Chicken Broil Memories

Pictures are from the 26th Annual Chicken Broil

Erik & Marcy Alsgaard

The Manchester Chicken Broil brings memories to area residents. Dave Little recalls that the special char-broiling process was developed by Mac Moore, retired poultry department head from M.S.U., and by Howard Zindell, then the M.S.U. poultry department head. Luther C. Klager owned a chicken hatchery from which the chickens for the Chicken Broil were supplied. Char-broiling chickens was a novelty.

In the beginning, around 500 people attended the Chicken Broil. Attendance has grown every year. The Chicken Broil is like family reunion time. It is also a chance to see old friends.

Howard Parr remembers how his father, Clayton Parr, used to send out postcards to invite people to attend the Chicken Broil.

Marilyn Schultz remembers the Chicken Broil as a family get together. "My dad worked down there for years and years." (It is a Manchester Chicken Broil tradition that only male residents work at the Chicken Broil.) "I can remember getting new outfits to wear since this was one of the main events after school got out each year. Living out in the country, I didn't see my friends that often."

The director of the Jackson Cascades Chapter of the Sweet Adelines, Millie Gilleys, says that her group really enjoyed performing at the Chicken Broil. This year a quartet from this group will be performing.

Marie Pratt lives in the block adjoining the Chicken Broil and each year if the wind is just right, she says she can smell first the smoke from the fires, and then the char-broiling chicken. From her house she can sometimes see little red wagons filled with take-out chicken rolling past her house.

"When we lived in Brooklyn, back in the early '60's", reflects Diane Wiedmayer, "my dad used to come home with great big white boxes containing large bags of potato chips, etc. for each family member. It was a big deal."

Come make your own memories. Come to the Manchester Chicken Broil starting at 4:00 p.m. on July 19.

July 21, 1972

Dear Mr. Heath:

Last night my husband and I took our neighbor and their family to the Manchester Chicken Broil, for one of their wonderful chicken dinners.

We had two small children with us, and the ticket seller suggested we buy one ticket and split the dinner with the children.

Going through the line BOTH my husband and I picked up a dinner for the children. After arriving home we realized ONE had not been paid for.

Please see that the enclosed check gets where it belongs as I didn't know where to send it and thought you were connected with it.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Orval Murray.

P.S. We have been to about all of the chicken broils.

Manchester Mill Run

Start training!! The 9th Manchester Mill Run will be held on Saturday, August 11, 1990.

As in the past years, this event will coincide with the downtown Manchester Street Fair to be held the same day.

Look for more details in next week's Manchester Enterprise.

School Holds Taxation Hearing

The Manchester Board of Education is calling for a public hearing regarding the levying of property taxes for 1990. The Board of Education must hold a public hearing prior to officially approving the millage levy when the state equalized valuation (S.E.V.) increases and would generate more revenue than in the previous fiscal year.

The Board is authorized to levy 39.093 mills for operating purposes. As a result of the Headlee Amendment the authorized millage was rolled back from 41.5 mills to 40.6534 mills in 1989-90 and to 39.093 mills in 1990-91.

Based upon the increase in state equalized valuation (S.E.V.), the District's tax levy would be limited to 35.8678 mills unless the Board of Education takes action to levy the maximum authorized millage rate of 39.093. The 35.8678 mills would only generate revenue equal to last year.

The Board of Education, after careful examination of its estimated operating expenses and revenues for the 1990-91 fiscal year, has determined that the best interest of the school district requires the levy of the additional millage rate of 3.2252 mills for a total of 39.093 mills for operating purposes. The additional millage rate of 3.2252 mills does not exceed the 39.093 mills for operating purposes set by the Headlee Amendment for the 1990-91 fiscal year.

It Was A Hot One

The Manchester Enterprise
July 5, 1990

The Celebration at Manchester, July 4. Old Sol helped to make it so. Everything passed off according to Program, amusing the immense crowd present.

Bills were out for celebrations at nearly all the lake resorts, Jackson, Hillsdale and many of the surrounding towns, but all that seemed to have no effect upon the people, who having heard that Manchester was to celebrate, determined to come here, knowing that there would be no doubt of their having a good time.

It was the hottest day of the season and Old Sol's scorching rays pelted those who were obliged to get within range.

The refreshment stands were crowded with people who sought to slack their thirst and keep as comfortable as possible.

The train which came from Hillsdale brought the Brooklyn band, a very excellent organization, well supplied with latest music, and soon filled the crowd assembled with enthusiasm, if there was any of that element lacking. Hundreds of people from all along the line came with the band and added to the throng that soon came on the Adrian train, filled our streets with a jolly crowd.

The parade was one of the finest ever seen here and moved off in perfect order. The following had wagons represent their business: Yocum, Marx & Co., dry goods. Geo. Nisle, livery. Staib & Stegmiller, refreshments. E. C. Westgate, lumber. Geo. J. Haeusler, drugs. G. H. Ford, photographer. W. H. Lehr, refreshments. A. M. Kiebler, meat market. Nisle & Hanham, blacksmiths. Arthur Jaeger, groceries. M.M.M. club. N. Senger, refreshments. E. Hagaman, cement walk builder. H.B. Clark, contractor and builder. J. Roller & Co., shoes. Lewis Kuebler, tin shop. J. Wuertner, clothier. Geo. D. Pardee, harness maker. Freeman House. Lewis Lonier & Co. roller mills. Manchester Creamery. Harry Calhoun, bicycle repairing. Gosmer & Mahrle, jewelry and bicycles.

The parade was worthy of a more extended mention than we can give today. Sid. Wiltse of Jackson had a comic make-up and caused lots of merriment.

The long distance bicycle race was exciting and well run, the course being one that took the riders through exchange place five times.

The swimming race prizes were captured by Wm. Kramer of Manchester, first, $3; Claude Bollinger of Jackson, second, $2; Earl Kelly of Manchester, third, $1.

The tub race prizes were taken by Fred Schaffer of Manchester first, $1.50; Earl Kelly of Manchester second, $1.

Very much to the regret of the committee of arrangements and the disappointment of our guests, the balloon ascension was a failure, the balloon not rising high enough to afford a drop.

After supper the Brooklyn band at the speaker's stand, and the Adrian band on the east side of the river, gave fine concerts which were listened to by thousands who were also watching and admiring the fireworks. The display of fireworks was pronounced the best ever seen in this village.

The bands each gave us a parting selection as they left for the trains, and at 12 o'clock sharp the people had gone home and the village had settled down to its usual quiet.

Scores of people, who are considered good judges, pronounced the celebration a grand success, and we are satisfied.

There were no serious casualties. One or two had their hands hurt in firing cannon firecrackers and the two lady bicycle riders were somewhat overcome by the heat. There were no fights and no rowdyism, but a genuine, good, old-fashioned celebration.

Senior Citizens News

The sticky season is upon us. Herman and I agree that you don't feel the heat so much if you stay busy, but when you just sit, you get warmer just thinking about it. One thing you can be - this week of the fair - is busy! There are so many ways to help make our fair a success: VOLUNTEERING. You may sit in the exhibit tent, or at the gates, or at the Red Cross trailer. There are many ways, but of course your attendance is the big job to do - without that there wouldn't be a fair. So come out, especially on Thursday if you are a senior citizen; Thursday before 5:00 p.m. is the free day for us. Then pickup begins at 4:30 to go to Bethel's Ice Cream Social. Call Erna Alber at 428-8707 to add your name to the list.

Monday, July 16: Senior bus will leave the Center on a shopping trip to Tecumseh. Call Erna. This is also the day of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to be held at the American Legion Hall. Some of our seniors have given over 3 gallons of much-needed blood and are still showing up to do more! If you are under 65, still in good health, and weigh more than 110 pounds, come and try if you haven't given for a while, or are new to this.

Tuesday, July 17: There will be a 4:00 p.m. pickup by bus for the Ice Cream Social at Zion Lutheran Church at Rogers Corners. Give Erna a ring.

Thursday, July 19: Senior men will play golf. If there is time off for our men that day of the Great Manchester Chicken Broil. We will not have rain this date! (Orders from headquarters, so they say.)

Looking ahead: Friday, July 27: A trip is planned for a tour of the Capitol Building and a visit to the Library in Lansing. The bus will leave the Center at 8:00 a.m. (not at 9 as previously report). Call Erma to go. The Capitol tour begins at 9:30 a.m., thus the earlier starting time.

You may still pick up your copy of the Trumpeter. Contact Rubena Boelter at 428-8655.

Telephone Scam AARP Picnic

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Michigan (BCBSM) is advising subscribers and physicians to beware of telephone callers who pose as a BCBSM employee and ask for personal information that could be used in fraudulent schemes.

The caller asks subscribers to provide social security, checking account and driver's license numbers over the telephone and says they are needed for the subscriber or physician to receive a refund.

"Anyone receiving such a call should get the name and number of the caller, hang up, and then contact Blue Cross and Blue Shield," said Greg Anderson, director of the BCBSM anti-fraud unit.

"Personal information should rarely be given over the telephone because that information can be used in credit card fraud or other unlawful activities," he advised.

The Washtenaw County Chapter #4240 of the American Association of Retired Persons is celebrating summer with a picnic. Thursday, July 12 at noon, we will congregate at County Farm Park. The shelter, near the Medford entrance (not far from the water tower off Washtenaw Avenue,) is the site.

Bring a salad or dessert to share and your plate and utensils. Call 483-1412 by July 10 to let us know you're coming so we can have plenty of hotdogs for all. Raining? We'll make it a potluck at our usual meeting place in Pittsfield Township Hall, 701 W. Ellsworth Road.

Library Financial Report

The Manchester Township Library Board Financial Statement printed in this paper details the income and expenditures for the past 12 months. The income includes, along with the usual operating budget items, earmarked donations from the Manchester 20th Century Club, local businesses and residents, and a matching grant from the Herrick Foundation to be used for renovation of the upstairs rooms and purchase a collection of American Classics. (The contributions from the 7 businesses will be matched by an Andrew Mellon grant for the classics collection.)

Because the Library serves the school district area, including Manchester Township and parts of the three surrounding townships, the State Aid and Penal Fine payments are based on 100% of Manchester population, 67% of Sharon's and Freedom's population, and 38% of Bridgewater's population. Manchester Township contributed $18,000 from the General Funds budget as well as supplying the building and its insurance. The other three townships contributed $15 per patron family per year and Manchester Village contributed $1,500.

Unspecified donations and memorials were used for additional book purchases. The Clifford Adler Fund interest, by agreement with the family, is for the purchase of special children's and adults' volumes which the Library Director chooses apart from the operating budget for books. All memorial books are identified with bookplates indicating the memorial.

The Franklin and Claire Reck Memorial Building Fund account is in a Certificate of Deposit. The Library uses receipts from book fines, copy income, sales of used books, etc. for general operating expenses.

Open 37 hours each week, the Library staff consists of one full-time director, a half-time assistant, and three high school student pages who work a total of 11 hours each week, about 4 hours each.

Operating supplies include items peculiar to libraries, such as the cost of processing books: catalog cards, book pocket, etc. ($1.10 for each book added to the collection). The Library added over 1,100 books to the collection last year. The staff and volunteers inventories the collection in November, counting and examining each book. A total of 11,691 were identified. Since then, the collection of books and pamphlets in the Historical Room have been catalogued.

The repairs and maintenance account covers minor repairs and the cost of a 2 1/2 hour/week custodian. Lawn and garden upkeep is done by volunteers.

The transportation item (20 cents per mile) pays for staff trips to meetings and workshops, and speakers' trips for the Book Discussions held 8 times last year and supported by the Michigan Council for the Humanities.

Miscellaneous expenses include dues to the Michigan Library Association, workshop fees, and programs at the Library for children and adults.

This year the cost of new carpeting, window blinds, painting, bookshelves, and other furnishings for the upstairs are in the renovation item. Additional funds remain earmarked for completion of the project in 1990-91. No place in the financial report is there indication of the hours spent by volunteers.

The expenditure to the Huron Valley Library System supports the inter-loan system, the videos, book delivery twice weekly, and the other services supplied by the co-op.

We begin the new year with a balance of $1,286.98. The Library is fortunate that many people support it with donations. In Michigan, the funds donated to public libraries have a special income tax benefit. One-half of the contribution can be deducted from the Michigan State income tax itself up to $200 for a joint return, and $100 for singles. Information about this tax advantage is available at the Library.

Summer Bloodmobile Big Top In Manchester

The Summer Bloodmobile for the Manchester area will again be held at the American Legion Hall on Monday, July 16. The American Legion Auxiliary will host this open clinic from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. The chairperson for the day will be Mrs. Helen Hosmer. She will be assisted by workers from the Legion Auxiliary.

The local church recruiters will be asking members for donations, as well as the industry recruiters who will contact fellow employees at work. Drop boxes with registration cards will be placed at the three banks: Great Lakes Bancorp, Comerica, and First of America; and also at Baker's Dozen and Walco Food Store.

Walk-ins are always welcome and will be worked into the schedule quickly. Blood can be donated by anyone who is in good health, weighs a minimum of 110 pounds and is between 17 and 70 years old. Donating blood is relatively painless and takes less than 45 minutes from registration to a post donation snack of juice, sandwiches and cookies. The actual donation takes less than 10 minutes.

So please mark July 16 on your calendar and - BE A SUMMER BLOOD DONOR.

Tuesday, July 24, the community of Manchester has the opportunity to experience more exciting and enjoyable entertainment. The circus will be in town.

Franzen Bros. Circus will present America's favorite show under the Big Top at 5:30 and 8:00 in the evening.

In 1974, Industrial Arts High School teacher, Wayne Franzen, set out to begin his own tent circus. At this point in 1990, the 17th season of the circus, the one-ring circus employs 35 people and consists of more than 60 animals.

The circus will arrive in Manchester early in the morning of July 24. Circus lovers of all ages are invited to the Middle School athletic facility at 9:00 a.m. to watch the Big Top go up. Later in the day, 3:30-4:30, Midwest Ford is sponsoring free elephant rides for the kids.

The circus will be fun. To make the evening more enjoyable, one of Manchester's own businessmen will be riding the elephant in the parade as the circus begins.

Advance circus tickets are on sale at Krauss Pharmacy, Great Lake Bancorp, and Manchester Chiropractic Center. You guessed it! Either Harry Krauss, Dave Little or Stanley Gilbert will be on that elephant leading the parade. The person whose business sells the most tickets will be the lucky rider.

Federal Surplus Foods

Federal Surplus Foods will be distributed on Friday, July 20, from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at the Manchester United Methodist Church, 501 Ann Arbor Street.

The 4th Is Fun On The 3rd

No one ever said just why the Mens' Club picked the 3rd of July to celebrate the Fourth of July this year, but as the weather turned out, it was a wise decision. Tuesday was a perfect evening for a great crowd to gather at Carr Park for the annual fireworks spectacular. Everyone seemed to agree that it was just that; in fact, one chap from Jackson remarked that it was far better than the Cascades fireworks show put on there.

As darkness approached, the crowd was again entertained by John Swanson who used a Sheriff's patrol car, complete with P.A. system and the flashing blue lights. His "blue light" special was Historical Society raffle tickets. He also helped the Fair Board sell their 300 Club tickets and discounted carnival ride tickets. General announcements and safety warnings were made to the crowd on behalf of the Mens' Club. It certainly is great to see this cooperation among organizations working in their own way to raise funds for the betterment of Manchester. Thanks, Mens' Club for sharing your special evening this year.

Just before the fireworks began, the Historical Society held its raffle drawing which turned out as follows: $100 prizes-Larry Bell and Jeff Fahey; $50 prizes-Rod Sanford and Toni Leonard; $25 prizes-Don Franz, Harry Krauss, Dr. G.C. Lehr, Chuck Vogt, Ron Mann, Annetta Breitenwischer, Dorothea McEntee, Jean Westphal, Linda Matteson, Diane Schultzy.

One unusual thing about this drawing is that if you are present on the grounds, you take home your winnings in cash. $200 of the $550 prize money was distributed that way and the balance will be made by check this week to the other lucky winners.

The Historical Society wishes to thank everyone who participated in this year's raffle. Their combined efforts helped the Society make about $1,000 to support their projects in this community. See you again next year on the 2nd, 3rd, or 4th of July—whatever!

Bet You Didn't Know....

...It costs $40,000 to rebuild a $13,000 car, part by part.

These three factors: skyrocketing cost of repairing cars, repairing people, and the use of attorneys to settle claims all contribute to the increasing cost of your auto insurance.

...Health care expenses rose 10% last year, double the general inflation rate.

That is why it's smart to shop around for the right coverage at the right price to fit your needs. You can avoid much of the legwork by using independent agents.

...Accident victims not only get a lower percentage of claim payments when they use lawyers, but must wait twice as long to receive their settlements.

Independent agents represent more than one company so they can get several quotes for you. Independent agents are also supporting insurance industry and legislative reforms that will benefit their customers. These include working towards ceilings on premium increases and urging mandatory seat belt laws, to name two. How many agents that sell for only one company can say that? After all, keeping customers happy keeps independent agents in business.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on JULY 16, 1990 at SEVEN FORTY-FIVE (7:45) O'CLOCK P.M., at the MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL, the BOARD OF EDUCATION, of MANCHESTER COMMUNITY SCHOOLS will hold a public hearing on the levying in 1990 of an additional proposed millage rate of 3.2252 mills for operating purposes pursuant to ACT 5, PUBLIC ACTS OF MICHIGAN, 1982.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive testimony and discuss the levy of an additional millage rate, not less than seven (7) days following the public hearing the Board of Education may approve all or any portion of the proposed additional millage rate.

Pressure Canner Lids

Planning to do some pressure canning this year? To be on the safe side, you should have your gauge tested every year. Low acid foods such as vegetables, meat, fish and poultry must be processed at the right pressure for the correct number of minutes to be safe from botulism, an organism which can cause serious illness and death.

Free testing is offered at the Cooperative Extension Service every Tuesday and Thursday for the months of July, August, and September from 10:00 a.m. to noon or by appointment. Just bring in the lid of the canner which has a gauge with numbers and a dial for testing.

For additional information, call 971-0079 and ask for the Home Economics Department.

Restitution in Elevator Failure

The Michigan Department of Agriculture and Attorney General Frank Kelly have announced that a grain elevator in Dundee, known as Karner Brothers, Inc., that went broke in June of 1988, has agreed to pay over $367,000 in restitution to farmers who suffered losses as a result of its operations. Michigan Farm Bureau's economist, Bob Craig, said he hopes the farmers will be paid.

"We know there's around 30 farmers who have still not been paid for the grain that was stored in that elevator. We're hopeful that the owners will come up with this complete restitution to farmers," Craig said. "This case illustrates the value of a state grain insurance program. Farm Bureau has been involved in a petition drive calling for a referendum of grain and bean growers that would authorize a fund to be set up for a grower protection in elevator bankruptcies and insolvencies. If that program had been in effect, those farmers would have been paid from the fund."

Craig said that if Karner Brothers does not come up with full restitution, they may face fines of up to $60,000.

Capital Gains Bill

Farm Bureau has thrown its support behind a bipartisan proposal which is expected to become the focal point for capital gains debate later this year. Al Almy, director of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, said the organization is seeking co-

Standards Needed

Farm Bureau is asking Congress to set national standards for organic foods. "We believe that if consumers want food with an organic label then that label should mean the same thing throughout the country,"

Almy said that between 15 and 20 states have standards on organic food, but each standard is different from the other. The Senate Agriculture Committee approved an organic labeling measure as part of its 1990 Farm Bill discussions, but Almy said the provision is too broad. "It would impose penalties of up to $50,000 along with imprisonment and we believe that these are way out of line with the bill's purpose to encourage the production of organic foods."

sponsors for the Kastan-Mack-Shelby bill, S. 2744.

"We support reinstatement of capital gains for several reasons," Almy said. "Capital gains treatment will stimulate economic growth by reducing the cost of capital and encouraging investment, and economic growth is essential to agriculture. Capital gains is also essential for farmers who sell their farms after years in farming and are suddenly faced with inflationary, rather than real, gain. This is particularly important for those who sell their property to finance retirement."

"Also, farmers who own timber stands are faced with years of no income and great expense as they wait for the development of their asset. Capital gains treatment is important to them in the reduction of their overall tax burden," he said.

Needs Higher Priority

Because students and their families now shoulder a much higher proportion of the cost of attending public universities in Michigan, farmers are concerned that access to high-quality, affordable programs is increasingly at risk, according to Michigan Farm Bureau economist Bob Craig.

"Michigan's public universities are considered to be among the best in the nation," Craig said. "However, in spite of efforts on the part of government to direct funds toward state schools, funding in Michigan has not kept pace with other states over the past 20 years."

Craig said one solution to the problem is to make higher education a higher priority.

"In particular, Michigan Farm Bureau is supporting significant increases in both Cooperative Extension Service and the Agriculture Experiment Station budgets at Michigan State University, which we feel are essential to provide quality service and research for the state's agriculture industry," he said.

Townline Workers 4-H Club

The Townline Workers 4-H club's meeting was called to order on July 2 by president, Christina Schaible. Next were the American Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H pledge. Then came the secretary's report and the treasurer's report.

Old business was next, which included: Chosing Monday, July 16 as the day for building our 4-H gates; discussing and announcing that sheep shearing would be at 6:30 on July 18 at the Bihlmeyers; giving more information on the club tour.

Then came new business: Nominating and choosing Kevin and Brian Duible, Max and Mike Finkbeiner, Jason Mann, and Kyle Weidmayer as ushers for the 4-H king and queen contest; read letter from Teen Club about the t-shirts they are selling and Dan Bihlmeyer showed a sample of one of these t-shirts; handing out forms of evaluation for the fair; discussed and set times for barn duty and kitchen duty; talked about staying overnight in the barns during the fair; discussed club display and needed supplies.

A demonstration was then given by Lesley Soloczek and Stacey Burmeister on "How to Plant a Seed." Then, a game was played which was led by Cassie Finkbeiner. And, to close, break-away meetings were held after refreshments were served.

'What's Cooking' with Harry G. Clark:

A Look at Ice Cream — the All-American Favorite!

There's little doubt about it... Americans have a love affair going with ice cream. So much so that it might be fun to take a look at how and where it all began.

The International Ice Cream Association in Washington, DC, says that an Italian emigrant, Italo Marchiony, produced the first ice cream cone in 1896 in New York City. He was granted a patent for it in 1903.

In 1904, the ice cream cone was introduced at the St. Louis World Fair. Early flavorings for ice cream included rose water and orange water. These preceded vanilla (extract) which later became very popular.

The association says that ice cream bars, ice milk and sherbet all had their beginnings in the 1920's. According to The Dipper, an ice cream trade publication, it's likely that the ice cream sandwich, banana split, and the ice cream float first appeared around the turn of the century.

The first ice cream soda is credited to Robert M. Green of Philadelphia. In October of 1874, Green — who at the time dealt in dispensers of carbonated waters — concocted the soda for the semicentennial celebration of Philadelphia's Franklin Institute.

The date that the first malted milk shake was created also seems lost in antiquity, but William Horlick is credited with developing malted milk powder sometime about the mid-1880's in Racine, Wisconsin. Several years later, the blender appliance was being developed in the same city.

It wasn't until the 1920's that the marriage of malted milk powder and ice cream came about. The popularity of old fashioned soda fountain shakes and malts peaked in the 1940's and '50's after the blender was introduced. Today, the blender is often used in making malted milkshakes at home.

The professional home economists at Oster are the experts at making the perfect malted milkshake. It's easy!

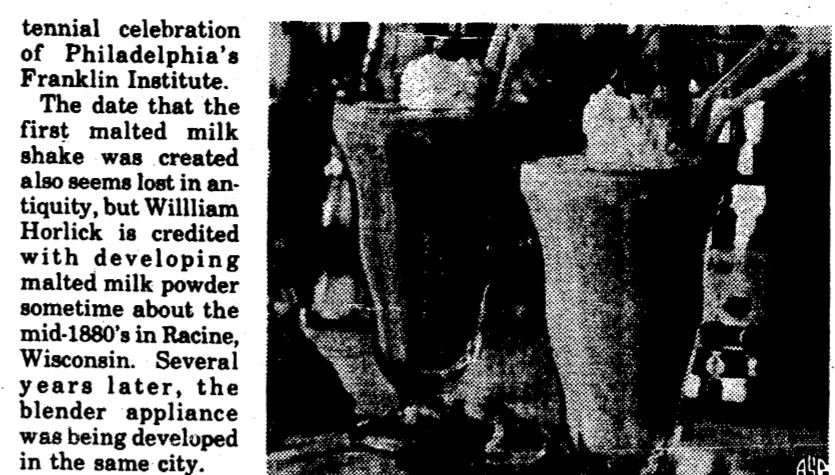

The Perfect Chocolate Malted Milkshake
2 cups vanilla ice cream, softened
1/4 cup half and half or milk

1/4 cup chocolate syrup
3 tablespoons malted milk powder

Assemble blender. Place all ingredients in blender container. Cover and process on a High speed until smooth. If necessary, stop blender and use rubber spatula to beat mixture around the processing blades.

Yield: 2 cups (1 large malted milkshake).

Variations:
• For a vanilla malted milkshake, substitute 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract for chocolate syrup.
• For a plain milkshake, omit malted milk powder.
Enjoy!

Wake Up Warm Weather Appetites With Cool and Crispy Tacos

When it's too hot to eat, much less cook, light and healthy Chicken Salad Tacos make super lunch or supper fare. As appealing and refreshing as a meal can be, they take just minutes to prepare.

Keep the cook and the kitchen cool by starting with cooked chicken or turkey purchased from the deli department. Assemble ingredients right from the refrigerator so there's no need to chill before serving.

To prepare the taco filling, toss shredded crisp romaine, chicken and scallions in a speedy south-of-the-border style marinade made with mild, medium or hot PACE® picante sauce. A lively addition to any favorite homemade or bottled dressing, the one-of-a-kind sauce adds garden-fresh flavor and just the desired degree of jalapeno "heat."

Spoon the savory/spicy mixture into taco shells, top with additional picante sauce and you're ready to serve in short order. Now that's as easy as summer cooking should be!

For additional great-tasting recipes that make eating light and healthy easy, write for a copy of "PACE® Picante Sauce Light & Healthy Recipes." This colorful collection is available free while supplies last. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

If you or your child is the recipient of a scholarship and fellowship, you may be surprised to know that the tax law may come nipping at your purse strings next April. Depending on a number of different factors, you may find yourselves unexpectedly owing substantial funds to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). According to the Michigan Association of CPAs, you should determine now whether or not you will have to report this year's payments as taxable income. Your first task is figuring out whether or not your grant actually qualifies as a scholarship or fellowship. Sounds easy, doesn't it? Well, take a look at the definition in the IRS publication on scholarships and fellowships and think again. To summarize, a scholarship is basically any amount given to a student for the purpose of obtaining an education at a university or college, while a fellowship generally aids a person pursuing a specific study or research project.

Under tax law, however, not all scholarship and fellowship payments receive equal tax treatment. Depending on the date you received the grant, and on the type of services, if any, you perform for the grantor, you may have to include part or all of the money in your taxable income.

Funds Granted Before August 17, 1986

If your scholarship or fellowship was awarded before August 17,

1986, count yourself lucky. The tax treatment remains basically the same as in the past - including many provisions that may reduce your tax liability.

If you are a candidate for a degree, you may exclude from your taxable income the basic scholarship or fellowship grant, including the value of room and board. In addition, you may exclude any grant funds specifically designated for travel, research, clerical help and equipment. But be warned, you must actually spend these amounts for the purpose of the grant and within (or shortly after) the term of the grant, or else the funds may become taxable.

On the other hand, you generally must report as income any grant payments that you receive in exchange for past, present or future employment services, or for research that mainly benefits the grantor of the award. (An exception is made in certain cases where the services are required of all candidates for the degree.)

As far as the IRS is concerned, payments to medical interns or residents, certain social service agency interns, and others in similar positions, are income and do not qualify as either scholarships or fellowships. The payment for services rule also applies to grants that require a student to work for outside employers. An example of this situation would be a university grant that requires a journalism student to work as a regular staff employee of a local newspaper.

What If You Are Not A Candidate For A Degree?

If you are not a candidate for a degree, you may still be eligible for certain tax benefits if your grant was made before August 17, 1986. Under these circumstances, you may exclude from your taxable income any amount received for such expenses as travel, research, clerical help or equipment.

In addition, you can exclude up to $300 a month for each month in which you receive scholarship or fellowship payments. You may claim the $300-a-month exclusion for a period of 36 months, consecutive or not. But once you exceed the 36-month limit, you must include in your gross income all amounts you receive under the grant, including funds designated for qualified expenses.

To complicate matters somewhat, the $300-a-month exclusion only applies if the grantor of the scholarship or fellowship is a tax-exempt, nonprofit organization operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, testing for public safety, prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or fostering national or international amateur sport competitions. Other acceptable grantors include any United States agency, state, or possession; a foreign government; or an organization created under the Mutual Education and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961.

Funds Granted After August 16, 1986

Recipients of scholarships or fellowships granted after August 16, 1986, may find life a bit more taxing. The $300-a-month exclusion for non-degree candidates, for instance, has been repealed.

Under current rules, scholarships and grants are tax-free only if you are a candidate for a degree and you use the funds for tuition, matriculation fees, books, supplies and equipment.

You cannot exclude from income any money received for such expenses as room, board and travel. Neither can you exclude the portion of a grant, including any tuition reduction, that represents payment for teaching, research or other services - even if teaching or research is required for the degree.

The new law also considers non-cash awards, such as a partial or total waiver of tuition in exchange for teaching, research or other services, as taxable income.

For further information on how to handle scholarship and fellowship funds, you may want to consult your own CPA.

Area Students Learn Citizenship

Selected by the Washtenaw Farm Bureau to attend the seminar (l-r): Valerie Lynn Haeussler of Manchester; Marcia Lee Marion of Saline; Amy Kay Weidmayer of Manchester; and Kevin Diuble of Ann Arbor.

Nearly 200 high school students from throughout the state participated in the 27th annual Young People's Citizenship Seminar, June 18-22 at Olivet College.

Michigan Farm Bureau sponsors the event to help students prepare for their citizenship responsibilities, both as voters and future policymakers, and to help them appreciate the freedoms they enjoy by living in America.

During the seminar, students perform as political party delegates, candidates and voters. In addition to participating in political rallies and campaigns, the students learn about U.S. and world economics, cultures in other countries and the many freedoms Americans often take for granted.

Toledo War Days July 14-15

Once again the Michigan Department of State's Walker Tavern Historic Complex relives the Toledo War Days on Saturday and Sunday, July 14 and 15. The 1990 version is complete with Michigan surveyors; cobblestone dancers; military encampments; a bagpiper; craftspeople of the era; and a bake sale.

Proclaimed by President Andrew Jackson as one of the most peaceful wars, the Toledo War between the Territory of Michigan and the State of Ohio over 468 square miles at the Indiana border, focused on serious debates as opposed to violent bloodshed. Questions of surveyors' rights, women's voting rights, and the general claim rights to the Toledo Strip were only a few of the issues debated during the original Toledo War Days. Those same issues will be re-debated Saturday and Sunday to commemorate the event that delayed Michigan's entrance into the Union by two years.

The winner of the fictitious debate will be voted on by visitors. Votes will be tabulated at 4:30 p.m. Sunday. Historically, the Michigan Territory received the Upper Peninsula to compensate for the loss of Toledo. Perhaps in 1990, however, the winner of the fictitious war of words and battle of wits will be Michigan.

Walker Tavern Complex is located in the Cambridge State Historic Park at the junction of US-12 and M-50 in Lenawee County. The entrance is off M-50, one quarter mile north of US-12. The Complex is open between 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. daily, June through Labor Day; no admission charge required.
