could tend to cloud the issues. All Board Members expressed the feeling that the bond issue was the highest priority item in the school district at this time.

Teacher Layoffs Continue

In order to meet its obligation for economic responsibility and faced with continued declining enrollments the Board of Education took action to place three teachers on indefinite layoff status effective at the end of the current school year.

Since it is questionable at this time as to whether or not funds will be available to continue the Gifted and Talented Program, it was decided to take the precautionary step of placing Ms. Karen Ellsworth, who is associated with the program, layoff. Similarly declining enrollments have made it possible to continue to reduce the size of the teaching staff. Accordingly Mr. Mathew Willey, a high school math teacher, will be placed on layoff status. The third person to be laid off is Ms. Leslie Szubezak who had been hired on a one year contract to replace a staff member currently on leave of absence.

The Board expressed the hope that funds might become available to continue the Gifted and Talented program. Decisions regarding the funding of the program will be made after a review of the initial draft of the budget and a review of negotiations with the WLEA/MEA.

Substance Abuse Committee Has First Meeting

The first formal Substance Abuse Awareness Committee (SAAC) meeting of April 22 was warmly received by the 100 or more attendees. It was a rewarding community response. The agenda for the meeting consisted of: (1) three brief speakers' presentations, (2) small group brainstorming sessions to elicit possible future topics, (3) a general report to the assembly.

A written evaluation of the meeting with additional comments was requested of those who attended. This evaluation and the small group reports were the basis for another committee meeting held Monday, April 26.

It was decided that the next tentative SAAC public meeting will be held Thursday, May 13, at 8:00 P.M. The speakers' topics for this meeting will be "Identifying Symptoms of Drug and Alcohol Misuse" and "Identification and Use of Narcotic Paraphernalia". For further information call Brian Schick at 428-7442 or William Zsenyuk at 428-7877.

Community Education

On Monday, May 10 thru Wednesday, May 12 the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, in conjunction with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources is again offering "Pleasure Boating" classes. The course is aimed for students 12 to 16 years of age, but is open to all interested community members. Those students, 12 to 16 years of age, who successfully complete the program will be awarded a Boating Safety Certificate, which enables them to operate a powerboat (6hp or greater) without adult supervision, and the Sheriff's Department will present them a wall certificate for framing.

Program instructions will include:
-Michigan watercraft laws and regulations.
-Familiarization with rules for the road and navigation aids.
-Principles of safe small boat handling and seamanship.
-Proper selection and maintenance of equipment.
-First aid pertaining to water sports; and
-Accident prevention, rescue and assistance.

There is no charge to participate and all materials are furnished by the Department of Natural Resources. Classes will be held at Manchester High School from 7-9:00 p.m. for three nights starting Monday, May 10, 11 and 12. To register sign up at the Middle School Office or call the Community Education Office at 428-7804. Registration will be held from Monday, April 26 thru Thursday, May 6. Ten people are required as a minimum for the class to be held.

Kindergarten Round Up

Kindergarten Round-up will be held on Monday, May 24th for children who live in the village area currently served by the Middle School kindergarten and Friday, May 21st for the rest of the school district children who will be 5 by December 1, 1982. The children will meet with the Kindergarten teachers, have vision and hearing tests, and take a short bus ride. Parents should bring birth certificates and immunization records.

All children will not be given academic testing this year. For those parents who are unsure if their child is ready for Kindergarten a testing opportunity can be made on June 2nd.

There will be more information at a later date.

Letter To The Editor

This letter is written in response to the recent appointment by the Manchester Village Council of Mr. Dick Tracy to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Councilman Martin Anthony. I am sure the Council feels Mr. Tracy will be an asset to our Village government. I question their consideration of the sincere interest expressed by the three other persons who ran in the primary and caucus election, and subsequently submitted their personal resumes in response to the published notice of the vacancy.

I feel it takes a genuine commitment and interest to solicit enough public support to run in a primary election, and I assume Council respected this effort in making their decision among the candidates who filed resumes. From the standpoint of a voter, I would hope that Council acknowledged the priorities expressed by the 151 concerned Village residents who voted in the March election and the 236 who voted in the February primary.

Very truly yours,
Diane S. Wiedmayer

Track Season Underway

The Manchester High Girls Track team has competed in three meets and one invitational. Saturday, April 24, they competed at the Grass Lake Invitational with fourteen Class C teams. The meet was highlighted by Kay Agn's three first place finishes in the 100 yard, 200 yard and the 200 yard hurdles. Kay Eversole picked up Manchester's only other team win with a sixth place finish in the 400 yard run.

April 15 - Shockridge Hl. Manchester - Kay Agn. won three first places in the 100 meter run, the 200 meter run and the 200 meter hurdles and the Dutch in points. Patricia Ricketts' first in the discus was the only first place finish for Manchester.

April 26 - The Dutch beat Ann Arbor (Gaines) Renaro 70-58 and East Jackson 67-54 in a double-dual meet. First place winners for the Dutch were: Kay Agn - 100 meters, 200 meters, 100 meter hurdles, 200 meter hurdles (a new school record of 15.7 in the 100 meter hurdles); Kay Eversole - shot put, 400 meters; and Linda Rose - 1600 meters.

Winning first places for the first time in their track careers were Sarah Platt in the 800 meters and Laurie Fushier in the 3200 meters.

Others picking their first points in track were: Masey Walkow - high jump, second place; Betsy Boyle - 800 meters, second place; Erin Krause - long jump, third place; and Beal Fahy - 400 meters, second place.

TEENS AND CONTRACEPTION

Many of you have probably heard or read about the proposed new regulations which would require Federally funded family planning programs to notify parents after teenagers are provided with contraceptive devices or drugs. On the face of it, this may seem a reasonable rule which will help assure family participation in providing family planning services.

However, most public health and social services agencies are extremely concerned about the impact of such a rule. Their concern is that the rule will prevent many teenagers from receiving professional counseling and contraceptive services, and as a result, lead to an increase in the already large number of teenage pregnancies.

At present, family planning programs are required to encourage family participation. In most such clinics, when a teen under 18 asks for a contraceptive method, she must first see a counselor who discusses her relationship with her parents and whether or not they know about her decision to use contraceptives. She is encouraged to involve her parents and, in practice, close to half of the teenagers do so. The others have good reasons not to, and are not forced to do so. If not assured of confidentiality they would not come to the clinic at all.

Our data indicate that teenagers almost never seek birth control methods before or even after beginning sexual activity. Most have been sexually active for months before seeking services. So the proposed rule would have no effect on teenage sexual activity, only on the provision of counseling and of contraceptives.

In Michigan, the law allows treatment of teenagers for venereal disease without parental knowledge or consent, and this has been a major factor in the success of VD clinics across the state. In addition, there are very stringent rules assuring confidentiality for teens in our substance abuse programs. And in a 1976 decision, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth District ruled that in the absence of a Constitutional Amendment requiring it, there is no basis for a Federal court to require notification of parents of a minor receiving contraceptive services.

Physically, teenage pregnancies are often at high risk for both mothers and babies. This is already a public health problem. The concern is that promulgation of the rule required parental notification would significantly increase the problem.

Fair Board Trims Budget

State Aid funds for the Manchester Community Fair have dropped from $6,771.98 in 1981 to $3,603.00 for 1982. The Fair Board has reluctantly decided to raise gate prices to $2.00 per day and $7.00 per season pass. Discounted prices are planned for Senior Citizens (age 62 and over), parents of Steer and Lamb club members and Food Tent workers. It was also decided that premiums would be changed this year reflecting the reduction in State aid.

The Senior Food Tent will be staffed this year by the class of 1984 Senior Trip Club as there is no Trip Club for the class of 1983. The grounds will be cleaned after the fair by the football team.

Other business included discussions of tent sizes for the Steer and Lamb Clubs and the resignations of Roseann Hawk and Mary Helen Davis.

Several members planned to attend the April 21 meeting of area fairs. They will report their findings at the May 10 meeting.

The Fair Board is looking for someone to coordinate the Tuesday night fair parade and also someone to replace Kay Roesch and Maxine Widmayer, who have worked for many years with the contestants in the Queen's contest.

The Manchester Fair Board meets on May 10 at 8:00 p.m. in the meeting room at the Ann Arbor Bank & Trust. Any interested community members are welcome.

Beta Sigma Phi's Celebrate 51st Anniversary

Government officials across the world are signing proclamations recognizing April 30, 1982 as the start of Beta Sigma Phi Year in their cities, states and provinces.

This women's social, service and cultural organization celebrates its anniversary on this date, and Founder's Day activities will be held this year in Adrian, sponsored by the Bi-County City Council. Beta Sigma Phi is the largest Greek letter sorority in the world, and has grown from one chapter of seven women in 1931, to include 250,000 members in 12,500 chapters throughout the world.

Cultural, social and service activities dot the calendars of each Beta Sigma Phi in the Manchester Area. Manchester chapters include Lambda Nu and Xi Epsilon Iota. Each chapter holds its own activities, as well as attending together for traditional and special events. Lambda Nu will again be joining with chapters in Adrian, Tecumseh and Dew-De Lake for Founder's Day activities in Adrian at the Moose Lodge, on April 28. Debbie Dix of Adrian has been chairman of the Founder's Day activities for the Bi-County City Council, and has been busy for nearly a year coordinating this event.

The "Woman of the Year" award will be presented on this evening to the Lambda Nu member voted by her sisters to be an outstanding member of her chapter and her community.

Lambda Nu activities this year have included our annual wreath sale, a joint talent auction with Xi Epsilon Iota, and our traditional Christmas and Easter socially. Service projects we have supported locally include the Men's Club fireworks for Independence Day, the newly-formed Student Council Scholarship, Special Olympics, and the United Way.

"Talk Back"

Last year's Washtenaw County high school graduates will have an opportunity to "talk back" to their schools over the next few weeks.

Area high schools will be asking former students for their opinions and other information concerning their school programs through a phone and/or mail survey. The survey will ask what the students are doing and how well the schools' curriculum served their needs.

The annual survey, conducted in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Education, provides information for planning more effective local and state educational programs.

Washtenaw Intermediate School District is helping to coordinate the survey in this area. Ken Handwerker, career education coordinator at WISD, said the contact with former students will be made by all Washtenaw high schools during April and May. Students are urged to respond to the survey so that as many as possible can be represented in improving the schools' programs. Parents and relatives can help by forwarding the survey or providing the students' phone numbers or addresses if they are away from home.

The identity of the survey respondents is kept confidential. The information is used only for planning and to improve programs and services. Area schools are concerned about how well their students' needs are being served.

Further information about the discussion series may be obtained by calling Miller at 663-3042.

The Society of Distinguished American High School Students announced today that three students from St. Barnabas Episcopal church are to be included in its membership for 1981.

The society, one of the most selective high school honoraries in the country, accepts only students nominated by their sponsors. To be nominated, students must excel in academics, extracurricular, or civic activities.

The student's sponsor, the late Mrs. Marian Kime, received a National Appreciation Award from the society for "being dedicated to the encouragement and assistance of students." One of the society's goals is to make membership an encouragement for top performance on the secondary school level.

Unique in concept, the society has combined this honor with its national

Shakespeare Club

"To ease another's heartache is to forget one's own" was the quotation of the day when ten members of the Shakespeare Reading Club met at the home of Mrs. Norman Bucholtz on March 30, 1982 in order to participate in the club's annual Service Day.

This year's project was to be the creation of warm and colorful lap robes which, on completion, would be presented to the Whitmore Lake Convalescent Home for distribution to patients who wanted or needed them.

The morning was devoted to piecing and sewing the lap robes and at noon there was an interlude for a gourmet and delicious luncheon, prepared and served by our hostess, assisted by Mrs. Earl Daisher. A short business meeting followed and Shakespeare's sonnet #10 was read and interpreted by Mrs. Jesse Walker.

Work on the lap robes was resumed and before the meeting was adjourned, many were completed and the rest were taken home for finishing touches.

On April 18th, the club convenes at the home of Mrs. Henry van der Schalie.

The penultimate meeting of the Shakespeare Reading Club was held on April 13, 1982 at the country home of Mrs. Henry van der Schalie, who anticipated a field trip, an afternoon of walking through the woods looking for and at wild flowers. The members arrived, suitably clad for the project, wearing boots and warm clothing, but, alas, the elements were uncooperative and only one skunk cabbage was available for viewing.

The group transferred to the house, which was admirably suited for the purpose at hand, with its large windows looking out over fields, woods, gardens, pond and the Raisin River. Mrs. van der Schalie delighted the club with a fireside talk, complete with picture slides of numerous wild flowers in their natural habitat. The flowers were photographed in many parts of the United States but the majority were taken on the van der Schalie's land at or near the Raisin River.

Many books about wild flowers were set out on a table to be scanned and enjoyed. The club members felt privileged to have Mrs. van der Schalie share her vast knowledge of Michigan's flora and fauna, in such an appropriate setting.

The roll call brought forth names and stories about innumerable wild flowers. Among those mentioned were day lily, hepatica, marsh-marigold, cinnamon fern, bird's foot violet, gentian, jessamine, trailing arbutus, lady's slipper, wild rose and trillium.

To finish the program, Mrs. Lowell Parr read an article titled "Sand-The World's Wondrous Building Block", which spoke of the many and diverse uses of this material, namely, glass-making, in the manufacture of computer parts to produce concrete and on beaches for recreation.

The school was for employees of businesses that carry Kent feeds and animal care products and was designed to help them better serve their livestock and poultry producer customers. Seventy dealer people attended sessions taught by members of the Kent nutrition, training, advertising, marketing, animal care and production departments. by Jon Hardenbergh

Things are happening and happening quickly as track, baseball and softball contests play every day. The time period for these sports run the rest of April and most of May so it's hectic.

Going back some 2 weeks ago, our schedule got us underway with boys and girls track, and varsity and junior varsity baseball. Our varsity boys hurlers opened well by downing Saline then remained undefeated by beating Grass Lake. Our J.V.'s unfortunately lost but I can't remember to whom. Both our boys and girls tracksters were downed by Stockbridge. For the girls, Kari Agin and Colette Rickelmann were our only two top point getters.

Following is a brief rundown of sport doings this past week (the ones I have stats for).

Monday I went to the boys varsity ball game and saw us fall for the first time this season to Dundee.

Tuesday, our track squads hosted several schools. Our boys didn't fare too well as Richard over-powered us, 96 to 36. First placers for us were Mike Hagerman with a discus toss of 125' 10". The long jump went to Tim Seegert as he flew 18'8". Mike was our only winner in running as he won the 100 dash in 11.2.

The girls had a big night as they out-raced Richard 73-54, then took care of East Jackson. The winners in the Richard battle were: shot put - Kay Eversole; 100 meter hurdles - Kari Agin (Kari did this in 15.7 for a new school record); 1,600 m run - Linda Rose; 400 m dash - Kay Eversole; 200 m low hurdles - Kari Agin; 800 m run - Sarah Platt; 3,200 m run - Laurie Fusilier and the 1,600 relay was done in 4:54.2 by Kay Eversole, Sarah Platt, Missy Walkow and Beth Fahey. In the East Jackson contest we had Kari Agin taking 100 m dash, 100 m hurdles, 200 m hurdles and the 200 m dash. Kay Eversole crossed first in the 400 m run while Laurie Fusilier again took the 3,200. Our same foursome as above captured the 1,600 relay.

Wednesday, saw our softball squad fall hard to Blissfield 23-8 as Kelly Gotts was our sole offensive weapon. Our boys also fell but much lighter as they held the 7-6 edge in the final inning. Blissfield brought home 2 for the 8-7 victory. Having 2 or more hits were: Randy Day, Bill Scully and Pete Johnson.

On Thursday, we saw Richard come to town and leave triumphant 11-8 over our boys and 13-0 over the girls. In the boys game they pounded out a 7 run second inning and we tried to catch up but couldn't. In the girls contest it turned out to be NO CONTEST as former student Alicia Seegert hurled a no-hitter.

Friday was again baseball day and it had good and sad news. First our girls won their first of the season 8-3 over Clinton behind the pitching of Jan Covel. The sad news is for our boys, as they went down for the fourth straight time 13-2 to Clinton.

Catcher Dave Malcolm throws to 2nd base.

Manchester Village Planning Commission

March 9, 1982

The Regular Meeting of the Manchester Village Planning Commission was called to order by Chairman Hinkley at 7:37 p.m. Members present: Alber, Smith, Leeson, Krauss, Grossman, Kallewaard, Hinkley and Walton (arrived 7:43). Absent: Tracy. A quorum was present.

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of February 9 were approved as read, on a motion by Grossman, seconded by Alber. Minutes of the Special Meeting of February 26 were approved as read, on a motion by Leeson, seconded by Krauss. Hinkley announced that minutes of the Public Hearing of February 26 had been placed on file.

Mrs. Moulton of 107 North Washington was present to submit a request to convert the single-family house at that address to a duplex. It is located in an R-1B District (Single-Family Urban Residential). Because the site plan did not conform to the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, the matter was tabled until the next regular Planning Commission meeting, at which time the Moultons expect to submit a revised plan.

The Secretary was requested to ask Fred Barkley of the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission to attend the next regular Planning Commission meeting, for a review of some sections of the Zoning Ordinance.

The application of the Black Sheep Repertory Theatre for a conditional use permit, to operate live repertory theatre in the former church building at the corner of West Main and Washington Streets, was considered. All members present agreed that the Theatre, as it is currently operated, would meet the requirements of Article 50.0, Section 50.06 of the Zoning Ordinance for Conditional Uses. There was a motion by Krauss, seconded by Leeson, that the Planning Commission recommend to Village Council the granting of a conditional use permit to the Black Sheep Repertory Theatre, to operate live repertory theatre in the former church building at West Main and North Washington Streets, subject to the following six conditions:

1. Performances must be scheduled to begin no earlier than 12 noon, and end no later than 11:30 p.m.
2. Internal and/or external sound shall be controlled so that there is no sound discernable at lot lines in excess of the average intensity of street and traffic noise at the lot lines.
3. No outdoor storage shall be permitted.
4. One sign, if desired, shall be allowed provided it conforms to the requirements of Article 53, Section 53.03.D of the Village Zoning Ordinance (not to exceed 18 square feet).
5. Foods to be available to theatre patrons should be limited to prepackaged, snack-type foods, and should not be prepared on the premises.
6. This permit shall expire two years after the date of approval by Village Council.

The motion was unanimously approved on a voice vote.

Alber reported on the preparation of a brochure that could be used in recruiting new business and/or industry to Manchester. He and Kallewaard will prepare a draft for review at the next regular Planning Commission meeting.

Hinkley reported that Pinnacle Engineering had been given final approval of architectural details of their building expansion, by himself and Alber as authorized by the Planning Commission. Pinnacle has been requested to plant some mature trees along their west property line, at the front of the lot.

Under New Business, the Commission began a review of fees and application forms for items covered by the Zoning Ordinance. Discussion will be continued at the next regular meeting.

Also under New Business, Alber outlined a program aimed at recruiting an educational institution to Manchester. He will continue to collect information on the subject, but action will be deferred until the above-mentioned brochure is ready. The meeting was adjourned at 9:24 p.m. Mary Kallewaard, Secretary

News Of Good Things Growing

It's almost time for fresh Michigan asparagus to arrive at our markets, signalling that at long last winter is gone and spring is really here.

Michigan ranks third among the states in asparagus production. The 1981 commercial harvest amounted to more than 17 million pounds, worth nearly $11 million, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

About 70 percent of the crop goes into processing, with the remaining 30 percent available for fresh market. It's a short season crop, so enjoy it while you can.

Incidentally, asparagus is an excellent source of vitamins A and C, iron, potassium and phosphorus. And there are just 35 calories in a cup of cooked asparagus - but remember that's not counting the butter or sauce you add.

I think nothing can beat the flavor of crisp, tender asparagus lightly dressed with butter and salt, and eaten as finger food. But here is another good recipe you might like to try.

Asparagus in Ambush is my adaptation of a James Beard recipe whose origin dates to early American cookbooks. I like the fanciful name and this is an attractive and unusual dish to serve for brunch.

Slice individual French rolls in half, scoop out most of the interior (saving the crumbs for another use), toast under the broiler until lightly browned, then brush with melted butter and keep warm.

Steam asparagus spears, which you have previously washed and trimmed, until just tender. Arrange the well-drained asparagus in the halves of rolls (you may have to cut to fit). Just before serving, top with hollandaise sauce, sprinkle lightly with paprika. Delicious! Figure on about three pounds of asparagus to fill six split rolls, serving 12 people.

Asparagus Vinaigrette can be served either hot or cold, dressed with oil and vinegar seasoned with herbs and salt. Or try mayonnaise to which you've added a little prepared mustard. Another choice could be sour cream flavored with dill or chives. Hard-cooked egg, mashed and blended with a little mustard, oil and seasonings, is another complementary dressing.

The average person spends about 20 years asleep.

Board Accepts Bid For School Roof

The Manchester Board of Education took action to award the project of roofing a portion of the high school to the Holt Roofing Company of Toledo, Ohio.

The Holt Company had submitted the low bid of $2.25 per square foot for a Firestone Rubber Roof System. Approximately 15,000 square feet of the high school roof will be completed with this project.

Board Members noted that with the completion of this phase approximately 40% of the high school will have been re-roofed during the current fiscal year. Earlier in the year the high school gym had been re-roofed with a Carlisle rubber system which has eliminated the leaking problems.

It is hoped that approval of the bond issue before the voters at the annual June election will permit the completion of the re-roofing project at all buildings. It was noted that re-roofing costs are significantly lower than had been anticipated permitting more of the work to be completed.

"Better Speech & Hearing Month"

Miss Leslie Szubeczek, Manchester Speech and Language Pathologist feeds "Mr. Snake" with kindergarteners Michael Springer and Rodney Macomber.

This is the first of a series of four weekly articles dealing with speech, hearing and language impairments on occasion of May being "Better Speech and Hearing Month". Each article will deal with speech, hearing and language impairments that could occur in preschool, elementary, junior high and high school children.

Speech, language and hearing impairments of preschool children are frequently unidentified. In general, the preschooler should be able to express himself so he can be understood by people outside of his family. One of the difficulties that could impair the preschool child's expression is an articulation disorder. An example would be a child who is producing such a number of sounds incorrectly that he cannot be understood. At this age, a few later developing sounds are usually

"Of Woods And Trees" In Art Gallery

Spring is here! And in honor of spring, The Manchester Art Guild's May show is titled "Of Woods and Trees". Several area artists and woodcraftsmen will be represented with works in media as diverse as oil paintings, basketry, and woodworking. The Michigan Woodworkers Guild will be assisting The Manchester Art Guild with selections for the exhibit. In addition, their member, Carter Blocksman from Grass Lake will jury the show.

Among the artists presenting their works for viewing will be Manchester's Jan Barbour. Her Choctaw Indian baskets have been featured in past exhibits. Also, John Rocus of Ann Arbor will be submitting a free form walnut table. The tree for this table was cut using a chainsaw mill which puts planks on the site. The slab in the table includes the croch of the tree measuring forty-one inches at its widest. Hal Horton of Dexter will submit several of his wooden animal sculptures.

Hours for the exhibit are Friday from 7:00-8:15 p.m., Saturday 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon and 7:00-8:15 p.m., and Sunday 3:00-4:00 p.m. The Manchester Art Gallery is located at 138 E. Main Street, adjacent to the lobby of the Black Sheep Theater. The exhibit will run from May 7 to 23. Private showings may be arranged by calling 428-8798.

HIT OR MISS by farley

My memories of popular music goes back, way back, to the days of World War I-to the days of "Oh How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning", "Over There", "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down On The Farm", "O How I Wish Again I Was In Michigan", and all the others that today bring forth a wave of nostalgia-they and all the rest of them that quickened the pulses and the marching footsteps of the 1917-1919's.

All of this wave of nostalgia was brought forth because the other night I was idly twisting the dial on my radio when it gave forth with a program of songs popular in World War II which included several-"It's Been a Long Long Time" and "The White Cliffs of Dover", and oh so many now almost forgotten melodies of the thirties and the forties. These songs brought back to my mind's eye oh so many memories of romantic spring evenings and waves of patriotism and pride in our country.

Irving Berlin once said that America's past can be recalled through its songs-this must have been before songs began producing memories instead of headaches.

It's impossible to hear "Night and Day" or "You Always Hurt the One You Love" or other songs of this period sung by Crosby or Sinatra without one's mind drifting back to the days of big bands and of the love affairs that bloomed during that period. Yesterday's music was not electronic, it was mostly gentle, and too it was haunting.

Most vocals were sung not shouted-except perhaps when Cab Calloway sang "Minnie the Moocher", and I can't see for the life of me how such sentimental electronic ballads as "Pac-Man Fever", whatever that is, will stir waves of nostalgia a couple of decades from now-instruments in the forties and fifties were played not abused by "practitioners of punk". It's true that Benny Goodman jumped a bit and Sinatra swooned and Fats Waller mumbled over "Three Itty Bitty Fishes In a Little Bitty Pool" and "Maisy Dotes and Little Lambs Adaisy" sung by the Kay Kaiser aggregation shall forever remain meaningless, nowhere was there to be obtained a glimpse of even one guitar or convolution.

However I insist that the music of Paul Whiteman, Wayne King or even Ben Bernie and his "Youzix" recall a vanished way of life that was different than Today's. Musical bedlam just can't be romantic-but mebbe romance too has vanished from our way of life.

Yes, things were different in those days from the forties through the fifties and even into the sixties. Many of us didn't have TV then, we only had radio, and on radio, romance persisted. Nobody was seen being massaged by anyone, and boudoir scenes were nonexistent.

The first roadside table was the invention of Allan M. Williams. He was an engineer-manager for the Ionia County Road Commission. He devised the picnic table in 1929, and had a road commission worker build it out of planks salvaged from old guard rails. The table was placed in Boston Township, Michigan. A historical marker was erected at the site in 1964.
