Leadership Awards

The Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, under the command of Sheriff Ronald J. Schehl, was among 27 law enforcement agencies honored Thursday, May 11, as part of the Michigan Coalition for Safety Belt Use third annual Leadership Awards Luncheon.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, who presented the awards on behalf of the Coalition, stated, "I appreciate the opportunity to recognize agencies that have shown a deep and abiding concern for saving lives on Michigan roads. Each of these agencies have dedicated themselves to public information and awareness campaigns that encourage every driver and passenger to buckle up."

According to Connie A. Soma, Coalition Executive Director, "the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department was recognized for a series of innovative programs designed to increase public awareness of the importance of safety belt use." The Department is involved with driver education classes in area schools and developed a "Scared Stiff" program for youth. A county-wide safety belt enforcement effort was initiated during the 1988 All America Buckle Up Week. Accepting the award on behalf of the Department was Undersheriff Michael Johnson.

Money Management

Not too long ago, houses almost seemed to sell themselves. But times have changed. During the first quarter of 1988, house prices fell in 90 of 61 markets nationwide. If you plan to sell your home in a buyer's market, the Michigan Association of CPAs suggests that you put a little extra muscle into the process.

The first step is to make sure that you price your home reasonably and objectively. When you look around your home, you may remember your first Thanksgiving there or that wonderful surprise party your friends threw for you. But a potential buyer will not view the home through your memories. To ensure your home is priced competitively, check the local registry of deeds for the actual sales figures of homes in your area. Alternately, you can consult a knowledgeable real estate agent.

Remember that your home is a product. In many ways, you have to market it as you would other commodities. Who is your target buyer? If you have a small, starter home, your home will appeal most to young professionals or older individuals looking to trade down to a smaller home. If you have a larger home with three or more bedrooms, you are more likely to attract baby boomers who are ready to build a family. Anticipating the type of persons who may buy your home can help you tailor the space to their needs and wants more effectively. No matter who your target buyer may be, you can improve your chances of successfully selling your home by improving its overall condition. If your home is clean and well maintained, the selling price is more likely to be near the top of the range. By contrast, if the outside paint is peeling, the floors are scratched and marred, your kitchen range shows evidence of every meal cooked during the last week and your pet's fur is evident in every corner, you will be lucky to find a buyer at all.

Remember, people want to move into a house that is clean, comfortable and in good shape. After all, most home owners are not eager to dive into a major fix-up and clean-up campaign. And others, who have sunk their last dollar into the down payments, simply won't be able to fund numerous repairs.

It need not take your life savings to get your house into selling shape. In fact, inexpensive fix-ups and clean-ups can literally add thousands of dollars to the value of your home.

First impressions are critical, so begin on the outside. You want people driving up to be eager—not afraid—to see the inside of your home. Trim your lawn, trees and shrubs. Paint your home's exterior, add a new door mat and wipe the scuff marks off the front door. Once inside, a prospective buyer or will usually make an instant sensory impression of the home. A dim room with distinct odors, such as tobacco smoke, fried foods or litter boxes, can turn a buyer off quicker than an inflated price. To make a positive impact, apply fresh paint to the walls. Try to stay with white or off-white. Neutral colors are acceptable to most people and make rooms seem more spacious. Be sure your windows are sparkling, floors are waxed and the carpeting clean. Change your light bulbs so they supply the highest wattage possible.

Pay particular attention to the kitchen and bathrooms, rooms that can make or break a sale. Your appliances should be clean and your countertops clear of unnecessary clutter. The same goes for your cabinets. If they are filled to the brim, a prospective buyer may assume that the cabinet space is inadequate.

In your living or family room, arrange furniture and accessories so that the impression is warm and comfortable. Similarly, the bedrooms should be inviting. And, yes, that does include your teenager's room. If the bedrooms are small, consider temporarily removing unnecessary pieces of furniture to create a more spacious feeling.

Do you have one of those closets that is so filled with junk you have to struggle to close the door? Before you put your home on the market, clear out all closets in your home and get rid of anything that is not needed. Adequate closet space is quite often a priority for home buyers.

Don't forget the attic and basement. These areas have a tendency to appear dark, dusty or just plain creepy. Do everything you can to alleviate this feeling. Add lights, clean windows and deodorize the area. And this might be just the time to get rid of the 10 years' worth of National Geographic you've accumulated.

Finally, try to create an appealing mood. For example, most people want a fireplace, so if your home has one, play it up. If the weather is at all conducive to a fire, by all means have one

Aliens Need Tax Clearance

Aliens preparing to leave the United States must contact the Internal Revenue Service, the agency said today.

"Resident and non-resident aliens must get a certificate of compliance before leaving the country," said IRS District Director John Hummel. He explained that the certificate, known as a departure or sailing permit, certifies that all US federal tax obligations have been satisfied.

That's why it's so important to get the clearance in advance," Hummel concluded. More information about the tax obligations of aliens is available in Publication 519, US Tax Guide for Aliens, or by calling the IRS toll free at 1-800-424-1040.

Individuals must file Form 1040C, US Departing Alien Tax Return, or Form 2063, US Departing Alien Tax Statement, with an IRS office to receive the sailing permit. They must bring all papers and documents related to their income and their stay in the U.S. This includes their passport or alien registration card, copies of US tax returns for the last two years with proof of payment, and a statement from each employer showing wages and tax withheld from January 1 of the current year to the date they are leaving.

"They should apply at least two weeks before they intend to leave," added Hummel. Recently in Detroit, a nonresident who was leaving the country was detained by the US Customs Service at Metro Airport because he did not have his clearance. The Immigration and Naturalization Service brought him downtown and one of our employees prepared his sailing permit for him. However, the delay caused him to have to reschedule his departure by two

Work Begins on Freeway

Work is under way on the final stretch of Michigan's 1,180 Interstate Freeway system. Ground-breaking ceremonies attended by State Transportation Director James P. Pitz, members of the State Transportation Commission and local officials started construction of 14 miles of I-69 between Charlotte and Lansing.

The freeway will open by the end of 1991, completing a $4.3 billion Michigan Interstate program that began in 1956.

The only other interstates to be completed are 7.9 miles of I-696 (Walter Reuther Freeway) in South Oakland County scheduled to open late this year and 10 miles of I-69 between East Lansing and Perry scheduled to open in 1990.

This year the Manchester High School S.A.A.D. Chapter included many members and was very involved in its focus of preventing drinking and driving. The following messages, sponsored by Curley Machined Produces, are mainly directed toward the class of 1989. Hopefully, our purpose will go beyond graduation and will stay with the students into adulthood. Let's keep everyone safe, so we may gather together again in our many class reunions. After all, Friends Are For Life!

SCHOOL DAYS

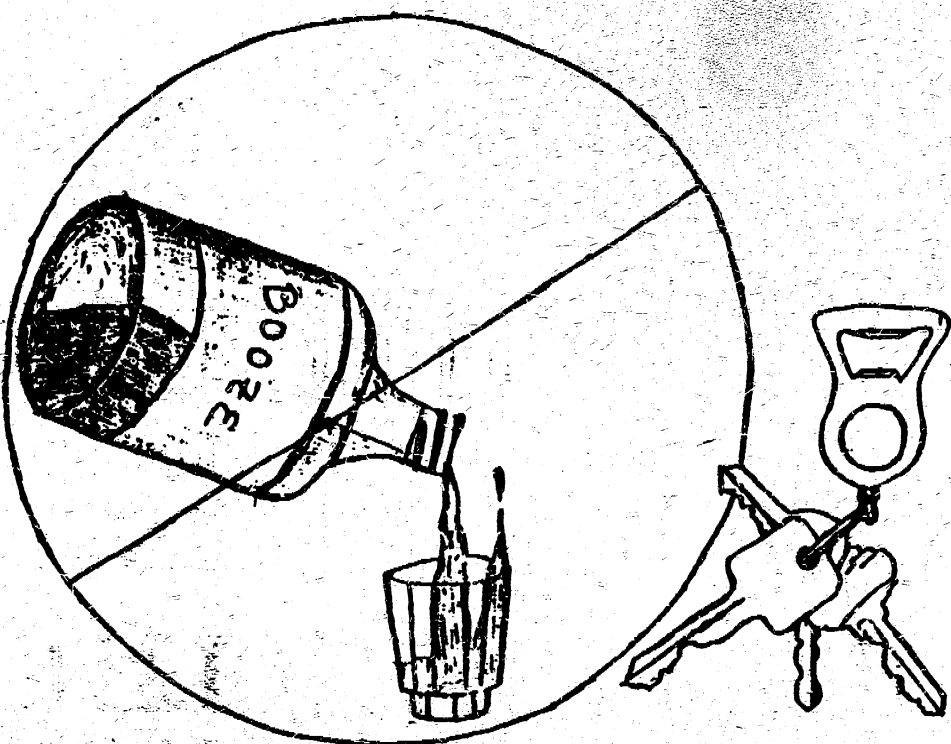

Amy Major

It can't be over yet,
For it seems like we just met.
We're back in elementary school,
Where no one dared to break a rule,
Then on to fifth grade we pressed,
Never stopping to take a rest.
Next seventh grade came upon us,
It was then we realized eighth was a must.
Now the move into the big school, High School!
Well we're here, we finally made it through.
Everyone's trying to look past a tear and ignore their feelings of blue.
This is unquestionably
The hardest thing that will ever be-
Because saying goodbye,
Always makes everyone cry.
Some will go off to serve the states,
Others will stay to find themselves mates.
Most are college bound,
But some feel the need to travel around.
We must remember all the fun we've had,
But with these times come the bad.
That's what made us all so close
And the friendships we shared were the most.
Now all those times have gone and passed,
1989 is the graduating class.
Look upon the past with fine memories
And remember school was never "just a breeze"
There's more fun on the way,
Meeting new people every day.
Hold your memories forever near your heart
And always play it smart.
"Never forget the old, but treasure the new!"
So, everyone, wherever you go
And whatever you do,
The best of luck to all of you.

For the graduating class of 1989

On behalf of the Manchester S.A.A.D. Chapter, I would like to thank the school administration, faculty, and community for making this year a great success. I would like to personally thank Mrs. Clark for taking the position of advisor. Thank you for your dedication.

Boysville Youths Help With Fun Run

On Friday, May 12, 1989, 22 Boysville youths met at Hudson Mills Metro Park, located near Dexter, to assist in the 2.5-3 Mile Fun Run sponsored by Washtenaw County Intermediate School District and the Wolverine Civitan Club of Ann Arbor. The youths cheered and helped monitor the run for well over 100 "Kids with Special Needs." This is the fourth year that Boysville has helped the emotionally, mentally, and physically handicapped students from all special education classes in Washtenaw County.

After the run, the Boysville youths and students had lunch and played softball. Despite the cold weather, it was an enjoyable time by all who participated.

Boysville of Michigan, established in 1948, is a non-profit Catholic agency, directed as a part of their ministry by the Brothers of Holy Cross. It offers a comprehensive range of treatment services for referring agencies including day care, latch key day care, in-home children and family service programs, specialized treatment foster care, short term shelter care, thirty day detention and assessment services, residential care including group homes and a chemical dependency treatment program to over 550 Michigan and Ohio youths on a daily basis.

Student Receives Recognition

that it was natural gas because they had been studying about it in school, but then she looked out the window and saw fire. She woke up her sister and her father. The fire marshal credits Jennifer's quick response for saving the family, their home was in flames in a matter of seconds.

School assemblies and classroom fire safety units taught Jennifer that she needed to remain calm and pay attention to what was happening around her. Klager Principal, Yvonne Henry, said "Every year the Manchester Fire Department visits Klager School and presents a safety assembly to all students. Brad Roberts, educational instructor from the Manchester Fire Department, shares safety tips on fire prevention and fire safety procedures at these assemblies. He even brings firemen with him that are dressed in complete "fire fighting" uniforms. Classroom teachers then enhance the assemblies by adding activities, discussions and videos. We are so thankful that Jennifer was a good listener at these assemblies and in the classroom."

The special recognition assembly was held on May 19 at Klager School. Assistant Fire Marshal, Gale Koebe, presented a certificate to Jennifer from the Manchester Fire Department. Superintendent Ron Niedzwiecki congratulated her and reminded all students of fire safety awareness. Also present was Jennifer's family, Sgt. Joseph Yekulis from the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department and Brad Roberts from the Manchester Fire Department. Jennifer is the daughter of Phillip Van Dop and Shelia Ritondale.

MHS Student Exchange

The following interviews were conducted by Nancy Krise's 11th grade Advanced Composition Class.

Among the group of German students who came to Manchester was Harold Wolpert who stayed with Melanie White and her family. Harold is a 15-year old who attends Michelsen school in Hildesheim. Harpid is the youngest in his family with a 21-year old brother and a 24-year old sister. Harold's father is a teacher in Germany. Harold has a part-time job as an instructor in table tennis and he enjoys volleyball and cross-country running. Harold has many views on America both positive and negative. He is in favor of the 18-year old driving age since it is 18 in Germany, but on the negative side he prefers food from back home. Overall, if he were given the choice again, he would gladly return to America.

Yvonne Jurgens is a 10th grader in the small town of Hildesheim, West Germany. She celebrated her 18th birthday on April 2nd with her host family, the Sahakians. Yvonne's hobbies include listening to music, swimming, reading, dancing, ice skating and horsebackriding. Yvonne belongs to a riding club and every day she rides her horses. She shows them on the weekends in jumping and dressage. When asked what she missed most about home, she said her family and friends, but she also missed the German food. She was surprised to find we put salt on our popcorn - they put sugar on it. She also disliked the commercials during shows on TV. In Germany, they have their commercials before and after but not during the shows. During her stay here Yvonne has seen many movies; her favorite, similar to many

American girls, is "Top Gun."

Maren Tscharnke is in the 11th grade, is 16 years old and lives in Harsum, Germany. She attends high school in Hildesheim. In her spare time she enjoys swimming, going to the movies and disco and jazz dancing. She has taken 7 years of English. Maren has 1 brother who is 13 years old. Her father is a doctor of medicine and her mother is a psychologist and housewife. Maren stayed with Kristie Johnson.

Lars Kunz is a 17-year old eleventh grade student from Germany. He is an only child who lives with his father, an insurance salesman, and mother, a housewife, in Hohenhameln. His hobbies include computers, cars, motor bikes and heavy-metal music. He works part-time tutoring math to young children and working on a farm. His plans are to graduate from high school and get a job. The things he liked most about the United States were the nice people, the late store hours and the many types of sports available at school. What he disliked most was the slow speed limit on the expressway. Lars was a guest at Melanie White's house.

Inge Bosse is a 17-year old German student who stayed with Rachel Zielinski. Inge is in the eleventh grade and enjoys playing handball, caring for her pets, reading and running. Inge has studied English for seven years and for the most part enjoys visiting America. She liked the big stores, the friendly people and the good atmosphere. She did not like questions and fast food. Inge lives on a farm in Hohenhameln and wants to be a veterinarian in the future. She has one brother, one sister, four cats, one dog and one bird. Inge missed the good food from Germany. Inge likes to listen to rock and roll and doesn't watch too much TV.

Angela Duerkop, a 16-year old German student is from Hildesheim. She attends Michelsen School and is in the 10th grade. She enjoys playing tennis, reading, listening to music and learning foreign languages. Angela has been studying English for 6 years. She comes from a small family and has one sister, Michaela. She lives on a farm consisting of 24 cows and many cats and dogs. She really enjoys animals. It was a long 12-hour flight to America. Angela was very nervous about her visit to the United States but said it took her no time at all to feel at home. She hopes to visit American again in the future. She found Americans to be open and very interesting. She had a good time and thoroughly enjoyed her 3 weeks at Sarah Corwin's house.

Christine Rawohl from Hildesheim, German is 17 years old and in the 11th grade. The city in which she lives has approximately 100,000 people. She has one brother and one sister. She has studied English for 6 1/2 years. During her visit to the United States she stayed with Lynn Marshall's family. Her only pets are two horses named Boy and Diabolo which are Hannoverians. She rides dressage on these two horses and also does a little jumping. Her dream is to own a large horse farm in the United States and have lots of foals because she thinks they are very cute and adorable. She is not sure about her future plans, but hopes it will have something to do with animals or nature. Christine really liked all of the shopping centers and cars we have here in the US. She thought it was very interesting to see the differences in the German and American cultures.

Almut Ziegenmeyer is a teacher from Germany. This is Mrs. Ziegenmeyer's first visit to the US. She came with her husband and daughter. They stayed with Frau Davis, the German teacher at MHS. Mrs. Ziegenmeyer has many hobbies. They include traveling, sports, theater. She has 3 children and lives in the city. Her favorite American foods are homemade lemon meringue pie, apple pie, blueberry pie and coleslaw. Mrs. Ziegenmeyer said that if she had the funds to come back to the US she would jump at the chance.

Stephanie Sandvoess is 16 years old and from Harsum, West Germany. Stephanie stayed with Kim Davis, the daughter of Milton and Kay Davis of Manchester. Stephi is in the 10th grade and enjoys speaking English. She has taken 6 years of English. Besides America, Stephanie has gone to Italy, France, Spain and Canada. During her stay in the US, Stephi enjoyed watching MTV and eating hot tacos. She sampled many foods, some of which she did not like including bread and school lunches. When she graduates she would like a job having to do with foreign languages, but she does not want to go to college because she is not fond of school.

Nicole Friedrich is a 17-year old 11th grader who stayed with Dawn Wenk's family. Some of her hobbies are horseback riding, reading, tennis and swimming. She works on a farm and tutors a 14-year old boy in Latin. She has taken English for 7 years. Nicole has many likes including the American people, peanut butter and radio broadcasting. Her favorite food in America was chips with dip. She disliked the poor road conditions in the US and the speed limits and didn't like all the commercials on TV. She lives in Lehrte, a city of about 40,000, and takes a 20-minute train ride from her home to school. She finds it interesting to talk to people and compare our two different countries and societies. Her goal is to receive her Abitur which is the highest degree one can receive in her high school.

Anke Engelke was one of 3 German students who stayed with Melanie White. She is 17 years old and in the 11th grade. Anke enjoyed the United States. She liked the many shopping malls, and how we can drive at the age of 16. Some of the things she disliked were the speed limit on the expressways and the American food. Anke is in the advanced high school. She has taken 6 1/2 years of English and plans to go to a university and study medicine. She enjoys listening to hard rock and vaulting in gymnastics.

Simone Schober lives in Giesen, Niedersachsen in West Germany. Simone is in the 10th grade and is 16. She enjoys music, reading, writing, jazz, gymnastics and swimming. Simone enjoyed bowling and baseball while she was in the US. She found the US very interesting. One thing she liked was the driving age at 16; it gives American teenagers a better chance to get around. Simone was concerned with the way we eat, always eating cake and chips. Simone attends a public school of about 750 students, ranging from 7-12th grade. Simone stayed with Rachael Johnson. Oliver Suchy is an only child and lives in the town of Hildesheim in the state of Niedersachsen, Germany. He is 17 years old and in the 11th grade. He likes some events in track and also enjoys bicycling and motorcycling. Oliver has had 6 1/2 years of English, 1 year of French and 4 years of Latin. Some of the things he liked about America were the school sports programs, fast food such as Taco Bell, and the niceness of the people in this town. The things he disliked were the school's leniency on students and thinks that we don't learn as much as in Germany; he doesn't like sugary food or cold pizza. Probably the most interesting thing that he has noticed was that most houses in American are made of wood whereas in Germany most are made of stone, also that we have skyscrapers and he does not see many of these in Germany. Oliver was hosted by Jenny Okey.

Fishing Festivals

The catch of the day could net lucky anglers buckets of prize money at summer fishing festivals, AAA Michigan notes.

How large a bucket anglers might need to cart away the cash depends on the festival.

But prize money is not the only lure. Parades, carnivals, musical entertainment and fish fries draw countless visitors to the festivals.

Some of the 87 tournaments listed on the AAA Michigan Fishing Festival Guide have established cash awards. For example:

* A special tagged bass is worth $10,000 at the Budd Lake Fishing Derby near Harrison, July 15.

* The largest creel catch at the Triple Crown Fishing Tournament in Tawas City, June 17-18, lands the winner $2,000.

* First prize in the 1989 Lake Erie Walleye Derby during June and July is $2,500.

Other tournaments offer cash prizes depending on the number of entries with proceeds split among the top finishers. Those without cash prizes award merchandise, ribbons or trophies.

Non-anglers can get hooked on the sport during Michigan's fourth annual Free Fishing Weekend, June 10-11. State residents and visitors may fish the Great Lakes or inland waters without a fishing license on those days.

Various related events are scheduled during the free weekend, including the Carp Carnival near Jackson, the Lake Charlevoix Trout Tournament, and the Lake Linden-Hubbell Fishing Derby in the Keweenaw Peninburning. Fresh flowers in the bedroom add a nice touch. In the kitchen, a basket filled with fresh lemons or some freshly baked muffins on a counter can invoke that homey feeling that helps turn a looker into a buyer.

There's even a tax benefit to fixing up your house before a sale. Remember, any profit that you realize upon selling your home can be taxed if you do not reinvest the gain in a home of equal or greater value. However, you can reduce the amount of the gain by subtracting from your home's the sale of your home you buy another home that costs at least as much, you may defer paying taxes on the profit. And home sellers who are 55 years old or older and have lived in their home for at least three of the last five years, are allowed a one-time exclusion of $125,000 on the taxable gains from the sale of their principal residence.

300 Club

The winner of the Manchester Firefighter's 300 Club drawing for May 27 was Doug Flint with ticket number 048.

Rest Area Opens

Michigan's 84th freeway rest area is opening on southbound US-131 three miles south of Big Rapids.

The rest area was developed on a heavily wooded, 80-acre site and includes several picnic areas, and attractive brick restroom building and a plaza providing information on subjects ranging from emergency services to area motels and restaurants. There are separate parking areas for trucks and cars.

Landscape architects for the portation took advantage of the natural terrain and provided for a viewing platform and plans for flower plantings and a nature trail.

Besides the freeway rest areas, Michigan's highway system includes 90 roadside parks and 40 scenic viewing sites. Together, they attract more than 50 million visitors a year.

Gazebo Concert Series Begins

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

When the Mill burned down in July of 1924, the fire took with it the town gazebo, more often called "The Bandstand," which was put up near the Main Street bridge twice a week for band concerts.

And now, 65 years later, our new Gazebo will be the site of the Manchester Gazebo Concerts, a summer series of weekly performances for the young and old alike in our community, beginning next Thursday, June 15, at 7:00 p.m. The series is sponsored by the Manchester Recreation Task Force.

In 1987, the Manchester Area Historical Society presented the Village with this new gazebo, situated in Wurster Park, across from St. Mary's Church. But once erected, it took some time to prove itself useful.

Finally we all shall discover what a pleasant tradition the old-timers experienced when they were young and enjoyed concerts at a gazebo!

Next Thursday's "Opening Night" act will be a Community Square Dance. And the organizers stress, "No experience is necessary!...It's easy!...All dances will be taught!...And no partner is necessary!" Come to dance - or come just to listen and watch.

The music will be provided by the "Raisin Pickers", with Rich MacMath from Grass Lake, as the caller. Mr. MacMath, with twelve years experience, has been the featured caller at WDET Folk Festival and the Pittsfield Grange Hall Dances. He will teach the basic steps for square, circle and contra dances.

For you "watchers," bring a lawn chair or blanket, perhaps even a picnic snack, and be comfortable. The music will be fine. But beware: you just may be tempted to join in a do-si-do and an allemande left!

IF IT SHOULD RAIN (and it seems we must seriously consider that possibility this year), the show will go on at a rain location nearby. That location is yet to be finalized but will be clearly posted if necessary.

The following week, on June 22, Maxton Bay "sails" in. Mark Palms, Carol Wells Palms, and Sheila Warner will present "dynamite vocals complimented by banjo, mandolin, guitar, fiddle, cello and bass."

Maxton Bay performs in music festivals and coffeehouses throughout Michigan, including Southfield's "Concerts-in-the-Garden," the World Friendship Shell in Bay City, Gaylord's Alpenfest, the Rogers City Nautical Festival and the Ark in Ann Arbor.

Each Thursday for the rest of the summer, through August 10th, with the exception of Fair Week, the concerts will continue. The complete schedule can be seen on the posters in store windows around town. What better way can there be to spend a Thursday evening this summer?

Circa 1920 - The bandstand was put up near the bridge every Wednesday and Saturday nights.

Michigan Center and Wolf Lake

Manchester Enterprise October 20, 1987

In conversation with Col. Wheeler, one of the proprietors of Wildwood Cottage, at Wolf Lake, also of the steamer Wildwood, which has successfully plied the waters that beautifully lake the past season, we learned that the project of connecting Michigan Center pond with the chain of lakes by widening and deepening the channel connecting them, so that their steamer could pass through, has had some attention from the proprietors, but it would demand a considerable outlay of money to accomplish it. The right of way would have to be secured from the farmers along the route, two or three bridges would have to be raised or so arranged that the boat could pass them and the channel there would have to be deepened.

There is no doubt that should it be done the place could be made a popular and well patronized resort, not only from the Jackson people, but for people all along the Michigan Central railroad and throughout the central part of the state.

Wolf Lake is one of the most elevated sheets of water in Central or Southern Michigan. The water from the chain flows in two directions, east and west, into the Grand and Raisin rivers. There is splendid fishing there and the scenery is fine. A new hotel will probably be erected at the old Tooker landing the coming season, and Charley Aken talks of improving his property on the north side in the spring.

One of the prettiest sights for a hotel, and most accessible, is on the north side of Alcott Lake. There is a 80-acre grove and one of the finest landings on the lakes. The grounds belong to A. P. Cook, of Brooklyn, and can be bought at a reasonable figure and we believe if the right party was to put up a hotel there that they would have the finest resort in the country.

Hog Island, in Big Wolf Lake, is another splendid place for a hotel, picnic grounds and cottages. It is near by Napoleon and thus easily accessible to the wagon road or cars. In time they may be all improved and then people will be obliged to go to Potoskey or the seashore to pass the heated term.

A Candlelight Recital

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

The candles glowed warmly and sweetly during the blackout last Wednesday night when about 20 young piano students presented their Spring Recital at the Methodist Church in that quiet, gentle light.

The youngsters are all pupils of Susan Gleason, and the "show" went on in spite of the weather! Certainly a prettier show there could not have been.

Two large floor-stand candlelabra stood on either side of the piano. Each held seven candles. On top of the piano was another large candlelabra as well as several single candlesticks. The glow was soft and muted and provided a perfect atmosphere for the performances.

The selections performed ranged from short, simple folk songs to longer, more complicated contemporary pieces. These reflected the skills and experience of the children, who ranged in age from eight through mid-teens. There was a single departure from the piano performances: a student on trombone performed as well!

So while the thunder crashed and the lightning flashed, and the sky looked a bit too green for the second night in a row, the children strained and concentrated to make their performances the best they could be.

And by the gentle glow of candles, the audience of family and friends was calmed and charmed by a very lovely recital indeed.
