

Cooperative Extension Celebrates 75th

1989 marks the 75th year that the Cooperative Extension Service has been assisting families across America with educational information. In commemoration of the anniversary, the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service staff will host an Open House on May 8 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at their office located in the Service Center at 4133 Washenaw Ave., Ann Arbor.

The office to visit with the staff and find out more about the past, present and future programs. Anyone interested is welcome to bring photos and memorabilia from Extension activities to share during the Open House. According to Nancy Diuble Thelen, County Extension Director, those attending will also have the opportunity to learn more about health, foods and nutrition, county agriculture, the process from cow to consumer, planning a vegetable garden, alternatives to toxics, a video from the 1941 county fair and other 1940-60 4-H activities, current 4-H programs, and natural resources and public policy programs.

According to Thelen, "The Extension Service has grown with the times and expanded horizons to meet changing needs, modifying its programs and outreach in response to such factors as new knowledge, changes in its clientele's needs, and alterations in the socio-economic landscape. Extension's success is citizen involvement in identifying the informational needs of clientele, also in planning methods to provide the information in an appropriate manner." Delivery methods include newsletters, mass media, phone calls, educational bulletins, audio-visuals, computer programs, group meetings, individual consultations, and the reteaching of information through hundreds of Extension volunteers.

The Cooperative Extension Service has helped people put knowledge to work for 75 years and is dedicated to continuing to make an investment in the future of Washtenaw County Residents.

People believe if you carry a potato with you, you will be healthy.

People believe if you catch a falling leaf, you will have a good and happy life.

Highway Robbery

Manchester Enterprise
February 8, 1877

A German named Godlieb Hettich was robbed on Exchange Place, last evening about 10 o'clock. It appears that he was having a "little spree," and when in front of Conrad Lehn's store, three men, noted roughs, Will Ruckman, Ben Williams, of this village, and Pat McMahon, of Sharon, assaulted him, and stealing his watch threw it into the road. They hustled around him, probably with the intention of preventing him from missing his watch, and followed him into Lehn's saloon. But he was not so drunk but that he knew a thing or two, and spoke to Conrad in German, telling him about the transaction. When the boys were accused of the robbery they stoutly denied it and offered to be searched, which was done. Of course the watch was not found upon their persons and they were permitted to depart, but the Marshal, who was on hand, thought the case a clear one, and determined to watch and wait. Those who were in the saloon determined to make a search outside where the squabble occurred, and taking a light they found the watch and chain in the road where they had been thrown. Later in the night the Marshal was rewarded for his vigilance, by seeing two of the scoundrels, Ruckman and Williams approach the scene of their late encounter with the German, in search of their booty. They afterwards went to the Goodyear House, and being frightened told their story, but laid the blame upon Pat McMahon. The two were arrested by Rose and placed in bed at the Goodyear House, their clothes being taken away from them to prevent their escape. Rose and Vreeland arrested McMahon in the morning and the trio were handcuffed together. Examination Monday.

Poppy Days

American Legion and Auxiliary volunteers will distribute the familiar red, handcrafted poppies honoring America's war dead on Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20 in Manchester.

Planned to coincide with the Memorial Day holiday, the annual event pays tribute to those veterans who have died in the last 70 years. It also honors the millions of Americans who have willingly served their country in seven decades.

It serves as well as honors the veteran with all proceeds from the distribution invested in local programs for the benefit of the veteran and his/her family.

Each nine-piece poppy is made by veterans for veterans in Auxiliary-sponsored Poppy Shops that supplement physical and psychological therapy needed by hospitalized and disabled veterans. The Auxiliary provides the materials and the volunteers. The veteran makes the poppy and is paid a small amount for each painstakingly-made flower. For some it is their only income.

No matter what the cost of maintaining and supplying the Poppy Shops, the memorial poppy is never sold, but given in exchange for a contribution.

The Poppy program has been a part of Legion and Auxiliary programming for more than 65 years. It has been estimated that approximately 25 million Americans wear the poppy to honor America's war dead and all veterans, contributing nearly $2 million for rehabilitation and welfare programs.

Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. T. V. Ludwick are Chairwomen of this year's event.

Great Lakes Celebrates 15 Yrs In Manchester

Great Lakes Bancorp is celebrating 15 years in the Manchester community with an open house May 15-19. Branch manager, Dave Little, and the staff welcome customers and guests to stop in for coffee, donuts and cookies during the week. There will be prizes and give-aways daily, with coloring books and balloons for the younger visitors. Everyone is invited to sign up for a special anniversary drawing for a high-quality cordless phone. Two will be given away on Friday, May 19th. Friday will also feature an afternoon reception with punch and Manchester's own homemade pretzels.

Great Lakes is Manchester's oldest and largest bank. "We've always been staffed only with local people," notes manager Dave Little, who opened the Manchester office in 1974. "And everyone hired here in 1974 is still working with Great Lakes. That says a lot about our stability, and our commitment to Great Lakes and to this area."

Great Lakes Bancorp has its regional headquarters in Ann Arbor, and operates 63 branches in Michigan and Indianapolis. With $3.7 billion in assets, it is the second largest savings bank in Michigan. Great Lakes will celebrate its centennial anniversary in 1990.

The Harpsichord Described and Played

Manchester has had a history of remarkable people choosing to live here since it was first settled in the 1800's. And that tradition continues today.

Recently Keith and Marianne Hill choose Manchester for their home and for the location of the business: Keith Hill, Ltd., makers of fine harpsichords.

Marianne Hill is a pre-doctoral student of piano at the University of Michigan School of Music. Keith Hill has been building harpsichords for a number of years.

Members of the Manchester Area Historical Society had the privilege of meeting the Hills and hearing one of their harpsichords last December at the Historical Society Christmas Party. But that was too brief. And so the Historical Society has asked the Hills to present an entire program about the harpsichord - and the community is invited to attend.

The meeting will be held next Monday, May 15, at 7:30 p.m. at the Blacksmith Shop, 324 E. Main. Come ready to hear the unique sounds of the harpsichord as well as to learn much about its history and the way in which it is made.

(Also, members: Please know that the MAHS Collectible Sale will be held Saturday, June 10. If you have anything to donate for this sale, you are welcome to bring it to the meeting Monday.)

Our community is fortunate to have so many talented people. And next Monday we may welcome and enjoy the Hills when they present "The Harpsichord" at the Manchester Area Historical Society meeting.

Bike To Work Day

May is National Bike Month and May 17th is National Bike-To-Work Day. Join in this annual ride to show your support of bicycling.

Bike-To-Work Day is part of a national effort, endorsed by the United States Department of Transportation, to highlight the benefits of cycling, and to prove to people that it is possible to leave the car at home for some journeys.

The campaign is being promoted by the League of American Wheelmen, the national organization of bicyclists found in 1880 to advance and defend the rights and interests of cyclists.

No use talking about snow in May which resulted in frozen hoses. (A friend tried to water his strawberries to keep them from the frost.) Let's play indoor games instead with the following 'household items of yore.' Like the puzzle says, many of the household items seem quaint today. No doubt you've heard of an adze, a batt, cubby, etui, lowboy, sealing wax, tidy and wick trimmer. You also know a lot more than I if you can identify a bark spud, branks, froe, olla or pickaroon (what a neat word.) It sounds like you shouldn't use a raft auger along with a souse. The answer was sad iron; doesn't ironing usually make you that way?

Thursday, May 11: We have all heard of ham loaf and bingo which we will enjoy for noon lunch and fun indoor games.

Friday, May 12: There is room on the bus to go along on the trip to the new museum in Lansing. Call Erma Alber at 428-8708 for your reservation. The bus will leave the Center.

Monday, May 15: At 9:30 a.m., a shopping trip is planned from the Center to Adrian. Call Erma to go along.

Tuesday, May 16: Back to Lansing for Senior Power Day. There is room left for you on the bus. Meanwhile, those of us at home will enjoy beef stew with butter crust at noon lunch. Come and join either group.

Wednesday, May 17: General Chamber of Commerce lunch and meeting will begin at 12 noon. "Manchester 1990" will be the topic. This will interest us all. You must get reservations by Monday the 15th if you care to attend.

Thursday, May 18: Polish sausage is featured for lunch and bingo will be played. The RSVP luncheon is on for this day for those of you who go.

All who are 55 years or older in the Manchester area are urged to come to Emanuel's dining room to try on of Jan Barbour's lunches. The food is excellent, fellowship is great, and we feel the loss when you are not there. — so come on down.

Letter To The Editor

The Knights of Columbus Building Association felt it was necessary to put forth a few facts about our relationship with the Post Office and the effects it has had on the present Post Office building.

From 1959 through 1979, the USPS had a lease with the Knights for a set amount per month. In 1979 the lease was renegotiated and the rent was raised until 1982 when a new two-year lease was negotiated. Since 1984, the Knights have only had a verbal agreement with the USPS and the rent has remained the same since 1982. Because of this uncertainty in the status of whether the USPS would continue to use the building or go someplace else, the Knights have only been updating the real necessary repairs. After we repaired the flat roof twice within a short time, it was decided in 1987 to put up a completely new hip-roof over the whole K. of C. Hall/Post Office complex that would be more serviceable and permanent. The ceiling repair in the Post Office caused by the leaks in the old roof was a temporary patch until we received some idea of future plans.

In the fall of 1988, a new furnace and water heater were installed in the Post Office section. In the summer of 1987, an air conditioner-furnace combination was installed in the K. of C. section. The Knights have also installed foam insulation and dry-wall on the east wall of the K.of.C. section and have completely repainted the inside of the building.

About 1984, the Knights had an architect draw up extensive plans to completely rebuild the K. of C. Hall/Post Office complex. The Knights submitted those plans to the USPS in 1984 and again in 1988. The Knights are still negotiating with the USPS about those plans and still await an answer about what might be decided. The Knights would be happy to discuss the situation further with USPS representatives at any time.

Sincerely,
Knights of Columbus
Building Association

Traffic Advisory

Resurfacing and addition of a second left-turn lane on Carpenter Road at Washtenaw Road (M-17) in Ann Arbor will begin Monday, May 8, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) said today.

The project should improve traffic flow for northbound Carpenter Road motorists turning left onto westbound Washtenaw Road.

Work will occur throughout the night, and Sundays during the day to replace the existing asphalt and add a second left-turn signal. The project also includes intersection improvements.

Traffic at the intersection will be restricted to one lane in each direction from 9 p.m. to 6 a.m. nightly and 24 hours on Sunday. No daytime closures are planned for Monday through Saturday.

The $104,000 project has an early July completion date.

through the 21. The art display features art work which exemplifies the skills and media used by children in various age groups. Visitors to Prairie House can expect to see paintings, drawings, ceramics, jewelry and sculpture. Hours for the exhibition are Saturday, May 13 and 20, and Sunday, May 14 and 21, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Not to be outdone by the visual arts, music students from the various school districts will present their programs in the Exhibition Hall at Domino's Farms on Sunday, May 14, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

WLEA President and teacher at Dexter High School Jeff Flynn said, "The WLEA sponsors the annual festival of arts as part of an overall effort to increase community awareness and support for the many fine programs offered by area schools."

Governor Starts Tree Planting Project

Governor James J. Blanchard and Detroit Tigers Manager Sparky Anderson have kicked off a major effort to beautify and improve the environmental quality of Michigan by helping to plant the first of more than 50,000 trees to be planted along highways this month by the Michigan Youth Corps.

"This landscaping is part of an intensive effort to make our highways impressive ports of entry for our communities. Future visitors will be greeted by impressive tree and wildflower plantings which show the pride we have in our state," the Governor said.

The Michigan Youth Corps, the nation's largest and most successful summer youth employment program will provide jobs for 20,000 unemployed young adults this summer. Now in its seventh year, more than 130,000 young men and women will have received job skills and resume-building Youth Corps experience by fall 1989.

Governor Blanchard, Youth Corps and Department of Labor Director Betty Howe and Department of Transportation Director James Pitz joined more than 250

Youth Corps workers who were to plant 10,000 Austrian pines at five sites along the Ford Expressway (I-94) between Metropolitan Airport and the City of Detroit.

Other areas targeted for landscaping are near Grand Rapids (I-96), Lansing (I-496), Bay City to Flint (I-75, Traverse City and Clare to Mackinac (US 27 and I-75). Also included in the effort are anti-litter campaigns, trash pick up and other roadside beautification efforts.

Caution: Children On Horseback

Now that warm spring, and soon summer, days are here, children, and adults, will be enjoying the weather on horseback-sometimes riding alongside roads.

Drivers, please be gracious and slow down as you pass these riders. Horses are easily startled by fast-moving vehicles, loud noises or flying gravel. Decrease your speed as much as traffic will allow. Your few moments of thoughtfulness could save a life or prevent a terrible injury.

Question The Metro Editor

Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

What's bugging you about the Ann Arbor News?

Is it possible for a "big city" paper such as the News to meet the daily news needs of a small community like Manchester? From a business point of view, can the News pay proper attention to so small a market as Manchester when they have the urban areas of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti to concern themselves with? Does news that is relevant and accurate about Ann Arbor and Ypsi really have any relevance at all to the small town, rural community of Manchester?

Rich Fitzgerald is the Metro Editor for the Ann Arbor News, and he will be the guest speaker at the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce Luncheon. Members, guests, and the public are invited to attend this luncheon program to be held next Wednesday, May 17, at noon at the K. of C. Hall.

While the Enterprise is our paper of choice for coverage and details of events, big and small, going on in our community, the Ann Arbor News, as a daily newspaper, puts local news into a broader context. The question is whether the News "does right" by our community.

So bring your questions, comments, and complaints - and enjoy a delicious catered lunch at the same time - and join the Chamber in welcoming and listening to Rich Fitzgerald discuss how the Ann Arbor News perceives Manchester. Is it good for business? Is it good for PR? Is it accurate and comprehensive enough?

Please R.S.V.P. for lunch to Ann Pat Wolf at 428-8389 by Friday, May 12.

Manchester Community Schools Notice Of Asbestos

May 4, 1989

Asbestos Management, Incorporated was hired by the school district to inspect the school buildings and determine if building products which contain asbestos were present. The inspection has been completed as required by the federal Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act (AHERA) regulations and a management plan has been submitted to the State of Michigan for approval.

Asbestos containing material was found in the High School, Klager Elementary, Middle School, Nellie Ackerson, Bus Garage and Pleasant Lake buildings. The Management Plan describes general recommendations and the school district response in dealing with materials that were tested to contain asbestos and materials assumed to contain asbestos. These materials include: acoustical ceiling, pipe joints, pipe insulation, floor tile, adhesives, mastics, fire doors and frames, slate lab tops and boiler insulation.

Detailed descriptions of the inspection and the management plan can be reviewed at the office of the building principals and the Central Administration Office.

Nowadays, you're training just so you'll have the wind to blow out next year's candles.

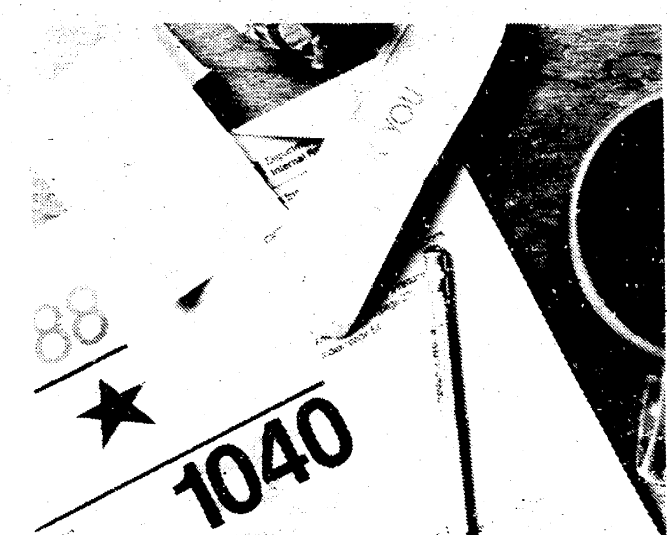

You've come to accept that every now and then your car needs to let off steam, too.

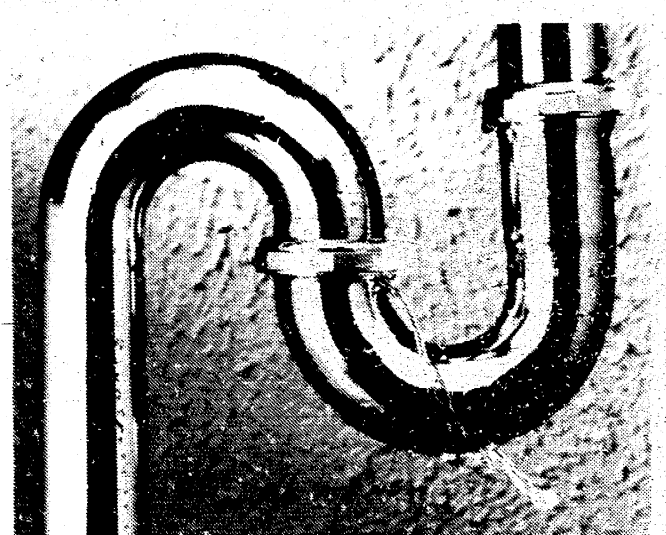

Even though six dozen socks have disappeared in the washer, the laundry pile always stays the same. Or even grows.

For years, every time your kid opened his mouth, you heard cash registers.

You've paid so many taxes, you feel certain that you alone financed the economic recovery.

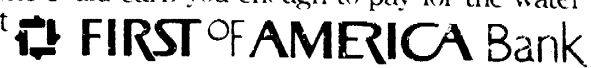

More than once, you've discovered that your house is something of a liquid asset.

- 2 pounds ground beef

In large bowl, combine all ingredients; shape into 8 patties. Grill or broil until done. Makes 8 servings.
MICROWAVE DIRECTIONS: Prepare patties as above. Place 4 patties in oblong baking dish and heat uncovered at HIGH (Full Power) 6 minutes, turning patties once. Repeat with remaining patties. Let stand covered 5 minutes.

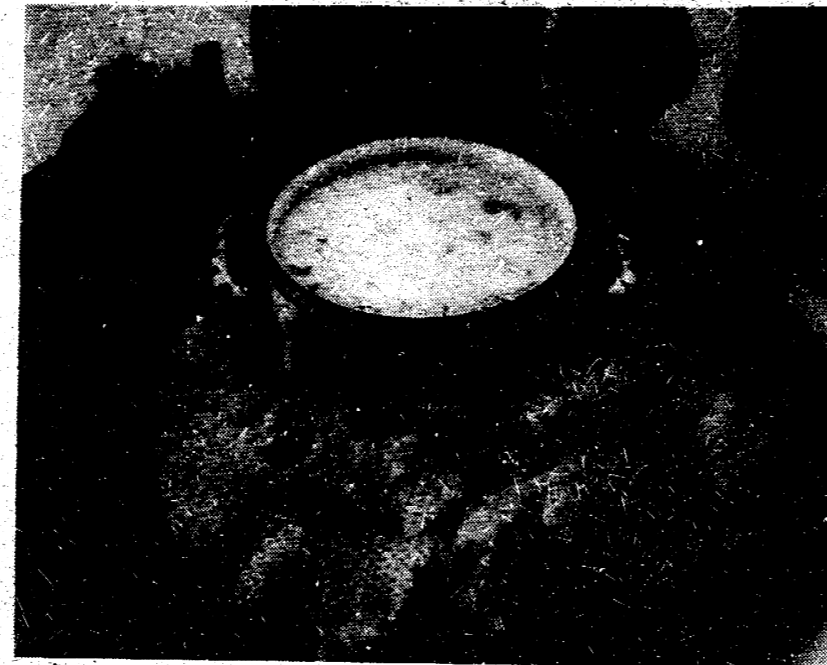

CALICO COLESLAW

- 1 envelope Lipton® Vegetable Recipe Soup Mix
- 1/2 pint (8 oz.) sour cream
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon apple cider vinegar
- 2 teaspoons Dijon-style mustard
- 5 cups shredded cabbage (about 1/2 medium head)
- 1 medium red onion, thinly sliced
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
- Pepper to taste

In medium bowl, thoroughly blend vegetable recipe soup mix, sour cream, mayonnaise, vinegar and mustard. Toss with remaining ingredients; chill. Makes about 4 cups coleslaw.

Mini Mexican Meal

There are so many occasions that call for a quick microwavable snack or light meal. Here's a mini meal with a Mexican twist — Chili con Queso — that can be prepared in 10 minutes or less. It's a cheesy combination of instant onion soup mix, milk, Monterey Jack cheese and chopped tomatoes with a hint of chili powder. For a truly authentic combination, serve with crispy tortilla chips.

Next time the nachiches strike, resist the urge for take-out fast food and opt for homemade fast food — made fast with the microwave and convenience products.

CHILI CON QUESO

- 1 envelope Lipton® Creamy Onion Cup-a-Soup® Instant Soup
- 1/2 cup whole milk
- 2 cups shredded Monterey Jack or Muenster cheese (about 6 oz.)*
- 1/4 cup chopped tomatoes
- 1 can (4 oz.) chopped green chilies, drained
- 1/4 teaspoon chili powder

In 1-quart casserole, thoroughly blend instant creamy onion soup mix with milk. Microwave at HIGH (Full Power) 1 minute. Stir in remaining ingredients, then heat, stirring occasionally, 2 minutes or until cheese is melted. Serve warm with tortilla chips, bread wedges, cooked chicken chunks, broccoli or cauliflower. Makes about 2 cups dip.

*Substitution: Use 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese (about 8 oz.).
CONVENTIONAL DIRECTIONS: In medium saucepan, thoroughly blend instant creamy onion soup mix with milk. Bring just to the boiling point, stirring frequently. Reduce heat, then stir in remaining ingredients. Simmer, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted. Serve as above.

The Great Lakes

Pacific salmon thrive 2,000 miles from the Pacific; and Atlantic salmon, 1,000 miles from the Atlantic. And both are pursued by hundreds of charter-fishing boats. A pleasure-boat fleet more than a million strong, rides the waves in the heart of the North American continent where the Great Plains give way to 95,000 square miles of water—a body of water that stretches from the eastern megalopolis to the plains, from Midwest farm fields to wild northern forests.

What is this place?
It is the largest body of surface fresh water in the world. This is the Great Lakes. The Great Lakes: Superior, Michigan, Huron, Erie, Ontario—five interlocking bodies of water formed over a span of 2 million years and carved into their present shape by glaciers 12,000 years ago. Their shoreline is equal to half the circumference of the earth. They are the source of drinking water for 24 million people, a transportation network that moves more than 224 million tons of material a year, and home to one-fifth of the U.S. industry, one-fifth of the U.S. population, and three-fifths of Canada's population. Michigan takes a strong proprietary interest in the Great Lakes. Four of the five Great Lakes have shaped Michigan, figuratively and literally, for the past 12,000 years. With some 700,000 registered vessels, Michigan has either the largest or the second largest pleasure-boat fleet in the United States, plus a charter-boat fleet of some 500.

It is also thanks to the Great Lakes that Michigan has 275,000 acres of sand dunes (including the highest freshwater dunes in the world at Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore), the only island National Park in the United States (Isle Royale National Park) a climate that causes vineyards and orchards to flourish and allows the state to vie with California in the wide range of crops produced, more varieties of deciduous trees than any other state (or all of Europe for that matter); and nearly 150 varieties of fish.

Michigan has more than 100 beaches in its 827 miles of publicly owned Great Lakes shoreline. Living closely with the Great Lakes also has its hazards: a non-biodegradable pollutant dumped into the far western waters of Lake Superior could continue to plague Michigan waters for some 313 years—until the last of it flowed west through Lake Erie toward Niagara Falls, Lake Ontario, the St. Lawrence River, and the North Atlantic. It is not surprising, then, that Michigan voters recently approved an $800 million bond issue for environmental cleanup and park restoration—$25 million of which is earmarked for the regional Great Lakes Protection Fund.

Nor is it surprising that Michigan has launched a two-year program called "Celebrate! The Great Lakes," with special events in May and June—free canoeing and canoeing lessons, free golf clinics and two-for-one greens fees, and free fishing. And special "Celebrate! The Great Lakes" festivals will be held throughout the summer at seven communities around the state.

Information on these events and more is contained in the Michigan Travel Bureau's "Start Your Great Lakes Summer Now!"

brochure, its "Michigan Travel Planner," and the "Michigan Travel Events" calendar. All can be obtained by writing the Michigan Travel Bureau at P.O. Box 30226, Lansing, Michigan 48909, or by calling the bureau at 1-800-5432-YES. The hearing impaired can call our TDD at 1-800-722-8191 (in Michigan only).

CAN YOU AFFORD EARLY RETIREMENT?

Americans no longer assume that retirement must wait until their 65th birthday. In the last decade, the average age at which people retire has dropped from age 64 to 62. Similarly, more people now apply for Social Security at age 62 than at 65. The statistics underscore a trend that is likely to continue and perhaps even accelerate, as the tremendous baby-boom generation approaches retirement.

But choosing early retirement is not simply a matter of deciding that you no longer want to rush off to the office, says the Michigan Association of CPAs. Before you opt for early retirement, you need to understand the financial consequences of such a decision.

One factor to consider in deciding when to retire is life expectancies. Currently, the average life expectancy for men and women is approximately 80 years. However, the Census Bureau expects the percentages of those age 85 or older to double in approximately 30 to 40 years. Consequently, someone retiring at age 65 may need to finance some 30 years of retirement.

If you hope to retire at an early age, you need to take a long look at your possible sources of retirement income. More importantly, you have to find out exactly how an early retirement can reduce the amount of money you will draw from each of those sources.

Social Security benefits, for example, are still based on your age, when you apply and the amount of lifetime earnings on which you paid Social Security taxes. Any covered worker born before 1938 can apply for Social Security at age 65 and receive full benefits. For those born in 1938 and beyond including the entire Baby Boom generation, the age at which one can retire with full benefits gradually increases. For example, someone born in 1957 will not be able to retire with full benefits until six months after his or her 66th birthday. For those born after 1960, the normal retirement age will be 67.

What happens to your Social Security benefits if you take an early retirement? Retire before age 62 and you will receive no benefits whatsoever until you turn 62. On the other hand, if you retire between age 62 and 65, you will receive your monthly benefit check—but the amount will be permanently reduced by as much as 20 percent. Still, some financial experts believe that an early retirement may pay off in the long run since the amount of Social Security you collect between ages 62 and 65 can sometimes compensate for the smaller monthly checks.

Of course, Social Security should not be your sole source of retirement income. For most individuals, a comfortable retirement will also require an employer's pension plan. Once almost taken for granted, today employer-sponsored benefits can be extraordinarily elusive. Economic pressures and new employment patterns frequently force workers to jump from employer to employer before they ever become fully vested in a company's pension plan. If you are just shy of meeting the vesting requirements of a company you plan to leave, consider postponing the job change just long enough to qualify for your benefits. In any case, make sure you review any current or prospective employer's benefit policies with great care. Besides finding out how long you must remain with the company in order to become partially or fully vested in its pension plan, make sure you research other aspects of the plan as well. For example, how much does the company contribute to the plan? How is the money invested? What type of penalty do you pay if you withdraw money prior to your normal retirement age? How much net income can you expect to receive from the plan if you retire at 50? at 62?

Consider, too, that many companies and organizations will base your monthly pension checks on the salary you earn at the time of retirement. So before ending your career prematurely, take time to estimate how another raise or promotion could improve the standard of living you enjoy during retirement.

Don't underestimate your need for pension income and Social Security benefits. The Social Security Administration estimates that those who hope to retire with an annual income of at least $20,000 can expect these two factors to provide about 40 percent of their total retirement income. The rest is up to the individual.

Whether you plan to retire early or not, the importance of personal retirement plans, such as IRAs or 401 (K) programs, cannot be overemphasized. They can make the difference between a comfortable retirement and one that barely passes poverty-level.

Investing in IRAs is especially advisable for anyone not covered by an employer-sponsored retirement plan. In such a situation, you can make and deduct IRA contributions of up to $2,000 per year. But even if you can't get the deduction, you should at least consider IRAs as one way to build retirement savings. You decide how much money to contribute (up to the specified limits), where the money is invested and when to change investments. In addition, earnings on an IRA account are tax-deferred and thus accumulate at a much faster rate.

Another highly recommended retirement savings plan is the 401(K). You can contribute up to $7,627 in 1989 and deduct the entire amount from your gross income. For example, if you earned $30,000 and contributed $4,000 to a 401(K), your income tax will be calculated on a base of only $26,000. And as with IRAs, the interest or dividends you earn can accumulate tax deferred. In addition, many companies will match all or at least some of the amount you contribute to the account.

Both IRAs and 401(K) accounts offer long-term holders the best pay-off. However, if you plan to start drawing income from your accounts prior to age 59½, you may want to research other investment options. CPAs point out that if you begin withdrawing money from either an IRA or a 401(K) plan prior to age 59½, you will have to pay income taxes on the amount withdrawn—as well as a 10 percent excise penalty.

For more information on how to achieve financial security for your retirement years, you can obtain a brochure from the Michigan Association of CPAs by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to P.O. Box 9054, Farmington Hills, Michigan 48333.

WHAT YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

If you have high blood pressure, you are not alone. A staggering 66 percent of all Americans over age 65 have some degree of elevated blood pressure, or hypertension, which can lead to heart disease, stroke and even death. While there are no obvious symptoms associated with high blood pressure, it is often detected during routine medical check-ups — and it can be controlled.

Simply defined, high blood pressure results when blood exerts too much force which causes damage to vessels. Lifestyle changes can sometimes control this condition. Many doctors recommend weight loss exercise, a low fat diet, decrease in salt intake, and total cessation of smoking as initial steps to lower blood pressure. However, patients may also require medication, to ensure that their blood pressure is regulated and to help prevent associated risks.

Two common prescription medications are diuretics, often referred to as water pills, and beta blockers. Diuretics work by reducing the amount of salt and water in the body which, in turn, lowers blood pressure. Beta blockers work by slowing the heart rate and the force of contraction; this reduces the blood pressure in the vessels.

While comparisons of diuretics and beta blockers indicate that both are equally effective in controlling blood pressure, a recent study revealed that patients who were given the beta blocker Lopressor® (metoprolol tartrate) had 58 percent fewer deaths from heart disease after 4 to 5 years of treatment compared to those on diuretic therapy. Lopressor is also used to reduce the risk of death following heart attack.

Medication can effectively treat high blood pressure, and should be taken in conjunction with the important lifestyle changes suggested by your doctor. In fact, taking medication is a change in itself and requires the patient's cooperation. It is important to follow your doctor's instructions about how often you should take your medication. Some people may find it helpful to keep a calendar or chart, so that taking the medicine becomes part of your daily routine. Even if you feel well, you need to continue taking your medication for as long as your doctor indicates. To maintain your health, see your doctor regularly, and follow his or her advice about behavioral changes that may be of long-term benefit. If your doctor tells you your blood pressure is high, ask about the treatment that will work best for you.

Concert Series At Gazebo

Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

Begin enjoying the idea of spending Thursday evenings this summer, in the park near the Gazebo, with children running and playing and adults relaxing and visiting — and all listening to live musical performances from the stage of the Gazebo!

Bill Farmer and Carol Palms are chairing a special committee of the Recreation Task Force to bring a variety of musical talent to the Gazebo for this Series. "The Manchester Gazebo Concerts" will be held for eight weeks, beginning Thursday June 15th and continuing until Thursday August 10th. The only break in this string of Thursdays will be the week of the Community Fair. The concerts will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will last between one and two hours.

The first Concert will feature the "Raisin Pickers" who will provide the music for a Community Square Dance. Join in the dancing or just relax and watch. Rich McMath of Ann Arbor will call square, circle and contra dances.

The rest of the schedule includes Maxton Bay and their "foot-stomping fiddle tunes, string snapping melodies and the sweetest harmonies this side of the River Raisin." Also "An Evening of Classical Music," the Manchester Community Band, The Sweet Adelines, Uncle Carl's Dulcimer Band, Mosher and Reynolds, Deborah Hinderer-Ruzinsky, the Napoleon Lion's Club Band, the Mike Berst Ensemble and MORE!

According to Bill Farmer, the Series will include "a healthy sampling of the area's local talent—each Thursday evening will provide a different slice of Manchester's musical pie."

And speaking of pie, the Recreation Task Force is looking for groups and organizations who might like to staff a refreshment stand for the concerts and make a little money for their group. If you would like more details about selling pop or lemonade, contact the RTF at 428-7722.

Business Prospects

Manchester Enterprise
September 30, 1988

It is very gratifying news to the Enterprise readers that merchants and tradesmen in the east predict that the long period of business depression is giving way and that already better times are felt. Our merchants who have been east buying goods say that the fall trade there is good. It does not seem like a boom, but gradual brightening up, and, consequently a steady and healthy growth.

Here in Manchester, we have reason to feel that better times will soon come; indeed, there is now a better feeling among businessmen. This may come from the confidence that with the improvements in progress, and to be made here, the laboring men and mechanics will find something for their idle hands to do, also that the trade lost in consequence of the conditions of the Southern Washtenaw mills, during the past few years, will soon be restored to them and with it an increase of patronage.

But this alone will not bring good times. In Ann Arbor and other cities the business men have formed an association and are making every effort to induce capital to come there by encouraging positions for the laboring men and merchants and their united efforts has already had a beneficial effect by restoring confidence and giving heart to the capitalists as well as to the mechanic. Such an organization would be a good thing for our village. Our merchants should follow the example set by their neighbors and use the columns of their village newspaper in advertising their wares and in lauding the efforts of those who strive to build up the village and increase the trade. It is acknowledged by all far seeing men that the newspaper is looked to as a representative of what the business of a village or a city is and by a liberal and judicious use of its columns, the prosperity of the municipality can be materially enhanced. Then let everyone of our merchants and manufacturers secure space in the columns of the Enterprise at once and see if their business will not be increased during the next twelve months. This cry of hard times should be stopped and with our united shoulders to the wheel, we can lift the business slow coach from the mire of despondency into which it has sunken and set it upon the broad road of prosperity. All we need is a little "try, try again."

Begin today, don't wait and our efforts will be crowned with success.

Discussion of Annexation Continues

Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

The Manchester Village Planning Commission continues to study the possibility of annexing the large parcel of land on the east side of M-52 at Austin Road and rezoning it. At last Tuesday's meeting, the discussion of this idea included a written presentation from Commissioner Susan Gleason and comments from Don Limpert on this subject.

Susan Gleason presented commission members and the audience with "Questions To Think About When Considering the Possible Annexation of the Parcel of Land East of M52 Across from the Industrial Park." The two pages of questions covered a range of concerns, such as "How much would the proposed zoning increase the population of the Village?" and "Will the increase in the tax base balance the cost of increased services?" Commissioner Gleason presented the thought that the proposed zoning might allow "too much growth over too short a time." She then questioned the effect the creation of another commercial district might have on the downtown business area.

All of Gleason's concerns took the form of questions, and the Commission decided to indi-dually consider these questions as part of their study of the annexation proposal. Each member will report back to the full Commission on their findings.

Chairman Robert Daveyman also read from a summary he had prepared of a meeting he and former Councilman Don Limpert held regarding this annexation proposal. Daveyman stated the meeting was "at Don's request" and reflected Limpert's "ideas and concerns regarding the recent annexation study under analysis by the Planning Commission."

According to Daveyman's summary, one of Limpert's concerns was the rezoning of part of this parcel as commercial. The summary stated Limpert "feels it fragments the business district. There are already three commercial districts and this would create a fourth." Limpert elaborated that the three in existence were the downtown area, the IGA area, and the northern (M-52 at Sharon Valley) area.

Commission Chairman Daveyman reiterated that the Commission is looking for ideas and input regarding this proposed annexation and again encouraged citizens, groups and organizations to make their thoughts known to the Commission.
