The New Vault

Manchester Enterprise
October 16, 1880

Messrs. Greenman & Jacqueman, contractors for the erection of the vault at Oak Grove Cemetery, have already begun operations, and will soon begin laying stone.

The plan accepted by the board, was drawn by an experienced draftsman as well as builder in this class of work, Mr. S. F. Marsteller, of Clinton, as were the specifications, from which we get a few figures for the readers of the Enterprise. First let us state that the vault will be built in the side hill near the centre of Oak Grove, about six rods from the front fence. The design is attractive and neat, yet not failing to give the beholder an idea of its solidity. The approaches will be by graveled road-way leading from either gate at the side of the cemetery.

The vault is to be 19 x 21 feet outside, and 16 x 18 feet inside. The front will be of Berea cut stone, tooled margin with point work standing out in relief. It will be ten feet in height, surmounted by an urn. On either side of the cap stone will be a neat scroll, from which the side walls will taper outward, making them twenty feet wide as the base. The side and rear walls are to be built of cobble stone, two feet thick, laid with Akron cement. Iron rods will be used to strengthen the walls. The inside to be neatly pointed. The roof is to be arched on quarter circle, the springers will be of Berea cut stone, fastened on the top with iron clamps, and laid in Portland cement. The arch will be covered with a coating of the same. The floor will be laid with gravel and cement. The storm door will be upon the inside, built of heavy sheet iron on wrought iron frames, with brass lock. The grated door to be of best wrought iron built with brass lock. The contractors have furnished bonds for the faithful performance of the job, and a number of the board will inspect the work as it progresses, to see that everything is done to specifications. The contractors must finish their work by the 15th of November.

Lynda Kosinski Local Century III Winner

Lynda Kosinski, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dawdy of 10656 Clinton Road is the Manchester High School winner in the Century III Leadership Scholarship Competition. As the school winner Lynda will go on to compete at the state level. There, two winners receive $1,500.00 scholarships and all-expense-paid trips to the National Century III Leaders Conference in Williamsburg, Virginia. Two state alternates each receive $500.00 scholarships. One particularly outstanding senior will eventually collect a $10,000.00 scholarship which goes to the national winner. Now in its eleventh year, the Century III Leaders program is designed to bring together student leaders to discuss issues facing America in its third century. Students are judged at the local school level on leadership abilities, school and community involvement, a current events exam, and an essay written on an issue facing America. The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals and funded by the Shell Companies Foundation, Inc.

Lynda's school activities include cheerleading, Students Against Drunk Driving, National Honor Society, Academic Games (English and Accounting), Village to Village - Manchester, German Club, and the school play. Her leadership positions include president of the sophomore class, vice-president of the National Honor Society in 11th grade and president in 12th, captain of the English Academic Games Team, co-founder of Village to Village - Manchester, and co-editor and financial manager of the 1986 school yearbook. Lynda has been on the honor roll every year, was an Optimist Citizen of the Month, won first place in the Optimist Oratorical Contest, was the outstanding accounting student last year, and this summer was a representative to Michigan Girl's

United Way On Its Way Up

With the 1985 United Way Campaign drawing to a close, the residents, employees and businesses of Manchester once again have demonstrated their generosity. Three divisions are complete and each one surpassed its goal. The Organizations Division, chaired by Janice Little, submitted donations totaling 103% of its goal. The Outside Business Division, chaired by David Little, collected donations and pledges totaling 109% of its goal. The Rural Division, chaired by Susan Mann, topped its goal at 125%. Neither distance, nor mud, nor barking dogs kept the 58 captains and solicitors on the Rural team from knocking on doors throughout the four townships!

In the Industrial Division, chaired by Ron Fielder, Manchester's corporations also seem to have put a little extra into their United Way giving this year. Pinnacle Engineering, with about fourteen employees including part-timers, increased their total contribution by a significant amount this year. Liz Malcolm, who co-ordinated the United Way Campaign for Pinnacle reported that almost 100% of their employees contributed.

Bill Mitchell, chairman of the Manchester United Way drive for Chrysler Proving Grounds, reported that the total corporation and employee contributions nearly doubled over what they were in 1984. This year Bill, assisted by John Sauter, directly solicited each employee who lives in Manchester and requested that they designate their contribution for Manchester. Their efforts on behalf of Manchester certainly paid off.

The United Way Board thanks all who have given so generously of their time and money to make the campaign successful.

Manchester Schools On Main Street

This article is to call your attention to the fact that American Education week is rapidly approaching. During this week the Manchester Community Schools annually bring the school district to the village. Our project, known as "Manchester Schools On Main Street", has been recognized in various education journals as an exemplary effort.

Manchester Schools on Main Street will be held on Saturday, November 23, in the location of the former Ace Hardware. Mr. Sam Beal has very generously donated the use of his building to the school district for that day. We would like to personally invite you to stop by for a cup of coffee, a cookie and the opportunity to review some of the extremely interesting projects underway in the Manchester Schools. Not only will you witness students displaying incredible computer skills but also the artistic efforts of those with fine arts skills. Video tapes and slide presentations will chronicle the progress made in the Manchester Schools both in academic programs and building renovation. Copies of achievement tests results showing the academic growth of students during their years in school will be available.

We think you will find an item of interest as you witness the school tax dollars at work. Please make every effort to join us on Saturday the 23rd.

In addition, for an evening of fine entertainment may we suggest that you attend the fall presentation of the Manchester High School Drama Club either Friday evening November 22, or the evening of Saturday, November 23. The play to be presented is "The Miracle Worker."

Jaycees Big Buck Contest

November 15, is the last day that tickets may be purchased for the Manchester Jaycees first annual Big Buck Contest. The contest, which is the new chapter's first project, will award a cash prize to the hunter who brings in the biggest deer. Second and third prizes will also be awarded. Proceeds from the contest will be used to help establish the new chapter.

Tickets are now on sale at many local merchants. Entered deer must be brought to Fillyaw's Marathon Station, 327 W. Main Street, Manchester, for official weigh-in. Complete rules for the contest are available wherever tickets are sold.

Shakespeare Reading Club

The Shakespeare Reading Club met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Parr on Tuesday, October 29, 1985.

Mrs. Marvin Kirk read from the old minutes of October 31, 1904. It was noted that in a New York Times article the water-color paintings of Myra Spaford were recognized (Myra was a Manchester person who was an Art teacher in the Detroit School System until she retired and came back to Manchester).

The program for the day was a book review of "The Ladies of the Club" given by Mrs. Floyd Parr. It was about a Literary Club formed in south-western Ohio in the middle of the nineteenth century. The club membership was limited to 12 in the beginning. The book carried the story of 2 of the members and their families until their deaths. It described household furnishings and styles of clothing from hoop skirts to the short skirts and long waists of the flapper era. It included much of the politics and history of the period.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Henry Van Der Schalie's home on Tuesday, November 12, 1985.

It's Campbell Soup Time Again!

Manchester Middle School is collecting labels to be exchanged for audio-visual equipment. The collection period ends on February 15, 1986. Please save labels from ALL Campbell Soups, "V-8" juice, Swanson canned and frozen foods, all Franco-American products and Recipe dog food. New this year are Mrs. Paul's frozen foods and Prego Spaghetti Sauce. You may send the labels to any Manchester School to be sent to the Middle School or give them to any Middle School student or deposit them at the local I.G.A. Thanks for helping us again this year!

Letter To The Editor

This is to make the community aware of the organization of the Middle School Boosters. The first task undertaken will be to fund - to the extent possible - the programs deleted by the millage defeat. A pledge has already been made funding basketball and cheerleading. Fund raising activities targeted to raise $18,000 in the next few weeks are being planned.

Since there is so little time - and to save money - the Middle School Boosters will be working under the umbrella of the Athletic Boosters who have kindly consented to assist us. Donations are tax deductible and should be sent to:

"Manchester Athletic Boosters - Middle School Program", 410 City Road, Manchester, Michigan 48158.

The group would like to offer the following suggestions as guidelines for giving:

- 1) If you supported the defeated millages, please consider a contribution of the amount of the tax increase you would have paid had the millage passed.

- 2) If you have a child in sports or cheerleading (approximately 75% are), please consider a minimum contribution of $75.00.
- 3) Give all that you can.

Please do not wait for a fund drive to be organized. Send money now!

Sincerely,
Middle School Boosters - Organizing Committee
John Anderson, Beth Clouse, Kathy Davis, Terry & Bob Gillow, Bill & Cindy Kemmer, Jeanette & Ray Mazurek, Marley & Jerry Pagel, Carol Scherdt, and Terry Woods

P.S. The next meeting is on Sunday, November 17, at 7:30 p.m. at the Middle School. JOIN US!

Motorists Urged to Watch for Deer

More than 26,400 car-deer accidents occurred in Michigan last fall, resulting in five deaths, 1,299 injuries and millions of dollars in property damages.

Department of Natural Resources (DNR) officials advise motorists to be alert and on the look-out for deer on the roads, especially from now until the end of December, when deer are much more mobile than at other times of the year.

In addition to the loss of life and personal injuries, "car-deer incidents in the State accounted for more than $43,000,000 last year in property damages and individual deer value," says DNR Director Ronald O. Skoog. "Therefore, motorists should be particularly alert during the first few hours before sunrise and after sunset, especially near areas posted as deer crossings."

"Remember that deer often move in numbers, and some may lag behind. Buckle safety belts, use high beams if possible, slow down, and most importantly, be prepared to stop immediately if necessary."

Figures show that 4,911 more car-deer accidents occurred last year than in 1983.

Know How... Know When

Did you ever notice how long it takes to get anything done or anything constructed today?

For example, the Empire State Building was completed in just over a year. The Pentagon Office Building was completed in 16 months. By contrast, the new Senate Office Building in Washington, D.C. took nearly 10 years to complete.

Take the 1985 farm bill. Congress knew the bill would expire this year and even though debate on the bill began months ago, the farm legislation remains unfinished. Winter wheat farmers had hoped to know the program guidelines before they planted their crops this fall. It didn't happen.

This mismanagement of time and finances has many origins and causes. The principle source is government inaction with a heavy emphasis on political sensitivity.

What is needed is a reduction of government regulation, greater government responsibility and time limits on bureaucratic decision-making.

Why does it take two to five times as long to do the same thing

Senate Passes Employee Ownership Package

The Senate has approved a legislative package giving support to employee-owned businesses in Michigan. Employee ownership is considered an additional tool in state economic development efforts.

"Employee ownership is increasingly recognized throughout the United States as an important economic strategy," said State Representative Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor), sponsor of the legislation. "Many failing businesses across the country have been saved through employee buyouts. And the jobs that were going to be lost along with those businesses were saved too," Bullard said.

Employee ownership was in the news recently when the Governor announced that a mine in the Upper Peninsula would be re-opened, creating over 1,000 jobs, under a new plan of employee ownership. Bullard pointed to that experience "as proof positive that employee ownership works, right here and now."

The four-bill employee ownership package includes the following items:

- a renewal of the Michigan Employee Owned Corporations Act, which will continue and expand the Act to cover more types of employee-owned businesses;
- establishment of a million dollar revolving loan fund (in the Department of Commerce) to provide interim capital for employee buyouts;
- granting to employee-owned businesses eligibility to receive bonding authority from local economic development corporations.

You earned it. Now let us help you keep it.

We were talking to a customer recently who observed, "I never thought I'd earn so much and keep so little." He went on to say that his monthly salary seemed to melt away like ice cream down a cone on a hot day. It's a complaint we've heard before. Taxes, expenses, interest charges, unexpected bills — they all combine to erode income. That's why we've developed a nice group of products and services at Comerica specifically geared to helping you keep more of what you earn. For example, IRAs that pay high interest and defer taxes. Our new Portfolio account, that gives you access to Fidelity mutual funds and Comerica's discount brokerage services. Certificates of deposit, liquid money market deposit accounts, trust accounts such as our Professional Asset Management Account, and more. So if your income is melting like ice cream in July, call on us. We can tailor a plan that will help you make the most of your money. And we'd be happy to do it. After all, that's what we're here for. There's a reason to come to Comerica.

STOP IN AND SEE OUR FINE SELECTION

THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE

A basic culinary, as well as childhood, instinct is to associate food with holiday festivities. So, as the days grow shorter and cooler, and the presence of dried leaves under our feet becomes more apparent, it's no wonder that our "homing" instinct takes over.

This "homing" instinct is what compels us to trade in our latest nouvelle cuisine cookbook for one that touts wonderfully heavy, substantial winter dishes. After months of outdoor barbecues, pasta salads and "light" meals, we crave foods that are somehow tied to the emotional experience of the holidays.

For many people, the stories of Charles Dickens, alive with anecdotes featuring the Christmas goose or scrumptious sweetmeats, are synonymous with Thanksgiving and Christmas. And, for many of us, recreating a traditional Dickens-style holiday might be just what we need to make us feel about Christmas the way we did when we were children.

One way to get into the spirit is to prepare a Dickens feast right down to the stuffed goose. Goose, pheasant or duck are wonderful alternatives to the traditional turkey and really add an old-fashioned charm to the occasion.

Preparing game birds is not as difficult as you may think. However, there are certain things you should know when choosing and cooking them.

The most important thing to remember is that the quality and tenderness of a game bird is determined by age; the younger the bird, the more tender the meat.

Most birds taste best when roasted, braised or stuffed and, as in any holiday meal, the trimmings are an important part of the preparation process.

While goose and pheasant are both traditional choices for the holidays, each may be served in a variety of ways.

Goose liver, which is a special delicacy, can be used in patés, pies or terrines. And, pheasant tastes very good when prepared in a cream sauce.

JUST DESSERTS

Sweet and succulent, a perfectly ripe pear is a special treat. Juicy and ever so slightly grainy, with a texture that defies description, the pear is a quintessentially autumnal fruit, fragrant, green-gold, the harbinger of holiday preparations that will soon begin.

Its mellow flavor marries beautifully with autumn and winter — pungent cloves and sweet cinnamon — and with the slightly acidic savor of orange and lemon.

In contrast, its subtle sweetness provides a delicate counterpart to many cheeses, and such nations as Italy and England traditionally serve fresh pears with cheese to end a meal.

The pear is most characteristically served cooked, poached in spirits and chilled, and this presentation is most flattering to it. This may be, in fact, because the sweetness of many pear varieties is only released through the cooking process; eaten raw, these same pears are bland and relatively unappealing.

The best pears for eating out of hand are the Bartlett (also known as the Williams' Bon Chrétien), the Comice, the Anjou, the Conference and the Bosc.

The Comice, which is the most delicate pear, is also the most delectable, and when ripe is soft enough to be eaten with a spoon. Because of its softness, it is also very fragile, making it both relatively costly and difficult to find.

Most of these pears are also suitable for cooking; a good rule of thumb, when choosing pears for cooking, is to select varieties which remain green even after they've ripened.

Following is a selection of traditional and untraditional approaches to preparing pears as dessert.

Poached Pears in Red Wine Sauce is an easy and elegant way to end a meal. The recipe is reproduced from Kosher Cuisine (Random House) by Helen Nash, who shares in this volume her skillful adaptations of classic dishes to conform to Kosher dietary laws.

Nash recommends that her recipe for Poached Pears be prepared in "an enameled saucpan large enough to fit the pears in a single layer," and suggests it be served at room temperature, for optimal flavor and texture.

POACHED PEARS IN RED WINE SAUCE

- 4 servings
- 1 cup dry red wine
  - 2 tablespoons sugar
  - 1-inch piece cinnamon stick
  - 4 medium unblemished ripe pears (Bosc)

In a saucepan, bring wine, sugar, and cinnamon to a boil over high heat. Simmer, covered, for 5 minutes.

Peel pears and scoop out center cores from tops of pears with a melon scooper. Lay pears down in pan in a single layer and bring to a boil. Cover and simmer for 3 minutes. Turn pears over and simmer for about another 2 minutes. Test with a sewing needle. Pears should be almost soft, since they will continue cooking while cooling. Uncover and let cool. Serve with sauce.

Spiced Pears in Cider is reproduced from The Taste of Britain (Salem House, distributed in this country by Merrimack Publishers Circle), by Marc and Kim Mil- lon.

This is a traditional recipe of the English Midlands, whose market gardens and orchards yield plentiful supplies of both pears and cider, in the midst of what is probably England's most industrialized region, where the Industrial Revolution was born.

SPICED PEARS IN CIDER

- Serves eight to ten
- 8 Conference pears
  - 250g/8 oz/1 cup granulated sugar
  - 4 tbsp water
  - Cinnamon stick
  - Squeeze of lemon juice
  - 150 ml/1/4 pt/1/2 cup dry Hereford cider
  - 2 cloves
  - Strips of orange rind

Peel the pears, leaving them whole and their stems intact. Sprinkle the pears with lemon juice to prevent them from discoloring. In a small deep pan dissolve the sugar in the water and bring to the boil with the cinnamon stick. Add the pears, cider, cloves and orange rind. Bring to the boil, cover, and simmer very gently until the pears are tender but not overcooked.

Transfer the pears to a deep serving dish and boil down the liquid to a thick syrup. Strain this syrup over the pears, chill and serve with cream.

Spirited Cooking (Atheneum), by Robert Ackart, is the source of two very different pear dessert recipes — Flaming Pears and Pear Cake — both of which, as the book's title implies, are enhanced by the use of spirits.

Warmed brandy is ignited to flambé the pears in the first recipe. In the second, orange flavored liqueur is a key ingredient in the macerating liquid in which the pears steep prior to being stirred into the cake batter.

FLAMING PEARS

6 servings
PREPARATION AND COOKING: ABOUT 25 MINUTES

- REFRIGERATES
- 2 tablespoons butter
  - 1/4 cup dark brown sugar (packed)
  - 1/4 cup strained fresh orange juice
  - Strained juice of 1 medium lemon
  - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
  - A few grains of salt

In a chafing dish or saucepan, combine these seven ingredients. Over gentle heat, cook them, stirring, only until the butter is melted.

6 ripe Bartlett pears, peeled, halved lengthwise, and cored, or 12 canned pear halves, well drained

Arrange the pears in the chafing dish, spooning the sauce over them.

Grated rind of 1 medium lemon
Grated rind of 1 medium orange

Over gentle heat, cook the fruit until it is thoroughly heated. Remove it to a flameproof serving dish. Over high heat, reduce the syrup somewhat, pour it over the pears and sprinkle them with the grated rinds.

1/2 cup brandy

In a small saucepan, warm the brandy, ignite it, and pour it over the pears. Present the dessert while it is still flaming.

PEAR CAKE

PREPARATION: ABOUT 30 MINUTES
MACERATION TIME: 30 MINUTES
COOKING: 1 HOUR IN A 350° OVEN

REFRIGERATES

Butter a 9-inch baking dish or loaf pan.

4 firm ripe pears, peeled, cored, and cut into large dice

1/4 cup orange-flavored liqueur
1/4 cup sugar

In a mixing bowl, combine the pears, liqueur, and sugar. Stir the mixture to blend it well, and allow the pears to macerate for at least 30 minutes.

2 cups flour
1/4 cup sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder
A few grains of salt

In a mixing bowl, sift together the dry ingredients.

3 eggs
1/4 cup milk

In a mixing bowl, beat together the eggs and milk.

At this point you may stop and continue later.

4 tablespoons butter, melted and cooled to lukewarm
Macerated pear mixture

Add the butter to the milk and eggs. Combine the dry and liquid ingredients, beating them until the batter is smooth. Stir in the pear mixture. Using a rubber spatula, transfer the batter to the prepared pan. Bake the pear cake at 350° for 1 hour, or until a sharp knife inserted in the center comes out clean. Allow the cake to cool for 5 minutes before turning it out of the dish onto a rack.

Finally, from Bread & Breakfast (101 Productions) by Linda Kay Bristow, a compilation of recipes from this country's charming bed and breakfast establishments, Fresh Pear and Cranberry Butter Crunch combines two autumn fruit favorites for a not-too-sweet dessert that's a perfect finale to a weekend brunch.

FRESH PEAR AND CRANBERRY BUTTER CRUNCH

Serves eight to ten

4 ripe pears, peeled, cored, and sliced

One 12-ounce bag fresh cranberries

1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup rolled oats
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 pound butter

Preheat oven to 375°F. Combine pear slices, cranberries, sugar, cinnamon, and 3 tablespoons flour. Place in buttered 9 x 13-inch baking dish. In a mixing bowl combine brown sugar, oats, and 1/2 cup flour. Cut butter into small pieces and cut into oats mixture with a knife and fork or pastry cutter. Sprinkle over pear/cranberry mixture. Bake 45 minutes. Cut into squares before serving.

Enjoy a Dickens-style holiday with traditional foods

The following recipe for Golden Goose is culled from An Irish Farmhouse Cookbook (The Appletree Press), by Mary Kinsella.

The recipe for Pheasant Marquis is featured in New Classic Cuisine (Barron's), by Albert and Michel Roux.

GOLDEN GOOSE

Serves: 8-10
Ingredients

- 10 lb oven-ready goose
- Stuffing
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 cups cooked mashed potatoes
- 2 finely chopped onions
- 1-2 teaspoons mixed herbs
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper

Gravy

- Finely chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon finely chopped herbs
- 1 1/2 cups stock

Preparation time: 30 minutes
Oven position: centre
Cooking time: 2 1/2-3 hours
Oven temperature: 400°F

Method

1. Cut off the neck close to the body; remove entrails and excess fat from the cavity. Remove feet and ends of wings at the first joint.
2. To make the stuffing, heat butter and milk in a saucepan. Add the mashed potatoes, onion and herbs. Mix well together and season to taste.
3. Stuff the goose with savoury potato stuffing.
4. Put the goose in a roasting tin and cover with tin foil. Put in the oven.
5. Put finely chopped onion into the roasting tin 15 minutes before cooking is completed.
6. Remove goose from the tin when roasted, and keep hot.
7. Strain off fat, reserving 1 tablespoon of it along with onion in roasting tin. Add seasoning, herbs and stock.

8. Bring to boil, strain and serve in sauce jug.

9. Carve goose and arrange, garnished with parsley, on pre-heated serving dish.

Watchpoint

It is a good idea to prepare separately the goose and the stuffing the night before cooking, covering them after preparation.

PHEASANT MARQUIS

YIELD: 2 servings
INGREDIENTS

- 1 pheasant
- 1 large slice lard
- 1 tsp. olive oil
- 1/4 cup carrots, finely chopped
- 1/4 cup celery, finely chopped
- 1/4 cup onions, finely chopped
- 1 tsp. paprika
- 2 tsp. flour
- 1/4 cup madeira
- 1/2 cup white wine
- Salt and white pepper, ground, to taste
- 1/2 oz. butter
- 1 jigger cognac
- 1/4 cup heavy cream
- 1 tsp. truffles, chopped

Rub pheasant with salt and pepper. Cover breast with lard and tie on with string. Roast at 350°F with olive oil, carrots, celery, and onions for one half hour. Remove lard so breast can brown for 10 minutes. Always pour roasting juice over pheasant while roasting. Remove pheasant. Add paprika and flour to roasting juice. Stir in madeira and white wine. Simmer for 10 minutes. Strain through a fine sieve, season, and bring to a boil. Cut pheasant in half, place in hot butter, and flambé with cognac. Pour sauce over and stir in heavy cream. Bring to a boil and add truffles.

Pheasant is served on a silver platter covered with sauce. A garniture of asparagus spears, with julienne of red pimento to cover, is served on the side, with mushroom caps and risotto with green peas. Use mint leaves to garnish.

CREAMY TURKEY SOUP

- 2 tablespoons corn oil
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 2 1/2 cups turkey broth
- 1/2 cup thinly sliced carrots
- 1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups cubed cooked turkey
- 1/2 cup Argo corn starch
- 3 cups milk
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley

In 4-quart saucepan, melt margarine over medium heat. Add onion. Stirring frequently, cook 2 minutes or until tender. Stir in broth, carrots, celery, salt and pepper. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes or until vegetables are tender-crisp. Add turkey. In medium bowl, stir together corn starch and milk until smooth. Add to turkey mixture. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Stir in parsley. Makes 7 cups.

Bridgewater Township Board

The Bridgewater Township Board met Monday, October 21, 1985, at the township hall with all Board members present. Eleven electors were also present.

The Annual report from the County Drain Commissioner's Office was discussed. A copy is on file, for residents to look at, in the Clerk's office.

The Clerk read the September board minutes, they were approved as read.

The Treasurer's report was given. Andy Poet made the motion to pay voucher 1478 thru 1483. Marvin Breitenwischer seconded the motion and Board passed.

Under old business: The Road Commission suggested that the Township put their money into gravel instead of the second application. This reason being that the weather and the lateness in the year would not make a good application.

The trustees with the County Road Commission toured the Township and decided to gravel and bring a stretch on Burmeister Road with the matching money and another section of Hogan Road included. An Administrative decision was made to change the budgeted money from salt brine to gravel a few roads.

The Board decided to contact the Township insurance agent again to have them attend one of the Board meetings before the policy is renewed.

Fire runs payments are coming in. There are a few outstanding ones still unpaid, but the Township is getting off to a good start in collecting.

Middle School Parent-Teacher Conferences

There will be no school on Thursday, November 14 and Friday, November 15. This will allow for the scheduling of this semester's parent-teacher conferences. The time schedules are as follows:

Thursday, November 14 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

Friday, November 15 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Parents planning to attend may pick up their child's report card when they arrive at school. Fifth and sixth grade student report cards will be available in the fifth grade hallway located in the Nellie Ackerson Building. Seventh and eighth grade report cards may be picked up in the hallway by the library in the Middle School. Report cards that are left over will be sent home.

Harlin Frauman gave the zoning report. Leonard Bruner on with the students on Monday, November 18.

Since only one night conference has been scheduled, we are requesting that only those parents who cannot make the afternoon or morning conferences on the scheduled days attend Thursday evening. Hopefully, this will reduce the possibility of long waiting lines which can be a problem for all concerned.

Conferences with teachers should not exceed ten minutes in length. If additional time is needed, it is suggested that an appointment be made with the teacher for a future meeting time.

If parents discover that they cannot attend on either of these days, we urge them to call their child's teacher on any school day from 8:15 a.m. - 8:45 a.m. to arrange a conference time that is convenient for both parties. Teachers may be contacted by calling 428-7442.

The public is invited to attend the opening reception November 26 from 4 to 6:00 p.m.

Visitors to the exhibit will be able to see a wedding dress from Monroe County (1837), textbooks, (c.1817), American and British enlisted mens uniforms, a Howitzer used in the War of 1812, and the desk of Michigan's first Secretary of State, Kintzing Pritchette.

Ruby Rogers, director of the Michigan Historical Museum, said that other institutions have loaned important artifacts for the exhibit. They include: the Thomas M. Burnham painting of the Election of 1837, Detroit Institute of Arts; the 1805 Seal for the Executive Department of the Michigan territory, Historical Society of Wisconsin; and Lewis Cass' cigar box, Detroit Historical Museum.

The development of Detroit as Michigan's first territorial capital will be shown as will the influence of such personalities as Lewis Cass, Gabriel Richard, William Woodbridge, Henry Schoolcraft, and Stevens T. Mason.

The exhibit will be on display from November 26, 1985, through June 7, 1986, at the Michigan Historical Museum, 208 North Capitol, Lansing, Michigan.

Diversions and Illusions

To many outside of agriculture, the continuing saga of the dairy program represents the entire farm bill debate. Though they are wrong, you have to admit they have a point. Seven changes have been made in the program since 1981. None has worked. Still, it's all been very interesting....

Where else could you find a program, such as the previous dairy diversion, which producers were portrayed as begging for, that attracted only 20 percent participation? Where else could you find out about the effectiveness of political contributions? Where else could you gouge both dairy producers—who will pay assessments to finance the House-passed program—and consumers, who face increased costs for dairy products despite surpluses? And where else could you find products that are stored in caves?

It's time to get down to business. The diversion-and-assessment scheme contained in the House farm bill continues the political punting back and forth of the dairy program. The measure

Agriculture Conference To Be Held November 19th and 20th

The Michigan Department of Agriculture has responded to Governor Blanchard's call for a state-wide conference on agriculture by developing a two-day event, "Competition, Survival, and Profitability," focusing on strategies for realizing the potential of Michigan's agriculture industry. MDA Director Paul E. Kindinger announced. The 1985 Governor's Conference on the Future of Michigan Agriculture will take place November 19 and 20 at the Flint Hyatt Regency Hotel, and is open to any interested person. Contact Margaret Cooke at 517-373-1104 for more information.

The theme of the conference emphasizes the importance of fostering Michigan's agricultural competitiveness in both domestic and international markets, helping assure the survival of both small and large producers and agribusinesses, and increasing profitability in the entire industry, which annually contributes $14.3 billion to Michigan's economy.

allows the milk support price to rise, while at the same time extracting high costs from consumers and taxpayers (the same entity) and dairy farmers, who will kick in $1 billion to $2 billion a year through assessments.

Government is supposed to be relieved of the costs but it will still be stuck with a $1 billion a year tab and an additional $500 million a year in higher costs for government nutrition programs. All these costs may be hidden, but the question is: What do they buy? After all, the underlying problems of overproduction and excess processing capacity would continue.

The alternative is clear. Congress should adopt the Farm Bureau-backed dairy plan that would simply cut the support price by 50 cents each year until supply gets in line with demand. Adjustments in the industry would be gradual, but they would be real, instead of the illusory kind conjured up by the last diversion program.

In the case of the diversion program, the label "new and improved" means more political gimmickry. Dairy farmers and all of agriculture need less of that, not more.

It's now up to the Senate to set the dairy program straight.

Too Much Love?

It's too bad we farmers are loved so much. When farmers are in economic trouble, everyone wants the government to help us. And the more 'help' we get from government, the worse off our industry becomes. When the fellow downtown who ran the car dealership or the couple who operated the local hardware were in financial trouble, nobody loved them enough to call on government to save them. I reject the idea of a government-managed agriculture and that's one of the ideas to 'save' us today. My freedom of choice, the opportunities I have that farmers in other parts of the world don't have, are sacred to me. I have a great abiding faith in agriculture and I don't believe the problems we have now are insurmountable — if we take a lesson from past mistakes.

Farmers Get 27 Cents of Consumer's Food Dollar

A dollar spent on food at the supermarket or restaurant in 1984 provided only 27 cents to the American farmer. The remaining 73 cents covered other marketing costs — from packaging to profit.

The information appears in a newly released Farm Bureau brochure titled "Who Gets Your Food Dollar?" For the past several years, labor costs associated with the preparation, shipping and marketing of food have exceeded the actual cost of the food itself. Currently, labor costs represent 33 percent of the store price of food. Other major costs include: packaging at 8 percent; transportation, 5 percent; before-tax profits, 5 percent; rent and depreciation, 4 percent; energy costs, 4 percent; and advertising 2 1/2 percent.

The Farm Bureau figures also show U.S. consumers pay some of the lowest prices for food found anywhere in the world. A sirloin steak which costs $2.93 per pound in Washington, D.C., sells for $14.12 at food stores in Japan and $5.35 in London. Wheat flour costs American consumers 21 cents a pound, but shoppers in France must spend 62 cents, while the cost in Sweden is 30 cents a pound.

Japanese shoppers pay 81 cents for a quart of milk which costs 71 cents in Canada but only 44 cents in the United States. The U.S. farm share of the consumer food dollar varies a great deal from one product to another. Dairy farmers receive 52 percent of the price paid for milk, while wheat farmers earn 9 1/2 percent of the value of a loaf of bread, tomato growers receive 9 percent of the sale price of a can of tomatoes and orange growers receive 33 percent of the cost of an orange.

Whole Milk May Return To Schools

An amendment restoring whole milk as a choice in the school lunch program has passed in the U.S. House. In 1973, lowfat and skim milk were authorized for the first time in addition to whole milk. In 1979, the regulations were changed to require the serving of lowfat milk, skim milk and buttermilk, but not whole milk.

Re-instatement of whole milk in schools would be a victory for Farm Bureau. The organization has lobbied for the return of the whole milk product in schools since 1978.

Herbicide Hawking May Leave a Big Mess in the Field

Farmers are being advised not to take the bait that is being offered by out-of-state callers offering supposedly good deals on a herbicide that they claim is effective but cheaper than Roundup.

"No herbicide can be just like Roundup because Roundup is a patented material," said Jim Kells, MSU Cooperative Extension Service weed control specialist. "The calls made to date have been from outside Michigan, and that alone should make prospective buyers suspicious."

The herbicide is being sold under the name "Select" or as "Weed Killer," neither of which has been registered, as required by law, with the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Kells said the material sold in the state to date contains either 2, 4-D at one-third the normal concentration or diquat at a 1 percent to 2 percent concentration by volume.

Roundup translocates through the plant's leaves to the root system, killing the plant, Kells said. The herbicides being sold by phone merely burn off the plant above the ground. The plant may regrow in a few weeks. "If the herbicide is applied to the field at the rate recommended on the label, it is more expensive than Roundup and it will not do the same thing," Kells said.

The herbicide sold in the state to date has arrived at the farm COD, and that's another tipoff to be wary of the product, he said. If a farmer has agreed to buy -- but has not paid for -- herbicide via telephone, he or she can refuse to accept it and ship it back to the point of origin collect.

"The best thing a farmer can do is simply hang up on these kinds of sales pitches. A legitimate manufacturer doesn't do business that way."

If you want to know what rights you have under the law, contact the county Extension office or MDA regional office.

Farm Bureau Attacks ITC Pork Ruling

Farm Bureau has attacked the International Trade Commission ruling which held that live hog imports from Canada do not injure the U.S. pork industry, but that imports of pork products do not. In testimony before subcommittees of the House Agriculture Committee, a Farm Bureau spokesperson said the ITC ruling was "not a partial victory for U.S. hog producers; it was a non-victory." According to Farm Bureau, imports of fresh and chilled pork from Canada during the first eight months of this year were 26 percent higher than for the same period in 1984.

The first woman to hold a cabinet post was Frances Perkins. She was President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Secretary of Labor.

Symphony Band Plays Last Concert

On Sunday, November 24, 1985, at 3:00 p.m. the Symphony Band of Ann Arbor, under the direction of Victor Bordo, will perform their last concert in the Slauson Auditorium. The band is moving to the larger concert facilities at Pioneer High School in the Schreiber Auditorium. Simply put, the band will no longer fit on the stage at Slauson due to the increase in outstanding players.

Soloist for this first concert is flutist Susan Sinta. Mrs. Sinta has been principal flutist with the Symphony Band since its inception in 1976. She will be featured in a new work for amplified flute and band by Albert Cobine.

The major work for the Symphony Band is the "Music For A Festival" by Gordon Jacob. The concert is free.

by farley
An acquaintance recently reported that she had received in the mail an offer that for only $435 she could quickly and painlessly become someone; not only the common garden variety of someone but someone who is successful in everything that they attempt, yes everything for they will have learned the secret of self improvement.

She reported as follows:
"This attractively printed brochure - printed in no less than four attractive colors - offers me a new start in life; this to be achieved with the assistance of a long list of books, all of which the perusal of will make me a smarter, better, wiser, richer, wittier and irresistible person."

"I sat right down and carefully read the brochure from beginning to end, carefully noted each book named and its purpose involved in changing my present sordid life and began to realize that I have failed to 'reach for the stars', that I have failed to scale to its peak the highest echelon or cliff on my journey through life and I know terribly well that for instance, I have failed to skyrocket my moldy income."

"I only have myself to blame and I discovered that I should realize that I have only myself to blame and its up to me to know that I can easily be what I choose to become tomorrow. And if I will only choose to invest in at least some of these books my life will suddenly be just what it should instead of what it is today. In any event I will surely be improving several author's financial standing. There are, for a minor fee, in these books more so-called secrets than in an afternoon of soap operas with plenty of Magic - that's top flight self improvement language."

"In these books the authors will reveal their secrets for magical success, for instance secrets of how basil and paprika will magically add spice to your personality - secrets of how to learn while you sleep, hidden secrets of your handwriting, of charisma and all about your secret dreams."

"Some secrets are more easily revealed than others. There are even books filled with revelations of racetrack secrets. Secrets there are more plentiful than foolproof ways to win the Lotto. Other revelations include 'How to Win Playing Poker or Blackjack.' All of this is revealed for the modest sum of $3.00, so ante up."

"Then too, there is another volume entitled 'How To Attract and Influence People and How To Control Them'. This book modestly boasts that 'It's exhilarating to merely imagine what this material could mean to you.'"

"My personal favorite and one which I surely will order is the one titled 'Beachcombing For Beginners' and it's only $2.00. It's hard to imagine just what this book has in it. Does it have pictures of oceans and sand? Does it tell how to avoid stepping on broken beer bottles or other dangerous debris?"

"And look here, there is included a book titled 'Beachcombing For Experts'. What happens after I master the first volume? Do I graduate from the sandbox?"

"As I dream I can imagine, picture me strolling along the beach of Lake Michigan practicing self hypnosis learned from another self improvement book (the same one that teaches one how to become a better bowler while hypnotized) when suddenly a wave washes me out to sea. To accompany this book I ordered 'Keeping Your Head Above Water' which the ad says is not about swimming but teaches one to smile with confidence in tough situations while I struggle valiantly waiting for the lifeguard to come to my rescue."

I don't know why the folks in these United States should complain about the rat race. Don't we here get free cheese?

Wagonmasters in Thailand long ago learned, we are told, that their squeaking wheels scare off wild animals. That came down as a superstition for the squeaking wheels drove off evil spirits. Out in the boonocks to this day, the squeaking wheel rarely gets greased. To grease it would be to invite bad luck.

In France a carved golden horse's head identifies each of about 18,000 shops where you can buy horse meat.

Small Business Financing: What's An Entrepreneur To Do?

(Prepared by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants)

Obtaining financing for an existing or a new small business can be difficult. After all, most small business owners are experts in the product or service they sell, but they're not experts in finance. What's an entrepreneur to do? According to the Michigan Association of CPAs, before setting foot in a bank or meeting with a prospective investor, owners of small businesses should be prepared to demonstrate how they will repay a loan or give a return on an investment.

"Financiers are basically merchants whose stock in trade is money," says Daniel A. Giannini of the Small Business Committee of the American Institute of CPAs. "They want to put their money behind people they trust." The first step in gaining the confidence of a prospective lender or investor is to present a detailed business plan. "For people just starting a new business, it can be real tough to find seed money. And even if you have a successful business and track record, you need to prove it," says Giannini. "Making a good presentation is half the battle in getting debt financing."

You'll need three financial forecasting tools: projections of operations, cash flows and a balance sheet. It's probably best to consult with a CPA for help in drawing up these three forecasts because doing them accurately and in a proper format can make a difference to a lender.

An operating forecast shows what you expect to be left over - if anything - after outlays for materials, payroll and overhead for rent, utilities, shipping and other administrative costs. A cash flow projection displays where you expect your money to be coming from and going to. It shows how much cash will be coming in from sales, accounts receivable, loans and capital contributions by the owners. It will also show how much and when you will lay out cash for business costs, equipment purchases and loan repayments. The last forecasting tool you'll need in your quest for debt-financing is a balance sheet. It should show assets and liabilities in your business. For all three of these forecasting tools you'll need 12 monthly projections for the coming year and annual projections for the next four years.

"Most lenders don't have the time to pore over the forecasts you'll need to draw up," says CPA Giannini. "But when they do review your forecasts, they usually do so selectively. So you'll have prepared a lot of information that may not be asked for."

When the lender looks at your projections, credibility is important. If your profit forecasts are too optimistic, you may lose credibility. So it's usually best to be conservative. In fact, you may want to draw up an additional set of forecasts, based on a worst-case scenario, to assure a lender that you have adequately planned for downside risks.

If your cash flow forecast indicates a continuous need for financing, you may want to consider applying for a "revolving line of credit". A revolver, which is also called accounts receivable or inventory financing, uses receivables or inventories as collateral. Revolvers are especially appropriate for new businesses, because your credit line grows with your business. A commercial bank or commercial finance company is the most likely source for loans tied to inventory or receivables.

The biggest advantage in dealing with a commercial finance company is that it is usually willing to grant loans to businesses that might not qualify for bank financing. But the effective interest rates on these loans are generally higher.

Revolving lines of credit and accounts receivable financing lessen the likelihood that a business owner will make the common mistake of financing long-term needs with short-term loans. "Too often entrepreneurs try to start their businesses with short-term or other loans requiring a fixed payback," says Giannini. "They fail to recognize that, as they grow, increased volume creates greater financing demands."

As an alternative to borrowing in order to finance the purchase of fixed assets, such as machinery and vehicles, you may want to consider a long-term lease arrangement. Here too, interest rates may be higher than with bank financing. But with a lease arrangement no debt will be shown on a balance sheet.

The CPAs recommend small business owners approach debt-financing systematically, putting together the financial forecasting data, charting the costs and examining how to pay back what is borrowed. A smart planning technique for existing businesses is to do all of this when debt financing is not needed. Commonly, companies only resort to borrowing money in the throes of a crisis. That's precisely the time when lenders are least likely to be supportive. The CPAs recommend applying for a credit line when you can make a strong case for your business.

Local Man Found Guilty

Don "Smitty" Smith has been found guilty of sexually assaulting a 27 year old mentally retarded woman. The verdict was delivered in the Washtenaw County Circuit Court last Wednesday.

When Smith heard the verdict he slumped to the floor in a faint. He faces up to 15 years in prison for the April 12 assault. Sentencing will be on December 12.

After Smitty's arrest, he was suspended from his duties as superintendent of public works for the Village of Manchester. His job status will be discussed at the November 18 Council meeting.

Klagger teacher Mr. Richard Darga has chaired the committee which organized "The Michigan Teachers of Emotionally Disturbed Children" fall conference. The meeting entitled "A Harvest of Ideas and Information" will be held at the Washtenaw Intermediate School District on Saturday, November 16th. The conference is directed toward special education instructors allowing individual classroom teachers an opportunity to hear and meet experts in their fields.

As an alternative to borrowing in order to finance the purchase of fixed assets, such as machinery and vehicles, you may want to consider a long-term lease arrangement. Here too, interest

Special Showing of Spacebridge To Peace

On the eve of the Geneva Summit, the community is invited to join with others nationwide to show support for this historic event. The video tape "Spacebridge to Peace" will be shown 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 19th at Manchester United Methodist Church as part of an effort by Manchester area churches to bring our community together around this important issue.

The film shows the simulcast satellite link up between San Francisco and Moscow by the "Beyond War" peace education movement, honoring Nobel Peace Prize winners Drs. Bernard Lown of Harvard and Yevgeni Chazov of Moscow for their great contributions toward world peace. A highlight of the film is the two children's choirs 9000 miles apart, singing together and both American and Soviet audiences waving to each other in friendship.

A period of prayer and meditation following the film has been planned.

Cards of Thanks

The Manchester Cooperative Preschool children would like to thank Mrs. Donna Hofmeyer and her crew at the Manchester Post Office for allowing us to visit. We all had an enjoyable time and learned a lot about what happens behind the counter in your mail room.

A big thank-you to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kenner for inviting us to see the giant pumpkins in your garden. It was also fun of you to let us have snacks there and play Red Rover on your back lawn.

Thanks a million. Manchester Cooperative Preschool Mon-Wed-Fri Classes

Many thanks to all my faithful large animal clients for your patronage for the past forty-three years. We are happy to announce that David C. Bucholtz, D.V.M. and his associate James A. Moore, D.V.M. will take over the large animal medicine at the Eames Animal Clinic, 18600 W. Austin Road. Again thanks. Henry P. Eames, D.V.M.

Christmas Seals Are "Coming To Town"

77th Annual Christmas Seal Campaign Is Launched In Michigan On November 8

American running champion Greg Meyer helped the Christmas Seal people, the American Lung Association of Michigan (ALAM), kick off the 77th Annual Christmas Seal Campaign on Friday, November 8.

Meyer, the winner of the 1983 Boston Marathon and a Grand Rapids native and resident, is the 1985 Michigan Christmas Seal Campaign chairperson. He announced a statewide goal of $75,000 for the organization works to wipe out such as emphysema, lung cancer, chronic bronchitis, and tuberculosis.

"As a competitive runner, I know what it means to be out of breath," Meyer said. "I have the gift of healthy lungs and strong legs, so it's easy for me to take my lungs for granted. Because of this gift I have, I've become more aware of the devastating effects of lung disease. I accepted the chairmanship of this campaign to let people know they shouldn't take their lungs for granted."

The 1985 Christmas Seals, which are mailed into 1,390,000 Michigan homes, feature the traditional red double-barred cross and a friendly snowman reminiscent of Frosty. There are also matching Christmas Seal gift tags.

Meyer said, "I urge the people of Michigan to decorate their holiday greeting card envelopes, letters, packages and gifts with Christmas Seals and to answer their Christmas Seal letter to support the work of the American Lung Association of Michigan." That work includes FREEDOM FROM SMOKING in the workplace programs, classes for adults and children with asthma, Breathing Club activities for patients with chronic lung diseases, smoking and pregnancy educational programs, activities to promote nonsmokers' rights, and research.

For more information about the American Lung Association of Michigan and Christmas Seals, or if you did not receive a supply of Christmas Seals in the mail, call the American Lung Association of Michigan toll free at 1-800-292-5979. In the Lansing area, call 484-4541.

Easy 800 Number Answers Questions About Pecan Pie

More and more good cooks are turning to classic American pecan pie as a favorite Thanksgiving dessert. Whether you're new at making pie or just want to try a variation of this old favorite, here's your chance to ask the experts. From November 1 through 27, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. EST, dial 1-800-KARO PIE. A home economist for Karo corn syrup will come on the line ready with answers to your questions. What's their favorite pecan pie? The one below—it's not only easy to make, they say, but easy to remember. Three eggs and then one of everything else. It's a recipe you'll never be without.

PECAN PIE

- |  |                                 |
|--|---------------------------------|
| 3 eggs                                   | 1 teaspoon vanilla              |
| 1 cup Karo light or dark corn syrup      | 1 cup pecans                    |
| 1 cup sugar                              | 1 unbaked (9-inch) pastry shell |
| 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted |                                 |

With fork slightly beat eggs, add corn syrup, sugar, butter or margarine, and vanilla; stir until well blended. Stir in pecans. Pour into pastry shell. Bake in 350°F oven 50 to 60 minutes or until knife inserted halfway between center and edge comes out clean. Cool. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.
