The Good Doctor

The Good Doctor by Neil Simon, opening May 7 at the Black Sheep Theatre, is a collection of scenes from the short stories of Anton Chekhov. Each is a perceptive character sketch containing pearls of comic truth. The play's action runs the gamut of human fancies and foibles - from the shy country actress giving the finest audition of her career to the "professional drowner" trying to sell his display of drowning and rescue to a passer by for three rubles. Simon gives contemporary flesh and bones to these charming and eccentric characters.

The Good Doctor is directed by Black Sheep veteran David Hunsburger. The versatile five person cast includes Joey Golden, Theresa McElwee, Joe McNally, Allison Maker, and Larry Rusinsky.

The Black Sheep Theatre will present The Good Doctor May 7 - 23 with performances on Friday and Saturday evening at 8:15 p.m. and on Sunday at 4:00 p.m. Ticket prices are $7, $5 seniors over sixty and college students, and $2 youth under 18 years. Group and dinner discounts are available. Call for information and reservations between noon and 6 p.m. (closed Monday) at (313) 428-9280.

Keeping Up With Spring Sports

Starting out on Monday, the Hudson Tigers came to town for a baseball and softball game. Unfortunately for us they left victorious in both. In the boy's contest Bill Scully took the mound but despite his two hits and Pete Johnson's double and triple, Hudson won 7-3. In the girl's game, Hudson won 14-10 but it seems the Tigers did let down and it almost cost them. They opened up going wild and scored 10 runs but we came back with 6 in the 4th inning. We did add 2 in the 5th and 2 in the 6th but it wasn't enough. Having 2 or more hits were: Leanne Goodwin, Beth Vleck, Mary Ridenour, Karen Dulle and Jan Coval.

Tuesday was track day and I don't know how the boys did but our girls got crushed by Blissfield. Kari again won 4 events-110 yd hurdles, 100 yd. dash, 220 yds. dash and 220 yd. hurdles. In the 440 yd. dash Kay Eversole crossed first.

All we have Wednesday is a heartbreaking loss to Onsted. Brad Stetler hurled excellent ball - shutting them out through 6 where they tallied twice. Going one better, their pitcher shut us out until the 7th where we scored only 1. Final 2-1.

After starting the season with 2 wins we've dropped 6.

Thursday was once again track day as we hosted Clinton. First in boy's, we did fall 89-43 but we fought well. Don Hagerman took the 100 m dash 11.6, Tim Seegert finished first in 200 m dash. In 5 minutes and .6 seconds, a happy Joe Achtenberg captured the 1,600 m run. Also in the 400 m relay Don Hagerman and Tim Seegert with Bunney and Nickles to take first. Our girls went down in a close one, 4 events but our only other first placer was Chris Weirich in the high jump.

In the poll for boys track this week in the area we have Don Hagerman in 10th position in the discus and 8th in the 100 dash. In the girls poll we have Kari Agin 8th in the 100 dash, 7th in the 220 dash, 2nd in both 110 hurdles and 220 hurdles. (Laura Spaid from Huron is leading narrowly). In the 440 dash we find Kay Eversole in 10th place.

Emmett Award for outstanding athletic and academic achievements and leadership. Bob is a junior at Siena Heights College.

In honor of Mrs. Florence Kirk's 100th birthday, the Jackson & Perkins Company sent 100 magnificent rose bushes as part of their Public Gardens Program, to be planted in Kirk Park. The Manchester Law Enforcement Explorers volunteered their time and effort to plant the roses on May 1, 1982. Michigan Week - May 15 thru 22

The 29th annual Michigan Week takes place May 15-22. Where? Everywhere in Michigan. In hamlets, towns, small cities, large cities, in schoolrooms and retail stores, in clubhouses and factories, in homes, churches, on playgrounds and in the streets. Michigan Week is a program of, by and for the people.

Michigan Week debuted in 1954 as a pick-up for a depressed economy, after a group of Michigan leaders had put their heads together and come up with the Michigan Week idea - a grassroots program in which Michigan citizens could help to pull their state up by the bootstraps.

The initial effort was so successful that the Michigan Week program has become an institution. Young and old band together to observe the eight special theme days - Community Pride Day, Saturday, May 15; Heritage Day, Sunday, May 16; Government Day, Monday, May 17; Senior Citizens Day, Tuesday, May 18; Livelihood Day, Wednesday, May 19; Education Day, Thursday, May 20; Hospitality Day, Friday, May 21, and Youth Day, Saturday, May 22.

Governor William G. Milliken traditionally attends the kickoff parade in Sturgis which opens Michigan Week. Mayors and village presidents will exchange offices on Government Day to "see how the other half does it." Marshall hosts the state Volunteer Leadership and Community Achievement awards on the same day.

The Michigan Bean Commission will be serving bean soup at the capitol on May 18. Education Day events include the annual Michigan Week dinner in Iron County and the Michigan Minuteman ceremony on the capitol steps in Lansing.

One of the Michigan's premier cultural events is the 20th annual Youth Arts Festival, to be held May 21-22 on the campus of Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. The Alma Highland Festival and Games on the last weekend of May officially concludes 1982 Michigan Week.

Memorial Day Parade

Memorial day will be celebrated on May 31st this year by the American Legion and other organizations in town with a Memorial Day Parade. The parade will start at the Main Street Bridge at 9:00 a.m., and will proceed from there to Wurster Park and on to the cemetery, where a brief service will be held. Speaker this year will be Rev. Stanley McKenzie.

The American Legion, Post #117, will then continue their tribute to those who have served our country at the Norvell Township cemetery.

At 2:00 on Memorial Day, the Legion will again sponsor a pig roast which is open to ALL Manchester area veterans and their families. This was a very popular event last year and we hope to make it even better this year. A potluck supper will accompany the pig roast; bring a dish to pass and table service.

Hope to see you on Memorial Day!

PROCEEDS TO HELP SUPPORT ATHLETIC PROGRAM

"Better Speech And Hearing Month"

This is the second in a series of four weekly articles dealing with speech, language, and hearing impairments in children. The focus of this article will be on language disorders in elementary school children. I have chosen to describe an average day in the life of a typical language impaired child, Tommy Burden is not a real child but his problems are similar to those seen in children like him.

Tommy Burden, an eight year old boy, with normal intelligence, was in the third grade. Today was a special day for Tommy because he was going to his friend Billy's home after school.

After Tommy dressed for school, he rushed to his mother and asked, as he had for the last five days, "today, I go Billy's?" (Tommy has difficulty forming grammatically correct sentences.) His mother replied, "Yes", and she gave him a note to explain to his teacher. Mrs. Burden then asked Tommy what kind of cereal he would like. Tommy could not seem to remember the name, "uh, uh, the kind, that one, you know...it goes 'Snap, Crackle, Pop'. (Often Tommy has trouble naming things even though he can describe the item in detail.)

As recess time approached, the teacher asked the children to line up. Tommy was told to be third in line but he rushed to the front of the line and argued, "I'm here". (Tommy did not know what third meant.) The rest of the morning progressed nicely.

Tommy was good at math computation and completed his assignments.

At lunch, Tommy tried to get rid of his raisins by giving them to friends. One little girl pointed to the boy next to her and complained, "Tommy, how come I got less than he did?" Tommy, confused about the meaning of "less" took some raisins away from her and gave them to someone else. (Language impaired children frequently have difficulty with concepts of quantity such as more, less, and equal.)

For the social studies lesson, the teacher pulled down the wall map and asked the children to identify the state above Illinois. Tommy replied, "Tennessee" because he confused the concepts "above" and "below". At the end of the day the teacher got ready to flip the day on the calendar and said, "Today is Monday. When I see you tomorrow, it will be what day?" Tommy called out "Saturday". (Language impaired children frequently have difficulty sequencing events, days of the week, months and seasons.)

This is a diagram of a typical language impaired child. It is important to realize that any child without a language problem could display some of these characteristics. However, when a clustering of characteristics occur it can be indicative of a language problem.

The Manchester School District has a Speech and Language Pathologist who is available to deal with any child who is experiencing speech, language or hearing difficulties. If you know of a child who may be displaying any of the above difficulties, please contact Miss Leslie Saubczek at Klager School.

Remember, May is "Better Speech and Hearing Month".

LAWN and GARDEN TIPS

SPRING WEED CONTROL

A compressed air sprayer is ideal for spot lawn weed control.

Spring weather is always welcome at the end of a long winter but the troublesome weeds that accompany warm weather are never welcome. Most weeds can be controlled in the spring with a spray program. And the annuals—such as crabgrass—are prime candidates for pre-emergence control in early spring.

According to the National Sprayer and Duster Association, control of crabgrass and other annual weeds is best achieved by spraying with coarse droplets, 18 inches or less from the grass. This distributes the spray evenly and minimizes drifting onto and harming non-target plants.

It's best to select one sprayer for weed control, mark it plainly and use it only for that purpose. Weed killers are hard to clean out of sprayers, and even a small residue could cause problems if the same sprayer were later used on vegetables, flowering plants or ornamentals.

See your garden supply retailer or county agent for assistance in choosing the right weed control material for your lawn. Always follow label instructions carefully.

During the warm weather keep in mind that a thick, healthy turf helps prevent crabgrass and other troublesome weeds. Weeds, like other plants, need moisture and nutrients to survive. If your lawn is so thick that there's no place for weeds to start, then weeds won't have a chance. Good cultural practices—including regular mowing, watering and spraying for insects and disease—help develop a dense turf and prevent weed invasion through the season.

Cooperatively Speaking

The Cooperatively Speaking Manchester Food Co-op will hold its monthly ordering/business meeting on Monday, May 17 at 7:00 P.M. The meeting will be held in the American Legion House on the corner of Adrian and Duncan streets. Current members are reminded to turn their monthly orders in to Ray Meyer no later than Saturday, May 15.

Cooperatively Speaking is made up of twenty-five local families who buy quality whole foods in bulk. Some of our members joined a co-op because they're interested in buying unrefined, nutritious foods that aren't available in grocery stores. Some of our members are primarily interested in the money they save buying in quantity. Everyone enjoys the good fellowship, a chance to meet new friends, and the opportunity to learn more about whole foods and good nutrition. If you think you might be interested in joining us, please contact Marsha Chartrand at 428-8831 for more information.

Lambda Nu announced that we are purchasing rose bushes for our yards in keeping with our International theme, "Circle The World With Yellow Roses."

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the Woman of the Year. Lambda Nu is proud to announce that Diana Parr is our 1981-1982 Woman of the Year. This honor is given to the girl in each chapter who best exemplifies the characteristics of Life, Learning and Friendship which is the motto of our sorority. Diana has certainly earned this over the past year, by keeping a cheerful attitude at all times, and being a true sister to us all. Her help has been invaluable in coordinating many of our activities this year, including our wreath sale and Christmas party. She has been our corresponding secretary and has chaired our convention activities.

Diana and her husband Doug, live on Logan Road with their two daughters, Jodi and Kelly. She keeps plenty busy with her family activities too, so we doubly appreciate all the time she's given to sorority this year! Lambda Nu wants to say "Congratulations!" and "Thank You, Diana!"

HIT OR MISS by farley

A woman who lives in a large southern California town has written to a friend with great anguish, chronicling her distaste with small town life. Her epistle rather fascinates me. She seems to feel that us inhabitants of small towns in

THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE
America's heart are underprivileged, rather ignorant and all in all suffering from a lack of many things, most of which I didn't even know we lacked and some of which I'm sure that we don't even want.

In her letter to a friend she describes the town where she was forced to spend some time as being "out in the middle of nowhere and it offered such a meager life. There's no place to go. It even has a small inadequate library for example."

"What astonishes me is that people are content to stay in that forsaken place and are not teaming with rebelliousness and anger and flaming impulsion to leave. There's none of the atmosphere of competitive, energetic drive that big city folks grow up with."

"I guess maybe the nearness of evil is what the small town lacks. It's so small that everybody knows so much so the individual is forced into an almost purity of behavior or intent. There is no wisecracking innuendo of urban life."

"There must be thousands of these little towns like that. How limited are the educational advantages of these people, and how dull. For instance I met one woman who plays piano well and also plays violin in a tiny string ensemble. She has been in town most of her adult life—why I can't imagine and she says there are only a couple of dozen folks in town who have any appreciation of classical music for instance. Must be all the kids hear is country-western garbage."

"The local schools are small with no fancy pants curriculum, and the kids are woefully ignorant about museums and art. It's too secure, too simple, too boring. I guess I'm a big city snob who has swallowed all that claptrap about the wholesomeness, the safety and the virtues of small/midwestern towns but I don't like them. It's like not liking motherhood and apple pie."

apple pie."
My friend called the lady up in the small town at 7:00 p.m. and found her in. "Is it a bad time", he asked. "Are you going out?"
"No, I'm stuffing myself with a hamburger and watching the boob tube."
"I don't want to intrude on your culture hour," she replied.
"No," she replied. "I stopped at the library and picked up a book. It's called 'Going Crazy—an Inquiry Into Madness In Our Time'."

I don't feel sorry for her any more said my friend, she had a hamburger and a good book and the boob tube.

I had an idea that many of us were spending our evenings the same way. We didn't miss the thrills of big city life where murder and arson were a daily part of our existence, even though we had no cultural advantages, where we know and like our neighbors—most of them—and where we could have all of the cultural advantages she so sorely missed—within an hour of home—where we lead a simple yet satisfactory life—where there hasn't been a murder since anyone can hardly remember and where our children can learn the basic qualities of life—in the peace and quiet of a bunch of people who—most of them—live by the Golden Rule and don't even know enough to be bored by our incomplete existence. We still like motherhood and apple pie.

Retirement is that time when the sun rises and you don't.

Michigan's Energy Costs . . .
Lower than most large U.S. cities

A recent survey has discovered some reassuring news for Michigan residents beleaguered by rising energy costs.

Few areas of the United States have escaped the sting that inflation and natural gas deregulation have dealt heating and electric bills. But the survey indicates that many Michigan residents have been hit less hard than persons living in other parts of the country.

The survey studied electric and gas bills in America's 25 largest cities. On separate lists, the survey ranked gas and electric service in the cities from cheapest to most expensive.

Only two cities—Memphis and Indianapolis—showed up among the cheapest cities for both gas and electric service. Not even Sunbelt cities like Houston, Phoenix and New Orleans could make that claim. The bills were based on consumption of 500 kilowatt-hours of electricity and 100 ccf of gas.

How does Michigan stack up? Consumers Power Company compared its bills for identical consumption with bills in America's 25 largest cities. The result: the company's bills, like those in Memphis and Indianapolis, are among the cheapest for both gas and electric service.

The comparison shows that the company's customers are paying less for comparable usage than residents in many other parts of the country. The survey comes at a time when growing concern about energy prices has turned things like insulation, weatherstripping and home energy analysis into household words.

The nation has been buffeted by an inflation rate that has pushed the Consumer Price Index up 135 percent since 1970. Prices have escalated for almost everything including clothing, food, homes, electricity and heating fuels. In fact, it would take $2.34 today to match $1 worth of 1970 buying power.

Consumers Power Company's electric rates have increased more slowly than the Consumer Price Index. Still, inflation has taken a heavy toll.

For example, a typical residential electric customer of Consumers Power Company using 500 kilowatt-hours, paid an average of $12.12 a month in 1970. Any electric customer can tell you he is paying much more than that in 1982 dollars.

Restating today's bill in 1970 dollars shows the reason is inflation. If inflation could be eliminated, under our current rate structure an average monthly electric bill for 500 kilowatt-hours would only be $12.50 or $11.37 today, depending on the customer's kilowatt rate.

Without inflation, the price of electricity has remained virtually unchanged for the last 12 years.

Typing teacher Mr. Tim Strang helps Sally Koebbe with an elementary story

Each one of Klager's 377 students is writing and binding a finished book this month. Publishing 377 stories is not an easy task and the children have had lots of help. Besides the teachers who have helped the children write and edit their stories, Mr. Tim Strang's high school typing class has typed hundreds of stories, and over 30 parents have helped the children sew their bindings and iron on wallpaper covers.

The bound books will be illustrated by the children and will be read to each other. On May 18th Klager will celebrate with their own Young Author's Day where each child will read their book to a small audience and attend fun mini-sessions.

First Graders Learn About Careers

What do you do if you're a Doctor? A Fire Fighter? A Mechanic? A Banker? Mrs. Yvonne Henry's class has been exploring the world of work and learning about many occupations. The first graders have worked on an assembly line (making popcorn to sell to the school), tried out a number of occupations (as these photos illustrate) and have taken field trips to explore other jobs. The first graders learned about the theater with Teri Haibbitts at the Black Sheep Theater. They will visit an Ann Arbor animal hospital, Chuckie Cheese to tour the restaurant business and the Jiffy Cake Mix plant in Chelsea to watch an assembly line process.

Ann Sless tries out being a cook

The students are planning their own theater night for their parents where they'll show slides of their Career Education Unit and tell about how much they've learned.

A very important part of career education is helping children learn about themselves and their interests so they will be able to choose a satisfying job in the future. Mrs. Henry's class has been making books "About Me" and other activities to help them learn about themselves. She also emphasizes that both boys and girls can be anything they want to be.

Legislative Update

Welfare Reform Taking Hold - Recent reform of Michigan's welfare programs is beginning to show positive results, for the state's taxpayers. A federal review of Michigan Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) shows a drop in misspent funds to 7.2%. Michigan's smallest error rate ever. In 1974, the error rate reached a high of 14.7%.

Oil and Gas Industry Aids Michigan's Economy - While most areas of Michigan's economy indicate historical lows, the oil and gas industry in the state is posting all-time highs. Revenues from Michigan's oil and gas severance tax, for example, are up 76% from last year. In dollars, that means $82.7 million has been added to the state treasury during the past year. And on June 8-9, the Department of Natural Resources will be taking bids on oil and gas drilling rights for 55,472 state-owned acres in 13 northern lower Michigan counties.

Profits From Drug Dealing - Illegal profits and assets from drug dealing could be turned over to the state treasury under Republican-sponsored legislation recently introduced in the Michigan House of Representatives. The proposed law, used together with the new federal Civil Forfeiture Law, would allow the state to seize bank accounts, property and money if it could be proven that they were earned from drug dealing. Because illegally accumulated assets fall under the civil law, they can be forfeited even if there is no criminal conviction. Had the proposal been enacted last year, it would have provided over $5 million in additional revenues for the state.

New Ballot Proposal Initiated - A proposed state constitutional amendment has been initiated and the proponents of the measure would like to allow public schools to charge fees for certain non-academic programs to ensure that programs such as sports, music, and other extra-curricular activities are not cut from financially-strapped school systems. A recent ruling from the Attorney General's office states that charging students (or parents) fees for participation in school-sanctioned programs or activities is unconstitutional.

Western Michigan Festivals - This week marks the opening of the Holland Tulip Festival, one of the nation's largest annual pageants, surpassed only by New Orleans' Mardi Gras and Pasadena's Tournament of Roses. The traditional street-scrubbing parade will be held on May 12, with the Children's Parade on May 13, and the Parade of Bands on May 15, all in downtown Holland...over thirty western Michigan service clubs and women's organizations will present the Fourth Annual Mayfest at Muskegon Community College on May 16. HYPERTENSION

Instead of my usual column this week, I thought it might be fun to give you a little True/False Quiz.

1. A person with hypertension suffers from extreme stress. True or False
2. Hypertension usually begins from age 35 to 50. True or False
3. Men have hypertension more often than women. True or False
4. Blacks are twice as apt to have hypertension. True or False
5. Fainting is a symptom of hypertension. True or False
6. Hypertension is incurable. True or False
7. If you have hypertension, you will know it. True or False
8. If you have hypertension, it's your own fault. True or False
9. Hypertension often runs in the family. True or False
10. The higher your blood pressure the shorter your life expectancy. True or False

- Answers
1. False, hypertension means high blood pressure. Continual stress can lead to high blood pressure but only if you're prone to it already.
 2. True, but it can occur at any age.
 3. True.
 4. True.
 5. False, fainting is more likely to be caused by low blood pressure.
 6. True, but it is readily treatable and controllable, especially if found early.
 7. True.
 8. False, hypertension has many causes beyond your control. However losing weight, not smoking, and limiting salt all help reduce hypertension.

9. True. Strictly speaking, hypertension isn't hereditary but the tendency for it runs in a family.

10. True. Hypertension, if untreated, leads to arteriosclerosis, atherosclerosis heart disease, kidney disease, stroke, and even blindness.

If you got 7 or more right you did very well. If you didn't, I hope you know a little more about hypertension than you did before taking this quiz. If you're over 21 the chances are 1 in 7 that you already have hypertension. Now is the time to watch your blood pressure. Get a check-up once a year, get enough rest and exercise, eat the right foods, and if your doctor prescribes treatment, follow his advice no matter how good you feel.

Check IRS Credentials
Persons posing as employees of the Internal Revenue Service occasionally attempt to harass taxpayers, or collect money for what the imposter claims are unpaid taxes, the IRS says.
Taxpayers should request to see the credentials of any individual claiming to represent the IRS. Every IRS employee who makes contact with the public is required to carry distinctive identification and must show this when conducting official business.
In almost every instance, taxpayers who owe money to the IRS will receive written notification before being contacted in person.
Taxpayers who are unsure of the identity of the person presenting IRS credentials, who doubt the validity of the credentials offered, or who suspect the use of nonstandard procedures, should call the IRS's Internal Security Division, Office of Regional Inspector, collect at 313-226-7340.

News Of Good Things Growing

by Margaret G. McCall

Sharpen your knives, polish the copper pots, clear your kitchen counters for action. The glory of good things growing in Michigan is about to burst forth in all its magnificent colorful array.

Asparagus from Michigan fields is the advance agent. Then comes a continuing procession of fresh fruits and vegetables - more than 50 - count 'em - which will provide fresh eating enjoyment until after the frosts of autumn.

Plan now to visit your local farmers' market at least weekly, or schedule trips to roadside markets and pick-your-own farms. We have just the guide you need. It's the 1982 Country Carousel, a booklet which fits neatly into the glove compartment of your auto, and lists more than 1,000 farms and roadside markets ready to offer you the harvest of Michigan fields and orchards.

Country Carousels has been updated annually and published each of the last 10 years. Each year more farms are listed, each year the consumer demand for this helpful booklet increases. This year we've also made certain all the Michigan wineries are listed.

You can save money if you pick your own fresh produce, since you're cutting the farmer's harvesting costs. And you can insure you have the freshest produce available - you'll know when it was picked if you pick it yourself. Consult your cookbooks for ways to preserve all this bountiful harvest, and your family will be patting you on the back next winter when you bring out the homemade jams and jellies, canned and frozen products.

Open House At Washtenaw College

The public is invited to attend a free open house at Washtenaw Community College Sunday, May 16 from 1-5 p.m. A wide range of events has been planned including hot air balloon demonstrations, free auto emissions tests, free blood pressure screenings, free dental exams and x-rays, technical demonstrations, tours, concerts, play and dance performances as well as free refreshments.

The open house is being held in celebration of the College's fifteenth anniversary and will include among the more than sixty special events of the day the dedication of the new Occupational Education Building and the landmark sculpture symbolizing the College's "Open Door" philosophy.

Other events include free caricatures, magic shows, art exhibits, mini-career workshops, nature trail walks and greenhouse tours, geology films, computer graphics and photography printing demonstrations, clown acts, balloons, sing-alongs, games for children as well as many technical and industrial demonstrations.

Questions regarding the event should be directed to WCC staff at (313) 973-3622.

Driver Licenses Renewable By Mail

Michigan motorists who are eligible to renew driver licenses by mail will begin receiving license renewal applications this week, Secretary of State Richard H. Austin announced today.

To be eligible, motorists must have a clean driving record without points, convictions or accidents for the last four years, and must be under 71 years of age. Approximately half of Michigan's 6.5 million drivers are expected to be eligible.

Austin said all eligible drivers will be notified 45 days before their present licenses expire. Driver's licenses expire on birthdays. Drivers who are not eligible to renew by mail will be instructed to visit a branch office for renewal.

A new law, effective June 15, permits the Department of State to renew licenses by mail for one time only. Renewing licenses by mail is expected to save an estimated $500,000 annually, Austin said.

Spring Sports

by Jon Hardenbergh

Before going into Monday's baseball and softball happenings I must briefly say that on Saturday our boys got back on the winning track. We squared off against Brooklyn Columbia Central and although they scored 2 runs right away we came back with 5. We went on to victory 10-9 with Ron Melcher getting the win with good support from hurlers Pat Ridenour and Randy Day. Having 2 or more hits: Randy Day, Bill Scully, Jim Krzyzaniak and Brad Stetler. Now on Monday, the Panthers from Addison came to town. In girls softball we jumped ahead right off the bat by crossing home 6 times and continued on winning, 16-6. Leanne Goodwin and Brenda Rose were our pitchers and we now have a 3-6 over-all record. Having 2 or more hits: Jan Coval, Brenda Rose and Karen Dulle. In boys action - our winning ways were short lived. Addison rapped for 6 runs in the first and we answered with 3 but they did manage to hold us down finally, 9-5. Having 2 or more hits: Brad Stetler and Randy Day. Our over-all record is presently 3-7.

On Wednesday, both our baseball squads traveled to Dundee and neither fared too well. First in the boys contest - it was a heartbreaker as we tripped 6-5. Randy Day and Ron Melcher were on the mound as only Randy Day and Pete Johnson got more than 2 hits. In the girls game again it hurt - we led 9-7 in the sixth and they rallied for 4 to win 11-9. The hurlers today were Leanne Goodwin, Brenda Rose and Karen Dulle as Brenda Rose, Colette Rickleman, Beth Vleek and Julie Gebhardt had 2 or more hits.

Thursday was a bad day for our track boys and girls as Onsted out-raced them. Don Hagerman was our one man army in winning the shot put (48'6"), discus (139'1"), 100 dash (11.34) and the 200 run (23.3) but this wasn't enough as Onsted won 98-34. In the girls meet the final was pretty much the same, 86.5 to 86.5. Charlotte Rickleman took the shot put and discus as Kari Agin won her 4 events, (100 dash, 200 run, 100 hurdles and 200 hurdles).

Closing this week out I must mention the beautiful day Saturday for the Manchester metries. It was a fun day and real fun for Blissfield boys and Milan girls as they were the winners.

You can't have much respect for the local government that bans the burning of leaves but permits the smoking of nickel cigars.

Cards Of Thanks

I would like to thank Cliff and Jerry for the fine job they did at my auction. Also all of the buyers and everyone else involved. Maynard Kidd.

I honestly don't know how to thank everyone who helped with food, etc. for my family, for your prayers, visits, phone calls, cards, flowers and other gifts while I was in the hospital and since I've returned home.

So many times I've read various thank you's in this paper, but like probably many others I've really taken for granted the deep feelings of gratitude that the people felt that put these thank you's in the Enterprise.

If I tried to individually thank everyone, I'm sure I would forgetfully leave someone deserving out, so I'd simply like to say a sincere thank you to all my neighbors, friends, co-workers and especially my family. If anyone can show me a town or group of people such as those that live in Manchester that respond to the needs of others like this town does they also are very lucky people.

Thank you,
Leon G. Ball

We would like to express our appreciation to our friends, neighbors and relatives for their acts of kindness, gifts, flowers, and cards during the loss of our loved one.

A special thanks to the Edison Barker family, Rev. Ron Iris, Sharon United Methodist Women, and Ron and June Jenter.

The Family Of James Ray Flint

I would like to thank all the very nice people that sent me cards and flowers during my stay in the hospital and since my return home.

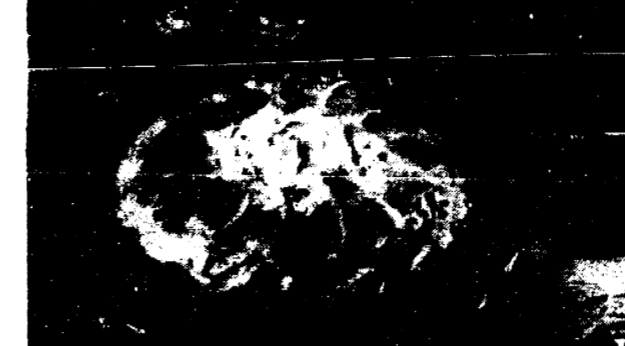

Thanks to the Manchester Fire Department and the Huron Valley Ambulance for their very fast and efficient service.

Thanks again,
Wanda Hone

CORDIAL PIE GREET'S HOLIDAYS

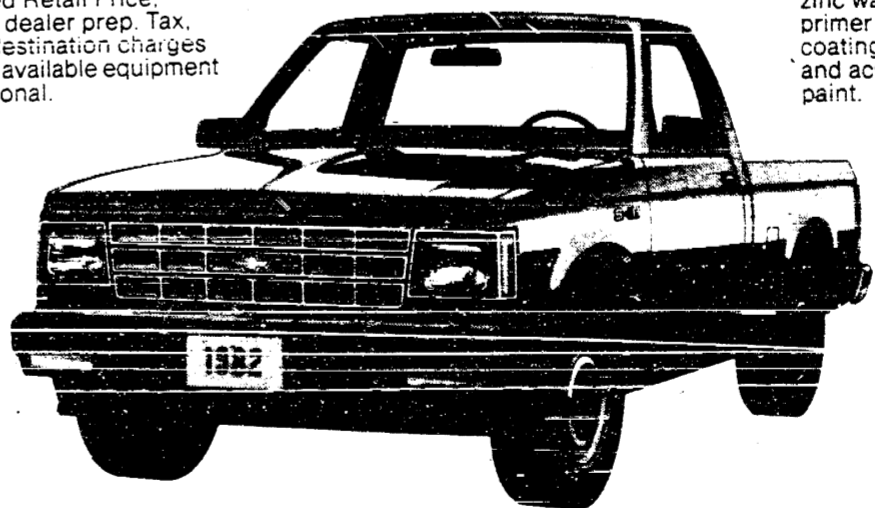

As you anticipate holidays, count on simplified make-ahead desserts to see you through easy entertaining. Conversation most often lingers over a great dessert - Fluffy Orange Almond Pie, for example. This make-ahead-and-chill pie owes its light and fluffy texture to whipped topping mix -- the dry mix that comes in envelopes. All you need is one mixing bowl to blend the whipped topping mix as directed, then, beat in additional milk, vanilla flavor instant pudding and pie filling and orange liqueur. Chopped toasted almonds are folded into the mixture before all is chilled for about four hours. Garnish of quartered orange slices is a clue to the flavor of the luscious pie.

FLUFFY ORANGE ALMOND PIE
2 envelopes Dream Whip whipped topping mix
2-1/2 cups cold milk
2 packages (4-serving size) Jell-O vanilla flavor instant pudding and pie filling
1/4 cup orange liqueur
1/2 cup chopped toasted almonds
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled

Prepare whipped topping mix with 1 cup of the milk as directed on package, using mixer bowl. Add remaining 1-1/2 cups milk, the pie filling mix and liqueur. Blend; then beat at high speed for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Fold in almonds and spoon into pie shell. Chill at least 4 hours. Garnish with quartered orange slices, if desired.

Rabies-A Growing Problem

Wildlife rabies is increasing and along with it is an increasing risk to people and their pets, according to the Michigan Veterinary Medical Association. Last summer a young girl in Dearborn, Michigan, was bitten by her own dog. The dog was confirmed as having rabies and the girl was successfully treated. A Tucson, Arizona, man was less fortunate. The same summer he was bitten by his dog, but testing for rabies on the dog's brain was negative. The man did not undergo treatment. Subsequently, he developed signs of rabies and died.

The Center for Disease Control in Atlanta reports the incidence of confirmed rabies has increased from 3,298 in 1978 to over 7,000 in 1981.

Last year rabies was more common in cats than in dogs. Part of the problem is that most areas do not require cats to be vaccinated. The most common source of exposure is the growing skunk population. Other high risk wild animals are foxes, bats, and raccoons.

What happens if your dog or cat is bitten by a confirmed rabid animal? If your pet isn't currently vaccinated against rabies, you can choose between a six-months locked-enclosure quarantine or humane euthanasia. If your pet is currently vaccinated against rabies, a three-months quarantine is required. Your pet will be vaccinated at the beginning and the end of the quarantine.

You can protect yourself and your pets by: (1) keeping your pet's vaccinations current, (2) avoiding wild animal contact by not letting your pet run free, (3) avoiding skunks, raccoons, bats, and foxes—these are not recommended pets, and (4) knowing that rabies vaccination is available to people but is generally only given to people who are at high risk.

Area Persons Recognized

Forty-five area employers and educators met May 6 for an "Employer Education Breakfast" sponsored by the South & West Washtenaw Consortium. Participants represented the schools, chambers of commerce and employers from the five municipalities of Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, Milan and Saline.

Rodney Benson, executive director of the Greater Ann Arbor Chamber of Commerce, stressed the importance of people and their education in the current local and state push in high tech industry. Benson praised the work of the Consortium in vocational education and for bringing together employers and educators. Partnership of business and industry with vocational education is critical for all.

Employers received information on the vocational education consortium of the five local schools and heard from two of their own explain the value of their involvement with vocational education. Ms. Jan Fyall, Personnel Specialist for Bechtel Power Corporation spoke of the employment of Co-op students, and Bruce Blankenship, Personnel Director at Braun-Brumfield, Inc. explained how involvement on Vocational Advisory Committees allows for input in vocational programs. Both firms actively use Co-operative Education students and employ vocational education graduates.

Certificates of Appreciation for outstanding contribution to vocational education were presented to ten people nominated and selected by the schools. The certificates were jointly from the Michigan Department of Education and the National Alliance of Business and Industry. Recipients include Barbara Steele, Chelsea Community Hospital and Ted Hanss, Hoover Universal Inc. of Manchester.

HIT OR MISS by farley

To the several folks who called me and expressed their thanks for my recent column on the fact that it had been discovered that many high school graduates could not read nor write, nor spell, nor add nor subtract, nor multiply, nor divide with the amount of skills that most of us would suspect that they should have.

I find that I am not the only one who has written columns about this condition. Some have been very serious about the condition while others have treated it with humor and sarcasm. Art Buchwald, well known for his dry sense of humor had one the other day that I greatly enjoyed and if you don't object, may I share it with you?

He said: "Linda Peepuls was giving the dinner. When dessert was finished she said 'I have some exciting news for all of you. My son George just read his first book.' We all raised our wine glasses to toast the occasion.

"How old is George?" Reilly said. "He'll be 18 next month," Linda said. "George has always been a bright student," said Linda.

"What book did he read?" Frances Huff wanted to know.

"J.D. Salinger's Catcher In the Rye." There was an embarrassed silence at the table.

"What's wrong?" Linda wanted to know.

"Catcher In the Rye is a dirty book." I said.

"He found it in the school library," Linda said.

Eekstrom was outraged. "You ought to report the librarian to the school board. They probably don't even know it's there."

"But George seemed to enjoy it," Linda said defensively.

"Sure he enjoyed it," Reilly said. "It's full of sex and bad words. But it doesn't belong in a high school library. The next thing you know George will be reading Huckleberry Finn and Kurt Vonnegut's

Students displaying their collections of senior-year art work are: Randy Day, Don Hagerman, Carla Litteral, Brian Mahan, Connie Patrick, Kim Johnson, Linda Minor, Carol Widmayer, Vicki Lehr, Laurie Fusilier, Jim DuRusael, Julie Honer, Jodi Huber, Kathy Mahony, Kim Richards and Shelly Bates.

The exhibition opens Friday, May 21 and runs through June 1.

The show can be viewed during bank lobby hours: Monday through Thursday from 9-4, Friday from 9-5, and Saturday from 9-noon.

Poppy Day

On May 21 and 22, the red crepe paper poppy will be offered to the public by the American Legion Auxiliary and Post. This reminder of the sacrifice of countless thousands in four wars is an annual event undertaken by the Members of the Unit #117 in Manchester.

Volunteers from the Unit will once again take part in this nation-wide program in memory of the citizen soldiers who gave their lives in the cause of freedom.

Funds collected on Poppy Days are used to assist the needy veteran and his family. It is a self-help program, for the familiar red paper poppy is hand-made in Poppy Shops run by Legion and Auxiliary volunteers. In these shops, disabled and hospitalized veterans make the flowers by hand, petal by petal. It is part of a physical and psychological therapy program by veterans for veterans. These poppies are purchased from the shop by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary and offered to the public, not at a price, but for a contribution...a few cents to say America remembers.

This memorial flower was originally adopted by the American Legion Auxiliary in 1920 and since that time, programs have been conducted throughout the United States each year.

Contributions on Poppy Days are by the Local Unit to aid needy veterans and their families in the community and in hospitals throughout the state. All proceeds are channeled directly into rehabilitation and welfare work for children and youth.

Auxiliary members from Manchester will ask the public to pause for a moment, pin on a poppy, and wear it with pride, remembering the civilian who took an oath to serve his country and gave his life so that America would survive today.

Miss Poppy for 1982 is Miss Adrienne Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wallace of City Road, Manchester. Adrienne is five years old and a kindergarten and has a baby brother, Aaron.
