Have It Your Way; A Guide To Smart Mail-Order Shopping

The rush is on. Every year after Thanksgiving, malls across America begin filling up with frantic shoppers carrying frayed Christmas lists. If you're looking for a way out of the holiday shopping maze, why not try your mail box?

Not only can you save yourself a great deal of time, but you may also be able to save some money. Since mail-order companies frequently have lower overhead costs than stores located in ultra-modern malls, they often sell comparable products at better prices, explains the Michigan Association of CPAs. As a result, you may be able to make your holiday shopping dollars go even further.

Chances are that you have a catalog filled with gift possibilities sitting right at your fingertips. But before you start writing out order forms, the Michigan Association of CPAs suggests that you learn how to shop smart.

The wisest consumers don't plunk their hard-earned dollars down at the nearest bank without considering interest rates and options. In the same way, smart mail-order shopping begins with a little bit of research and a lot of common sense.

Start by learning about a company's reputation. Some firms, such as J.C. Penney and Sears, have been around for decades and have proven themselves to be honest and reliable vendors. Other mail-order companies, however, are as financially unsound as a wooden nickel.

Perhaps you've seen the ads and have been tempted. After all, a $5 diamond ring or a $20 designer dress appear to be amazing bargains. But what is really amazing is that, year after year, sham companies get away with ripping off consumers with these very same gimmicks. While you can undoubtedly purchase greatly discounted quality merchandise through the mail, you should beware of any mail-order advertisement that offers name-brand merchandise at remarkably low prices. If the offer sounds too good to be true, there's a good chance it is.

In some cases, the merchandise may be counterfeit or a "gray market" product, one that was imported outside the normal channels of distribution. Counterfeit products often feature shoddy construction and no warranty. In contrast, gray-market goods usually are legitimate name-brand merchandise, but they too generally come without a manufacturer's warranty.

Consumers who are in the market for electronic products should consider another drawback of many gray-market goods. Often, the instruction manuals are written only in a foreign language. Certainly, learning how to program your brand-new VCR can be enough of a headache without having to first translate a Korean user's guide.

If you have questions about a catalog company's reputation, you may want to contact your local Better Business Bureau before ordering from them for the first time. Your local Better Business Bureau will contact its counterpart in the city in which the mail-order house is located to see if consumers have registered complaints about the company. Remember that most companies will have at least a few complaints filed against them. But if complaints are numerous and if the company has not made any effort to resolve them, you may want to spend your money elsewhere.

Now, look at the catalog itself. Check for disclaimers, such as "all sales are final" or "we are not responsible for the quality of the advertised merchandise." The best and most reputable catalog companies stand behind their products and abide by very fair return policies. Be wary of mail-order companies that expect you to pay for unseemly merchandise, but do not specifically state that you have the right to return or exchange inferior, unsatisfactory or damaged goods.

Read the fine print beneath product descriptions and illustrations. Some firms will use an "artist's rendering" or misrepresent the product's size, manufacturer or basic design. Others reserve the right to substitute merchandise "of equal value and quality." Another common ruse is to picture merchandise with a product name differing from a top-quality brand by only a slight variation of spelling.

You should also be suspicious of a company that lists its address only as a post office box. While many fine mail-order companies have set up post office boxes for orders, just as many fly-by-night operators set up post office boxes, take your orders and your checks and then disappear without ever shipping the promised merchandise. If you have doubts, call the mail-order firm and request a street address. If they are reluctant or refuse to provide the information, take your business to another company.

When you call to place an order, ask questions about the product as well as the company's service policies. If the clerk is surly or cannot answer your questions, think twice about ordering from them.

If everything checks out and you decide to place an order, don't pay for your purchase with cash. With a check or credit card, you may still be able to stop payment if the merchandise is faulty or isn't delivered—and both forms of payment give you a tangible receipt.

If you don't receive your merchandise within the stated delivery time or if you have another problem with the company, contact both the Better Business Bureau and the Postal Inspectors Office at your local post office. The Postal Inspectors will look into the possibility of mail fraud and the Better Business Bureau will record the complaint for use in future consumer inquiries about the company. While neither organization will get your money back immediately, contacting them is your first step to resolving your complaints.

The Michigan Association of CPAs points out that, with a little common sense and consumer savvy, mail-order shopping can be a first-class experience.

"Tie One On"

"Tie One On" is a national MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) campaign to increase public awareness of drunk driving. The campaign runs from November 29 through January 2. Thanks to our local law enforcement agency and national MADD, the Manchester High School SADD chapter will be distributing red ribbons to Manchester area students this week. The ribbons are to be tied on car antennas, the left door handle, or outside rear view mirrors in support of a safe and sober holiday. We hope to encourage and promote the importance of not drinking and driving during the holiday season.

Ribbons will be tied on cars by SADD members Saturday, December 17 in the IGA parking lot and Main Street downtown. SADD students will also be on hand during the Klager Christmas Program, December 21st. Be sure to show your support by "Tying One On."

Swainson Re-Elected Trustee

Former Governor John B. Swainson, of Manchester, was re-elected to the forty-five member Board of Trustees of Greater Michigan Foundation. The Foundation's annual meeting took place on Thursday, December 1, at Ann Arbor's historic Kempf House.

Headquartered in Lansing, Michigan, the Greater Michigan Foundation was founded in 1954 by a statewide group of leaders under the direction of the late G. Mennen Williams. The organization's purpose is to generate knowledge about Michigan's history and culture among the state's residents. For the 36th year the Foundation will be the moving force behind the state's annual Michigan Week celebration to take place next May 19-27. Former governors John B. Swainson, George Romney and William G. Milliken are the Foundation's Honorary Chairmen.

Blessed are they who pay for and read their home newspaper, for they shall hold their own when the lightning rod and bonded grain swindlers and others of that sort swoop down upon them.

The curse of many towns is the number of superfluous individuals who always want to get something for nothing. Notes drawing interest, unless otherwise specified, are at six per cent instead of seven per cent, as heretofore in Michigan. It is not lawful to take a higher rate than 10 per cent, and this rate or any other over six and up to 10 per cent, must be specified.

The announcement has been made that a paper coffin has been invented and put upon the market. A man may now build his house of paper, eat his dinner from paper plates, wipe his face with a paper handkerchief, buy his wife a paper piano and go to his grave in a paper coffin. The coffin may be paid for with a piece of paper and the death notice published on another piece.

The average law breaker never considers how his name will look in print until after he has committed some offense, when he begins to realize that he would rather be overlooked by the reporter and requests or demands that no mention be made of his name. Every third person before the police justice is desirous of saving his friends and relatives the disgrace of notoriety, but he seldom thinks of them between drinks.

To boys commencing business: Be on hand promptly in the morning at your place of business, and make it a point never to be late, and perform cheerfully every day. Be respectful to your employers, and to all in authority over you, and be polite to everyone; politeness costs nothing, and it will help you getting on in the world. And above all, be honest and truthful. The boy who starts in life with a sound mind in a sound body, who falls into no bad habits, who is honest, truthful and industrious, who remembers with grateful love his father and mother, and who does not grow away from his church and Sunday school, has qualities of mind and heart that will insure his success to a remarkable degree, even though he is endowed with only ordinary mental capacity; for honor, truth and industry are more than genius.

Historical Society Christmas Party

by Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

Christmas is a time for friends to get together, and each year at Christmas time the Manchester Area Historical Society celebrates the holiday with a "Christmas Party and Cookie Exchange". Friends invited to attend include Historical Society members and their guests, as well as those of you who may not be on the official membership lists but are "friends" nevertheless. Please join us for this very warm holiday gathering.

The party is also called a "cookie exchange" because that is an equally important aspect of the occasion. Each person attending brings a generous quantity of cookies which are then served at the party. Of course there is a surplus - and those attending are invited to take a plate or two of cookies home with them in exchange for a contribution. The money received is then donated to the Manchester Family Service to make use of as needed.

Music is always an important part of the holidays and also of the Historical Society Christmas Party. There will be the traditional singing of Christmas carols. Also, a special guest will be Marianne Hill, who will provide the music for the evening on the harpsichord. Mrs. Hill is a pre-doctoral student at the U. of M. School of Music and a resident of Manchester. Her husband, Keith Hill, builds harpsichords and owns "Keith Hill Limited." They will bring with them a portable, demonstration model of one of Mr. Hill's harpsichords.

The party will be held Monday, December 19th, beginning at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Loring and Linda Ebersole, 19825 Sharon Valley Road. And you are invited. Bring some tasty cookies; bring an enthusiastic singing voice; and bring your warmest Christmas spirit!

First Annual Christmas Sing

Manchester area residents are invited to come to the gazebo, Wednesday, December 21, 7:00 p.m. to sing Christmas Carols. Join in a gathering such as might have been in the Little Town of Bethlehem at Christmas many years ago. As we gather to sing "O Christmas Tree" we can draw our attention to the beautiful decorated tree in the park. The Men's Club will provide gifts of hot chocolate and warmth as did the Wisemen who brought gifts as they celebrated with angels who chanted "The First Noel." Mr. Richard Kuntz will lead the harpsichord. Mrs. Hill is a pre-doctoral student at the U. of M. School of Music and a resident of Manchester. Her husband, Keith

Brownies Hold Investiture

A candlelight ceremony for rededication and the investiture of 14 first grade girls into Brownie Troop 675 was held at Emanuel Church on Tuesday, November 22nd, before a large group of families and friends. The evening started with a flag ceremony and the Pledge of Allegiance. Candles arranged in a ring to symbolize the Brownie Ring, were lighted in turn by each girl as she recited the Girl Scout Promise. Standing in a friendship circle, the girls sang "Make New Friends" and "Day is Done" and ended with the friendship squeeze. This ceremony marked the troop's final step in earning their "Girl Scout Ways" Try-It patch.

A farewell celebration honored Cheryl Davis, who was a Daisy Leader last year and the troop leader this year, and her daughter, Adrienne - a member of the troop, as it was their last night in Manchester before moving to Florida. Cards, made by the Brownies, and gifts were presented to them. Refreshments were served. Cheryl and Adrienne are already missed by all the troop!

The girls who were invested as Brownies are: Kari Binder, Laura Chapin, Arienne Chartrand, Sara Cooper, Danielle Croghan, Adrienne Davis, Joanne Eversole, Emily Parr, Sonja Peters, Amber Reed, Meghan Staffeld and Meaghan Way. Ellen Supers is also a member of the troop. Sue Staffeld, who was a Daisy troop leader last year, is now the leader of the troop and Barb Eversole is her new assistant leader.

New Years Eve Party

A gala New Years Eve party is planned for families, singles and couples of the Manchester area. Saturday, December 31, 1988 from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. This event will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Madison St. Tickets will be available after Saturday, December 10th at the Community Resource Center, Krauss Pharmacy and First of America Bank. Delicious food and exotic non-alcoholic drinks, plus the usual variety of soft drinks, will be available for a nominal charge during the evening.

A Guaranteed Good Time For Everyone!

Get your ticket early as a limited number are available. This event is sponsored by the Manchester Recreation Task Force. Questions can be directed to the Community Resource Center, 428-7722.

Wedding Bells Ring

were united in marriage on November 29, 1988 at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Saline. The Rev. William Natsis officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul of Manchester and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graham of Saline.

For her wedding Cheryl chose a floor-length gown of satin and lace featuring a ruffled chapel-length train, high neckline and long sleeves decorated with pearls. Her headpiece secured the fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet consisted of pink roses, burgandy carnations and ivy. Carol Paul, twin sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She was attired in a long satin dress of daphne rose and carried white daisies with burgandy carnations. Paul Graham, brother of the groom, was best man.

Wearing burgandy floor-length gowns and carrying bouquets of white daisies and burgandy carnations, the bridesmaids included: Linda Brassow of Saline and Kim Graham, sister-in-law of the groom, also of Saline. Aiura Graham, niece of the groom, of Milan was flower girl. Richard Zahn of Saline and Carl Graham, brother of the groom, of Milan, seated the guests. A reception, following the ceremony, was held at the U.A.W. Hall in Chelsea. Assisting were Kecia Graham of Saline attending the guest book and Melanie Stanley of Milan and Mrs. Steven Barbour of Manchester serving the cake. The bride and groom have returned from a honeymoon in Toronto and are residing in Saline.

Enjoy Impromptu Holiday Entertaining

Impromptu holiday get-togethers can be easy, and fun, when you know how to handle them. Take a cue from smart hosts and hostesses. Let the supermarket service deli and your microwave oven be your key to fabulous and fast entertaining.

Appetizers are especially popular during the holidays, and the microwave oven makes them in a snap. Mini-Reubens, for example, are so easy, you don't even need a recipe. Top rye melba toast or crackers with thinly sliced corned beef from the service deli, drained sauerkraut and shredded Swiss cheese. Drizzle lightly with Thousand Island dressing. A quick heating in the microwave melts the cheese, and these bite-sized morsels are ready to serve.

Deli kabob appetizers are also quick and simple, and guests love them. Skewer cubes of turkey breast and ham from the supermarket service deli on a wooden pick with cocktail onions and colorful red and green bell peppers. Brush lightly with a tangy prepared salad dressing, then microwave just to heat.

Or, try Turkey Dijon Bites. They couldn't be simpler to make, and you probably have most of the ingredients on hand already. Juicy, tender Butterball® Deli Turkey Breast stars in this savory appetizer. The turkey is purchased perfectly cooked and ready to serve, the old-fashioned oven-roasted flavor always a hit. And, Butterball deli turkey breast is cut from the whole turkey breast, with no extenders added. Ask the supermarket service deli operator for 3/4-inch thick slices, so you can quickly and easily cut them into cubes at home. A microwave sauce of Dijon mustard, white wine and honey lightly coats the turkey cubes and fresh mushrooms. Please plenty of picks close by so guests can easily serve themselves.

For additional holiday recipes featuring Swift-Eckrich deli meats, stop by your supermarket service deli and pick up a copy of HOLIDAY DELICACIES.

Turkey Dijon Bites

Preparation time: 10 minutes
Cooking time: 6-1/2 minutes

- 1 pound Butterball® Deli Turkey Breast, cut 3/4-inch thick
- 1 large clove garlic, minced (1/4 teaspoon)
- 1-1/2 teaspoons vegetable oil
- 1/3 cup dry white wine
- 1/2 teaspoon cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons Dijon mustard
- 1 teaspoon honey
- 2 cups small mushrooms (or large mushrooms, quartered)
- 3 tablespoons sliced green onions (green part only)

Cut turkey into 3/4-inch cubes; cover and set aside. Combine garlic and oil in 2-1/2-quart microwave-safe bowl. Microwave, uncovered, on High (100%) 1-1/2 minutes, stirring after 45 seconds. Add wine to cornstarch, stirring to dissolve cornstarch completely. Stir cornstarch mixture into bowl with garlic. Microwave, uncovered, on High (100%) 2 minutes, or until mixture is slightly thickened, stirring after 1 minute. Stir in mustard and honey. Add turkey and mushrooms. Toss to coat thoroughly with mustard mixture. Microwave, covered, on High (100%) 3 to 4 minutes, or until turkey is heated through and mushrooms are crisp-tender, stirring after each minute. Add green onion; toss. Transfer to shallow serving dish. Serve warm. Makes approximately 12 appetizer servings.

NOTE: Recipe was tested in 650 watt microwave oven. Depending upon the wattage, your oven may take more or less time to cook. Check after minimum cooking time.

Piled Snow Poses Hazard

Property owners piling snow high along roadways and shoulders or pushing it to the opposite side of the street can cause hazardous conditions for motorists, and the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) warns that it's also against the law.

State law prohibits business and citizens from dumping snow on roadways and shoulders or piling it so high at driveway entrances that it obstructs the vision of motorists.

The department recommends residents keep the shoulder in front of their driveways clear and also clear snow for a short distance from the driveway in the direction of approaching traffic.

When clearing your driveway, push the snow away from the roadway and to the sides of the driveway for its full length. That will eliminate the problem of the high snow banks blocking a driver's view.

Violators leave themselves open to fines and lawsuits for public liability and property damage. For a charge to be filed, a police officer must witness the violation or a citizen must file a complaint. All property owners and persons hired to remove snow are responsible for maintaining safe traffic conditions and preventing careless snow-removal techniques.

BACK TO BASICS COOKING

Capture the "flavor" of sun-drenched beaches and azure seas with "Lite Polynesian Turkey." To create the fresh, light taste so characteristic of the tropics, marinate the turkey overnight in a sprightly combination of Kikkoman Lite Soy Sauce, zesty lime, hot pepper and garlic. And, we've "lightened" the sodium by using lite soy sauce. It has all the flavor enhancing qualities of all-purpose brewed soy sauce, but with 40% less salt. For added South Seas flavor, serve with tropical fruits and rice topped with toasted coconut.

LITE POLYNESIAN TURKEY

|--|---------------------------------|
| 1/4 turkey breast, (about 4 lbs.), boned | 2 tablespoons lime juice        |
| 2 tablespoons Kikkoman Lite Soy Sauce    | 1 tablespoon vegetable oil      |
| 1/4 teaspoon grated lime peel            | 1 teaspoon Tabasco pepper sauce |
|  | 1 clove garlic, pressed         |

Remove and discard the excess fat and tendon from the turkey breast fillet. Place turkey in large plastic bag, spreading meat to flatten. Combine lite soy sauce, lime peel and juice, oil, pepper sauce and garlic; pour over turkey. Press air out of bag and tie top securely. Refrigerate 8 hours or overnight; turn bag over occasionally. Reserving marinade, remove turkey and roll lengthwise, jelly-roll fashion. Tie roll with string; place skin side up, in shallow baking pan. Bake in 325°F. oven 1 hour 45 minutes, or until meat thermometer inserted into thickest part registers 170°, brushing twice with reserved marinade. Remove turkey to serving platter; keep warm. Add enough water to remaining marinade to measure 1/2 cup. Pour into baking pan and combine with pan drippings. Bring to boil; boil 1 minute. Remove strings from turkey and cut roll into 1-inch thick slices; serve with hot pan gravy. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Wrestling Report

Dutchman flips then pins Redskin

The wrestling season is under way and off to a good start. The team has been working hard and anticipating competition.

The night of December 8th was the time and the gym of Manchester High School the place. At around 5:50 p.m. the Redskins of Clinton arrive, 35 strong or so. Time passes by. The mats are unrolled and the beginning of a big crowd starts to fill the stands.

At 7 p.m. the battle begins. Jim Buono, the 103 lb. freshman, steps onto the mat in high gear. Almost

5 minutes later the Dutch are up 6-0 as Jim comes off the mat with his first varsity pin under belt. Jason Woods, Dave Wizzgird, Israel Clouse and Shane Clouse also step on and leave the mat with the same results. Darren Hock wins a 12-2 decision over his opponent to add 4 to the Dutch score and after the 140 lb. match, the Dutch have a 34-6 lead. But look out! Here come the Skins and they are looking for scalps. Of the next 6 matches, Clinton pins 4 and receives a forfeit at heavy weight. 30 points! But at the 171 lb. weight class, things were different as not one Redskin arrow hit the Dutchmen. Bill Day, a three-year varsity wrestler, handles one of the Skins big guns 14-5 which gives the good guys 4 team points. And with that the Dutch are victorious 38-36 over Clinton for the first time in 15 years.

On Saturday, December 10th, the men left the lights of Manchester at 6:30 a.m., Pinckney being the destination and a full day of wrestling ahead. Nine schools are present when wrestling begins, including: Fulton, Hartland, Howell, Jackson Lumen Christi, Leslie, New Boston, Huron, Pinckney, Stockbridge and the Dutch. Seven Dutchmen came home with medals. Jason Woods, Darren Hock, Dave Wizzgird and Brian Ball came home with 4th place awards. Israel Clouse and Chris Wiethoff wrestled great and both placed 3rd. Bill Day was the only home town grappler to advance into the finals. Bill wrestled well in the finals but came up short as his opponent from Hartland became the 171 lb. tournament champion.

The Dutch will be traveling to Napoleon on Thursday, December 10th to compete in a 4-way and on Saturday, December 17th the team will be in Concord for their Invitational.

Dribblers End Home Stand

Bryan Barnard pops a free throw, one of 66 points in last three games.

The first game of the new season saw us hosting Sand Creek. In the opening contest our Little Dutch, under the guidance of new coach, Jim Krzyzaniak, came up victorious 57-44. Andy Pagel hit for 16 points as Jessie Weidmayer notched 15. The Varsity matchup was an extremely close, hard-fought battle with the Aggies eaking out a narrow victory 65-64. Bryan Barnard led all scorers, blistering the nets for 30 points as Tom Mann added 17.

We next welcomed our arch-rivals, the Clinton Redskins. Our JV's were quieted 65-35. Jesse led our scorers with 11 as Jay Gillow contributed 10. Our Varsity got on the winning track by downing the Skins 68-58. Tom Mann had a superb night with 19 points, 18 rebounds and 5 steals. John Korican and Bryan Posted 15 points each.

Friday past saw us square off against our first league opponent, the Trojans, from East Jackson. The Little Dutch started things out in winning fashion 52-35. Jay drove in 15 points, as Jessie helped with 13. Our Varsity also finished ahead 72-60. Bryan again led all scorers with 21, while Tom and John posted 16 and 11 respectively.

Be with us Friday as we travel to Michigan Center.

State Baton Contest

Jennifer Fleck (Center)-State "Novice Solo" Winner.

On November 5th, the Chelsea Baton Boosters served as hosts for the largest and most successful NRTA State Baton contest ever held in Michigan. Held at the Chelsea High School, with 190 competitors performing in over 850 baton-related events during the day, the contest brought over 600 people into the area. Eight out-of-state judges hailed from Ohio, Texas, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New York and Illinois.

The Chelsea Baton Corps had a most successful day, producing 14 State Champions and placing 43 others in the "top six" in the event.

Jennifer Fleck, 10, a student at Klager Elementary, took the "Novice Solo" state title as well as placing third in "State Basic Stru" and "Photogenic." In the "Open" contest held before the State Championships, Jenny won first places in both "Military" and "Basic Stru", second in "Special Beginner Solo", and fourth in "Novice Solo."

Hillary Wiedmayer, 11, also of Manchester, placed third in "Novice Solo" and fifth in "Beginner Model" in the open contest. Hillary's mother, Diane Wiedmayer, was the Chairman for the state.

THE BEST HOLIDAY GIFT YOU'LL GIVE THIS YEAR... because there's no place like home!

If you have loved ones who are elderly, or handicapped, you're probably concerned about their well being. Although they can live happily on their own, one day they might have an emergency... and you may not be there to help.

That's why this holiday season you should give your loved ones Lifeline™ -- the push button emergency response system that puts help at their fingertips.

With Lifeline, when someone has an emergency, they simply push the Help Button worn on a necklace, belt loop or wrist. It immediately signals our staff of highly trained professionals who will identify the emergency and send help to them fast.

Lifeline is the perfect holiday gift. It will give your loved ones greater security, freedom, and the flexibility to lead a more fulfilling life.

What's more, it gives you the peace of mind that comes from knowing that they can always get help... 24 hours a day.

Call the number below for more information about Lifeline. And give your loved ones the gift that lasts a lifetime!

Go ahead...tie one on!
MADD and Michigan law enforcement agencies want you to "tie one on" this holiday season. But let's change the meaning. Tie a bright red ribbon on your door handle, antenna or outside mirror. Let your car serve as a visual sign that you want to stop drunk driving in Michigan.
"Red Ribbon" a holiday campaign from Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), the Office of Highway Safety, Planning and Michigan Law Enforcement Agencies.

Money Management

Down to the Wire: Tax Steps to Take During December

When it comes to tax planning, December is the final stretch. You have just under a month to take steps that may lower your tax bill next April. To help you make the most of these last days of 1988, the Michigan Association of CPAs suggests that you make the most of your miscellaneous expenses.

Of course, miscellaneous expenses can help reduce your taxes only if you itemize, so find out now if you can itemize on your 1988 tax return. Remember, too, that most miscellaneous expenses are deductible only to the extent that they exceed two percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI). So if your AGI is $30,000 a year and your miscellaneous expenses come to $900, you may deduct only the amount exceeding $600.

Attend a work-related seminar. Before the month ends, attend a one- or two-day seminar related to your current job. The costs will be deductible as a miscellaneous expense.
Stock up on uniforms. Does your job require you to wear a uniform? If so, December may be a good time to pick up a few extra sets of work clothes. The expenses may help you reach or pass the two-percent threshold.
Start subscribing. You can deduct the subscription cost of any newspaper or magazine related to your business. In addition, you can write off subscription fees to investment or tax-related magazines such as "Money" or "Changing Times". But the costs have to be reasonable. If you take out a three-year subscription, you can generally deduct only one-third of the entire cost. The remaining two-thirds can be deducted in subsequent years.

Buy tax books. If you think you may want a little extra advise this tax season, start purchasing tax publications before the year ends. Any tax book you buy now will trim your taxes in April.
Join a professional society or union. The membership fees or union dues constitute a miscellaneous expense.

Look for a job. If you are contemplating a job change, start pounding the pavement right away. Any job-hunting expense you incur through the remainder of the year can be written off on your 1988 return. Eligible expenses include phone calls, transportation costs and fees charged by a career counselor. In addition, any cost related to revising your resume-from typesetting fees to photo copying charges-is deductible.

Get a safe deposit box. Store investment papers or taxable securities in a safe deposit box and the fees become deductible.
Hire an appraiser. If you hire an appraiser to evaluate a casualty loss or the value of a charitable contribution, the appraisal fees in either situation are fully deductible. Remember, too, that if you donate property valued at more than $5,000, an independent appraisal is not optional-it's mandatory.
Give a holiday party for clients or employees. Here's a great way to score points with clients or employees, and reduce your tax bill at the same time. Hold a legitimate business meeting and follow it up with a holiday party and you may be able to deduct 80 percent of the expenses. Be sure to document the purpose and extent of the business meeting, the names of attendees and all related expenses.

Buy flowers for your secretary. Or send a get well bouquet to an employee laid up in the hospital. You may deduct the cost of business gifts worth up to $25 presented to any one person in one year.
Deduct miscellaneous business expenses. You can also deduct miscellaneous business expenses, such as those incurred by mailing holiday cards to employees or clients, but be ready to prove that the cards serve a valid business function. Other items that may fall under this category include buying a poster for your office or a pen and pencil set for your desk.
See a tax advisor. You know that tax preparation fees are deductible, but do you know that you can also deduct the cost of consulting a tax advisor about the tax implications of a divorce or an employment contract? If you have any questions related to these matters, remember that a meeting held in 1988 may turn into a very smart investment-and a much-needed tax deduction.

Visit your financial advisor. If you're worried about the performance of your favorite stock or mutual fund, visit your financial advisor. If the visit is "ordinary and necessary" and you discuss your investments, the costs of attending the meeting are usually deductible.
Deduct custodial fees. The custodial fees that banks charge for managing your IRA account, or that mutual funds charge for handling your dividend reinvestment plan, are also deductible. If you are not certain that you currently pay such fees, check your account statements or call a representative at the bank or mutual fund and ask them to detail all expenses related to your account.
If you can't itemize, postpone. If you've done some quick calculations and realize that it doesn't pay to itemize this year, postpone your miscellaneous expenses. In other words, forget all the previous advice-that is, until after the new year. By deferring your expenses until next year, you improve your chances for meeting the deductible limit in 1989.
However, if your calculations indicate that your expenses exceed your standard deduction or just a few dollars, don't assume that you should automatically settle for the standard deduction. A CPA may be able to help you uncover deductions of which you are totally unaware.

Law Day Essay Contest

The State Bar of Michigan announces the 1989 Law Day Essay Competition open to all seventh, eighth and ninth grade students in Michigan Schools. Students are invited to submit original essays of not more than 400 words on this year's Law Day theme, "Access to Justice." Kathleen Tertzag, Law Day Chairperson of the Michigan Lawyers Auxiliary, explained, "This annual competition, sanctioned by the Michigan Education Association, is held by the State Bar and Michigan Lawyers Auxiliary to encourage young people to increase their knowledge and understanding of the law."

engraved plaques and dictionaries. Winners, parents and teachers will be guests at the statewide Law Day luncheon to be held May 2, 1989 at the University Club in East Lansing. Entries must be postmarked no later than March 1, 1989. More detailed information may be obtained by writing: Ms. Karen Adams, State Bar of Michigan, 306 Townsend Street, Lansing, Mich. 48933.

Law Day is held each May 1 to celebrate American liberties and to provide an occasion for rededication to the ideals of equality and justice under the law.

Awards for the top 1989 Law Day essays include U.S. Savings Bonds of $200, $150, $100 and $50.

Shakespeare Reading Club

We had our Christmas Party at the home of Patty Swaney on December 6th. She had her house all decorated for Christmas. We had a sing-along, a gift exchange and delicious refreshments were served by the committee members who were Patty Swaney, Margaret Kulenkamp and Charlotte Timmerman. Our Entertainment Committee were Mabel Billings and Wilma Bucholtz. A game was played, the Christmas Story from the Bible was ready by Lenora Parr. We all had a good time.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Jeanette Kirk on Tuesday, January 3, 1989 at 2 p.m. She has chosen "Manchester History" as her topic.

Dr. Taylor is looking forward to being part of the community.

Christmas Cards With Romantic Histories

Manchester Enterprise December 22, 1904

but on the back was written, in the child's scrawling handwriting, "From your little sweetheart, Nell."

The thought that the little girl was looking forward to see him quickly dispelled all thoughts of suicide from the journalist's mind, and, putting his pride in his pocket, he borrowed sufficient money to take him home. It was the turning point in his career; for he determined to try again after the holiday, with the result that he was able to go home the following Christmas and tell those who were dear to him that his work had won for him a lucrative post.

Maybe there are some readers who still remember the pathetic story attached to a Christmas card received by the German emperor two years ago from a little girl whose father had been imprisoned for lese majeste.

The card was but a cheap one bearing the very appropriate words, "Good will toward men," written on the back the child had written in German, "Please, Your Majesty, let my father come out of prison for Christmas Day." The appeal interested the kaiser to such an extent that he caused inquiries to be made, and, finding that the man had not committed a very serious offense, ordered his immediate release.

Klager Senior Citizen Dinner

Third and fourth graders were host and hostesses at the recent Klager Senior Citizen Dinner. Students presented portions of the holiday programs, escorted guests through the school on a tour and then sat down together to enjoy a turkey dinner prepared by parents. This year's co-chairpersons were: Mrs. Jane Raus, Mrs. Carolyn Supers and Mrs. Holly Porter.
