

Wrestling Report

The day was Tuesday, January 24th and at 6:00 p.m. the Stockbridge Panthers arrived. It was a good night for the Orange and Black.

Jason Woods recorded a pin at 3:35 and Chris Wiethoff took a 5-1 decision from his opponent. Darren Hock pinned at 3:40 and Shane Clouse did the like at 3:07 into the match. Bill Day was the last Dutchman to win in a varsity match as he won 4-3. A bright spot in the JV matches was Chris Green pinning two opponents and Tim Becketl winning a 9-4 decision. The final 46-24 Stockbridge.

On Thursday, we traveled to the home of the Class D number one ranked team. Grass Lake was the place and to say the least we were abused. Jason Woods received a forfeit at 112 lbs; and after he stepped off the mat we were tied up 6-6. But from there only Isreal Clouse and Brian Ball could pull off wins as they both pinned their men. The final was a 52-18 Warrior victory.

On Saturday, our conference tournament was held in Vandercook Lake. It was give and take all day with some of the matches given away and others we won and had to take. Darren Hock and Isreal Clouse placed third each in tough weight classes. One of the better consolation matches was wrestled at 119 lbs. Chris Wiethoff won a 2-0 decision over a man who had beaten him 4 times earlier in the season. Chris brought home a third for his great effort. Two Dutch made it into the finals. Bill Day has improved much over the past three weeks and placed second. Jason Woods was the other wrestler from Dutchville to advance into the finals. He also is now a conference Champion! Jason pinned Todd Corbin of Addison at 1:10 into the match and also avenged an earlier loss. Jason may be setting himself up for a great season finish. Chris Green and Brian Ball wrestled well in the tournament but did not place. Duane Hopkins also did not place but he waxed a Napoleon foe 12-2 to even up on an earlier loss. That is a great victory in my mind - to beat those who put black on us earlier in the season. The team placed 4th just 2.5 points out of 3rd. Addison walked away with the tournament and Grass Lake took a strong second. Vandercook was the third place team and Center and Napoleon were beneath us.

This coming Saturday we go to Napoleon for the Individual Districts. This is a make or break tournament with only those who place 4th or better going on to the Regionals. On February 8 we will again be in Napoleon for the Team Districts. There we will compete in dual meet fashion and if we win there we will have the opportunity to compete in the team regionals. This is the time of the season where we find out what we are made of, how much grit we have and if we have the determination to move forward and beat those who have beat us.

Chelsea Resident Joins WCC Staff

Mary Picklesimer is the new office assistant at Washtenaw Community College's Regional Office in Chelsea. The office serves Western Washtenaw County.

Washtenaw Community College's efforts to continue serving citizens who live in the western portion of the county have taken another important step forward.

In December WCC opened its Western Regional Office in downtown Chelsea. Now, lifelong Chelsea area resident Mary Picklesimer has joined WCC as Office Assistant for the Regional Office.

The new Regional Office, located at 134 W. Middle Street one block west of Main, includes one classroom and some office space. Right now two classes are being offered at the site. In addition, WCC has classes at the high school in Chelsea and Dexter and at Pleasant Lake Technical Center near Manchester.

"The Regional Office provides a strong WCC presence in the Western portion of the county," said Don Nair, director of WCC's Continuing Education and Extension Programs. "It also provides a link between the local communities and the many programs and services that WCC has to offer. Mary will be an important part of this overall effort."

Picklesimer, born and raised in Chelsea, will staff the Regional Office during the following hours: Monday and Wednesdays 6-10 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday 5-9 p.m., and Friday 10 a.m.-1:30 p.m. She will be available during those times to answer questions about WCC's programs and services.

Picklesimer extends an open invitation to all local residents who might have questions about WCC and its programs.

"I want people to stop by and ask questions," she said. "They can ask me about going back to school, getting financial aid and other WCC services."

O'Connor Named To Key Committees

State Representative Margaret O'Connor (R-Lodi Township) has received several key committee assignments for the new session of the Michigan House of Representatives.

O'Connor has been named Republican Vice-Chair of the House Committee on Constitutional, Interstate and Federal Relations. She is also a member of the Public Health, Labor and State Affairs Committees.

In addition, O'Connor has been named to the leadership position of assistant Republican Whip.

"I am pleased with these important committee assignments which I also held last session," O'Connor said. "I will be able to build upon the experience I have in these areas."

"I am especially pleased to continue as an active member of the Public Health Committee," said O'Connor, a former nurse.

O'Connor noted that last year the Public Health Committee finally passed some much-needed legislation to stem the spread of AIDS. Several of these bills were signed into law.

"I see AIDS as the number one public health risk that is still in need of urgent attention by the Legislature," O'Connor said.

Manchester Community Fair

Several members of the Manchester Community Fair attended the Michigan Association of Fairs and Exhibitions Convention held in Grand Rapids, Michigan in January. During the Convention, the Fair Board signed a contract with W. G. Wade Shows.

W. G. Wade shows was established in 1912 and has grown to be a premium amusement company. With separate units it makes it possible to be at our fair. Their carnival has played at the Jackson County Fair for several years. In order to be able to contract this carnival, the Fair Board has changed the fair dates. The Manchester Community Fair will be held July 11-15, 1989. The Fair Board is working to make this, the 1989 Fair, bigger and better than ever before with a new carnival and earlier Fair dates.

If anyone has suggestions or would like to help, please call Carol Britten at 428-3474 or 428-8589 or Jerry Bristle at 428-7118. The Fair Board welcomes you to attend any Fair Board meeting on the second Monday of each month in the meeting room of the Emanuel Church basement at 8:00 p.m.

Wanted A Cider Barrel

Manchester Enterprise
November 10 1987

The Cambridge correspondent to the Adrian Times writes this of a neighbor:

Having no cider barrel, he purchased at Gibbs' store a gasoline cask, and in order that the adhering gasoline might not vitiate the cider, a friend advised him to "burn it out." Placing the cask on the stoop of the house, he removed the bung, and, taking precaution from a holocaust in placing a pail of water within convenient reach, he requested his wife to apply the lighted taper. Instantly there came a burst of thunder sound, and Cora, where was she? Ask of Porter, who stood behind the gasoline "B."

They had read of earthquakes, of the eruption of Vesuvius, and had been eyewitnesses to a destructive cyclone, but what were all three combined compared with this demonic visitation that so suddenly converted them into senseless statues. It was moments before they could realize where they were or what had happened, but coming to the happy realization that both were alive, with pallid faces they commenced the work of investigation to learn the result of their foolhardy exploit.

Fragments of the cask were everywhere, in the pantry, the kitchen, and lawn. Every door had been violently thrown open, the cook stove was capsized, two of its legs and an oven door broken, three panes of glass shattered, considerable portion of the kitchen wall overhead torn off, a cupboard behind the kitchen stove was divested of its contents, crockery, tonsorial equipments, etc., all lay in confusion over the floor with the general debris. The car took a rapid flight skyward, and though having eight lives left, now very cautiously approaches the scene of destruction.

The dress upon Mrs. Jacox's person was literally torn into shreds, and how they escaped bodily harm is miraculously wonderful. Through sympathy for their misfortune it is proposed to give Mr. & Mrs. Jacox the use of grange hall to lecture upon the best method of preparing "Gasoline casks for cider barrels."

Military Order of the Purple Heart

The Military Order of the Purple Heart, Chapter 459 of Washtenaw County, has decided to meet at different Veteran's Posts in Washtenaw on the 2nd Thursday of each month. We will meet on February 9th at the Milan American Legion Post. Any one who has been awarded a Purple Heart by the government is eligible to join our organization. A brief history of the Purple Heart: It was first awarded by General Washington during the Revolutionary War. It was given to three heroes of the War in 1783. The award, at that time called the Badge of Military Merit, was the figure of a heart with purple edging with narrow lace.

After the Revolutionary War, no more American soldiers received the Badge of Military Merit until the Army Chief-of-Staff, General Charles P. Sumner, drafted a bill on October 10, 1927 sent to Congress to revive the Badge of Military Merit. It did not pass in Congress.

The Office of the Quartermaster General, John R. Sinnock, made a plastic model of a new design in May, 1931. The War Department announced the new award on February 22, 1932. At that time General Douglas MacArthur had tried to get the new medal issued on the bicentennial of George Washington's birthday.

The Army regulations defined the conditions of the award: "A wound which necessitates treatment by a medical officer and which is received in action with an enemy may, in the judgement of the commander authorized to make the award, be construed as resulting from a singularly meritorious act of essential service." It was only awarded to the Army but Franklin D. Roosevelt amended it on December 3, 1942 to extend to the Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard beginning December 6, 1941. John F. Kennedy extended it on April 25, 1967 to anyone who was wounded or killed while serving with the Armed Forces. President Harry S. Truman retroactively extended eligibility to April 7, 1917.

Shortly after the bill was re-instituted, a group of Purple Heart Veterans started the organization known as the "Military Order of the Purple Heart" of the United States of America, chartered by Congress by H.R. 13558 which became Public Law 85-761.

It is a very exclusive organization and we want all the Purple Heart recipients to be in our organization. We extend an invitation to those people eligible to come to our meeting. Any questions, call Commander N. Iver Schmidt 426-4055. We have in the National Organization 900 service officers who are accredited by the Veteran's Administration.

Our meetings of Chapter 459 start at 7:30 p.m. Come and join us on Thursday, February 9th at the Milan American Legion Post, 44 Wabash St., Milan.

Senior Citizens News

Mr. Groundhog, you did it to us again! Out came the boots, gloves and something on our heads this past weekend when I was all ready to put these away. The snow is more welcome than the ice which shut down school last Thursday. REMEMBER: Senior meals will not be held on those days that our schools close down because of inclement weather.

There are other reasons for closing school, so if you aren't sure, call Rubena Boelter at 428-8655. You should give Rubena a call for trip reservations for awhile during the absence of Erma Alber, too. Meanwhile, for those of us not going to the sunny and warm states, there are good meals at Emanuel on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Thursday, February 9: Exercise at 11, pork Milano for lunch at 12 noon, followed by bingo.

Saturday, February 11: Bus pickup will begin at 5:30 p.m. to go to Chelsea and Travelog: "Ireland - Footloose and Fancy Free". You may call Rubena to place your name on the list. It has been reported that our seniors are enjoying these travels and that they are excellent.

Tuesday, February 14: Council meeting begins at 9:30 a.m. followed by work on the March-April calendar at 10:45. Noon lunch at Emanuel will feature veal Italian and then it's back to the Center for activities. Happy Valentine's Day - give your sweetie a hug!
Wednesday, February 15: Chamber of Commerce lunch and meeting will be held at 12 noon. Call Rubena if you'd like to accompany her as a senior representative.

Thursday, February 16: Come out at 11 for senior exercise. The instructor has a bucketful of useful aids to help get those muscles working. The seniors are very colorful (and cute) while they stretch and bend-come try! Jan and her workers will serve poultry pie with the famous-batter-crust (any and all of Jan's dough will melt in your mouth!) A rousing game or two of bingo will also help drive away the winter blahs.

Fireside Heritage Crafters

On Monday evening, January 23rd, the Fireside Heritage Crafters of the Manchester area, met at the Black Sheep Tavern to hold their monthly meeting and their first Spinoff Contest: a four event spinning contest held for the members to demonstrate their talent against each other and was hosted by Tod Armentrout and Marti Vassoff. Along with the hosts was Ginger Watson, a former craft member, as judge.

After a brief business meeting, the contest began with a fine spinning event. Every one of the spinners was allotted 1/4 ounce of Dorset white wool and was to spin the finest long strand with uniform size and no breakage. The next event was a fast spin using a natural grey wool roving, also weighing 1/4 ounce. The third contest was for accurate spinning which allows each contestant 1/2 ounce of wool to be spun to 20 yards length. This indicates to the spinner the approximate diameter to be spun which is close to that of a commercial 3-ply worsted type yarn. The final test was for an unusual skein. Each person entered was to bring something from home to be blended with their 1/4 ounce of white wool and spun together.

We had a total of 7 spinners involved in our contest; one of them, Peter Vassoff, had been spinning only one day. The last event had only 4 contestants but with much determination, they dutifully turned in their skeins. First prize in unusual went to Richard Randolph, with his fresh parsley and wool. His wife, Annie, took second with cattail fuzz and wool while the third went to Jan VandenHout for baler twine, tarpaulin shreds and wool.

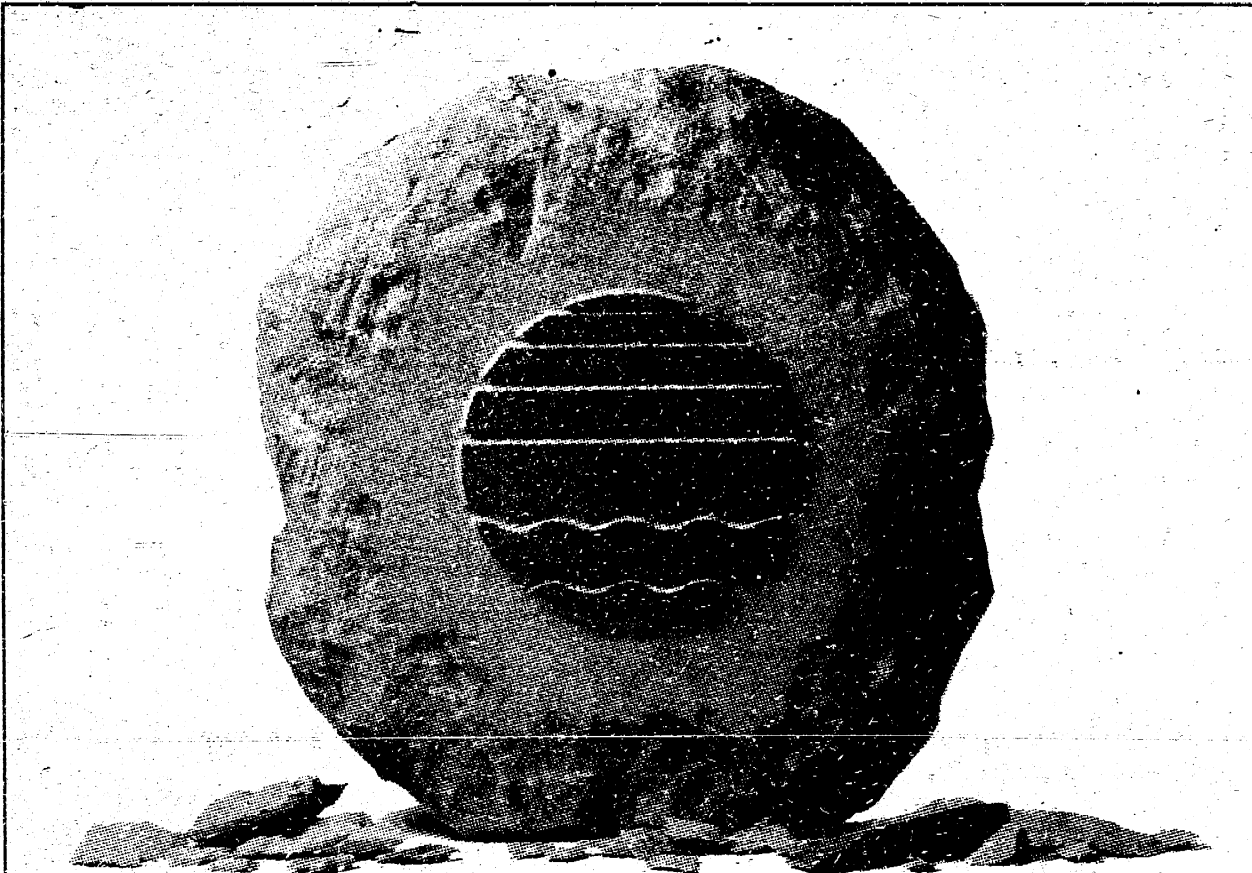

Additional prizes were...
Fast Spin: First Prize - Jan VandenHout; Second Prize - Annie Randolph; and Third Prize - Sherry Wiltfong.
Fine Spin: First Prize - Sherry Wiltfong; Second Prize - Jan VandenHout; Third Prize - Andrew Vassoff.
Accurate Spin: First Prize - Sherry Wiltfong; Second Prize - Jan VandenHout; Third Prize - Annie Randolph.

The products in the contest will not languish in a basket, since our "Weaver" Robert Armentrout will be placing them in a special sampler which the Fireside Heritage Crafters will display this year.

This is truly a family group with the youngest, Lora Lee Randolph, at 15 months of age, to our lovely Grandma, Edna Knauss, in attendance to cheer and encourage everyone. With snacks and refreshments (from baby bottle to coffee cup), a wonderful time was shared, a fellowship of laughter and good fun.

Judges Needed

Students and teachers at Nellie Ackerson Middle School are busily preparing for the annual science fair which will be held the week of March 12. Judging of fair finalists will be held on Wednesday, March 15 at the local American Legion Hall. While we have many judges who are repeating from last year, we still need a few more. If you have a science background and would be willing to share a few hours of your time, please contact Nondus Buss at the Middle School or leave a message at the Middle School office, 428-7442.

We're so solid in the towns we serve that most folks take us for granite

The only time banks seem to make headlines these days is when they do something wrong or unusual or both. That's why you don't hear a lot about Great Lakes Bancorp - even though we're part of your community.

We simply go about doing what we do best. Providing a solid financial foundation for the people who live and work in the towns we serve. No bells. No whistles. Just steady performance.

That's the main reason we've become one of the strongest savings banks in the Midwest, with 63 branches serving Michigan and Indiana. A bank that has prospered since 1890 despite recessions, depressions and fickle stock markets. A bank that has doubled its assets to more than $3 billion, in the last six years alone.

So whether you take us for granite or for granted, you can count on us to be here tomorrow.

And that's practically carved in stone.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

Hospice Of Washtenaw

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Poet

Hospice of Washtenaw provides in-home supportive care for terminally ill patients and family members. A team of doctors, nurses, social workers, pharmacists trained volunteers, and clergy help these individuals deal with preparation for death, and the natural feelings that follow. These team members are priceless friends assisting in countless ways.

Nearly nine years ago in the Spring of 1978, representatives from Washtenaw United Way and Catherine McAuley Health Center met with interested citizens from the area to explore the need for a Hospice program in Washtenaw County. One year later, in 1979, Hospice became incorporated and moved into the little white house on South Main Street in Ann Arbor.

Shortly thereafter, two problems arose. These were the inability of Hospice of Washtenaw to be financially self-supporting and the fact that Hospice was unable to provide nursing services. Our patients and their families had to contract these with other agencies, on their own.

One Hospice volunteer so aptly stated, "And so I stand, patiently, at the gate. I find a willingness to be there as souls get ready for this momentous passage. I feel all Hospice folks can take pride in this important function..."

We at Hospice of Washtenaw are continuing to serve Washtenaw County and surrounding areas with not only quality care, as we have always done, but with a renewed philosophy of humanitarianism and professionalism combined.

Cecelia and Andrew Poet of Burmeister Road celebrated their golden wedding anniversary November 19, 1988.

The special occasion was marked with a party attended by more than 280 friends and relatives at the Farm Council Grounds on November 19. The event coincided with the silver wedding anniversary of the couple's son, Stanley, and his wife, Beverly, of Saline.

Mr. and Mrs. Poet were married November 19, 1938 at the home of Cecelia's parents in Romulus. They moved to the Saline area 32 years ago and were self-employed farmers before retiring in 1965.

Mrs. Poet enjoys crocheting and crafts, and, along with her husband, gardening and traveling. Mr. Poet owns three ponies and regularly drives them in area parades.

The Poets have four grandchildren, Judy and Jay Ginther of Saline, Robert and Lynda Poet of Plymouth, Eric and Karen Poet of Ypsilanti, and Scott Poet of Saline. The couple also has two great-grandchildren, Deborah and Samantha.

Attorney General Warns Against Solicitations

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley today warned the general public against solicitations which are appearing in classified ad sections of newspapers that create the impression that federal and state civil service jobs are being offered (form of one of the ads appears below.)

Kelley said, "These solicitations are fraudulent misrepresentations. One gets the impression from the ad that it is a legitimate employment opportunity, or at least a legitimate employment agency. In reality, after calling a toll number you are pressured into paying nearly $30.00 and left with the impression that you will receive helpful information on actual job opportunities. All you receive is a booklet which contains information that can be found in any free government pamphlet or general telephone numbers that can be found in any telephone book. For people truly interested in a job, the information is virtually useless."

On that same subject, Kelley announced that he has filed a Notice of Intended Action against a New York firm for misleading consumers into paying nearly $30.00 for information on "immediate openings" for federal and state Civil Service jobs, yet providing no such material. Continental Research and Information Center is alleged to have violated Michigan's Consumer Protection Act and Item Pricing and Deceptive Advertising Act.

Continental placed the following ad in the Lansing State Journal's January 9, 1989 classified employment section:

FEDERAL STATE & CIVIL SERVICE JOBS

NOW HIRING Your Area $13,550 to $59,480. Immediate openings. Call 1-315-733-6062 Ext F2606.

When Kelley's investigators responded to the ad, they were informed that for $24.50, plus shipping and handling, they would receive a list of jobs in the lower, middle and upper levels of government service. Instead of the promised list, Continental sent out a publication entitled "Cash-in on that Government Job."

"Continental's booklet makes absolutely no reference to "immediate openings" as advertised," Kelley said. "Instead of a list of jobs, all you receive are sample employment applications and information you could obtain from your local phone book."

Kelley added, "Continental is preying on people who are either unemployed or trying to obtain a better job. This type of false advertising raises expectations, but does not deliver as promised."

Under Michigan's Consumer Protection Act the company has up to 10 days to respond to the notice. A civil penalty of up to $25,000 may be imposed for the violations.

Dutch Netters Successful

Vanessa Salyer wacks the ball.

by Jon

Last Monday, we hosted the Warriors from Grass Lake. It's always nice to win, but more so on parents' night.

In the JV match the Warriors had a terrible time getting the ball back over the net following our serve, so we won the first set Michelle LaRue belts it back.

Soundings: A Center For Women

Soundings: A Center for Women will offer a pre-employment training program for any woman who is single-head-of-household, separated or divorced, widowed or whose husband is permanently disabled, and who needs a job now or in the near future to support herself.

The four-week program, which begins February 14, will help each woman explore career/job options, prepare a resume, learn interviewing skills and conduct a job search. Also included are workshops on stress management, assertiveness training, and techniques for decision making, goal setting and problem solving. Personal counseling and a support group complete this program designed especially to help women in transition. Funding by the Michigan Department of Labor makes this program available to all eligible women, regardless of income. For further information call Soundings at 973-9731.

Chelsea Breather's Club

The February 18 meeting of the Chelsea Breather's Club has been cancelled. The group will resume their normal meeting schedule on Saturday, March 18. The speaker for the March meeting will be announced in the near future.

For more information, please call the American Lung Association of Michigan at 313-995-1030.

Roundball Action

Jesse Widmayer lays in 2.

by Jon

On Tuesday, we hosted the undefeated league-leading Cardinals. The contest started in a flurry as we held a 3-point lead after the first 8 minutes. Center captured the lead and held a 34-30 halftime advantage. The Dutch defense really played well in the 3rd stanza as we held them to a mere 7 points, while we added 12 points of our own. This left the tally 42-41 with 8 minutes to go. The contest went right down to the wire with our outscoring them 16-13 to be victorious 58-56.

Tom Mann led all scorers as he popped for 27 points. Unfortunately our JV's fell.

Counting tonight's win over the Grass Lake Warriors, we are sporting a 6 game win streak. This brings our overall record to 10 & 4 as we stand 6 & 3 in conference play. We did welcome Grass Lake to our gym but we manhandled the Warriors as we won 83-54. Tom Mann again led our scorers with 19 points. John Korican saw his first action after a knee injury to contribute 10 points.

Our little Dutch also downed Grass Lake.

Be with us Friday as we host Addison then the following Tuesday we have an important contest in Vandercook Lake.

Wrestling Report

After the conference tournament we knew things would be quiet through the following week. At least as far as outside competition. We knew we needed the time to heal up from injury and sickness. As a team we were sick to the point of being staggered. The question in my mind is how hard we should push. We know the Districts are the following Saturday and with them a new season begins.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the team pushed fairly hard. Protecting injured areas of the bod and moving forward to become mentally tougher. To increase lung capacities even more and putting on our ugly. At the end of these three days I see our intensity is moving upward. On Thursday we had no school and I thought a day off from practice would be beneficial. Heal up a little. On Friday, we had to pick it up a little. Steady, consistent and working on continuity and change from move to move.

It is Saturday and we travel to the District Tournament held in Napoleon. We know the caliber of competition will be good. Some big name wrestling schools are going to be there. Dansville, Harper Woods-Lutheran East, Lake Fenton, Williamston, Detroit Country Day, and Leslie are names that make me gasp for breath. And in this 13-team tournament if we don't place at least 4th, we don't advance to the regionals.

On the day as a team we see 20 of our 38 individual matches end in victory. But this tournament is a single elimination in the first round and our number of possibilities have dropped to 9 after that round. By the time the tournament has weeded itself down to the final four, the qualifiers, we are down to 5 men.

At 112 lbs., Jason Woods placed 3rd after winning a close 8-7 decision over Pete Sowers of Lake Fenton. At 119 lbs., Chris Wiethoff placed second after being pinned at 2:22 by Joe Passalacqua of Lutheran East. At 125 lbs., Darren Hock placed 4th after being decided 10-0 by Wally Pleieth of Lutheran East. At 130 lbs., Dave Wizzgird placed 4th after he was beaten in overtime by Chad Risner of Dansville. At 135 lbs., Isreal Clouse won his consolation finals match by pinning Steve Ruppel of Michigan Center in 2:48 and places third.

On February 8, most likely before you get your paper, we are going to Napoleon again for the team districts. We have drawn Vandercook in the first round. Next Saturday, we take our five regional qualifiers to New Lothrop where our district will collide with the Bad Axe District. In the Regionals only the top 4 places will advance to the State Tournament in Battle Creek. With the top three ranked teams in the state at New Lothrop, it will be without a doubt the toughest Regional in Michigan.

Hospice Training

Hospice of Washtenaw, a non-profit health care agency, trains and utilizes volunteers in caring for the terminally ill and their families. Volunteers serve families in a variety of ways: through supportive counseling, friendly visiting, health care education, light household chores and errand assistance. Other volunteers assist in office operations, publicity and public speaking. It is not necessary to have a background in health care to be a Hospice Volunteer.

Hospice of Washtenaw is an organized program of care for those who are near the end of life's journey.

Our next training session will begin March 6, 1989 from 3:00-6:30 p.m. For more information please phone 677-0614, Nancy Herc, Volunteer Coordinator.

The Topic: Substance Abuse

Janet LeBeau Shurtliff

Next Wednesday, February 15, the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce will present a noon-time program for the public on the subject of Substance Abuse. The speaker will be Nic Cooper from the Manchester firm of Cooper, McCoy and Associates, consultants in the field of substance abuse.

The Chamber hosts these monthly luncheon meetings at the K of C Hall on Madison, next to the Post Office. Reservations for lunch may be made by contacting Ann Pat Wolf at 428-8389 before Tuesday, February 14.

"General membership meetings" are held the third Wednesday of each month and feature speakers on topics of interest to Chamber members. HOWEVER, FOR THIS MEETING, THE PUBLIC IS INVITED AND WELCOME TO ATTEND. Lunch is served at noon, with the program beginning at about 12:15 and lasting until 1:00. Although lunches are described as "delicious," you are welcome to attend only for the program portion, according to Ann Pat Wolf, Vice-President of the Chamber.

The subject of substance abuse is important to all in our society - from the business person who must consider the impact of drug use on the workplace, to schools and individuals whose lives are affected and where problems arise because of drug use/abuse.

Nic Cooper has had extensive experience as a professional working with the problem of drug abuse, especially as it relates to adolescents and families. He has conducted various workshops and in-service trainings aimed at un-

Valentine's Day

Far from the romantic occasion it now connotes, St. Valentine's Day is historically the celebration of the feast of two Christian martyrs bearing this name. Both Valentines were reportedly beheaded on the Flaminian Way at Rome in the Third Century.

Some reports claim February 14 was chosen to celebrate the Christian martyrs as a diversion from ancient pagan observance of Lupercalia, the Roman fertility festival. Ironically, it is this celebration that is considered the forerunner of modern Valentine's Day customs.

DOES IT PAY TO FILE A JOINT TAX RETURN?
Two is not always better than one, says the Michigan Association of CPAs. Despite what you may have heard, joint filers do not always pay less taxes than those filing separate returns. Times have changed and, today, a joint return may sometimes result in a higher tax bill. Before you file your tax return, CPAs recommend that you take the time to calculate which filing method is best for your particular situation.
WHEN SHOULD YOU FILE JOINTLY?
A joint return usually pays off for couples in which only one spouse works or earns more than the other. The reason for this is that the spouse with the higher income is likely to have more of his or her earnings subject to a higher tax bracket when filing separately. Let's look at an example. Todd has taxable income of $40,000 and Annette, his wife, doesn't work. If Todd and Annette file jointly, their top marginal tax bracket will be 28 percent and their tax liability will be about $7,383. But if Todd files separately, a portion of his income will be taxed at 83 percent - making his tax bill more than $2,100 higher.
The difference in tax liability would be even greater if the couple could claim losses from a rental property that they actively manage. On a joint return, they could deduct from their ordinary income as much as $25,000 in rental losses. But as a married taxpayer filing separately, Todd would not be entitled to write off a single penny of their rental losses.
Married couples in which one spouse receives Social Security benefits will find another advantage in joint returns. As long as the couple's combined income does not exceed $32,000, Social Security benefits are generally tax free. However, when a married couple lives together but files separately, the spouse receiving Social Security benefits will find that every single benefit dollar is taxable.

Keep in mind too, that the type of return you and your spouse file may also affect how much you can contribute to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). One-worker couples who file a joint return are entitled to a spousal IRA contribution of as much as $2,250. Moreover, if the working spouse is not covered by an employer's retirement plan, the entire contribution is tax deductible. But if the working spouse files separately, the IRA contribution - and the possible deduction - drops by $250 to $2,000.
Finally, be sure to carefully review the eligibility requirements for the dependent - or child-care credit, earned income credit and the credit for the elderly. If you find that you are entitled to any of these valuable credits, remember that they are available only to married couples filing a joint return.
WHEN SHOULD YOU FILE SEPARATELY?
After reviewing the benefits available to married couples filing jointly, you may begin to suspect that a joint return is the only way to go. But that is not necessarily true. If both you and your spouse work, you should at least consider filing separately.
First of all, filing separately may enable you to take advantage of those itemized expenses that are deductible only if you exceed a certain percentage of your adjusted gross income (AGI). To state the obvious, it's a lot easier to exceed a certain deduction limit, such as the 7.5 percent floor on medical expenses, when you are working with one income at a time rather than two. As an example, consider how Sharon and Michael can benefit by filing separately.
Sharon has unreimbursed medical expenses of $6,000 and an AGI of $20,000. Her husband has no medical expenses and an AGI of $40,000. If Sharon files separately, she can deduct $4,500 of her unreimbursed medical bills. If they file a joint return instead, they can deduct only $1,000.

For the same reason, couples who have experienced a substantial casualty loss may be able to lower their tax bill by filing a separate return. Unreimbursed casualty losses are deductible only to the extent that they exceed 10 percent of AGI plus $100. If Sharon had unreimbursed casualty losses totaling $5,100, she could not deduct a single dime on a joint return. But if Sharon claimed the loss on her return, however, she could deduct $3,000. Again, if one spouse is eligible for extensive miscellaneous deductions, separate filing may result in lower tax liability. The floor on miscellaneous expenses is two percent of adjusted gross income. If Sharon has miscellaneous expenses of $3,000, on a joint return they can deduct $1,800. On a separate return, however, Sharon could claim $2,600.
There is one other possible advantage to filing separate returns that few people consider. When filing separately, each spouse must take responsibility for his or her own income, deductions, exemptions, credits and liabilities. However, when a couple signs a joint return, each spouse agrees to be fully liable for the entire tax due, plus any interest or penalties assessed. As a result, if one spouse earns all the income but does not pay the tax, the other can be held liable. And if they divorce, each spouse will generally remain liable for any joint returns filed before the divorce.
If you decide to file separately, be aware that both spouses must treat their tax return in the same fashion; if one itemizes, the other must itemize as well.
CPAs point out one final benefit of filing separately. If a couple files separately and later realizes that a joint return would have been preferable, they have three years in which to file an amended joint return. But if a couple files jointly, they cannot amend their return to file separately.

State Agencies Commended

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources and the Michigan Department of Treasury received a special commendation from the state's largest farm organization at the Michigan Farm Bureau's annual banquet. About 1,000 people watched the directors of the two state agencies accept honors for outstanding administration of P.A. 116, Michigan's Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act.

"Nearly 11 years ago, a bill was adopted by the Michigan Legislature which has had a profound impact on the farmers of this state," said Jack Laurie, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau. "The bill became what is commonly known as P.A. 116. Since then, over 4.4 million acres have been enrolled into the program. It goes without saying that P.A. 116 has accomplished its original purpose of preserving one of Michigan's most important natural resources."

"Passage of this law was an important achievement for the Farm Bureau organization and all of agriculture. But that was only the first step toward the development of this very successful program. Just as critical has been the administration of the law. The departments of natural resources and treasury have had the primary responsibility for the implementation and day-to-day operation of P.A. 116. Michigan Farm Bureau is pleased to publicly commend them for their efforts toward preserving more than 4 million acres of Michigan farmland through outstanding administration of the program," he said.

DNR Director David Hales and Treasury Department Director Robert Bowman accepted the special commendations. Staff members of the DNR's special land programs section and the treasury's farmland preservation unit were given special recognition by Laurie for their service to P.A. 116.

Cassidy Lake To Be Fenced In

Today at the Cassidy Lake Technical School in Lyndon Township, State Senator Lana Pollack announced that the prison camp would be fenced to deter walk aways. "According to Department of Correction statistics, 45 prisoners escaped from the Cassidy Lake Technical School between January 1 and December 15 of 1988. I am here today with the Director of the Department of Corrections, Bob Brown, to announce that this facility will be fenced as a means of deterring this walk away problem."

Just prior to the press conference, Pollack walked portions of the camp's perimeter. Accompanied by representatives of the Department of Corrections and the Department of Management and Budget, Pollack surveyed the hilly and wooded terrain that will be fenced in the next six to eight months. "The funds have been appropriated by the legislature. The plan will be finalized in the next few weeks and then the bidding process for contractors will begin. I have been advised that the fence will be in place by mid-to late summer."

"The fence will improve the security of the camp by preventing inmates from casually walking away. While the fence will not be a cure all, it should make a significant difference for the people in this area," Pollack stated. "Comparing the incidence of 9 escapees from Camp Waterloo (a fenced facility) to Cassidy Lake Technical School's 45 escapees over the same time period, we can anticipate that the fence will make a real difference."

"Over the past several years, my concern for the security problem at Cassidy Lake has been growing. In earlier years, public hearings determined that the community had a mixed attitude toward fencing Cassidy Lake Technical School. However, I have come to the conclusion, after consultation with local law enforcement agencies, local elected officials and the Department of Corrections, that area security demands a fence. I will be working closely with the Department of Corrections to see that the fence is installed as promptly as the required bidding process will permit."

Pollack reiterated that while she believes education, job training and substance abuse treatment and prevention are the long term solutions to the ever growing prison population, she feels strongly that correctional facilities should not be a threat to surrounding communities. "The people of Chelsea have put up with this situation too long, and I'm hopeful this will make a significant improvement in the area."

Carrying The Mails

Manchester Enterprise
April 12, 1888

A civil engineer of the Lake Shore Railway was in town on Saturday measuring the distance from the postoffice to the two railway stations. When the distance between the station and the postoffice is less than 80 rods the railroad company carrying the mails have to receive the mails from and deliver them to the postoffice, but when it is more than that distance, the postoffice department has to transport them.

The distance from the Ypsilanti branch depot is a little less than 80 rods and consequently the railroad company has to deliver the mails, but from the Jackson branch depot it is more than 80 rods to the postoffice, and so the postoffice department deliver them.

For many years after the late Chauncy Walbridge was appointed postmaster, he would sling the mail bag over his shoulder and whether the weather was fair or foul, he would trudge back and forth between the office and the Jackson branch depot, bearing his burden. The Enterprise once published the number of miles he traveled in making those trips, it was a good many, but we cannot now recall them.

We believe that the contract for carrying the mail was let year after year until the present time, to the late Arthur Case, but he has sub-let it during the past few years, to I. M. Robison, the hackman, at $65.00 a year, the same price he received. Why he cared to do this the few who knew the circumstances, could not understand; he had his own private reasons and chose to keep them to himself.

A notice has been posted on the postoffice door, calling for bids for transporting the mails, and we understand that a number of bids have been sent in. Of course it is worth a great deal more to carry the mails now than it was years ago when Mr. Walbridge carried them on his shoulder, but we do not know whether the department will be willing to pay any more or not.

This marker now stands on the lawn in front of the Library, providing passers-by with a quick history of the Library and of the charming building in which it is housed.

The Historical Society also held a Bicentennial Quilt Raffle, the net proceeds of which were earmarked for the Library. This remarkable quilt, just recently completed with the embroidering of 200 names in the border, will be officially presented to the raffle winner, Margaret Fielder, at this Monday evening's meeting and will be available for all to see.

The Manchester Township Library has tirelessly served our community for more than 150 years. The community is invited to learn more about our Library's role in history and to join in honoring it on Monday, February 20th, when the Manchester Area Historical Society salutes "The Library."
