Sees Joy In Work

The Manchester Enterprise
January 31, 1907

World Seems to Have No Place
For The Idler

No Real Joy in Life of Ease
Without Labor, Says Man Who Has Given the Matter a Thorough Trial.

"After all," said a man who some time ago had a fortune left to him, "there's nothing like work.

"I used to think that if I had money enough to live on comfortably, so that I didn't have to work, I should be happy. My work was one incessant grind, day after day the same unending round of the same things over and over again, and I used to get so tired of it all that sometimes it seemed as though I should fly.

"But I had to keep at it to live, and so I did keep at it till a distant relative of mine that I had never known was worth anything died and left me a fortune.

"There never was anything that ever happened to me that ever gave me half so much pleasure as that. The first thing I did was to shake the work which I got rid of as quickly as I decently could, and then I set about planning enjoyment.

"The one thing of all that I wanted most was travel. I craved a change, and when that money came I got it. I set out on my dreamed of travels, and found a keen delight in them all - for a time.

"It was all the same to me whether it rained or the sun shone, for wherever I was or wherever I was going, I was free to enjoy it all, and I did for a time, but then I began to find myself in a way apart, and not so much privileged to enjoy these things as I had been at first.

"For I was an idler pure and simple, while all those to whom I was indebted for the possibility of the pleasures of travel, the railroad men and the steamship men, were all workers, as were also the hotel men and the theater people and everybody to whom I was indebted for pleasures in sojourn, all workers. So likewise were all or nearly all the travelers I met, workers in one field or another, all, and finding delight in every breath they drew because they were workers.

"And they were drawn, if not together, at least toward one another of their kind, while I, an idler only, had nothing in common with the world. Even in the far distant ports where I leaned over the rail I found myself more and more separated from the laborer on the wharf, who, bound though he might be to his work, yet had an object in life, which he accomplished by labor, while I was a mere part.

"In fact the more I idled the more clearly I came to realize that the law of the universe is labor, that in nature there is nothing idle, and the more I traveled the more clearly it came to me how few real idlers there are among men. When finally at the end of three years of idling I had come back again to the city I had this fact borne in upon me with greater intensity than ever,

Wennersten Joins Local Practice

Donald Wennersten has recently joined the dental practice of Allan Currey in Manchester.

Don grew up in Holland, Michigan. Upon graduation from high school, he worked for twelve years at Slickcraft Boat, and S2 Yachts, Inc., designing and engineering both sailboats and powerboats.

Dr. Wennersten earned his D.D.S. degree from the University of Michigan. His undergraduate studies were at both Hope and Aquinas Colleges in Grand Rapids. In addition to practicing dentistry, Don is teaching two days a week at the U of M School of Dentistry.

Don and his wife Mutsuko have been married for seventeen years. They have two children, Alan, age eleven, and Kristoff, one. Don and his family will be moving to Manchester in the near future.

Readin' And a-Rockin' A Rousin' Success

Readin' and a-Rockin' marathon runs down

The Friends of the Library of Manchester Township welcomed 13 middle school students to the day-long festival of reading events called "Readin' and a-Rockin'," held last Saturday. The kids were at the library from 9:00 a.m. until just before 5:00 p.m. in a marathon fund raiser with contributions pledged to total the amount of $336.50.

The Friends of the Library are extremely proud of the efforts of student volunteers Sarah Ahrens, Alyssa Chartrand, Angela Cooper, Jodi and Sarah Feldkamp, Jane Kallewaard, Diane Kruse, Julie and Kim Luckhardt, Ryan Novess, Katie Tolen, Sean Vogt, and Elizabeth Wiggird. The money they raised will be used to buy new books written for their age group. If you sponsored one of these terrific kids, please make sure they have your pledge to turn in at the collection meeting at the library, October 19, at 1:00 p.m.

The day began with kids adding the first scales to the back of the library's newest resident. It's a dragon whose scales are actually the titles of kids' favorite books. Adults and children added their favorites all day long as they visited the library. The dragon will remain in residence, and all visitors to the library are encouraged to add favorite titles to the dragon's back.

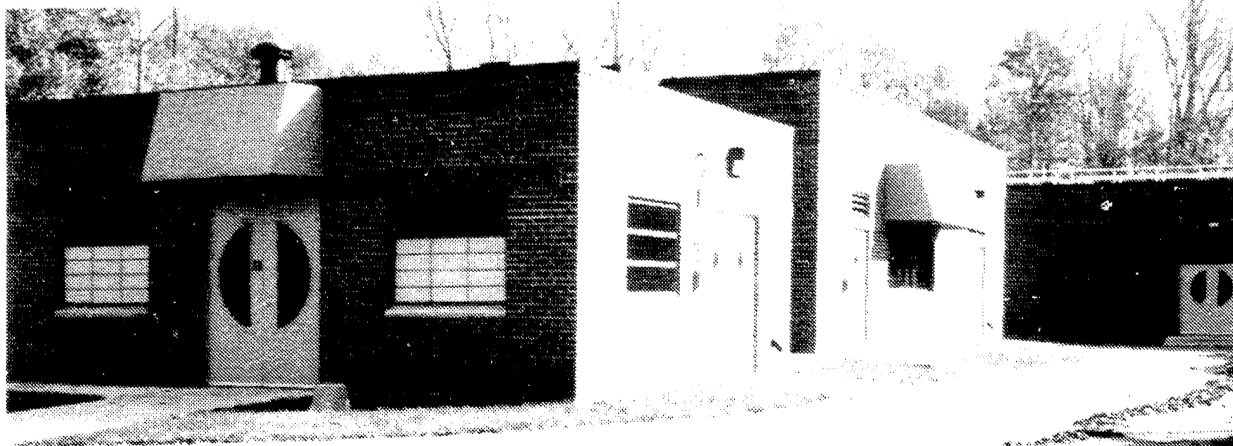

Later in the morning, the library had nearly every corner filled with little ones captivated by the stories read to them by the "big kids." Parents and kids alike were charmed by the clever tales spun by storyteller Nathan Zahler, a sophomore from Jackson county Western High School who performed in the afternoon.

In between these sessions, kids were in rocking chairs reading aloud to each other or silently to themselves. They also met with librarian Dorothy Davies to give input on the books they would like to see purchased by their efforts for the library's collection.

The library closed to the public at 2:00 p.m., but the day ended for the marathon readers after a special viewing of John Candy's "The Great Outdoors."

A video of the day's events was taped by Lester Guest of Small Time Video for the library archives. Friends of the Library will take orders for copies for your own home VCR's. If you'd like a copy, please have your order into the library by Saturday, October 19. Part of the proceeds will benefit the library. The price of the tape is $15.

Village To Hold Open House Sunday, October 21st

A ribbon cutting ceremony will be held on Sunday, October 21 at 2:00 in the afternoon to dedicate the Village of Manchester's new Wastewater Treatment Plant.

In conjunction with the dedication ceremony, plant tours will be conducted between 2:30 and 4:00 that afternoon.

The public is cordially invited to come and see the steps that have been taken to control water pollution in the community.

Refreshments will be served.

Wheels For Life Bike-A-Thon

The annual St. Jude's Childrens Research Hospital "Wheels for Life" bike-a-thon will be held Saturday, October 20, 1990.

It's a wonderfully fun way for kids and adults alike to donate the charity of time and thank God for all we have. It's also a great way for the "country kids" to ride their bikes in town on pavement. And the more you ride, the more you earn for St. Jude's and the more chances you'll have to win great prizes.

So come and bring the family and your completed sponsor sheets and join us behind the firehall at 9:00 a.m. on October 20.

Senior Citizens News

We are surely curious about the bird houses that have appeared along the west side of M-52 between Routes 12 and 50. They have been placed in pairs and we counted 18 pair, though we could have missed some. Short of calling the State Highway Department, the mystery is intriguing and a sight to watch on our trek south hoping there will be "residents" hopping in and out. Will let you know if someone comes up with the answer. Meanwhile, Thursday, October 18, you can exercise at 11:00, enjoy beef stew at 12:00 noon and play bingo.

Friday, October 19: Senior bus pickup begins at 6:15 for the trip to Saline and their senior citizens card party. Call Erma to be placed on the list to go and enjoy at 428-8707.

Saturday, October 20: Be sure to give Rubena (428-8655) your name and chores that you need help with so the kids of the National Honor Society can help you. You may give them a donation when they finish, but call Rubena for details.

Tuesday, October 23: A local nurse will be present to take your blood pressure at 11:00. Veal cutlets will be served at noon lunch and who can resist those? Jan and crew are cooking up a storm this fall - everything is so good and tasty, we are overeating! All that homemade bread and rolls, yummy! At 12:30, Victoria Owens from Saline Hospital will give a talk on "Exercise Can Improve Your Health."

Thursday, October 25: Exercise begins at 11:00, fish (without the swish) is on the noon lunch menu and bingo will be enjoyed at 12:30. Tonight is the night of our senior sponsored card party at Freedom Township Hall beginning at 8:00 p.m. These monthly card parties are open to the public, come enjoy.

Looking ahead: Friday, October 26, seniors leave at 9:00 a.m. for a 10:00 a.m. tour of Geology Center in the Waterloo area. Saturday, October 27, seniors leave Center at 9:30 for the Flavor Fruit Farm, Jackson. Call Erma Alber at 428-8707 for your trip reservation.

Emergency Director At Optimist Meeting

Optimist president Al Currey with Dir. Dan Harsh

Dan Harsh, Director of the Washtenaw County Office of Emergency Management apprised Optimists of the county's emergency priorities. Surprisingly, earthquakes moved up the list because experts believe the New Madrid fault near Memphis is likely to shift in the next decade.

Members were particularly interested in the response to chemical spills and storms. In the last five years, our county has experienced 17 tornado touch-downs! Dan was instrumental in obtaining $20,000 in state relief funds for the Village after the 1989 storm.

Sees Joy In Work

and now the great joy that I had found at first in sheer loafing was quite departed.

"The city was alive with activity, with men all at work, all doing something, all accomplishing something, and I was out of it, an idler and - a stranger. Actually men looked at me as a strange being, and some of them with curiosity. That I should be doing nothing when there was a chance, they wondered.

"Friends that I had known greeted me and smiled and then - passed on. They had their work to do, and their interests and their sympathies were with other people. So I stood alone, as one set off, until, by a kind of Providence, there arose within me a desire to work.

"I've been at it ever since, and I am at it still, grateful to be back in the fold of men."

Citizen Survey Approaches Deadline

The Manchester Township Planning Commission has had a very good response to the citizen survey that was mailed to all village and township residents the first week of October. Although many of you have completed and returned your survey form, we would like to have the input from the rest of the residents.

Therefore, please take just a few minutes to complete the survey and return it to the Planning Commission. We need to incorporate your ideas and visions for the future direction of the Township's General Development Plan. Also, you may pick up a copy of the survey form at the Township Office if you did not receive a copy in the mail.

King's Daughters

The Manchester King's Daughters will meet October 25 at the church.

Hostesses will be Birdie Buss and Pat Post. Nellie Uphouse will have devotions.

Unusual Visitor At Klager

The children in Ms. Koebbe's 2nd grade class had an unusual visitor at school. Andy Jones brought his pet calf, Freckles, to school to show his classmates. Andy is raising his calf for a 4-H project. Among the other pets who have been at school are a ferret and a goldfish. The class also has a guinea pig named Fred that they are caring for at school.

Crossing Guard Pay Raised

Pay for school crossing guards was increased from $5 to $6 per hour by Manchester Village Council at the October 15 regular meeting, after all Council members expressed concern that only two of the four guard posts are filled.

"Help Wanted" advertising and word-of-mouth recruitment have not produced any new applicants to fill the vacancies.

State law assigns responsibility for school crossing guards to local government, not to the schools, although crossing sites are selected by the government and school superintendent jointly.

There are four crossing sites in the Village: on M-52 at Klager School, Main Street, Duncan St. and Wolverine St.

In past years, the Village has staffed all four crossing posts and maintained two substitutes on call. All guards receive training under direction of the Sheriff's Department.

With two vacancies, volunteers have been filling in whenever possible.

Crossing guards must be 18 years of age or older and available to work one hour in the morning and one hour in the afternoon each school day.

Applicants should call Karen Tucker, Village Clerk, at 428-7877. School superintendent Ron Niedzwiecki has offered to send a notice home with every school student in an attempt to find crossing guards and to alert parents to the situation.

Sheriff's deputies will not be permanently assigned as crossing guards because the Council does not want them to abandon regular patrols for two hours each schoolday, and because the deputies' response to emergency calls would leave the crossings unmanned.

School-age safety patrols cannot have authority to stop traffic - a necessity on M-52.

Drivers should remember that failure to stop for a crossing guard with a "Stop" sign is a misdemeanor.

Schoolchildren should remember that crossing guards are there for the children's safety. Children should wait on the curb until the crossing guard motions them across the street.

Country Kids Come Ride Your Bikes

Country kids, come ride your bikes and trikes in town, on pavement. Join the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital "Wheels for Life" bike-a-thon (trike-a-thon course for preschoolers). The more you ride, the more you earn for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital and the more chances you'll have to win great prizes.

So come bring the family, your completed sponsor sheets and join us behind the firehall on October 20, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Lunch will be provided. Sponsor sheets available at all schools and banks, and most local businesses.

Donor Families Supported

In an effort to provide initial, consistent support to donor families after the loss of a loved one and the donation of a loved one's organs and tissues, the National Kidney Foundation has developed "For Those Who Give and Grieve," a resource booklet designed specifically for donor families by donor families.

This resource, developed by the Foundation's Task Force on Organ Donation, is the first resource of its kind and one component of the National Kidney Foundation's expanding services to donor families at the national level.

"For Those Who Give and Grieve", will provide the health care community with a tangible, comprehensive resource to give every donor family after their donation. It is available from the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan for distribution to all state organ procurement organizations.

The booklet provides the family with information about donation, bereavement and resources available to the family in their community. It also includes a business reply card by which donor families may submit comments and provide input to future Foundation programs directed to donor families.

For more information about "For Those Who Give and Grieve" and the Foundation's services, please call the National Kidney Foundation of Michigan at 1-800-482-1455. The National Kidney Foundation of Michigan is a United Way Agency operating with the goal of winning the battle against kidney disease and urinary tract infections.

Victory Baptist Church

Victory Baptist Church, 419 S. Macomb, began May 1956 as Galilean Mission. A gentleman, who became a Christian in mid-years, was burdened to start a Baptist church in every village in Michigan. Later the church was known as Manchester Baptist and on New Year's Eve, 1978, so happy to be in their present attractive building, the name became "Victory."

The first group met on an afternoon in a building that became Westside Auto. Several buildings served the congregation, the one prior to the present location being the Old Methodist Church on W. Main.

Mrs. Gordon (Helene) Bowers was among the early group. She resides at Adrian Health Care Center. Harold and Alma Arnett have been with Victory for half of its history. Within the last two years the congregation has quadrupled. All properties are debt free and deeds have been obtained, plus corporation papers. At last the Church is graduated from mission status and stands independently with 12 families. It fellowships with southern Michigan Regular Baptist Churches, and nationally with General Association of Regular Baptist Churches with the home office at Schaumburg, Illinois.

If you are looking for a church home, please visit Victory. Sunday school 10:00 a.m., Worship 11:00 a.m., Public Bible Study 6:00 p.m., Midweek Service Wednesday 7:00 p.m., Dean Cooper, Pastor.

Catholics Sponsor Homecoming Nights

The Catholics of our area have united in an effort to invite inactive Catholics to take a second look at their faith. They will be hosting three "Homecoming Nights," beginning at 7:30 p.m., which will run consecutively on October 23, (Ypsilanti-St. Ursula's), October 24 (Chelsea-St. Mary's), and October 25 (Ann Arbor-St. Francis). The evenings have the same format, and inactive Catholics are invited to attend any one of the three. Fr. Roger Prokop, vicar of Washtenaw County and pastor of St. Andrew's parish in Saline, commented that "the Church wants to make the evenings accessible to as many in the diocese as possible, and the message we bring is a message of love."

Fr. Prokop remarked that "many Catholics have left the Church or become inactive for a variety of reasons. We don't pretend to be able to respond to every concern in the course of one evening, but we do want to establish a dialogue. Our goal is to find out who you are, where you're at, and to meet you there." Fr. Ray Klauke of St. Ursula's added that "we feel the message of Jesus Christ is relevant to everyone, no matter what their background, or what their history with the Catholic Church. We see the Church as a family that lives out a relationship with Christ. When some members are absent from the dinner table, we miss them. We want the evening to be as non-threatening as possible, and no one will be asked to commit to anything."

Opportunities to discuss issues of concern are planned, along with presentations by Deacon Dan Foley and Fr. Prokop. Refreshments will be provided. For further information on the evenings, contact: Fr. Roger Prokop, 429-5210, St. Andrew's Catholic Church, Saline; Fr. Ray Klauke, 483-3152, St. Ursula's Catholic Church; Deacon Dan or Dolly Foley, 996-4027, Christ the King Catholic Association.

CATHOLIC HOMECOMING NIGHTS

Did you "used to be Catholic" or just stop going to Church? Has your marriage situation kept you from the Church? Did the Catholic Church or a priest or religious hurt you in some way? Have you wanted to work out disagreements with the Church and not known how? If you fall into any of these categories, it simply isn't good to leave them unresolved. The Catholics in our area are hosting three HOMECOMING NIGHTS to begin to deal with these complex issues in a non-threatening environment.

The evenings will be repeated on three consecutive dates, beginning at 7:30 p.m. each evening. No commitments will be asked of you. All we ask is that you come.

Come to me, all you who are weary and find life burdensome...

and I will refresh you. Matt 11:28

Letter To The Editor

To The Editor:
I am writing because of a proposal passed and recommended to the Sharon Township Board by the Township Planning Commission at a Public Hearing held on October 11, 1990 at the Township Hall. I believe the citizens and property owners of Sharon should be made fully aware of exactly what this proposal will do. Two definitions presently a part of the Zoning Ordinance would be removed completely. One addressed a private riding stable, the other, a public riding stable. A private stable or arena allows 4 horses on 10 or more acres plus any number of other horses used for agricultural purposes. A public stable or arena is an operation with 5 or more horses plus any other horses that may be housed and used for agriculture. This also requires 10 or more acres. Compensation may be received for training, boarding, and lessons for driving or riding. A public stable of this type would require a special use permit which also requires a Public Hearing before issuance. These permits are necessary in Agricultural and Recreation Conservation Districts. Special Use Permits are required for many services, business operations, and activities of various types. By eliminating these two definitions, horses and riding stables or arenas have the green light for any number and type of operation on 10 acres or more. Many other enterprises, as I said before, would still be regulated by Special Use Permits which cost the applicant $300.00 and is not refundable if not granted.

Washtenaw County Metro Planning Commission for their opinion and then it will come before the Township Board for a final vote as to whether it is law or not. It will perhaps reach the Township Board for their action during the December meeting. I intend to vote NO on this proposal because these definitions should not be eliminated and give horses and riding stables favoritism over other businesses and activities. No control of any kind! Any citizen or property owner that may be concerned should come to either the November or December Township Board meeting and express those concerns. Everyone is always welcome and is given all the time needed by the chairman to discuss any subject. If this is not convenient, the members of the Township Board can be contacted directly by telephone and any concerns related to them. The members are John Savage, Duane Haselschwerdt, Shirley Blumenauer, Willard Blumenauer, and Donald Irwin. The Township Board meetings are the first Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. Any change from this date is published by Notice in the Manchester Enterprise and Chelsea Standard.

WHEN THE SNOW FLIES WILL YOUR CAR BE WINTERIZED?

Inspections of the Cooling System are Crucial to the Engines Health

How To Prevent Car Heart Attacks.

FOR ONLY $34.95

COMPLETE INSPECTION INCLUDES:

1. Flush Cooling System
2. Check Operation of Thermostat.
3. Test Battery and Charging System.
4. Clean Battery Cables.
5. Inspect Radiator Cap, Belts and Hoses.
6. Fill System With Up to 2 Gallons of New Antifreeze.

Unfortunately, most car owners don't realize that cooling system parts should be replaced before they fail. Like heart attacks in people, car heart attacks can often be prevented with regular inspections of the cooling system.

Today's cars operate at higher engine speeds with more equipment under the hood, smaller engine compartments, and reduced radiator size. So the cooling system — particularly the thermostat, which constantly opens and closes to regulate coolant flow — is under a lot of stress. In fact, the cooling system removes twice as much engine heat as the exhaust system.

MANCHESTER MANOR MOBILE HOME PARK FINAL SITE PLAN

Comments from the DPW referred to McNamee, Porter, and Seeley's letters and the recommendations made therein.

No comments have been received from the Fire Chief at this time.

Enter Schiller at 7:45 p.m. Monohon noted that he had not received any letters or other feedback from McNamee, Porter and Seeley. Daverman provided him with copies of the letters sent to the Village from McNamee, Porter and Seeley (dated July 23, 1990 and August 30, 1990). Monohon provided the following information:

1. The addition of a storm water outlet down Hibbard as recommended in a discussion Monohon had with Kwolek has been incorporated in the submitted site plan.
2. After review by the Village engineers, the plans for the sanitary sewers and water lines need to be sent to Lansing for review (DNR and Water Supply Board).

3. The sewer and water lines in the mobile home park are handled by the Michigan Department of Health and the Mobile Home Division. These are completely separate from the DNR and the Water Supply Board. The petitioner is waiting for these reviews to be returned. They do not anticipate any problems.

4. After the DNR and Water Supply Board has reviewed the plans for the sanitary sewers and water lines, they will send a copy of their findings to the Village. Likewise, the Mobile Home Commission will also send their findings to the Village.

Due to the fact that more than 180 days has elapsed since approval of the Preliminary Site Plan, the petitioners have filed a combined Preliminary and Final Site Plan.

The following concerns and questions were expressed by the Commissioners with responses by the petitioners:

1. Although a detail of the planting buffer is shown on the final site plan, the actual location of these buffers is not shown.
2. Is there the possibility that mobile homes may be located under power lines along the west edge of the mobile home park? Monohon stated they have talked to Consumers about moving these poles and Consumers concurred.
3. Daverman noted the recommendations made by McNamee, Porter and Seeley concerning an easement on the south property line for the purpose of extending sewer lines east to other properties within the Village. Monohon responded that the easement should come off the property that wants the extension.
4. Mail Pick Up and Delivery: Several boxes would probably be grouped together. The commissioners want to see on the site plan where these boxes will be located.
5. Street Lights: Street lights will be shaded so they will reflect downward and not up into the sky. The petitioner does not plan to light the recreation area. Monohon noted it is designed as a day-use children's playground. Park management pays the utility bills for the street lights.
6. Central Office: None. The manager will probably live in a mobile home in the park.
7. Parking for maintenance vehicles: Not necessary. Maintenance (including grass cutting, etc.) will be contracted out.
8. Will Lots Be Sold Or Rented? Rented. Length of lease-generally one year.
9. Will the Manager's Job Be Full or Part Time? Part time.
10. Each renter is responsible for their own lot maintenance.
11. Care of the streets within the park is the responsibility of the owners of the park.
12. When the pavement is replaced on Hibbard, will curbs be installed? The petitioners stated that they only have to replace the road as it is at present (no curbs).
13. Daverman noted that the Finding of Facts for the re-zoning of the mobile home park dealt with whether the developer would be willing to participate in sidewalk improvements on Main St. (High school to mobile home park). Raymond's office stated they would take part in any off-site sidewalk improvements whereby a benefit is derived. The petitioner responded that this was when they were dealing with the whole area (expansion of areas zoned MHP to about 40 acres). This would have created a higher number of pedestrians. Daverman stated there will still be a need for sidewalks. The construction of this mobile home park will result in a lot of people moving into that corner of town and pedestrian traffic needs to be considered, especially pedestrian traffic to the schools.

14. A bus stop (school) for the mobile home park also needs to be considered.

15. The commission questioned how the buffer along Hibbard will be addressed.

16. The commission expressed concern that the topographic map showing the areas of cut and fill is not clear. The petitioners stated all dirt taken from the cuts will be spread on the site, not removed. A lot of material will be left along Hibbard as a berm. They have checked with Consumers Power and were told they could do earthwork in the power easement. The east boundary will be graded up to meet the existing boundary. There will not be a "sharp cut". Commissioners still stressed that they were not able to get any idea of what the contours will be when the project is completed from the site plan as submitted. Monohon noted that there would only be a 1 1/2 to 2-foot contour difference over the lots. He also noted that the drainage follows the same pattern as is there at present, and that no sharp banks will exist. He also stated they will try to leave as many trees as possible.

17. Palms expressed concern over the length of the entry island and its conflict with the driveway on lot 64. He felt the renter of lot 64 would be tempted to drive the wrong way to get out of the park, rather than go around the island.

18. Possible effects the mobile home park might have on Schiller pond were mentioned. Concern was expressed that the grading changes could affect the amount of water draining into this pond, possibly causing it to dry up. It was questioned whether it would be possible to divert some of the drainage toward the pond. Monohon noted that it was possible some of the storm water could be diverted, however, he also expressed concern that they could be held liable if flooding of the Schiller property then occurred. They noted they are not allowed to put anymore water onto neighboring property than was flowing onto it prior to development. Monohon recommended an individual agreement be drawn up.

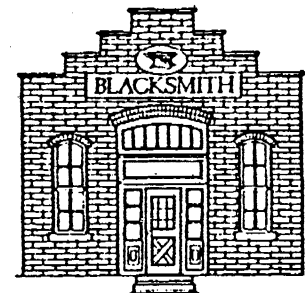

19. The commissioners requested that the landscape buffer on the west, along Hibbard, be better indicated on the plan, including exactly where it will be, its size and shape, plantings and trees to be left, if any.

20. The developer is interested in new units. The new mobile homes must meet the new HUD standards. The life expectancy of a new unit is 25 to 40 years.

21. Garbage Pick Up: The developers are planning for the same type of pickup as other residents in Manchester have.

22. Hinkley recommended modifications be made on the detention pond so it is not necessary to install a chain link fence around it. Monohon noted that the Michigan Department of Health requires such a pond be fenced if any water collects in the bottom. The commissioners asked if the slopes could be modified to prevent Monohon noted that the Michigan Department of Health requires such a pond be fenced if any water collects in the bottom. The commissioners asked if the slopes could be modified to prevent water retention, thereby removing the necessity for fencing. They suggested reworking the grade on the power easement.

23. In case the mobile home park is expanded in the future (Phase II), the commission suggested an easement be made to the north for water lines in order to prevent a dead-end loop. Also recommended was the removal of one lot for a future road. The petitioners stated that they will take a lot out when the time comes.

The following is a list of concerns which need to be resolved:

1. All of the Village engineers recommendations. Response requested.
2. Landscape buffer: Shown on plan, including size of trees, etc.

Clarification of grades and the trees to be saved indicated on the plan. Specific concerns on grading deal only with the perimeter of the park. Natural features are to be shown.

3. Location for school bus pickup and sidewalk participation. The percentage of cost of sidewalks to be determined by council. Concerns over the gravel trucks going down Hibbard were mentioned (wear on road, traffic problems, etc.) Monohon noted that the County Road Commission defers to the Village on Hibbard Street usage.

4. Modification of detention pond.

5. Clarification concerning pond on Schiller's property dealing with water flow onto property. "Hold Harmless Clause" a possibility?

6. Response from the Fire Chief.

7. Modification of entry island for lot 64.

8. Recommend usage of escrow to council.

9. Road restoration of Hibbard. Council needs to look at the incidence of gravel haulers on Hibbard.

The petitioners noted that they hope to begin construction in the spring.

Daverman made a motion to table the Final Site Plan for the Manchester Manor Mobile Home Park until the developers are comfortable in responding to the above concerns, and resubmit the site plan to the commission. Hinkley seconded the motion. Roll Call Vote: Ayes - all. The motion passed. Daverman asked the petitioner to resubmit the revised site plan at least 30 days prior to the meeting at which it is to be addressed.

Daverman will write a letter to the developers concerning the requests made by the commission.

MOBILE HOME PARK RELATED CONCERNS

Little made a motion to recommend to council they have a copy of the Village Ordinance submitted to the mobile home commission for their approval (higher standards). Also to recommend to council that a letter be sent to Lansing stating the Village's concerns over the effects the method of taxation for mobile homes has on small communities. Hinkley seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote. Gleason will note this in a memo to council.

It was mentioned that an attorney in Napoleon, Michigan, Mr. Tom Ellis, was in the process of questioning the legality of the method of taxing mobile homes in that it was unfair representation.

Dutchmen Overpower Jayhawks, 27-0

by Jon Pagel

We defended our Cascades Conference title by defeating Vandercook Lake 27-0. This win gives us our sixth straight league victory with no defeats.

Our defense played another solid game and our offense scored four touchdowns to seal the victory. Lance Fielder plowed in for two yards out for our first score. Soon after, Jon Uphouse corralled a 64-yard bomb from quarterback Jay Gillow to end the first quarter of play. There were no tallies in the next twelve minutes, but the Dutch connected twice in the third quarter. Jay took the snap from center and handed the sphere to Jesse Widmayer who flew through a hole big enough for me to go through in my wheelchair, and raced 45 yards for the TD. Shortly, Jeff Smith caught a pass in our endzone for our final touchdown of the night. Jeff Gillow toed three of four points after touchdowns tonight. One highlight was the return of Andy

Dutch JV's Overwhelm Jayhawks 41-0

Following a heartbreaking loss to Napoleon last Thursday, the Dutch bounced back with an impressive victory over Vandercook Lake 41-0. The win improves the JV Dutch record to 6-1.

Manchester opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 14 yd. TD run by Rick Lutton. The conversion failed so the score stood 6-0. The Dutch defense, as has been the case throughout the season, shut down the Vander-cook Lake offense the entire game. Stacey Clouse, Daren Hagan, Andy Corwin, and Matt Fielder led an inspired defensive effort in the first half.

Although the Dutch offense moved the ball up and down the field in the second quarter, ill-timed mistakes kept the offense from adding to its lead.

Late in the 2nd quarter, the Dutch defense scored a touchdown as Rod Burkhardt recovered a fumble in the endzone. The conversion attempt failed and the score at halftime stood Manchester 12, Vandercook Lake 0.

As the 3rd quarter began the Dutch offense was unable to move the ball effectively and Vandercook Lake's offense began moving the ball on the Dutch defense. As it seemed Vandercook Lake's offense was gaining confidence, the Dutch defense rose up forcing a punt.

Starting at their own 12 yd. line, Manchester drove 88 yds for a TD. Key plays in the drive were: a 45 yd. run by Brad Davis, a 20 yd. pass completion from QB Mike Barnard to Matt Fielder, a 14 yd. run by Lutton. Completing the drive was a 2 yd. TD plunge by Brad Davis. Barnard threw a

DEDUCTING EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES

Here's a tax quiz: a drama professor takes a trip to England for the summer. Besides sight-seeing, she spends a considerable amount of time going to plays in London. Would her trip qualify as an educational expense? The answer is no. The tax law doesn't allow you to deduct the cost of travel that in itself is a form of education - even if those expenses are directly related to your work. Understanding which educational expenses are deductible and which aren't can be confusing. In general, educational expenses are considered to be of a personal nature by the IRS and are not deductible. However, the Michigan Association of CPAs says that as an employee or self-employed individual, you're entitled to claim certain educational expenses. A look at the rules will help sort out the confusion.

The Basic Rules

You may deduct educational expenses if you enroll in courses that either maintain or improve the skills you need for your business or job. For example, a teacher who takes a course every year to enhance his knowledge of the subjects he teaches may deduct his expenses. In addition, you may also deduct educational expenses if your employer, the law, or regulations, require that you take courses to keep your job, salary or status.

Does the Education Prepare You For a New Career?

The IRS does not allow you to deduct the cost of education that qualifies you for a new trade or profession, even if you have no intention of pursuing another profession. For example, a lawyer who studies for an MBA to gain a better understanding of how corporations operate may not be allowed to deduct his expenses even though he is not planning on becoming a financial analyst.

On the other hand, suppose that you're a teacher and you take courses that qualify you for an administrator's position. Would those expenses be deductible? Yes, because all teaching and related duties are considered the same type of work. The specialty may change but not the profession. Similarly, a psychoanalyst who takes courses to become a psychiatrist or a practicing dentist who studies to become an orthodontist may deduct their educational expenses. However, a police officer who enrolls in evening law school courses may not deduct his expenses because upon completion of the courses, he will be qualified to work in a different profession. Since the rules can be complex, consult a CPA to find out if the educational program you are planning constitutes a career change.

Have You Met Minimum Education Requirements?

You may not deduct expenses for courses taken to help you meet the minimum educational requirements for your chosen trade or profession. For example, a law student is hired by a law firm to do legal research on the condition that he will obtain a law degree and pass the state bar examination. The law courses and bar review course are not deductible because they are needed to help him fulfill the minimum educational requirement for employment. CPA exam or bar review courses are considered personal expenses and are not deductible.

Other Nondeductible Education

Other courses ineligible for the deduction include those taken for purely personal reasons such as a film course or art appreciation course, and those taken to enable you to enter a profession for the first time or to return to work or re-enter a previous business. An exception to this rule is a leave of absence. You may be able to deduct courses taken while you're on temporary leave. For example, a research chemist quits her job to take a one year, full-time course in chemistry. If she returns to work in the chemistry field, and her expenses otherwise qualify, she may be able to deduct them. The IRS defines a leave of absence as a year or less. However, the courts have ruled that leaves can be more than one year. The deciding factor in these cases is whether you plan to return to the same trade or business.

What May You Deduct?

If you qualify for an educational deduction, what costs can you deduct? In general, any funds you spend on tuition, books, supplies and lab fees are deductible. If you take correspondence courses or use a private tutor, those expenses may also be deducted. And if you have someone type your papers, that cost may be included in your tax-deductible total.

Transportation expenses to and from your job to school are also deductible, including the use of your own car, or train, bus and taxi fares. Depending on the distance between your job and school, you may be able to deduct either one-way or round-trip expenses.

If you stop at home on your way from work to school, you may deduct the cost of your travel, but only to the extent that it doesn't exceed the cost of going directly from work to school. However, CPAs point out that on non-work days, you may not deduct traveling costs between your home and school.

You may be able to further your education and trim your taxes all at the same time. Just remember that unreimbursed educational expenses are deductible only to the extent that they exceed 2 percent of your adjusted gross income.
