Manchester Makes History

Manchester will make history on July 21, 1963. Not only will there be an official Michigan Historical Marker placed on a building in Manchester (The John F. Schneider Blacksmith Shop will be dedicated as a community activities building on this date) but the Village for the first time will have two governors present on the same day. The fact that they were both elected as Democrats is also unusual for this area. Manchester and the surrounding townships consistently vote Republican and have done so since the turn of the century.

The 30th Annual Manchester Chicken Broil will also be held on July 21, 1963. Since the first chicken broil was held in 1963, the community spirit that has developed has been equally as important as the physical improvements to the recreation facilities the proceeds from the chicken broil have provided. Everyone serves on one of the many operating committees, and

United Way Elects New Officers For Coming Year

At the March 22nd meeting, the Manchester United Way Board of Directors elected the following new officers: President - Susan Hamilton. Vice-President - Thomas Kallewaard, Secretary - Evangeline Ludwick and Treasurer - James Englund.

Also, four Board members were elected for three year terms. They are Sallie Anderson, Paul DuFrene, Mary Munson and Louis Vogel.

in fact, there is developing a certain pride of status connected with the committees. The number of years served on a committee elevates the person in the esteem of his peers, and perhaps there should be a "20 year" pin awarded, or better yet, a "30 year" pin awarded this year to those stalwarts that have served from the start.

The Manchester Chicken Broil owes a great deal to many, many persons, but perhaps a special recognition should be given to Bob Ross. He has been a tireless worker on behalf of the chicken broil and has certainly earned his "30 year" pin. His friendship with Bud Guest, a notable radio personality of WJR in former years, has been a great benefit to Manchester. Mentioning the chicken broil during his programs, and extolling the virtues of Manchester has brought thousands of persons to our community. That tradition is still carried on by J.P. McCarthy and "Fat" Bob Taylor, over the broadcast area reached by WJR.

Bob Ross isn't quite as active as he has been, but he never hesitates to pitch in each and every year, and this year is no exception. Bob and Aileen are hosting the entire Metropolitan Symphony Band the afternoon of the Chicken Broil, at their lovely farm on Bethel Church Road. When you consider the band consists of some 65 members, this is no small effort in order to make them feel welcome.

Bob Taylor, who lives in Ann Arbor will also be present at the 1963 Annual Chicken Broil, and will be singing with the band.

"Fat" Bob, as he is affectionately known, is one of the notable boosters of the Chicken Broil, and will, as usual, be talking about it on WJR every chance he gets.

Governor James J. Blanchard was elected in November 1962 at the age of 40 to the office of Governor of Michigan, the 43rd person to hold that office. Governor John B. Swainson was elected in November 1960 at the age of 36, the 40th Governor of Michigan. Governor Swainson has been a resident of Manchester since 1970, although he purchased his farm home on Hogan Road in 1964.

Ross Automotive Under New Management

by Lucy Feldkamp

Ross Automotive has been sold to a new owner and will soon be renamed Manchester Auto. Glenn Primrose, who purchased the business from John and Eleanor Ross in early April, plans to continue offering the same goods and services the Rosses did, while gradually introducing new ones.

Primrose, who also owns an auto parts store in Grass Lake, will present several new lines of parts in the medium price range. He says he would like to add high performance parts, chain saws, and agricultural parts sometime in the future. In the back of the store, Primrose envisions a complete machine shop, and he would like to expand his services

Annual School Election Monday, June 13th

The annual school election will be held Monday, June 13th at the Manchester High School from 7 am until 8 pm. There will be three millage propositions; one renewal and two additional. There will also be an election of two board members for full terms of four years. Those running are Paul DuFrene and Joanne Okoy, incumbents, both unopposed. Listed below are the three propositions:

I. MILLAGE RENEWAL PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Manchester Community Schools, Washtenaw and Jackson Counties, Michigan, be increased by 18.78 mills ($18.78 on each $1,000.00) on state equalized valuation for a period of 3 years, 1963, 1964, and 1965, for the purpose of providing additional funds for operating purposes (this being a renewal of 18.78 mills for operating purposes which expired with the 1962 tax levy)?

II. ADDITIONAL MILLAGE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Manchester Community Schools, Washtenaw and Jackson Counties, Michigan, be increased by 1.80 mills ($1.80 on each $1,000.00) on state equalized valuation for a period of 3 years, 1963, 1964 and 1965, for the purpose of providing additional funds for operating purposes to be used for educational programs (this being a separate proposal in addition to the increases submitted in Propositions I and III at this same election)?

III. ADDITIONAL MILLAGE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property in Manchester Community Schools, Washtenaw and Jackson Counties, Michigan be increased by 1½ mills ($1.50 on each $1,000.00) on state equalized valuation for a period of 5 years, 1963 to 1967, inclusive, for the purpose of providing additional funds to be used for necessary maintenance, repair and renovation of school facilities (this being a separate proposal in addition to the increases submitted in Propositions I and II at this same election)?

Senior Class of 1877

This is a reprint from the Manchester Enterprise, dated June 28, 1877.

Class-Day Exercises At The Union School Hall Last Evening

The above may sound "high-toned" to many of our readers, and indeed we would not be surprised if it did, for there are not many little villages like Manchester that can boast of so good a school. It is something worth being proud of, and the enthusiastic citizen has a perfect right to stand on his tip-toes, when he makes the announcement that the class of '77 consists of ten, five ladies and five gentlemen.

At an early hour our citizens commenced to assemble at the School Hall, and when the hour for opening arrived the large auditorium was filled, there being about 400 persons present.

We have never seen the hall

when it appeared so pleasant; the walls were decorated with pictures, wreaths and flowers; the ceilings were festooned with evergreens and flowers; large mottoes were placed on the walls, the chandeliers were decorated and the front of the stage was adorned with wreaths, and vases of beautiful flowers. A large portion of the audience had bouquets, and the air was fairly laden with the sweet perfume.

The orchestra, consisting of Mrs. J.R. Skutt, organist; Mr. D.V. Crafts, cornetist and Mr. J.R. Skutt, violinist, furnished some excellent music which interested the audience until the hour for opening arrived, when the President of the Class, Mr. Ben Conklin, called the Rev. Mr. Gibbs to the rostrum, and the Class Day exercises were opened with prayer. Then came music and the following programme:

1. Oration - An Old and a New

KARI AGIN DOES IT AGAIN

by Jon Hardenbergh

Saturday, June 4, was another big day for hurdler Kari Agin as she set a new record in winning the 300 low hurdles. Kari not only finished in the top spot in the 300 low in :44.7 but crossed the line in :14.8 for a third place finish in the 100 low hurdles. Kari took the top position last year in the now obsolete 400 low hurdles and now she's number one in the new 300 lows.

Kari is an incredible person and an outstanding athlete. I for one will miss printing her name and taking photos of her breaking the tape but let's hope wherever she goes the DUTCH will still be there.

Principal Interview Team Selected

Superintendent of Schools Gene Thompson has advised that an interview team has been formed to participate in the selection of a high school principal. The team will be chaired by Dr. Henry DeYoung, Director of Special Education. Members of the team will be Mr. Brian Schick, Middle School Principal, Dr. Janice Hammond, Klager Principal, Mr. Richard Parson, High School Counselor, Mrs. Phyllis Heinrich, High School English Teacher, Mrs. Mattie Agin, Parent, and Miss Sarah Platt, Senior Class President.

Thompson has indicated that he is hopeful that the interview process can begin during the week of June 13. Six to eight candidates will be with the interview team for approximately an hour apiece. Following their interview with the team they will meet privately with the Superintendent.

The interview team will recommend two-three candidates to the superintendent to be called back for a second interview. Dr. Thompson will compare the team recommendations with his own perceptions. Two to three persons will be called back for a second interview with the superintendent, Janice Hammond, and Brian Schick.

Finally, a decision will be made with a recommendation to the Board of Education anticipated at the July regular meeting.

"Replacing Jim Kappeler will not be an easy task," said Thompson.

"We are receiving the applications at the rate of about 5 per day. With a total of perhaps seventy-five applications we should be able to identify a person in whom we will have a high degree of confidence. I am confident that working as a team we will be able to accomplish this difficult task."

"Let's Keep It Going" in 1983-84

The Manchester Community Schools have identified the theme of "LET'S KEEP IT GOING" for the 1983-84 school year. The theme is based on the belief that current school operation is good and getting better.

Citing programs such as computers, high-tech education, talented students, Wizard of Oz play, foreign languages, and a full athletic program Superintendent of Schools Gene Thompson stated that "The Board of Education, the administration, the faculty and all employees have worked hard to provide a good educational program for students. It is my belief that Manchester ranks as one of the best small districts in the state. Without question we are being recognized as leaders throughout the state. Educators come from all over to review and discuss our programs. We feel that the best theme is "LET'S KEEP IT GOING FOR KIDS". The feeling is that the Manchester Schools have returned to their place of excellence and that this momentum should be maintained.

"LET'S KEEP IT GOING FOR KIDS" summarizes the feeling of those concerned with education in our community. "It is our hope," said Thompson, "That parents and other voters will recognize the outstanding nature of this school district when they cast their ballots on June 13."

Teacher In-Service Program Planned

According to plans currently under development the Manchester Community Schools are planning a teacher in-service program which will take place prior to the beginning of school in August. The plan which is being developed cooperatively with the Chelsea, Dexter, and Whitmore Lake Schools will center on the topic of Effective Teaching.

Effective Teaching is a concept which was developed at UCLA in California and which helps teachers to identify procedures which work at best in the classroom.

Last year the Manchester Schools found that a large number of teachers were anxious to study the use of computers in classrooms before students returned. Superintendent of Schools Gene Thompson commented, "Working on the same concept we used with the computer training program we have found that a significant number of teachers are interested in beginning work in August to improve their teaching skills. This is simply another indicator of the high degree of professionalism among Manchester teachers. I am proud to be associated with a group of professionals who are as committed to children as the Manchester faculty has proven they are."

KLAGER ELEMENTARY EARNS FUN 'N FITNESS POINTS

Miss Kuyda's class won the Fun and Fitness contest by bringing in the most points. The seals will be used to purchase gym equipment. Mrs. Sheets, Klager Physical Education teacher, organized the collection.

Physical education teacher Sandee Sheets has been coordinating the accumulation of Post seals to earn gym equipment. The school collected 2743 points to trade for special items.

A contest between the classes revealed that Miss Kuyda's room was the best at collecting. Second place was Mrs. Henry's Second Grade. Third place was taken by the First-Second Team Room. Anyone having Post Fun 'N Fitness Seals may bring them to Klager School Friday, June 10.

Eighth Grade Toronto Trip - Big Success

The Manchester eighth grade class trip to Toronto took place on May 19-21. According to the parents and faculty members who accompanied our students on the trip, Manchester can be very proud of the group. They handled the trip very well and their overall behavior was noteworthy. Mr. Brian Schick, Principal, has received several communications from various sources commending our kids and chaperones. Such responses are a clear indication of the caliber of student we have in our school system. Special thanks to Mrs. Judy Mann, parent-group leader, and Miss Mary Ann Dettling, faculty advisor, for a job well done.

Letter To The Editor

Letter to tax payers in Manchester School District. One wonders what type of subterfuge will come from administrators in the district when hearing on a budget took place on a Monday whereas the advertising of hearing reached most people on Wednesday or Thursday. Before one votes additional funds, take into account this type of subterfuge and also high pay raises of administration. Sincerely yours, Herbert G. Jacob

The speakers are all in possession of good lungs and evidently know how to use them, for every word and syllable could be distinctly heard throughout the room. We observed, however, that one or two spoke very rapidly, and the audience had to keep on the alert in order to catch all the words. Speakers should be careful to speak leisurely and in a clear smooth tone of voice, else they tire the hearer, and the interest is lost.

The oration and poem were excellent productions, showing deep study in their composition. Many secrets were revealed in the class history, which was well for certain members, for had they been disclosed in their day, we imagine the class of '77' would have been reduced in numbers. It is well to laugh over the tricks and pranks played upon teachers and schoolmates in years gone by, but how different would it have been had the "Prof." known of them at the time. But the class prophecy drives away all thoughts of what the consequences might have been by giving us a peep into the possibilities of the future. The class made a decided hit in the selection of prophet, and the audience enjoyed a rich treat.

The class song, sung by the class, was well rendered, as was all the music, from first to last. At 9:30 o'clock benediction was pronounced, and thus ended the first class-day exercise ever held in Manchester.

Nothing would please us better than to publish a part at least of the productions, which were all worthy, but space will not permit.

Manchester's Girl Scouts graduated to their new troops in a Fly-Up Ceremony on May 24th at the Knights of Columbus Hall. This ceremony began with a pledge to the flag and saying the Girl Scout Promise, then the girls joined their leaders in a Brownie Ring, Junior Horseshoe, or Cadette Group. The leaders awarded pins and badges earned during the year, then each girl who was "flying up" to the next level crossed a bridge to join her new troop.

"Flying Up" from Brownie level (grades 1-3) to Junior level (grades 4-6) were Kellie Van Deven, Robin Fleck, Johanna Rodenbeck, Krista Subbian, Susan McGuire, and Rebecca Scherck. Those "Flying Up" and crossing the bridge from Juniors to Cadettes were Michelle Sumner, Molly McGuire, Melissa Seeger, Heather Mick, Linda Hansen and Jennifer Bailey. FOURTH GRADE ORIENTATION FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL

Jamie Hall, Dawn Wenk, Stacey Wilde and Mr. Brian Schick

Klages Elementary's Fourth Graders are preparing for an exciting change - moving up to the Middle School. Moving to a new setting can be a scary experience if we don't know what to expect so the school staffs are helping to smooth that process.

And looking ahead, the Euchre Party will be Thursday, June 23, at Freedom Townhall at 8:00 sharp.

This week Middle School Principal, Brian Schick and Fifth Grade students, Jamie Hall, Stacey Wilde and Dawn Wenk came up to tell the fourth graders about the Middle School and to answer questions. Later in the week the fourth graders visited the Middle School. Each student had a tour of the school with a Fifth Grader and spent time in the classrooms with the fifth grade teachers.

Some of the fourth grade questions were: "Do we get a schedule so we know where to go?" and "Do we have recess?". This experience should help to give our fourth graders a realistic idea of what they can look forward to for next fall. It will be exciting.

Bus Drivers Complete Virtually Accident-Free Year

Superintendent of Schools Gene Thompson has reported that Manchester School Bus Drivers have driven almost 100,000 miles during the past year without a significant accident. During that year they transported over 300,000 students from home to school and back again. "Only two very minor fender scrapes appear on our driver's otherwise perfect record," said Thompson. "I am very proud of this group of employees. The responsibility they have when they are out on the road is almost unmatched by any other group of school employees. It is difficult to imagine the magnitude of their job. Imagine driving through literally every type of weather with a large vehicle, often over bad roads, while being totally responsible for the safety of sixty-seventy children. The school district and the community at large owe a great debt to the drivers who are out there every day. They are very much appreciated."

1983-84 School Calendar To Be Reviewed

The Professional Council of the Manchester Community Schools which is made up of an equal number of teachers and administrators, has developed a calendar for the next school year. Superintendent of Schools Gene Thompson has advised that he will take the calendar to the Board of Education at the regular June meeting with his recommendation for approval. The Manchester Education Association also must approve the calendar before it can be implemented. The new calendar as developed calls for 181 days of instruction. During the current school year the number was 180. Thompson stated that, "We feel that it is important to increase instructional time whenever possible." Pending formal approval of the calendar Thompson has indicated that the first day of school for students is expected to be August 29. The full calendar will be published in the Manchester Enterprise as soon as it has been approved.

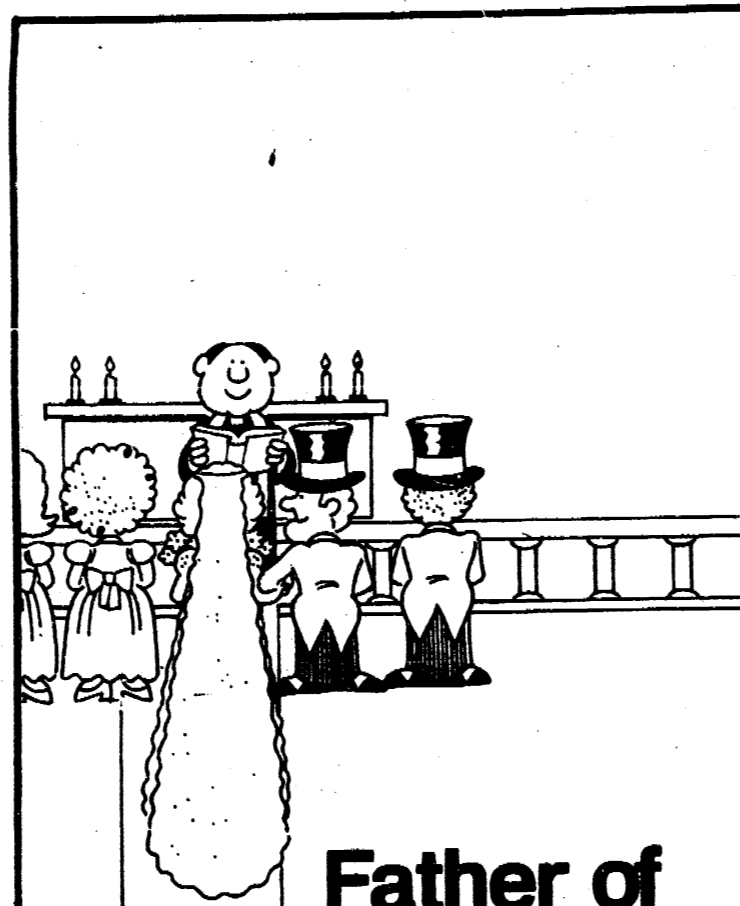

HIT or MISS by farley

Seymore Rothman, the sports writer, says that baseball needs another Dizzy Dean, that no one but him could make a 13-3 baseball game sound interesting when it was being broadcast but nobody is forever, I guess. PeeWee Reece, the announcer who collaborated with Dizzy in their broadcasts says that he and

Dean were just two fellers enjoying the ball game not two fellers trying to prove their knowledge of the game and their host of statistics about the game. If Dean and Reece made a mistake they both just laughed about it but when Reece made a mistake it was a catastrophe. Ole Dixie was a complete, says Rothman. He said what he wanted to and did what he wanted to, so we would listen and watch and mebbe we were more interested in what Dean might say than in what was going on, on the playing field. "he could get away with murder" says Rothman, but the other sports announcer couldn't "get away with jaywalking."

They didn't give anyone a nickname like Dixie to a brain but that didn't bother Dixie. He took a second grade education, a mountain accent and a language that was called English purely by default and uses it all to be the most popular baseball announcer of all time. To his listeners he was just one big enthusiastic boy-man. He sometimes boasted, says Rothman, but it never sounded like bragging and he sometimes sang bits but it never sounded at all like singing. Dix's arm died in 1937 and of course so did his ability to pitch some three years later but his vocal cords never did. He found himself a name in back of a microphone. Nobody ever figured how much he really knew about baseball. He never got technical. It is said that once when veteran umpire Bill McKinley made a call that Dix didn't like, Dix laughed, "I think they shot the wrong McKinley" but that was as bitter as he ever got.

An English teacher is said to have complained about what Dix was doing to the English language and grammar, probably when he "slud" somebody into third base and "learned 'em" some of the finer points of the game he retorted "tell her she can learn 'em grammar and I'll learn 'em baseball." He also said that the only thing about his announcing was that it might get better so mebbe it's time for another Dean, to have someone who didn't make every run batted in sound like it was the solution to most of the world's problems.

Young Scientists Take Field Trip

Al Gleason and his project—The Electroscop and Electromagnetism

Nine students were invited to attend a field trip to the Hands-On Museum in Ann Arbor last Saturday. The field trip was organized by Mr. John McGuire and Mr. Roger Boyce, members of the middle school teaching staff, as a follow-up to the Middle School Science Fair which was held earlier this spring. Fifth grade participants included Jon Kothe, Cara Cox, and Jamie Hall. Sixth grade representatives were Erika Schlaiter, Al Gleason, and Amy Major. Seventh grade delegates were Tim Cox, Dan Deszarov, and Mark Fensel.

The experienced gained by this field trip should be helpful in developing ideas and projects for future Science Fairs.

Manchester Area Historical Society

On Monday, June 20, 1983, the third Monday in June, the Manchester Area Historical Society will hold their traditional picnic meeting at Sharon Mills at 5701 Sharon Hollow Road. Mrs. Lillian Martin, a member of the society, has graciously made her grounds available for the occasion, and all members are urged to attend and bring a guest.

Sharon Mills is a landmark historical site in the area, having been constructed in 1886-86. It was first a saw mill during the period when the land was being cleared, and later converted to a grist mill when agriculture was developing as the pre-eminent occupation in the area.

Sharon Mills, after the turn of the century, declined in its importance to the area, but had a rebirth in the early 1930's when Henry Ford completely rebuilt the mill, installing a generator operated by water power, and proceeded to manufacture parts to be assembled into automobiles being produced at the Ford

Highland Park facility. The mill was operated by the Ford Motor Company up to and during World War II. After the war, a decision was made to sell Sharon Mills and similar mills in Saline and other communities in the area. Mrs. Martin and her husband Eric purchased the site in 1968, and operated an antique business on the premises.

The engineering of the mill races as well as the generator, which is still operating, makes this a very unique historical site.

Remember the date, Monday, June 20, 1983, and visit Sharon Mills, the site of the picnic meeting of the Manchester Area Historical Society.

The Agriculture Department has some good news and some bad news. The good news is USDA has drafted a meal plan that shows a family of four can eat a well-balanced diet for only $98 a week. The bad news is the diet consists of substituting beans for meat. You have to wonder how long it took USDA researchers to figure out that eating more beans and less meat is a way households can save money on food.

A one day meal plan for this diet consists of a breakfast of orange juice, toast and cereal. Lunch is peanut butter and banana sandwiches, celery and chocolate pie. Dinner is sweet and sour pork, rice, green beans and cornbread.

While those menu selections won't please everyone, the fact is food does not have to cost a lot of money. A wise shopper who makes careful selections and uses coupons can feed a family inexpensively.

Another point to keep in mind is that a lot of food is wasted. Remember your parents making you feel guilty about leaving food on your plate? "Just look at that food you're leaving. Some starving child somewhere would sure like to have what you're wasting." According to the USDA, Americans waste about 10% of food at home and maybe more in restaurants.

There's even been a study of food scraps. Students at the University of Arizona studied food discarded in garbage cans and determined that 40% was hard-to-save plate scrapings but the other 60% was half-eaten pieces of fruit, chunks of beef and bread slices. If you total what we waste on our plates and what spoils before we eat it, the average household is spending at least $140 a year for food that is wasted.

You could buy a lot of bean with that!

NEW NAME FOR ANN ARBOR BANK & TRUST

Ann Arbor Bank and Trust began erecting signage this week depicting its new name, First of America. The bank is a part of First of America Bank Corporation, a holding company for 28 banks operating across the state, currently under different names. This June all First of America Banks will formally adopt the new name to provide a unified identity throughout Michigan.

Celebrating the resurging spirit and pride sweeping across Michigan, First of America Bank Corporation made its own unifying contribution by holding simultaneous ceremonies in Ann Arbor and 27 other First of America cities throughout the state to formally adopt one name for all of its member banks. Michigan's first multi-bank holding company, First of America, consists of 28 banks with over 200 branch locations. Until today they had operated under separate names. First of America Bank, Ann Arbor at 101 S. Main released 1,000 helium balloons with a simultaneous release from each of the other ceremony locations. The Corporation's promotional symbol, a hot air balloon, led the way for the helium balloon release. Tied to certain balloons in each market are certificates for gifts ranging from First of America t-shirts to $1,000 cash awards. The certificates, if found, are redeemable through 5 p.m. on June 15 at any First of America branch or office.

During the keynote address, Bruce Benner, President of First of America - Ann Arbor, made an analogy between First of America's unifying course and the "spirit of resurgence and teamwork sweeping across the state as it emerges from deep recession." Bruce Benner referred to the bank's new advertising campaign theme "working together to be first," a concept which embodies the "strong sense of cooperation which traditionally has been a source of strength for Michigan citizens." The First of America hot-air balloon will be touring throughout Michigan during the summer.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

"THE PUBLIC HEARING ON THE 1983-84 BUDGET FOR THE MANCHESTER COMMUNITY SCHOOLS WILL BE HELD AT THE MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL, 710 EAST MAIN STREET, MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN ON MONDAY, JUNE 20, 1983 AT 7:00 P.M."

Dear Manchester next year's Seniors and their parents:

Your high school has arranged for all 1984 Seniors to have their portraits photographed by Powell Studio out of Detroit, Michigan. The reason for this is so all pictures will appear the same for the yearbook and senior hall composite. What you are not aware of is that you don't have to buy their pictures. The Photo Depot photography Studio moved into Manchester eighteen months ago located between the Ace Hardware Store and the Great Lakes Savings Bank. During this time I have had the opportunity of photographing only seven Manchester seniors. The Photo Depot produces high quality portraits with creative settings and clothing change. Most important of all is that the Photo Depot is a local business which could provide Manchester families with convenience and service and the price is right.

Please schedule with me for your portraits. Call 428-9530.
Thanks,
Vernon Otis

Memorial Day Activities A Success

The Memorial Day Parade was a great success. Many thanks to all who participated. Special thanks to Ron Mann for providing transportation back to The American Legion for the legion marchers when it rained.

The 3rd annual Memorial Day Pig Roast afterwards had a good turnout. About 250 veterans and their families attended. Everyone brought a dish to pass and all were delicious.

Enthusiastic Sons of the Legion raffled off baked goods at the Pig Roast. Thank you to all who donated baked goods for this.

Everyone had a very enjoyable time this year and we are looking forward to seeing everyone again next year.

volunteers showed great enthusiasm and patience throughout this time. The planning and cooperation demonstrated was outstanding.

Projects included candle making, tin punching, baking, a spelling bee, square dancing, soap making, flag making, knitting, crocheting, rug hooking, weaving, paper making, and baler twine angels. The quality of the work was noteworthy. The square dancing activity appeared to be a lot of fun for the students who participated in this segment of the program.

Our Pioneer Day Open House was held on Monday evening, May 23. Projects were displayed in the various fifth grade classrooms. The program concluded in the gymnasium where the audience was treated to a spelling bee and several square dancing routines.

America & Me Essay Contest Winner

Success came early in life for 14-year-old Tricia Horning, an eighth grade student at Nellie Ackerson Middle School in Manchester.

Tricia met Michigan Lt. Gov. Martha Griffiths and received a $400 savings bond and a plaque during recent award ceremonies in Lansing honoring the top ten winners of the America & Me Essay Contest. The annual contest is sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance Group.

Tricia's essay, based on the topic "Why I Am Important To America's Future," earned fourth place in the state out of several thousand entries from nearly 500 Michigan schools.

A panel of VIP judges, which included Gov. James Blanchard, U.S. Representative Bob Carr, and Lansing television news director Howard Lancour, determined the final ranking of the top ten winners.

Tricia, along with the other nine statewide winners, was also the guest of honor at an awards banquet at the Midway Motor Lodge in Lansing, where she received her plaque and savings bond from Robert Wiseman, executive vice president of Farm Bureau Insurance Group.

Here is Tricia's essay:
WHY I AM IMPORTANT TO AMERICA'S FUTURE
When I look out the front window of my old farm house I see a sign. The sign is a Centennial Sign which means that my family has been living here in America on the same land for over one hundred years. My ancestors came here from Germany because they wanted freedom. They wanted a new start and with a lot of ambition and hard work they became successful in their venture in a new land. Without their hard work I would not have the freedom I have today. I am proud to carry on my heritage as an American.

Soon my generation will be the leaders of America. I think about how I can help my country preserve its freedom and justice. When an election for governmental officials and issues comes, some people ignore it but others, such as I, will get involved and we will cast our ballots.

This summer my family entertained a man from the Peoples Republic of China. His name was Bei Bei Ling. Ling was sent here to America to study and learn about our way of life. This visit was very meaningful to me. It is hard to believe someone would leave their family for two years for the benefit of their country. Loyalty to the government in China is demanded. When he was young his government told him what occupation he would have, where he would live and what religion he would follow.

I'm happy to know that I live in a country with all the freedom I want to learn and live in peace. I have the opportunity to choose my own occupation. If I wish to follow my father's footsteps and farm, I can. In America two percent of the population produces enough food to feed the rest of the population. Farmers can own their own land and produce what they wish. Just like one hundred years ago, with ambition and hard work I can still succeed and be free in America. I hope one hundred years from now my descendants will look back at me and my generation and say "I'm proud to carry on my heritage as an American."
