The February Optimist Club Outstanding Student is Sharon Fielder, a tenth grader at Manchester High School. Sharon's proud parents are Ron and Sue Fielder.

Sharon currently is the secretary of the sophomore class.

She also finds time to volunteer at Mott Hospital and to be an active member of the St. Mary's youth group. This past year, Sharon was selected as second runner-up in the Fair Queen contest.

Pen Pal Visits Brownies

Last October, Meghan Staffeld wrote a letter addressed to "Any Serviceperson" and sent it off to Saudi Arabia. Master Sergeant Charles Pamment, an aircraft mechanic and Air Force reservist, received her letter and the two began a correspondence.

When Pamment was injured in a non-combat incident and was sent home to recuperate ("You just can't get to a bunker on crutches in the desert," he says) he wanted to meet Meghan and the rest of the girls in her Brownie Scout Troop. Pamment lives in Richmond near Selfridge Air Force Base.

Pamment made contact with the Manchester schools and what Saudi Arabia is like.

Pamment answered that it was difficult to get chocolate, of course, because of the desert temperatures, but what he missed most was peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. "When we first got there, we didn't even have bread. We had rolls and sometimes I would take one back with me after the meal, and if somebody had some peanut butter and jelly, I would make myself a roll sandwich," Pamment says.

He was in the desert from October 1990 until January 21, and will be home until his broken foot has healed sufficiently for him to return to duty. He expects to return to Saudi Arabia "unless continued on page three

The President Has Fun

The Manchester Enterprise
June 13, 1907

While Vice President Fairbanks sat on a fence and drank buttermilk, President Roosevelt hopped about in Farmer Frank Thomas' backyard, his coat and hat off, and his sleeves rolled up, and batted out balls for the awe-stricken children of the farmer.

Then, when the Thomas boys had almost run their legs off chasing his long drives, the president of the United States climbed up on the fence beside the vice president, said he'd had "a bully time," and joined him in another glass of Farmer Thomas' buttermilk. And when he handed back the glass President Roosevelt made Mrs. Thomas the proudest woman in the state of Ohio by saying: "That's the best thing I've tasted in years."

This isn't a fairy story. It's positive fact. This is how it happened. After leaving Canton the other day, where he had attended the funeral of Mrs. McKinley, President Roosevelt learned that his train would have to lie over at Akron for four hours before connections could be made for Indianapolis. The president did not relish the prospect of kicking his heels around Akron for four hours and had his private car dropped about two miles outside of the city, where the country roads thereabouts looked cool and inviting.

Then, with Mr. Fairbanks, who anticipated a quiet stroll and nothing more, the president started off along the most alluring of the roads. One secret service man trailed behind. The president who had been cramped in a car all day, set a pretty lively pace for the lengthy vice president, and before they had gone much more than a mile Mr. Fairbanks was hot, thirsty, and gasping.

Just about then the farmhouse of Frank Thomas hove in sight, and the president set out for it across country.

Thomas was working on a haystack, but he threw down his rake mighty quick when the president introduced himself. Could the vice president and himself have a glass of milk? Thomas is a Republican. They could have all the milk and everything else in the farmhouse. After they had one glass of the farmer's buttermilk, the president prowled out into the yard where the children of the farmer were playing ball. The boys were scared white when they knew who it was who wanted to take a hand in the game.

From Frank's the president and Mr. Fairbanks went over to the farmhouse of David Thomas, where he asked Mrs. Thomas how many children she had.

"Eight," the woman modestly replied.

"Ah," he exclaimed, "when I return to Washington I shall have to tell Mrs. Roosevelt that I have found one woman who has a larger family than hers."

Members of Brownie Scout Troop 675 with Master Sgt. Charles Pamment. The girls thanked him with a jar of red, white and blue jelly beans.

eventually found his way to Sue, Meghan's mother. A meeting was arranged to which Brownie Troop 675 invited all Manchester Girl Scouts and their families.

On Monday evening, February 18, interested parents and families asked questions of Pamment and viewed the desert gear he had brought home with him. He showed a gas mask, chemical warfare suit and helmet, and talked about his job and the general attitude of the troops in Operation Desert Storm. One audience member asked whether he felt confident that the gas mask and suit would protect him.

"Oh, yes. I'm very comfortable with it. We've been training with these for a long time." He added that every reservist had a mask that had been issued long before the operation in the desert began.

His audience asked questions about mail delivery, what soldiers miss most, how morale is and

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor:
 Last Thursday's Ann Arbor News thumbed a Los Angeles Times' "analysis" of the bombing of the cement-capped bunker in Baghdad which it proved was sheltering several hundred Iraqi civilians. It observed that German TV had noted that this tragic event fell on the 41st anniversary of the fire bombing of Dresden, Germany toward the end of WW II, "in which 35,000 people died". (An NPR news update, Sunday 1:00 p.m., has just reported that the Pentagon has admitted that its information claiming the bunker was used as a military command center was "out of date").

All of this has brought to mind an article (which unfortunately I can no longer identify or produce) in which a military historian writing twenty-five years or more after the end of WW II searched for an explanation of the bombing of Dresden since its destruction seemed to have served no known military objective. He pursued and perused carefully the memos and communiques from and between all levels of command from the top down to the pilots who carried out the mission. He found no data that indicated to whom or at what level of command the order was given to destroy the city of Dresden!

As recently as last October, another carefully documented article in "Technology Review" concludes that the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki followed surrender overtures from Hirohito asking only the one condition that he be allowed to retain his title as Emperor. Our government's bargaining position at post-war deliberations may well have been enhanced by that disastrous show of fire power, but it was not necessary in order to avoid thousands of additional US troop casualties as we, the people, were led to believe.

It seems that if weapons of mass destruction exist they will, in the heat of battle, be used and that, in fact, the first casualty of war is always the truth. And this frightens me as, once again, I find myself reading carefully managed and censored news and am "protected" from knowing what really goes on - not because I might not like to know or might leak information (to whom for heaven's sake?) but because I might start putting two and two together and come to understand the logic and machinations of my own government.

Another anniversary that has not, to my knowledge, been noted in the press was that January 17 (Day One of Desert Storm) was precisely thirty years after President Eisenhower gave his prophetic farewell speech to the American people from which I quote:

"In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist."

American Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Hall on February 13, 1991 with 18 members present. President Armentrout called the meeting to order at 7:35 p.m. Roll call was taken by the secretary and the minutes of the January 9, 1991 meeting were read, corrected and approved.

T.V. Ludwick reported much activity by the unit in distribution of red/white/blue lapel ribbons, and red/white/blue "home" ribbons in support of Desert Shield. Also, a project is in process to display photos of all area military personnel in the Village Pizza/Bakery window. New flags are on display in several areas provided by the Auxiliary at Wurster Park and the schools. Also, there is a project underway to provide "room" flags for all classrooms at Manchester High School.

Our unit is also in the process of selling "Desert Shield" sweat and t-shirts, earmarking profits for military personnel and families on duty in Saudi Arabia. The details will be published in the Manchester Enterprise.

Miss April Barrett has been selected as this year's representative of Post #117 to Girls' State. Congratulations, April!

Three new members to this unit are Sandy King, Liz Beuerle and Bertha Briggs. Welcome aboard, ladies!

Joyce Stein reported on the bingo party at Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor to be held Saturday, March 9, 1991. Several members volunteered to host this event and purchase bingo books for patients.

The refreshment committee for the March meeting will be T.V. Ludwick, Helen Popkey and June Jenter.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 p.m. with a prayer by our chaplain, Edna Knaus.

Senior Citizens News

Another big snow, now the snowdrops can finish coming up through it as usual. I eagerly await their pretty white petals, it brings spring closer.

Enjoyed rewatching Archie Bunker and Ed Sullivan over the weekend. Did you also watch and wonder that 20-odd years have passed in the meanwhile? I marveled at the no-no's that were allowed on the air by Mr. Sullivan and the wide range of no-no topics that Archie "got away with". It brought back many memories of "those days". Y'know what? We all know folks like both gentlemen.

Back to reality and Thursday, February 21. Veal cutlets are being served by Jan and crew. Come try these good senior meals in Emanuel's dining room each Tuesday and Thursday at noon. Adjourn to the Center and enjoy bingo.

Tuesday, February 26: Blood pressures will be taken at 11:00 by one of our local nurses. At noon lunch, Chinese Day will be featured (and who can turn down this?). At 12:30, Dr. Howard Reznich, P.C., will talk on podiatry foot surgery, come and listen.

Thursday, February 28: The kitchen gals plan a glorified chicken casserole. Now, we ask, what is it that will make it glorified? I'm sure that if it is at all possible, we will be treated to a taste of glory (and be saying afterwards, "Glory, but I'm full").

We journey ahead to Friday, March 1. There will be a 6:15 pickup by senior bus to go to Chelsea to enjoy "Once Upon a Mattress". Call Erma Alber at 428-8707 to confirm your ride.

Ladies, would you like to go along on Wednesdays to the pool in Tecumseh for water exercise? There is nothing better to tone up muscles and put you "in the swim". The bus leaves Emanuel's parking lot at 8:30 a.m. and you may be put on the list by calling Virginia Fielder at 428-8716.

We are currently getting the March-April Trumper ready. It will be available either at senior meals or at the Center.

Japanese Quail Babies

There was an air of anticipation as the time drew near. First "Teddy" hatched, in honor of Mrs. Groeb and the 100th day of school; then "Lizzy", in honor of our librarian, followed by six more adorable Japanese Quail chicks. The birds were obtained through a 4-H program. Agent John Everette set up the incubator and talked to the class about the birds and their development.

We Need You!

After judging last year's Middle School Science Fair, judges were asked to fill out an evaluation form. One question asked, "Would you like to be contacted about judging next year?" While most were content with a yes, ok or sure, some responded with statements such as "definitely", "Yes, I feel it's a privilege," and "please!".

We are currently recruiting judges for this year's fair. Letters of invitation have gone out to those who judged during the last two years, but we would like to give others the chance to have a share in this privilege. If you have a science background, either through formal education, job experience or hobbies and would be willing to share a few hours of your time, please contact Nondus Buss at the middle school or leave a message at the middle school office, 428-7442. New judges are paired with those who have judged before to make it easier to get started.

the war is over by then," he says, and has had his length of duty extended until October of this year.

Mail delivery takes from two weeks to a month and a half, he told the audience. What helps soldiers most is to know that people back home support them and care about them.

What was it like out there in the desert?

"Well, they've got a lot of sand," he said. There is usually only one place where there are tables and chairs and soldiers receive mail and write letters there. The food is unusual and sometimes even unrecognizable. When one audience member asked about camels, Pamment answered, "Well, I thought once or twice maybe we had one for dinner. We were all trying to figure out what the meat was that we were eating."

Although morale among the troops is still high, most soldiers, he says, "Just want to get on with it. That's the basic feeling."

Why Opera?

It's an unusual art form, this opera stuff. Not really very familiar in the average American family.

We didn't exactly grow up on it. By the time opera came to America, it had been through Gilbert and Sullivan in England and emerged as the Broadway musical we are so fond of.

But opera, while unfamiliar, has a great deal to offer us, even in America.

For starters, some of the greatest, most beautiful music ever written was written for the opera. Mozart's operas, for example. Nothing surpasses the beauty of the arias in "The Marriage of Figaro".

The story lines are often simple. Like Shakespeare, the comedies may not seem too sophisticated in modern terms. Only in an archetypal sense!

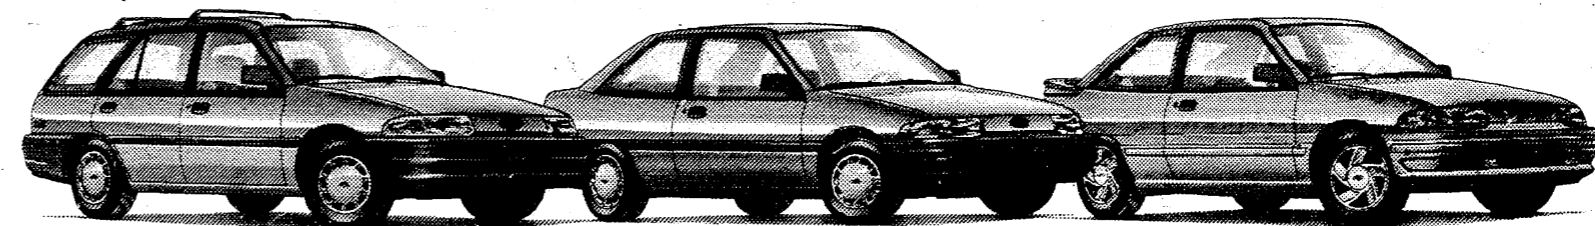

To Manchester, by way of the big screen video at the Blacksmith Shop, have come some of the great performances of the great operas.

This Friday evening, February 22, you are invited to stop in to enjoy the Swedish production of Mozart's "Così fan tutte" - a comic opera in two acts. You will be privileged to experience one of the most moving musical sequences ever written and performed.

The production is sung in Italian and has English subtitles. It will begin at 8:00 p.m.

This is a treat. This is the good stuff. Even if at first it seems strange, sit back and enjoy the sounds and the broad ideas. This is opera. And it is very beautiful.

Finally, the best economic news of the year.

LIFE HEALTH PINCHED NERVES

PAIN--headache, backache, shoulder pains, arm and chest pains, a multitude of assorted pains in all parts of the body--develops quickly when the spinal cord or one of its nerves is pinched.

Pain may appear at the point where the nerve is pinched, or it may make its appearance in that part of the body served by the pinched nerve.

A pinched nerve can lead to the development of disease conditions in the kidneys, bladder, liver, lungs, heart or other vital organs.

The chiropractor is an expert in one of the most advanced healing arts known to man. Through his soothing, professional spinal adjustments, he restores the normal flow of powerful nerve energy through the spinal cord and other vital parts of the body by bringing lasting, effective relief.

With proper nerve energy flow restored, nature heals from within, eliminating discomfort and banishing disease. Another Health and Life Article from the Office of:

Village Planning Commission

Regular Session
January 15, 1991

ROLL CALL

Present: Daverman, Little, Hinkley, Schiller, Gleason, Palms (entered 7:43). Absent: Way, Walton, Lowery. Also present: Mary Kallewaard, Chris Brooks, Deb Havens, Don Limpert

CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order at 7:35 by Chairman Daverman in the Council Room of the Village Hall.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA

It was recommended the General Development Plan be placed before the Woodlands Protection Ordinance.

Hinkley made a motion to approve the agenda with the above change. Little seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote.

MINUTES OF PREVIOUS MEETING

The minutes of the previous meeting were read.

Enter Palms at 7:43. The following changes were made:

Page 1 under Communications - paragraph 2, after "Tecumseh" add "Parks and Recreation Plan".

Hinkley made a motion to accept the minutes with the above changes. Schiller seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote.

COMMUNICATIONS RECEIVED

Kallewaard asked those commissioners whose terms are about to expire to let her know if they would like to be reappointed. She presented copies of the Planning and Zoning Acts for commissioners to take if they did not already have them. She also asked the commission to notify council of the time and date for the interviews of the planning consultants. Daverman noted that only two planning consultants responded of three contacted, and that the Washtenaw County Planning Commission would prefer waiting until April or May before undertaking the Village's General Development Plan due to prior commitments.

A memo was received from Kwolek concerning 66-foot setbacks and variances. Memo will be attached to minutes of record.

Manchester Township sent an update of where they are in their progress toward completion of their General Development Plan.

Palms had received a letter from the Washtenaw County Metro Planning Commission via Deb Havens in answer to the letter she sent concerning the proposed Woodlands Ordinance.

REGULAR BUSINESS GENERAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Daverman passed out the responses from the planning consultants who were contacted concerning assisting the commission in completing the General Development Plan. Responses were received from the Washtenaw County Planning Commission and Carlisle and Associates. Hotaling did not respond. Commissioners recommended that he be contacted by phone to make sure he received the letter. The proposals from the Washtenaw County Planning Commission and Carlisle and Associates were read aloud.

Daverman also passed out to commissioners the Village proposal of services.

The discussion which followed included the following:

1. Questions to be asked at the interview (planning consultant selection) were suggested.

2. Limpert expressed concern over "outside" consultants being hired to help develop the Master Plan.

3. Limpert asked what guarantee there is for the successful completion of the Master Plan. He was informed that November has been set as the date for completion. This might need to be altered, however, by a couple of months if the Washtenaw County Planning Commission is selected because they would not be able to start work until April or May. The consultants were informed of the November deadline in the initial letter the commission sent them requesting their proposals.

4. Commissioners expressed concern over the amount of money these consultants would cost the Village for their services. Commissioners felt it is necessary to explore ways to save in this process.

The interview of these planning consultants (Washtenaw County Planning Commission and Carlisle and Associates) will take place Tuesday, January 22, 1991 at 7:00 and 8:30 p.m. in the Council Room of the Village Hall. These interviews will be held by the Manchester Village Planning Commission's General Development Plan Ad Hoc Committee (Daverman, Palms, Hinkley, Little).

WOODLANDS PROTECTION ORDINANCE/3RD REVIEW

Palms passed out copies of the letter from the Washtenaw County Planning Commission in answer to Deb Haven's letter concerning the proposed Woodlands Protection Ordinance. The main points of this letter are as follows:

1. Found draft ordinance to be complete overall.

2. The draft ordinance is compatible with long-range planning efforts of the county.

3. Recommendations were made concerning the woodlands map, enforcement, costs, exceptions, parcel identification and filing, criteria addressing siting parameters, and age parameters for historic and specimen trees.

4. Found draft to be reasonable.

5. Posed questions which need to be answered.

Deb Havens noted that she had contacted Linda Lemke as recommended by the Washtenaw County Planning Commission. Lemke recommended the Village attorney be consulted as to whether woodlands concerns should be addressed in ordinance form or through zoning expansion. She also stressed that the development of a woodlands map was very important. She noted that in some ordinances the small homeowner is excluded from having to comply with the ordinance. It is necessary to be very specific about the lot size in this case, however. Lemke also said she is willing to answer any questions the commission might have.

Little recommended placing the ordinance under Title 5, Zoning and Planning: Chapter 55, followed by the article and sections. He noted that the Manchester Village Code is set up differently than the Novi example. Little also noted the definition of a "small property owner" needs clarification, and the "purpose" still needs to be developed.

The section of the proposed ordinance dealing with woodlot maintenance still presents problems and it was suggested this section be deleted. General consensus was in favor of this.

Little has transferred our code set up to fit the proposed ordinance.

NEW BUSINESS LETTERS TO THE EDITOR (Manchester Enterprise)

Daverman noted that letters to the editor are being developed by the Planning Commission and Council in response to a letter in the paper concerning the General Development Plan.

ADJOURNMENT

Daverman made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Hinkley seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote. The meeting adjourned at 9:19 p.m.

Recording Secretary

Winter Sports Update

JV Volleyball - Sarah Riske hits.

by Jon

On Monday our girl volleyball squad hosted the Addison Panthers. Our JV team experienced an off-night, suffering a rare loss, but our varsity continued to roll and won in two straight games. This victory leaves our varsity still undefeated in league play.

Tuesday saw our roundballers trek to Milan. The Little Dutch are building their third win streak and were victorious in a low scoring 41-32 game. Rodney Burkhardt was high scorer with 14 points. The varsity had a rough time tonight. The big reds were fast and elusive and held a halftime lead, 31-43. Our guys played a tough third quarter to fight within 3, 48-51, but Milan switched momentum and ran away with it, 68-84. Stefan Knul hit for 21 as Jesse Widmayer popped for 18.

Wednesday I travelled to Napoleon for a regional wrestling match involving four schools. Congratulations to our Dutch grapplers for edging Jonesville by 4 points. We now proceed to the state quarter-finals on March 1.

Thursdays' girls' volleyball parents' night was cancelled because of inclement weather, and may not be rescheduled.

On Friday, our boys' basketball squads played at home and won decisively. Vandercook Lake supplied little opposition for our JV's who won 68-30. Jamie Sloat was our high scorer with 21 points as Matt Fielder contributed 12. This now puts our win streak at 5 games. In the varsity contest, the Jayhawks took an early 1-0 lead and did not score again until 3:46 left in the second quarter. At this point, we had amassed 24 points and by halftime we stood comfortably ahead, 36-12. The benches emptied and all players saw quality floor time and all tallied. When the final buzzer sounded, we were atop 71-44. Stefan Knul led all scorers with 17 points as Jason Dominick canned 14. There were four players with 7 points: Andy Pagel, Steve Harvey, Jesse Widmayer and Lance Fielder. Mike Riske and John Ward each supplied 4 points, as Jeff Gillow and Dennis Gehringer had 2 points apiece. Be with us Friday as we host Addison.

1991 Regional Wrestling Champs

When our regular season ended, our season record stood at 19-2, good enough to place second in our league and be ranked sixth in the state. With districts, both team and individuals, coming up it was important to keep on wrestling well. The league tournament was not kind to the Dutch as we only medaled 5 wrestlers. Our first place finishers were Brent Woods at 112 and Darren Hock at 135. Taking second place was Chris Wiethoff at 119, Jason Woods at 125 and Isreal Clouse at 130. After this, the whole team knew that we wouldn't go anywhere if we didn't pick up our intensity and wrestle to our ability. Our next stop was Clinton for team districts. Our first team was Clinton and we went right after them coming away with a strong showing with the score reading Dutch 48, Clinton 24. In the finals, we met up with Napoleon and had a small letdown in the beginning but had our upper weights carry us to a 51-15 victory and our second consecutive district championship, Chris Green, Robert Sloan and Tim Beckett all getting two victories. Our next stop was individual districts where we had our best day of the season with everyone wrestling well, even the ones who didn't place doing their job. When it was all said and done, we had eight wrestlers going to regionals.

Our placers were Brent Woods at 112-first, Chris Wiethoff at 119-first, Jason Woods at 125-first, Isreal Clouse at 130-second, Darren Hock at 135-first, Stacey Clouse at 145-third, Chris Green at 152-third, Robert Sloan at 171-fourth. Everyone knew what our next objective was and that was team regionals with three tough teams there: Michigan Center, Jonesville and Dansville. We paired up against Michigan Center who gave us all they could before falling 39-32 with key wins from Jason, Isreal and Darren. Jonesville really surprised me in sticking it to Dansville. Meeting us in the finals earlier in the year, we narrowly beat them and I knew this was going to be close. We needed key matches out of some young kids as well as our veterans and we got them with Lucas Millheim and Brent. All of our seniors wrestled well, especially Tim Fenelon rising to the occasion winning the most important match of his career and sealing the victory while sending us to state for our second straight year. The state meet will be held in Battle Creek on March 1st in the Kellogg Center at 6:30. Hope to see you there. Thanks for your support and wish our wrestlers luck at individual regional and individual state.

MANCHESTER RESIDENTS WITH FAMILY IN THE U.S. MILITARY

Our American Legion unit has a display of local military personnel in the Village Pizza/Bakery window on Main Street. However, we feel there are other persons we have missed and would to take this opportunity to ask that anyone who has loved ones in the military please contact us (418-8849) so that we may include these folks in our display. We have included ALL personnel, not just those stationed in Saudi Arabia.

Also, we have undertaken projects to include: Red/White/Blue bows for display at residences/businesses (428-7131), and "Desert Storm" Sweat/T-shirt sales (428-8849, 428-8288 or 428-8119). Donations/profits from these projects will be used to support military personnel/families during this conflict.

The American Legion Auxiliary of Manchester would like to give special thanks to the following for making our town a big part of the Desert Storm support team. Gary Widmayer and Doug Parr for raising and lighting the new flag at Wurster Park, Sandy and Chuck King for use of the Village Pizza/Bakery window for our military photo display, Kerry Deacons for the photo boards, Bill Shurtliff for the very meaningful poster in the Bakery window, and to all Manchester citizens for wearing and displaying our ribbons. REDUCE THE RISK OF A TAX AUDIT

Are you in the process of completing your tax return? If so, you may want to read the following warning before proceeding. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is substantially enlarging its staff of auditors. The agency estimates that this increase in staff will result in an additional 100,000 tax returns being audited. And that's not all. The word is that the IRS has instructed its examiners to focus on several specific items. The Michigan Association of CPAs has some information that may help you avoid tripping over some of these red flags.

Use Of Schedule C
With fewer tax shelters to monitor, the IRS reportedly is directing its audit resources to taxpayers who file Schedule C - the form used by independent contractors, people who are self-employed or have freelance income. The problem is that many taxpayers who file Schedule C are actually employees of the companies with which they work rather than independent contractors and are therefore not entitled to use this form. Underlying this potential abuse is the fact that through Schedule C, taxpayers may deduct business expenses directly from income rather than subjecting them to the 2 percent floor for miscellaneous deductions. Be careful when using Schedule C, for the stakes are high. The penalties for taxpayers who file this form in disregard of IRS rules and regulations could go as high as 20 percent of the tax due plus approximately 11 percent interest. What's more, if the filing is considered fraudulent, the penalty is 75 percent of the tax due.

Mortgage Interest
Another tax deduction falling under the watchful eye of the IRS is the previously safe haven of mortgage interest. The IRS expects that the phasing out of the consumer-interest deduction will cause some taxpayers to misrepresent consumer interest as being fully deductible mortgage or home equity loan interest. To avoid this audit trap, be sure your deductible interest payments match the amount your lender reports to the IRS.

Charitable Contributions
Also subject to IRS scrutiny are deductions for charitable contributions. The IRS discovered that many charities have been handing out inflated receipts for donations and otherwise helping contributors to misrepresent their donations. To track down potential audit targets, the IRS is setting its sights on small charities and religious groups who hold auctions or gambling nights.

Other IRS Red Flags
In addition to the items listed above, IRS auditors will continue to pay attention to perennial problem areas. Some of the more common red flags include:
• tax shelter partnerships with high write-offs;
• home-office deductions;
• travel and entertainment expenses that the IRS views as being unnecessary or unreasonable; and
• alimony deducted by one ex-spouse that is not claimed as income by the receiver.

The Audit Lottery
Most of the returns selected for audits are chosen as a result of computer analysis. Information on your return is fed into an IRS computer that compares the deductions, exemptions, and credits you claim with those claimed by other taxpayers in your income category. The IRS computers score returns and single out those returns that do not conform to IRS standards. Returns that are selected by the system are then scrutinized by IRS examiners who decide which returns should actually be audited.

If your return contains an unusually high deduction, you may be able to avoid an audit by attaching a brief explanation or some form of documentation to your return.

But what if your deductions are average and fall within the IRS guidelines? Does that mean you're off the hook? Not necessarily. Some returns are selected because the IRS feels a particular area is being abused. Others might be selected because they were filled out by preparers the IRS deems questionable. Or you may be picked simply because the IRS is auditing the return of a business associate. Then there are those occupations that make you more vulnerable to an IRS audit. Waiters, cab drivers, beauticians and others who get paid mostly in cash have long been potential audit targets. And, of course, the higher your income, the greater your chance of being audited. Finally, some returns are just selected at random.

CPAs say that the fear of an audit can cause some taxpayers to become overly cautious and ignore legitimate deductions because they feel they might wave a red flag on their return. This amounts to overpaying taxes - certainly not a wise thing to do. If your deductions are legitimate, by all means take them. Just be sure to keep thorough records to substantiate your claims.

Volunteer "Wetlanders" Needed

In a bold, new initiative to draw on all available talents for wetlands restoration, the Lansing-based Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation is soliciting volunteer "Wetlanders". Up to 25 citizens will be selected and trained to assist the Foundation and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) with wetland restoration projects on private lands in 45 southern Michigan counties. "This is an exciting program with far-reaching benefits to Michigan's wildlife," said Foundation president Dean Brodberg of Lansing. "It provides citizens with a direct way to help with critically important wetlands conservation work."

The projects will include blockage of small ditches and drain tiles, and minor excavations. In most cases, participating landowners will get the work done free in exchange for signing ten-year conservation agreements.

The selected "Wetlanders" will assist Foundation and FWS staff with a variety of tasks but will be particularly involved with identification of potential project sites and initial landowner contacts. They will undergo a formal training program by the Foundation in cooperation with the FWS, Michigan Cooperative Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"This initiative may become a model for future programs to restore wetlands on private lands," says Jim Gritman, the FWS regional director. "We're looking forward to a long-term partnership with the Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation and its cooperators. We also invite other public and private groups to assist us with this program."

Citizens interested in becoming a "Wetlander" for 1991 should send a brief letter of interest to the Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation, 6425 S. Pennsylvania, Suite 9, Lansing, MI 48911, Phone 517-882-3110.

Panel Discusses Mideast

Fifty or more citizens from the Manchester area gathered at Emanuel Church last Saturday afternoon to gain information about Mideast culture and history as well as the current situation in the Persian Gulf.

Paul Kuntzman, pastor of Emanuel Church, introduced the panel and moderated the discussion that followed. Betsy Barlow from the University of Michigan's Center for Near Eastern and North African Studies and Fran Shor of the Department of Humanities at Wayne State University provided basic factual material on the history and current circumstances of the area.

Retired Colonel William Cannon, Governor John Swainson, and former Army nurse Elizabeth Allen made responses based on their experiences. Questions and comments followed from the audience and the panel.

Sybil Kolon, representing Citizens for Peace in the Mideast, the sponsoring organization, encouraged the audience to give much needed blood at the March 18th Blood Bank at the Methodist Church and to support the troops by contributing to the U.S.O. at World Headquarters, 601 Indiana Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20004.

Mideast maps and reprints of relevant articles were available free and a collection of them is available at the Manchester Township Library.

Enterprise Has New Owners

On February 25, 1971, the front page of The Manchester Enterprise carried this headline "Death of the Enterprise". Citing economic reasons, the former owner made the decision to cease publication.

The Manchester Enterprise is still in existence and is approaching its 125 year anniversary.

This will be the last issue published by the Steeles, it is time for us to retire.

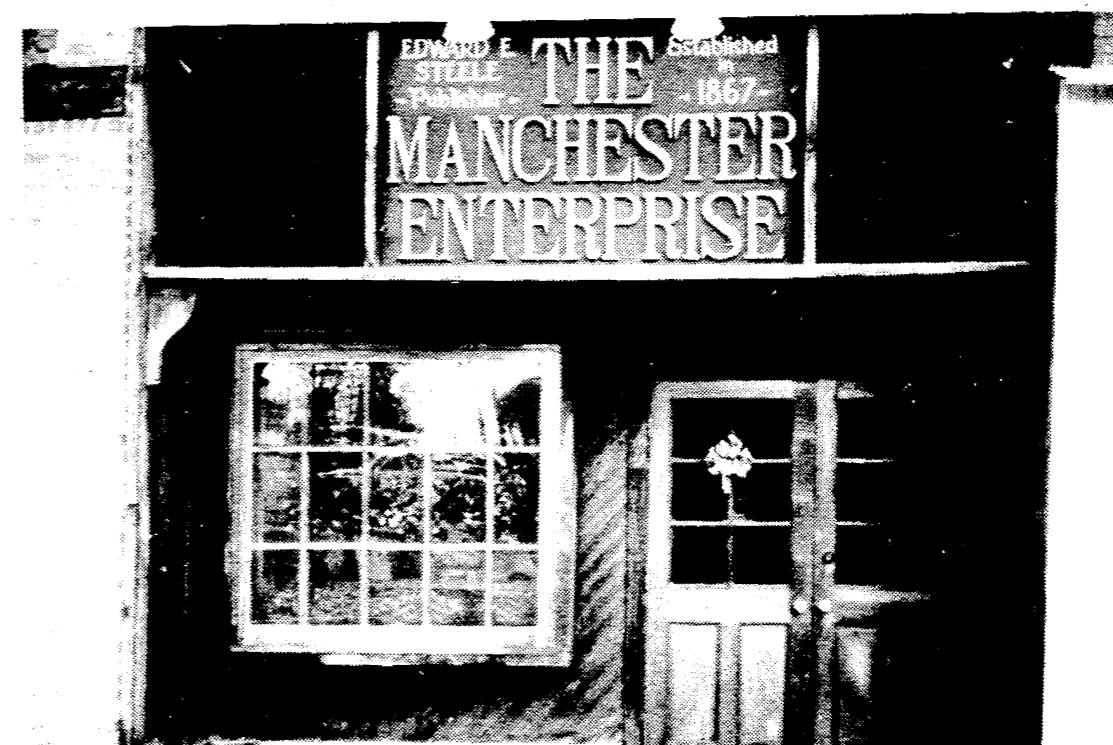

We would like to thank all of our subscribers and advertisers for their patronage for the past twenty years. Without your support the paper would have folded.

We would also like to acknowledge the people who have helped us in getting the Enterprise "to bed" every week. Our sons Raymond, Michael and Thomas for their assistance those first hectic years, Edward P.
