Tricia Wurster Receives Optimist Award

John Savage with Tricia and her parents, Mrs. & Mrs. Ray Wurster.

Manchester Optimists awarded the honor of Outstanding Student for the month of September to Tricia Wurster. Tricia is the daughter of Vicky and Ray Wurster and a senior. She has made the honor roll in both her freshman and junior years and has been an active member of Students Against Drunk Driving (SAAD) since 9th grade, currently serving as president.

Tricia is also active in the area wide Substance Abuse Awareness Committee (SAAC). She joined the Drama Club last year and was elected president for the 1990-91 season. Her accomplishments have earned her a place in the "Who's Who of American Students" and a scholarship from the Young American Bowling alliance. She plans to attend Cleary College next autumn, majoring in business.

Congratulations, Tricia, for your fine successes.

Chamber Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday, September 26, 1990 at the Manchester K of C Hall. An election of officers and board of directors took place, followed by a presentation to the membership by Phil Guyeskey from the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber board of directors for 1990-91 is comprised of: James Linebaugh - President, Richard Taepke-Vice President, Bradley Taylor-Secretary, Kimberly Cowen-Treasurer, and Directors Stanley Gilbert, Wayne Hamilton, James King and Sybil Kolon.

The Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce meets each third Wednesday of the month at noon at the K of C Hall. Please join us October 17, 1990 when we will feature Jim Douglas (D-Saline), candidate for State Representative in the 52nd District. Call Rick Taepke for luncheon reservations or information at 428-7444.

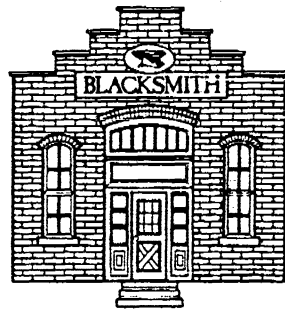

General Development Plan Update

It has become increasingly evident that the "General Development Plan" must be updated to address the accelerating growth of Manchester Township. It is vital, we feel, that this growth be directed so that it reflects the desires of the residents.

Accordingly, beginning the first week of October, 1990, a citizen survey will be mailed to both village and township residents. The Township Planning Commission feels that it is vital to get input from both groups of residents because of their close geographic proximity.

The survey is the first step of a process that will take approximately 7 months to complete. We urge you to take just a few minutes to complete the survey and return it to the planning commission. The final plan should reflect your desires and vision, but this will only be possible if you return a completed survey form. If per chance you do not receive a survey form, you may pick one up at the Township Office.

MANCHESTER AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Meet The Candidates

On Sunday afternoon, October 7, from 1:00-3:00 p.m., Manchester area residents have an opportunity to meet our candidates for the Michigan House of Representatives and the Washenaw County Board of Supervisors at the Blacksmith Shop on East Main Street.

The Manchester Area Historical Society is sponsoring the meeting and admission is free to all.

Candidates for the House of Representatives are Margaret O'Connor, the Republican candidate presently a member of the House; and, her opponent, Jim Douglas, presently Chief of Police in Saline, a Democrat.

Michael DuRussell, the Republican candidate for the County Board of Supervisors, is opposed by Marcia Hancock, a Democrat, for the seat presently held by Ellis Pratt who was defeated in the primary.

This is an opportunity for individuals to express their concerns. have questions discussed and voice opinions about State and County government to those who will represent us.

Support Your Middle School Kids

During the next week, a few valiant middle school volunteers will be trying to find sponsors for the time they are contributing to the "Readin' and a-Rockin'" marathon October 13 at the Manchester Township Library. Student volunteers will have special Friends of the Library sponsorship forms.

They can't possibly contact all of you who would like to help them raise money for the library's middle school materials fund. If you would like to sponsor one of these public-spirited students, please contact the library at 428-8045.

We recommend 25 cents to $1 sponsorships for each hour the student participates, but any contribution to the fund would be appreciated.

Please help these kids have a successful project and help the library increase its collection for all our kids.

An Army Nurse

The Manchester Enterprise
December 13, 1906

Some Reminiscences of "Mother" Bickerdyke of War Fame.

Among the hundreds who devoted themselves to the care of the sick soldiers during the civil war, the name of "Mother" Bickerdyke stands pre-eminent. Galesburg, Ill., has just honored her memory by a monument. Many stories, in which the humorous and the heroic are delightfully mingled, are told of this faithful woman, to whom no service for the "boys" was too hard. Some of these anecdotes are given by Mrs. Livermore in her "Story of the War."

Mother Bickerdyke, more than any other person, assisted in reforming the badly managed hospitals of certain localities. There was nothing she would not do for her sick, and the soldiers reciprocated her affection heartily. "We shall all die now," they said, dolefully, on one occasion, when she left her post for another place. Every man saluted the homely figure, clad in calico and wearing a Shaker bonnet.

"Mother," however, was no mild-mannered saint. She dearly loved her own way, and she usually got it. She had a sublime disregard for red tape which sometimes carried her into trouble.

At one time she was in charge of a field hospital which was horribly cold. It was night, and wounded, half-frozen men were being brought in. "Mother" Bickerdyke, without consulting any one, tore down the breastworks of the post and built huge fires. This unauthorized proceeding was reported to the commander of the post. He saw its wisdom, but discipline had to be maintained, and in the morning he sought out the nurse.

"Mother," he said, "you must consider yourself under arrest."

"All right, major," she replied, as she flew past him with a big bowl of hot drink. "All right. I'm arrested, but don't meddle with me until the weather moderates, for my men will freeze if you do."

"Mother" was famous for her careful use of sanitary stores. Once, suspecting the hospital help of stealing, she "doctored" a lot of stewed peaches with tartar emetic and left them on the kitchen table. In the night there were sounds of severe suffering. Cooks, table waiters, stewards, ward masters and even some of the surgeons were numbered among the victims.

In the midst of them, like a Nemesis, walked "Mother" Bickerdyke. "Peaches don't seem to agree with you," she remarked, grimly.

In later years "Mother" Bickerdyke attended the soldiers' convention held at Topeka. When she entered the building a great shout greeted her. In vain order was called.

"Mother Bickerdyker is here!" cried the soldiers, crowding about her. Gray-headed men kissed her, weeping, while the tears ran down her cheeks.

The "boys" she had tended were eager to make her a gift, but the good old lady refused. "They have all they can do to make a living for themselves," she said.

As long as she lived, this old army nurse was remembered by the grateful hundreds she had cared for, and frequent letters and gifts from them cheered her old age.

Please help others.

Senior Citizens News

Usually surveys (especially by phone) are delivered in monotone around here. But when a nearby newspaper asked you to send in percentages on division of household chores, it intrigued me. It actually came out 50-50, as car care, trash disposal and home repairs is not my kettle of fish! One area where I scored 100% was an unasked question "Who writes letters in your household?" I mean the ones that are a page and a half which are expected by both his and my families. And if they asked who reads them, "Both incoming and outgoing", I'd say HE. Let's get away from the household and its chores by enjoying exercise at 11:00, chuck roast at noon and bingo on Thursday, October 4.

Tuesday, October 9: NO Council meeting 'til next week, but you may come help at 10:45 on the calendar for the November-December Trumpeter. We will enjoy (new) ham patties at noon lunch in Emanuel's dining room (what has Jan cooked up now, we wonder?). Wednesday, October 10: To the bus will pickup seniors to go to the Saline Hospital program starting at 10:00 a.m. These programs are of interest to all seniors; if you haven't attended, it is a good time to begin. Saline Home residents are visited, too, with all their enthusiasm and news. Give Erma Alber a ring to go along at 428-8707. Thursday, October 11: Spectra Care bus will be parked at Emanuel from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and will give tests of your cholesterol, vision, blood pressure, pulse rate and glaucoma. This is a free service sponsored by the Mid Michigan Eye Care Center from Jackson. Also today will be exercise at 11:00, baked chicken at noon and bingo. Looking ahead: Saturday, October 13 is the date of the Raisin Center Express train color tour trip. Senior bus leaves the Center at 11:00 a.m. for Tecumseh and the Southern Michigan Railroad Dept. Call Erma to go along. Chore Day for seniors by the National Honor Society members will be held on Saturday, October 20. Call in your name and job wanted done to Rubena 428-8655 by October 18.

For the convenience of those who shop, we have changed the dates and times for shopping. Intake day will be on Thursday, October 18, from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. THERE WILL BE SHOPPING HOURS FROM 7:00 P.M. UNTIL 9:00 P.M. ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18. ALSO ON FRIDAY MORNING FROM 9:00 A.M. UNTIL NOON. Surplus foods will also be available at these times.

After all low-income families, who so desire, have had the opportunity to shop, we will offer all remaining clothing for a "dollar a bag" donation to anyone else in the community. Dutchmen Stonewall Panthers 34-0

by Jon

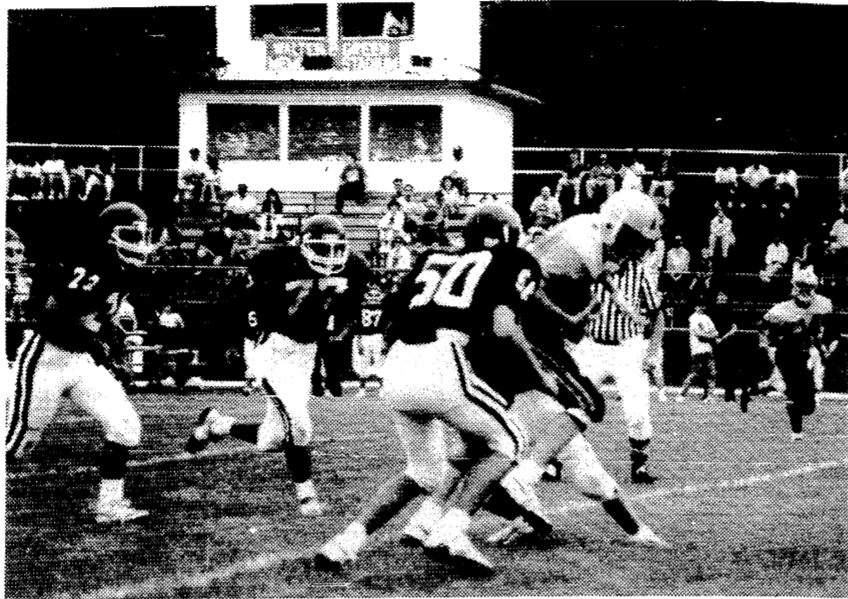

Friday was a big night as we hosted Addison on our Homecoming. Congratulations to our new king and queen, Stefan Knul and Marci Sloat.
The game started on a sour note as the Panthers kicked off and we fumbled on the run back. Fortunately our defense held, giving us possession. Before the first quarter ended we crossed paydirt. Junior quarterback John Ward starting for the injured Jay Gillow, took the snap from center and zoomed up the middle for an 88-yard TD. The second quarter saw the Dutch up their score by three more touchdowns. First of all, with 7:05 to go, Brett Bauder scampered in from 12 yards out. Two plays later Duane Hopkins intercepted the sphere as it was deflected by teammate Dennis Gehringer and rambled nine yards into the endzone. Lastly, Mike Blumenauer recovered their fumble and two downs later sophomore Jamie Sloat took the pitch and raced 29 yards for his first varsity touchdown. This left the tally 27-0 at the intermission.

The only score of the second half came when Jesse Widmayer swept right and picked 'em up and laid 'em down to cap off his 70-yard run. Jeff Gillow booted his fourth of five points after touchdowns to end the Panthers' misery, 34-0.

John Ward had 128 yards rushing, while as a team we compiled 270. On defense we allowed Addison to gain a mere 23 yards. Other players performing well were Lance Fielder, Jeff Smith and Jon Uphouse.

Friday should be a very important night as we visit Napoleon. The Pirates always play us tough on their turf. Currently, we lead the Cas-

Manchester's junior varsity's record climbed to 5 and 0 as the Dutch blasted Addison last Thursday 48-0 on Addison's home turf. Rich Lutton scored 5 TDs, Robert Spork and Brad Davis had one TD each. Jeremy Strook kicked 6 extra points. The next game is Thursday, at home, against Napoleon, starting at 7:00 p.m.

A Driving Need For Safety

The 31 million Americans over 65 may care to consider these Do's and Don'ts for safer driving.

Do have your eyes checked. It's surprising how many people don't realize their vision is not what it used to be.

Do check with your doctor to determine if any medication you may be taking can affect your driving.

Do drive familiar roads and avoid rush hour if you can.

Do keep your headlamps and windshield (inside and out) clean.

Do consider the fit of automatic safety belts and added protection of air bags when car shopping.

Don't drink and drive.

Don't drive at night if you're bothered by the lights of other cars or can't see well in the dark.

Don't drive during bad weather.

Don't forget to wear your safety belt and NEVER put the shoulder belt behind your back or under your arm or so loosely it slides off your shoulder.

Don't neglect child safety seats or booster seats for your grandchildren. If you don't have your own, the health department or a hospital may have one to lend.

Keeping these do's and don'ts in mind may mean you can keep safety in your car.

If you know this lady give her a call on October 6. It's her birthday!

Local Residents At National Conference

Holly Porter and Sue Heuhl from the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and Nancy Thelen from the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service recently attended "Together We Can," a national satellite conference for agricultural education held at Michigan State University. The conference served as a national and state forum to communicate today's hi-tech agricultural industry and contemporary agricultural education program. Improving and expanding agricultural education efforts at elementary, secondary, post-secondary, and adult levels of instruction was a primary goal of the conference.

Video messages during the conference from Secretary of Education Lauro Cavazos, and Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter challenged educators to develop appropriate educational programs for the youth of today. The satellite conference message illustrated that agriculture is changing and that there is a viable place in our educational system for the systematic and accurate instruction about agriculture for all students. Elementary teachers have available a variety of agricultural literacy options for the classrooms. "Ag in the Classroom" programs are available from Michigan Farm Bureau members. "Food for America" programs are presented by secondary agriculture and natural resources students and Michigan's Cooperative Extension Service 4-H programs offer an assortment of contemporary activities for today's students. These programs are designed to enhance elementary curriculums as they present to students in grades K-8 the relevance of agriculture in their everyday lives.

Secondary Agricultural Education, which has historically emphasized production agriculture (farming) has changed its focus to meet the ever increasing demand for professionals in the rapidly changing and technical field of agriculture. The new program follows an innovative curriculum, Agriscience and Natural Resources Education, recently developed by MSU's Department of Agricultural and Extension Education.

It is designed to offer full science credit towards high school graduation as well as university admissions. Agriscience and Natural Resources incorporates the principles of biology, chemistry and physics into the agricultural curriculum. Post-secondary and adult programs continue to progress toward the demands of today's agricultural industry. Current and planned programs include subjects such as: bio-technology, biochemistry, microbiology, waste management, and environmental education. Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension Service and the Farm Bureau offer most of the state's post-secondary and adult agricultural offerings.

PROPOSED SYNOPSIS September 11, 1990

The meeting was called to order with all board members present. Minutes and treasurer's report were approved with $35,651.13 in the General Fund and $4.10 in the Liquor Fund. Special guest, Margaret O'Connor, updated the board and several residents on recent legislative actions and a possible low level nuclear waste dumpsite in Washtenaw County. Questions from the public were taken and discussion ensued.

Various communications were read and discussed including fire runs, several newsletters and seminars, and information from I.S.O. Community Risk Services that the township fire risk rating had gone from a 10 to a 9. The Planning Commission reported final site plan approval for landscape plans at the Total Pipeline Tank Farm.

Under old business, the clerk reported that all trailer permits had been paid. New business included adoption of a resolution supporting the Western Washtenaw Recycling consortium and their grant writing efforts. Also approved was the township tax levy at 1.1000 mills and raising the transfer site employee wages to $7 per hour. Little reported that the barking dog problem is being taken care of by the owner.

Bills #2856 thru 2876 were approved for payment. Meeting adjourned 20:25 p.m.

National Pet Peeve Week

Are you sick and tired of your mate routinely leaving the top off the toothpaste? Do you get utterly frustrated at people who leave their turn signals going for hours, especially after they have cut in front of you with no wave of appreciation? How many times have you been in the express line at the grocery store and noticed that the three people in front of you have at least 20 items in their baskets?

If these or other bothersome situations get your goat, you have five whole days to make your peevish known, because the second week in October has been designated National Pet Peeve Week. This year, the week to gripe falls on Oct. 8-12. So, if you've always wanted to yell at your neighbor for never mowing his lawn, yell away. Just be sure you haven't done something to make him peeved at you! lol

Lady Dutch Varsity Hoopsters Split

by Jon

Tuesday night Grass Lake snapped our home win streak by outscoring us 49-43. We then trekked to Vandercreek Lake for a Thursday matchup and left victorious.

Be with us Thursday, October 4 as we host East Jackson.

JV Basketball

The junior varsity hosted Grass Lake on September 25 and when the final buzzer rang, Grass Lake was ahead 31-27. Our Lady Dutch leading scorers were Sarah Riske with 9 points and Tracy LaRue with 6. Sarah led in rebounds also with 8. Anita Stone had 5. A good defensive game was turned in by Kathleen Baran and Melissa Steele. Missy had 5 steals during the game. We really hurt at the free throw line hitting only 9 out of 33 attempts.

On Monday night, October 1, we had another home game against Adrian-Madison. We were behind the first half by a score of 14-0 but the second half our girls came ALIVE. Sarah Riske scored all 13 of her points the second half. Angela Roehm had 9, Adrienne Wallace 4. The final score was Manchester 31, Adrian-Madison 28. Great game JV's!

Next game is Thursday against E. Jackson at home; game time 5:30.

Ten Free Trees

Ten free flowering trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during October 1990.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The Foundation will give two White Dogwood, two American Redbud, two Golden Raintree, two Washington Hawthorn, and two Flowering Crab trees to members joining during October.

"These trees were selected because they will give a colorful flowering of pink, white, yellow and red blossoms throughout the spring," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to FLOWERING TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410 by October 13, 1990.

4-H Trivia

4-H is celebrating National 4-H Week from October 7-13. The following 4-H trivia has been compiled by members of the Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club in honor of this event. We hope you enjoy this condensed history lesson!

DID YOU KNOW?...

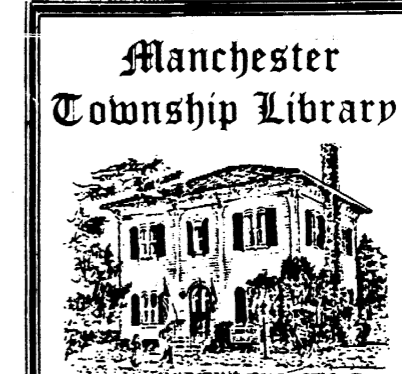

1. In the late 1800's "corn growing contests" were introduced to involve boys in agriculture. These were started in Illinois.
2. In 1904, the first boys "agriculture club" was organized in Ohio.
3. In 1905, three leaf clover emblems were given as awards in the "corn clubs." Each leaf was imprinted with an "H." The H's stood for head, heart and hands.
4. Also in the early 1900's, the USDA Office of Farmers Cooperative began sponsoring demonstration contests to help Southern farmers control the boll weevil.

5. Public schools held "corn contests" to keep farmers interested in school. The schools helped try to convince Southern farmers that growing corn would help them diversify their farms, provide food for other farm animals, and improve diets.
6. By 1910, many "canning clubs" were formed for girls. These clubs demonstrated canning techniques and focused on other women's roles such as cooking, sewing and knitting.
7. Canning clubs dramatically decreased food poisoning in the United States by demonstrating safe canning techniques.
8. By 1914, the Cooperative Extension Service was formed.
9. In 1911, the four-leaf clover replaced the three-leaf clover.
10. By 1918, various club memberships reached one-half million members. Also, in this year, the term "4-H Club" first appeared in a federal document.

11. Club charters were first offered by USDA in 1922.
12. By 1928, 4-H had spread to Great Britain, Denmark, Finland, Sweden, and Norway.
13. In 1936, 4-H enrollment passed the million mark.
14. Over the years, 4-H has grown to provide leadership experiences and educational opportunities to both rural and urban youth.
15. Today, in Washtenaw County, there are 4-H clubs with emphasis from sewing to skateboarding, from animals to aerobics and archery, and from cooking to carpentry and clowning.
16. If you know someone who might benefit from a 4-H experience, call the Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service at 313-971-0079-today!

Money Management

SECURING A LOAN FOR YOUR COMPANY

Trying to obtain a loan to start or expand a business can be a time-consuming and frustrating experience, especially in today's economic climate. But if you know what to expect from a lending institution before applying for a loan, you can prepare properly.

Preparation Pays

According to the Michigan Association of CPAs, you can increase your chances of getting a loan by presenting yourself and your company in the best possible light. Consider, too, that a lender will generally respond more favorably to your request if you can demonstrate that your company is soundly managed. To do that, you must be prepared to answer the typical questions a lender may pose. Why do you want a bank loan? How is the loan going to help your business? Which kind of loan would best serve your particular needs: a short-term or a long-term loan? How much money do you want to borrow and how do you intend to repay it?

Before you meet with a lender, review the answers to these questions so that you will feel comfortable discussing them. In most cases, you will have greater success in securing a loan if you write a formal proposal outlining your business needs and expectations, loan requirements and ability to repay.

The Banker's Perspective

Your request for a loan may be based on a sound business plan, but that factor alone is far from sufficient evidence that you qualify for a loan. Lenders must ultimately answer to their depositors and stockholders. To make a decision, a lender will evaluate your character, collateral and capacity to repay.

Most lenders will conduct a complete financial background analysis of you and your company. They will request specific information on your business's plans, goals, and objectives; your motivation for seeking a loan; data on your business's ownership, finances, history and personnel; a comparison of your operating and balance sheet ratios to industry norms; a marketing plan indicating how your business intends to grow; and a cash flow analysis showing your actual past experience plus projections of future income, expenses and cash flow.

Gathering Financial Data

Whether you are just starting a business or are already established, the more in-depth financial information you can supply a lender, the better. Information concerning receivables, inventories, funds on deposit and fixed assets is important to a potential lender. In addition, banks may request detailed information on the collateral you intend to offer, as well as personal financial statements - especially if your company is closely held. Bear in mind that the lender may also ask you to give your personal guarantee on the amount borrowed.

Above all, be honest about your financial situation. If you include unfavorable information, be sure to mention the specific steps you plan to take in order to rectify these problems.

Developing a Loan Request

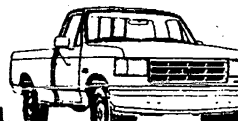

Although you know more about your business than anyone else, you may be surprised at the amount of time and resources required to prepare a loan request. So be warned - developing a loan request will take a lot of leg work and a fair degree of mental gymnastics.

Generally, you should start by researching your banking community's requirements for securing a loan. At the same time, you need to conduct a detailed examination of your business to determine whether or not you really need a loan, and whether a loan will truly help solve your company's problems and meet your objectives. Next, draw up a realistic forecast of your company's future based on its past performance and future goals. Try to determine how large your loan request should be and calculate a repayment schedule you can handle comfortably. Make sure that your request includes funds to cover contingencies. If you underestimate your needs, you may not be able to ask for an increase later.

If you have any questions about your business needs or eligibility for a loan, you may do better to hire a qualified professional such as a CPA to help identify appropriate funding sources and prepare a funding proposal. A CPA will be able to review significant aspects of your business and prepare key ratios for developing trends. He or she can also help you negotiate the terms of a loan agreement and prepare the necessary financial statements, projections and plans lenders will require.

Remember, when it comes to securing a loan, a professionally prepared loan request can make the difference in obtaining the funding you need and in securing your company's future.
