Hit Or Miss

by Farley

A flight of stairs is more likely to send Americans to the hospital emergency room than anything else they encounter in an average day, according to a new government study.

The statistics collected in 1982 by the National Electronic Injury Surveillance System reported 531 injuries on stairs, ramps and landings for every 100,000 Americans.

Although stairs are the most likely cause of injury, the severest injuries stem from accidents with cigarette lighters, the study said.

The injury information service, operated by the Consumer Product Safety Commission, collects reports from hospital emergency rooms in an effort to track down dangerous products.

The system assessed both the number and severity of the injuries and concluded that cigarette lighters and fuel are associated with the severest injuries for Americans.

Following cigarette lighters on the list of severest injuries were accidents involving gasoline and diesel fuel, which rated 183 on the severity scale, although averaging only 9.4 incidents per 100,000 persons.

These products received a severity rating of 209 on a sliding

Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce

The Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce held its second organizational meeting on June 20, 1984 at The Mill. 40 area business persons and community members attended the working luncheon. Needs, goals and projects relating to each of the four working divisions were discussed.

The Organization Relations Division which deals with the inner workings of the Chamber has Sam Beal as its temporary chairman. 11 members sit on this division. This division has announced that the next general Chamber meeting will be held tentatively on September 19 and will then continue with monthly meetings. The committee will be working this summer to complete the necessary steps to get our Chamber chartered with the State of Michigan. A slate of officers for election in the fall will be ready by September to be presented to the general membership. Jim Mann is updating the list of potential chamber members residing in the four township area. Any business or individual joining the Chamber within the year will be recognized as a Charter Member. Anyone interested in finding out more about the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce may contact temporary chairperson, Sue Hamilton (428-8395).

The True System Of Business

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE
JULY 1, 1869

We notice that many of the business men of the different cities, towns and villages of the country are beginning to adopt the true system of business. They begin to realize that the old credit system is a curse to both the buyer and seller; and hence they are adopting the new plan—the case or ready pay system.

The evils of a credit system of business have long been acknowledged by all concerned. This being true, we see no reason why the true system should not be speedily adopted in all places. It cannot in the end but work good to buyer and seller. For a time, it is true, it may work close, but this will learn lessons of economy, without which no community can permanently prosper.

The credit system is a very expensive system, and must necessarily result in an increased expenditure of from ten to twenty percent. The merchant, for instance, that has twenty thousand dollars capital invested in his business, sells his goods and wares on the credit system. Soon his stock is run down and needs replenishing. This must be done or his business suffers. But where is the money to do this with? It is scattered over the country in sums of from five dollars to five hundred, in the hands of his customers who have bought his goods. He cannot collect it, and his stock is still getting lower. Something must be done! Finally the merchant hires money at a high rate of interest to replenish his stock. This interest must be added to the price of his goods, and enough to cover all losses in bad. If this is not done, soon there will be a failure. If it is done, which the successful merchant, doing a credit business, understands must be the case, then those who consume the goods and pay for what they consume, have not only to pay for the goods they use, but also the interest the merchant pays on the money borrowed to replenish his stock, as well as all the losses sustained in consequence of selling to persons who never pays. This will amount to no small percentage.

It needs but a glance at the subject to convince all parties interested in the business of the country that the credit system is a damage, and the cash or ready pay system will be a permanent benefit to any community adopting it.

Fireworks Scheduled For Saturday, June 30th

The Manchester Men's Club is sponsoring their annual fireworks display Saturday, June 30th at Carr Park. Some of the activities planned for the day are Manchester Fire Department water ball fights, beer stand, games for kids, band from 8 to 1 and fireworks display at dusk. Due to the great support from people of the Manchester area last year, the Men's Club was able to buy fireworks for this year's display. Anyone wishing to help support the fireworks can mail their contribution to the Manchester Men's Club, P.O. Box 171, Manchester, MI 48158 or contact any Men's Club member. NO PERSONAL FIREWORKS INCLUDING SPARKLERS, WILL BE ALLOWED IN THE PARK AND YOU MUST BE 21 YEARS OLD TO DRINK. People are welcome to bring picnics and stay all day or just come and enjoy the activities.

Bloodmobile July 16th

An emergency Bloodmobile is scheduled in Manchester for Monday, July 16 from 12 to 6 p.m. The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring this clinic for the Red Cross at the American Legion Hall, corner of Adrian and Duncan Streets. Mrs. Del Ludwick is chairman-of-the-day. The demand for blood increases during the summer due to accidents and surgery while vacations deplete the number of donors, making extra requests necessary.

The Red Cross recruiters for the churches in the area will begin signing up donors early in July. Registration spots with posters and boxes for appointment cards will be located at the banks—First of America, Comerica and Great Lakes Federal and at the IGA local A & B Market. Industry will sign up donors the week before the clinic.

Regular blood donors may give five times a year with at least a 58 day span between each donation. First time donors are always welcome and everyone will enjoy the air conditioned comfort of the Legion Hall if we have a typical hot July day for the event. This clinic is scheduled well between the annual March and October Bloodmobiles regularly scheduled for the Manchester area.

For further information call Mrs. Ludwick at 428-7434 or Mrs. Reck 428-8852.

Early Deadline!!!

Due to the July 4th holiday, The Manchester Enterprise will have an early deadline this week.

ALL display advertising and pictures are due by 5:00 p.m. Friday, June 29th. Classifieds and news articles must be in by 10:00 a.m. Monday, July 2nd.

Civil War Encampment

Visitors to the Ann Arbor area on July 14-15 will have the opportunity to see a civil war encampment at Cobblestone Farm, the city-owned historic farm site. A group of Detroit area men and their families have reactivated "Company E of the 17th Michigan Regiment" and will re-create a "behind the lines" hospital scene. Everything from uniforms and equipment to campfire and drill will be reproduced as authentically as possible.

On April 15, 1861, President Lincoln issued a call for volunteers from every state in the union. Michigan responded immediately and continued to supply the manpower President Lincoln needed to unite the country. By the end of the war, over ninety thousand men and boys from Michigan had participated in the conflict.

The 17th Michigan was one of thirty-one infantry regiments from the state. The regiment was organized during the summer of 1862 and left for Washington, D.C. on August 27, 1862, under the command of Colonel William H. Withington of Jackson, with an enrollment of 982 officers and men, and upon the arrival of the regiment at Washington, it was assigned to the First Brigade, First Division, Ninth Army Corps. It continued to form a part of this celebrated corps during its term of service.

Within two weeks of their departure, the 17th Michigan was receiving its baptism of fire at the battle of South Mountain, Maryland. Their heroic actions in their first battle earned them the nickname "Stonewall Regiment," which they carried proudly, ever after. The regiment had a total membership of 1224 by the end of the war. Of this number, 270 died of wounds and disease, many dying the infamous confederate prison camp of Andersonville. Of all Michigan regiments during the Civil War, the 17th Michigan holds the record for the most congressional medals of honor to be awarded to a single regiment.

The hours of operation for the Civil War Encampment will be extended to 10:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m. Admission is $1.00 for adults, 50c for youth and senior citizens. Children 3 and under are free.

The Cobblestone Farm is located at 2781 Packard Road. For further information please call the farm office, 994-2928.

Employees Retire

Two long-time and valued employees of Manchester Tool and Die, Walter (Red) Weid and Robert Reeves and their wives were honored at a retirement party at the Brass Lantern in Adrian on Friday, June 22nd.

"Red" has been employed as an engineer with the company for twenty years coming from Hoover Universal. He resides near Chelsea with his wife Jeanette.

Bob came to Tool and Die from Thornton Industries and has been in their employ for ten years. He lives in Tecumseh with his wife Rosilyn.

Both men are welcomed back on a part-time basis offering their expert advice.

Women's League Meeting

The women in the Manchester area are trying to organize a Women's League. We had two meetings with so few attending. The purpose of this League is to help with community projects like the 4th of July entertainment at the park, the community Fair, Halloween, Christmas and Easter projects for the kids.

Any woman who would be interested in this sort of thing please come to the next meeting to be held July 10th at 7:30 at the Methodist Church. Any further questions you may have, call 428-9107 or 428-8193 after 5:30.

Saline Valley Project Tillage Demonstration

For the third season, the Saline Valley Project has established tillage demonstrations which compare crop production under conservation and conventional tillage methods. The Saline Valley Project, part of USDA's Rural Clean Water Program, is conducting these demonstrations in an effort to increase conservation tillage interest on Saline Valley Project area farms.

Moldboard plowing, chisel plowing and no-till planting are tillage methods studied in the five demonstrations established this season.

According to Ron Struss, Extension Agricultural Agent with the Project, the tillage demonstrations can be toured either on a formal or informal basis.

"We have set our dates for each one of the tillage demonstrations where resource persons will be on hand to discuss what is happening in the plots and to answer questions. However, in addition to attending these formal tours, we encourage folks to tour the plots on their own whenever it is convenient," he said.

Tillage demonstration plot locations and tour dates are as follows: Reno Feldkamp Farm - Tour date - Thursday, July 5, 7:30 p.m. Soybean plot on west side of Smythe Road, ¼ mile north of Pleasant Lake Road, Sharon Township, Washtenaw County. Elmer Dible Farm: Tour date - Monday, July 9, 7:30 p.m. Soybean plot on west side Parker Road, ½ mile south of Jackson Road, Lima Township, Washtenaw County. Stan Poet Farm: Tour date - Wednesday, July 11, 7:30 p.m. Corn plot on south side Burmeister Road, just west of Shellenberger Road, Bridgewater Township, Washtenaw County.

More information on the tillage demonstrations can be obtained by contacting Mr. Struss at 313-973-9510.

Move To Manchester

BLACK SHEEP TAVERN

MANCHESTER MILL

As the day of the Chicken Broil approaches, and everyone is encouraged to attend the big event at the athletic field, there should be a reminder that Manchester has more to offer than just delicious fried chicken. In fact, Manchester provides about everything a small village in Michigan is thought to contain.

It has wide pleasant streets, beautiful churches, and an exciting downtown area. It has antique shops, and most pleasant of all, friendly people. There is a uniqueness to Manchester that is greatly appreciated by its residents, and envied by visitors.

The Black Sheep Tavern on Main Street has operated as a convivial place of refreshment for well over 100 years. The ambience of the Black Sheep takes one back to the second half of the nineteenth century, and you are convinced that you are sipping a drink at a bar from a different era. And you are.

The old chestnut wood is warm and inviting, and the service very friendly.

The Manchester Mill, also on Main Street, is now being operated as a meeting place. However, it operated as a mill until about three years ago, and in 1976, received recognition from the State of Michigan as the oldest operating business at the same site in the state. It was established in 1832. There is also a delightful antique shop on the premises, as well as an antique mall on Main Street.

Located on the east end of Main Street is an old Blacksmith Shop. The last fulltime blacksmith, John Schneider, died in 1953, and his forge and anvil were closed down by his daughters and preserved. The Manchester Area Historical Society purchased the building and restored the interior to circa 1883, together with the tools and working equipment of the blacksmith's trade. The Blacksmith Shop will be open and operating on Chicken Broil Day. Come by and see the blacksmith in action.

Again on Main Street, but west of the business section is a very distinguished home, presently owned and occupied by Thomas and Mary Walton. It was built before the Civil War by Jebes H. Fountain who served as the Quartermaster General of the Michigan Militia during that conflict. The house was restored in 1949 by its present owners, and graces the village to this day as a reminder of the stability of this town.

It is fervently hoped that some of the expected 10,000 visitors will take the time to walk up Main Street from the athletic field, and see that there is more to Manchester than delicious fried chicken.

Buffet Magic

Carrying off any large event with serenity and sanity simply requires management and planning. A buffet/open house is no exception. Just a few hours of thought will result in a smooth-running event which will delight you and your guests.

Foods selected will, of course, reflect the preferences of your guests; but if you're not sure of guests' choices, prepare some options. The array of Michigan food products makes this part of the planning effortless. With fruits, vegetables, dairy products, meats and grains, selecting a balanced menu is easy.

Think of menu items that can be prepared ahead and heated just before serving. Check your supply of preparation and serving dishes. These menu suggestions use the abundance of Michigan's agriculture to combine flavors, colors and textures in a buffet that is both simple and delicious.

Hot Spiced Michigan Apple Juice and/or Chilled Apple Ginger Ale (half Michigan apple juice, half Michigan ginger ale) can be served from pitchers. Fresh Michigan Fruits with Fruit Yogurt Dip (melon chunks, stemmed sweet cherries, pear wedges, grapes, strawberries, peach slices, purple-plum halves) need only a platter and a small bowl. Meatballs in Barbecue Sauce and/or Turkey Frank Chunks in Sweet-Sour Sauce require a small crockery cooker, chafing dish or hot tray to maintain proper temperature.

Potato Salad and/or Warm and Tangy Bean Salad need large serving bowls, and the bean salad should be kept warm. Fresh Michigan Vegetable Relishes (carrots, celery, green pepper, cucumbers, green onions, cherry tomatoes, mushrooms) need a large platter or tray. For dessert, Cheese Cake and/or Carrot Cake. Top the cheese cake with one of the Michigan fruit pie fillings—cherry, blueberry, apple or peach heated and spiced with a dash of nutmeg, allspice or both.

Count the silver, cups, glasses and plates. Can you borrow extras from the neighbors? Can you borrow refrigerator and freezer space? Arrange the seating space and count the chairs. Temporarily remove any furniture that will get bumped, stepped on or damaged by spilled food. Borrow chairs, or rent them from a church or rent-all store. Arrange for the food table to be close to the kitchen. It's very inconvenient to dodge diners when replenishing the buffet table. Be sure to provide a place where guests may put used plates and glasses.

Michigan food products and your planning—an unbeatable combination for a successful buffet/open house.

SWEET-SOUR SAUCE

- 1/2 cup soy sauce

Combine butter, vinegar, water and syrup in pan. Mix cornstarch and ginger and stir in soy sauce. Add to syrup mixture and heat gently, stirring constantly until smooth, thickened and transparent. Makes about 4 cups. Heat before serving.

WARM AND TANGY BEAN SALAD

- 1 cup Michigan dry navy beans
- 1 cup Michigan dry kidney beans or 3 cups canned Michigan kidney beans
- 1 medium Michigan onion, chopped
- 3 tablespoons oil, shortening or bacon drippings
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon celery seed

Wash and sort beans. Place in separate pans with water to cover. Bring to a boil; boil one minute; cover and remove from heat. Let stand one hour. Bring to a boil and simmer one hour or until tender. Drain beans well. Sauté onions in oil until soft. Stir in flour, salt and seasonings. Cook and stir until pasty. Add vinegar, water and bacon; stir until thickened. Fold in beans and heat until warmed throughout, OR refrigerate; then warm gently just before serving. Makes 8 - 10 servings.

Keep a crunch dip in the refrigerator for the nibblers in your family. An easy one is made with 2 cups cottage cheese beaten until fairly smooth, mixed with 3/4 cup minced radishes, 1/4 cup sliced green onion tops and seasoned with 1/2 teaspoon onion salt. It's good with crackers, chips or vegetable dippers.

BUTTERY SUGAR COOKIES

- Makes about 60
- 1/2 pound (2 sticks) butter
- 5 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- About 1/2 cup sugar for rolling the baked cookies

Cream the butter and sugar with an electric mixer until light and fluffy. Beat in the vanilla. Work in the flour with the fingers. Roll into balls about 3/4 inch in diameter and place on a cookie sheet, about 1 inch apart. The cookies will swell by one-third as they bake. Place in a preheated 350-degree oven for about 5 minutes, or until the cookies are pale gold. Roll in additional granulated sugar, cool, and store in a tightly covered container.

scale that ranged to a low point of 13 for injuries associated with volleyball.

While the lighters produced the worst injuries, the frequency was only 8.7 per 100,000 persons during the year. Stairs, the most frequent hazard, rated only 37 on the severity scale.

The severity scale is computed by averaging the damage in the reported cases. The most minor injury is rated at 10 points, next at 12, then 16.8 and so forth up to 2,516 points when the incident results in death.

Injuries on stairs were more than double the injury rate of bicycles, which were in second place, the study showed. The report showed 253 bicycle related injuries per 100,000 Americans, with an average severity rating of 35.

While the severity ratings of stairs and bicycles were similar, the people affected were quite different.

Persons aged under 4 and over 65 were most likely to be hurt on stairs with a rate of 1,286 injuries per 100,000 for the toddlers and 756 for the elderly.

For bicycles the 5 to 14 age group predominated at 1,018 injuries per 100,000.

The national pastime, baseball, finished third on the injury list with 224 per 100,000 and a relatively low severity ranking of 21. These injuries were concentrated on those aged between 5 and 24, the study showed.

The only other category with more than 200 injuries per 100,000 people was basketball at 202, although football was close behind at 191.

As well as being the biggest hazard overall to Americans, stairs topped the list for those under 4 at 1,286 per 100,000, well ahead of the 800 injuries in that group traced to sinks and toilets.

Because the study is based on total number of injuries, the injury rate will rise with increased participation.

Mrs. Edward Braun at 93 up With the Times

by Marie Schneider
 Mrs. Edward Braun of Manchester keeps busy. Yes, she is very busy when friends remember that she is 93 years old. She and her late husband bought their home in 1926. She is not considering giving up her home as long as she is feeling good. There might come a time in the future when she might have to—but not now.

The couple had four children. There were two boys and two girls. One is living. She is Mrs. Robert (Marian) Riley. She resides in California. Several years ago Mrs. Braun and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Duane Braun, flew to California to visit Mrs. Riley.

Mrs. Riley makes it a point to come to Manchester in the fall each year and help her mother celebrate her birthday which is October 25 and visit friends in Ann Arbor where she used to live.

Mrs. Braun is not troubled with backaches and doesn't mind climbing the stairs to her bedroom. She has been doing it a long time. She has her own teeth but does wear a hearing aid. Her automatic washer makes it possible for her to do her own laundry. This she considers an important part of modern housekeeping.

She has her telephone in the kitchen where it is easy for her to reach. She serves herself good well balanced meals and enjoys cooking. This probably accounts for her good health.

She really doesn't need the large vegetable garden. But the big garden is planted every year. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Braun, and members of her family all assist with the project. They raise potatoes, lettuce, radishes, onions, beans and peas. They also have strawberries, rhubarb and the big raspberry patch.

A lot of foods are frozen or canned for winter use. Now Mrs. Braun uses only pint cans. A quart jar is just too big for one person. She likes to get outdoors in the morning. She has her flowers to take care of and then she helps weed in the vegetable garden too.

On Sundays she attends services at Emanuel United Church of Christ. Mrs. Duane Braun takes her. She does enjoy reading her paper in the evening. This gives her a little entertainment before retiring. She does enjoy her radio but finds it difficult to view her television unless there is something special to watch.

She often remembers their plane flight to California some years ago when she went to visit her daughter. Now she is looking forward to next fall when her daughter will be here to spend some time with her and celebrate her 94th birthday.

But for the present she is taking good care of her home and doing some shopping each week with her daughter-in-law. They usually do this detail at the end of the week. This gives her an opportunity to visit with friends she might not get a chance to see any other way.

U Of M Family Practice Center Highlights History Of Medicine

In 1833 while the first settlers in Chelsea were preparing for the formation of a government, many medical advances were taking place in European countries. During this year France imported 42 million leeches to be used in bloodletting—one of the popular methods of treating illness at that time. Many of the medical techniques employed during the early days of Chelsea's existence are now regarded as having been worse than the ailments they were meant to relieve.

The Family Practice Center will be participating in the Sesquicentennial celebration by hosting an open house which will review changes in medicine during the past 150 years. A committee of employees from the Center have spent the spring researching information to develop this historic exhibit.

"The committee is fascinated with the information it has brought together concerning this period," states Peggy Alford Campbell, coordinator of the group. "This segment of time from 1834 is full of untried procedures, new techniques and inventions," continues Campbell. "It really makes one realize how far we have come when you look at the fact that surgery was done without anesthesia prior to 1850. Patients were sedated with alcohol and strapped to the table. A surgeon had to be strong and quick."

The tour and displays will highlight the advances which have taken place by dividing the time into three eras beginning with 1834, 1884 and 1934. Finally, some of the old techniques will be contrasted with 1984 procedures and participants will get a glimpse of where medicine is heading in the future.

The exhibit will be located at The University of Michigan Family Practice Center at Chelsea, 775 S. Main Street and will be open from 9-5 on Saturday, June 30th. The shuttle bus transporting people from the parking area to town will make a stop at the Center to pick up and drop people off enroute.

Tri-Star Baseball Skills Contest

The Optimist Club of Manchester will hold a Tri-Star Baseball Skills Contest at Kirk Park at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 30th. There will be a separate contest for boys and girls. The contest is composed of three basic skills, for youth aged 8-13, in order to evaluate contestants' skills in hitting, baserunning, and throwing.

All that is required in order to compete is desire, according to Elvin Johnson, committee chairman.

There will be plaques awarded to the first three winners in each age group with a separate contest for boys and girls. Each contestant will also receive a momento score card and patch.

Entry blanks are available at several local businesses or at the contest site on the day of the competition. They may also be obtained by calling Elvin Johnson at 428-9409.

Monday, June 25, 1984, marked the beginning of the second half of the exchange program between Manchester High School and the Michelsen School of Hildesheim, West Germany. With last minute hugs and good wishes, seven of our students boarded the United Airlines flight that took them first to Chicago, and from there on to Frankfurt via the Lufthansa Airlines. Also at the airport to officially send off the group was high school Principal Bill Bushaw. Accompanying the students on the three week trip is high school German teacher Susan Davis who is responsible for initiating the Manchester exchange program. Besides attending school with their host students, other activities planned include a tour of the old churches and castles in the area, an overnight stay in the mountains and a trip to the East-West border. An excited group of family and friends will welcome the students home when they return on July 18th.

Lori Ann DuRussel David Harold Flint

Lori Ann DuRussel and David Harold Flint were united in marriage on May 12 in the Manchester United Methodist Church. The Rev. Thomas Hart officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. DuRussel and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Flint. Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was attired in a gown of organza and chantilly lace featuring a cameo insert accenting a high neck, straight sleeves and organza skirt. A flower on the skirt extended into a chapel train and the fingertip veil with a lace motif was held by a raised bandeau trimmed with Venice lace, sequins and pearls. Attending the bride were her sisters, Diane DuRussel, maid of honor, and Mary Clark, matron of honor.

Their dresses were fashioned of frosted pink luster glow fabric with high necks, Point d'Esprit yokes and bishop sleeves; setting off Gibson girl hair styles.

Best man, Gary Flint, brother of the groom, was assisted by usher Steve Flint, cousin of the groom.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the Manchester Mill.

The newlyweds have returned from a honeymoon in the Smokey Mountains and are residing in Saline.

fireworks-- legal and illegal

To help clear up the annual confusion over which fireworks are legal, the Michigan State Police offer some definitions and precautions to help Fourth of July celebrants have a safe and legal holiday.

The only fireworks which may be sold at the retail level and used by the general public are restricted to: toy paper cups, snakes, toy smoke devices, toy trick noise makers, wire sparklers (size #14 or less), flitter sparklers, and both cone and cylinder fountains.

Any other fireworks are illegal for sale and use unless proper permits are obtained from the local governing body. Fireworks which send a projectile into the air, spin, whirl, or emit an audible signal (excluding toy paper caps and trick noise makers) are illegal. Local jurisdictions may have more restrictive ordinances. Contact them for additional information.

Fire marshal officers stress that many children, and adults as well, are seriously burned or injured each year while playing with fireworks and emphasize the caution should be used. These safety precautions are suggested:

•Make sure the fireworks are legal for use by local ordinance and state law;

•Check for manufacturer's label and instructions for use on all fireworks—illegally manufactured fireworks rarely have either;

•Carefully follow instructions for use;

•Provide adult supervision and don't allow very young children to handle fireworks;

•Light only one device at a time;

•Ignite fireworks outdoors only and away from buildings and combustible materials;

•Don't attempt to alter or use fireworks in a manner not intended.

Persons having any questions concerning the safety and legality of any fireworks are advised to contact any State Police post or their local police or fire department for assistance.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I am writing to inform you of a problem concerning misappropriated class funds. This problem directly concerns the classes of 1975-1979, but indirectly affects all classes.

The problem was brought to light when I, Lori England, class of '79 President, went to the school to collect our class money for our five-year reunion. I was informed that we had no money in our account; it had been given to the Alumni Association. I was totally surprised and confused, because I thought that to remove money from our account, required three of the officers' signatures. Also before we had graduated, the class officers and our class advisor had sat down with Mr. Kappler, then principal, to discuss our class money. We had been thinking of taking our money and opening our own account. Mr. Kappler said that this action wasn't necessary, that we could leave the money in the general fund and then get it prior to our reunion. In leaving the money there, we agreed to let the school use the interest from the fund. At that time, we drew up a letter of intent stating this purpose and all the officers, advisor, superintendent (Mr. Mastens), and principal (Mr. Kappler) signed it. It was attached to our account ledger for documentation.

After some investigation, I found that our class money and that of classes 1975-1978, had been signed over to the Alumni Association in accordance with policy #3470. This policy, concerning trust and agency funds, was adopted on March 2, 1981 (2 years after we graduated!!!). The part which concerns class funds reads: Class funds shall be maintained only until the class has graduated. Any funds remaining in the class account following graduation shall be paid to the Manchester High School Alumni Association. To my knowledge this policy has never been printed in full. Also there is no statement in the policy which calls for it to be retroactive!

So, on June 19, 1981, Superintendent Mr. Thompson signed over $860.35 from classes 1975-1979 to the Alumni Association; $711.69 of that belonging to the Class of '79." No attempt was made by him or anyone to contact any of the class officers or advisors of these classes. And, the transfer of the Class of '79's money was made totally ignoring the above mentioned letter of intent.

On Monday, June 11, 1984 at 9:30 a.m. (after several previous unsuccessful attempts), Vanessa Ames Albee (Class Secretary) and I went to talk with Mr. Thompson. He told us what we already knew—that our money was given to the Alumni Association in accordance with policy #3470. We asked why he hadn't made an attempt to contact any of our officers or the officers' parents (who are all still taxpayers in the Manchester school system) or our advisor (who has been a teacher in the school since our graduation). He reluctantly admitted that we probably should have been notified.

We asked how the school could just take our money and do with it what they pleased. (After all, we earned it (as all classes do) through various fund-raising projects. These projects involved long hours, inconvenienced parents and minimal profits!). He said that any class money earned through the school is money to be used by the school; it does not belong to separate classes.

We also discussed the fact that we had talked with Mr. Kappler about our class money before graduation. Mr. Thompson's only response was that no class could take their money out of the school and put it in their own account under his administration. "After all," he said, "How am I to know that if I gave you this money that you two wouldn't take off for Hawaii or something..."

Vanessa mentioned that she thought the class officers and advisors should have to read and sign policies, such as this, that affect their classes since they are elected officers of the class and should know the policies that affect them. Mr. Thompson didn't really think this was necessary, because most class advisors know of these policies (which obviously isn't always true!). Seeing we weren't getting very far, we finally asked what he would do to help us. He agreed to write a letter to the president of the Alumni Association, urging them to consider returning our money.

This matter has been brought to the School Board's and the Alumni Association's attention. This is where the circus begins! The Alumni Association is saying that the money was a gift. The president's analogy is "If someone gave your money to the Cancer Society, would you go after the superintendent is saying that it's out of his hands. Basically, no one wants to take the responsibility to rectify this problem."

The Class of '79 is caught in a vicious circle. We want our money back—after all, we earned it! We've had a successful reunion, but we still have outstanding bills. We want justice done and we need your support!

The school board has granted us a tentative "hearing" date of Monday, July 16, 1984 at 8:00 p.m. The issue will be an agenda item and an open discussion will take place. I am asking that all students and parents from all classes who have contributed time and effort in earning money, come and support us in our effort to get these class monies refunded.

There are certainly many issues which should be fully discussed and decisions which should be made—let your voice be heard! Watch for more details. I hope to see you there!

Angry, but Hopeful,
Lori L. England
Class of '79 President

The True System Of Business

We trust the business men of every village and town in Washtenaw county, will look at this matter square in the face, and that every farmer, mechanic, and in fact every man who expects to honestly pay for what he buys, will co-operate with business man in order to the complete adoption of the Ready Pay system of business. Many merchants and traders have already adopted this plan, and find it works to a charm. They get the money that is afloat, while the man who "trusts," does the credit business. The reason of this is obvious. The cash dealer has no interest to pay, no bad debts to loose, and hence can sell his goods at lower figures. The purchaser will, when he has money, go where he can buy the cheapest. He will often forsake the man that accomodated him with credit. We repeat once more, the cash or ready pay system is the most profitable to all concerned.

Counterfeit-Altered Money Reported

On June 15th a west side Ann Arbor business reported two incidents of counterfeit-altered money to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. The individuals involved are tearing the corners off twenty dollar bills and gluing them on to one dollar bills and passing them as twenties.

Please watch your money more closely as you receive it. Look at the corners for alterations, look at the picture of the President. Washington is on the one and a Jackson is on the twenty dollar bill. Look at the back of the bill as they may have altered the front and not the back. Also, on the bottom front and back of the bill is printed the correct denomination.

If you do receive an altered bill attempt to detain the individuals. Get identification or a vehicle description and license plate number. Save the altered bill for possible fingerprints so do not handle it any more than is necessary.

Area residents should also be notified that this is the gypsy season. There has been a couple of isolated incidents of gypsy type people offering to do asphalt resurfacing, or retarring roofs for a low price. However, it turns out to be poor workmanship, inferior materials and at a higher than bargained for price. Remember if it sounds too good to be true, it probably isn't true.

A northern city police department reported that a band of gypsies wearing brightly colored clothing with gaudy jewelry kept an IGA store employee busy while their accomplice took a large amount of cash, food stamps, and checks from the store safe. Be alert to these types of con games. For further information or suggestions contact the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department Crime Prevention Office or Detective William Eskridge, 971-8400.

VA Medical Center Sponsors Picnic And Cook-Off

Disabled veterans and their families and disabled members of the community are invited to participate in a picnic and cook-off on Sunday, July 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Independence Lake County Park main shelter area.

The festivities are being held in recognition of the Decade of Disabled Persons. The picnic is being organized by the Ann Arbor VA Medical Center's employee Subcommittee on Employment of the Handicapped and Disabled Veterans.

Veterans service organizations, the VA Medical Center's employee union—AFGE Local 2092—and local businesses are contributing refreshments and prizes for the event.

VA staff are arranging recreational activities, including special wheelchair games for adults and children.

A highlight of the picnic will be a cook-off in which disabled individuals will prepare their favorite recipes. Acting as judges will be prominent members of the community.

All disabled persons are invited to submit recipes for the cook-off. Recipes must be submitted by June 29, 1984, to Judy Witzke, chief of Prosthetics Section, VA Medical Center, 2215 Fuller Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48105. Five finalists will be selected to prepare their dishes at the picnic.

Reservations to attend the picnic should be made in advance. For reservations or other information, call Judy Witzke, chairperson for the picnic, at (313) 769-7100, ext. 215 or 748.

Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission's Independence Lake County Park is located off Jennings Road in Webster Township. For directions to the park, call 994-2575.

There are several other provisions calling for expeditious procedures relating to travel, customs banking, taxes, transportation, agriculture exchange including cooperative projects, and demonstrations and training in animal husbandry, genetic engineering, food processing and preservation and other areas of mutual benefit.

From the office of THE GOVERNOR

Governor James J. Blanchard concluded his six-day China mission for jobs by co-signing, along with Governor Yang Xizong of Sichuan Province, a memorandum expanding the two-year-old friendship agreement between Michigan and Sichuan. Governor Blanchard, in a joint statement with Governor Yang, called the new agreement a "springboard for cooperation, a springboard for modernization and a springboard for jobs." A significant condition of the new agreement calls for extension of "preferential treatment" between Michigan and Sichuan "to each other's departments, enterprises and other entities" which can have a positive impact on either state's economy.

A second provision provides that the two states will "take new initiatives to encourage economic and technical cooperation, including direct investment and all forms of cooperative commerce between the departments, enterprises and other entities." Under this provision the Michigan Department of Commerce should be notified when the provincial government has knowledge of pending major purchases of machine tools, agricultural, implements or other products or services manufactured in Michigan. The provision also commits Michigan and Sichuan to make "all possible effort to locate representative banking and other financial agencies within each other's respective jurisdictions."

There are several other provisions calling for expeditious procedures relating to travel, customs banking, taxes, transportation, agriculture exchange including cooperative projects, and demonstrations and training in animal husbandry, genetic engineering, food processing and preservation and other areas of mutual benefit.

Legislation to allow local election officials to cancel inactive voter registrations without giving notice, and which would arbitrarily discriminate against some registered voters, was vetoed by Lieutenant Governor Martha W. Griffiths. The Lieutenant Governor criticized the lack of uniformity in H.B. 4901, saying it would establish two classes of voters at the discretion of city and township election clerks.

"Such a dual system is not good public policy because it lacks uniformity," she said in her message to the Legislature. "It also invites a constitutional challenge because it treats voters, unequally as a result of geography or a community's administrative policy, which could vary over time." She added, "Michigan has a tradition of vigorously encouraging the exercise of the franchise rather than inhibiting participation. The bill deviates from legislative history by providing an option for cancellation without notice."

PANTHER PAUSE

It was a peaceful enough night, but then most nights are, here in Manchester. I could hear the soft rumble of the water falls in the distance and the occasional barking of a dog.

On this particular evening I was returning to the river area at the south end of the village, after gorging myself on rabbits in a wooded area just east of the village. Feeling lazy and having trouble staying awake, I wandered along the wide, hard trodden trails that led in all directions in a criss-cross pattern through the village. I came upon a very large fenced area which I assumed must have been a cage of some kind. I could catch an occasional faint, stale odor of cooked chicken buried somewhere in the dirt near the southwest end of the cage. As I strolled along the northern borders of the fence, watching anxiously to see what it contained, I soon became aware of its emptiness. When I turned south along the west side and approached the corner, I could then see why it was empty. Someone had left the cage door open. I smiled inside and felt a tingle of excitement, for I could still vividly remember my escape and the thrilling feeling of freedom as I ran joyfully into the brush. My thoughts wandered briefly to the days of my captivity, and a strange feeling of compassion came over me.

I was startled suddenly, back to reality, by the strong scent of man and I quickly spotted him sitting quietly in a white motorized machine. Not your ordinary machine, for this had writing on the side and odd looking lights on the top of it. My body tensed and my instincts battled between the urge to flee, and the urge to approach. I had never been harmed by man and I had fond memories of him from kitten-hood. As my instincts struggled, I gained confidence and strolled out onto the well lit trail in front of him and continued on, toward the river.

Only later would I come to realize the foolish mistake I had made on that quiet evening in May, and learn to obey my instincts to flee from man.

Help Your Heart

Aerobic Dance

Millions of Americans have discovered that aerobic dance is an enjoyable way to get into shape. Because it combines rhythmic movements with simple dance steps that can improve and maintain cardiovascular fitness, the American Heart Association supports aerobic dance as a lifelong physical activity.

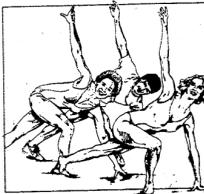

Any exercise program should provide enough pleasure and enjoyment so you will want to continue. Aerobic dance is gaining popularity because it emphasizes fun and fitness rather than skill or competition. Participation is not limited by age, sex or shape, so try it. Help your heart!

When combined with over-eating, lack of exercise may lead to excess weight, which is a contributing factor to the risk of developing heart disease. Aerobic exercise at least three times a week for 20 to 30 minutes each time, can help reduce that risk. Unfortunately, aerobic exercise alone cannot prevent or cure heart disease, especially if you have high blood pressure, a high cholesterol level or smoke cigarettes, which are the three major risk factors.

Before beginning an exercise program, see your doctor if you are not accustomed to regular exercise and are a male over 45 years old or a female over 50 years old.

Also see your doctor first if you have heart trouble or high blood pressure, or suffer from pain, extreme breathlessness or dizziness.

Always warm up before each dancing session, and wear cushioned footwear that fits. Even the most enthusiastic exerciser is likely to be discouraged by aching feet and strained muscles. Comfortable clothing is recommended.

Anyone starting a program of aerobic dance, and especially one who has been sedentary, should not go "all out" from the beginning. After becoming accustomed to one level of exercise, progress to a more demanding level.

Aerobic dancing should not be considered just a fad—something to do for a few days, weeks or months and then forget. Like good eating habits, exercise is a lifetime commitment. When you stop exercising, the beneficial effects are lost rapidly.

Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp Exchange Program

Shelli Aldrich was selected to tour Europe this summer with the Blue Lake International Orchestra as a violinist. Shelli is 14 years old and a sophomore at Saline High School next fall. She is the granddaughter of Helen Braun of 800 E. Main Street, and the daughter of Carol (Braun) and Jim Aldrich of Ann Arbor.

Shelli's aunt, Janet Avery (110 Wolverine Street), was with the crowd of 1,000 people at Metro airport Monday, June 18, to see the 260 members of the orchestra, band, choir and jazz band depart for Europe. After an all-night vigil, the flight left at 5:00 a.m. (10 hours late!).

The 89 talented, young musicians of the 1984 International Orchestra played a farewell concert on June 16, after attending the 9-day camp in Muskegon. During camp they rehearsed 7 hours a day, in addition to attending language lessons in German, French and Dutch.

The orchestra members are from Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri, and one is from West Germany. They traveled to Blue Lake in Muskegon once a month since October to rehearse.

While in Europe, Shelli will be staying in the homes of 9 different host families and playing concerts in each of the following cities: Brussels and Genk, Belgium; Paris, France; Den Haag, The Netherlands; and Balingen, Emmendingen, Bremerhaven, Otterndorf, and Schweinfurt, West Germany. They play a repertoire of music by French and German composers, in addition to "Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin, and "Jesus Christ, Superstar" and "Stars and Stripes Forever." Shelli is expected to teach the Europeans about her two favorite pastimes: "break dancing" and Michael Jackson! They return on July 16th.

Shelli also had the honor of being Concert Mistress of the Symphonic Orchestra at the "It's Magic" Pops Concert in Saline last month, which was attended by her grandmother and several friends. Shelli's private string teacher is Nancy Feldkamp of Clinton, her orchestra director is Robert Phillips of Saline, and her 1984 International Orchestra co-conductors are Nathan and Christina Judson of Grosse Pointe.
