Anderson Earns Eagle Rank

— Bill Kwolek

The Eagle brotherhood reaches into the past, uniting men in a traditional bond of service and adventure. On the 29th of May, Eric Anderson became part of this heritage by earning the rank of Eagle Scout.

The evening was delightful, a perfect moment that will lend a pleasant memory. A low sun shed a golden hue and a gentle breeze animated a grove of trees bordering a field on Bennie Kemner's farm. About 50 people assembled for the Court of Honor. The ceremony opened with a color guard, a recitation of the Scout Oath and Law, and an introduction by Assistant Scoutmaster Dave Roberts.

Eric's grandfather, Howard Ginaven, was the featured speaker. Mr. Ginaven was a scoutmaster in England while working for the Goodyear company after WWII. He reminisced about their adventures and Goodyear's commitment to the Scouting program. He was particularly fond of the 1957 World Jamboree, held at a site only miles from his troop's headquarters. His scouts had the time of their lives and traded badges with boys from countries across the globe. A grandfather's pride was overflowing when he announced that Eric was the first Eagle Scout in the family.

The Chicken Broil — How It All Began

—Corinne Widmayer, The Manchester Enterprise, July 5, 1990
It seems the Manchester Optimist (Exchange Club) used to sell tickets at Manchester High School football games. This proved somewhat difficult because there was no fence around the athletic field and people could wander in anywhere. As a result, the Optimist Club volunteered to provide money to build a fence. Great! No objections there, but where would they get the money?

From The Ground Up

The recent rains and warmer weather have increased the weed number tremendously. Does it seem that you spend as much time with weeds as you do with flowers and vegetables? Pulling weeds is a never-ending job but some things do help.

Damp friable soil makes it easier to pull the whole weed including all of the roots. It is easier to pull a small immature weed than an older weed.

It is possible to prevent weed seeds from germinating by covering the bare soil with a mulch — a layer of grass clippings or black plastic that will permit air and water to penetrate. The plastic might discourage some weeds - witchgrass, bindweed ground ivy that have underground runners. However, it is hard to dispose of and does prevent light from reaching the soil which might upset the balance of nature.

Herbicides can be used to protect certain plants, lawns being the most popular. Unless used correctly, they can damage desirable plants, birds and insects.

Constant cultivation of the bare ground is a common weed control method in the vegetable garden.

Barriers can keep some creeping weeds out of the garden beds. Plastic strips, a 1 x 6, or a narrow trench can be used as a barrier. Don't rely on rocks to do this.

Some groundcover plants grow thickly enough to prevent weeds. Be careful, these could become weeds themselves.

We may have to reconcile ourselves to pulling weeds while we enjoy working among the flowers and vegetables.

See and enjoy the countryside at a leisurely pace. Get healthy; improve your cardiovascular system; lose weight.

Spend quality time with your family — ride a bike!

We spend so much of our daily lives inside: in the house, in the office, in the shop, in cars; we tend to forget what it's like to look, smell, listen, feel — all those simple pleasures we can indulge in on a bike ride.

We tend to forget what it's like to move under our own power, the simple delight of traveling easily along on a bike.

That's what Ray Schemanske, owner of Chelsea Bike and Sports, Ltd. would like us to stop and think about. And his shop is the place to begin.

Are you thinking about buying a mountain bike? A ten-speed? Ray can explain the difference, advantages and suitability, and fit a bike to your style and use.

Do you have a bike stored back in the garage somewhere that needs a check-up? Chelsea Bike offers complete repairs on all makes of bicycles; they can restore your bike to good working order, often with next-day service.

Or perhaps you need information on one of the newest trends, the child-toters, tag-alongs, trailers/strollers that attach to the back of the parent's bike. Ray can explain about the safety features: the trailer stays upright even if the bike falls over; the shells are polyethylene which won't tear, dent or crack; there is a canopy for sun protection; lap and shoulder seat belts; safety flag, rear and side reflectors, etc.

Ray knows about the first-time customer or person who hasn't bought a bike in awhile and can show you his line of TREK bikes that Ray says "a customer can feel comfortable with."

Ray also emphasizes the importance of good quality kids' bikes. As he points out, there are cheap bikes made that take advantage of the latest fad without concern for sturdy frames, strong wheels, or good general construction. An example of planned obsolescence, they break and bend, and fall apart in a short period of time. Ray points out that his line of children's bicycles can take a thorough beating.

The shop also now carries Rollerblades, in-line skates and protective gear. Ray will rent you a pair and if you decide to buy will apply the rental fee to the purchase price.

Chelsea Bike and Sports, Ltd. is located at 1178 S. Main Street in Chelsea, next to Chelsea Bowling Lanes. They promise to provide the best possible service beyond the initial sale.

So, if you're concerned about economy, exercise and ecology, see Ray Schemanske at Chelsea Bike and Sports.

A MATTER OF FAITH AND JUSTICE What's What with Various Health Care Reform Proposals Guest Speaker to Address Study Series

Do you really know what they are talking about when someone refers to "the Canadian system"? How about "managed competition"? Or "publicly financed system"?

This coming Tuesday, June 22nd, the Manchester Area Churches Health Care Study Series will look at "Alternative Proposals for Health Care Reform" and try to make sense out of the issue. The session, which will feature guest speaker Christine Root as well as a video tape, begins at 7:30 pm at the Emanuel Church dining room. You surely will find it valuable.

A number of alternative proposals have been put forth for health care reform. The issue is highly controversial! There are many special interests involved in the health care field that want to influence the outcome.

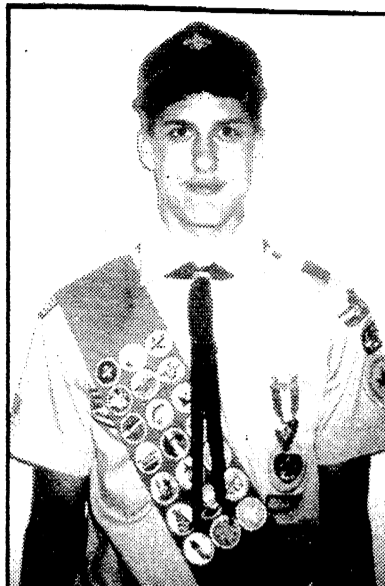

The various proposals have significant differences in who is covered, what care is provided, how the health care delivery system is altered, and how the system is financed. Proposals range from minor reform of the insurance industry to one publicly financed system for all.

It is easy to be lost in the wash of positions or carried away by the rhetoric put forth by one interest or another.

This session of the Manchester study series will feature a guest speaker, Christine Root, and will allow ample time for questions and answers.

Eric earned his required merit badges in Camping, Citizenship in the Community, Citizenship in the Nation, Citizenship in the World, Communications, Emergency Preparedness, Environmental Science, First Aid, Personal Management, Safety, and Swimming. He earned an additional 10 badges in Aviation, Fishing, Cooking, Nature, Orienteering, Metal Work, Hiking, Pioneering, Sports and Wilderness Survival.

Since joining Troop 426, he has held three offices, Assistant Patrol Leader, Leadership Corps, and is presently Junior Assistant Scoutmaster. Eric renovated hiking trails at the Searles Nature Preserve near Milan for his Eagle Project, assisted by his parents, adult leaders and fellow scouts.

Jim Achtenberg (Eagle, class of 68), pronounced the induction. Jim charged Eric with the responsibility of becoming a guide to younger scouts, remaining a good example within the community, and realizing that others will expect more from him because of his achievement.

Mr. Ginaven presented the award and Eric presented Eagle pins to his parents, Sallie and John, in recognition of their contribution. The Court of Honor closed with the Troop reciting the Scout Oath and Law.

During his presentation, Eric's grandfather challenged our youth to see that Scouting remains as strong now, as it was in his time. This challenge has been put to each generation since 1911 and will continue to be met by young men such as Eric Anderson.

The people of Manchester salute you Eric, and thank you for maintaining this honorable American tradition.

The Washtenaw Council for the Arts is pleased to announce the election of Cathy Annis of Manchester to their Board of Directors.

Be Careful What You Wish For... And How You Word Your Invitation

Manchester High School graduating senior, Angie Eiss, invited friends Karen and Steve Bristle and family to her graduation party held June 6, and jokingly included "and cows" on the invitation. Angie collects holstein cow paraphernalia and the Bristles have a dairy farm on Pleasant Lake Road.

Lo and behold, the Bristles came to the party with a livestock trailer attached to their truck and led out the fine holstein pictured above. Angie was speechless, and everyone had a great laugh. To Angie's relief, Karen and Steve took the real cow home with them afterwards and left a cute stuffed cow as one of Angie's gifts.

Manchester Pharmacy designated as local agency for Public Fax

Public Fax International of Irvine, California has this week designated Manchester Pharmacy, of Manchester, MI 48158 as a local agency in the Public Fax 11,000-member nationwide fax network.

With its selection, Manchester Pharmacy, is able to offer more than just basic "fax to fax" service. Local businesses and residents can use the Public Fax network to send fax mail even to people who are without fax machines of their own.

When a sender wants to fax something to someone who is not fax-equipped, the recipient is directed to a nearby Public Fax network location to pick up the urgent material. The purpose of the network is to make fax capability universal. People with fax can send to people without fax and vice versa, thereby saving them the one-day delay that comes with having to use overnight letters.

Another service offered by Public Fax agencies is the provision of a free fax number. Without requirement of guaranteed usage, Manchester Pharmacy, of Manchester, MI 48158 will allow area people to use its local fax number as their own. Users can issue the number to would-be fax senders or even print it on their business cards and stationery. There is a small per-page charge for materials received. Manchester Pharmacy makes immediate telephone calls to advise local users of fax mail that has arrived and then keeps it confidentially in a personal folder until it is picked up.

Other service features include the capability of sending pictures and photographs and having mail faxed for international delivery via INTELPOST.

Senior Citizens News

- T. V. Ludwick

I got a goose for Mother's Day. All forty pounds of it stands outside the kitchen window without the traditional clothes that most of them have. Jan Barbour called to offer suggestions as to how to fix this situation and giggles abounded during the conversation. She related the following story:

"Tricksters in Bridgeman, MI rounded up all the geese in the area and took them to one point in town. Then it was up to the police to get them back to the owners. Can you imagine the turmoil? Madam, what was your goose wearing when it was stolen?" and "It would be a good idea to place your name on the goose's bottom for identification". I shall rush right out and paint my name on "Louie" (son-in-law's middle name.)

Manchester Father and Daughter Earn First Degree Black Belt

Recently Ken and Molly Mangus were promoted to the rank of Sho-Dan, first degree black belt by Chief Grand Master Robert Dearman of the Sanchin-Ryu Karate Association. Ken and Molly Mangus are father and daughter Manchester area students and have spent many hours of hard work earning their promotions.

Dearman states, "All of us from the association congratulate Ken and Molly for their well-deserved promotions. Ken and Molly have advanced in all aspects of study to earn the rank of Sho-Dan, thus has studied the physical and mental techniques as well as living within the Sanchin-Ryu philosophy of individual growth".

Ken and Molly are studying Sanchin-Ryu Karate with instructor Shawn Adams a third degree black belt in the Sanchin-Ryu system. The classes are sponsored by the Manchester Community Education program, directed by Carolyn Supers.

Sanchin-Ryu karate is a noncompetitive art form. By eliminating the desire to compete with others, each student allows themselves the freedom towards personal growth. Sanchin-Ryu Karate is for self defense purposes only and emphasis is on the self disciple and mental composure consistent with that philosophy.

Family participation in Sanchin-Ryu Karate is strongly encouraged and each student regardless of age, will gain new skills and have fun studying Sanchin-Ryu Karate. The programs are offered through the Manchester Community Education program. For more information call (517) 769-2276.

Building Trades Home Featured During Annual Showcase Tour

After nine long months of building, the South and West Washtenaw Consortium Student Building Trades program is set to show off this year's home in the annual Showcase of Homes tour, June 12-20.

Manchester, Milan and Saline Schools.

Students in the Building Trades program included five from Manchester: Tim Landini, Ken Lane, Steve Raab, John Schiel, and Jeremy Wenger.

Dick Lutz, instructor of the program and Chelsea teacher, is proud of the students work. "The students do 90% of the work. They do the labor and professionals help teach."

Lutz sees the program as a stepping stone for students interested in construction careers. Many graduates are hired by construction companies and students also earn up to six hours of college credits through the Consortium articulation agreement with Washtenaw Community College.

For the second year, the student-built home will receive special attention in the Showcase of Homes. It is the only student chapter exhibit in this year's Showcase.

The home is located in the Saline area at 486 Bennington Court in the Northview Subdivision off of Waterworks Road, one block west of Saline-Ann Arbor Road. The home is a top-of-the-line traditional ranch with three bedrooms, jacuzzi, three-and-a-half baths, oak floor in kitchen and dining area, towering cathedral ceiling and fireplace, and a gourmet kitchen accented by solid oak cabinets.

Cholesterol Screening Provides Total, HDL Numbers

Saline Community Hospital will offer cholesterol screening from 4-7:00 p.m. Thursday, June 17, at Saline Recreation Complex, 1866 Woodland Drive, Saline.

The process has been revised from a finger prick that gives you only total cholesterol to a vein puncture that provides total and HDL (the good number) numbers mailed to you within three working days. Fasting is not required.

Joyce Van Ryn, RN, of hospital's Education Department, said the process was revised because many people are watching their cholesterol numbers now and want the more detailed analysis.

High cholesterol is one of the three major risk factors for heart disease. Often, cholesterol can be controlled through diet and exercise.

The fee is $12. No appointment is necessary. For more information, call 429-1636.

Saline Recreation Complex is located on Woodland Drive, just south of Textile between Saline-Ann Arbor Road and State Street.

Area Residents Honored by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital

Whether you come by boat, train or plane — don't miss the Manchester Community Fair

The 49th Annual Manchester Community Fair is fast approaching. It will be held July 6-10, 1993. Fair books are available at several area merchants. Pick one up and start with the entries for the exhibit building; there are several new classes added to the book for entering exhibits.

The Fair is once again having the "300 Club" drawing to help support the fair. There will be eleven drawings for prize money during the week. Tickets are available at the Flower Garden, Carol's Cut-N-Curl, and from Fair Board members.

The annual Talent Show is scheduled for Wednesday evening. Contact Susan Morey at 475-2783 if you are interested in trying out (& page 11 for entry form). Anyone interested in having a booth in the Merchants' Tent, contact Kathy Richardson at 428-8474.

The theme for this year's fair is "Year of the American Craft, 1993". As a result of a Congressional Proclamation signed by President Bush in December of 1992, our nation will celebrate the theme of crafts and crafts-people along with the entire western hemisphere. 1993 fairs will pay tribute to the historical roots and cultural heritage of crafts and showcase the artistic diversity existing among all people.

Local Shopkeepers To Become TV Personalities

Manchester's own Cobblestone Rose, creators of exquisite floral fashions which have graced weddings from Toronto to Florida and from Oregon to Connecticut, will be featured guests on Company (formerly Kelly and Company), Channel 7-TV, Friday, June 25, 9:00 a.m.

Resident proprietors, Elizabeth Busch and Karen Hodgson, say they are a little nervous but are excitedly looking forward to being on the popular morning talk show. Friday morning's show will focus on women who create wedding fashions, and if you have ever visited The Cobblestone Rose shop located in the Mill, you know that these ladies create gorgeous floral designs from dried flowers.

The Cobblestone Rose was established in 1984 by Kathleen Busch who began by making home decor items such as wreaths and garlands with dried flowers.

Left, Elizabeth Busch and right, Karen Hodgson of The Cobblestone Rose, will be on Channel 7-TV "Company" Friday at 9:00 a.m.

Then a customer approached her to do some floral designs for a wedding. Over the years, the focus of the business changed as the wedding pieces gained more and more popularity. The designs were derived from turn of the century family wedding photos and were often named for the person in the photo.

Down Memory Lane with the Manchester Chicken Broil

by Marsha Johnson Chartrand

Dateline: Thursday, June 24, 1954 - "The Exchange Club Auction was a real success. The proceeds amounted to $670.00...the entire proceeds was turned over to the Athletic Field Fence Fund. The Exchange Club has planned some other functions for later this year which include a local talent production, "You Can't Take It With You", and a huge barbecue chicken dinner."

So begins the saga of the Manchester Chicken Broil. This was the earliest printed reference to what would become our Village's largest annual event. Several weeks later the announcement came that, "If you want to taste charcoal-broiled chicken at it's finest, salted, buttered, with well-done meat under a crisp, toasted skin, bring your family and friends to the Manchester athletic field, any time after four o'clock, Thursday, August 12."

The Exchange Club and the Jaycees (the latter was formed earlier in that same year) were jointly sponsoring the Chicken Barbecue.

A description of the special broiling process which was overseen by the Michigan State College cooks, follows the open invitation to the community.

"The menu, in addition to chicken, is potato chips, relishes, buttered buns." The formula has remained pretty much unchanged over the years, for both the cooking process and the menu. Why mess with success?
