A former Clinton School Superintendent, Ellis Dersham, who was well known in Manchester and I have for quite a number of years kept up a friendship with letters describing conditions and problems in Texas and its capital, Austin, where he has lived since his retirement.

During the past few years he has told of the boom times in that area while Michigan's economy was suffering but now with all of the oil producing nations and of course Texas, feels the effects of the falling oil prices.

The drop in price of a dollar a barrel is said to mean the loss of three billion dollars in the Texas economy and reduces the state economy by one hundred million dollars. Too their unemployment is now above the average in 11 of the 19 Sunbelt states. Dersham goes to the trouble to tell us that Texas is an example of a state that "Has permitted its economy to grow in an unbalanced manner and which has restricted such services as education and welfare while bragging about its low tax figure."

Lately however, we hear that New England is enjoying a nice economic recovery and that its unemployment is down to some three to four percent. This is said to be true because various high tech industries have located there and that its reputation for having schools above the average and many high class private universities.

Unfortunately the drop in oil prices has helped New England and Michigan and other parts of these United States that are heavy energy importers. Perhaps Michigan has not yet profited by the oil problems for it has a reputation as a "Smoke Stack" industrial area but some of its industries have been lured south by potential lower costs and lower taxes and other inducements and some others we are told fell

But the Sunbelts advantage is now disappearing - it is suffering from various problems that the northern states have been dealing with for some years but the collapse of the oil boom seems to already be sparking a reverse trend in the migration of workers.

Maybe the day will come when the Texans will be grabbing the classified pages of Michigan newspapers by unemployed Texans looking at the help wanted ads therein.

Klager School Enjoys Visit From German Students

Mr. Wolfgang Gerster watches exchange students Norbert Barfels and Karola Wagenschieber answer questions about Germany.

Klager students had a unique opportunity to learn more about Germany when the High School Exchange Students from Germany visited each classroom. Teams of students went from room to room sharing information about their homeland, answering questions and teaching a bit of the German language to each group. Klager children were fascinated and are looking forward to studying German and perhaps visiting their new friends in Hildesheim someday. The Exchange Students were accompanied by their chaperon and teacher Mr. Wolfgang Gerster.

Letter To The Editor

PAYING ROLLS ROYCE POSTAGE RATES FOR EDSEL SERVICE

Like many other publishers across the nation, I have been writing letters to my congressmen and postal officials about the ever-increasing, second-class postal rates.

I wonder if these letters will do any good, especially after getting an unsympathetic reply from the Postmaster General's office, which advised more rate increases are on the way.

Still, I will continue to write these letters in hopes that somewhere down the line someone will hear our pleas, and put an end to these exorbitant rate increases.

The Graphic is a small weekly newspaper... about 1,100 circulation, and these increases are hurting. In May 1982, it cost me $100 to mail four weeks of six and eight page papers. We live in an agricultural community and business is down. For the first time, we were forced to run four-page papers a few times this winter. Postage cost me about $55 per week.

I do not feel that I am getting any better service for the extra money; indeed, I feel that postal service is deteriorating.

ITEM: We mail 10 papers a week to a grocery store in a small community 20 miles from here. Sometimes they arrive at the store for sale to residents there, sometimes they don't.

ITEM: The way postage dues for address changes is handled is atrocious. Just last week (March 13) we got a notice from a post office in Hawaii about an address change for one of our subscribers. The paper was dated Nov. 7, and we had changed the address months before. I was charged 30-cents to find out something that we already knew.

This has happened numerous times, and I find myself shelling out several dollars a month on unnecessary postage dues. I shudder to think what larger papers must be paying for this.

ITEM: We get numerous complaints from out-of-town subscribers that they are not getting their Graphics in a timely manner, if at all. A complaint to the regional mail handling facility brings the response the Graphics are arriving there on time, but the postmaster has no idea what happens after that. We are losing subscribers because of this—subscribers who rightfully expect a paper every week, and blame us when they don't get it, even though it is not our fault.

ITEM: One week last summer we had numerous complaints from residents of a nearby community who did not get their papers that week. We replaced papers until we ran out. Finally a subscriber called with the information that when she called the post office about not getting her paper yet, she was told they didn't consider it important to put out right away, but they might get to it that day. This was on a Monday; the papers were mailed the previous Wednesday.

ITEM: A few weeks ago, I mailed a letter at the Connell Post Office, depositing it in the inside mail slot. The letter had to travel all of five feet to the recipient's mail box, but never arrived. When I queried postal employees about it, I was told the reason it didn't arrive was because I never mailed the letter in the first place.

ITEM: We are the legal paper of record for our county. As the county seat is located 35 miles away, county officials usually mail legal notices to us. Most recently we did not get a legal notice concerning an upcoming election in another community. The legal notice is mailed on a Thursday; election officials called Monday to see if we had gotten it. We hadn't. If they had not called to doublecheck, the notice wouldn't have gotten in, and the election probably would have been invalid. We took the notice over the phone, and they followed up by mailing a second copy, which took three days to get here.

ITEM: What makes me even more upset is when I read how the postal service is spending the money we as publishers and consumers pay for postage. If you want to really keep up on what the postal service is doing, I recommend subscribing to Linn's Stamp News. It is a weekly newspaper for stamp collectors, but were I to stop collecting tomorrow, I would still subscribe, simply because it provides faster information on upcoming rate increases than any other source (Publishers' Auxiliary included) that I know about. Their news stories on the postal service also provide good editorial material.

ITEM: Did you know that soon you will be able to buy 22-cents stamps for 17-cents at a nationwide chain of mini-markets? The catch is that the stamps come affixed to peel-off labels advertising beer, fast food restaurants, etc. The postal service is supposed to get full price for the stamps, however.

If I sound irate about all this, I am. I resent that I am being forced to pay Rolls-Royce postage rates when I am only getting Edsel service. What can I do about it? I really don't know, except write lots of letters which probably won't do any good except make me feel better for getting it off my chest.

Manchester Area Historical Society

The Manchester Area Historical Society held its regular monthly meeting on April 21, at The Blacksmith Shop. The Society plans to open the Shop on Saturday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m. starting on May 1.

The program entitled "Ann Arbor and How It Grew" was presented by Louisa Pieper, Staff Director of the Ann Arbor Historic District Commission. In 1824 Ann Arbor was plotted by John Allen and Elisha Walker Rumsey. With the opening of the Erie Canal, Ann Arbor began to grow rapidly. Slides of maps of Ann Arbor at various stages of its growth were shown as well as slides of buildings in Ann Arbor including the campus of The University of Michigan. In 1886, the Ann Arbor Land Company gave The University 40 acres to persuade it to move to Ann Arbor from Detroit. The first classes were held in 1841.

In the early slides the wooden buildings had a frontier look. The architecture changed to the Federal style, Victorian, and then more modern styles.

Refreshments were served by Ann Fowler and Gwen Fisher.

Sportsmen's Club Potluck Dinner

The Manchester Sportsmen Club members will have a potluck dinner on Sunday, April 27, at 1:00 p.m. Our guest from the DNR will be Craig Wales. Rolls, butter and coffee will be furnished.

Minutes of the March 18th Special meeting were read. Motion by Limpert, supported by Marshall to approve the minutes as corrected. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Minutes of the March 25th Special meeting were read. Motion by Marshall, supported by Reinhart to approve minutes as corrected. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Naimowicz asked the Council for a motion to amend the agenda to include Gerry Mann (re: purchase of corner parcel) and Bob Lowery (re: Manchester Village Code, Article 19), under new business; also to include Mike Balent's letter to the Council concerning moving to town, under old business. Council requested the Clerk to read the letter into the minutes.

Dear Councilmembers,
My wife and I have been looking for a house to purchase or rent for some time. Unfortunately we are unable to find anything that we can afford or suits our needs here in the Village. We already own a home in Tecumseh and hate to leave it for something less desirable. We also have a child in school and this would be a hardship on her to leave her teachers and friends.
I respectfully request that I am able to keep my job in Manchester and continue to live in Tecumseh. At no time has this created a problem in any way with my work schedule in the past.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Michael E. Balent

Motion by Reinhart to amend agenda, supported by Tapping. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Public Participation:
Bob Lowery asked the Council, as Zoning Inspector, to please report any violations they see directly to him instead of handing it themselves. Council agreed.

New Business:
The Clerk read a letter from the Downriver Cycling Club asking permission to use Carr Park as a reststop on Sunday, May 4, 1986, between the hours of 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Motion by Limpert to approve the use of Carr Park, supported by Marshall. Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Glen Burkhardt presented the Engineers Contract for the Riverside Pump Station Improvements. After a long discussion the Council asked Glen to submit an up to date summary of all construction contracts and costs.

Motion by Limpert to table until next Council meeting pending summary from Engineers, supported by Reinhart. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Glen Burkhardt then presented the 1986 Street Improvement Program to be done with Act 51 money. Discussion followed.

Limpert moved to authorize the Engineers to go ahead on the design and engineering in the bidding phase on streets proposed, supported by Tapping. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Motion by Limpert to accept:
1. South Macomb - West Main to Sanborn Road.

2. Hibbard Street - East Main to North Village Limits.
3. Vernon Street - Beaufort to Wolverine - as priority streets to be paved, supported by Reinhart. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Glen Burkhardt then discussed water services along M-52 from East Main Street out to the North Village Limits. There is some concern that the old galvanized pipe might be damaged during the installation of a new storm sewer. Discussion followed on whether or not all 33 water hook-ups should be replaced at this time, if so could Act 51 money be used. It was stated that 10 of the 33 hook-ups should be the responsibility of the Department of Transportation.

Motion by Tapping to approve the replacement of approximately 23 water hook-ups subject to the approval of engineering costs and securing funds, not to exceed $13,000, supported by Marshall. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

A committee consisting of Hinkley, Reinhart, Limpert, Naimowicz and Burkhardt was set up to head the project.

Naimowicz presented the Proposed Elected Official, Employees and Appointees Policy on Conflict of Interest. Clerk read the following policy:

In order to maintain public trust and to avoid conflicts of interest and appearances of conflicts of interest, all elected officials, employees and appointees shall disclose any of the following information at a public meeting or hearing prior to any discussion of any affected matter. The disclosure shall be entered into the minutes of the hearing or meeting:

1. Existing, pending or planned ownership of any real property which would be affected by any proposed action of a local public body.

2. Existing, pending or planned services provided or to be provided to owners of or parties interested in any real property proposed to be considered by a local public body.

3. Existing, pending or planned involvement with issues proposed to be considered by a local public body in which economic gain or any form of compensation will be immediately or eventually realized by an elected official, employee, or appointee.

4. Kinship or relationship by marriage to any party who holds any interest in any real estate which would be affected by any proposed action of a local public body.

5. In addition to the above, any fact which, if disclosed, would be likely to create a belief in reasonable minds that all elected officials, employees, and appointees because of a real or apparent conflict of interest.

After disclosure, a local public body shall act upon a motion to allow the disclosing member to engage in discussions, fact-finding and voting concerning the matter about which the disclosure was made. The motion shall be proposed in such a form that an affirmative vote is required to allow the member to participate. The disclosing member shall not vote upon the motion. If the motion does not pass by a majority vote, the disclosing member shall not engage in any discussion, fact-finding or voting, either as a member or as a member of the public, at any hearing or meeting of a local public body. A tie vote on such motion shall operate to defeat the motion.

Note: A Local Public Body is defined as the Village Council, a local commission, public hearing, Board or any meeting where an official issue affecting public trust is acted upon.

Motion by Limpert to accept policy as read, supported by Marshall. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Motion by Tapping to accept Clerk's recommendation of Helen Kensler as Deputy Clerk, supported by Reinhart. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Naimowicz made the recommendation that an Emergency Management Team be appointed. Discussion followed.

Motion by Marshall, supported by Tapping to set up an Emergency Management Team and to give a progress report at the next meeting. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Council agreed the Emergency Management Team should consist of Village Manager, Village President, Chief of Police, Fire Chief and the head of DPW.

Motion by Marshall to rescind Rule #2, dated November 5, 1984, supported by Reinhart. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Limpert introduced a discussion concerning the purchasing of the corner lot now owned by Gerry Mann. Acknowledging a conflict of interest, Limpert asked the Council for permission to speak in Gerry Mann's behalf as his realtor.

Motion by Marshall to allow Limpert to discuss the issue, supported by Tapping. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. Motion approved.

Discussion followed. Naimowicz recommended that Council continue negotiations and seriously look into this issue at a later date. Council agreed.

Bob Lowery was present to discuss known violations of the Manchester Village Code - Article 19. After a long discussion Limpert recommended that this issue be sent to the Planning Commission to handle. Council agreed.

stage three, the body is almost totally relaxed. It would take a loud noise to awaken one. Blood pressure and temperature continue to fall, as does the heart rate. Stage four is the deepest level of sleep. The muscles are completely relaxed. One is difficult to awaken and if awakened is likely to be slow to respond. Stage four is considered the most restorative sleep. However, this is also the stage when sleepwalking occurs. After stage four one quickly moves back through stages three and two and enters REM sleep. The eyes dart back and forth under the eye lids (thus the name rapid eye movement). The brain activity pattern is approximately the same as one fully awake! The body muscles, however, are totally limp, as if one were paralyzed. Most of the vivid dreams occur during REM. After ten minutes or so of REM sleep, one starts a new cycle beginning with stage two. The complete cycle lasts 90 to 100 minutes and four or five cycles will occur during the night. There are some changes as the cycles continue. Stage four sleep will typically occur only during the first couple of cycles and then disappear. Closer to morning even stage three will cease. The amount of time in REM sleep increases each cycle and may last as long as an hour near morning.

Why do we have these stages, especially REM, and what purpose does REM serve? The answers are not known. Some researchers think that REM time is used to strengthen memory traces and has to do with memory storage. Others think it is a time to get rid of accidental or meaningless connections in the brain, a time to unlearn things that are not important. Obviously much remains to be learned about sleep and the importance it has in our normal functions.

Arson Awareness Week May 4-10

Michigan's annual Arson Awareness Week observance will gain added impetus this year with the announcement that a toll free hotline for arson fire tips will be activated. Set for May 4-10, Michigan Arson Awareness Week has been officially noted by Governor James Blanchard who issued an Executive Declaration marking the occasion. In the declaration, Blanchard recognized the serious nature of the crime, "That affects all citizens and can only be stopped when citizens realize the severe damage that arson causes to our state and local communities."

The new toll free line, arranged through the cooperation of Michigan Bell Telephone Company, will be in operation May 1 (1986) when arson tipsters will begin dialing 1-800-44-ARSON. The former number, a collect call, will remain in service for a limited time on an intercept arrangement.

The tip-line phone number is the mainstay of the Arson Control Reward Program, administered by the Michigan Arson Prevention Committee. The MAPC is comprised of state, federal and local fire and police officials, representatives of the insurance industry, business men and others.

Key to the anti-arson battle is based on "awareness and action" by interested citizens, according to Capt. William R. Rucinski, commanding officer of the Michigan State Police Fire Marshal Division and current president of the MAPC.

The seminars are designed to assist employers in complying with the training and educational requirements of the new law. Each seminar will be offered at 8:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. at 17 different locals on 17 different days. The schedule includes:

Arson Awareness Week May 4-10

items in an anti-arson action program developed by the MAPC. These include:

- *Publicizing the MAPC arson reward program which pays up to $2,000 for tips which lead to the arrest and/or conviction of arsonists. Nearly $125,000 has been paid out to tipsters since the reward program was initiated in 1975. Persons with any knowledge of arsons, past, present or future are urged to call the new toll free number. Cash rewards are paid out based on merit and other criteria. Callers may remain anonymous. *Constantly updating education methods on arson detection for fire and police officials. Schools and seminars are held on the state level to train local investigators, as well as insurance company personnel and private adjusters.

*Promotion of anti-arson legislation at all levels, especially the recent legislation proposed by Representative Francis R. Spaniola that calls for strengthening State Police arson strike forces located in various areas of the state.

*Continued emphasis on the latest scientific investigatory methods in sifting arson evidence by State Police crime laboratories.

*Vigorous prosecution of arsonists and "tougher" jail sentences for arson crimes. Rucinski praised many Michigan judges who are meting out stiff prison sentences to convicted arsonists.
