

News Of Good Things Growing

by Margaret G. McCall

Ripe, red Michigan tomatoes are among the many good things growing all across the state right now. Last weekend, I saw in a friend's garden tomato plants six feet tall (we measured for accuracy) and loaded with ripening tomatoes.

Michigan grew better than 236 million pounds of tomatoes commercially last year, and we rank third among the states in processing production. The total crop was worth $20 million, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Whether you grow them in a backyard garden, buy them at your farmer's market or corner grocery, there are dozens of good uses for tomatoes. I don't think most of us could cook for any length of time without tomatoes or tomato preparations.

Fresh tomatoes are delicious simply sliced for a supper salad, perhaps dressed with a little oil and vinegar and garnished with sliced green onions. The question of whether to peel or not to peel depends upon your personal preference. If you must peel, it's easy if you first dip the tomatoes into simmering water, using a large slotted spoon, for a second or two to loosen the skins.

Fresh tomato slices topped with Parmesan cheese and a sprinkle of chives, then broiled a few minutes, are a flavorful accompaniment to many meals. Try them with a ham and cheese omelet for Sunday breakfast.

Cherry tomatoes make attractive and colorful hors d'oeuvre, stuffed with almost any filling. Slice off the stem end and use a small meion baster to scoop out the pulp. Stuff with minced chicken or egg salad.

Because we have such an abundance of tomatoes during this season, it's nice to store some of that goodness for winter use. Tomato sauce, simmered with chopped celery, green pepper, onions and seasonings, can be frozen to use in spaghetti sauces, chili, and many other recipes.

I find it easiest to wash and quarter ripe tomatoes, simmer until very tender, then put through a ricer or colander to remove the seeds and skins. Then I add my chopped vegetables and seasonings, simmer until quite thick, pour into freezer containers, chill and freeze. Remember that garlic and other seasonings intensify during freezing, so it's best to skip a little on these items. You can always add more when the sauce comes out of the freezer.

Area Historical Society

Following the very successful Collectible Sale during the sidewalk sales, the Manchester Area Historical Society would like to thank all who contributed, worked and purchased items. Mrs. Frances Nathan, chairman of the sale, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walton, who made their lawn available deserve special thanks. This sale is helping the Society purchase the Old Black Smith Shop on Main Street.

Area residents are reminded that the Black Smith Shop will be open on Saturday, August 21 from 12:00 to 3:00. At that time blacksmiths will be demonstrating their craft by making wrought iron objects for sale. Please take advantage of another opportunity to visit the shop. Don't stop with one visit. There's always something new going on, so visit often.

Look for our booth in the merchant's tent at the fair. Someone will be there to explain the objectives of the Society and provide information about joining the group. T-shirts will also be available. By purchasing and wearing a t-shirt with a replica of the shop, you'll be helping to publicize the Society's venture.

51st Campbell Reunion

Andrew and June Campbell of Manchester hosted the 51st family reunion of the Campbell clan at their home, 14340 Schleweis Rd., Sunday, August 8. There were 70 family members in attendance.

Young members, aged 1 1/2 to 50, played a spirited game of softball while older members reminisced and recalled their family ties and history. One hundred and forty years ago on August 24 Robert and Anne Meier Campbell left their home in Avreshire, Scotland and came with their seven children, aged 1 1/2 - 17, to settle in Augusta Township near Ypsilanti. Anne's father and brother had come to this area in 1828 and had written letters describing their satisfaction in finding good farm land for $6 per acre and encouraging Anne and her husband to come to Michigan. In 1842 Robert and Anne sold at auction their farm and equipment in Scotland and took the plunge to begin anew in Michigan.

The Campbells have held reunions from 1922-67 and from 1978-82 making this year's gathering their 51st reunion.

This year's host, Andrew Campbell, is one in a chain of Dan-Andys that reaches back to Robert and Anne Campbell. Andrew is the son of Daniel F. Campbell of Saline whose father was Andrew P. Campbell of Ann Arbor. His father was Daniel F. Campbell, whose father was Andrew Campbell, the fourth child of Robert and Anne Campbell. Guess what Andrew and June named their son, who is now 7?

Although many of the Michigan Campbells still live in Washtenaw County, branches of the clan are now widespread. Some members came from considerable distances to attend this year's reunion. Robert and Kathie Reutrow came from Tucson, Arizona. Susan Ghoddousi and her children, Mary and David, came from Seattle, Washington to attend the reunion with Susan's parents, Mary and Bill Fletcher of Coldwater. Anna Campbell Kemp and her daughter, Martha, came from Oak Park and Hinsdale, Illinois. Art and Jean Cassell came from Mt. Vernon, Ohio. Tom Matevia of Juno, Florida and Patti Matevia Cartwright, W. Palm Beach, Florida joined their parents, Cliff and Frances Matevia of Ypsilanti. Harold and Jean Campbell Crane came from Zephyrhills, Florida.

From nearer-by were Scott and Tammy

Bassett, Manchester; Dan and Jean Campbell and Arthur and Betty Campbell Katz, Saline; George and Mary Campbell, Dave Katz, and Liz Campbell Raymond, Ann Arbor; Jack and Margaret Campbell, Foster Fletcher, and Esther Fletcher, Ypsilanti; Emma Campbell and George and Garnet Miller, South Lyon; Leslie Feret and Peter and Sharon Campbell, Milan; Charles and Constance McNeil, Grass Lake; Judy Campbell Elwartowski and her daughter Darlene, Tecumseh; Linda Fletcher Smolinski and her daughter, Stephanie, Quincy; Robert Campbell, Detroit; George and Adelle Campbell Renton, Good Hart.

After a barbecue and potluck dinner, the President, Peter B. Fletcher, presided over a short business meeting. This year's officers were returned for another year, Peter Fletcher, Pres., Janet Laatsch, Secretary.

HIT OR MISS by farley

A columnist recently points out that many of the sayings that were originated in rural America back in our childhood days have become a part of our present day language.

For example not so long ago Budget Director David Stockman, she reports, after being remanded by President Reagan, for his indiscreet disclosures in a magazine interview, reported that he felt just like a boy after "a trip to the woodshed".

This homely expression which evidently dates back to Mr. Stockman's rural Michigan boyhood won for him considerable unexpected sympathy.

Another example with its rural derivation is "squealing like a stuck pig". I'll bet no urban writer never witnessed a barnyard butchering.

The rural area of long ago also contributed the phrase "He's bit off more than he can chew", and from the henhouse came the phrase "Don't put all your eggs in one basket," as did "Don't count your chickens before they're hatched."

And then there is the woman who never set foot in a chicken coop who said about her errant husband, "He flew the coop."

To the barns of a past generation contributed to these phrases like "Champing at the bit," and "Locking the barn door after the horse was stolen." Then there was the chap who said about Secretary of State Haig not long ago, "He is champing at the bit."

Just the other day we heard one chap say about his offspring, "He's shooting up like corn in July", and a comparison of growing crops with the present crop of politicians was "They don't amount to a hill of beans."

A poor downtrodden Congressman recently said that the $75.00 a day Washington living allowance was as thin as twice strained milk. How many of you can remember the country kitchen with its earthenware crocks of milk waiting to be skimmed so that butter could be made from the cream. And then in the unheated pantry off the kitchen there were the jugs of molasses and from there came the phrase "As slow as molasses in January."

Still very appropriate is the often used phrase that, "One rotten apple spoils the barrel."

A friend tells us of the eight year old youngster of her daughter's who took him to the movie "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas" and was somewhat perturbed when he made a great fuss about not liking the show. She tried to ask some probing questions to determine the depth of his knowledge about the subject but felt relaxed when she found out that he thought the title of the picture was "The Best Little Haunted House in Texas."

Did you hear about the employee of the orange juice plant who was fired because he couldn't concentrate?

You've reached a comfortable stage in life when you can't remember just what it was that you were trying to forget.

C.A.T. Results Received

At its regular meeting on August 16 the Manchester Board of Education received a report from the Superintendent of the results of achievement tests which were administered to all students in grades 2, 4, 6, 8, and 11 near the end of last school year. The California Achievement tests measure basic skills in reading, math, language and spelling.

Manchester students, once again, scored above grade level on all of the basic skills in each grade. The report shows that for the third year in a row Manchester students read above grade level by the time they are in the second grade and that they continue to widen the range so that by the time they are in the 8th grade the average student is reading 1.5 years above grade level. Over 50% of the 8th graders read significantly above grade level with comprehension.

Dr. Thompson reported that students were showing outstanding gains from year to year. For example, students who were 6th graders in 1980 showed a gain of 2.6 years when tested two years later as 8th graders. Second graders who were tested in 1980 reported a four year gain in language skills within the same two year period.

Thompson expressed his great satisfaction with these data and stated that in his opinion, "we have conclusive evidence of the excellent nature of the educational program being offered in the Manchester Community Schools. Our emphasis on basic skills together with the work of coordinating the curriculum and the purchase of textbooks and equipment made possible by downsizing the organization has produced significant results. Manchester students are receiving a basic skill education which is the equal of any school district in the county. Our students leave school with the skills necessary to compete."

Thompson also expressed feelings regarding cooperative efforts between the home and school. "While our teachers are doing an unquestionably excellent job in the classroom the credit for our outstanding educational program should go not only to the schools. Manchester students who apply themselves and work hard at obtaining a good education are to be greatly commended. It is obvious that the parents in our community take time to read and play math games with their children. Educational research is very clear that a good education can only be obtained when principals manage well organized, child centered buildings, teachers are dedicated and have high expectations, parents value education and work with the schools and students are serious about their efforts. We are a unique and fortunate community to have achieved all of these factors while many districts around us are struggling to continue their programs," said Thompson.

Students were tested in the 7th month of the 5 listed grades. It should be noted that Manchester students are above grade level at every point with 11th graders scoring at the highest possible point. Persons interested in obtaining a copy of the full report may do so by calling the Board of Education office at 428-7300.

NUCLEAR WASTE TRANSPORT

You may recall it was only a little more than a year ago that many of you became concerned about the movement of nuclear waste shipments through the state enroute to disposal sites elsewhere in the country.

The public concern was shared by Governor Milliken. You'll remember he asked the Health Department and State Police to adopt emergency rules. Both of us did, and these prevailed for a year until permanent regulations could be developed and, put into place. The permanent regulations are now on the books; they became effective July 14.

Our permanent rules cover the transport of spent nuclear fuel and large quantities of radioactive waste, and are similar to the emergency rules.

One of the chief concerns had been: what happens if an accident occurs involving a truck while it is crossing one of our major bridges, such as at Sault Ste. Marie, the Straits, Port Huron, or Detroit? The new regulations address that problem. They require that containers used to ship radioactive waste must meet rigorous testing safeguards. This fact should ease the concerns of those who had questions on what would happen if a container fell into the water from the Big Mac Bridge, for instance - questions such as: could it withstand the fall and would it remain intact in deep water? The testing standards are an answer to those concerns.

There also are other requirements shippers must meet before they can dispatch a truck through the state.

Each shipment must have prior approval from us. The application for approval must contain information on the route of travel and a travel schedule.

Evidence must be furnished that the firm's vehicles are provided with adequate communications capability.

Proof must be submitted that the transporting truck has undergone an acceptable safety inspection within the last six months.

There must be an emergency plan which would be activated by the shipper if an accident involving the truck occurs.

In addition, inspection of shipments by health department field personnel must be permitted.

The regulations are stringent; we don't deny that. But this is the only way in which we can assure protection of the public health.

9th - 12th and are interested in fitting and showing, saddle seat, hunt seat, jumping, western horsemanship, trail, flag racing and the clover leaf are eligible for this team.

If interested and would like to join the team or would like more information contact Sandee Shears, 429-1133. There will be a registration meeting for all interested students and parents Wednesday, August 25th at 7:00 p.m. Contact Sandee Shears for information in regards to the whereabouts of this meeting.

Manchester Red Cross News

Manchester Red Cross volunteers were busy this summer beginning with the Chicken Broil when Mrs. Stanton Roesch once again took charge of the Safety of that event from the Red Cross Van which was on location. During the Community Fair two dozen volunteers manned the Red Cross Trailer from noon to 10:00 p.m. and later. Twenty minor incidents were handled which makes an excellent safety record for the five days of potential danger with live stock, machines and carnival.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday workers were Paul Lemon, Mrs. Joseph Voytas, Mary Krzyzaniak, Mrs. Stanley Parr, Mrs. Alvin Kappler, Mrs. James Mann, Mrs. Duane Beuerle, Mrs. Robert Kellum and Mrs. Robert Burkhardt.

On Friday and Saturday the volunteers were Mrs. John Ball, Mrs. James England, Mrs. Floyd Parr, Mrs. Thomas Gormley, Mrs. Aaron Nathan, Mrs. Ben Cresson, Mrs. Nancy Caronski, Mrs. James Fielder, Mr. Don Wolf, Mr. Dave Jose and Mr. Dan Egger from the Red Alert Team out of Ann Arbor.

This week there are two units of volunteers working at the Bloodmobiles at the Chrysler Proving Grounds on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Parents Renovate Klager Playground

Parents take a break during construction of log cabin.

Principal Janice Hammond and the Klager kids try out the new log cabin.

Community spirit was high as 40 persons gathered Sunday afternoon on Klager Elementary's playground. First a potluck lunch was shared, then the work began. The parents erected a climbing log cabin and a three level balance beam which was purchased with profits from the PTO Fun Festival and Movie Nights last year.

Handmade equipment included teeter-totters made by John Bihlmeyer, a tire obstacle course and a climbing tire tree built by John Bihlmeyer, Gary Mitchell and Dale Hock.

Playground builders on Sunday were: John and Nancy Bihlmeyer, Diane and Gary Wiedmayer, Bonnie and Gary Mitchell, Joyce and Tim Armentrout, Mike and Ann Gordon, Terry and Linda Woods, Gene Thompson, Char and Paul DuFresne, Gerry and Betty Mann and Principal, Janice Hammond.

A number of parents are painting the playground equipment this week. Principal Janice Hammond wishes to thank Cliff's Ace Hardware for donating the use of the pole digger and all of the parents who worked at making a real surprise for Klager students next week. "It really is amazing what people can do when we work together," she said "Our children will enjoy this for many years."

Danny Bihlmeyer helps the men cement in the tire tree.

ANTIQUES AND COLLECTIBLES

The Manchester Township Library is an excellent place to browse for information about antiques and collectibles. Many of the residents of the village are interested in restoring their homes and furnishing them with period items. Among the books in the library devoted to antiques are: Charm of the Antiques, written in 1914, but still timely in its discussions of periods, styles, auction discoveries, and finds from unusual places; Antique Collecting for Everyone, or "The pleasures of building your own collection of inexpensive antiques" which says it all; Kovel's Know Your Antiques, a guide to evaluating, buying, and caring for antiques, written by the couple who have had a newspaper column for 30 years; and The Next to Nothing House, the description of the purchase, restoration, furnishing, and enjoyment of a 1790 house.

Also the library contains The Button Sampler, a charming book which details the many collectible button types and suggests display methods, Collecting Antique Metalware, which includes history of metallurgy and sections on tin, copper, pewter, brass, iron, and bronze collecting, and many other specialized volumes.

Some volumes with specialized information are: The Easy Expert on American Antiques, which includes appendices with facts about insurance, supplies, books, and furniture finishes;

Antique American Country Furniture, packed with the what, where, and how of styles, periods, woods of American country furniture; The Second Old House Catalogue, a collection of 2000 new and useful products, services, and supplies for restoring the Period house - from early American to 1930's.

The section also includes books about glass collecting - Poor Man's Guide to Bottle Collecting, containing the history of bottle manufacture as well as descriptions of the various types of bottles (medicinal, household, jars, etc.) and tips on cleaning and pricing; American Glass, the complete and definitive volume with many illustrations; Ruth Webb Lee's Handbook of Early American Pressed Glass Patterns, a most impressive illustrated volume, and others.

Schools Expand Computer Program

During the summer the Manchester Community Schools made a major purchase of micro-computers to be used by students in several phases of the curriculum. Superintendent Eugene Thompson stated, "The Manchester Community Schools are now undoubtedly the best equipped school district in the state in terms of micro-computer hardware. We have expanded the program begun at the Middle School to provide computer experiences for students who will live and work in the 21st century. We must continually keep in mind that children born this year will graduate from high school in the year 2000 and attempt to design programs to meet their needs."

The school district now owns sufficient numbers of computers to provide intensive programs for all students in grades K-12.

In addition the Board of Education recently approved a half-time position for one year for a person to coordinate the computer education program. This person will be responsible for the coordinated development of a K-12 curriculum, the professional development of staff, as well as supervision of software purchases.

With these improvements the Manchester Schools have taken a major step forward in providing educational programs for all students and especially for those with special skills and interests in the computer field.

Village Planning Commission

July 13, 1982

The Regular Meeting of the Manchester Village Planning Commission was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by Chairman Alber.

Present: Alber, Kallewaard, Aiuto, Grossman, Kwolek, Leeson and Krauss.

Absent: Walton and Smith. A quorum was present.

Jim England, architect Steve Janek and consultant John Rasmussen were present to submit the application of Manchester Senior Village, Inc. to rezone a parcel of land at the south end of Galloway Drive from AG (Agricultural) to R-3 (Medium Density Multiple-Family Residential District).

England explained that the change was requested to allow construction of 48 apartment units on the five-acre parcel. They would be designated as housing for elderly or handicapped people.

Grossman asked if any information was yet available on whether or not the Village sewer system could handle 48 more dwelling units. Rasmussen furnished a letter from Village Engineers, McNamee, Porter and Seeley, stating that it could handle the additional load if 1) all storm runoff from the project went into the pond to the south of the property and 2) a minimum of 15 homes in that western portion of the Village would disconnect foundation and/or downspout drains which are currently run into the Village storm drain.

Leeson asked what consequences there would be if drainwater, especially containing salt used on apartment complex drives in the winter, were to run into the pond.

Kwolek made a motion, seconded by Grossman, that a public hearing on the rezoning request be scheduled for the next regular Planning Commission meeting. The motion was passed on a unanimous voice vote.

The Chairman appointed Grossman and Walton to a committee to coordinate requests for additional information about the project.

Vera Kluwe, D.V.M., was present to submit a letter (copy attached) requesting permission to operate a veterinary clinic as a conditional use at 516 Ann Arbor Street (south-west corner of Mound Street). Jim Mann, assisting in her presentation, explained that a rezoning request had been considered. He requested guidance from the Planning Commission as to which action—conditional use or rezoning—should be pursued.

Grossman made a motion, seconded by Krauss, that a public hearing be scheduled on the matter, subject to the Village Attorney's confirmation of which action would be the more appropriate. Information was also requested on whether or not a veterinary clinic might be classified as a kennel.

Bob Terry of the Office of Community Development, Michigan Department of Commerce, was present to explain in detail the "Small Cities" grants available for start-up and for economic development projects. The Planning Commission reviewed its work to date on site selection and first-phase planning. Village Manager Zeenyuk confirmed that he had filed the notice of intent to submit a grant application; he also discussed the preliminary work he has done in contacting potential tenants for an Industrial Park.

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of June 15 were approved as read, on a motion by Grossman, seconded by Kwolek.

Kwolek presented new application forms for all actions covered by the Zoning Ordinance. Members will read and comment at the next Regular Meeting.

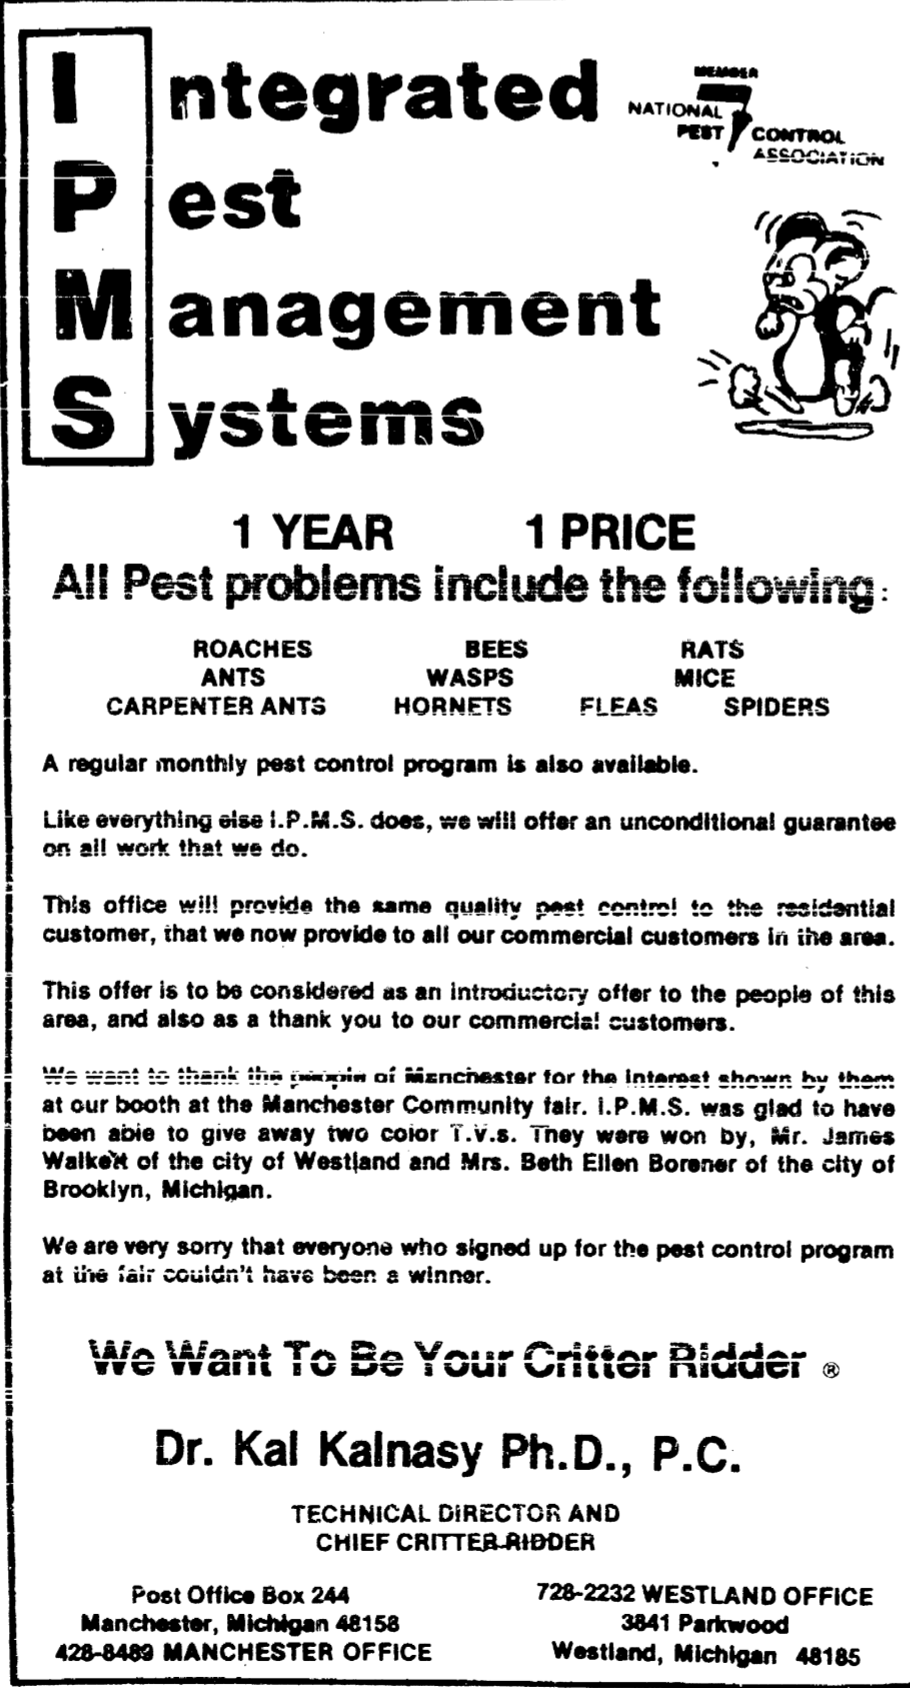

It was affirmed, as a matter of policy, that a request for a conditional use permit, and a request for a variance, both include site plan review; therefore a separate fee for site plan review does not have to be paid in addition to the fee required for the conditional use or variance application.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:28 p.m. on a motion by Leeson, seconded by Aiuto.

introducing GREAT LAKES CASH FUND

best cash fund on the market...

- MONEY AVAILABLE IN 7 DAYS OR LESS
- WEEKLY MARKET RATE BASED ON U.S. TREASURY BILLS
- $100,000 INSURANCE
- BANKS HAVE THEM - WE PAY 1/4% MORE INTEREST
- CHECK WRITING CAPABILITY*
- INITIAL INVESTMENT $20,000

HOW IT WORKS

Great Lakes Cash Fund offers high interest, plus liquidity, plus insured safety. You can start a Cash Fund at any Great Lakes Federal Savings office with $20,000 or more and add to it in amounts of $500 or more at any time.

The interest is pegged to the 91 day T-Bill auction rate. The rate changes every Tuesday. Your interest earnings can be transferred to checking or left to grow with weekly compounding.

When you open a Great Lakes Cash Fund, you receive a certificate and an I.D. card. Each month you will receive a statement showing the interest earned, account activity and balance.

INSURED SAFETY

Unlike Wall Street cash funds, your Great Lakes Cash Fund is insured up to $100,000 with an agency of the federal government. If you have wanted the liquidity of a cash fund but wanted greater safety, then the Great Lakes Cash Fund is for you!

LIQUIDITY

Your money is available to you in seven days or less, on the same day of each week. For example, if your account is opened on a Wednesday, your funds are available each and every Wednesday. You are therefore never more than seven days away from your money and in most cases less.

WE PAY 1/4% MORE THAN BANKS

Banks can offer this type of account, too, however they must pay 1/4% less than savings and loans. You still get the edge at Great Lakes Federal Savings.

CHECK WRITING CAPABILITY*

With your Great Lakes Cash Fund, you automatically get a no minimum checking account. Unlike most Wall Street funds, there is no minimum amount for which your checks can be written, and you can write all the checks you want. When you want dollars transferred to your checking account, just let us know. We then Tele-Transfer the money to your checking account on your designated withdrawal day. Overdraft protection is also available. So, if you want high interest and liquidity, but more security than a Wall Street fund can offer, come to GLFS!

Manchester Teachers Attend Special Computer Seminar

Mary Ann Dettling works closely with Yvonne Henry and Dick Parson.

Sheryl Hall, Char Henderson, and Susan Davis look up from their computers.

Fifteen Manchester teachers and administrators have just concluded a one week intensive seminar designed to familiarize them with world of micro computers. Taught in the school district by Mary Ann Dettling a seminar provided opportunities for teachers to work with computers in the classroom and to learn basic programming skills.

Jane Raus, Melinda Trout, Teddie Groeb, Janice Little, Susan Davis, Char Henderson, Sheryl Hall, Yvonne Henry, Dick Parson, Mary Koebbe, Mary Kuyda, Astrida Panches, Millie Grantham, Mary Blossom, and Janice Hammond all returned to their classrooms early in order to develop special skills to meet the needs of their students. The dedication of these educators may be seen in their classrooms as they begin the process of preparing for students who will not arrive for another week.

"We were extremely pleased at the number of teachers interested in enrolling in the seminar and in fact had to limit the enrollment," said Superintendent Gene Thompson.

"I expect that we will offer the seminar again during the year on an after school basis. I am extremely pleased at the dedication of our teachers and hope that the Manchester Community appreciates this level of commitment."

Jane Raus, Mary Koebbe, Yvonne Henry, and Dick Parson display their new computer skills.

HIT OR MISS by farley

American life was once a very stable affair. Now it is not. It is very mobile. Folks didn't use to move about very much. They stayed put. They were born, grew up, went to school, got a job, got married, had children, grew old, and died in the same town.

They went to the same school as their parents, and saw their grandparents and uncles and aunts and cousins every week. Their relatives lived in the same county at least.

Come Memorial Day they put flowers on the graves of their grandfathers, and great grandfathers. There was a continuity about life. There was a sense of permanence, a feeling that every day was a chapter in a continued story.

But today we as a people are nomads, and it is reflected in our culture. Our daily habits have changed radically, in a great many ways.

We use to like "continued" things. Our popular magazines all carried serialized stories—Collier's, Liberty, American. The Saturday Evening Post—they were famous for their serial way back to the days of Charles Dickens. Daily and weekly newspapers ran serial fiction, and the comic strips were continued stories—Terry and the Pirates, Little Orphan Annie, Dick Tracy and others. Even the comic strips were—Popeye, Barney Google, Alley Oop and others.

You can remember when the radio was loaded with serials for both kids and grown ups—Stella Dallas, One Man's Family, I Love a Mystery—and the movies had serials for the kids every Saturday.

But now the demand for continuity in stories and other entertainment features has greatly waned and our life has gained

New flags were given to the Manchester Township Library this week. Mr. John Swainson donated the Michigan State flag and Mrs. Claran Knauss, Sr. presented the American flag for the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Georgia Wilson, librarian, accepted the much needed replacements for the flags that have served the Library for the past fifteen years.
