Term Easter Is of German Origin

This is a reprint of The Manchester Enterprise dated March 27, 1902.

Our term Easter is of German origin, but the name by which the festival is designated from the beginning is the Paschal, a name derived from the Hebrew; it commemorates the deliverance of the Jews from Egyptian bondage when the destroying angel spared the first-born of the Hebrew because their doors were marked by the blood of the Paschal lamb.

The Easter festival is the greatest in the Christian calendar; it is the climax of the events in the life of our divine Lord—his birth, his labors, his miracles, his betrayal, the bitterness of his agony at Gethsemane, and his cruel death on Calvary all culminated in the victory we commemorate on this glorious day.

The church has always held that the miraculous deliverance of the Hebrew people from Egyptian bondage was the type and figure of the far greater deliverance which would follow when Christ, our Pasch, as St. Paul says, would be sacrificed and by his blood would save us from eternal death.

The Christian Pasch was instituted on that night when our Savior, Jesus Christ, surrounded by his disciples at the Last Supper which he held with them, gave them under the form of

Substance Abuse Awareness Meeting

The SAAC committee met last week to consider the possibility of developing as a service to families a booklet of parent guidelines for successful teen-age parties. The committee is interested in consulting with community parents in the development of these guidelines.

Therefore, the SAAC committee invites any interested parent to attend a meeting on May 3, 1984 at the Village Hall at 7:30 p.m. The agenda will include a discussion of possible guidelines for parents in our community. Your interest and ideas are important to the success of this project. Parents who join together may discover many ways to provide a healthy atmosphere in which our youth can be encouraged to have fun without the pressure to use alcohol and other drugs. PLEASE ATTEND! bread and wine his body and his blood to drink. There is nothing in all the gospels set forth in language more unequivocal than this fact. The church has always taught, as he himself declared, that our divine Lord is truly and really present, under the forms of bread and wine, consecrated by the words uttered by himself, and spoken by those authorized by him to use them.

It is true that he suffered and died that all men might be saved, yet we know, from his own words and the teachings of his apostles, that many may not be saved because they will not make the necessary effort and sacrifice—"Many are called but few chosen." Faith alone in the redeeming sacrifice will not bring salvation; the mere fact that we believe in the divinity of Christ, in the teaching of Christ, in the redemption purchased for us by the death of Christ will not bring us salvation unless we ourselves do our part to make ourselves worthy thereof. It is not enough to have faith; we must also labor. "I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith," St. Paul says; he did not consider it enough to have the faith only—it must be accompanied by good work.

The church, therefore, celebrates this day with more joy and gladness and ceremony than any other in commemoration of the institution of that Christian Pasch which means so much to humanity! For millions of her children, under her guidance and direction, through prayer and repentance, and other penitential works are made worthy to participate in this divine banquet. They are restored to the friendship of God and have earned for themselves eternal life, for our Savior has said: "If any man eat of this bread he will live forever, and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." (John vi.)

And she celebrates this day with unusual joy and gladness for the further reason: That it is the anniversary of that day on which the Founder by his own inherent power raised himself from the dead, thus giving the strongest possible proof of his divinity, and leaving to us, who believe in him and love him, a reason for the faith that is in us.

An Easter Message

May you be blessed with the glory and gladness of this special day.

BIKE-A-THON
called
"WHEELS FOR LIFE"

St. Jude Research Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee was founded by Danny Thomas, and operates primarily from public contributions.

St. Jude Childrens Research Hospital is non-sectarian, interracial and cares for all patients who are admitted by physicians referral if their disease is under study. There is no financial test for admission.

During the last year approximately 4,100 children were recorded as active patients at the Hospital. Unlike a general care hospital where the daily total equates to the total admitted, an active patient at a research hospital is one who is admitted to a research protocol, a scientific plan of study of illness. The treatment received depends on the state of the patient and the response to therapy.

Of these more than 4,100 active patients about 48 percent are cancer patients, 34 percent are enrolled in the general pediatrics program, 9 percent are participating in research into neuromuscular diseases, 8 percent are being followed by the hematology service and 1 percent are part of the infectious disease program.

In the Bike-A-Thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Sponsor forms are available at Keith's Barber Shop and The Bakers Dozen.

Check your bike for safety. Hope to see you May 5, rain date May 12, at the Manchester Mill. Check in time is 7:15 a.m. Start is 8:00 a.m.

German Students Arrive!

This is the first half of an exchange program involving Manchester High School and Hildesheim High School in West Germany. This program is sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Manchester High School was selected as only one of 200 high schools in the United States to participate in this program. The second half of the exchange will take place in late June when seven students from Manchester High School will visit Germany for three weeks.

IN THE HEART OF A CHILD

An angel paused in his onward flight

With a seed of love, and truth, and right,

And said: "Oh, where can this seed be sown

That it will yield more fruit when fully grown?

To whom can this precious seed be given

That it may bear most fruit for earth and heaven?"

The Saviour heard and said, as He smiled,

"Place it at once in the heart of a child."

The angel whispered the blessed truth

To a weary teacher of precious youth;

Her face grew bright with heavenly light

As she led their thoughts in the way of right.

Manchester Village Planning Commission

Regular Meeting
Tuesday, March 13, 1984

The Regular Meeting of the Manchester Village Planning Commission for March was called to order by Chairman Alber at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Room of the Village Hall. Members present: Alber, Grossman, Stautz, Smith, Lowery, Walton, Kallewaard, Leeson. Kwolek entered during reading of the minutes. Members absent: none. A quorum was present.

The agenda was approved as presented, by acclamation. Minutes of the Regular Meeting of February 14, 1984 were approved as read.

Garnett Johnson, developer, and Tom Martone, architect, both of Ann Arbor, were present to submit materials for preliminary site plan review of a project of 16 apartment units on the Millpond Village site, N. Washington St. at the river. The fee was paid. During the presentation, Johnson and Martone made the following points:

The plan calls for four buildings, each with four units.

Two parking spaces for each unit, in garage with overhead door, underneath the apartment.

All units two bedroom, two bath, with entrances at front and rear and a screened porch on the river side.

All habitable portions a minimum of eight feet above the 100-year flood plain line.

No development in the cemetery area.

Plan to request a road along the former railroad right-of-way by the village, connect this to the existing road through the complex, and discourage entrance and exit alongside the Post Office. Plan to extend the present sewer and water lines; plan to loop the water line. Expect to depend on gravity for sewer and not have to construct a lift station.

These 16 units are the total future development of the site planned by this developer/owner. No additional units are anticipated.

Total heights of the buildings would be 18 feet.

Each unit between 1,000 and 1,100 square feet floor area.

Will consider installing a fire hydrant.

Garnett Johnson would be manager of the complex.

The total complex consists of approximately eight acres. Total number of apartments on the site would be 29.

It is a privately-funded project having three or possibly four investors.

Monthly rent is expected to be $450 - $475.

A motion was made by Kallewaard, seconded by Grossman, to table the site plan review until additional information could be submitted and the plans could be submitted to the Village engineers for review. The motion was passed unanimously on a voice vote.

Jim Hovey of Rural Housing Corporation, East Lansing, and Rex Cosey of Rural Architects were present to discuss plans for a project of 32 apartment units on a lot between East Main St. and Duncan St. adjoining the Village well. In their discussion, the following points were made:

Their company specializes in building apartment complexes financing with low-interest loans from the Farmers Home Administration. Their financing for this project has been approved.

This would be a project consisting of two, two-story buildings, plus a play lot and landscaping.

Under FHA regulations, they must own it for 20 years, cannot convert to condominiums and must maintain an escrow account of 10% of the total project cost ($100,000 in this case) for repairs and maintenance; the amount must be replenished as it is used.

FHA inspects the project once per year.

A local person is hired to act as manager; another as assistant manager.

Rentals are made based on their company's private review of applicant's financial report and references. This is a private, not government decision. However, rents are controlled: Over $23,000 annual income - cannot rent in the project. $22,000 - $23,000 annual income - pay $450 monthly, including gas but excluding electricity. Sliding scale of rents, down to $9,000 - $10,000 pay $240 per month.

Plan 14 - 1 bedroom apartments

(by law, not more than 2 people) 16 - 2 bedrooms, at least 2 but no more than 4 people. 2-3 bedrooms.

Expect to submit preliminary siteplan in April.

Anticipate extending sewer to Torry and Duncan Streets; water from E. Main. Plan grassy, shallow area at SE corner for storm water detention, if necessary.

Traffic would enter from both E. Main and Duncan, but there would be no straight-through drive.

Two parking spaces per unit.

There was discussion on whether or not Rural Housing Corporation would have to own the triangular property north of the former railroad right-of-way, in order to achieve the required density figure.

Under Old Business, reports were heard on zoning inspections at 107 N. Washington, Pump and Pantry, Bunski's Bazaar and Manchester Outlet.

It was announced that the Village Economic Development Corporation would hold its first meeting Thursday, March 15. Guest speaker: Michael Ammann, Director of the Washtenaw Development Council.

It was announced that Election of Officers would be at the April meeting.

Under New Business, the possible acquisition of residential property for use as a Senior Citizen's Activity Center was reviewed.

The Haeussler-Salata appeal to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a dimension variance was reviewed, along with the Village attorney's letter confirming that variance is required.

Lowery introduced the question of proper procedure for the Masonic Temple regarding a change in placement of their lighted sign on the bank building on Main Street.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:32 p.m. on a motion by Grossman, seconded by Smith, passed unanimously on a voice vote.
