

Senior Citizens News

Some of us have been passing around a 10-day bread recipe. A cup of "starter" goes to two of your neighbors with the recipe and then your imagination takes over. It is delicious and well worth the time and trouble. (Did I remember to stir it yesterday?) According to Fern Sutton (reported by her niece, Margie), a similar starter, which they called "Herman", was passed around many years ago. Guess there is nothing new under the sun, as dad used to say. He also said, "Expectation is greater than realization". But not in this case, even I can't ruin that good bread.

On Thursday, November 16, Jan will serve Beef Stroganoff and one of these days we may taste our bread on the menu. Today, the 16th, is the date of the card party and we hope you haven't forgotten it is a week earlier than usual. Come one and all to Freedom Township Hall at 8:00 p.m. to enjoy euchre.

Tuesday, November 21: Pastor Reineck will give the clergy presentation beginning at 11:00 a.m. Jan will present her Thanksgiving Celebration at noon. We haven't the foggiest idea about what she will serve, but get your dinner reservation in to 428-8359, or call Jan before 10:30 a.m. the day of these senior meals. You are all invited to the Center at 12:30.

Wednesday, November 22: Bus pickup begins at 11:30 for the Cedar Knoll Home. Call Erma Alber at 428-8707 to go along to visit our neighbors and friends there.

Have a most blessed and enjoyable Thanksgiving with your family and others whom you love on Thursday, the 23rd. Tomorrow we diet, but not today.

Looking ahead: Saturday, November 25: "Christmas Carol" will be enjoyed at the Crosswell

Theater in Adrian by those of you who call Erma to reserve your spot.

Thanks, Jan, for just being you! Why not ask her why she swept the big mixer off with the broom one day last week? And, thanks, Simon and staff, we do appreciate all those "extras" you continually do for all of us.

1989 Population Estimates Released

The Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission has released population estimates for 1989. According to the estimates, the current population of Washtenaw County is 286,585, an increase of just over 8% since 1980.

Households have increased by 13% since 1980. According to Denise Flynn, Program Supervisor, the County continues to grow even as household size decreases due to the strong pace of residential construction. "Almost 2700 building permits were issued in 1988. This translates into more households and more people. So even though household size is decreasing, with this much new construction the county continues to grow." Flynn added that 1988 has been the busiest year for new residential construction since 1973.

The city of Ann Arbor with a 1989 population of 112,371, Ypsilanti Township (45,440), and Ypsilanti City (23,750) top the list as the largest communities in the county. Completing the top five are Pittsfield Township (16,260) and Scio Township (10,504).

Potter Sentenced

Michael Potter, 39, president of Eden Foods, Clinton, was sentenced recently by Washtenaw County Circuit Court Judge Edward Deake, to an 8-15 year prison term.

The April 13, 1988 accident killed Clifford Adler, a passenger in Potter's automobile, and was directly attributed to Potter's driving while drinking. Adler, at the time, was vice-president of Eden Foods.

Deake stated to the court that Potter, although suffering from a disease known as alcoholism, had to be held accountable for gross negligence in the accident and that he is a "danger to the public."

The bond, pending appeal, was denied and Potter was remanded to the Washtenaw County Jail for later transfer to Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Potter had been found guilty in September of manslaughter in Adler's death. State police testified the defendant was driving his Lincoln at a high rate of speed on Clinton-Manchester Road, north of Clinton, on the night of the accident when the vehicle went out of control and flipped over, killing Adler, and injuring Potter.

Federal Surplus Foods

Federal Surplus Foods will be distributed on Friday, November 24, 1989, from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m., at the Manchester United Methodist Church.

INSURANCE

Notes

Are Insurance Companies Subject to Anti-Trust Laws?

Insurance companies are prevented from price-fixing, coercion and boycotting, just like any other business. They are permitted to share claims information through voluntary organizations. This is to help smaller companies who financially cannot afford to collect this information to compete with larger companies who do. Without this special provision, competition for your business would be limited to fewer companies, most of which would be large, national giants.

Manchester Township Library

Library Renovation Funds

A recent fund-raising letter resulted in donations to the Manchester Township Library of about $1,000. Local individuals and businesses responding to the letter include Drs. Beaudoin, James Datsko, Reno and Nancy Feldkamp, Gisting and Gisting-er, Johnson Controls, Sutton Insurance, Parr's Auto Shop and WMH Enterprises.

The funds are earmarked for repairing, painting, carpeting, and general renovation of the Historical and Classics rooms on the Library's second floor. The estimated cost is $4,000. Because the operating budget of the Library is less than $40,000, any improvements must be funded separately.

The Library Board encourages individuals and businesses who may have been missed or have mislaid the letter to give to the Library during 1989. All contributions to the Library can be itemized on the Federal Income Tax. In addition, the Michigan Income Tax law encourages gifts to public libraries by allowing taxpayers to deduct 1/2 of the amount (up to a $200 deduction) from the tax itself.

Wedding Bells Ring

Allen Ian of Parma, both formerly of Manchester; Mike Rose of Manchester, brother of the bride; and Kevin Rose of Manchester, brother of the bride.

A pig roast followed at the UAW Hall on M-52 in Chelsea. The couple arrived at the reception in a black 1957 T-bird convertible, compliments of the bride's father.

Lisa Sheats, friend of the couple, attended the guestbook. Mary Ackerman and Judy Sorensen, godmothers of the couple, cut the cake.

The newlyweds took a two-week honeymoon in the Canadian Rockies, and are residing in Manchester.

Awareness Workshops

Nationally, the week of November 12-19 is Alcohol Awareness Week. Manchester is participating by providing the opportunity for residents to attend the first in a series of awareness training workshops. Thursday, November 16, 7:00-8:30 p.m. at St. Mary's Church, the workshop will be "What a Chemically Dependent Person Looks Like." The presentation is open to anyone in the community who has a personal interest in understanding alcohol and other substance use as a disease.

November 30 the topic will be "Chemical Dependence and the Family".

The problems related to alcohol and drug use can be turned around if and when communities, such as Manchester, become involved. Attend the workshops and help get the educational process started.

Kristine Kay Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Rose of Manchester, and Gary Lee Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paul of Manchester, were married August 19, 1989 at Emanuel United Church of Christ in Manchester. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Kuntzman.

"Trumpet Voluntary" was played as the processional by Tommy Rhoades of Ann Arbor, formerly of Manchester. Special music was sung by Melanie Schneider and Robbie Schneider, both of Chelsea. Songs included "Friends," "Perhaps Love," and "The Lord's Prayer." Robbie also accompanied on the piano.

The bride wore a white satin gown with a dropped basque bodice, accented with elaborate hand beading. The dress also featured a rounded "V" neckline, ruffled sleeves and a semi-cathedral train with lace and organza ruffle. She carried a cascading bouquet of peach roses, white mini-carnations, white freesia, baby's breath, and fresh ivy. Her veil was a wreath of silk flowers and pearls, with a ruffled pouf and waist-length veil.

Matron-of-honor was Cathy Ross of Crown Point, Indiana. Bridesmaids were Debbie Walkowe of Ann Arbor, formerly of Manchester; Linda Segars of San Diego, California; Maro Petsch of Chelsea; and Heather Beech of Portland, Michigan, cousin of the bride.

The bridal attendants wore peach satin sheath dresses with short, pouf on and off the shoulder sleeves, pleated cuff bodice and a peplum at the waist graduating to ankle-length in back. They carried bouquets of peach mini-carnations, baby's breath and miniature fresh ferns, accented with ivory satin ribbon.

Best man was Bruce Paul, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Greg Lucas of Grass Lake,

Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Home on November 8, 1989 with 19 members present. Membership dues should be paid as soon as possible.

Committee reports were given. Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Chairman, Alice Alexander reported that 36 gifts had been purchased for the V.A. Hospital Christmas Gift Exchange. Also, Alice is updating her list of names of area service men and women with their current addresses so they can be remembered at Christmas.

Vivian Middlemiss advised that there is a need for additional wheel chairs at the Ann Arbor VA Hospital. Members present voted to give a donation for this cause, and also a donation to the Ann Arbor VA Wheelchair Team for their Olympics to be held in 1990.

Our December meeting will be held in the Legion Hall on December 13 at 6:30 p.m. It will consist of a pot luck dinner, meeting and an evening of fun. Canned goods and/or paper supplies can be brought at that time for the Manchester Family Service Christmas food boxes.

We Gather Together

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

"The Thanksgiving Tradition and the Native American" is the program topic for the next Manchester Area Historical Society meeting.

Mike Dashner is the Native American representative to the Office of Student Services at the University of Michigan. He is also a member of the Ojibway nation. Mr. Dashner will address Historical Society members and friends next Monday, November 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Blacksmith Shop, 324 E. Main.

Our tradition of Thanksgiving has always included stories of the early Pilgrims and "Indians" sharing the first Thanksgiving feast.

Mr. Dashner will discuss the concepts of giving thanks as they relate to Native American ceremonies, and how these in turn are linked and go beyond the present day celebration of Thanksgiving.

This program promises to be interesting and thoughtful. All in the community are warmly invited to attend.

The subject may hold special interest for young people, so the Historical Society encourages you to bring your children and grandchildren.

Rabies Diagnosed

Rabies has recently been diagnosed in 15 bats, primarily in lower Michigan. Affected counties are Huron, Newaygo, Clinton, Kalamazoo, Kent, Livingston, Muskegon, Oakland, Shiawassee, and Washtenaw.

Rabies is a fatal viral disease which can affect all warm-blooded animals including humans. In the recent rabies cases, both humans and animals were exposed to the rabid bats. In humans, treatment is effective if started immediately after the occurrence of the bite from the rabid animal. Once symptoms of disease occur, treatment is not successful.

Following exposure to rabies, dogs and cats with current rabies vaccinations are immediately re-vaccinated, then quarantined and observed. Unvaccinated dogs and cats should be vaccinated following rabies exposure because they become a serious threat to public health. In the recent rabies episode, several pet dogs and cats were euthanized because they were unvaccinated and exposed to a bat with rabies.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture encourages all pet owners to have their dogs and cats routinely vaccinated against rabies. You are also encouraged to refrain from handling any bats or wild animals, especially if the animal appears to be ill.

Klager PTO Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Gail Kuhl at 3:30 p.m. with 14 members present.

Minutes for the September 25, 1989 meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved, showing a balance of $65.86.

A representative from a t-shirt company gave a presentation on shirts available for sale to Klager kids through the PTO. Details will be decided later.

President Kuhl gave a school update. Funds for two more assemblies for the year were allocated. Science Wish Lists are being worked on. Since some of the items are so costly, parents will be asked to donate items if possible.

The fund raiser is reportedly doing well. Problems are being worked out.

The new playground equipment is in and will be installed as soon as the cement truck is available.

Discussion on the winter dance was tabled until next month.

Meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Monica Brooks, Secretary

1988 Tax Refund Checks

The Internal Revenue Service is trying to locate Michigan taxpayers who are still due tax refunds from their 1988, or earlier, federal income tax returns.

"When a refund is returned by the Postal Service, the IRS attempts to locate the taxpayer by follow-up mail; but there are always a small number who cannot be found," Hummel said. He indicated, however, that most taxpayers, about 3 million in Michigan, have received their refunds.

If you believe you are due a federal income tax refund, but have not yet received it, call the IRS, toll free, at 1-800-424-1040.

Wedding Bells Ring

Connie Sue Hone and Paul Johnson Austin exchanged marriage vows on October 15 at North Sharon Baptist Church with Pastor Bill Winniger officiating.

Honor attendants were Holly Curley of Saline, friend of the bride as matron of honor; and Bill Johnson of Saline, best man, brother of the groom.

Debbie Sanbiagio of Petersburg and Kim Horning of Manchester served as bridesmaids while Troy Kowkowski and Dave Anderson, both of Ann Arbor, were groomsmen.

A reception followed the ceremony at the American Legion Hall in Manchester.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sue Hone of Manchester and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin of Saline.

The newlyweds have returned from a honeymoon in St. Petersburg and Orlando, Florida and are residing in Manchester.

ORDER TO ANSWER

At a session of said Court held in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan on the 12th day of October, 1989.

PRESENT: Honorable William F. Ager, Jr., Circuit Court Judge

On the 12th day of October, 1989, an action was filed by Esther Hathcock, Plaintiff, against Jewel Hathcock, Defendant, in this court for divorce.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Defendant, Jewel Hathcock, shall answer to take such other action as may be permitted by law on or before the 22nd day of November, 1989. Failure to comply with this order will result in a judgment by default against such Defendant for the relief demanded in the complaint filed in this court. Such answer or other action shall be filed in the above-entitled cause and a copy thereof sent to the Plaintiff's attorney.

AFFIDAVIT FOR ORDER TO ANSWER

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF WASHTENAW

Esther Hathcock, Plaintiff, being first duly sworn deposes and says that the whereabouts and residence of the Defendant, Jewel Hathcock, are not known.

Affiant has made diligent inquiry to ascertain the present address of the Defendant and such inquiry has been unsuccessful as of the 12th day of October, 1989.

Affiant further states that Affiant's diligent inquiry consisted of contacting Defendant's mother, Maxine Hathcock whose address is Chandler, Arizona and whose phone number is (602) 899-4801. Affiant further states that Maxine Hathcock has not seen Defendant in four years. Affiant has no contact with Defendant's friends or place of business.

It is further stated that this is a civil action in which personal jurisdiction over the Defendant is not required and that an order to answer is necessary in this case. The Defendant's last known address is Arleta, California.

Speed Limit Going Up

Speed limits on more than 160 additional miles of rural freeways in Michigan will be raised to 65 mph by early next year, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) reports.

MDOT safety engineers said changes in the way federal highway authorities define an urban area will allow them to raise the speed limits.

"The new definition allows for more orderly, continuous speed zones that motorists will find more logical and easier to comply with," said William Level, MDOT traffic operations engineer.

Freeways that skirt the edge of metropolitan areas but are rural in nature are most likely to see an increase in the speed limit, he said. Most of the routes affected will be on the Interstate system. Some are US- and M-numbered freeways.

The new speed limit will not go into effect until the signs are up. Most signs should be in place by the end of the year or early next year, Level said.

The transportation department will be evaluating the safety of the newly designated 65 mph zones by continuing to monitor traffic volumes and accident data and working with State Police to ensure needed enforcement. MDOT emphasized that adjustments to the speed limits will be made in any area where studies warrant them.

Approximately 1,175 miles of freeway in Michigan now operate under the 65 mph limit, including 750 miles of rural interstates and 425 miles of rural US-numbered freeways. The impending changes increase the 65 mph mileage by almost 15 percent to about 1,335 miles.

MICHIGAN DEER/VEHICLE CRASHES ANNUALLY

BEWARE OF DEER - Of more than 42,000 deer/vehicle accidents in 1988, almost half occurred between October and December. The number of collisions has almost doubled from 1983, with repairs averaging $1,200 per vehicle. AAA Michigan urges motorists to:

- Be extra alert.
- Watch at night for shining eyes, most car/deer accidents occur in darkness.
- Ease to a slow pace when a deer is sighted. If the deer is motionless off the roadway, your high beams can freeze the animal. Don't panic or try to dodge a moving deer; it may run toward you. Most deer accidents occur when drivers swerve.
- Assume more deer are near if one appears.
- Report all accidents to local police or the DNR and your insurance company.
- Always wear a safety belt.

1985, there were 28,968 accidents. Washtenaw County had 866 accidents with 58 people injured.

LIFE INSURANCE: HOW MUCH IS ENOUGH?

Some time ago, if you were in the market for life insurance, chances are you would have been advised that four or five times your annual income was the "right" amount of life insurance to buy. But that formula doesn't work today. As a matter of fact, it never did. The Michigan Association of CPAs cautions that the problem with this pat formula is that, as with most generalizations, it attempts to apply the same standard to totally different circumstances.

In fact, not everyone needs life insurance. A bachelor with no dependents who earns $40,000 a year may need little or no insurance. However, a married man who also earns $40,000, but has a wife and three small children would certainly need to think about providing for his family's future.

Life insurance is designed to protect those who depend on the earnings of someone else. So, if you are the primary breadwinner in your family, the people you are now supporting with your earnings...

Alternately, you can base the groupings on changes in your survivors' eligibility for Social Security benefits. For instance, a widow with surviving children is entitled to a monthly payment until the last child turns 16. (If she works, the benefit may be reduced or limited depending on her income.) Social Security also provides a monthly payment for each child under 18 (or 19, if the child is still in high school). Keep in mind that from the day your surviving spouse retires, there are no Social Security payments. After you have divided the future into distinct phases, you can begin estimating how much annual income your survivors would need during each of the time periods you have mapped out. As a basic guideline, aim to provide your family with at least 75 percent of your annual take-home pay.

Next, review your family's income-producing assets (such as cash, CDs and securities) and determine the approximate annual income you can reasonably expect to generate from these assets. Add in Social Security benefits for your spouse and children, plus your surviving spouse's salary and any miscellaneous items - such as rental income.

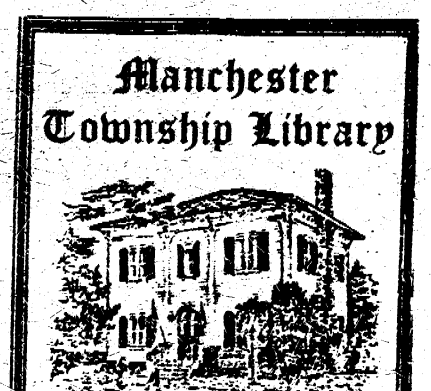

For each stage of your family's life, list the annual amount of income your family will need. In another column, list the annual after-tax income you expect your...

be it your spouse, your children or your elderly parents - would have to be supported by the proceeds of your life insurance.

Your life insurance should be designed to preserve your family's current standard of living. Sound easy? It's not. To determine how much insurance you need, you must consider inflation, your personal assets and liabilities, as well as your family's unique circumstances and concerns. In truth, there is no way to come up with an absolutely correct figure. At best, you can arrive at a close approximation.

An axiom of insurance planning suggests that your policies should be large enough to cover your family's economic needs if you were to die tomorrow. Today, most advisors suggest an in-depth analysis of your family's circumstances as being the best way to assess your insurance needs. The steps below can help you get started.

Before you begin calculating what your current and future financial needs and resources are, CPAs suggest that you divide the years ahead into several different phases related to specific events or circumstances in your family's life. For example, you may want to divide the years to correspond to stages in your child's life: birth, adolescence, college years, marriage and birth of grandchildren.

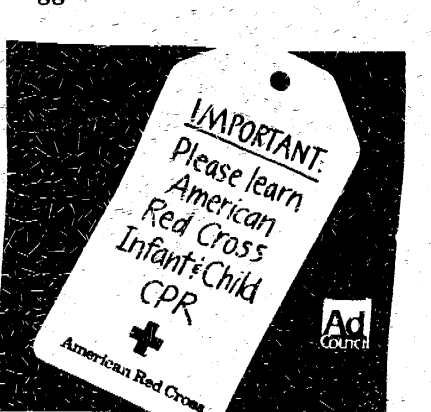

Pre-school story hour continues this Friday at 10:00 a.m. Marcy Alsgaard is featuring Thanksgiving stories and songs to celebrate the start of the holiday season. All children three or older are welcome.

The fall reading and discussion group meets Thursday, November 16. All are welcome to join Richard Tillinghast of the University of Michigan in discussing Elmore Leonard's "52 Pickup". Copies of the book are available at the Library.

As always, the Library welcomes donations of books. The following titles are just a few of those recently added to the collection through the generosity of our patrons:

"Sports Illustrated Bowling," "Poems of Edward Arlington Robinson," "Yoga for the Modern Age," "Nathaniel Hawthorne in His Times," "Mysteries of the Unexplained," "American Folklore and Legend," "The Portable Dorothy Parker," "Food and Healing," "The Life and Adventures of Santa Claus," "Just Juggle."

Anticipation vs Realization

Manchester Enterprise
June 17, 1915

At Frisco the special train was abandoned and all took different routes home. Our first stop was at Portland, Oregon. On sight seeing we saw the most beautiful roses on the trip. Portland is called the rose city and it seemed as if all the lawns were one rose bed. Here we called on Will Klessler, formerly of Bridgewater who was glad to see us and made the short stay pleasant.

Our next stop was Seattle, Washington, and our very first impression was a good one and a lasting one. Here we felt at home more than at any other city on the coast. Our own home boys to greet, it seemed good. Ed Nisla, an employee of the Ready Tailored Co., took us to points of interest and for 6 o'clock dinner at his beautiful new home. At 11 a.m., we met Ed Grossman at the market of his brother Matt. Nothing would do but to go with him to lunch at his beautiful new home. There we met Mrs. Matt Grossman who was spending the day with her sister. They were daughters of our former townsman Wray Graham. This was our first real meal in a private home.

In the afternoon Fred Blosser gave us the afternoon and we saw many points of interest. Visited Volunteer park and ascended to the top of the tower, here we saw one of the most picturesque scenes since leaving Grand Canyon. On a clear day Mt. Rainier, 100 miles away can be seen, Puget Sound and many interesting sights. Roses are here plentiful and we were told an effort is being made to outclass Portland as a rose city. Seattle has the second highest building in the United States, the Smith building, 42 stories. At the shop of Matt Grossman we saw Earney Kiebler cutting meat. One thing characteristic of the western people was striking, not one we met on our whole trip, living in the west would go east to live if they formerly had lived east.

Our next stop was Great Falls, Montana. Here we met with our brother Julius and sister, Mrs. Stukey. This is a beautiful city and growing fast. Here the largest smelter is located. It has a smoke stack 506 feet high and is 50 feet in diameter. A few miles from the smelter is located Great Falls from which the city received its name. Here they are building a dam which will give 90,000 horse power. We spent one day on the ranch of Dr. Stukey eight miles from Great Falls, not a tree could be seen for miles. In the east you call five or more acres a farm, in the west five or more acres are called a ranch. The doctor took up a homestead and this will be his last year to improve it and get a little. He and the boys have a suite of rooms for office in one of the largest buildings in the city. We were told by outsiders that the firm of Murch & Wuertner are the coming young lawyers of Great Falls. They are enjoying a fine practice at the present time.

A scenic route to Denver was surely beyond description. We stopped one day in Salt Lake City, saw the Mormon tabernacle and at noon attended an organ recital given for the benefit of the tourists. About 1000 attended. This tabernacle seats about 10,000 people. A pin was dropped at one end of this large tabernacle and was distinctly heard at the other end. Brigham Young's bronze statue stands on the square of two principle streets. 60,000 mormons live in the city which has a population of 110,000.

After leaving Salt Lake City we passed through mountains and gold mines, Tennessee pass, the highest point on our whole trip, an altitude of 10,240 feet, passed through a snow storm at this point. This high altitude affected us, snow on the mountains was common as sparrows in Manchester. The trip through the Royal gorge was surely wonderful. Two open cars were attached to the observation car before we entered the gorge. We stopped off at Colorado Springs on Saturday and were present at the convention of the united commercial travelers and enjoyed many new acquaintances. On Sunday we attempted to go up Pikes Peak but when we were told snow was 25 to 30 feet deep within 1000 feet of the top and impossible for the cog wheel train to go further we did not attempt to ascend, it was snowing at the foot then so we returned to the city. We left Denver and found Dr. G. Kuhl, former Manchester boy, enjoying a fine practice. We met Dr. G. W. Loomis, formerly professor of the high school at Manchester who is now in the real estate business. Before we left we were surprised to meet Chas. Cole who left Manchester on account of his health and is now looking fine. He has gained 16 pounds since leaving home and expects soon to be with his family, a well wisher. We next journeyed to Kansas City, Mo., and there the word "Hospitality" was written over the door of our friend Will Payne and family their untiring efforts to show us that Kansas City was not in the back woods was readily comprehended. We were shown the Hercules Spring Bed factory of which Will is vice president and manager. Having been established less than two years much larger quarters are being sought to take

Kiwanis Donates Funds

Steve Kuebler, Joni DeBell and Jane Finkbeiner

Joni DeBell, Manchester Community Schools Agricultural teacher accepts a check for $260 from Steve Kuebler and Jane Finkbeiner of Manchester's newly formed Kiwanis Club. These funds are to help in the creation of an agricultural building for the study of animal sciences for the Manchester students. Ms. DeBell has indicated that the funds will go for much needed equipment for the new building. The funds were raised from the Kiwanis first annual cider sale, and the club thanks the community for their support in that event.

Santa Parade Update

- Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

The Friday after Thanksgiving is traditionally the "biggest shopping day of the year." Everyone is anticipating Christmas.

But for Manchester children, this coming Sunday is an even bigger day in Christmas preparations.

All is ready for the "Santa Claus Parade" to come to Manchester this Sunday!

If you're downtown near the Mill just before 1:00 p.m., you'll hear the parade coming up Main Street from Emanuel Church.

Santa will be chauffeured by George Macomber in a horse-drawn wagon. Brownies and Girl Scouts will escort him with jingling bells.

Awaiting Santa on the Mill porch will be the Mayor, Mary Kallewaard, and bands and choirs. The Manchester High School Band will play its first performance under its new director, George Rousseau.

And the always delightful Klager Children's Choir will charm the crowd with caroling.

Remember, Santa will be available at Corky D's dining room until 4:00 to listen to children telling him their "wish lists."

It's the day for the children. And so many Manchester folks are pitching in to make it an exciting and joyful day!

Come with your children and/or grandchildren. Or come alone just to warm your heart with that special excitement that only children can express.

This Sunday, November 26, at 1:00 p.m. at the Mill is a day for the children in all of us.

Manchester Fair Date Set

At the November 13, 1989 meeting, the Fair Board signed a contract with W.G. Wade Shows, Inc. for the 1990 Fair. The Manchester Community Fair will be July 10-14, 1990.

The carnival hopes to bring more rides than last year and there will be advance sale of ride tickets at a reduced rate. Plans are under way for entertainment and different events for your enjoyment. If anyone has ideas that they would like to share with the Fair Board, please call Carol Britten at 428-8474 or 428-8589 or call Jerry Bristle at 428-7113.
