Building Trades Open House - Sunday June 11

The handwork of forty-nine juniors and seniors from Chelsea, Dexter, Manchester, Milan and Saline will be on display Sunday, June 11. Two attractive houses have been constructed during the past school year near Chelsea and Saline. The Chelsea project is a 2000-plus square foot, three bedroom, one and one-half story house located in Belsar Estates, 1326 Provincial Drive on the east side of Chelsea. Interested visitors should take Old US-12 to Freer Road and drive north approximately one mile. Students from Saline, Milan and Manchester were in charge of the Saline project which is a 2000-plus square foot colonial, featuring four bedrooms, two baths and two half baths. The house is located at the west entrance to Mallard Cove just off Textile Road (1429 White Swan Lane.) Both projects will be open to the public on Sunday, June 11, from 1-4 p.m.

36th Annual Chicken Broil July 20, 1989

The date is Thursday, July 20, 1989. The place is the Old Manchester Athletic Field. The time is 4:00 p.m. Come one, come all, bring your family and friends. While planning for each annual broil begins after the last one, committee members are swinging into high gear making ready for this year's event. On Monday night, following the Manchester Optimist club's yearly dinner honoring the committee chairman, committee leaders met to make plans for another smooth flowing broil.

It is most interesting to note that the six hundred-plus member, all-male crew, is divided into 31 committees. Some of these groups consist of members of the same family that have made it a family tradition to help in a particular area. Many include three generations, the senior member having been a part of the original Chicken Broil back in 1964. Ron Mann, a second-generation volunteer, is co-chairman of the doings along with Gene Bentschneider. Ron states that while it seems that the number of people already assigned a job is large, there is room for new volunteers. He has asked that anyone who knows of someone not currently working on a fact of the Broil be encouraged to do so. Even if somebody doesn't ask and you want to join the fun, contact any Broil committee member or an Optimist, they'll find a job for you.

By the way, tickets are ready and should be picked up at the Sutton Agency.

How Foreigners View America

New World As Seen Through Eyes Of German On Visit To This Country

A German traveling for the first time in the United States usually is biased. His head is filled - as was mine - with some vague ideas of cold American efficiency, of eternally rolling dollars and of a repulsive matter-of-factness in the new world.

At a first glimpse of New York harbor these thoughts are shattered and give way to a feeling of surprise mixed with admiration, writes Herman Struck in Die Woche. In the mist of morning, the Statue of Liberty emerges from the water like a figure in a fairy tale. The friendly French republic sent that colossal monument to the young United States. In violet and gray a dreamlike picture stretches before the eyes of the newcomer; an image of overwhelming strength; the unforgettable silhouette of New York's skyscrapers.

Cathedrals and temples, ancient buildings, Gothic buildings, new houses according to Athenian style, then in the manner of Venice - any style of any age or nation may be found in New York. The German stands helplessly as he views one American building after another.

His eyes wander over architectural lines of great audacity and follow the stone masses into unthought-of distances. Mountains of stone cover like eternal Alps the earth crust on Manhattan Island. Minute little human beings are crowding each other between the stone masses.

Almost stumbling over one another in their mad chase for dollars, the New York Americans, in fact, all Americans are not very different from other people in other countries. The chief difference is that in America people do not cover up their money making activities, but go about them quite frankly.

The broadness of American business life and the apparently unlimited development of technology in the United States cannot but fill us old-fashioned Europeans with the highest admiration.

We must not forget that the matter-of-fact American also produced Washington, Lincoln and men like Ralph Waldo Emerson and Walt Whitman. The love of art in the big country without ruins and without traditions is growing very very steadily.

We may recognize that fact while we sit in the magnificent Metropolitan Opera House at New York (where the wives of millionaires in their boxes exhibit their treasures of diamonds and pearls) or in the museums and private collections of the big American cities. Carnegie's foresight covered, in restless energy, the entire country with public libraries.

Another fact that astonishes us in the opportunity every American

Sannes Receives Optimist Award

The Optimists awarded the honor of Outstanding Student for the month of March to Shelly Sannes. Shelly is the daughter of Sandy and Dennis Sannes. She is a senior and has been an Honor Roll student since 9th grade and a member of the National Honor Society since her sophomore year. Shelly has participated in SAID since 10th grade and is 1989 vice-president. She has been a member of the English Academic Games Team since 10th grade and is currently captain. This year Shelly joined the Flag Corps and in 1987 she was a Medical Explorer. She also participated in the U of M German Day Competition in both 10th and 12th grades. Shelly has studied ballet for 8 years and plans to attend either Michigan, Michigan State or Kalamazoo for studies in pre-med.

Headlee Override Defeated

On June 12, 1989, the residents of the Manchester Community Schools voted on two millage propositions and two vacancies on the School Board.

The Proposition to waive the Headlee Amendment and levy the maximum authorized millage was not approved with 447 No votes to 248 Yes votes. The Washtenaw Intermediate School District request to issue bonds in the amount of 8.6 million dollars was approved by the residents of the Washtenaw County with 9,388 Yes votes and 8,474 No votes.

The proposition in Manchester School District received 236 Yes votes and 455 No votes.

Stanley Gilbert was elected to a four-year term with 361-votes. Joseph Tirk received 248 votes.

Stanley Gilbert was elected to a one-year term, running unopposed and receiving 525 votes.

Square Dancin' At The Gazebo

Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

The curtain is rising - on the premiere performance of the Gazebo Concert Series!

This Thursday, June 15th, stroll down to the Gazebo, across from the Library, for a Community Square Dance. Once you're there, you'll have a choice: you can simply make yourself comfortable and sit, watch and enjoy the music - or you can join in, with a "do-si-do!"

No judgements will be made. It is perfectly appropriate to spread out a blanket or set up your lawn chair to simply watch. On the other hand, it will be both fun and exhilarating to learn some new steps and dance and to practice some old ones! How long has it been since you square danced? And have you ever contra danced or circle danced?

Rich MacMath, a veteran dance caller, will easily teach you any and all steps you don't know. Inexperience will not serve as an excuse. Neither will not having a partner. There will be plenty of people there so that once the dancing begins, everyone will have partners.

The music will be provided by the "Raisin Pickers," who by all accounts are a "grape bunch" of musicians.

Next Thursday, June 22nd, will be the second concert at the Gazebo. Maxton Bay, a renowned trio who perform throughout Michigan at festivals and fairs, will present their lively fiddle tunes with sweet and intricate melodies and harmonies. Maxton Bay's members are Mark Palma, Carol Wells Palma, and Sheila Warner, thus allowing Manchester to rightfully boast with family pride as these area residents play for their fellow townfolk.

What a nice habit to get into: Thursday evenings at the Gazebo. Each week a new opportunity to enjoy the best music around right on our own stage in Manchester. For this week: take it easy or jump right in. Either way, prepare to enjoy yourself!

Children get ready - it's time for the summer reading club at the Manchester Township Library!

The theme this year is "Reach for the Stars." All children who can read are eligible to participate. Children may report on books during regular library hours beginning June 12. August 26 will be the last day of the club.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteers are needed to help cut up trees at the Oak Grove Cemetery Saturday, June 24, beginning at 8:00 a.m. Bring your own chain saw.

Awards Assembly

Senior Citizens News

Grasp the gizmo in your left hand. I awakened and glanced at the thingamajog gathering dust on the dresser and wondered where we went wrong. This nationally advertised dish antenna (for little cost) was carefully assembled by meticulous husband after a delay in shipping of six weeks due to heavy demand. You are probably thinking "Why not hook up the small black and white set to your existing antenna?" Answer: "Movability to escape hubby's addiction to car racing, travelogues and wrestling. It worked, right? Wrong, and I felt like grasping that gizmo in both hands and aiming at the moon. If you were also "A sucker born every minute" or "There's nothing like an old fool," etc., please let me know if you work. If my smart Alec brother asks "What's that thing?", I'll hit him.

Senior activities are slowing down now that the meal program is on hold until September. There is still room on the bus for the trip planned to the Belleville Strawberry Festival on Saturday, June 17. Departure time will be 9:00 a.m. Call Erma Alber at 428-8707 to go along.

Monday, June 19: Shopping at Arborland with the bus leaving the Center at 9:30 a.m. Good chance to socialize and maybe get a bargain or two - seniors say they never know what's around that next corner. Call Erma.

Wednesday, June 21: Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting at noon (had it a week early in the paper). Call Rubena Boelter to accompany her at 428-8666.

Thursday, June 22: Bus will begin pickup at 6:30 p.m. to go to Pleasant Lake and the Freedom Township Hall for the monthly senior sponsored card party. This fun night begins at 8:00 p.m., come and play with the masters of the game of Euchre. You are all invited for an evening of fellowship and light refreshments at a small fee.

A trip to the Eastern Market will be held on June 27. Get your reservation in to Erma.

Historical Society Hosts An Old-Fashioned Picnic

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

Members and friends of the Manchester Area Historical Society will enjoy their Annual Picnic, potluck style, on the banks of the River Raisin at the beautiful Sharon Mill next Monday, June 19th. The Society warmly invites members and anyone who has an interest in or curiosity about the Historical Society or Manchester history to join in - beginning at 6:30 sharp!

Besides the "best lemonade ever" and a delicious assortment of entrees, salads and desserts, this year's Picnic will include two special features:

First, the Manchester Community Band will be attending and after dinner will perform a rousing set of high energy band music with a wide variety of tunes from "Yankee Doodle Dandy" to "Woodchoppers Ball." (Plus a lot in between - jazz, gospel, waltzes, show tunes and polkas!) The Band consists of your friends and neighbors, young and old. And this, their first "open-air performance," should be a delight.

Also, Lillian Martin, owner of the Sharon Mill and of the Winery housed therein, has offered to provide a tour of the Winery and of the new Champagne Room for those assembled. Just seeing this beautiful building and hearing about it from Mrs. Martin will be a treat. And the information about wines and champagnes certainly will be fascinating. Please bring a dish to pass and your own place settings. Beverages will be provided. Also this year, Mrs. Martin has arranged for the tables and chairs from the Mill to be set up, so it will not be necessary to bring lawn chairs as in years past.

This is the end-of-the-year event for the Historical Society since meetings are not held in the summer. It is a chance to socialize with dear friends and perhaps meet someone new, to enjoy an excellent meal, and to celebrate the riches of our community, both those historical and those which will be a part of the future. And we're all invited!

Birth Announcement

Local Runners Take Honors

With over 3,700 runners from far and wide competing in the 16th annual Dexter-Ann Arbor Run, a number of Manchester runners were among those receiving honors for their outstanding performances.

In the women's half marathon (13.1 miles), Charlotte Major finished 4th in the 40-44 age group, and 5th among all women competing in the masters division. Her time of 1:39:24 was 56th overall among 211 women competitors in the half marathon. Char received an L.B. Remsen commemorative pottery plaque for her excellent finish.

In the women's 10k (6.2 miles), Beth Mutchler placed 4th in the 35-39 age group with a time of 47:26. Beth also received a plaque at the awards ceremony for her efforts. Her overall finish was 62nd among 756 female competitors. Deedee Greiner missed the top five in her tough 25-29 age group, but had the best time among the local women runners with a 45:29, good for 40th overall.

In his first Dexter-Ann Arbor 10k ever, 12-year-old Brandon Woods took top honors in the men's 13 and below age group with an excellent 1st place time of 41:57. Brandon received a large commemorative mug as well as the congratulations of race officials. His time placed him 234th out of a total of 1,561 male 10k runners.

Jamie and Benji Winzenz took 1st and 2nd place honors respectively in the men's 14-17 age group for the 10k. The two 15 year olds moved up to the top spots from last year's 5th and 8th place finishes. Jamie's time of 35:52 (also tops among local runners) put him in 49th place overall while Benji's time of 37:47 took 81st. Jamie received a large commemorative mug, while Benji received a smaller version of the L.B. Remsen keepsake.

Other local runners competing in the annual event, their times, and order of finish are listed below. A hearty congratulations go to all for an excellent effort.

Local Students Awarded Music Scholarships

Local students of Manchester Middle School awarded music scholarships at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp for summer study were Ryan Marshall Haskins and Nicole Gero.

Music scholarships are awarded by Marshall Music Company of Lansing to those students deemed most worthy based on musicianship, citizenship and musical achievement, as determined by the school music staff and school administration. Marshall Music Company annually gives over three hundred scholarships to students in schools serviced by the firm throughout the state. Each scholarship is in the amount of $195.00. Students participate in concentrated sectional and large group studies along with other outstanding student musicians from throughout the state. They also have the opportunity to play under the direction of nationally known conductors.

Surplus Foods

Federal Surplus Foods will be distributed from the Manchester United Methodist Church, 501 Ann Arbor Street, on Friday, June 23, from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

Lifeline Program Receives United Way Grant

The Chelsea United Way has provided a one-time grant of $8,500 to the Chelsea Community Hospital Lifeline Program. These funds will be used to purchase additional Lifeline units for area residents.

Lifeline is the emergency response system which enables those who are elderly, handicapped or at medical risk to call for assistance, even if they cannot reach their telephone. The system is designed to provide fast response to emergency situations by sending a signal to the Chelsea Community Hospital Emergency Room. The Lifeline subscriber simply presses the "Help" button worn as a pendant or on a wrist strap. The Emergency Room is alerted through the phone system and sends help immediately.

Lifeline allows people who live alone the independence and security of staying in their own homes with the knowledge that emergency assistance is available when they need it. It also provides peace of mind to families who worry about their relatives living alone. Lifeline is available from Chelsea Community Hospital for $16 per month. Installation and service are provided at no additional cost.

Thanks to the generosity of the Chelsea United Way, there are now more Lifeline units available to people who need them. To order a Lifeline or to learn more about the program, call Kris Hora in the Social Work Department at 475-9957.

3 New Grandsons

Luke and Barb Schaible of Manchester welcome the birth of three new grandsons: Nicholas Jacob Wahl born April 18, 1989, weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. and was 20 1/2 inches long. Proud parents are Steve and Carol Wahl of Clinton and paternal grandparents are Alwen and Glenna Wahl of Clinton.

Matthew Ryan Meagher was born June 2, weighed 7 lbs. 11 oz. and was 21" long. He is the son of Bob and Joan Meagher of Ann Arbor. Paternal grandparents are Gary and Betty Meagher of East Haven, Connecticut.

Gregory Michael Schaible was born June 5th. He weighed 8 lbs. 2 oz and was 19 1/2 long. Mike and Diane Schaible of Manchester are the proud parents. Maternal grandparents are Joe and Dorothy Ottoman of Chelsea.

can has to learn in any fine university whatever he wishes to know.

Washington is a beautiful and comfortable city of officials which reminds a bit of European capitals. New York is the center of business life and Boston is a calm and dignified intellectual center. Dark factories are towering - characteristic of American business spirit - near the white falls of Niagara. Like the silhouette of a medieval castle, the mass of Chicago skyscrapers appears on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Only one beauty so familiar to the German is lacking in American cities; the parks, though big and traversed by the best motor car roads, cannot be compared with those of European cities. Garden-like lovely flower beds of artistic composition are hardly ever found in them.

Demand, Get Leaner Beef

Consumer demand for leaner ground beef and table cuts with less external fat has changed the beef market, according to Michigan Farm Bureau livestock specialist Kevin Kirk. Responding to that demand means increased processing services are being performed to supply leaner, higher valued beef cuts.

"More value added processes are shifting from retailers to packers because of widely adopted box beef technology, reduced transportation costs, and economies of processing and marketing fat, trim and bone," Kirk said. "Because more trimming is taking place before retail sale, fewer pounds of the new, leaner beef can be sold per carcass. Therefore, the price per pound is higher.

Katie Miller in Hong Kong

A week of anxious waiting ended Monday morning when Katie Miller, daughter of Bob and Lilli Miller, called from the safe port of Hong Kong. Conflicting reports of departure plans with no real news had led many friends and family to be quite concerned. Katie reported that she left the university in Chang Chun reluctantly and her students didn't want her to leave. However, she followed the advice of the U.S. Consulate in Sheenyang to leave, but hopes she may be able to return when school resumes in the fall.

For the time being, Katie plans to seek work in either Hong Kong or Japan while waiting for the outcome of the political situation in China. Katie also hopes to visit Mari Yabuki, a former exchange student from Japan who lived with the Miller's and graduated with Katie from Manchester High School in 1984. The Miller's want to thank the many good friends who remembered Katie in prayer.

How phone repair problems become

"No problem."

Our "No Problem" Protection Policy. Phone repair trouble starts with a capital T. In the first place, you're responsible not only for problems with your telephone sets but the telephone wiring inside your house as well. And the cost of a Michigan Bell service call if the trouble is not in our outside line starts at $41.00.

Of course, there's a better way to protect yourself against phone repair problems and unexpected repair bills...Line-Backer maintenance service. Your Phone, A Loaner, And More. Michigan Bell Line-Backer maintenance service with phone option starts with replacement phone set protection. If your set ever needs repair, we'll loan you a single-line set for up to 60 days while you arrange to get yours repaired.

But there's more for even fewer worries. We also cover repair problems with telephone wiring inside your home.* And, you get diagnostic service at no charge and no charge for service calls.

The cost for all of this protection? $2.50 per month per line with a one-time start-up charge of just $4.95 per line.**

How About A Little Less Line-Backer Service?

One, of course, that still delivers a lot. The only difference between this service and the one we just told you about is that there's no free loaner phone. But, you still get no charge diagnostic service, inside wiring repair, and service calls. The price of a little less? $1.50 per month per line with a one-time start-up charge of $4.95 per line.**

Make your phone wiring repair problems "no problem" with Line-Backer maintenance service... with or without the free loaner phone option. You can start getting this coverage (and peace of mind) by calling the toll-free numbers listed below. Residence customers: 1 800 452-8053, Ext. 687 Business customers: 1 800 445-5MBT, Ext. 702

*Except malicious damage. **Rates effective May 1, 1989. Telephone numbers at the same premises billed on the same account will have the same maintenance plan and associated costs automatically assigned for each eligible number. †Trademark of Indiana Bell.

Seal Will Identify Michigan's Finest Products

Consumers will soon find it easy to spot top-quality Michigan products and services.

Governor James J. Blanchard unveiled the new Michigan Premium Program to promote the state's finest food and agricultural products at the Fourth Annual Governor's Conference on Agriculture in February.

A prestigious gold seal will be awarded to products that pass standards even tougher than existing federal or contemporary standards, so consumers can easily identify the "cream of Michigan's crops."

"The Premium Program not only encourages producers, growers and retailers to produce and sell excellent products, it also helps consumers recognize the finest products Michigan has to offer," said MDA Director Paul Kindinger. "Michigan Premium works as a marketing advantage for the industry, as well as a means of quality control for the benefit of domestic and international consumers."

Introduction of the new

Michigan Premium Program will feature television public service announcements starring former Michigan State University basketball star Earvin (Magic) Johnson, discussing excellence and the importance of quality. Point of sale materials will also be used to identify Michigan Premium Products at the retail level.

The distinctive gold seal was designed by artists from the Lawler Ballard Advertising Agency, which was awarded a three-year contract with MDA in December.

The seal design is simple, elegant and expresses quality in a unique way. The seal is not representative of a specific segment of the food and agriculture community, instead it signifies excellence from the entire industry.

Inaugural participants in the Premium Program include asparagus, sausage and ground meats, individually quick frozen cherries, Christmas trees and eggs. Industry representatives received a plaque at the Conference signed by Governor Blanchard and Director Kindinger.

Producers of blueberries, dried beans, celery, maple syrup, apples, pickles, wine, onions, bedding plants, fresh meats, sugar, potatoes, seed wheat and herbs are working with MDA to develop standards and hope to join the program during 1989.

A special Premium Program toll-free line has been established to answer inquiries about the program. The number is: 1-800-874-8555.

CARD Reports Available

The latest MFB Commodity Activities and Research Department report is now available to all Farm Bureau members, The Practical Economics of "Read My Lips: No New Taxes."

The report provides economic research on a number of fiscal policy issues as it deals with the U.S. federal budget deficit. A discussion is also included on the final report of the National Economic Commission and its recommendations. The report is part of MFB's ongoing efforts to support the No to More Taxes campaign.

Two other research reports also available are Dealing With Unfilled Commodity Contracts Due to the 1988 Drought and Dairy Industry Today: Events and Activities that Affect Dairy Policy.

You can request one, or all, of the reports free of charge by contacting the department at 1-517-323-7000, extension 2022.

Here's what to do if your car breaks down

- Pull off the road as far to the right as possible.
- Turn on emergency warning flashers immediately.
- Stay with the car.
- Lift the hood.
- Tie a white cloth on the door handle nearest the traveled lane to signal help.
- Keep a roll of dimes and list of emergency phone numbers in your glove box.
- If you belong to an auto club, always carry your membership card.
- If stranded outside Michigan, check the local white pages for the nearest service station.
- If someone stops to help, do not accept a ride but ask the good Samaritan to phone for help.
- At night, set flares behind the car to warn others.
- A CB radio can help in a hurry. Use Channel 9 for help.
- A cellular phone enables you to make emergency calls for yourself.

Clip and put in your glove box. 1989 AAA

Safe Drivers Get Best Insurance Rates

An estimated 25,000 driver education students statewide will learn how safe driving can reap big savings, AAA Michigan reports.

This summer, AAA Michigan safety education consultants will conduct high school driver education programs in over 100 school districts telling students safe driving habits are the best way to keep car insurance rates as low as possible.

"Our consultants will show students there is a high cost associated with drinking and driving, speeding and accidents," said Robert V. Cullen, AAA Michigan's Safety and Traffic manager. "We want students to know that they can exercise some control over the cost of their insurance."

Teenage drivers have the highest insurance rates of all age groups because they are involved in a higher percentage of accidents compared with other drivers, Cullen said. Recent statewide statistics indicate that high school students make up 8 percent of Michigan's drivers, but are involved in nearly 10 percent of the fatal accidents. Also, they are involved in 13 percent of all fatal accidents in which alcohol is cited as a primary cause.

The program will compare rates of a typical teenager with no accidents or violations with a driver who has received speeding tickets, is cited for drinking while driving or has been involved in a traffic accident.

Following the first at-fault traffic accident, a 10 percent surcharge could be added to the cost of the premium, the second at-fault accident in a 3-year period could add 60 percent to the premium cost. Additional accidents or tickets will continue to increase the policy premium.

Consultants also will explain how Michigan's no-fault insurance law works, including a summary of mandatory and optional coverages.

Workshop Set for Tavern

The nineteenth century art of theorem painting will be demonstrated from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 18, at the Walker Tavern Historic Complex in Cambridge State Park just outside Cambridge Junction.

Retha Easterlin of Brooklyn will demonstrate theorem painting, which was used primarily to illustrate landscapes, animals, flowers and fruit. Although it is considered painting, theorem painting does not require a brush. Instead, a hand-sized piece of wool (flannel is wrapped around the artist's forefinger, dipped into oil-based paint and lightly dabbed, one color atop another, onto the velvet canvas.

Theorem painting was an ancient oriental art that eventually became popular in England, and was imported to the U.S. in the early 1800's. Theorem painting was taught to young women in New England finishing schools during the nineteenth century. Lucy Walker, wife of original Walker Tavern owner Sylvester Walker, may have learned theorem painting during her formal education in New York.

Once a popular stagecoach stop between Detroit and Chicago, the 80-acre Walker Tavern Historic Complex (circa 1825-1861) includes the restored tavern, a modern visitor center, and an 1840's-era barn. Walker Tavern is open daily from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. There is no admission charge to the museum, although there is a fee to park vehicles in the adjacent state park.

Father's Day June 18

Father's Day has become such an important occasion in the United States that American families are expected to spend more than one billion dollars this year on gifts for dad. Have you ever wondered how this popular day honoring dad got its start?

Father's Day was the brain-storm of a grateful daughter, Mrs. John Dodd, who wanted to honor her father for his devotion and kindness in rearing six motherless children. Thanks to her efforts, Father's Day was first celebrated in 1910 in Spokane, Washington.

Now, on the third Sunday in June, countless ties will be unwrapped, shaving lotions uncorked and robes proudly hung in closets.

Even with all the options, shopping for dad can still be tough. Here's one thought that you might find comforting though: if you were the child of an African Dinka tribesman, dad would be anxiously awaiting the moment when he can receive the one "perfect" present from his son: the skin of the first lion the young man kills!

College Preparation Class

Washtenaw Community College is offering a new class to help prepare students for college. The course is called Student Success Seminar and is open to any interested student whether or not they plan to attend W.C.C. This course will help students learn what is needed to become a successful college student. Areas covered will include how to develop study habits, how to use library resources, how to plan your career, and how to set your goals.

Beginning Monday, June 19, the course will continue for seven weeks until July 31. It will be held at the Western Regional Center at 134 W. Middle Street in downtown Chelsea. To apply or to learn more information call the Western Regional Office at 475-5025.

Wanted: Talent

It's elementary, my dear Watson. We are looking for a very special person, someone talented in the arts either by way of mouth or instrument or even by way of movement. We may even be looking for something very unusual. They could be male, female, young or old, a singular person or the joining of a group of people. The best place to look would be the Manchester Fairgrounds. They will have a marvelous showing of talent in their entertainment tent. The date is Thursday, July 13 at 8:00 p.m. Let's be off now, Watson; we have work to do.

Stick your neck out a little! If interested, contact Katherine Hampton at 428-7272. Auditions will be held Thursday, June 15th at Emanuel Gym, 7:00 p.m. Be there!

Two Favorites Combine in One Teddy Bear Cake

If you could imagine two of your children's favorite treats wrapped up in one cake, it might look like this lovable Teddy Grahams® Bear Cake.

Boasting two flavors of Teddy Grahams—chocolate and honey—the cute critter also has six OREO cookies making up his paws and ears. Nonpareils, gumdrops, jelly beans and a strawberry fruit roll complete the totally edible bear.

The Teddy Grahams Bear Cake recipe was created by the Nabisco Brands Consumer Food Center. Faye Egan, who directs the center, says the cake is ideal for parties and other special children's occasions.

TEDDY GRAHAM BEAR CAKE

Makes 1 cake

- 1 (18.25-ounce) package white cake mix
- 2 cups Chocolate TEDDY GRAHAMS® Graham Snacks
- 3 cups prepared white frosting
- 6 OREO Chocolate Sandwich Cookies
- 4 chocolate nonpareils
- 3 large sugar-coated gumdrops
- 2 small sugar-coated gumdrops
- 2 black jelly beans
- 31 Honey TEDDY GRAHAMS® Graham Snacks
- 1 strawberry fruit roll

Chocolate decorating icing
Prepare cake mix batter according to package directions; fold in chocolate graham snacks. Grease and flour 1 (8-inch) round cake pan and 1 (8 x 8 x 2-inch) baking pan. Divide and spoon batter into prepared pans. Bake at 350°F for 30 to 35 minutes or until cake tests done. Cool.

To assemble, cut 2-inch wide strip from one side of square layer. Cut a semicircle from one 6-inch edge, cutting from corners to a 1-inch depth at center. Place trimmed rectangle on serving platter. Place cut semicircle piece at bottom short edge of rectangle. Place round layer above rectangle, fitting into cut-out semicircle.

Cut strip crosswise into quarters; place one piece at each corner of rectangle for paws. Frost cake with white frosting. Use OREO Cookies for ears and paws; place nonpareils on each paw. Roll out large gumdrops for mouth and eyes; use small gumdrops for nose and belly button and jelly beans for center of eyes. Decorate with honey graham snacks, framing head, paws and belly button. Shape fruit roll into bow tie. Draw mouth and outline paws with decorating icing.

French Toast Breakfast

Dee McMullen, Isabelle Yingling, Fran Adler and Celeste all helped with the French Toast Breakfast. Thanks moms!

Kevin Taddonio, Nicholas Pieske, Matt Jones (with Clifford) and mom, Judi Wahl are anxiously waiting to eat french toast at breakfast in Mrs. Savage's First Grade at Klager. The breakfast was Wednesday morning, June 9, and honored Clifford, The Big Red Dog.

Be Motorcycle Alert

As Michigan's 186,000 motorcycles join millions of cars and trucks on the state's major travel routes this summer, AAA Michigan urges all drivers to be more alert.

"By observing basic safety rules and carefully scanning all directions, automobile drivers and motorcycle riders alike can enjoy an accident-free traffic mix," said Robert V. Cullen, AAA Michigan Safety and Traffic manager.

More than 110 fatalities and 5,000 injuries occur in Michigan annually from accidents involving motorcycles or specialty vehicles such as mopeds and motor scooters.

Motorcycles are involved in seven percent of all road deaths, although they represent only three percent of the registered motor vehicles in Michigan.

Fifty-eight percent of motorcycle accidents involve other vehicles. Many were attributed to the car or truck driver violating the right-of-way of the motorcyclist.

"Part of the problem is that motorists don't always see motorcycles until it is too late, then they can't yield," said Cullen. "This is especially true at intersections, where more than 45 percent of all motorcycle accidents take place. He said cycle riders can avoid accidents by:

- Maintaining a lane position slightly to the left of center. It gives riders a better view of the road ahead, while making motorcycles more visible to automobile drivers.

- Maintaining a three-second gap when following another vehicle at speeds under 40 mph. (Use a 4- to 6-second distance at higher speeds or if roads are wet.)

- Approaching intersections with caution, especially where a motorist's vision may be obscured by parked vehicles or other objects. Riders shouldn't assume other drivers will see them and yield at an intersection.

| 1 pound | boneless and skinned chicken breast | 3 ounces | oriental noodles, cooked |
| 2 cups  | chinese cabbage, sliced             | 2 tbsp.  | cornstarch               |
| 3 tbsp. | vegetable oil                       | 1/4 cup  | chicken broth            |
| 2 cups  | celery, chopped                     | 3        | scallions, chopped       |
| 1 cup   | celery, chopped                     | 2 tsp.   | caraway seeds            |
| 2 cups  | bean sprouts                        | 1 tbsp.  | lemon juice              |

Cut chicken into small pieces. Heat oil in a deep skillet and sauté chicken in heated oil for 5 minutes. Add cabbage, celery and sprouts. Mix well, cover and cook over low heat for 3 minutes. Meanwhile, cook noodles according to directions; then add noodles to chicken mixture. In a separate bowl, mix together cornstarch and broth and stir into chicken mixture until thickened. Sprinkle with scallions, caraway seeds and lemon juice.

Farmers Face Social Pressures

As the farm population continues to shrink and fewer people retain roots in agriculture, the social pressures on farmers will increase. American Farm Bureau Federation President Dean Kleckner told participants at a commodity and marketing conference in Des Moines this week.

Public concern about food safety, animal rights, and environmental issues will produce major societal pressures on farmers in the next decade, Kleckner said, and result in "more attempts at political farm policy making." The farm leader said farmers must be prepared to deal with the "chemophobia" which surfaced recently as a result of the controversial apple/Alar issue, and public concern about "preserving" things, particularly in nature.

"Personal environmentalism, concerns for most Americans," he said. "Three out of four Americans now consider themselves to be environmentalists and are willing to publicly wear that label and to help pay that bill."

"Animal rights activists rally against commercial agriculture by striking at the so-called 'factory farming.' Unfortunately, there is never any recognition of the need for profits nor any consideration for new costs that add to the farmer's burden," he said.

Kleckner told the group that the nation's agriculture must avoid complacency on the critical issues. "The farm challenge of the 90s lies largely in the areas of public information and understanding, explaining to the public what it takes to produce food and to make a profit on the farm," he concluded.

Summer Jobs Program Begins Seventh Year

The Michigan Youth Corps, the nation's largest and most successful state-funded summer youth employment program, began its seventh year June 1st by providing jobs for more than 20,000 18-21 year olds at thousands of community work sites.

"The Youth Corps provides experience and training for Michigan's unemployed young men and women and contributes to a quality workforce for the future," Gov. Blanchard said.

"Corps members provide valuable community service in parks, forests, hospitals, libraries, museums and other public sites," the Governor continued. "And this year, Corps members began early by planting trees along interstate highways throughout the state in a continuing project that improves the beauty and quality of our environment."

Corps members planted more than 60,000 fir trees in highway beautification efforts. Trees were planted along I-75, I-94 between Detroit and Metropolitan Airport and in the Kalamazoo, Lansing and Grand Rapids areas.

Gov. Blanchard proposed the Youth Corps in 1983. By fall, more than 130,000 young men and women will have found summer employment as Youth Corps workers.

"The Michigan Youth Corps is our commitment to providing jobs, skills and opportunity for our young people," the Governor said, noting that the Corps has been especially beneficial to young men and women from low- and moderate-income families. Last year, 14 percent of Corps members were high school dropouts, 33 percent were on public assistance and 47 percent were from families with incomes at or below the poverty level.

"This summer the Youth Corps will again emphasize hard work, teamwork, getting a high school diploma and building good work habits that lead to permanent private sector jobs," said Youth Corps Director Betty Howe, who also heads the Department of Labor.

A major effort of the Michigan Youth Corps is ensuring that Michigan summer recreational facilities and beaches are in top rate condition for tourists. Youth Corps members have been at work for a month at numerous beach sites from Warren Dune State Park to Traverse City State Park.

For the second year, the Youth Corps also chose special Blue Ribbon Projects for outstanding community projects that involve private sector support and quality workites for Corps members. Howe said. Thirty blue ribbon projects were selected this year and $1 million in state money was matched with an equal amount in private sector support.

Blue Ribbon projects range from building a canoe livery on the Rouge River to restoring the Sand Point Lighthouse in Escanaba in time for the 200th anniversary of lighthouses in the United States.

A number of businesses supporting the program, the Youth Corps' Employer Honor Roll, again this year will guarantee job interviews to Youth Corps graduates to assist them in finding jobs.

The Youth Corps program runs from June 1 to September 30. Youth Corps jobs last eight to ten weeks and pay the minimum wage of $3.35 per hour. Any 18 through 21 year old unemployed Michigan resident is eligible to apply. Application forms are available at schools, employment and training agencies, MESC and DDS offices, colleges and universities. All Youth Corps workites are with non-profit agencies and units of government.

STUCK IN THE MIDDLE? REDUCE THE FINANCIAL BURDEN OF SUPPORTING TWO GENERATIONS

Pat and Jim earn substantial salaries as managers in a Fortune 500 firm. Still, they are having a hard time making ends meet. The reason for their financial hardship is easy to pinpoint. A large portion of the couple's income goes toward supporting their two children as well as Pat's elderly mother.

According to the Michigan Association of CPAs, Pat and Jim are struggling with the realities of being part of the "sandwich generation," middle-aged adults who are financially responsible for both their children and their parents. With the aging of the "baby boomers," who represent about one-third of today's population, the size of the sandwich generation is bound to expand dramatically.

If you are already "stuck in the middle," you can alleviate the financial pressures of supporting two generations by sharing responsibilities with other family members and by taking advantage of numerous tax provisions.

Hire A Family Member As Caretaker

If you pay someone to take care of an elderly parent or a young child while you and your spouse work, why not hire another non-dependent family member? For instance, Bob and Sue hired Bob's father to watch their 2-year-old twins. As a result, the couple not only saves several thousand dollars in day-care fees, but they can also claim the dependent-care tax credit—worth as much as $720 for one qualified dependent and $1,440 for two or more. Remember, if you hire a non-dependent relative as caretaker, you must pay him or her a reasonable wage. In addition, at the end of the year you must supply the paid relative (or any other paid caretaker) with a W-2 form listing his or her annual wages.

Take Advantage Of Your Dependent Exemptions

You can claim an exemption for any dependent relative, whether a child or a parent, as long as you provide more than half of his or her annual support—including housing, food, clothing, medical and dental expenses. Don't underestimate the value of your exemptions. For each qualified dependent you claim, you can generally deduct $2,000 from your taxable income. If you are in the 28 percent tax bracket, that translates into a tax savings of $560 for each exemption.

CPAs point out that you may still be able to claim a parent as a dependent if you and your siblings share the costs for at least one-half of his or her annual support—and no one person provides more than half the support. To be eligible for the exemption, you must provide more than 10 percent of your parent's support. In addition, everyone providing more than 10 percent of your parent's total support must agree in writing on who claims the tax exemption in any particular year.

Buy Your Parent's Home

Is your parent's life savings invested in their home? If so, by buying their home you can help convert their home into a source of income. Let's look at an example. Tom's parents, Sara and Jim, were barely subsisting on a small pension and Social Security. Luckily, their house—originally purchased for $60,000—had a market value of $175,000. At the advice of his CPA, Tom bought his parents' home and then began charging them a reasonable rent. Sara and Jim were able to collect the proceeds from the sale of the house tax-free by claiming the $125,000 once-in-a-lifetime exclusion from gain, a provision reserved solely for taxpayers who are at least 55 years old. By carefully investing the $175,000, Tom's parents can be assured of a steady income for the rest of their lives.

At the same time, Tom now owns a rental property and is eligible for a host of valuable tax breaks, such as property tax and depreciation deductions. Moreover, since Tom's adjusted gross income is less than $100,000, he can deduct up to $25,000 in passive rental real estate losses.

Open A Trust For Your Parents

Another way to provide aging parents with income is through an irrevocable trust (in which you give up all rights to the trust funds). In an irrevocable trust, the trust money is taxed to the trust itself at a rate of 15 percent on the first $5,000 of income and 28 percent on any additional income. If these rates are lower than your own tax bracket, an irrevocable trust may be one way to give your parents more money than you may be able to afford otherwise.

Buy Nursing Home Insurance

According to a congressional subcommittee on aging, 70 to 80 percent of nursing home residents deplete their funds and are forced onto welfare a year or so after being admitted. If you anticipate that a parent may have to live in a nursing home in the near future, now is the time to explore nursing home or long-term-care insurance. Depending on the individual policy, the insurance will cover all or a portion of the daily expenses.

Approximately 70 commercial insurers and seven Blue Cross plans currently offer long-term-care insurance. You can obtain the names of companies selling these policies in Michigan by writing to the Health Insurance Association, 1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004.

Shift Income To Your Children

By shifting income to your children, you can reduce your overall tax burden, and save for your children's educational expenses at the same time. Transfer just enough income-producing assets, such as a CD, to give each child under age 14 a maximum of $1,000 in unearned income. The assets must actually be in the children's names. If they are, your children will pay taxes on only $500 of the unearned income at a rate that will probably be much lower than yours. But be warned: any unearned income over $1,000 will be taxed at your highest marginal rate. (For children 14 or older, unearned income is taxed at their own rate, usually 15 percent.)

For more information on how tax laws can help minimize the expenses of supporting children and elderly parents, consult a CPA. He or she should be able to help get you out of the pickle of being a member of the sandwich generation.

Elvira Vogel Retires After 31 Years of Service

Elvira Vogel, a 31-year member of Washtenaw Intermediate School District's (WISD) Board of Education, will step down on June 30th.

Elvira, who lives in Manchester, said her years on the board have been exciting and rewarding. "It's with reluctance that I leave, but it's time for me to move on to other challenges," she said.

First appointed to the board in 1958, Elvira completed the term of former board member, Horace Whitney. She went on to be re-elected to five 6-year terms serving in every capacity from Trustee to President.

The mother of three says her board membership was an outgrowth of her convictions. "I have a teaching background, a love of children and a belief that education is for everyone. So, it was natural to be involved with a district that serves students with special needs as well as provides services for children in local schools."

Once Elvira joined the Board, she discovered there was never a good time to leave. "It seemed like every 6 years when my term was about to expire, we were in the middle of an exciting project. There was always a challenge to be met and I wanted to be a part of it."

Elvira has been active statewide, too, serving on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASE). Among her many MASE assignments, she served 2 years as the Chair of its Education and Curriculum Committee and is presently the Chair of its Inservice, Conference and Seminar Planning Committee. "It's also been my privilege to serve on state committees like the School Improvement Council and the Chapter I Committee. Both of these areas can impact all schools in the state," she said.

After Elvira's term ends, she plans to travel with her husband, Louis. "But, I'll still keep my ties with the ISD," she said. "My whole family has grown up with the ISD."

Chicago River Runs Uphill

Manchester Enterprise
January 13, 1977

Small Stream Has Seen Unnumbered Changes Since Improvements Began In 1835

It seems to be the habit of Chicago always to be doing something with the Chicago River, says the Chicago Science Monitor. As rivers go, the Chicago is not much of a stream. Its north branch is 24 miles long and the south branch is 10 miles long and 200 feet wide and the depth 22 feet. But this river has been turned around, is now in progress of straightening, and may be damned so it cannot reverse in flood time, and there is even talk that it may be raised should the Mississippi river barges make their way to the city.

Not always has Chicago been truly reminded of the fact that due to geographical causes, its existence as a city was determined by the river.

It was in 1835 when the river improvement urge first seized the city. The town trustees in that year conceived the idea of docks at the water's edge, and to accomplish this, wharf lots were leased for 999 years for $1,000 each. The tenants agreed to construct and maintain a five-foot dock three feet above ordinary high water mark, and the resulting improvements were considered epoch-making.

Seventeen years later the first step was taken to alter decisively the natural course of the stream also by "unkinking" it. Where now its mouth is found, formerly a great sand bar existed. The river bent sharply just east of the present Michigan Avenue bridge and coursed southward almost a quarter of a mile before it could flow freely into the lake about at Madison Street. The prevailing northeast winds and the surf of the lake had made this bar, just as today they are busily pulling up a beach on the Gold Coast off Oak Street.

It was Congress which came to the aid of the city in July, 1852, an act being passed decreasing the removal of the river sand bar. Now boats sail from the lake directly into the river.

The biggest alteration Chicago made on her river, however, and the thing that marks it is the most curious of its species, was the matter of making the water run backward. The Chicago river runs uphill: diverting water from the Great Lakes and into the Mississippi river as an immense sewage machine.

Heidi Beasley Receives Optimist Award

The Optimists awarded the honor of Outstanding Student for the month of June to Heidi Beasley. Heidi is the daughter of Kathy and Ken Beasley. She is a Senior and has been an honor roll student since her freshman year. Her athletic achievements include four years of volleyball and two of softball. Heidi has been an instrumentalist since 9th grade, playing clarinet for the marching band, concert band and pep band. She was band secretary in 10th and vice-president in 11th grade and became a member of Students Against Drunk Driving in 12th grade. Heidi is an active Christian in the Church Youth Group of the Saline Assembly of God. She spent the summers of 1987 and 1988 doing missionary work with Native Americans in Arizona and plays softball for the church team. Heidi plans to attend Washtenaw Community College and has received the WCC President's Honor Scholarship. Optimist Mary Kallewaard presented the award.

From Bluegrass to Classical

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

Please take note of this update regarding the next two Gazebo Concerts:

This Thursday, June 22, beginning at 7:00 p.m. at the Gazebo across from St. Mary's, the acoustic trio "Maxton Bay" will perform traditional and contemporary blues, bluegrass and folk tunes.

"Maxton Bay" includes Mark Palms, Carol Wells Palms, and Sheila Warner. The group has released two albums and will perform tunes from those albums. This is music for the whole family, from little ones to teen-agers to grown-ups. The energy and excitement of "Maxton Bay" plus the special qualities of this truly American music will combine to make the night an enjoyable one.

The following Thursday, June 29th, the pace will change somewhat when "Westwood Camarata: An Evening of Classical Music" comes to the Gazebo.

On this evening various ensembles featuring musicians who play in a number of orchestras including the Toledo, Lansing, and West Bloomfield Symphonies, will gather on the Gazebo stage.

These fine musicians will also include some of our own Manchester talent. Hans VanAlstine, For more information about the Gazebo Concerts, or about the Manchester Recreation Task Force, contact 428-7722.

Fair Time

The Manchester Community Fair is fast approaching. Are you getting those items ready for exhibiting in the exhibit tent? The Fair books will be out soon. Check the books for new categories. We know the produce is not going to be quite as big as previous years, but there is a new class for green tomatoes. Watch those plants. Let's see how tall the tallest stalk of corn can be by July 11th.

The Manchester Community Fair is again have a "300 Club" drawing. If you do not yet have your ticket, you can get them from any Fair Board member or they are available at the Flower Garden or Carol's Cut-N-Curl. Remember, you must have your ticket by July 11th. No tickets will be sold after this date. There are eleven times you can win.

If you are interested in a booth in the Merchant's tent, please call Kathy Richardson at 428-8474. Don't forget the fair is early, July 11-15, 1989. See you at the Fair!
