Financing Your Debt - The New Math

(Prepared by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants).

It used to be simple... If your old car absolutely refused to go another mile and you needed money to buy a new one, you went to the bank for a car loan. If the coat you've been dying to buy just went on sale and you didn't have enough cash to pay for it, you might charge it to your credit card. And if the tuition cost at the college your son has selected is out of your reach, a student loan was the usual answer. But, according to the Michigan Association of CPAs, the old ways of financing your debt may not make the most sense these days, particularly in light of the new tax laws.

First and foremost, the new tax law calls for a phasing out of the deduction of interest costs for consumer debt. Consumer debt includes credit cards, personal loans, student loans, car loans and loans against life insurance policies. For 1987, only 65 percent of the interest paid is deductible. In 1988, the amount deductible drops to 40 percent; 20 percent in 1989; 10 percent in 1990. As of 1991, no portion of the interest paid on consumer debt will be deductible.

The new tax law will make all consumer credit more expensive, but the most expensive of all will be credit cards. Although the time has come to reexamine financing tactics, changing people's borrowing habits may be difficult. Let's face it, the American consumer loves plastic. It's easy and it's convenient and lenders know this. While other interest rates have dropped dramatically, credit card charges have not. The average credit card rate at the beginning of this year was just under 18 percent.

But with the phasing out of interest cost deductions, now it's wiser than ever to use your credit card as a convenience only. By charging purchases during the month and paying off your total balance within the bank's grace period, you can avoid interest charges. If this is feasible within your budget, you should look for a card with a generous grace period. If you plan to pay your balance in full every month, the interest rate the card carries doesn't matter because you won't be charged any interest. On the other hand, if you plan to extend your payments over a period of time, it's to your advantage to shop around for the bank with the lowest annual percentage rate.

Or, better yet, maybe you should look into a home equity loan. Although home equity loans may not be right for everyone, they certainly have become the hottest ticket in town.

For the uninitiated, your home equity is the appraised market value of your house less the amount of any outstanding mortgages. A home equity loan, then, is basically a loan or line of credit, secured by a mortgage on your home. You may use a home equity loan for any purpose - to buy a car, finance a vacation or consolidate your debts.

Generally, lenders will allow you to borrow from 75 percent to 80 percent of your equity. Many of these loans carry a variable rate which changes monthly. And because the loan is secured by your home, the rate can be quite low. The index most often used by banks is the prime rate, with most equity loans priced at 2 percent over prime. The fees banks charge for opening a home equity credit line vary. Some banks charge no fee at all, while the fee and closing costs at others range from a few hundred to a few thousand dollars.

Once your loan is approved, you can borrow against your line of credit by writing a check or presenting a special credit card. You can borrow as often as you like, as long as you don't go over your credit limit. Interest is charged only on the amount borrowed.

But why, you ask, has the home equity loan suddenly taken on a new importance as a financing tool? Easy... Since this kind of borrowing is secured by your home, the interest you pay is fully deductible, as opposed to consumer credit interest which is only partially deductible. So an equity loan can provide substantial amounts of low cost, tax-deductible credit. The new tax law allows you to deduct, as mortgage interest expense, any interest paid on home equity loans up to the original purchase price of your house less the amount you owe on your mortgage, plus the cost of all improvements you have made. In mathematical terms:

PURCHASE PRICE - MORTGAGE BALANCE + HOME IMPROVEMENT COSTS = AMOUNT OF ADDITIONAL DEBT FOR WHICH MORTGAGE INTEREST WOULD BE DEDUCTIBLE.

An example: If you bought your house for $100,000, have a mortgage balance of $70,000 and made $10,000 worth of improvements, you would be able to deduct the interest payments on a home equity loan of up to $40,000.

Put another way, you may deduct all of the interest paid on your mortgage and your equity loan, provided that the total amount owed doesn't exceed the purchase price of your home plus the cost of improvements made.

Note: The tax treatment for amounts borrowed above these limits is dependent on how the proceeds are used. If the amount is used for medical or educational expenses, the interest cost are fully deductible.

It is important to keep in mind that, since you're borrowing against the equity in your home, you run the risk of losing your home if you cannot repay. But if you're confident that you are borrowing within your means and can meet the lender's repayment schedule, a home equity loan can be a wise choice.

Keep in mind that at some point in the future, Congress may change the rules on home equity line of credit tax deductibility.

CPAs advise that there are many variables to be considered and factors to be weighed in deciding how you might best finance your debt. Because everyone's borrowing needs and circumstances are different, you might want to consider getting expert assistance.

Poppy Days May 15th & 16th

"Little flower of red
Proudly lift your head
You're the symbol of heroes brave
Each poppy fair is for a boy over there
Made by others
whose lives were saved
Let us help them live
Let us gladly give
For the Poppy of Sacrifice."

Alyssa Chartrand

On May 15 & 16 the red crepe paper poppy will be offered to the public by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. The remainder of the sacrifice of countless thousands in four wars is an annual event undertaken by the members of Emil Jacob Post #117 and the Auxiliary in Manchester. As we wear our poppies, we are reminded of our nation's war dead. We must also remember this is assisting the wars living victims. The poppy speaks to those who pause to hear its Message. It tells of the disabled veteran and the needy child, who will receive assistance from the Poppy Program. The poppy begins to assist before it leaves the hands of the disabled veteran. Making poppies helps speed the long hospital hours. For many it offers the only opportunity to earn money during the year.

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit #117 announces Alyssa Beth Chartrand as Miss Poppy for 1987. Alyssa is the daughter of David and Marsha Chartrand of Manchester, and is in the first grade at Klager School.

Alyssa is a member of the American Legion Junior Auxiliary, and is a Brownie in troop #729. She is on the stage crew in Klager's Play club production of "The Little Red Hen".

Alyssa's hobbies are reading, dance and camping.

Fire Destroys Senior Buses

By Becky Doyle

Both Senior Citizen buses, a DPW jeep and a garage owned by the village were destroyed by fire late Monday afternoon. The building, was used to store an orange jeep used by the Department of Public Works as well as the buses and miscellaneous village equipment. It is located on North Macomb Street behind the Senior Center.

Damage estimates were not available by press time and Mike Scully, Manchester Fire Chief, could not comment on the cause of the blaze.

"It's still under investigation by the Department," said Scully. "The State Fire Marshal won't be here until Wednesday, and by then we'll know more."

He added that he was sure from examining the ruins that arson was not a cause and he expected further investigation to confirm his own conclusions about the blaze, but was not yet ready to release those conclusions.

DPW employee Gary Wiedmayer said that the building was used for storage of fire hydrants, manhole covers, signs and other village equipment. He had no estimate of the amount of damage to village equipment until a physical survey could be made of the premises.

The building and vehicles were covered by insurance.

Brickmaking

One Of The Early Industries Of
The State Of Michigan.

Manchester Enterprise
April 10, 1924

The brickmaking industry of Michigan is one of the most important of its many diversified manufacturing interests. It began operations in 1826 when Titus Dort built the first brick plant in the state, located about a mile from the present financial center of Detroit. From this location the site of the plant was changed to a point on the Rouge River, near Detroit, which river runs through one of the richest and most abundant clay belts in Michigan. The early product of Titus Dort's brickplant was used to construct the arsenal buildings at Dearborn, which were built in the 30's, several of which still remain.

The advances made by the brickmaking industry during the first two decades after its introduction into the state were of little consequence, and outside the addition of a few small plants, remained at a standstill. The processes of manufacture are simple and only a meagre capital investment was necessary in the way of buildings and productive equipment. During the pioneering era farmers near

Detroit contributed a portion of the brick output, making an occasional batch now and then which they carted to the city and sold to individuals for purposes of building chimneys, fireplaces and the like. Brickmaking was engaged in by them only as a part time employment, however, by which they were enabled to acquire a little extra pin money.

The production of bricks was accomplished by mixing the materials into plastic form by hand. When in workable condition it was shaped in small box moulds. After removal from the molds the bricks were placed out in the open to dry, and the firing process, giving the bricks their hardness, and power to resist pressure, was performed in crudely devised kilns, cordwood being used as fuel.

Pioneers settling in the interior of the state first erected log

Senior Citizens News

That was one of the warmest Mother's Days on record. The heat continued into Monday, in more ways than one - much to our utter dismay. We are thankful the fire just consumed inanimate objects, those that can be replaced.

Back to fun and games: On Thursday, May 14 - there is 11:00 exercise, followed by lunch of ham loaf and a rousing game of bingo.

Friday, May 15 - Seniors will leave the Center on local home visits. They will leave at 1:00 p.m. and need your help to call on all our local shut-ins, who more often than not will brighten your day when you visit.

Thursday, May 19 - Exercise at 11:00, chicken bake at noon in Emanuel's dining room. Those of you who have reservations will be departing for the RSVP Lunch at Eastern Michigan University at 10:30 a.m.

Thursday, May 21 - 11:00 exercise (geared just for seniors, but a good workout), 12 noon lunch of lasagna florentine (doesn't the title intrigue you?) and bingo.

American Tour trips are planned for this summer: On Tuesday, June 16 - the Bobby Vinton Show, and two trips to Chesaning Show Boat, starring Roy Clark. An overnight trip for Wednesday and Thursday, July 15 and 16, or a one day trip on Friday, July 17 - information on any of these may be obtained by calling Helen Kinckerbocker (428-7239). Please contact her soon as these are popular excursions.

Shakespeare Reading Club

The Shakespeare Club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Van der Schalie on May 5. Her topic was on "Weeds - Friend or Foe". She told us how the Indians used various weeds for medicine, and also how some plants were eaten for food. The Indians also taught the settlers who came later about them. We also saw a lot of wild flowers that are in bloom on her property.

Officers were elected for the following year.

Our next meeting which is "President's Day" will be held on Tuesday, May 20. We will meet at Emanuel Church at 12:30 p.m. to travel to the "Clintonian Inn" for a 1:00 p.m. luncheon. A tour of the Inn will follow. Mrs. Roger Hardenberg will then show us some pictures she took on her recent visit to Spain. We are looking forward to a pleasant day.

Jolly Farmerettes

Our last meeting was held at Sara Samonek's house on April 22, 1987. Nine members and five leaders were present. We have $85.52 in our account. Our next meeting is at Michelle Mann's on May 20, 1987. We will be stenciling so if you have any supplies please bring them.

300 Club Winner

Manchester Fire Department 300 Club winner for last week was Fred Warden ticket #258.

Manchester Area Historical Society

The Manchester Area Historical Society will meet on Monday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Blacksmith Shop, 324 East Main Street. For the past several years, the Society has made a videotape of events in and around Manchester. The 1986 videotape is finished and will be previewed at the meeting. A separate videotape was made on the Michigan Livestock Exchange located on M-52 and it will also be shown.

Refreshments will be served by Linda Ebersole and Gail Kellum Curtis. The public is invited to join us.

Street Fair Up-Date

Manchester Street Fair will be held on Saturday, August 1st. The Manchester Mill Run will be held in the morning. The K of C's are considering holding a pancake breakfast afterwards. There will also be a Flea Market downtown. If you have any suggestions or plan to have sidewalk sales, food specials or tables outside please contact: Pat - 428-7684; Sally - 428-8980; Harry - 428-8393; and Ann Pat - 428-8380.

Main Street will be closed for the artists to set up in the street and the Mens Club is planning a Street Dance. Side walk space is available for any interested group, organization or individual.

Manchester Community Scholarship

It's almost graduation time again. Seniors have been applying to colleges and universities, and many of them have already received their acceptance letter. Now they must plan how to finance their higher education, which can be very expensive.

Last year six seniors received scholarships through the Manchester Community Scholarship Fund to help them pay for their college expenses. The Manchester High School Student Council manages the fund and hopes the community will support the scholarship fund as generously as they have in the past.

Near the end of May a committee will select the students that they feel have demonstrated qualities they deserve to be rewarded. Factors in determining the recipients will be: grade point average, extracurricular activities, and financial need.

Applications for the Scholarship are available to the seniors in the High School counseling office. The deadline for the applications is May 15th.

High School Accredited By The NCA

Principal Rod Morrison announced today that Manchester High School has received accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The school was admitted to membership on April 14, 1987, at the Association's annual meeting, held in Chicago, Illinois. Manchester High School was one of twelve schools in this state which this year became NCA members for the first time.

"Accreditation by the NCA means that the school has met the standards set for membership," said Principal Rod Morrison.

"These standards signify that the school has the resources, personnel, and leadership necessary for effective education."

Accreditation must be renewed each year. In commenting upon this, Superintendent Ron Niedzwiecki noted that: Continuation within the NCA requires a joint effort by the community and the staff to make certain that the potential for quality education remains unimpaired. The advantage of NCA membership is that it assures the public at large that the school has met those standards which good schools in the NCA region consider to be imperative for effective education to take place.

The NCA State Director, Dr. Connie Jo Craft, extended congratulations to the school, noting that Manchester High School has now joined the growing league of schools whose purpose is the continuing quest for higher levels of quality education.

The North Central Association, the nation's largest regional accrediting association, is a league of 6,000 schools and 900 colleges and universities in nineteen states. The Association works with schools to improve the quality of education through accreditation and evaluation.

Middle School Academic Honors Night

Students at Nellie Ackerson Middle School will be honored for high academic achievement on Thursday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the middle school gymnasium. The middle school faculty and the Middle School Boosters have combined forces in this venture.

Students will be honored for achievement in the following areas: A Honor Roll, B Honor Roll, Science Fair, Science Convocation, Science Olympiad, Southeast Michigan Science Fair, Midwest Talent Search, Future Problem Solving, Michigan Educational Assessment Program, Washtenaw County Young Authors, Optimist Oratorical Contest, Farm Bureau Essay Contest, Michigan Math League Contest, Fifth Grade Young Authors, Math-Counts Competition, Band-Solo Ensemble, Knights of Columbus Spelling Competition and Four Year Academic Recognition.

Be sure to reserve this date on your calendar so that you may join us in honoring our students' achievements.

Rev. Morris Accepts Call

Rev. John R. Morris, pastor of Zion Lutheran (Rogers Corners) for the past twenty years has accepted the call to become the pastor of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Herron, Michigan. He assumes his duties there June 21. The congregation cordially invites the community to an informal dinner (no reservations are needed) on Sunday, May 24, 1987, at 2 p.m. to help wish Pastor Morris well in his new ministry. Zion Lutheran is 120 years old and has been served by Pastor Morris since June of 1967. Services were then in the old church constructed in 1867, the year the congregation was also founded. By 1972, the need was assessed "That the new church and educational unit should be built to accommodate the growth and provide for the needs of the congregation." Hence in October of 1974 the dedication took place of the current facility. In February of this year the congregation entirely paid off the debt incurred with the building which amounted to over $500,000 including interest.

St. Matthew Lutheran, Herron is located just about 10 miles west of Alpena and is also a rural congregation with 105 years of history. The parish is about 100 members larger than the Zion, Chelsea parish.

As his ministry comes to completion here Rev. Morris will preach his last sermon at Zion on Sunday, May 24, at 10:15 a.m. Before his work begins in Herron, Rev. Morris will pack, unpack and relax.

Rev. Morris leaves with a warm feeling, both for his parish and for the surrounding communities which have supported him and shared life with him in these comfortable rural settings. He is looking forward to a fresh start, to looking at the ministry through new eyes in a new setting.

All American Buckle-Up!!

The national All-American Buckle Up is scheduled for May 18-25 to coincide with the Memorial Day Weekend. This weekend kicks off the beginning of the summer travel vacation period when many people are on the roads and when many are involved in accidents.

While some accidents cannot be avoided, protection from fatalities and serious injuries is possible when people develop the safety belt habit. It is estimated that more than 8,000 lives could be saved and over 300,000 injuries avoided each year if 70 percent of the population wore their "life savers," their safety belts.

A number of Washtenaw County auto dealers and pre-schools recently distributed reminders of this life saving habit.

These organizations join the Washtenaw County Health Department, which will be observing safety belt use in parking lots, in saying "Buckle Up America—Start A Habit For Life!" This event is sponsored by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA). For more information about how your organization may celebrate All-American Buckle Up call Beverly Chethik or DeBorah Borden at 973-1488.

Brickmaking

power, even within the past 40 years. But since then modern machinery and the use of natural gas or oil for burning the bricks have greatly increased houses or stone ones where material was available, but it was a rare sight to see a brick house. However, there was one here and there, as we have evidence even after the lapse of 100 years. In sections where clay could be obtained many brick residences, barns, stores and shops were erected a little later on. The clay for these was mixed by horse-production. Steam shovels and gasoline trucks have replaced the wheelbarrows and horse-drawn vehicles, and the pick and shovel, and the business is thoroughly modernized.

Detroit still holds its place as the leader of 29 plants throughout the state making common building brick which with the output of various kinds of tile, forms the bulk of this state's contributions to the totals of the brickmaking industry of the country, which includes the production of brick, tile, terra cotta and other clay products. This industry as a whole in 1920 manufactured products valued at $208,422,920, employed 76,915 wage earners, expended $78,256,085 for wages, and represented a capital investment of $355,848,355.

Sue Koebe, Treasurer

Motion by Tapping, supported by Marshall, to accept Treasurers Report as presented.

ACCOUNTS PAYABLE
The May 1, 1987, Village Payables were presented to Council for payment. After discussion and clarification of bills there was a motion by Tapping, supported by Marshall, to pay the Village Payables in the amount of $88,571.05, holding the Washtenaw County Sheriffs Department check for verification. Roll Call Vote: Six-ayes, Limpert-no. Motion approved.

SHERIFFS REPORT
The April Sheriffs Report will be ready for the next Council Meeting on May 19.

Sgt. Spork emphasized the importance of people signing complaints when an ordinance is being violated.

DPW REPORT
Wiedmayer presented DPW report - on file.

Items up for discussion were: 50/50 Sidewalk Program. Cleaning up Parks, and moving the two Transformers.

Motion by Marshall, supported by Becktel, to accept DPW Report as presented. Ayes-all.

PLANNING COMMISSION
Marshall had nothing to report.

MANAGERS REPORT
Naimowicz presented Managers Report - on file.

Items up for discussion were: Senior Housing, Engineering, Budget Changes, Re-organization of responsibilities in the office, Update on Computer and Fourth of July Fireworks.

After a lengthy discussion

Limpert offered a motion, supported by Harris, not to sponsor the Fourth of July Fireworks this year because of the uncertainty of liability on behalf of the Village. Roll Call Vote: Six-ayes, Marshall-no.

NEW BUSINESS
Pit Bull Problem - Sgt. Spork reported that there are no local agencies within the Ann Arbor area that have an Ordinance against Pit Bulls. An Ordinance against vicious animals would be the most likely way to go. The Village could ask the owners of Pit Bulls to do three things: 1. Register them with the Village Office, 2. Have them insured, 3. Keep them muzzled.

Sgt. Spork emphasized that none of these would work without public support, meaning people must be willing to sign a complaint.

Operating Mileage - After a short discussion Tapping offered a motion, supported by Limpert, to adopt the operating mileage for the budget as was adopted. Roll Call Vote: Ayes-all.

Motion by Tapping, supported by Marshall, to rescind the previous motion because of a misunderstanding in the presentation. Roll Call Vote: Ayes-all.

Motion by Limpert, supported by Marshall, to adopt the following operating mileage:

General Fund	8.00
General Highway	3.20
Water/Sewer	4.00
Park Improvement	.50

15.70 Mills

Roll Call Vote: Ayes-all.

OLD BUSINESS
Limpert Easement - Limpert wants to go on record as still agreeing with the original agreement. Motion by Marshall, supported by Harris, to have the Attorneys draft the final paper work on the Limpert Easement. Ayes-all.

ZBA Appointments - Motion by Marshall, supported by Tapping, to table until next meeting. Six-Ayes. Limpert-no.

The Clerk gave a brief update on Mayor Exchange Day. Council adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

Spring Sports Boys Track

Starting the week, our girls took to the softball diamond against Napoleon. We played a tough, tight opening game, and won 3-2, but fell apart in the nightcap 13-2.

Our boys also met Napoleon and dropped the first game 9-2. We rallied for 3 runs in the 4th inning of the second game to knot the score at 5-5. The contest was called in the 8th inning, ending in a 5-5 tie.

Our lady tracksters, despite losing to Napoleon, are improving weekly. Linda Milkey had personal bests in the 800 meters, 3200 meter relay and mile relay. Laura Meister won the 100 meter dash and was 2nd in the 200 meter run. Amy Major broke the tape 1st in the 200 meter run, and was 2nd in the 100 and 400, all in her personal best times. Kristin Houck won the 400 meter run and was 2nd in the 300 meter hurdles.

Thursday was a super day for our ball squads. First of all, our girls' softball team faced Addison and cruised to an easy 15-0 win. Jennifer Barnard was the winning pitcher and now sports an excellent 6 and 1 record. Team members having 2 or more hits - Rockie Weber, Nikole Reinhart, Erin Davis, Heidi Minick and Kim Lockridge. Our girls now have an overall record of 8 and 4 with a 4 and 2 league record.

Our boys also left victorious, nipping Addison 8-7. Two or more hits were posted by Greg Lee, Jon Kempfer, Jason Van Deven, Tom Golding, and Paul Davis.

Boys Track

On Tuesday, a powerful Napoleon team came to town. Our boys did a super job running against them. Tough! Denny Steele and Darryl Kuebler scored 2nd and 3rd in the shot, 35'4" and 34'7" to get our scoring going.

Denny then threw the discus 110'8" for a personal best and 3rd place. Brad Uphouse leaped 5'6" to pick up 2nd in the high jump. Jon Arney ran a personal best in the 110 highs 15.7 to finish in 2nd. Dan Platt and Allen Carson sprinted to 2nd and 3rd in the 100m, 11.8 and 11.9. Jon came back in the 300 lows to run a swift 40.0 to take 1st place, also a personal best. Platt and Uphouse came on strong to go 2nd and 3rd in the 200m, 24.6 and 24.9. Our 1600 relay of Brad Uphouse, Jon Arney, Dan Platt, and Brad Wilson upset Napoleons team, by winning in an exciting 3:36.1.

EAST JACKSON

We decided to do a few things different in this meet. We were running a dirt track, which turned out to be their advantage. But most important we're trying to get prepared for the Regional meet coming up on Friday. Brad Uphouse finished 2nd in the high jump. Billy Day won the pole vault with a 8'6" jump, Steve Samonek took 2nd, also at 8'6". Allan Carson took 2nd in the 100 yard dash. Brad Wilson and Lewis Major went 2 and 3 in the 400m. Nick Miller finished 3rd in the mile. Steve Andrews came in 2nd in the 880 yard dash. Jon Arney got surprised by an East

Girl Scouts Celebrate!!

The University of Michigan's Crisler Arena ordinarily houses the Maize and Blue - a mighty tradition in Ann Arbor. But this Saturday, May 16, it will feature a tradition of a different color. Over 8,000 Girl Scouts, proudly clad in their green attire, will gather at Crisler Arena for Celebration!, a commemoration of their 75th birthday.

Presented by the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, this gala event will feature an array of festive activities centering around the 75th anniversary's theme: Tradition With A Future. Joining the thousands of Girl Scouts from the southeastern Michigan area will be over 250 Girl Guides from Canada, who have recently celebrated their 75th anniversary.

Throughout the year Girl Scouts, locally and across the country have taken part in a wide variety of activities commemorating their birthday, with Celebration! culminating participation. Celebration! will take place at Crisler Arena on the University of Michigan campus in Ann Arbor Saturday, May 16, at 2:00 p.m. Exhibits of the history of Girl Scouting will be on display at 12:00 noon in the lobby of the arena. For further information, or to obtain tickets, $1.00 each call the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council at 313-483-2370. Tickets will not be available at Crisler Arena on Saturday.

A PUBLIC NOTICE

For too many years, the American Medical Association and its "constituent" state associations, being political organizations, have taken it upon themselves to put their stamp of "approval" or "disapproval" on anything and everything relative to health care.

And too often, the vast majority of the public has accepted their pronouncements as an indisputable truth.

It is no secret that one of the tools the American Medical Association and its "constituent" state associations have used to ridicule and restrict Chiropractic has been their constant statement that a doctor of Chiropractic's education quantity and quality was inferior.

By their own admission, the American Medical Association has lost its credibility to take a position on anything outside the medical field. On November 17, 1986, the American Medical Association entered into a court settlement to eliminate a law suit brought against the AMA and the Iowa Medical Society for restraint of trade by over 120 Iowa doctors of Chiropractic.

As part of that settlement the American Medical Association freely acknowledged that they neither have nor had any knowledge of the content nor the quality of courses taught in Chiropractic college.

If the American Medical Association will promote a position on something as important as the competency of education of another health care profession without facts and then maintain that for years - how can any other opinion the American Medical Association has ever presented "in the public interest" be viewed as anything other than a political, self-serving statement for the benefit of its members at the expense of the general public.

In Search Of The Right Financial Planner

(Prepared by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants).

Susan and Brett both work full-time, are avid travelers and have three active children. It's been a year since they received a sizable inheritance from Susan's father but, because of their busy schedules and distaste for financial matters, the entire sum has been left sitting in their checking account.

Dawn, a talented sculptor with an income approaching six figures, doesn't know the difference between a growth stock and a convertible bond and has no idea why everyone's been talking about tax reform.

What do these people have in common? It is very likely that each could benefit from the services of an experienced financial planner, advises the Michigan Association of CPAs.

But Susan, Brett, and Dawn, like many other people are not sure what financial planning is all about and just how a financial planner can help them.

Put very simply, personal financial planning is a process in which a person takes financial control of his or her life. Instead of drifting along, making a financial decision here and there along the way, a person with a financial plan becomes educated about finances and able to focus and take control of the financial aspects of his life.

Although the financial planning process has many components and involves many steps, it may be thought of in terms of three simple questions.

Where do I (or we) stand now? Where do I want to go? How am I going to get there? If you think of the first question as being a Point A and the second question as being Point B, the financial planning process is the way you get from Point A to Point B. In effect it provides the answer to question three - a road map of sorts.

While the actual planning process is unique for each individual, the elements are standard. The first step involves the gathering of all relevant financial data which provides the background for the process.

Next, the financial planner will work with you to identify your financial goals and objectives.

This decision must be well thought out because it provides the foundation upon which your plan is formulated. Do you need to plan for your children's college education? Are you concerned about your retirement income?

After an analysis of your financial data, your attitudes toward money, and your goals and objectives, the financial planner is in a position to develop recommendations on how you can accomplish your financial goals.

Once the financial plan is complete and agreed to by all parties involved, it is time to coordinate the implementation of the plan. Together, you and your financial planner can determine who should execute the various recommendations in your plan. If your plan calls for more life insurance, an agent can be contacted, while a securities broker may be called upon to help select recommended investments. If you will need to be updated, an attorney may be required.

Lastly, it is important to think of the personal financial plan as a process and not a product. The financial plan is an ongoing commitment -- it doesn't have an end. And it should be reviewed on a regular basis. Any number of changes in your life (births, marriage, illness) and in the economy (inflation rate, major tax code changes, etc.) could necessitate a change in your financial plan.

If putting a financial plan together sounds like quite an undertaking to you, you're right. It is a complex matter but one that is sure to benefit you and your financial situation. And by turning to the right financial planner to guide you through the planning process, you can make the experience a financially rewarding one.

There are a number of factors you'll want to consider in selecting a financial planner. First and foremost, you'll want to carefully check the financial planner's competence and experience. A financial planner should have a working knowledge of all areas of financial planning -- from taxes to cash flow, from investments to retirement planning.

Next, you'll want to give serious thought to the payment arrangement you will feel most comfortable with. There are basically three ways financial planners charge: fee-only, commission-only and fee-plus-commission.

Commission-only financial planners produce a plan free of charge but collect a sales commission on many of the products they recommend you but, with this method you may never feel quite certain whether the suggested recommendations are in the best interests of you or the planner.

On the other hand, fee-only planners, such as CPAs, charge only for the service itself. They may be the most objective since they charge a flat fee usually based on an hourly rate and receive no commissions.

A hybrid, the fee-plus-commission planner charges a set amount for the plan and also sells on commission some or all of the products the plan recommends.

It is essential to discuss, in detail, the entire process (including costs) of how the plan will be developed and implemented with any planners you are considering.

Review the planner's track record, the number of years he/she has been in business as a financial planner, and how well you trust the judgement of the person who recommended him/her. Your selection of a financial planner should be based on the planner's objectivity, competence and experience in personal financial planning.

Your financial success in the future may very well depend on the actions you take today. So give careful thought to preparing a financial plan with the right financial planner.

Saline Hospital's May Dinner

Hospital volunteers and staff are once again gearing up for Saline Community Hospital's May Dinner, an annual benefit.

Dozens of volunteers will devote hundreds of hours planning this year's festivities centering around the theme, the Orient Express. Included in the evening of fun, feast, and dance at Travis Pointe Country Club will be entertainment by Judith Dow-

Alexander, and Trio a la Mode.

Judith Dow-Alexander, an Ann Arbor native, has performed in a wide variety of settings from NBC's Today Show, Kelly and Company, and Sonya, to guest appearances with numerous symphony orchestras including the Spokane Symphony Orchestra, Erie Philharmonic, and Alabama Symphony Orchestra. She has starred in such musicals as Gypsy, Hello Dolly, the Mikado, and Company; has three recordings to her credit - "I Love America", "Regards to Broadway", and "When the Moon Comes the Mountain" - and hosted her own radio program for ten years.

Ms. Dow's professional training includes attending the National Music Camp at Interlochen, the University of Michigan, and private coaching with Ron Clairmont. In addition to teaching, directing, choreographing and serving on the Michigan Art Council, she was also a Tony Award winning Associate Producer for "Sweeney Todd".

The proceeds from this event are used to purchase vital medical equipment for Saline Community Hospital.

To purchase reservations, or for more information regarding the May Dinner, call Saline Community Hospital at 313-429-1582, or Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Learman at 313-429-4685 in the evening.

Emanuel United Church of Christ Listed In Register of Historical Places

The Michigan Historical Commission is pleased to announce that the Emanuel German Evangelical Church, Manchester, Michigan, Washtenaw County, has been listed in the State Register of Historic Places.

Emanuel Evangelical United Church of Christ in a rectangular, gable-roofed, wood-trimmed and limestone Late Victorian Gothic brick building, which is topped by a square, centrally-positioned, louvered belfry, and is crowned by a soaring 156 foot high pyramidal roofed steeple. The front facade has a gabled ornament and flanking side posts, above which is a stone marker recessed in brick. Pointed arch windows flank front and side facades, capped by brick trim hood moulds.

Emanuel Evangelical Church was founded in 1862 jointly with Bethel Evangelical. The first supply pastor was Reverend T. G. Hildner. For the next two decades members met for prayer and worship services at each other's homes. On February 4, 1882, at a special meeting, the congregation voted to erect a new church building of brick construction. Frederick and Michael Schaible, owners of a nearby brickyard, donated the clay brick to build the church. Architect Arthur Carl Schmidt of Detroit drafted the plans. A cornerstone was laid on July 9, 1882, and the sanctuary was dedicated for religious worship on December 10, 1882. Emanuel United Church of Christ, has historical note as

Birds A Benefit To Farmers

There Are One Hundred Species Of Birds In The State Of Michigan

Manchester Enterprise July 27, 1922

Michigan has always been a favorite resort for birds, or was up to about 40 years ago, when not only our people but poachers from other states came here and made havoc in the roosting and nesting places of pigeons, prairie chickens and other game birds, completely annihilating the pigeons and perhaps would have wiped out other birds had not our legislature seen the wisdom of enacting protective laws before it was too late.

Those who have made a study of migratory birds declare that there is a gradual increase in the number of birds in the state during the past 10 years or more.

Approximately 100 varieties of birds are common in Michigan, the greater number of them being of the migratory variety, according to James Smith of Detroit. Of this number nearly half are some species of warblers. The list does not include countless other varieties that come here but numbers of which are so small as to be uncommon to Michigan residents.

Mr. Smith announces himself as a friend of all birds because of their economic value to the farmer directly and to the city dweller indirectly. He estimates that each bird of certain varieties, chiefly the martins and swallows, destroy as many as 2,000 insects daily as they are almost constantly on the wing. Other birds eat hundreds of insects and harmful worms and bugs daily, he has learned through personal observation.

"When one considers the rapidity with which insects multiply the value of the birds in killing the adult pests and thus keeping down the numbers becomes apparent," the ornithologist said. "The world would become untenable for humans because of the insects if it were not for the work of the birds." Mr. Smith is a friend of the English sparrow and declares that he does much good in destroying weed seeds and insects. We are glad to see the great increase in bob-whites, or quail, in Michigan. They are particularly plentiful in this section. An attempt has been made to increase the number of pheasants. They are a beautiful bird but hunters can't seem to resist the temptation to shoot them when an opportunity presents itself.

Among the birds living in Michigan throughout the year are: Quail, ruffed grouse, blue-jays, meadow larks, flickers, downy and hairy woodpeckers, song sparrows, goldfinches, chickadees. Some of them remain hidden during the winter. Some hardy birds that spend the summer far north and come here during the winter are tree and white-throated sparrows, pine grosbeak, crossbills, creepers; but some of these do not visit the lower peninsula of Michigan.

Many birds that migrate as far as South America to spend the winter are lost when crossing the Gulf of Mexico on their return in the spring. The winds carry them far out of their course and sweep them into the sea. But scores of birds go no farther than the southern states and some change their plumage so that they are scarcely recognized by northern people wintering there. We have heard several mention this fact. Everybody should be a friend of the birds, but the farmers should protect them as much as possible, as they surely are a great benefit to them.
