Claran Knauss Retiring

Village President John Widmayer presenting Mr. Claran Knauss with appreciation plaques for his 31 years of faithful service.

Mr. Claran Knauss, who has been Building Inspector for the Village of Manchester, Townships of Bridgewater, Freedom and Manchester is retiring in January.

Mr. Knauss was back-up inspector from 1951 to 1964 and was appointed the official Building Inspector in March of 1964 by Mr. Lyle Widmayer, Village Clerk. Mr. Knauss assisted in writing the original Building Basic Code "BOKA" Book with three other contractors from the City of Ann Arbor. The State of Michigan adopted this code book in 1977. Along with his job as inspector, he has many interesting stories that he talks, some funny and some that are not suitable to print in the paper.

Mr. Knauss will be working closely with the new Building Inspector, Mr. James Scott of Pleasant Lake.

The village and townships express a great gratitude to Mr. Knauss for his many years of dedicated service.

Anyone and everyone who has worked with Mr. Knauss will indeed miss him. We all wish Mr. Knauss a "Happy 80th Birthday" on February 15th.

Manchester In '34

A WOLF STORY

(Written for the Enterprise)

In the summer of 1834, my father located land for a farm in the south-western part of what is now the township of Manchester. Soon after, we cut logs and rolled up a log house, covering it with shakes, we then moved into our new home before completed, having no doors, windows, floors or chimney. We cooked our food by a fire outside, ate and lodged inside, with the earth for our carpet, a board for a table, and a drygoods box served very well for a cupboard. As the weather was warm we suffered no inconvenience, except from mosquitoes at night, or the hoot-owl among the old trees near our dwelling.

At this early date the village of Manchester was composed of one frame house, a saw-mill, the frame of a gristmill, and two or three slab shanties.

For milling and supplies we were obliged to go to Ypsilanti, with an ox team, which usually took about three days. About this time, however, mills were put in operation in Clinton and Tecumseh.

As winter approached, we procured articles and completed our house. Cut marsh hay and built a log stable for our stock, which consisted of a pair of oxen, two cows and a calf.

Wild turkeys and deer were plenty, 20 or 30 of the former often came to reconnoiter our turnip patch, while half a dozen of the latter came scampering by, not even stopping to make our acquaintance; while the report of the hunter's rifle, or the bark of a dog on their track, told the story of their haste. We had plenty of venison, which, cooked with butter, will make a hungry man smile. We raised potatoes and turnips, which together with a few wild fruits, completed our bill of fare.

Parties of Indians often passed our dwelling, and sometimes camped near. They always appeared friendly, and never molested anything except a few squashes or melons. When on the trail, 80 or 100 of them present a very singular appearance, marching in single file, with their papooses, tents, and implements, lashed to the heads of the ponies, which seem to understand and keep their places in the procession without any one to guide them.

Before winter set in, a few straggling black bears visited our

It's said that soon there will be but two classes of people in this here world - those who understand computers and those who don't. Bob Swift sees that if you don't believe that statement just listen to a conversation that he said he recently heard as follows:

"Ma, we ought to get an apple for Christmas."

"Of course dear. Doesn't Santa always put a great big one in your stocking?"

"Mom, I'm talking about an Apple computer. Everyone is getting computers this year, or maybe we could get an orange."

"OK, put it in your letter to Santa that you would rather have an orange than an apple."

"No mom, an orange is a brand of computer." They're the wave of the future."

"Goodness, I wouldn't even know how to turn one on, would I?"

"You don't turn one on, you turn around."

"That's all Greek to me."

"Not Greek. Basic."

"I remember your father telling about basic when he was in the Army. It was awful."

"Now mom, basic is computer language. You have to learn it to talk to a computer and there are other computer languages. Have you ever heard of Fortran?"

"Yup, it's like Dacron only stretchy and they use it to make tummy control panels for pantyhose."

"No, no, no Mom, it's computer language."

"You mean it's like Bebop. We used to speak Bebop back in the fifties like Crazy, dad, I'm hip, and all that jazz. Half of us couldn't understand what the other half said."

This fascinated Bob so he drew a bit closer to hear the following:

"That's archaic slang mother, I'm talking about P.L.I."

"Well, I do know about those Palestinian terrorists."

"No mother, not P.L.O, P.L.I which is another computer language. I need a few more chips

School Board Keeps Present Tax Plan

by Lucy Feldkamp

The Manchester School Board at the January 17th meeting decided to keep the current school tax collection schedule. A new state law would have allowed the Board to request the townships in the school district to collect half the tax this summer, instead of collecting all of it in December as usual.

The state law is meant to save school districts money by letting them collect early half the taxes due them. That way, schools would avoid having to borrow money at high interest rates just to meet operating expenses until the December tax revenues came in. Before taking advantage of the law, school boards must hold public hearings and then make a decision before February 1st. The schools would then request the townships to collect the tax.

Superintendent Thompson called the summer tax collection plan "tempting," but noted that it would create more problems than it would solve. While it would "reduce expenditures somewhat," Manchester would be forced to change the date of its millage election, now scheduled for after the summer tax bills would be mailed. Taxpayers cannot be taxed before they approve it. Another problem is that property owners have not had much time to prepare for a summer levy and might be forced to borrow to pay it. Those on Social Security or with farm income are eligible for exemptions, but would have to apply to the state treasurer for one, and again there has been little warning for these people to do so.

President DuFrene stated that his understanding of the new law was that it was designed to bail out large school systems that had heavy interest burdens. He saw little advantage in it for Manchester. Bridgewater, Sharon, and Freedom townships have all presented petitions to the Board declaring their opposition to the summer tax collection plan.

Bearing all these reasons in mind, the Board voted unanimously to not levy a summer school tax this year. The larger than usual public audience, many of whom had come to the meeting just because of this issue, were relieved.

Education Board Establishes Budget For Trial Projects

The Manchester Board of Education has established a special budget to enable teachers to develop new and experimental programs. Proposed by Trustee JoAnn King Okey the funds will be available to teachers through proposals which may be submitted to the school administration.

Administrators have been directed by the Board to establish procedures to award development grants for these trial projects. The intent of the budget is to encourage teachers to try new ideas in an effort to provide exciting learning situations in their classrooms.

Ms. Okey, who herself is a former teacher and school principal, stated in her proposal to the Board that "We should make every effort to encourage our excellent teaching staff and to provide them with the resources to develop their ideas."

Manchester Family Service, Inc.

Manchester's Christmas Project served 58 families this year, including 71 children. Manchester Family Service, Inc., a United Way agency, handles this project in Manchester School District and Manchester Township each year for the Department of Social Services, the Salvation Army, the Washtenaw County Health Department and area churches.

The December 16 "Shop" and distribution day was held at St. Mary's Church where an amazing array of useful and needed items were available to the families involved. The gift orders for the families are based on the criteria of the Salvation Army for the needy.

The Middle School Student Council under the guidance of Dick Fielder conducted the drive which brought in 1500 cans and packages of food for the grocery boxes. Klager Intermediate School, Emanuel United Church of Christ and Cub Scouts added their collections to the project. Apples, onions and candy canes were donated by individuals and organizations to give the boxes variety. Each box with which little children were involved was topped with a red felt stocking

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Several Michigan newspapers recently printed letters from senior citizens expressing concern over the new law that requires Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Michigan to provide coverage for substance abuse services in residential and outpatient settings effective January 1, 1983. I certainly understand this concern in light of the subscribers' anticipated increases in the cost of health insurance.

I would like to point out, however, that the premium increase for medicare subscribers will be only 11 cents per month. Group and individual premium increases are expected to be even less. Additionally, several commercial insurers, who were required to add the substance abuse coverage during 1982, are providing it at no premium increase at all.

When the Legislature considered the substance abuse legislation, the cost of health care was of utmost concern. It was felt that by adding coverage for residential and outpatient treatment of substance abuse problems that more people would seek treatment at an early stage, thereby reducing the expense of extended hospital stays which frequently result when substance abuse problems go untreated. The notion that health insurers were already paying for the costs of expensive inpatient treatment due to substance abuse problems was supported by estimates from the American Hospital Association that 29% of all general hospital admissions are there because of alcohol-related illnesses.

The principle of health insurance is that all subscribers share the cost of what might happen to any one of us or our families. The substance abuse problem is one which directly affects 760,000 Michigan citizens and indirectly affects the safety and welfare of us all. For example, one American life is lost every 21 minutes in alcohol-related traffic crashes and one out of every two Americans will be involved in an alcohol-related accident in their lifetime. Drug abuse also contributes significantly to our criminal justice problem.

With respect to senior citizens, Michigan studies have indicated that 7% of our senior citizens report heavy alcohol consumption. Further, many Michigan physicians report that prescription drug abuse problems exist in a significant number (over 20%) of their senior patients. The 11 cents per month premium increase would seem to be a modest investment in dealing with this important health problem.

I hope this information is helpful in understanding some of the factors which were considered before adopting the new substance abuse insurance laws. Each of us benefits when a child or a parent or a grandparent wins the battle against alcoholism or drug abuse.

Sincerely,
 Kenneth L. Eaton, Administrator
 Office of Substance Abuse Services

manchester art guild news

The artistry of Jackson Pollack almost was left out of "jurying" for a "mock" art fair as members met last Monday, January 17 at the home of Barb McConnel. Those attending viewed unidentified magazine clippings of a variety of work; mostly of well-known artists, past and present. It was their job to determine the merit of including them in a hypothetical "Manchester Art Fair", fortunately, they had the good taste to accept Matisse and Cezanne!

The experience underscored the difficulty of choosing what is 'bad' and what is 'good'. It forced member jurors to examine personal standards and in some cases to consider elements of work beyond personal taste (as happened to be the case with Jackson Pollack).

As a result, they saw that the jurying process is not a matter of black and white: elements of personal preference mingle with goals of the organization, as well as color, composition, etc. in the end, the greys were just a little bit clearer.

Kari Agin spikes 2 of her many

In Girls Volleyball, we opened our season against Gabriel Richard, Monday the 3rd. Kari Agin had 9 spikes, 2 kills for 13 points and Tammie Honer contributed 9 assists to down Richard. The match lasted only 2 games 15-3 and 17-15.

On Thursday, we hosted Onsted - the Panthers were an early guess to take the league this year. Nobody informed our girls of this as we just wiped them out in 2 straight games, 15-4 and 15-6. Kari had 13 points tonight with Tammie having 5 assists.

On Saturday, we took place in the Chelsea Tournament and finished in 3rd place overall. How

Mark Ball Drives in 2 of his 12 points

by Jon Hardenbergh

First of all I must apologize for not getting any sports information in last week - the flu bug bit me so I'll do my best to bring you up to date.

In round ball we opened the new year hosting the Addison Panthers, then traveled to Dundee. Friday again saw us at home facing Blissfield.

In the contest against Addison I guess you could say 'no contest' as we won easily, 70-58. Dave Malocin almost single handedly downed the Panthers as he hit 6 of 6 first half fieldgoals and ended the night with 21 points. Jim Krzyzaniak canned for 14 as John Blumensaur knocked in 12.

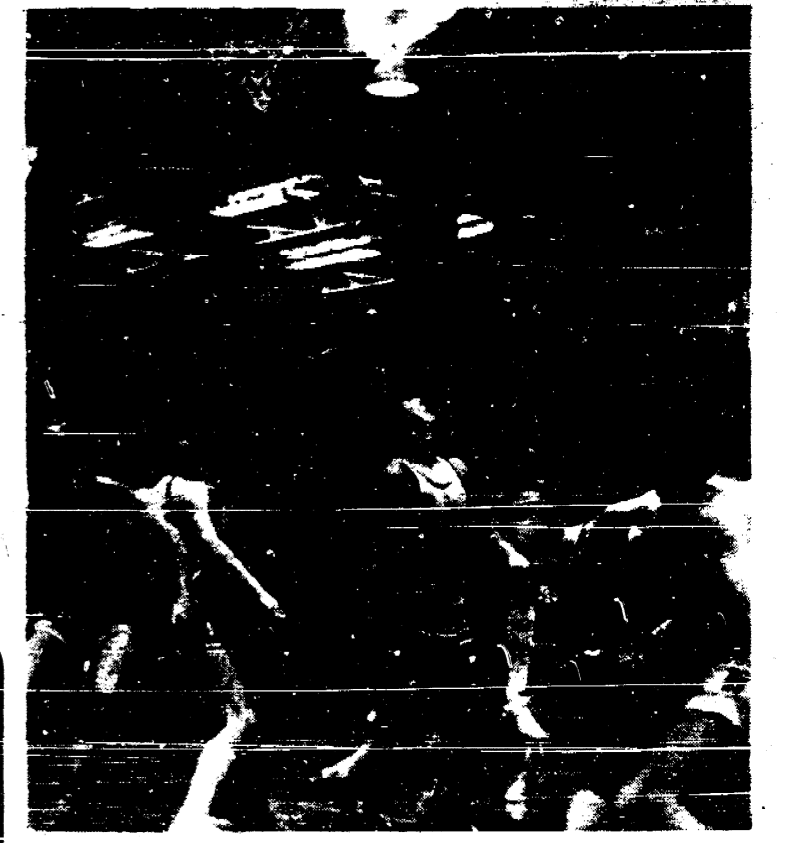

We trekked to Dundee and I guess the Vikings hid the hoop from us as we tallied a mere 15 points. As the game progressed we found the bucket but father time ran out leaving us short, 57-53. Dave Malocin again led, popping for 19, as Mark Ball hit for 10.

Coming home Friday, it seemed very similar to Tuesday. Again we lost the hoop and fell way behind but rallied back within 4. We were unable to get closer as fell 71-61. Dave Malocin canned for 16 (8 of 8 freebies) as Mark Ball hit for 12.

Klager Measures Up

Mara Bragg found that her chair was 14 thumbprints wide.

The First-Second Team Room has been learning about graphs and measuring in math. Parent, Mrs. JoAnn Okey helped the class last Friday to measure with thumbprints. Each student made a ruler using their own thumbprints and measured objects in the room.

Other activities have included: Human graphs (How many have blue eyes compared with hazel and brown eyes?) and measuring the room (How many children wide is our classroom?). In a graph of student's shoes the class learned that many, many more have rough bottom shoes than smooth. Now they are making graphs of the children's birthdays and daily weather.

After measuring with objects relevant to the children they will move into inches and centimeters. This is a non-traditional innovative method of teaching measuring that should help students understand what measuring is all about.

Professional Development Day

There will be no school for students on Friday, January 21. The Klager Staff will participate in a full day of learning about instructional theory and practice with a well known educational presenter, Dr. Dennis Sparks. The ideas and techniques Dr. Sparks will be sharing are part of a movement nationally to apply research about how persons learn to teach.

and families and much appreciated by the recipients. The "Shop" contained used clothing hanging on racks, church tables piled high with clean, sorted wearing apparel for all ages, shoes, boots and purses.

Volunteers are responsible for setting up these "Free Shops" and also for packing the things left over. Members of Lambda Nu and Xi Epsilon Iota chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, church women, Senior Citizens and others assisted with this. The nine member board of the agency has a week of concentrated activity helped by a manned truck from Manchester Tool and Die to do the heavy work.

All of this is possible because of those already mentioned, many more and anonymous givers. Monetary gifts came from Bethel's Womens Fellowship, Bethel's Adult Fellowship, Emanuel Women's Fellowship, Manchester United Methodist Women, Sharon United Methodist Women, American Legion Auxiliary, Middle School Student Council Dance Fund, Huron Valley Night Hawks Motorcycle Club, Thomas S. Dolls from Great Lakes Federal were distributed lovingly for the last time as the Bank is discontinuing this service to its communities. A half a dozen dolls were "recycled" from discarded dolls dropped off at the agency, by Elsie O'Dell who is fast taking the place of our master doll-maker, the late Caroline Schwab. We know of two in particular. The First Investment Services from your First American Bank. Both give you the best of the money funds: Immediate access to your money. Competitive money market rates. And no fees or penalties for early withdrawal.

But beyond that, you'll find differences that can make all the difference.

Our Investment Savings Fund. The rates are high, the minimum's not. With a minimum deposit of just $2,500 (the lowest the law allows), you can earn money market rates. And you can get to your money any time you need to. Best of all, it's FDIC-insured, up to $100,000 per depositor.

Our Investment Checking Fund. Write any number of checks for any amount. Unlike money market funds, you can write an unlimited number of checks, for any amount large or small.

That's what makes our new $2,500 minimum Investment Checking Fund so attractive to investors looking for money market rates, FDIC insurance and something more.

Which brings us to perhaps the best reason for taking a serious look at either of our First Investment Services.

It's the simple convenience of dealing with people you know, at a place where you do your regular banking. It's an intangible, but an important one.

settlement and departed very quietly; not, however, until after feasting on our smallest pig.

Our first winter was very severe; not unlike our present one in many respects. Snow fell nearly two feet in depth; the winter winds came howling through the forest, making the sturdy old oaks to nod their heads, reminding us of our old New England home we had so lately left.

Deer became more seldom seen, except in ocreaping from the hunter's dogs, as they were pursued nearly day and night.

Occasionally a gaunt old wolf, pressed by hunger, might be seen sneaking through the woods. At evening they gathered in bands and made night hideous with their unearthly yells, which were kept up for hours, with short omissions and slight variations. I've often had occasion to listen to these serenades, as a pack of these ferocious beasts argued their rights over the remains of some dead animal in our vicinity. Midwinter had passed, we were comparatively comfortable, contented and happy. My mind often runs back with pleasure to that unbroken family circle, seated around the fireplace, telling stories and laying plans for future operations; but alas! father and mother long years ago were laid away in Oak Grove Cemetery; the other members no longer here; I alone am left, weary and worn on the old homestead.

At the time I refer to I was a lad of only 12 years. Some incidents occurred which may appear trifling, still they can never be blotted from my memory.

My pet calf sickened and died. With a heavy heart and many a sigh I saw his remains dragged over the hill, down near the swamp, by my two big brothers, there to be devoured by wild beasts; his bones to lie unburied and bleach in the summer sun.

Winter was nearly spent; the snow was fast disappearing on the hillsides; it was the first Sabbath of March; a lovely day, pleasant as summer, (just such a day as an old hunter might expect to find woodchucks out sunning).

No church to attend, no Sunday School, yet my mother always required us to read a few chapters of scripture and say our catechism. On this occasion I reviewed with some degree of interest the 2nd chapter of II Kings, particularly the 23rd and 24th verses, then shyly slipped out of the back door and walked away over the hill, thinking of my misfortune and my pet calf, to where I found his mangled frame and limbs scattered about the grounds. I turned disgusted from the sickening scene and strolled still further on, meditating upon the disappointments of life, when on looking away down the swamp, on the side of the hill, I saw some objects which I took to be deer. Quick as thought, I dropped down on my hands and knees, to give them a surprise. I knew every foot of the ground, and by creeping around into a valley, and coming up over the top of the hill from the other side, I would be very near them; which I did; the soft snow allowing me to do it quietly; keeping the trunk of a large tree as a screen, to get still nearer, which when I had gained, I raised myself to my feet. Imagine my surprise to find myself standing before three half-starved wolves, not forty yards distant. My heart seemed to jump up into my throat. I would retreat, but 'twas too late; the animals had discovered their prey, and were slowly but surely advancing, with hair erect and heads lowered, gnashing teeth and eyeballs flashing fire. I thought of home and friends; one step that way was death! Unarmed, alone! I snatched my hat from my head, lashed my limbs and the trunk of the tree near, with it, yelling at the same time with all my might. This seemed to confuse my enemies and make them hesitate for a moment, which gave me courage to charge down upon them, renewing the demonstrations with all the power within me. Two of the wolves retreated, but the foremost stood firm, foaming at the mouth, his keen eye fixed upon me. The hair on my head seemed to stand erect, a choking sensation filled my throat, while my whole frame trembled like a popple leaf in the wind. My old foe now discovered his comrades had deserted him, and he, too, slowly retreated after looking over his shoulder, seeming loth to leave without his supper. I anxiously watch them in the distance until they all entered the swamp, then hurriedly retraced my steps, and soon arrived at home, nearly out of breath and pale with fear, took a seat on the stone hearth and gazed meditatively into the blazing fire.

In conclusion, let me say to my young friends, whatever may have been my previous views in regard to Sunday BEARS, I was that day thoroughly converted to the belief of Sunday VOLVES.

"AN OUTSIDER LOOKS AT MANCHESTER"

Fifty members and friends of the Manchester Area Historical Society gathered at the Old Feed Mill Monday night to listen to "An Outsider Looks At Manchester." Prof. Leonard K. Eaton, Arts and Architecture Department of University of Michigan, was the "outsider" who spoke and showed slides of many of the brick structures in the town, explaining why Manchesterites have a special feeling of pride when driving down Main Street or through M52. It is because of the environmental quality of the village - that certain something having to do with the preservation of architecture which was quality when it was constructed in the middle 19th Century. The intricate detail of each building, the cornices that have almost all been preserved

The last place you should look for an IRA.

Because once you've seen ours, there's no need to search further.

Everyone—the banks, the savings and loans, the brokerage houses, the insurance companies—they're all shouting about IRAs. How they save taxes, build whopping retirement funds, and how you can open one any time up to April 15 and still claim a tax deduction for 1982.

But whose IRA is best? Quite simply, ours is. And that's why we say Comerica Bank-Jackson is the last place you should look for an IRA.

New! Self-Completing Life and Disability Insurance.

We're now offering Life and Disability Insurance on our Comerica Bank-Jackson IRA. So if you die before age 65, your estate will receive the same amount of money you'd have contributed if you lived to 65.

Short time only! Earn up to 25% Bonus!

If you act now, we'll even pay you to make us "last"! Open an IRA at Comerica Bank-Jackson with $1,000—and you'll earn a bonus rate of 15%. Open one with $2,000, and you'll earn a bonus 25%. But don't wait—do it now to earn the most!

New! More investment options.

A Comerica Bank-Jackson IRA offers more investment options than our competitors—another reason ours should be the last IRA you look at!

New! "Add-to" Accounts.

Now you can add to your IRA investments—even, for example, during the term of a certificate. Add to your IRA on a regular basis, conveniently through paycheck deduction, and you can still earn Money Market rates.

Go IRA shopping. Then come to Comerica Bank-Jackson.

Our IRA is best—we're confident you'll think so, too.

And you'll appreciate the friendly service—coupled with years of experience—you'll get from our Personal Bankers, who'll help you select the best IRA option for your money.

So go somewhere else—first. Then come to Comerica Bank-Jackson.

This is one time we're happy to settle for last place!

Wrestling News

Manchester wrestlers continue to do well in tournament competition with five out of eight Dutchmen winning medals at the County Tournament at Huron High School in Ann Arbor last Saturday. Taking fourth place were Van Talcott at 98 lbs. and Jim Burch at 156. Dave Rodriguez (138) and Jeff Daubner (167) took fifth place. Steve Vleck came in 6th at 145 lbs. The competition came from three Class A schools, 5 Class B, and one other in Class C.

Having to forfeit four weight classes continues to be a disadvantage for the Dutch in dual meets. At 6 points per weight class this gives opponents a 24 point lead even before the meets start.

The Dutch lost to Clinton 51-21 on Tuesday, and to Gabriel Richard 53-16 on Thursday. Winners against Clinton were Van Talcott, Joe Deacons at 105 lbs., Dave Rodriguez and Jim Burch. Thursday night's winners at Gabriel Richard were Van Talcott, Steve Vleck, Dave Rodriguez and

Kliger Students Collecting Post Cereal Seals

Renee Wackenhut, Angle Satyer, and Jason Gehring collecting Post cereal seals.

The students of Kliger Elementary School are being asked to participate in a program sponsored by Post Cereals. This program will enable our school to obtain free athletic equipment for use in our Physical Education classes. The program is quite simple, all we have to do is collect as many proof-of-purchase seals from Post Cereals as possible. The more seals we accumulate the more free athletic equipment we can receive for our school.

The proof-of-purchase seals are worth one, two, three or four points and are marked accordingly, the larger the box the higher the point value. These seals are found on the sides of Post Cereal packages, specifically: Raisin Bran, Alpha Bits, 40% Bran Flakes, Grape-Nuts, Raisin Grape Nuts, Honeycomb, Toasties, CW Post, Treat-Pak Pebble, Post-Tena, Super Sugar Crisp, Fortified Oat Flakes, Grape Nuts Flakes, and Fruit 'N' Fibre.

We will be holding a contest to aid in the collection of these seals. Beginning now until the end of school each class will collect as many seals as possible, the class that brings in the most points will have a party and receive certificates at the end of the collection drive.

Manchester Village Planning Commission

December 14, 1982
The regular meeting of the Manchester Village Planning Commission was held at the Village Hall, with members present: Alber, Walton, Krauss, Kwolek and Leeson. Absent: Smith, Kallewaard, Aiuto and Grossman. A quorum was present.

All members having been notified of the meeting, along with the Agenda including consideration of the proposed rezoning of the property at 201 East Main Street, per the Public Hearing of November 9, 1982, the meeting was called to order by Chairman Alber.

As an interested citizen, Mr. Don Limpert was also in attendance.

The proposed Agenda was approved, by acclamation. Minutes of the meeting of November 9 were approved by acclamation.

Relative to the proposed rezoning of the "old mill" property, review as made of the Public Hearing on this subject which was held on November 9, 1982. The possibility of making a change in the "Permitted Uses" in a C-2 District to permit facilities for hydro-electric generation at the site in question was discussed in detail.

It was moved by Kwolek to recommend to Council that the site at 201 East Main Street, the owner of record being D.E. Limpert, which encompasses the former mill and surrounding property, be rezoned from I-1 (Limited Industrial District) to C-2 (General Commercial District). The motion was seconded by Leeson. On a roll call vote, members voted as follows: Walton, no; Kwolek, yes; Krauss, yes; Leeson, yes. The motion was declared passed.

It was moved by Kwolek that we recommend to Council that the following action be taken to amend the Zoning Ordinance of Manchester Village: That the Planning Commission consider adding the following to Item D under Permitted Uses in the C-2 District: "hydro-electric power generation facility in an existing structure adjacent to an existing dam, provided that all equipment is contained within the existing building and that the operation complies with all State and Federal regulations." The motion was seconded by Leeson. On a roll call vote, members voted as follows: Walton, yes; Kwolek, yes; Krauss, no; Leeson, yes. The motion was declared passed.

Chairman Alber stated that a Public Hearing relative to the above proposed change in Permitted Uses in the C-2 District should be held at 8:00 p.m. at the Village Hall on the date of the next regular Planning Commission meeting. Member Aiuto being absent, a report on the question of dividing the R-1B District (Single-Family Residential) into two new Residential Districts was postponed.

Adjournment was moved by Walton, seconded by Krauss. The meeting was declared adjourned at 8:58 p.m.

Not Just Another Cookie

Peanut Butter Sandwiches for sale.

Girl Scout cookies have become an American tradition. This tradition is the financial backbone for providing Girl Scout program and services to nearly 10,000 girl members in Washtenaw, Livingston, Western Wayne and Northern Monroe Counties.

There is a new price this year in Huron Valley of $1.75. The price increase is consistent with other councils in the area and across the state.

Brownie Girl Scouts will be selling Girl Scout Cookies for the first time in Huron Valley Council. "This will be an exciting opportunity for Brownie age Girl Scouts.

Troops are asked to participate in the sale for several reasons. First and most importantly, the cookie sale is the largest Council fund raiser. The proceeds earned from the sale are returned to troops through the use of three council camps, special programs and events, staff services, girl and adult training opportunities and much more.

The sale can provide program activities for the troop, as the troop determines for itself how the girls might sell, what techniques to use, safety factors to consider, how to set goals and how to budget and spend the income earned.

The purchase of Girl Scout Cookies is more than buying groceries. It is an investment in the future of girls ages 6 through 17. Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is celebrating its 25th Anniversary this year.

Huron Valley is a United Way Agency serving girls in Washtenaw, Livingston, Western Wayne and Northern Monroe Counties.

Would you rather do it yourself? The library has books covering many aspects of home repair such as: Super handyman's encyclopedia of home repair hints by Al Carrell tells how to clean and store paintbrushes without ruining them, how to childproof worktools and how to store tools in many clever, inexpensive ways. The New York Times guide to home repairs without a man by Bernard Gladstone explains in easy-to-understand, non-technical language everything a woman needs to know about how to fix a door or drawer that won't close properly, how to repair a faulty lamp or how to unclog a stopped drain. Easy Electrical Repairs by Charles Dunn is a basic guide to electricity-what it is, how it reaches the home and how to deal with it safely and legally. It provides advice on repairs a person can make and on those a person cannot make. The first book by Ann Slinger is also directed toward women. The color photographs clearly illustrate various tools needed to make simple repairs and how to use them. Popular Science complete manual of home repair, indoor and outdoor repairs from floor construction to gutter assembly are described in detail with many illustrations.

A Time To Give

To meet blood requirements of 75 hospitals in 5 counties, The Southeastern Michigan Blood Services is responsible for the collection of 1,000 pints of blood every day. High school students, being a main source of first-time donors, play a vital part in blood services. More teen-age donors are encouraged, too, by ex-Governor Milliken's signature on Public Act 228, which allows those seventeen years old to donate blood without permission from a parent or legal guardian. Therefore, the Manchester High School National Honor Society is sponsoring a blood drive on Friday, February 4 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the High School Library. Scheduling will take place by contacting a National Honor Society Member. Encourage your students to participate! Teachers as well as all employees of the Manchester Community Schools are also encouraged to participate in this worthwhile activity.

The following is a schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1122 at their convenience and receive timely, up-to-date gardening information. Thursday, January 13, What About Couponing? Thursday, January 20, A Dash of Imagination and a Pinch of Herbs. Friday, January 21, De-icing Alternatives. Monday, January 24, Catalogs To Write For. Tuesday, January 25, New Garden Books in the Library. Wednesday, January 26, Salads to Grow Indoors.

There's some poker chips somewhere around the house." "Microchips, mother, see this system starts with six bytes." "Six bites of the apple or the orange?" "Mother, please four bits make a byte. Four bits are..." "Oh I get it now. Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar. All for Manchester get up and holler." "Look mother, we use the binary system, coding everything into ones and zeroes. Now see this motherboard. I have to put data and addressing through the gate and into the bus. But it can't all go at once or I'll have a bus contention. See, the zeroes and the ones get on the bus and propagate and then flow off, don't you see?" "Oh yes, of course, everybody goes through the gate and gets on the bus..." "Mebbe I had better explain hardware and software. Or should I start with CRTs? You would really like this stuff if you would pay attention. You would learn to interface with peripherals. You'd learn about hard disk capacity and double headed RANA's." "Is that like Dr. DoLittle's Pushme Pullya?" "You'd learn about 64 byte RAMS and the Orange FIFO buffer." "Isn't that a headache remedy?" "Look mom, you have a floppy disk." "Oh, go talk to your father he's had a lower back pain for years. He'll know all about floppy discs."

Is Stress A Part Of Your Daily Life?

Saline Community Hospital will be offering a "Living With Stress" class through the Winter Saline Community Education Program. The course is designed to help participants identify and cope with stress as a part of everyday living. Stress may result from major change or from our normal pattern of living. Learning to cope with stress is an important tool for maintaining health. "Living With Stress" is an eight-hour class and will be taught by a Nurse Educator. The class will be held at Saline High School on four consecutive Monday evenings starting on February 7, 1983, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The fee for the course is $30. Registration is now in progress; please call the Community School Office at 429-4934.
