

Conveniently Homemade

Tasty Treats

Parents are constantly on the lookout for economical and convenient ways to feed the troops. Afterschool and between-meal snacks take on a whole new meaning when youngsters share kitchen detail.

These easy, no-bake treats require only willing hands, a blender and loaf pan. Older children can improve their math skills by measuring ingredients for the Purple Cow and Banana Orange shakes, while younger ones prepare the graham crumb mixture for the Fruit 'N Nut Blocks.

Both recipes feature Royal Gelatin and Royal Instant Pudding & Pie Filling, and should satisfy your platoon's appetites until chow time.

BANANA ORANGE SHAKE

(Makes 4 servings)
2 cups cold milk
1 (3 3/8-ounce) package Royal Instant Vanilla Pudding & Pie Filling
1 cup cold orange juice
1 banana, halved

In electric blender container, combine milk, pudding mix, orange juice and banana. Cover and blend at low speed for 1 minute or until smooth. Serve immediately.

PURPLE COW SHAKE

(Makes 4 servings)
2 cups cold milk

1 (3 3/8-ounce) package Royal Instant Vanilla Pudding & Pie Filling
1 cup cold canned grape punch
In electric blender container, combine milk, pudding mix and fruit punch. Cover and blend at low speed for 1 minute or until smooth. Serve immediately.

FRUIT 'N NUT BLOCKS

(Makes 1 1/2 dozen)
1/4 graham crackers, finely rolled (about 1 cup crumbs)
1/4 cup margarine or butter blend, melted
1 (6-ounce) or 2 (3-ounce) package(s) Royal Orange Gelatin

1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup pineapple juice
3/4 cup diced dried fruit mix
1/2 cup walnuts, chopped
18 walnut halves

In small bowl, combine graham cracker crumbs and margarine or butter blend. Press half the crumb mixture on the bottom of 9x5x3-inch loaf pan.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water; stir in pineapple juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Stir in fruit mix and chopped walnuts. Pour mixture over prepared crust; sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Press walnut halves into crumbs. Chill 3 hours or until firm. To serve, cut into 18 pieces.

County Historical Society

Helen F. Gilbert, Plymouth author of TONQUISH TALES, will talk about local and state Indian history at the Washtenaw County Historical Society meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday, October 18, at the Ann Arbor American Legion, 1035 South Main. It is open to the public.

Ms. Gilbert grew up along Tonquish Creek near Northville and used to wonder who Tonquish was. After a career in journalism and teaching, she started following up her childhood curiosity about Indians and writing a column in the Plymouth OBSERVER-ECCENTRIC.

She published the second volume of TONQUISH TALES last December. Tonquish was a chief of a small band of local Anonquian Indians, sometimes signing treaties as a Potawatomi, sometimes as a Chippewa.

She has done much of her research in Ann Arbor where she once worked.

121ST YEAR VOLUME NUMBER ONE

First Book Published

Janice Little and Teddy Groeb, teachers at the Manchester Klager School.

Janice Little and Teddy Groeb have just published their first book, "Hooray For The 100th Day". The two Klager teachers have incorporated the 100th Day concept into their entire curriculum for the past four years. Little and Groeb have done numerous workshops throughout the state of Michigan. Last school year they presented to Michigan Council of Teachers of Mathematics in Alpena, The University of Michigan Math Council in Ann Arbor and to the elementary teachers at Birmingham Public Schools in Birmingham, Michigan.

According to the authors, the idea for the book came from the encouragement of administrators and teachers throughout the state that attended their workshops. "It was such fun to hear from schools as far away as the U.P. about the success of their 100th Day", says Groeb.

Both teachers agree that without encouragement and cooperation from the parents, the success of the program would not

United Way Into It's Third Week

Let's stuff Box 275 at the Post Office. If you haven't already mailed your donation into United Way - Now is the time. In doing so you help 38 agencies cooperating together in this "One Drive For All". Manchester's first area drive was held 40 years ago with a goal of $3,000. Our 1987 goal is set at $42,500 - a far cry from that first goal in 1947.

Mail your donation to MANCHESTER UNITED WAY, P.O. Box 275, Manchester, MI 48158. See how good you will feel!

Employees working outside of Manchester are reminded to designate your contribution to Manchester's United Way. "Go Dutch!" "Let's Give Much!"

have been as great. According to Little, the children take a poll at the end of the year and their favorite day has always been 100th Day. This is quite an accomplishment when you consider Christmas parties, Field Day and Fun Run are included. Little & Groeb's first and second graders are already counting and anxiously waiting for their 100th Day of school this year.

Council To Choose Interim Manager

by Becky Doyle

Village Council will choose an interim manager from four candidates on October 21. The successful applicant will replace present Village Manager, Dan Naimowicz, while he is on extended sick leave.

Carl Willoughby has seven years of experience as Village Manager in Dexter. He stated that he will continue to look for a long-term position if he is hired, however, and had several prospects.

Harvey Weatherwax, a self-employed consultant and carpenter from Western Michigan, has had experience in management in Kalkaska. Although it has been some time since he has been involved in local government, he said he sees this position as an opportunity to re-enter the field.

Pamela Hartwig, a local attorney, also expressed interest in the position. Although she has no experience with government management, her practice has involved her with several situations that have familiarized her with the mechanisms of local

Railroad Meeting

Manchester Enterprise
February 4, 1869

Pursuant to a call of the Railroad committee an adjourned meeting of the citizens of Manchester and vicinity was held at Palmer's office last Saturday evening. The Committee went to Detroit and reported that they were led to believe the road would be built from Ypsilanti, via Manchester, if the people along the route would lend their aid by subscribing liberally, and unless they did the road would pass through Clinton or Tecumseh.

There was a fair representation of the business, professional men and mechanics of the village, and farmers from the several townships adjoining, present and there appeared to be an earnest determination on the part of all present to secure the route if earnest efforts can secure it. The meeting was called to order by Hon. J.D. Corey, chairman of the Railroad Committee, after which Mr. Reynolds made a report of the action of the committee. Mr. H. Goodyear made a few remarks relative to increases in valuation of all property along this line. Mr. Palmer showed up the superior advantages of this route over any of the proposed routes, and entreated the capitalists to open their pocket-book and give liberally of the stamps in a few words explained why they were able to pay higher prices for grain at Chelsea and other places on the Central road last fall, than they did, or could pay at this place, for shipment. Mr. Reynolds made a motion that when the meeting adjourns, that it be until Saturday afternoon, Feb. 6th, at 1 o'clock, that was adopted.

The subscription, which had already reached several thousand, was greatly enlarged by new subscribers and doubling some of the old ones. Committee was appointed to circulate the subscription paper, and it is thought that $75,000 can be raised without difficulty. The meeting was a very harmonious one and all are awake.

The meeting then adjourned until Saturday, February 6th at 1 p.m. at Goodyear's hall. The people from the county, and neighboring towns are requested to be present and participate.

Our Ann Arbor friends are very earnest in their endeavors to have a road built from that city to Manchester, entirely independent of all companies, and we understand from reliable sources that the lending money men of that place are pledging sums of money for that purpose. The project looks feasible. Come out to the meeting on Saturday and hear what is to be said about it.

Let the house be filled to overflowing.

Huron Valley Ambulance Moves Dispatch Center

Huron Valley Ambulance has moved its dispatch center to the Washtenaw County Service Center in order to improve emergency communications. The move puts HVA dispatchers next to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Communications Center on Hogback Road. Dispatchers have been housed at HVA's headquarters at 2200 South Industrial Highway since the service was organized in 1981.

"We expect that this move will help us provide better emergency service to Washtenaw County and western Wayne County," said Dale J. Berry, HVA executive director.

"The relocation illustrates the high level of cooperation between a public agency - the County of Washtenaw - and our community-owned non-profit ambulance service.

County Sheriff. Callers who need an ambulance in an emergency will still dial the same telephone numbers as before the move: 9-1-1 within the city limits of Ann Arbor or Saline; 994-4111, anywhere else in Washtenaw County; and 687-7900, in western Wayne County.

The dispatch center's move precedes HVA's relocation to a new headquarters, to be built on the southwest corner of the County Service Center and occupied in mid-1988. The new headquarters will be almost exactly in the center of HVA's service area population and closer to major highways.

Other features of the new location include: better security, emergency electricity and water supply in case of weather emergencies, and compatibility with eventual county-wide 9-1-1 service.

"We promote the concept of having emergency communications services under one roof, in order to improve service to victims of medical emergencies," said Berry.

"Having HVA working side by side with personnel at the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department" will enhance our ability to respond to major county-wide disasters, such as a tornado, fire or airplane crash," said Ron Schebil, Washtenaw

Shakespeare Reading Club

The club met at the home of Wilma Bucholtz on October 13. Wilma's topic was on "Will Carleton". He was born near Hudson, Michigan, and was named "Poet Laureat of Michigan." One of his most famous poems was called "Over the Hill to the Poorhouse". His many volumes of poems are enjoyed so much by many people even at the present time.

Roll call was a "Poet I remember from my grade school days." We enjoyed reciting the poems that took us back to our own good times when we talked about the various authors.

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 27, at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Lenora Parr. Her topic will be "Shakespeare with a Twist".

Four Receive Top Award

Excellence in business is not easily measured. It is probably best defined through achievements verified by a satisfied customer. At Johnson Controls, the achievement of excellence in customer satisfaction is honored through a special awards program.

Joe Carr, research & development manager; Arnold Deanhoffer, journeyman machine builder; George Harvey, journeyman electrician; and James Osgood, journeyman machine builder for the company's Plastics Technology Group in Manchester, were among those honored. The team received a Johnson Controls Chairman's Award for Excellence in Customer Satisfaction. They were one of nine recipients recognized at the company's annual management meeting in Milwaukee in September. The winning individuals and groups were chosen from nominations received from company operations throughout the world.

Johnson Controls Chairman Fred L. Bregel created the special awards program to foster excellence among employees and emphasize Johnson Controls' commitment to satisfying its customers, whether they are other company employees or the people who buy and use the company's products and services.

"The recipients of this year's awards exemplify the attitudes and achievements that are the mark of top performers," said Mr.

Bregel in making the awards. "The commitment they demonstrate, each in their own way, is the reason we continue to be successful."

Klager PTO

September 28, 1987

The meeting was called to order at 7:35.

Vice President Kathy Donnellon and Board member Margaret Goodrich were absent.

The minutes were read. There was a correction made. The program for the children should be called "Just Say No." Minutes approved.

The Treasurer's report was given. We have a balance of $287.88.

Our guest speaker, Mrs. Caryn Shapiro, came to our meeting and told us about herself. She is our speech teacher.

We have sold approximately twenty-five thousand dollars worth of bulbs and candy. Our share of this is about eleven thousand dollars and the prizes. There will be a bike for the girl and boy who had the highest sales total. Also a bike will be given from a drawing for the rest of the children. There will be an assembly to give the children their bikes.

Barbara Hollosy said that her husband would put the bikes together.

The R.A.N. program was discussed. We need a group to get it going.

There will be a "Family Night Dance" January 8, or 15. This will be sponsored by the PTO and there will be no charge for admittance. Amy Cohn is talking with a local person to be a "DJ" for our dance.

Gail Kuhl and Janice Little have been working together to get a "Math Games" program set up. Sharon A. made a motion that we allocate $500 for this purpose. Amy C. seconded. Motion carried.

Elsie O. has been in contact with Susan Anderson, from the Sheriff's Department about the "Just Say No" program. Elsie will invite Susan to our next meeting to discuss this. Parents are welcome to come and hear about this program. There will be a note sent home if she is able to attend our meeting.

Amy C. has been looking into different assemblies that we might book for the children. On January 8, there will be a Laser Light Show at 1:30. Barbara H. made a motion that we sponsor; Wildlife Recovery Association, Dance Focus, and Magic of Science assemblies. Gail K. seconded. Carried. Mrs. Henry will set the dates for these assemblies.

For the Beautification Project, there was further discussion on a sign for Klager and asphalt for the basketball poles. Kathleen J. is going to check on someone making wind socks.

Mrs. Henry told us about a program that the Scott Paper Co.

is offering to schools. The "Learning Tools for Schools" seal that is found on Scott Paper products can be used to get classroom and other school equipment. There will be a collection box in Klager's lobby.

It was suggested that we put together a student directory. Mrs. Henry will send home a slip asking parents if they want their names and phone numbers included.

Our next meeting will be October 26, 1987, at 7:30. Meeting adjourned at 9:30.

Respectfully submitted,
 Pat Ahrens

Senior Citizens News

The other day, Jan jokingly told me she wished all her 'folks' would either all go away or stay home at the same time. We retired folks don't follow such a schedule and it would take a committee to arrange one for us. Don't you know some of us don't even do our laundry on Monday anymore? We will try to do better and come for our delicious beef stew with batter crust on Thursday, October 22. Exercise is first at 11:00 and bingo will follow. The monthly senior sponsored card party is at 8:00 p.m. at Freedom Township Hall, so make it a rounded out day.

Saturday, October 24 - Chelsea Kiwanis Club presents their monthly travelog 'America's Beckoning Highways.' Seniors will leave the Center at 5:30 to allow time for a snack first. Call Helen Knickerbocker for your seat on the bus.

Tuesday, October 27 - Blood pressures taken at 11 a.m., ham dinner at noon lunch and Nancy Hall of Catholic Social Services will be present.

Wednesday, October 28 - There is no monthly potluck, some of us will attend St. Mary's Chicken and Biscuit Dinner at noon.

Thursday, October 29 - Come exercise with us at 11:00, enjoy Danish meatballs at noon lunch and the joy of hoistering Bingo afterwards.

Looking ahead: Tuesday, November 3 - Flu shots will be given in Emanuel's dining room from 9:00 - 12:00. Be sure to check with your doctor first if you are in doubt. Saturday, November 7 - CHORE DAY - call Rubena (428-8655).

On November 11 - Seniors are invited to the Saline Hospital program, leaving at 10 a.m. Visitation of our area Saline Home residents is planned while there. Come along and enjoy them.

December 7 - (Monday), a trip to Turkeyville for a Christmas Show is being planned. Call Helen for reservations or for information on any of our trips. This will be by local bus, so get your name in to her.

Call Rubena Boelter (428-8655) to volunteer Center-sitting on Tuesdays through Thursdays from 1-4 p.m. This would be a good time to catch up on letter writing, that novel you want to read or just rest from your labors.

VILLAGE LEAF PICK SCHEDULE

LEAF PICKUP - Manchester's first annual Leaf Pickup Program begins next Monday October 19. Two pickups are scheduled for each part of the Village. Officials ask residents to scatter leaves in the gutter and wet them down. Brush, logs and stones should not be mixed with the leaves because they can damage sweeping equipment. Cars with catalytic converters are susceptible to fires if parked over dry leaves, and owners should park them with caution. Poor weather may effect the schedule. If crews complete a day's work early they will move to the next section but will return on the scheduled collection day. For updates call 428-7877 or see Gary Wiedmayer.

Our Field Trip To Alber's Orchard

Michelle Alber and Rudy Ortiz display one of the class murals telling about their field trip to Alber's Orchard.

We got on the bus at Klager School. It was pretty in the country. First, we walked through the orchard and tasted different apples. We learned not to pull an apple from a tree but to twist it off.

Then we all went on a BIG red hay wagon for a long ride. Michelle's dog, Smokey, led the way for us. They gave us doughnuts to eat. We sat on big bales of straw. When we came back from our ride, we watched the apples go up a conveyor. We watched the apple juice being squeezed out of the apples. It smelled sweet and good. As we left, Alber's gave each of us an apple and a little jug of cider. It was a good, good day!

government. She is interested, she said, in phasing out her practice and trying something new.

Emory Garlick also applied for the position. As a local resident he is familiar with Village procedures and policies and has experience in business management. He said he anticipated that the position would require no more than 20 to 24 hours per week and terminate in 90 to 180 days.

All candidates were questioned about their experience, qualifications and availability. After a decision is made the interim manager will probably assume duties within two weeks.

Naimowicz has been on leave since the end of July and is not expected to be able to resume his duties until at least December.

Bridgewater Township Planning Commission

Minutes of Public Hearing
October 12, 1987

The Public Hearing was called to order at 8:05 p.m. on Monday, October 12, 1987, at the Bridgewater Town Hall with 17 electors present and a quorum of Planning Commissioners.

The first item to be considered at the Public Hearing was:
1. Changing the zoning of the property near 9161 Austin Rd., Bridgewater, from R-1 to A-1. Mark Weidmayer was present to tell the audience that he planned to repair farm machinery, and other similar items. That he described the site near 9161 Austin Rd. as being between the second and the last house near the west end of Bridgewater. He noted that the land wouldn't perk so that a house could not be built. There would be no noise from his business after 5:30 p.m. and that he would generate no pollution from his business. He would be fixing small gas engines as well as farm machines. There would be no old cars or junk in the yard. No graveyard of parts. His business would be covered by a personal conditional use permit to be reviewed every year. It was noted that he should look into a culvert permit.

2. Changing the zoning of the property near 8850 Neal Rd., Manchester, from I-1 to A-1 (Slaughter House). This property is now listed as I, which is not covered in our new ordinance. Recommended that this be kept the same, (I), and that a definition of I be added to our new ordinance, and our official zoning map. Mr. Service requested that this I-1 be kept as it has been.

3. Zoning map discussion - No comments on this from the audience.

4. Add a new definition under A-1, "Rural Dist. Retail Sales." No comment from the audience.

5. Delete bulk feed and fertilizer under RC, as a permitted cond. use. No comment from the audience.

Bridgewater Township Planning Commission
L.K. Fraumann, Secretary

October 12, 1987

The meeting was convened after the close of the Public Hearing at 9 p.m.

Present: Karen Weidmayer, Gerald Marion, Chairman, Gabe Dull, Mark Iwanicki, Louise Fraumann, absent: Vic Mann; Attending: Harlin Fraumann, Zoning Insp., Leonard Dayss, Trustee, Seventeen electors.

Minutes of the meeting of September 14, 1987, were read and approved. Motion - Karen Weidmayer, Support - Mark Iwanicki. Vote - Unan.

Public Hearing discussed and following recommendations made:

1. It was voted to recommend that zoning of property near 9161 Austin, Bridgewater, be changed from R-1 to A-1. Vote - Unan.

2. It was voted to recommend that the property near 8850 Neal Road be left at I-1. Vote - Unan.

3. The Zoning Map was approved. Vote - Unan.

4. It was voted NOT to add a new definition of "Retail Sales" under A-1 Conditional Use. For adding: Louise Fraumann & Karen Weidmayer. For not adding: Marion, Dull, Iwanicki.

5. It was voted to delete "Bulk Feed & Fertilizer" as a permitted use under a conditional use under RC. Vote: Unan.

Recommendations as voted to be referred to the Township Board.

New Business: Mr. Warren Whitlow, from Milan, asked whether it was necessary for him to get a conditional use if he moves to 9235 Austin Road in Bridgewater for him to continue business of lighting supplies sold by drop ship. mainly. He stated that there would be no additional traffic, materials in the yard, or pollution. After discussion, it was concluded that his business fitted under home occupation.

Mr. Nick Easton requested a Conditional Use Permit to operate an "Antique Mall" on 37 acres on the corner of Lima Center and U.S. 12. Mr. Loesky, State Transportation, Jackson, recommended an apron in U.S. 12, for deceleration, so that egress on U.S. 12 and on Lima Center would be possible. He intends parking of up to 3000 cars at a time, for fairs for antiques. He also wants to apply for a Conditional Use for a "Country Club" permit, to cover a hall he could rent or lease for special occasions such as weddings.

Among the concerns were the following: Mr. Easton must widen U.S. 12 to accommodate traffic from both east and west in order to be able to enter his place safely, in consideration of acceleration, deceleration and passing lanes. Mr. Easton must hire ample police and traffic direction people and pave Lima Center 500 feet from the entrance of U.S. 12. Ample business insurance must be carried and the air, water, or noise levels of the neighborhood would not be polluted. That he would select his rentals in keeping with the decorum of the community. Applications for Conditional Use would be under: Section 4.03A, Antique Shop and Country Club under Rural District A-1. Public Hearing will be held on November 9, 1987, at 8 p.m. at the Bridgewater Town Hall. Adjourned 10:45, Fraumann & Weidmayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Louise Fraumann, Sec.

Golf Team Completes Successful Season

Manchester ended their 1987 golf season by competing in the Class C Regional Golf Tournament at Whitford Valley Golf Course on Friday, October 9th. It was a team dominated by seniors as they helped lead the Dutchmen to a final record of 13-10. Three-year captain Brad Uphouse led the team all year long with a season's average of 43.6. Nick Miller and Rob White were the other two seniors who contributed greatly to such a successful season. Other members of the varsity were sophomores David Mitchell, Chris Spaulding, and Tim Burkhardt. The Junior Varsity team consisted of sophomores Sean Lowery, Jamie Hall and Doug Raab and Freshmen Chip Bunn, Jeremy Harris and Chris Weithoff.

The season began in August with the Jonesville Tournament. On the very difficult Mill Race Golf Course, Manchester finished third out of six teams. After another pre-season tournament, the Blissfield Two-Man Best Ball Invitational, the Dutchmen opened the regular season with a 177-191 loss at Onsted. The team played inconsistently early in the season. The low team score came in mid season with a 169-176 home victory over Leslie. During the last three weeks of the season their consistency improved markedly with Manchester running off a six match victory string and winning seven of their last eight matches. One of the high points of the season was a quadrangular match in which the Dutch defeated Michigan Center, Springport, and Jonesville.

At the end of each season the team has a handicap tournament. This year's team handicap champion is Jamie Hall who defeated Dave Mitchell in a close final match.

Friday night the Warriors came to town and 2 minutes after receiving the opening kick they crossed our goal line. All this did was make us mad. Upon receiving, we marched straight down the field with Scott Gross weaving his way into the endzone from 20 yards out. Soon after, Scott scored again, this time from 13 yards out. Quarterback Tom Mann tossed to Jason Van Deven for the successful 2-point conversion, leaving the tally 14-6. The 2nd quarter saw Jason toe a 30-yard field goal, but the Warriors hit late, to leave the score at intermission, 17-12. Our coaching staff must have really fired up our squad, as they came out smoking. We scored 21 points on 2 TD's by Steve Samonek and a 30-yard pass from Tom to Jason. Steve capped off our scoring in the 4th quarter as he motored in from 5 yards out. This left the final tally 44-18. Collectively, we rushed for over 300 yards for the second time in a row. Scott totaled 147 yards on the ground, while Steve finished with 134 yards. We host Michigan Center Friday and a win would give us our second straight Cascades Conference Title.

On Tuesday night we faced the East Jackson Trojans. We jumped to an early lead, but they fought back and closed the gap. The 4th quarter turned the tide as we out-scored East Jackson 26-10. This left the final tally 61-45. Renea Drouare led all scorers with 16, as Rockie Weber posted 12 points. She hit for 14 points. Dawn Brady popped for 12, as Sherry Rickelmann contributed 9 points. Michigan Center came to town on Thursday and left on the short end of a 54-39 score. Again we assumed the early lead but the Cardinals rallied. In the final stanza we iced the victory by out shooting Center 24-13. Renea Drouare led all scorers with 16, as Rockie Weber posted 12 points. We now stand 5 and 1 in League play and 8 and 4 overall.

Claims Should Be Filed Before End Of Year

Time is running out for large consumers of petroleum products to file their claims for money under the terms of a crude oil overcharge settlement.

Congressman Carl Pursell recently received a notice from the Department of Energy (DOE) encouraging eligible consumers to file their claims before the end of the year.

"In 1986, the DOE reached an agreement to settle the crude oil overcharge litigation in the 'Stripper Well' case," says George B. Breznay, director of the DOE Office of Hearings and Appeals.

"That agreement permits large consumers of petroleum products to receive money through the claims process being administered by the DOE's Office of Hearings and Appeals," Breznay says.

To be eligible for the refunds, a firm or individual must have purchased more than 18,750 gallons during the period August 1973 to January 1981.

"Small businesses and farmers are most likely to qualify for refunds. The typical motorist or homeowner will not have purchased sufficient quantities of petroleum products to qualify."

"To benefit those small consumers, the settlement has made available to state governments more than $860 million for indirect restitution," Breznay says.

The deadline for submitting claims is December 31, 1987. For more information, write or call: Office of Hearings and Appeals, Department of Energy, 1000

Pre-Marital AIDS Testing

State Representative Margaret O'Connor (R-Lodi Township) said she was pleased that the Michigan Department of Public Health has joined a growing group of supporters for pre-marital AIDS testing.

The MDPH recently announced that prospective marriage partners should be offered both venereal disease and AIDS testing and counseling before the marriage license is issued.

In recent weeks, the past president of the American Medical Association, the A.M.A. and the Centers for Disease Control have all adopted the position that voluntary AIDS testing and counseling for marriage license applicants would help prevent the spread of the deadly HIV virus.

My entire concern is to protect the unborn children and unsuspecting spouse so that informed decisions can be made about marriage and having children," O'Connor said. "Now that the medical community is supportive of this modest preventive measure, I hope the House Public Health Committee will soon schedule action on my proposal."

House Passes Bill Dial-A-Garden

By an overwhelming 93-4 vote, the Michigan House of Representatives passed a bill banning nursing homes from using "duration of stay" contracts.

"Some nursing homes currently use these contracts to force a family member to pay the private pay rate for a resident for up to two years -- up to $70,000 before Medicaid reimbursement is accepted," stated Representative Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor), Chair of House Judiciary Committee and sponsor of the bill.

The bill also prohibits nursing homes from requiring every nursing home applicant to have a guardian or conservator before they are admitted. "We've worked very hard on guardianship reform," stated Bullard. "The most important point about guardianship is that it should only be imposed as a last resort." A separate bill, the Michigan Guardianship Reform Act has passed the House and is now in the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Two additional bills dealing with Medicaid discrimination are before a subcommittee of the House Public Health Committee. One bill requires nursing homes to participate in the Medicaid program as a condition of licensure, while the other requires nursing home applicants to be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

The following is a monthly schedule of Dial-A-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1122 at their convenience to listen to timely, up-to-date gardening information.

Millrose Women's Health Center

Saline Community Hospital's Millrose Women's Health Center is pleased to announce the first program of this year's Women's Night Out For The Health Of It! series. Titled "How Much Is Too Much?", the program will feature Sis Wenger, a leading expert and nationally known speaker on alcohol and drug education.

The problem is not necessarily the amount one drinks, but rather, how one drinks. Alcohol too often affects women's health, behavior and relationships.

This session will focus on the special concerns of women related to the use and abuse of alcohol. Among the topics discussed will be the long term and short term physical effects alcohol has on women, social patterns of women drinkers, alcohol and sex, social consequences of problem drinking, and women at risk of developing a drinking problem.

This program takes place Wednesday, Nov. 4, 1987, 6:30 p.m. at Weber's Inn in Ann Arbor. Dinner and a social hour are included in the $18.50 price.

The Railroad Again

MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE February 11, 1869

THE RAILROAD AGAIN

Every town having a railroad built through it, considers itself fortunate. But a town having two railroads, considers itself doubly fortunate. Like the confluence of two rivers, the point of meeting is an important one. Now we want the second road, a road from Detroit to Hillsdale, via Manchester, and We Must Have It. Some think, should the proposed road pass through Manchester, that it would only add from seven to ten percent to the value of land and real-estate generally. In this day they are mistaken, if other places may be taken as criterions. We venture to say that in five years every thing of this shape would be worth from 25 to 30 per cent over what it is now.

The passing of the proposed railroad through Manchester, depends on two things. First, should the company discover that it would cost less to build it this way, and also that on account of a greater amount of business and profit it would gain over other proposed routes. Secondly, if the advantage would be about the same by having it pass through Clinton or Tecumseh, then the building of it this way would depend on our preponderance of subscription of its stock. If the people of Clinton should take $100,000 of stock, while we, who are as rich as they are, should take but $25,000, then we could not blame the company for building the road through the former place. It is our opinion that this all depends on this very principal, the village subscribing the most, will gain the day. The people of Tecumseh and Clinton are aware of this fact, and work. But we have no space to give our readers the result of their doings. What we in Manchester will do, and do now, is the thing. We have no less than $200,000 worth of property within the limits of the corporation. This would increase in value in five years 30 per cent, equal to $60,000. In order to secure these results we can but once more, encourage, agitate, open your pockets, subscribe, show yourselves to be live enterprising men.

How Michigan Became A State

by Roger L. Rosentreter
Bureau of History,
Michigan Department of State

On December 11, 1833, congressional delegate Lucius Lyon presented a petition from the Michigan Territory requesting Congress pass an enabling act that would allow Michigan to join the Union. The House of Representatives Committee on Territories thought it "expedient" to adopt such legislation, and in the Senate, the issue was debated, but tabled by a vote of 20 to 19.

Congress's refusal to allow Michigan to join the Union stemmed from a border dispute between Michigan and Ohio. Both claimed a strip of land that included present-day Toledo. The land probably belonged to Michigan, but Ohio was a strong state, whose political powers transcended those of a territory.

Rebuffed, acting Territorial Governor Stevens T. Mason and the Michigan Territorial Council moved to form a state government and demand admission. Contending that the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 stated that a territory was eligible for statehood once its population reached 60,000, the council ordered a census taken in October 1834. Finding over 86,000 people living in the Lower Peninsula, the council then ordered an election held on April 4, 1835, to choose delegates to a constitutional convention that would assemble in Detroit on May 11.

Michigan's independent actions towards statehood worried Ohioans, who did not want to lose Toledo. Located on the Maumee River, Toledo was to be the eastern terminus of a river/canal system that would reach to the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

In 1835 the controversy over the Toledo Strip brought Michigan and Ohio to the verge of war. Both sides sent armed bodies to the area and adopted hostile
