Around The Table With PJ

GRADES

A friend recently told about his daughter who brought home a substandard report card. His first reaction, he told me, was to get angry, to tell his daughter in no uncertain terms that her school-work had to improve, or else. That's a fairly natural response, especially for parents who are used to their kids getting good grades.

Another typical reaction to a bad report card is to offer the kid monetary rewards for good grades in the next grading period. And I've known parents who restrict their kids' social privileges until their grades show improvement.

I really don't know how a parent should respond to poor grades. It's always tough to decide what should be done - whether to punish the child or to offer some incentive for doing better. Mostly, I think, reacting at report card time is probably of little effect one way or another.

Either kind of reaction removes responsibility for the grades from the student and puts it on the parents. In a helpful book called "The Parents' Answer Book" (available from Michigan PTA, 1101 North Washington Avenue, Lansing, MI 48906, for $7.95 plus $2.50 shipping and handling), one expert says that taking responsibility for your child's grades in this way gives the kid a lot of power. If the student is allowed to suffer on his own the consequences of bad grades, however, the parent has a better chance of stepping in and turning things around.

The book goes on to say that researchers at Stanford University have found that parents who are extremely lenient or extremely strict don't do as well in influencing their kids' grades as those parents who are moderate and consistent. Monetary rewards, they say, tend to teach kids that money is more important than learning.

"The Parents' Answer Book" advises helping your under-achieving child by providing tutoring, giving positive feedback for successes, establishing a loving atmosphere in the home, and doing anything helpful that the child's teachers may suggest.

Another book for parents, "Helping Your Child Succeed in School" (published by the School Division of the Association of American Publishers), goes even further in its suggestions for parents whose kids are getting bad grades. Some of the advice from this book includes listening carefully and uncritically to what your child has to say about the situation and looking for clues about what may be wrong.

Working hard at communicating with your child might be the best thing a parent can do. As I said before, when the grades come out, it's really too late to do anything. Good grades come from consistent study and encouragement from home, not from threats or bribes. Promising payoffs, say the writers of "Helping Your Child Succeed in School," can actually act as a discouragement, especially if the kid thinks he's incapable of achieving the grades that will result in reward. (To find out how to get copies of "Helping Your Child Succeed in School," write to Sandra Conn Associates, Inc., 2551 N. Clark Street, Suite 400, Chicago, IL 60614-1717.)

Another important tip from this book is to trust your child. If your kid says that things are improving, believe it until something tells you otherwise. Don't rely on report cards as the only measure of what your child is accomplishing in school. Take a look at completed assignments, quizzes, tests, writings, and so forth, and look for positive things to praise, not just for problems to be solved.

By communicating and encouraging

In order to make sure the livery knows how many canoes to bring, please be sure your registration indicates if you want one to rent.

Registration forms and rules of the race are available at Krauss Pharmacy, Dr. Stan Gilbert's office, Pyramid Office Supplies, or by calling the CRC. The entry fee is $6 per person, children 12 and under free. Registration forms should be returned with a check (do not include canoe rental fee) no later than May 19 at 4:00 p.m. Late registration will be allowed on the day of the race at the starting line at 11:00 a.m. Late registration fees will be $8 per person.

At Wampler's Lake

Manchester Enterprise
June 7, 1888

The Opening On Wednesday

The morning at Wampler's Lake opened with every prospect for a beautiful day. A strong wind from the southwest made it unpleasant for those on board the new and beautiful steamer, "Idlewild," but every preparation was made to make it safe sailing. At 9 A.M. teams began to come from all directions, keeping the genial host, Mr. Jas. Moore, and his assistants, busy taking care of his guests.

By 10:30 o'clock the steamer had on 60 pounds of steam, and it was proposed to test the seaworthy qualities of the new boat. The owners, Messrs. Clark Bros. & Jas. Tracy, like good doctors who were not afraid to take a dose of their own medicine, left the dock with Capt. Clark at the wheel, James Tracy and Will P. Cutting in the engine room, and a few invited guests. The boat rode the white-coated waves in fine

Obituary

It was fun but exhausting to have a week in the 80's. Seems as if everything grew at least 2 inches, bloomed overnight or suddenly needed attention. Some say "Too hot, too early." I wonder if the morels were out there and we missed them. We'll have to eat mushrooms in sauce over our pork chops at the May Birthday Bash on Thursday, May 3 at senior lunch. Come at 11:00 for exercise at Emanuel and work up an appetite. Call Linda at 428-8359 ahead or Jan at 428-7630 before 10:30 on meal days to enjoy our senior meals if you are 55 or older. Bingo at the Center follows each Thursday meal.

Tuesday, May 8: Jan will serve all beef meat loaf, isn't that unusual? Our illustrious cook must lay awake nights to come up with food with that different twist. At 12:30, there will be a hearing screening by Chelsea Hospital folks. This will be held in Emanuel's dining room.

Wednesday, May 9: The senior bus begins pickup for the Saline Hospital program at 10:00 a.m. If you wish to go, call Erma Alber at 428-8707. There is time for lunch and a brief visit with our Manchester residents of the Saline Home who are sometimes so busy with their activities that you have to "run them down" to visit. Go along and get cheered up. Acquaisers can meet at Emanuel parking lot at 10:00 to pool rides to Michigan Center pool.

Thursday, May 10: Exercise begins at 11:00 with beef stroganoff following at lunch time at 12:00 noon. It won't be too long until senior meals will cease for the summer break, so come while you can.

You may also take out meals for family and friends by calling in ahead. Volunteers are also busy on meal days taking meals to your home if you are shut-in. We don't take time to thank these dedicated "delivery" seniors who come back to the meals a little late after bringing meals to others, so thank you! Our dedicated bus drivers need a large pat on the back, too.

aging your child all along the way, you can avoid the nastiness that often ensues when she comes home with a poor report card at the end of a quarter or a semester. If you stay on top of things and really take interest in what your kid is doing in school, then you'll be well prepared for whatever shows up on that grade report.

If the grades have already come out and they're bad, start doing these things now, before it's time for another report card. There are no simple answers to turning around a student who is having some difficulty in school. It takes time, patience, and, most of all, consistent communication to get the job done.

If you have some ideas about how to handle bad grades from a parent's point of view, send them to me, PJ, c/o The Manchester Enterprise, 150 East Main, P.O. Box 37, Manchester, MI 48158. I'm sure there are lots of parents out there who would like to have a conversation with you on this subject.

Girl Scouts Celebrate Earth Day

Daisies Cleaning up at the gazebo

Troop 274 weeding flower beds at Kirk Park

Troop 729 picking up at Carr Park

Troop 596 planting wildflowers on the river bank

On April 21, all Manchester Girl Scouts gathered at the Gazebo at 1:00 p.m. Sybil Kolon, who is organizing Manchester's recycling effort, gave a short talk. She told the girls that what they have been learning in the Girl Scouts this year is very good, and they need to continue to work to improve the environment.

The Girl Scout theme for 1990 is "The earth matters!" The girls earn a patch for the following projects:

1. Learn what you can do to save and protect the earth.
2. Serve by doing at least one project to improve the earth's natural beauty.
3. Teach others to be aware of the world around us.

Daisy Troops 587 & 988 picked up trash around the gazebo, planted ajuga under two trees on Main Street near the post office.

Cindy Lowell was an adult helper. First grade Brownie Troop 728 cleaned the library lawn and weeded and planted flowers in the library garden. Adults involved were Patty Swaney and Lois McAdam.

Second grade Brownie Troop 675 picked up trash on McComb St., Union St., and along the river. They planted bulbs along the river, around the veteran's monument and the Wurster Park sign. Barb Eversole and Pat Park were the adults involved.

Second grade Brownie Troop 706, with help from Sally Abbott, Beth Coutts, and Anita Tyler, picked up trash in Chi-Bro Park.

Cleaning and weeding the rose beds at Kirk Park were the third grade Brownie Troop 274, with Marikay Kennedy and Sherry Barker.

Fourth grade Junior Troop 729 picked up trash at Carr Park and planted flowers around the new sign. Leaders are Debbie Branch and Mary Kallewaard.

Fifth grade Junior Troop 650 picked up trash around the welcome sign at the east entrance to Manchester, filled the planter box, planted shrubs and flowers, painted the box with preservative, attached an "Earth Day 1990" plaque. Adult leaders are Chris Brown and Jan Wizzgird.

Cleaning the east river bank north of Main Street were the Cadettes from Troop 596. They removed lots of large discards from long ago: a ceramic sink, barrels, tires, bottles, cans, then planted wild flowers to prevent further erosion of the bank. Pat Sahakian and Sue Gistingier assisted with the Cadette troop effort.

After each troop completed its part of the clean-up, the Dairy Queen treated the girls to ice cream cones.

11th Annual Great Chili Cookoff

Watch out stomach...indigestion will abound! More than 240 gallons of chili will be prepared and consumed at the 11th Annual Great Chili Cook-Off May 5 and 6 at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds in Saline. This is a benefit hosted by the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan.

More than 80 cooks representing three states, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, will compete in Saturday's Official North Central Chili Cook-Off. This cook-off follows the rules of the International Chili Society, defining true chili as any kind of meat cooked with chili peppers, various spices and other ingredients with the exception of thickening agents such as beans, spaghetti, etc. The winner of this competition will receive $500 and a chance to compete in the International Chili Society's World Championship Cook-Off in California this fall.

Forty cooks will compete in the Renegade Chili Cook-Off on Sunday. Recipes will feature ethnic, vegetarian and other varieties of chili. The number one cook will win $250 and a chance to compete

The cook-off will also feature two days of chili cook-off competitions, chili tasting, a concert by Rare Earth, the Great Midwestern Egg Drop Competition sponsored by WQBF-FM, the Dawn Chili Scruboff sponsored by Dawn Dishwashing Liquid, country bands sponsored by WWWW-FM, a rock band sponsored by WRIF-FM, a horse show, a petting farm, country cloggers and a craft show at the fund raising event.

The cook-off is the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan's most important fund raiser. The foundation's goal is to raise over $40,000 to help provide patient services, research and educational programs for kidney patients statewide.

Rain or shine, the chili will brew! Admission is $5 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under. For more information about this fund-raising event, please contact the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan toll free by calling 1-800-482-1455.

Future Problem Solving

A team of students from the middle school participated in the tenth annual Michigan Future Problem Solving Program State Bowl. Matt Bauder, Nate Kloster, Kurtis McDonald, Kye Potter, and their coach, Mary Ann Fielder, met in Ann Arbor at the University of Michigan on April 21-22 to compete with 120 teams, the top 15% of teams from throughout Michigan.

The State Bowl is the culmination of a year-long program where students are taught to creatively seek, attack, and solve problems related to projections into the future. More than 14,000 Michigan students worked on three problems during the 1989-90 school year (Tropical Forest Destruction, Arms Race, and Poverty) which were critiqued by trained evaluators. Based on the third problem, the top 15% of Michigan teams from each of three grade divisions (4-6, 7-9, and 10-12) were invited to participate in the State Bowl. While teams knew the general topic of this year's Bowl - Medical Advances - they did not know the specific nature of the problem they would attempt to solve until the Bowl began.

Solutions were evaluated on clearly established criteria, and the top four teams from each division received trophies. State Champions also were invited to represent Michigan at the 1990 International Conference coming up June 8-11, at Washington University in St. Louis, MO. In the past nine years, Michigan participants have won 17 championships at the International Conference.

Although Manchester's team did not win any trophies, the team learned a lot and had a lot of fun.

Food Drive

For most of us, springtime conjures up thoughts of fresh young flowers, the robin's return to Michigan, and warm breezes blowing away the winter chill.

To the Humane Society of Huron Valley, spring means the arrival of seemingly endless litters of puppies and kittens. Not only do they require care and shelter, they require food.

Thus, in celebration of "Be Kind To Animals Week," May 6-12, HSHV will be sponsoring a Puppy and Kitten Food Drive to help replenish the quickly vanishing stock of food to fill the stomachs of our young shelter residents.

Shoppers may help HSHV by purchasing puppy and kitten food and leaving it in collection bins located at the front of participating stores, or they may bring contributions directly out to the shelter at 3100 Cherry Hill Road in Ann Arbor.

Don't pass up this opportunity to help feed the thousands of homeless puppies and kittens who make their home at the Humane Society. Let your thoughts turn not only to warm summer breezes and fresh young flowers, but to the young animals who also make their entrance into our world at this time of year.

Chamber of Commerce Reaffirms Position

The Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce became the center of controversy when the discussions of board members became public information. The board then reviewed the by-laws which state the purpose of the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce. They are as follows: "to advance the general welfare and prosperity of the Manchester area so that its citizens and all areas of its business community shall prosper. All necessary means of promotion shall be provided, and particular attention and emphasis shall be given to the economic, civic, commercial, cultural, industrial and educational interests of the area."

The charge of the by-laws makes it explicitly clear that the Chamber's view should support Manchester Stamping retaining its approved zoning before the general election on this issue.

It was made very clear that an individual's personal opinion may not be the view of the Chamber or its membership and that every effort in the future will always be to represent the Chamber's overall view and not our own personal one.

Because these opinions were listed publicly and in an unauthorized direct mailing to voting township residents it was determined that the board acted in good faith in support of Manchester Stamping's existing zoning prior to the election. It again stands behind that support for Manchester Stamping and that if need be, the issue will be brought before the General Membership.

There was a consensus among the Chamber membership that there needs to be a written response to clarify the unfortunate mailing indicating that the Chamber's support was fraudulent.

It is our Chamber's concern that the mailing just before the election probably influenced some township voters in voting against Manchester Stamping.

It was also considered in the future support of other controversial issues that the Chamber might take a more active role of getting pertinent, reliable information to voters so that they might make a more representative decision.

It is the hope of the Chamber board that this issue will be concluded as quickly as possible and that the Chamber remains a strong, reliable and positive force in this community.

Jolly Farmerettes

The monthly meeting of the Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club was held April 21 at the home of Andrea Clark. There were 8 members, 3 leaders and 2 guests present. We welcomed our newest club member, Laura Monkiewicz. Flag pledges were led by Karen Goodell.

Under bills and communications the 4-H club received a thank you from the 4-H office for the stage decorations at Spring Achievement. A letter was received requesting $10 donations for fair trophies for the Youth Show. Anyone may donate to the Youth Show and our club will contribute for two trophies.

Under new business, we discussed the meeting dates for the May and June meetings. The May meeting will be May 19 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at Sarah and Jodi Feldkamp's. Members enrolled in Buymanship will have their meeting from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on May 19 at the Feldkamp's. Buymanship enrollees are to bring paper cutouts of vertical and horizontal lined clothing. 4-H Fair books were distributed and you are to make up your summer project list for Elaine for the May 19 meeting. We discussed the fair booth and trash barrels. Bring sketches of your theme ideas to the May meeting and wear old clothes as we'll attempt to paint base coats on the barrels. Those attending 4-H Exploration Days will be Sarah, Jodi, Wendy, Michelle, Andrea and Sharon. The June meeting will be the 11th.

Further business was a reminder of our club commitment to model at the Emanuel Church Hall on Saturday, May 5. We are to be present for dinner at noon and after eating will model for the program. We have narration cards from Spring Achievement and Mrs. Parr will narrate. We should be done by 2:15 or 2:30 p.m. You can also model last year's sewing garments, but you'll need to have your narration card. Contact Elaine with any questions.

Demonstrations were given by Suzanne Lowery and Sharon Goodell. Recreation was looking at Andrea's goats.

The next meeting will be May 19. Demonstrations will be given by Jodi Parr, Karen Goodell and Sarah Feldkamp. Refreshment committee will be Jodi and Sarah Feldkamp and Laura Monkiewicz.

TIPS FOR MUSHROOM HUNTING:

- First-time morel pickers should hunt with an experienced guide because many false morels may be poisonous.
- Search for mushrooms at ground level underneath leaves, underbrush and other debris. Also look in woods near hardwood trees, old orchards and stumps.
- Cut morels at the base. Never pull morels out of the ground.
- Pick only unblemished morels and place them in a net or paper bag. Never place mushrooms in plastic bags which cause quick spoilage.
- Cook morels before eating because raw morels may be indigestible.

Money Management

ON YOUR OWN FOR THE FIRST TIME? BASIC FINANCIAL ADVICE TO HELP YOU GET STARTED

If you've venturing out on your own for the first time, you have a lot of work ahead of you. For example, do you know how to build a budget, choose a savings account, or establish credit? And what do you need to know before you sign a rental lease? The Michigan Association of CPAs offers some easy to understand answers to these sometimes baffling questions.

Creating a Budget

An effective budget is the surest way to gain control of your financial life and build savings. Start by listing all monthly expenses, including such fixed and semi-fixed costs as rent, insurance premiums, automobile and educational loans, utility bills and commuter expenses. Your fixed expenses should also include a savings factor. CPAs strongly recommend that you set aside at least 10 percent of your takehome pay into some type of savings account or investment.

To be accurate, your list of expenses must also include estimates of variable expenses, such as those for auto repairs and, of course, entertainment and travel. Remember, if your budget is too rigid, you probably won't stick to it.

Another expense that people sometimes forget to consider when developing budgets is tax liability. The key to avoiding this problem is determining the proper amount of withholding. Remember, the amount of money withheld from your paycheck for taxes is determined by the W-4 form you file with your employer. To ensure that you're setting aside a sufficient amount of money for taxes, double-check your withholding calculations.

After you've listed your monthly expenses, calculate your monthly income, including salaries and any dividends or interest payments that you receive on a regular basis. Now compare your income total to your expense total. If you are spending more than you're making, you will have to start from scratch and adjust your budget accordingly.

Select a Savings Account

A little knowledge can go a long way in helping you choose the right savings account. To make an informed decision, you must understand how interest is compounded, evaluate the annual yields offered by various accounts and investigate the type of fees the institution can charge.

The term "Compounding" means that your interest is periodically added to your savings, so that your interest earns more interest. Interest can be compounded in any number of ways: daily, monthly, semi-annually or annually. In general, the shorter the compounding period, the more total interest you earn on the account.

Another factor to consider is the effective annual yield which provides a more accurate gauge for those shopping for the best savings account. This figure reflects the impact that compounding has on the annual interest rate. By comparing effective annual yields between two or more accounts, you can get a good idea of how hard your money will be working for you in the account.

Before making a final decision, make sure you find out whether the institution imposes restrictions on or charges fees for establishing, maintaining or terminating your account. Other items that may take a bite out of your savings include penalties for low balances or early withdrawals and automatic teller transaction fees.

Establishing Credit

To establish credit, apply for a credit card with a single purpose, such as a department store or a gasoline company. Contact the stores or companies where you make the most purchases and apply to those with the lowest interest rates. If your application is approved, your credit limit will, as a rule, start off low—perhaps as low as $500.

Keep in mind that obtaining a credit card does not automatically establish a credit rating. In order to build a credit history, you must use your credit card and demonstrate a pattern of timely payment.

After a period of charging and repaying your debts, you will be ready to apply for a national bank credit card such as MasterCard or Visa. Your chances for approval may be best at the financial institution where you opened your savings and checking accounts. Be selective in choosing the right form of credit to meet your borrowing needs. The right choice can help you save a significant amount of money. If you use your credit mainly for convenience and pay your bills in full each month, look for a card with no annual fee and a long grace period. If, on the other hand, you tend to stretch out your payments and maintain a balance on your card, make sure the credit card's annual percentage rate is reasonable.

After you have established credit, be sure to use your cards sensibly. Don't apply for more cards than you need, and don't run up more debt than you can handle.

Renting an Apartment

If you plan to rent an apartment or house, be sure you understand your rights and obligations as a tenant before you sign a lease. Remember, your lease is a binding contract. To find out about laws or regulations that may affect you, call a local government office for referral to the proper agency.

You should also read the fine print of the actual lease with great care. Make sure you note the length of the lease, restrictions against pets or children, and any other limitations. Other issues you may want to discuss with your potential landlord include the amount of your security deposit and whether this money will earn interest, the estimated rent increase if the lease is renewed, and whether the rent includes utilities.

For more information on how to get started in the world of personal financial planning, you can request a copy of the brochure, "Getting Started Financially," from the Michigan Association of CPAs by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request to: MACPA, P.O. Box 9054, Farmington Hills, MI 48333.

6 important facts about wheel alignment

1. Extend tire life

It's happened to almost everyone: buy a set of tires, and before long one or two tires are wearing out before the others. On today's cars, this applies to the rear tires as well as the front tires. The most common cause of unusual tire wear is improper alignment. Over the years, a properly aligned vehicle can save hundreds of dollars in tire wear.

5. Improve handling

Does your car pull to one side, does the steering wheel vibrate, do you have to constantly move the steering wheel to keep your car traveling straight ahead? These and other handling problems can generally be corrected by four wheel alignment.

2. Spot problems early

A suspension system inspection is an inherent part of the wheel alignment operation. This gives the mechanic a chance to spot worn parts that would affect vehicle alignment. It also gives him an opportunity to spot small problems before they become big, costly ones.

3. Ensure safe driving

A periodic four wheel alignment makes sure your car handles properly and, more importantly, provides an opportunity for inspecting the suspension system for defective parts. In some ways, the safe driving aspect may be the most important benefit of wheel alignment.

4. Stretch fuel mileage

Fuel mileage increases as rolling resistance decreases. Proper wheel alignment sets all four wheels parallel which, in turn, assures minimum rolling resistance. This plus proper tire inflation provide top efficiency for maximum mileage.

6. Get a better ride

Proper alignment helps the front and rear suspension systems do their job. With all the system components in proper relation, road shock is efficiently absorbed, so the vehicle is more stable, and you get a smoother ride.

At Wampler's Lake

style, going to the upper end of the lake and returning in about 45 minutes, inspiring confidence in the large gathering of people at the hotel.

The Manchester cornet band arrived, playing the "Big Four." They played a number of excellent pieces during the day and evening.

The landlord, Mr. Moore opened his large skating rink with free skates to all that chose to avail themselves of the extended courtesy. Everything was done on the part of the attaches of the hotel to make it pleasant for all. It was the expression of many, that were strangers to the house, that it was the most pleasant gathering seen together in a long time. Nothing presented itself to mar the general good feeling, except the little accident to Dr. Hyndman, whose sailboat was capsized by a treacherous wave, and gave him and Chas. Millen a ducking; but as the doctor doesn't think he has had "a good sail" without a capsize, it was all right for him, but caused no little apprehension until the steamer and several small boats put off to his assistance.

At 6:30 the cornet band went aboard the steamer and it was but the work of a few moments to secure a large load for a trip around the lake. This was the first loaded test for the boat, making the entire distance around the lake in just one hour, against a strong headwind. The steamer will prove one of the main attractions at the lake this season. She will carry 100 persons with comfort, and is in every way a safe boat.

We noticed a large number of old people, and on inquiry found several who were over 80 years of age. It was enjoyment enough for one to see those good old people enjoying themselves, and how much better it would be if the younger ones would have insisted on their parents taking a day of rest and meet their many oldtime friends at gatherings of this kind. A ball game in the forenoon, the Clinton vs. Evans' Lake, was a call at the 7th inning. Score, 13 to 2 in favor of Clinton.

The afternoon game, Clinton vs. Brooklyn, proved to be the "jug handle" order. Clinton came off victorious, with a score of 14 to 3. Two of Clinton's best players were detained at home, while the catcher for the Brooklyn was laid by with a damaged finger.

The dance in the evening was largely attended, and was a pleasant affair.

Softball & Baseball Action

by Jon
On Monday, both our boys and girls played ball against Michigan Center. Unfortunately our squads fell short.

On Friday, our varsities bused to Vandercook Lake. The girls behind the strong pitching of Jackie Ahrens, defeated the Jayhawks 14-9. Those who supplied big bat power were: Jackie, Lisa Lozier, Jenny Binder and Rebecca Scherdt. Nikole Reinhart had four RBI's. This evens our overall record at 2-2, but we stand two and one in Cascades Conference play.

In the boys' contest, the Jayhawks rallied in their final at-bats with two outs to nip us 7-8. We had four home runs in this game, two by Andy Pagel and one each by Jesse Widmayer and Dan Weber.

The afternoon game, Clinton vs. Brooklyn, proved to be the "jug handle" order. Clinton came off victorious, with a score of 14 to 3. Two of Clinton's best players were detained at home, while the catcher for the Brooklyn was laid by with a damaged finger.

Bill Ames Honored

Mr. "Bill" Ames of Manchester was honored at a dinner party on April 25 at the Pittsfield Union Grange on Saline-Ann Arbor Road. A community service award was presented for his faithfulness in service to many people through his work in Cooperative Extension of Ann Arbor. His willingness to help anyone asking has been outstanding.

Mr. Ray Gillispie, acting director of Cooperative Extension of Michigan State University was the guest speaker with a challenge for the Grange in its community service to the homeless, deaf and other problems in the community.

Other guests were officers of the Cooperative Extension office, County commissioners, State Deaf Activities Chairman of the Grange Marie Thelen and her husband, Grange members and their guests. There were over 60 in attendance.

on April 30, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Classes will be held May 7 through the 10th from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. An Adult CPR class to learn artificial respiration, one-rescuer CPR, and first aid for obstructed airway will be held at the hospital on Tuesday, May 8.

"Neighbor to Neighbor" Community Visits: Visits to neighboring communities by members of the hospital family including employees, medical staff, volunteers, and some special members of the hospital's Children's Center.

Recycling Meeting

All interested persons are invited to attend a meeting at which information and ideas will be presented with the purpose of expanding the current recycling opportunities in the Manchester area.

The meeting will be at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, May 5. It will be held at the Manchester Township Hall at 275 S. Macomb St.

At last month's meeting a committee was formed to gather information and to suggest short and long term options which could work in our community.

The State of Michigan Solid Waste Plan has a goal of reducing the waste stream by 50% by the year 2005. The Washtenaw County goal, based upon the state requirement of each county to develop its own plan, is a reduction of 30% by 1995.

Recycling is a large part of the solution of the solid waste crisis. By acting locally we can devise a plan which will work for our community. Many alternatives are available. This is our opportunity to have an input on an issue which we must face soon.
