D.A.R.E.
A drug is a chemical that can hurt your body. Some can even kill you. There is another kind of drug that can help your body such as a remedy or something a doctor prescribes. Even something a doctor gives you can hurt you if you take too many.

If somebody asks you to take drugs, such as crack, beer or marijuana, there are many ways you can make up an excuse, or just say no! Sometimes the person who is asking isn't really themselves. In that case, you can say "No, let's do something else".

Sgt. Werner has taught us lots of stuff. But the one main thing he taught us is why we don't need drugs. All drugs do for us is mess up your education and get you angry. One of the most popular reasons that kids take drugs is because their friends do and they want to fit in and they don't want to be teased. The most common reason adults take drugs is they think it will make their problems disappear. But it just makes everything worse. Because your only friends will be the other people who take them.

You should try to stay away from gang members because they usually carry guns and knives. Ways to prevent this are don't dress like them and don't act like them.

I think everybody should have the D.A.R.E. program because it teaches kids why they don't need drugs.

— by Juliana Westcott

What D.A.R.E. Means...

D.A.R.E. means learning how to say no to drugs and learning how to walk away from people who use and sell

Why I Choose ...

Because I have seen what drugs do to people who use drugs. And I have seen how drugs can hurt people who use drugs. And not only hurt, but sometimes even kill you. And when you think you have everything in life there is to have, suddenly it turns on you and you don't have anything you thought you had. And I just wouldn't waste my life for a few good minutes.

— by Jennifer Lawson

What D.A.R.E. Means...

D.A.R.E. means a lot to me because I learned how to say no and have a right to say no if I want to also stick up for myself. D.A.R.E. also means that on TV, you can have a great time without smoking or drinking alcohol. D.A.R.E. has taught me a lot about what drugs can do to you.

WHY I CHOOSE...

The reason why I choose not to use drugs is when I look around me, I see lots of people walking and leaning all over. I think how dumb they are. If you go places, look all around, you can see how they look or what they were or feel. I bet you will see more people look better and feel good without drugs. I hope you don't use drugs.

— by Jamie Kuntzman

D.A.R.E. Essay

My name is Derrick Smith. This is what I plan to do to keep from being pressured to use drugs:

To keep my body healthy, I will play a lot of sports and I will exercise a lot.

To control my feelings when I have stress or am angry, I can play sports and play with a friend.

If I have to decide whether or not to take a risk, I can think about it.

If a friend tries to pressure me to use alcohol or marijuana I can say "No thank you".

If I want to do something that is fun and is adventurous, I can think about it. If I saw people using alcohol or drugs on TV, I can ignore it.

D.A.R.E. means to me my life 'cause D.A.R.E. taught me how to say no to drugs. I choose not to use drugs 'cause it could mess up my mind and it could kill me.

Adult Volunteers Wanted at Manchester High School

The Constitution of the United States does not guarantee anyone or everyone in America a free education, yet today most Americans think a good education is necessary to become a good American citizen. This belief is reflected by our state legislatures, which have decided all children should be educated.

Americans pay an enormous amount of money to educate our kids. That said, most Americans are worried that not all kids get the education they need, including here in Manchester.

We have students in our school district who need help reading, writing, computing and/or planning a productive future. This is not to blame teachers, staff, curriculum, or kids. Simply put, all kids do not learn the same material at the same rate. Some kids have other problems that affect how well they learn, and they could use some help.

If so, please feel welcome to join like-minded others Wednesday, June 2, at 1:00 pm at the Manchester High School Library Conference Room to plan a volunteer program for the next school year.

Questions? Call Mary at 428-7333. Refreshments served.

The volunteer program at Klager Elementary is terrific. Lots of adults (not only parents) are involved. Kids benefit from this kind of attention, but beyond elementary school, adult volunteers are rarely seen inside the school building.

Mr. Russell LeBlanc, principal at Manchester High School, would like to see that change. Students have lots of needs that able and interested adults can help them meet. Whether or not you have a child attending high school, you may like kids, enjoy helping them, and believe they could use your support in some way beyond tax dollars.

Questions? Call Mary at 428-7333. Refreshments served.

From The Ground Up

— by BG

A great sign of Spring is the sight of the vegetable gardens around town with the neat square corners and precise lines of tiny plants set into the black soil.

Have you ever thought about the usefulness of flowering bushes? They can be used for color, accents, height, texture, background, fragrance, screening, attracting birds and butterflies, and let's not forget berries for eating. Bushes can vary in size, season of bloom and texture: a two-foot Caryopteris to a thirty-foot Honeysuckle, an early Pussy Willow to a November's Witch Hazel and a coarse leaf Rhododendron, to a fine-leaved Potentilla.

Pruning the bushes can be done after blooming but do some earlier and use the branches in the house. They provide lots of color, bulk and a framework for other flowers in floral arrangements. An additional advantage might be the ability to root in water so check the ends of the branches for any rooting activity before tossing out the arrangement.

This rooting aspect is present in a variety of plants. You might be planting tiny Impatiens plants now. After they have grown, cut some flowering side branches to take into the house for a small bouquet. The main plant will benefit from the 'pruning' and the bouquet will last longer because of the forming of roots. Then the new plant can be planted in soil indoors or outside to grow larger and flower again for longer enjoyment.

Editorial / Opinion

Out & About by gar

Some times when a person gets a hard-headed or hard-hearted attitude about life, something comes along to level things out. I had that happen to me last week.

I picked up a precocious four-year-old lad from his day care facility. Before we could leave, however, he had to show me something. Not knowing what it was, he led me around the corner of the building and headed toward some swings in the back yard. He swung himself up onto the seat and proceeded to push himself backward as far as his little legs would allow.

The conversation went: "Give me a little push", which I did. "That's enough!" At which point he tucked his legs under the seat and began to pump himself back and forth as we have all learned to do. When he had attained a good height, he jumped from the swing, landed on his feet, stood up, and with a big smile of attainment said: "See, Ernie, I can pump myself up on the swing now! Nobody has to push me anymore!" What a beautiful smile of achievement, and the look of satisfaction was incredible to behold.

That achievement and satisfaction brought me back to the world of the living and away from some negative thoughts. We owe our children, all children a chance to learn to pump a swing. We need to give them a chance to get an education so they might learn how to pump the swing of life.

We need to get behind our education system. I think one of the ways is to support Proposal A at the June 2 election. This will give a more balanced financial foundation, a pump, for education in the State of Michigan. All of the kids in the state need all the help they can get, please get out and vote.

VOTE A Matter of Faith and Justice: Health Care for All

JUNE 2 EDITORIAL

Emory Garlick

June 2, may very well be the last time for a long time that we will be able to cast a ballot to change our taxation system to benefit education and reduce our property tax. The proposal is not perfect, and it is a compromise of our Legislators and Governor.

Talking with our School Superintendent and Township Supervisors over the past months has brought forth some salient points.

ONE, the State of Michigan mandates most of our educational programs and has sidestepped funding those mandated programs.

TWO, our property valuation system is controlled by just a small percentage of sales and all values are increased by the State and Washtenaw County accordingly.

THREE, if Proposal A passes, increases in valuation will be limited.

We need to have a more unified method of funding our educational process. I feel "PROPOSAL A" will help to accomplish that task.

I urge you to get out and VOTE JUNE 2. Please support Proposal A, it's not perfect and it may have to be altered in the future but it is a start.

There are three really important points about this whole health care reform issue that we should keep in mind:

First, it is important. Vitrally important. 37 million, about 1 out of every 7, Americans have no health insurance of any kind. Many more find themselves under-insured—a terrible thing to discover just when you need it most! On the average Americans spent $3,200 last year for health care. Health care costs are increasing by 12 to 15 percent every year. And more than 3/4 of all labor strikes involve disputes over health care coverage.

Second, we all know the buzz words: health care crisis; health care reform; the Canadian model; managed competition; single-payer system; Hillary Clinton. But even after faithfully watching NBC Evening News (or Nightline or whatever), is our knowledge of this issue really more than about a quarter of an inch deep???

Third, the facts of the matter compel us to care and become informed. Concern for life and death issues, for "the least of our brethren," is required of us—because of our faith, because of our sense of right and wrong, because of our compassion, because of common decency. However, practical attention to our own personal and family health care responsibilities demands that we do what we can to make sure this first concern does not conflict with the second.

The Manchester Area Churches invite you to become informed. On four Tuesday evenings in June, you are invited to meet at Emanuel Church to learn about the health care issue in depth and to prepare yourself to respond intelligently to the initiatives that will be coming out of Washington in the upcoming months.

We are not talking about something abstract and unrelated to our lives here. Health care reform will effect each and every one of us—regardless of how we handle health care costs now and even in little out-of-the-way Manchester.

Mark your calendar: Tuesday, June 8, 15, 22, and 29. We will meet from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. in the dining room at the Emanuel Church Hall.

The series will be focused and efficient. It will include guest speakers, videos, and small group discussions, following a non-denominational curriculum developed by the U.C.C. Churches. An analysis of why health care costs are so high and an explanation of the various proposals, jargon, and variations of plans will be the central point of the series. There is no fee for attending.

Whether we view it as in our own best interests or out of charity toward those less fortunate, our response to the upcoming health care reform proposals requires we know what we are talking about. No matter which church you belong to (and even if you are non-affiliated), join your friends and neighbors on the last four Tuesday nights in June, at Emanuel Church, starting at 7:30 p.m. sharp!

You owe it to yourself and to those you love—including all of our brothers and sisters in Christ—to do the right thing. But first, take the time to discover for yourself what the right thing is.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:40 p.m.

Students at Manchester High School were given a lesson in the dangers of drinking and driving Friday when they drove the Dodge Drunk Driving Simulator vehicle in the school parking lot. The Dodge Daytona is modified with an on-board computer which can be programmed to delay the car's steering and braking response time, equaling the slowed physical and mental response abilities of a driver under the influence of alcohol. The course was marked off with orange pylon cones and the student drivers attempted to negotiate the figure-eight course without hitting any pylons. Pop-up silhouette figures representing pedestrians were also stationed on the course. Pictured above, senior Angie Eiss and in the backseat, passenger Amy Lavka, have just completed driving the course and picking up a few pylons along the way.

Last year we planted some hollies, and weeks later we saw that the old leaves were glistening, but the young ones were withering. "Why?" asked a friend. "We had a freeze," I answered, "and the young get hurt more easily."

Everyone sins, but the sin of all sins is to teach the young to sin. Our Lord said, "If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea."

Remember, the young get hurt more easily. Teach them to believe in the gospel and to behave it. Don't teach them to sin.

A boy asked, "Mother, what's dying?" "For a child of God," she answered, "it's opening a gate to a new world called heaven." In that world there'll be no hospitals, or drug stores, or prisons. It's a place without sin, sorrow, or suffering. In that world there'll be no disease, disappointment, or death. It's a place where there's nothing unhealthy, unlovely, or unhappy. In that world there'll be no tears, or trials, or temptations. It's a place that's filled with pleasure, purity, and perfection. I'm going there because I'm a child of God. Are you?

CLUBS/ANNOUNCEMENTS

MANCHESTER AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Manchester Area Historical Society held its monthly meeting on Tuesday, May 18. Work will begin soon to replace the roof of the Blacksmith Shop. Some tuckpointing and window repair will also be done.

Howard and Lenora Parr attended a country school conference at Eastern Michigan University on May 14. Some one-room schools are being used as tools for the children of today to learn what it was like to attend such a school. There is a photo exhibit of barns and one-room schools at the Women's Hall of Fame in Lansing.

A program on historic landscaping was presented by Allison Arcott, a landscape architect from Ann Arbor. In planning the use of a piece of property, landscape architects take into account the type of architecture to be used in the buildings, outdoor spaces, shape of the lot, contours of the land, legislation and ordinances, the orientation of buildings to each other, and utilities as well as the placement of trees, shrubs and flowers.

She showed slides of eight different styles of houses and the appropriate plantings. Colonial homes, for example, had symmetrical, clipped shrubs and very few foundation plants. There was usually a low fence and lilacs, and lilachedges were popular.

Perennial gardens that included peonies and poppies were common around midwestern farmhouses.

Cape Cod style homes had clipped foundation plantings, evergreens with symmetrical shapes, rock gardens and trellises with vines. There was a great deal of variety in the yards and gardens of English cottage homes.

Refreshments were provided by Floyd and Florence Parr following the program.

The community is invited to attend the Society's picnic on June 15 at 6:00 p.m. at Sharon Mill. The Manchester Community Band will perform. Please bring a dish to pass and join us for an enjoyable evening on the banks of the River Raisin.

Manchester Recreation Task Force

Seven Track Members Go To State

Manchester had a very good showing at their regional track meet this Saturday.

Jeremy Davis had an outstanding day, taking home four regional medals and receiving the honor of going to state in four events. Jeremy took first in both the 100-yard dash and the 200-yard dash.

The 800-meter boys' relay team, consisting of Weiss, Hoeft, B. Davis and J. Davis, broke the school record and will be competing in the state track meet on Saturday, June 5. The 400-relay team consisting of Spork, Weiss, B. Davis and J. Davis also broke the school record and will be competing at state. Eric Faulhaber took fourth place in the mile run, missing state qualifying time by only six seconds.

Bryan Hoeft took fourth in the 300 hurdles and made finals in the 1900 high hurdles. This will be Hoeft's third year in a row to be competing at state. Hoeft also tied for fourth place with Shane Goodell in the highjump. Matt Fielder made it to finals in the discus but missed placing by just a few feet.

As a team the boys took home thirteen medals.

The girls track team is sending two girls to state, Amber

Burkhardt and Martha Marks. Amber took fifth in the 400-meter dash, and qualified for state by one hundredths of a second. Martha took sixth in the discus and qualified for state in the shotput by taking a second at regionals.

Jennifer Fleck, who is only a freshman, took a medal home in the mile run by placing fifth. Jennifer did not qualify for state but there is no doubt she will be there before she graduates.

The two-mile relay team consisting of Fleck, Helfrich, Landini and Burkhardt took fourth and feel they have a good chance to win the two-mile relay at the conference meet Tuesday, May 25.

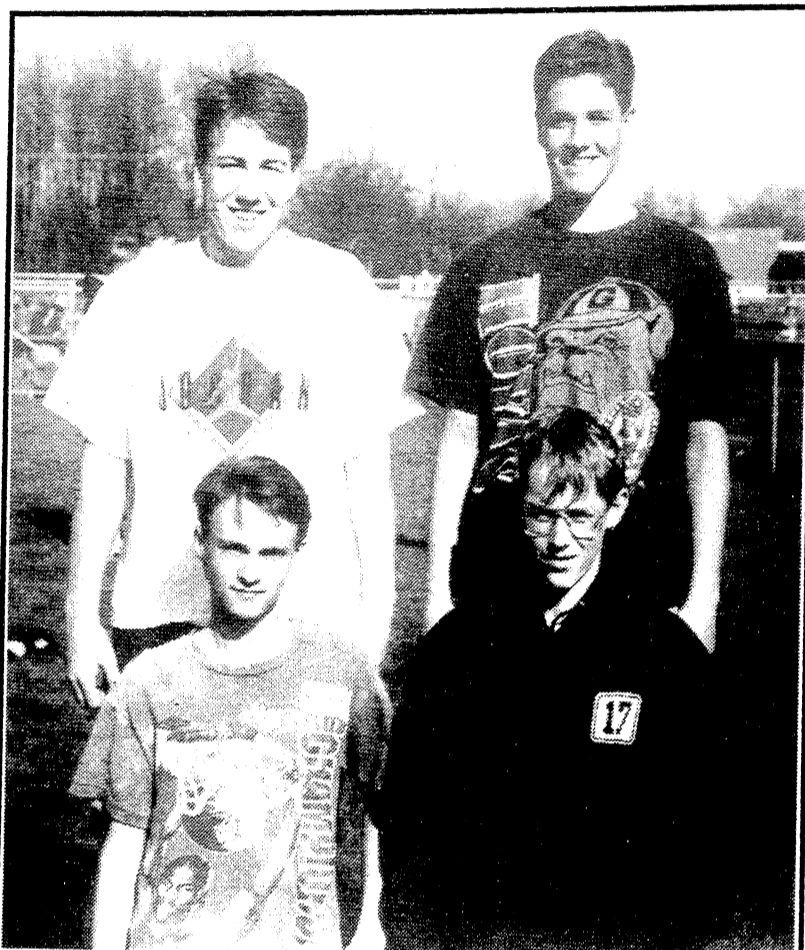

Michelle Mann is the final medal winner taking sixth in the high jump.

Together the girls took home nine regional medals. The girls' track team would like to congratulate Amber and Martha, and wish them the best of luck at the state meet.

While this writer was enjoying the warmer climate of Baton Rouge, LA, the girls played six ball games, ending the week with a 3-3 record. In conference play, the Dutch were 2-1, which assures them of a winning record for the season. They are now 7-5 in conference and 9-13 overall.

Monday's game was at home against Addison. Manchester won 16-10 after scoring 11 runs in the first inning after two were out. Keller, Strock and Hayden each collected two hits in the inning. Shan Lee pitched seven innings, scattering their ten runs throughout the first six innings. Offensively, Keller was the leader with four hits in five at-bats. Strock, Hayden, Williams and Wallace each had two hits. Keller, Hayden, Williams and Wallace each had two RBI's.

Wednesday, the Dutch traveled to Hanover-Horton. This was a five-inning victory, with a score of 18-3. Lee limited the opposition to two hits, allowing five walks, and marking three strike outs. Meanwhile, the Lady Dutch connected for sixteen hits. The game featured a nine-run third inning. Lee had four hits, Keller and Wallace had three each, and Strock had two. Bisard, Lee and Keller each scored three runs.

Friday was a game the girls wanted to win, but came up short 4-2. Again the game featured a pitchers' duel. East Jackson had five hits to two for Manchester. Kerri Keller and Michelle Strock had the two Manchester hits. Keller scored in the fourth and Ash, running for Strock who was hit by a pitch, scored in the seventh. East Jackson scored three times in the third, but only had one earned-run for the game.

Manchester hosted a softball tournament on Saturday. The weather cooperated beautifully as four teams played a round-robin. Jackson Western, eventual winner of the tournament, was Manchester's first opponent of the day. The game ended in a 9-5 loss though Manchester had nine hits to six for Western. Western scored three runs in the third and four in the fourth, which was too much to overcome. Beth Hayden pitched three and a third innings and Lee pitched the final three and two-thirds, allowing only one run in relief. Offensively, Keller had three hits and Hayden had two. Manchester scored two runs in the third (Keller and Strock) and solo runs in the first (Bisard), fifth and seventh (both by Hayden).

The second game Saturday was a slugfest as Manchester beat Stockbridge 16-15.

Manchester collected 14 hits and gave up 12. Keller and Strock each had three hits, while Lee, Williams and Wallace had two each. Strock finished with four RBI's, Wallace and Lee three RBI's and Williams had two. Manchester had four runs in the first, five in the second, and finished with three in the sixth. Stockbridge put up eight runs in the fourth and made it close with two in the seventh. Kerry Keller pitched the first six innings, allowing thirteen runs and Shan Lee pitched the seventh.

The final game Saturday was a Jonesville win 21-11. This game featured two triples by April Butterfield. One of those triples started a six-run third inning for the Dutch. The other triple was in the three-run seventh. Also connecting for two hits were Franki Bisard and Kerry Keller. Jenny Ash pitched the first two innings and Keller pitched the final five. Jonesville scored in all but the fourth inning.

Coach Gall was pleased with the format of the tournament and sees this as the beginning of an on-going event. He was able to use all of his players and give several people an opportunity to pitch. This should be valuable to all participants as they prepare for district play.

Kerri Keller was the top offensive player for the entire week as she collected eight hits in twelve at-bats in the three league games and eight hits in thirteen at-bats at the tournament.

This week, Manchester winds up their conference games with a Monday home game against Michigan Center at 4:30.

District tournaments begin on Tuesday, June 1, at East Jackson with Manchester playing a 4:00 game against Clinton. The winner advances to Saturday at 10:00 against East Jackson. The championship game then follows at 3:30.

The varsity baseball district playoffs are scheduled at the same time and are also at East Jackson. Come support the varsity Dutch players.

Forty-three canoes raced in the 27th Annual Canoe Race May 16, 1993, sponsored by the Manchester Recreation Task Force. The sprinkles of rain early gave way to clearing by ten o'clock, and sunshine later in the afternoon made it a wonderful day. The obstacles in the river this year were a little more of a challenge, but made the races more exciting.

Senior Citizens News

—T.V. Ludwick

For those of you who wished a good time at my 50th alumni celebration at Stryker High School, we did, thank you. We enjoyed a noon luncheon which was filled with school stories, dinner followed by a program and an "afterglow" that made us pleasantly tired (in bed at midnight!) I wonder, "Did we really do all those things?" We had the best time and it was as if we hadn't been separated from one another for so long. Then, on Sunday, we two decorated at three cemeteries in the rain. While driving from Bryan to West Unity, we saw corn up in the fields in those neat long rows. What a sight. I love spring more than any other season of the year. On to Napoleon to grandparents' graves and back home too have another early night. Did I forget to mention all this took place in the great state of Ohio?

Thursday, May 27: Jan takes us again to Chinese Day and the tables will be filled. Too bad hubby doesn't care for egg rolls, so I get to take two (goody, goody!) If you've missed out on all these goodies, come on down to Emanuel's dining room for Tuesday and Thursday noon senior meals, but first call either Linda (428-8359) ahead, or Jan on meal days before 10:30 at 428-7630. Bingo is enjoyed each Thursday at 12:30 at the Center. Monthly senior-sponsored card party starts this evening at 8:00 p.m. at Freedom Township Hall. Bus pickup begins at 6:30 and you may call Erma Alber at 428-8707 for your ride. All age groups are welcomed.

Tuesday, June 1: (Already?) Macaroni and cheese is at its very best when our Jan prepares it and is served today. Center activities will begin at 12:30. Bring your friends for a card game, or help with current projects.

Thursday, June 3: This is the day for you all to come to our birthday celebration for those seniors born in both June and July. Pork chops, ala Jan and crew, will be enjoyed with candles on your cake, song, corsage and first place in line to eat (plus picture taking of the group) which is half-priced to you birthday kids. Our faithful Howard Parr is our official piano playing accompanist during the time we are eating. He and Lenora are among the last to eat each time. Thanks for the seasonal and old-time music.

Manchester Plastics Inc. ranks among North America's leading plastics molders

Manchester Plastics Inc., of Troy, MI, is among the 100 largest custom plastics injection molding companies in North America, according to a dollar-based ranking published by Plastics News.

Manchester Plastics Inc. ranks No. 16 among the largest custom injection molders of plastics in the United States, Canada and Mexico, placing it among the leaders in an industry that includes several thousand custom injection molders.

Injection molding is the primary segment of a plastics product manufacturing industry that generates total shipments valued at more than $113 billion a year. The process involves the injection of melted plastics into molds that are clamped shut under many tons of pressure to make products for a wide variety of industries.

Injection molded products range from ordinary garden pots, toys and caps and closures, to precision components for cars, medical devices and computers, to name but a few key markets. Custom molders make such products under contract for an outside customer.

A recent Probe Economics Inc. study commissioned by the Society of the Plastics Industry Inc., a Washington trade association, says the plastics industry as a whole, directly and indirectly, employs 3.2 million people full time, or about 3 percent of the entire U.S. work force, and the sector continues to grow at a much faster rate than total U.S. manufacturing overall.

New Adjustable Rate Mortgage Takes The Risk Out of Rates, Can Save Thousands in Interest Payments

Great Lakes Bancorp has solved one of home buyer's greatest problems. With the introduction of the 4Most Mortgage, Great Lakes has taken all the advantages of the low, up-front rates found in adjustable-rate mortgages, (ARM) and capped any possible increase at only four percent.

Most ARMs have a six-percent interest rate limit, a factor that has created doubt and apprehension for some customers in the past. Great Lakes developed the 4Most Mortgage after compiling research which shows that the life-of-the-loan interest rate was the most important factor that prevented home buyers from using adjustable-rate mortgages. Even with lower payments and initial savings found in ARMs, many loan shoppers were apprehensive about the potential of paying interest six percent higher than the initial rate.

"Adjustable-rate mortgages are a valuable option for mortgage shoppers, especially with today's lower interest rates," says Tom Bower, First Vice President of Great Lakes' Retail Loan Division. "By capping the maximum rate increase at four percent, Great Lakes has eliminated the greatest drawback to this type of loan. The 4Most Mortgage now provides a much more attractive alternative for mortgage shoppers."

The 4Most is the first of its kind in the state. "It's especially attractive for first-time homebuyers or people who have had ARMs previously," Bower says. "With a 4Most loan issued today, their interest rate could rise, at most, to 8.95%." Thus, the 4Most can save thousands. For example, in a worstcase scenario with rising interest rates, with a typical $100,000, 30-year ARM issued at today's rates, the following interest savings could result over the life of the loan.

4Most - 4% cap Traditional ARM - 6% Cap TOTAL INTEREST $180,346.41 $213,051.79

The 4Most can save $32,705 in interest over the life of the loan.

Great Lakes Bancorp offers the 4Most Mortgage through 42 branches in Michigan and through its mortgage-banking subsidiary, Great Lakes Mortgage Co. For more information on the 4Most Mortgage, call 313-769-8300 in the Ann Arbor area.

Raisin Pickers Come To The Ark

— R. Zang

A community always prides itself on anyone who has unique talents that attract attention and spreads the word about it. Manchester athletics at times does this; the high school football team earned state recognition this year. The Chicken Bowl draws large crowds from out of town every summer. And now a professional homegrown music group will give a debut performance at The Ark in Ann Arbor that will keep Manchester in the news for months to come.

The Raisin Pickers of Manchester will perform in concert on Friday, June 4th, for an enthusiastic toe-tapping evening of fun and entertainment. That the group will be at The Ark testifies to its spreading reputation as one of the best country/traditional/swing bands around. And it's common knowledge that the best groups are always asked to return.

The five members of the Raisin Pickers may in part or whole be known to Manchester residents. Mark and Carol Palms, Gary Reynolds, Mike Gleason, and Bill Farmer are frequently seen toting armloads of instruments here and there. They've fronted square dances in Manchester, and highlighted the River Raisin Festival last year. But what they've secretly been doing is practicing for hours to put together a sound that is as sweet as clover honey, but as moving as a bear chased away from a hive.

A recent brief performance at The Ark brought an enthusiastic response from a large audience amazed at the number of instruments the Raisin Pickers use, and the versatility of their singing. The list includes acoustic guitars, fiddle, mandolin, string bass, cello, banjo, accordion, tuba, trumpet, and harmonica.

Each song blends combinations of these instruments to create a full and delightful sound. And when the solo voices and sweet harmonies are added, a listener is challenged to keep his or her foot from tapping off into the next county.

There's no real way to describe the music style of the

Raisin Pickers, other than perhaps down-home eclectic. There's elements of Texas swing, jug band, bluegrass, ballad, polka, and waltz. Gary Reynolds best puts it by saying that a number of songs "go into the Raisin Picker hopper," and come out with a unique sound to match their individual talents.

During one swing tune, the lulling fiddle of Mike Gleason fed to Gary Reynolds picking clean notes on the banjo, while Carol Palms stroked the string bass to the guitar work of Mark Palms and Bill Farmer. All the while, Mark's melodic voice got the support of three-part harmony from the rest.

Another song, "Andy's Bar", featured Gary Reynolds singing and playing trumpet in a polka style tribute to a U.P. watering hole, while Mike Gleason filled in on the accordion. Too fun. Too happy.

Other tunes that could be featured in the upcoming concert include "Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe", "Blues My Naughty Sweetie Gives To Me", "Lost Off Scio Church", "Emotional Breakdown", "I'm An Old Cowhand", and "MacNamara's Band."

It's nice to watch talented adults who are willing to share their enthusiasm for music and lyrics. It's better yet that they have chosen people young and old to be their audience. This recalls music gatherings of the past, when young children, parents, and grandparents could sit together for an evening of entertainment.

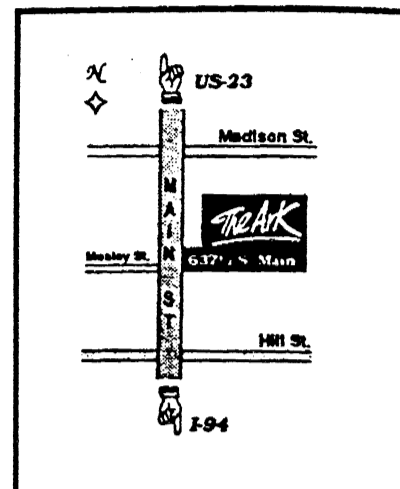

The Ark in Ann Arbor is one of those cozy places where a couple of hundred people can get together to see their favorites perform, and feel intimately part of the event. The stage and sound system is world class, and attracts a number of world class performers. The RFD Boys, Madcat Ruth, Richie Havens, and Taj Mahal are a few of the professionals that regularly appear at the Ark.

Food and beverages are offered for sale during performances. The selection is intriguing, if not nutritious, and allows children and adults to select what pleases them. Perhaps the best feature of the Ark is that the food prep and serving area is separated from the performance stage by large glass windows and a glass door, which allows the music to be heard without interruption. At the same, high quality speakers carry the concert into the food area, so no one misses the entertainment.

The Ark and the Raisin Pickers seem a perfect match. It's a place where people can relax, yet also highlights the acoustic work of good musicianship. It would be a good idea to bring more of Manchester to the Ark on June 4. That part is up to the community. A large contingent of Manchester area friends could inspire the Raisin Pickers to new heights.

The Ark is located off of Main Street south of Michigan Stadium and one block further than Hill Street going towards downtown. The Ark sign appears at the back of South Main Market. Ticket prices cost $7.75 at the door with the action swinging into life at 8:00 P.M.

A Circus at the Gazebo For Preschoolers

— Kathy Kueffner

A snow-white dove...
A cuddly rabbit...
A mischievous mouse...
These are friends of "Colors the Clown" and part of Colors' magic show for children.

Last week, the children from Manchester's Co-Op Preschool were treated to the delights of Colors' magical friends at the Gazebo park. The children ooh'd and ah'd, clapped their hands and were generally astounded and amazed. They were invited to sprinkle imaginary magic dust into a silver pan. Colors then covered the pan, and when she lifted the cover, out flew a white dove. A rabbit magically appeared from an empty box and so did a cute little mouse. Colors had the children's undivided attention.

Colors the Clown is a member of Clowns of America International, the largest clown organization in America. Due to the clown code, we can't tell you her real name, but we can tell you she has been a resident of the Manchester area all of her life. She has been clowning for three years and has three little clowns of her own at home.

Besides the magic show, Colors entertained the children with face-painting and making wacky designs with balloons.

Colors and Company is available for children's birthday parties and other special events. You can reach Colors at (313) 428-7926.

Better late than never There isn't enough words to say thanks to everyone who visited me while I was in the hospital. And for all the flowers and cards that were my inspiration, and since my return home. The food that was brought in. To all the girls who cleaned my house before my return home. I greatly appreciate the time and effort everyone has given me. To my family for love and support through my ordeal. And to my sister, Mrytle for taking the time to transport me to and from therapy. Thank you all, Ethel Weir
