Wetland Restoration

Wetlands are also large sponges which collect and hold surface water runoff to reduce the amount of floodwater carried by rivers and streams, thus reducing floodpeaks and consequently flood damages to our downstream neighbors.

Wetlands also replenish our groundwater supplies that provide our homes with drinking water and our farm wells with water supplies for livestock.

Wetlands on our farms add diversity and beauty to landscapes and the wildlife supported by these areas refresh our busy lives with the wonderment of nature that surrounds us. When we no longer can enjoy the natural world that surrounds and supports us, our busy lives have consumed us to the point where we have lost our ability to be responsible stewards of this land. Potential wetland restoration sites are wet depressional areas in fields that have been drained by ditches or field tile. Since 1988, the Service has restored about 400 wetlands in Michigan totalling over 1400 acres. Most projects are completed without cost to the landowner, however, some may require landowner participation. All property rights are maintained by the landowner. For all restoration projects, the landowner must be willing to sign a simple wetland development agreement with the Service to preserve the wetland for a specified number of years. On less costly projects, normal agreement duration is for a minimum of 10 years. Most wetland restoration projects range from 1/2 to 3 acres in size, although projects of over 40 acres have been completed. This program does not include pond construction.

Landowners interested in the Service's wetland restoration program should contact Robert J. Seppala, U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 1405 S. Harrison Rd., East Lansing, MI 48823. Phone: 517-337-6650. Information that the landowner should have available when contacting the Service is the county, township name and section number location of their property.

No man knows his true character until he has run out of gas, purchased something on the installment plan and raised an adolescent. —Mercelene Cox

Landowners restoring wetlands are prideful managers of their lands. They realize that the same land supporting us today will need to support future generations of owners of the same land. Only responsible stewardship can provide for a continuing future.

Gazebo Concert

So grab the chance while its here. Bring your lawn chair or blanket. Pack up the kids and maybe a friend or two. And stroll down to the corner of W. Main and S. Macomb, across from St. Mary's. You'll find "Terra Firma" and a last hurrah to those summer days.

(In case of rain, the show will definitely go on! The fun will shift to an indoor location.)

Gazebo concerts are organized by the Recreation Task Force, a group of your friends and neighbors who volunteer their time and talent for the community. For more information, or to help offset the costs of these concerts, contact the Recreation Task Force at 428-7722.

Commanding Officers Put on Country Western Benefit Show

Every year, around September, members of the local Sheriff's department move to a new beat; and this has a country swing to it.

The Washtenaw County Command Officer's Association will sponsor their 14th annual Country Music Spectacular at the Hill Auditorium on the University of Michigan campus, Sunday September 12, with shows at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Command Officer's Association membership consists of all sergeants and lieutenants within the Sheriff's department. Sgt. Carl Werner, the show chairman and organization spokesperson, states that the Country Western show is a fundraising event and that all proceeds from the annual event return to the community.

"Through our contacts with area agencies, we feel we're in a unique position to determine the areas of greatest need," Werner said.

Werner stated further, "Proceeds from past shows have helped fund programs such as D.A.R.E." The D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) program provides drug awareness education to elementary and middle school aged youth throughout Washtenaw county.

Werner points out that the Command Officer's Country Western show should not be confused with other solicitations originating from outside Washtenaw county.

"Most of these groups call residents of the area on watts lines from Detroit," Werner said. "The money they raise in no way benefits our community." Though the Country-Western Benefit show has taken place in Ann Arbor for 14 years, Werner still feels Washtenaw county residents continue to confuse the show with police organizations outside of Washtenaw county.

Aside from financially benefiting the county, the program book handed out at the Spectacular acknowledges local businesses which provide support for the show. More importantly, however, the booklet offers valuable information to improve the safety of our families, and particularly our children. The information in last year's program book focused on Michigan Safety Belt Law, Child Restraint Law, and improving the safety of our children when they are alone or with a baby-sitter.

Every year, the program features rising talent as the headliner. Some of the talent attracted to this event in previous years include Reba McEntire and former Star Search champions Sawyer Brown. This year, the Command Officers have scheduled The Forrester Sisters as the main attraction, with The Roger Marshall Band opening.

The Forrester Sisters, originally from Lookout Mountain, GA, boast almost ten years of singing on the Warner Bros. label and over ten albums to show for it. June, Kathy, Kim, and Christy reeled off a number of top ten hits and number one singles during their first six years in the business, but the legitimate sisters didn't really make waves until 1991 with the release of their album entitled Talkin' 'Bout Men. The album included the controversial, male-bashing track "Men". Controversy or no, the song only escalated an already astounding career for the four ladies.

It is quite an accomplishment for one school to have a single team selected, yet Manchester High School has had a total of three teams selected this year including our semifinalist football team this past fall.

The administration would like to commend all of our athletic teams but especially the football, volleyball, and wrestling teams for symbolizing the true spirit of interscholastic competition. They continue to bring pride to the school and the community. Congratulations.

MHS Receives Sportsmanship Award

Manchester High School was recently selected as a recipient of the Good Sports Are Winners sportsmanship award during the Michigan High School Athletic Association winter tournament.

Our state quarterfinalist volleyball team as well as our wrestling team district grapplers represented themselves, their school, and their community by displaying outstanding sportsmanship throughout their seasons.

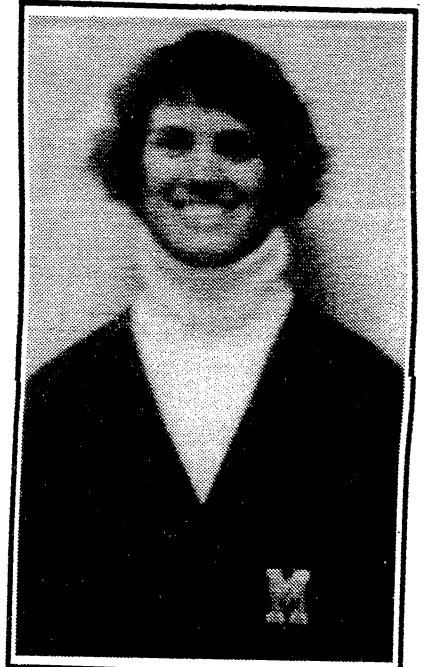

It is quite an accomplishment for one school to have a single team selected, yet Manchester High School has had a total of three teams selected this year including our semifinalist football team this past fall.

The administration would like to commend all of our athletic teams but especially the football, volleyball, and wrestling teams for symbolizing the true spirit of interscholastic competition. They continue to bring pride to the school and the community. Congratulations.

Cara Weissman is our new band director. And she brings with her high expectations and loads of enthusiasm.

Cara was assistant marching director for Saline High School and recently finished her degree at the University of Michigan which included music education and percussion performance. She has played percussion since she was eight years old, but also has played many other instruments such as piano, trumpet, violin and bassoon. Directing her own music day camp in Rhode Island is listed in Cara's repertoire of achievements besides teaching private lessons and doing sectionals at String Camp. She studied with teachers at the Interlochen National Music Camp, the University of Vermont and the University of Michigan.

Cara is directing the Manchester school marching band camp August 16-20 at the high school from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The camp will conclude with a performance Friday, August 20 at 4:00 p.m. at the high school. Afterwards there will be a welcoming party for our new director at the Gazebo.

The community is invited to the preview performance at the high school Friday and to the reception for Cara at the Gazebo at 5:00.

From The Ground Up

— by BG

Times have changed from when we would grab a toxic spray when we saw a bug in the garden. It didn't matter if it was "good" or "bad", it was sprayed to death along with other things in the area.

We have learned to work with nature in controlling insects and diseases with less lethal measures. The tolerance level of the damage done by these invaders may have changed. We may be more willing to live with less than perfection in the flower garden if it means fewer toxic sprays. It is surprising how well plants do recover from a minor infestation.

Vegetable gardeners are less tolerant when faced with foreign critters eating their produce.

A new product to use on larvae of moths and butterflies (tomato hornworms, cabbageworms, earworms, corn borers, etc.) is Bacillus thuringiensis, Bt for short. This is a natural bacterium that kills the caterpillar after being eaten and entering its stomach. It works only on caterpillars, no other creatures, so it is safe to use around people, pets and birds.

Bt can be applied as a powder, spray, granules or as an injection. The powder is convenient and quick to use but the spray is more efficient since it covers all parts of the leaves. The granules can be placed in the whorls of the corn or lily. The syringe method can be used on melon or squash vines to kill borers.

It is important to know what pest you are destroying and to read the whole label on the container that you decide to use.

Do healthy trees make a healthy ecosystem?

Diseases and insects that attack trees are thought to have primarily negative impacts, even when the damage they cause is not widespread. Why? Because in the past trees have been viewed mostly as either commodities or as sources of beauty and inspiration and attacks by diseases and insects can indeed lower their value for these purposes.

But there is another side to the coin. The diseases and insects that can spoil the looks of trees or their use as timber can usually improve and diversify habitat for other plants and animals. Diseases and insects can increase the quantity of food and shelter that many plants and animals need and make it more varied at the same time. Here are a few examples of how diseases and insects diversify habitat:

- Decayed trees affected by heart rot and canker fungi provide cavities for birds and animals.

- Fallen trees are used by squirrels to store food in and under, while they also provide food, shelter, moisture and breeding sites for fish, amphibians and reptiles.

- Pileated woodpeckers actively seek out dead trees to forage for insects.

It is not difficult to see how insects and diseases can actually contribute to forest stability, productivity and species diversity.

Australia: the Great Adventure

— by Hal DeLongchamp

When we arrived in the Outback we were greeted by well-known residents, four kangaroos hopped in front of the bus. They were only four feet tall. Seldom are they allowed to reach their adult height of over six feet because of the hunting. Everyone considers them pests.

Finally we could see the ranch up ahead. There were green tents set up for us which held two people. For dinner we had some of their fresh cattle cooked in a beef gravy. It was delicious. We then got a tour of their "herd house" - we know it as a barn.

As night approached we went spotlighting for kangaroos and other animals. We found a rare bird, all white with a pink feathered head. But no kangaroos. Further ahead, after we walked through the dark forest, we saw the glowing eyes of wild dingos. These are wild dogs and they were hunting in their pack, usually number of 8 to 10. What a good time to return to the ranch, and quickly!

Upon waking we were told to grab grapefruit or oranges off the trees. After breakfast it was time to pack but not alone. Before I could get back to the tent I encountered a large spider. It was 4 inches across, only a baby as they grow to almost a foot. I leaped towards it trying to smash it into the ground and succeeded. Later we were told the story of these spiders. It seems they are deadly poisonous and many people in the Outback carry spider bite kits. They weave their webs 20 feet across. If anything touches the web the spider immediately attacks and surrounds you with its silk. This makes it difficult for the ranchers who find the webs attached to their tractors. It was an odd discovery since the area had been sprayed. There was no reason to worry so we boarded the bus.

In Rockhampton, we stopped at a cave. The tour guide warned us about the thousands of bats that would fly over our heads. She told us to wear a hat if we didn't want fertilizer in our hair. These bats are the smallest in the world, only measuring a 1-1/2 inch wing span. They're called flying mice. We also had the opportunity to hold various other bats. I held a pair. Each bat measured 3 feet across and weighed about 15 pounds.

As we walked through the cave we were warned about the cave floor that could be only 1/8" thick. If it broke we would be impaled on the stalagmites underneath. They had already lost two people because of this and their business was failing.

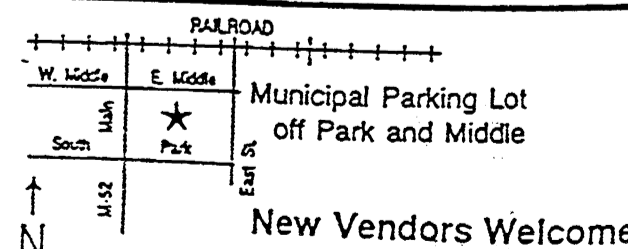

Stay tuned for next week's episode on Rainbow Island.

Second Front Page: River Raisin Clean Up

—Kathy Kueffner

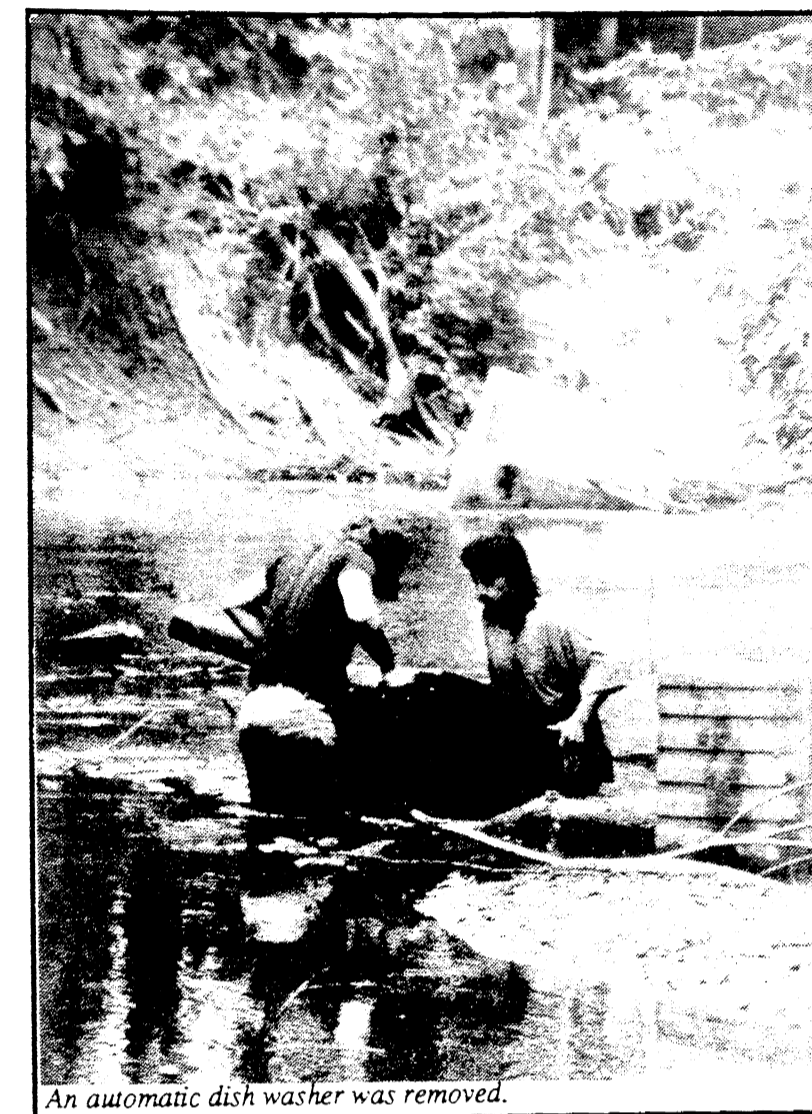

Customers of Tina and Phil Maly's Sharon Hollow Acres Canoe Livery were requesting longer canoe trips. So the Malys asked the Department of Natural Resources if they could use that part of the Raisin River that flowed through state-owned land north of their present route.

It was all right with the DNR and Phil proceeded to explore the route to determine what obstacles needed to be cleared. He was shocked. People had been dumping trash over the bridge on Sharon Valley Road west of Sharon Hollow Road, trash that included even large items like household appliances.

Tina said it was "Unbelievable! After seeing all this accumulated junk I knew we were going to need help cleaning it up so we contacted the River Raisin Watershed Council".

The Council sent a crew out from their headquarters at the Lenawee County Drain Commission. They worked all of last Thursday and Friday and hope to get the worst of it out this week.

In the meantime, hardy canoeists have already been down this new route, says Tina. The new route adds two hours to the trip with the only portage point around the dam at Sharon Mills Winery.

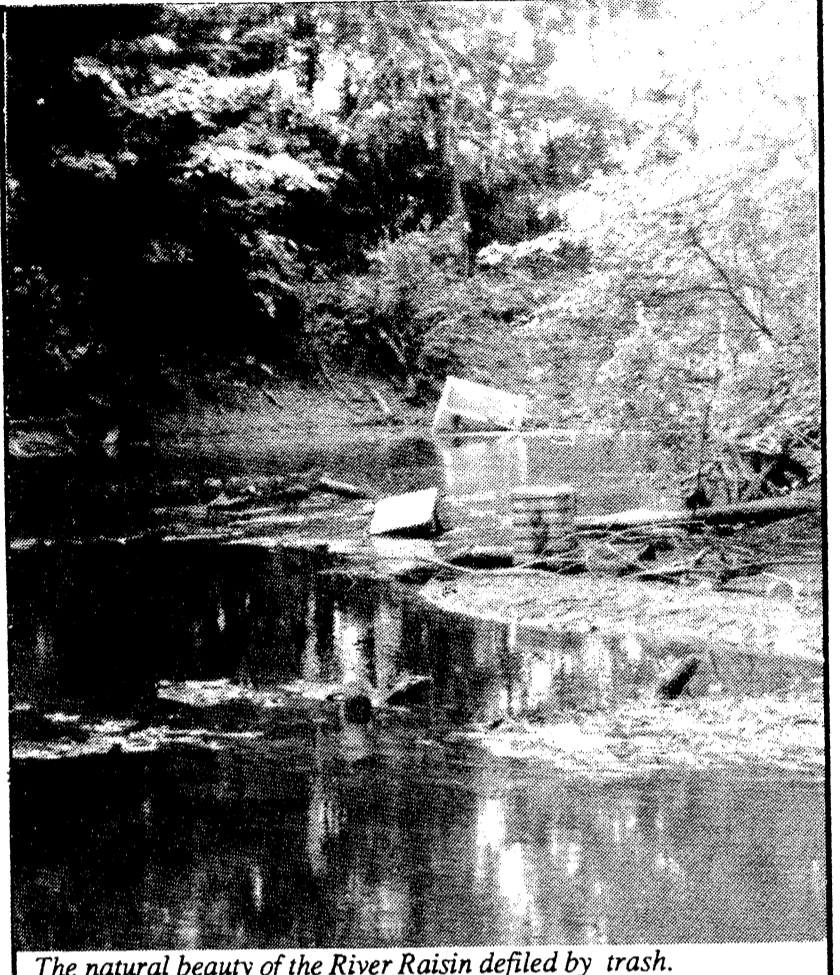

An automatic dishwasher was removed.

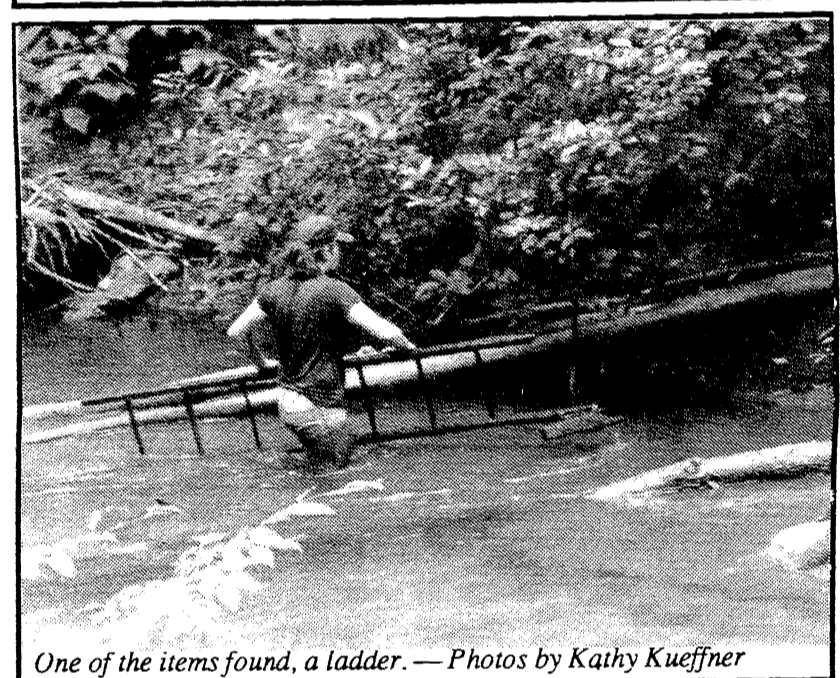

As heavy as an appliance was the water logged carpeting.

Editorial / Opinion

Editor Errs

Superintendent Ronald Niedzwiecki correctly pointed out that in my Editorial/Opinion article of last week I erred.... I reported the Superintendent's office released minutes of a "Closed session". Fact - "The Board reconvened to open session at 10:35 P.M.

"Salary adjustments represent a 6% increase. When Superintendent Niedzwiecki was referring to elementary principal, middle school principal, high school principal, director of athletics and student services." Fact - One principal received $1,200 adjustment increase in addition to 6% pay increase, thus the equivalent of an 8% increase.

Two question's for Superintendent Niedzwiecki.

1. Why was the principal's increase not correctly made known? (I personally think in this case the principal was deserving of the increase.)

2. Why was your 1% annuity increase not made public information?

For readers who may have missed the Ann Arbor News, Wednesday, August 12th edition, School Board attacked the News. Patricia, Board members have been elected to express their views, even if those views are diametrically opposed to those you hold so dear. As a matter of fact public officials have the responsibility of keeping the electorate informed.

Calls to the editor are running about 6 to 1 in favor of the article.

Letter to the Editor

A very impressive historical restoration on one building and some significant improvements on another were omitted from the August 12 issue of the Enterprise. In that issue, under the "Fresh Paint" heading, you mentioned work done at the Back Door, Manchester Automotive, and the Enterprise Building. There also was an article about the opening of Antiques Etcetera.

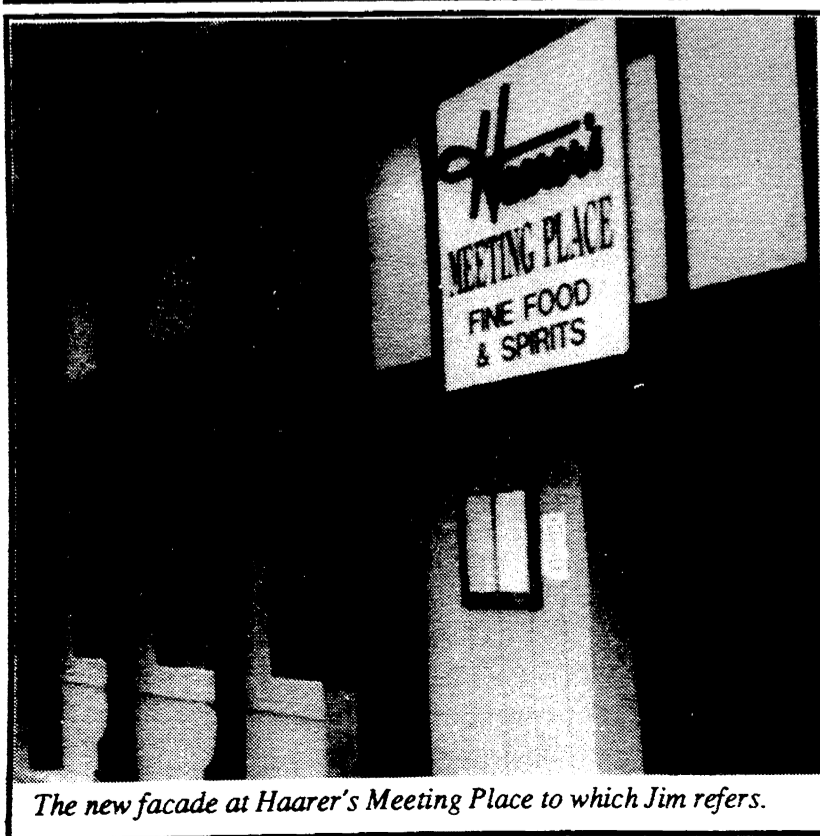

Antiques Etcetera did not just open in the old building at the corner of Main and M-52. They did some significant remodeling. This building had been the Manchester Fitness Center and Raisin Valley General Store in the recent past. To say the least, the building had signs of use and was not very attractive. Before Christine Nelson opened Antiques Etcetera, we saw the old front door replaced with a beautiful wood and glass door, an entrance canopy appeared, and the cracked plate glass was replaced. These all dressed up a building that had been an eye-sore.

The impressive historical restoration I referred to took place at Haarer's Meeting Place. The front of the building was removed, and we now have large windows with the old columns prominently featured. This is as the building would have looked many years ago. Congratulations to Niel and Paula Haarer for a fine job. This restoration only adds to the charm of Manchester.

Now if only I could come up with something nice to say about the paint job done at the Enterprise. I can't believe that brick painted a bright, slime green with white trim offers anything historical and to me, is not an improvement over the old front of the building.

Jim Achtenberg

Sacred Cows. A few countries around our world have adopted cows as sacred animals that are off limits. The description of those animals has been transferred to other things, such as schools, and it is considered as unacceptable to castigate that institution of learning.

That however, should not be construed, "as not being able to express an opinion against the management of education". We all want our children to obtain an education, be it formal in a school or at home.

We have all heard or read articles where the upper half of graduates from colleges and universities go into industry and the lower half go into education. This may or may not be true but it really matters not as there are many excellent teachers. My complaint is with the management of education.

A Superintendent of the Lincoln School system once said: "Education is communication, to the students, the parents and to the taxpayer. For the students, we must communicate new and unexperienced standards and theories. For the parent we must show what we are teaching their children and enlist their help. For the taxpayer we must also communicate what we are imparting to the students and their parents but we must also justify the consumption of their tax dollars.

We can only do those things when we are open, above board and communicate what we as educators are doing."

I do not relish or enjoy writing articles that may be detrimental to our schools, I do so with great reluctance. We do have a problem with administration. Over a year ago I requested a copy of the boards information packet, presented to board members before the meetings. To date we have received not one.

The Constitution of this great country of ours provides for; Freedom of Speech, of the Press, and the Right to Petition. Under Article I, The Bill of Rights (Declared in force December 15, 1791)

Maybe it's time for the Administration and School Board President to refresh themselves on our Constitution and the open Meetings Act, 1976; PA 267.

Dear Emory,

I looked forward to your July 22nd follow-up on the administrative raises granted by the school board, and you didn't disappoint. Your financial information was on the mark and to the point. As a parent and taxpayer who has experienced a healthy share of economic drought, I am convinced that pay increases more in keeping with the general economy is solid advice.

Back in early May, I attended an Athletic Boosters meeting where Supt. Niedzwiecki announced that the school system needed to cut about $130,000 from the budget. After Ron outlined specific sacrifices targeted for staff and school programs, a citizen asked him what sacrifices were planned for the administration, specifically himself. Ron diplomatically responded that such decisions were the prerogative of the school board.

In this climate of fiscal austerity, when many are asked to share an increasing burden, trustees who espouse keeping the purse strings tight have credibility. They have the right and the responsibility to express dissenting opinions in the face of the majority. That's politics. I agree that three member committees are the traditional way to legally circumvent the Open Meetings Act. However, there is a simple solution in all cases except the narrowly defined "closed session", with which any fourth board member can cause enforcement of the act - simply show up at the committee meeting to make a quorum. It would be exceedingly difficult to explain why a trustee was barred from the very process he was elected to perform!

Emory, I was refreshed by your effort to research this issue. There were more facts and quotes than speculation. However, this reader is a bit incredulous at your protest of the board's "abuse of power" in limiting the exchange of ideas, while in the same article censoring Pat Sahakian's response on the premise that her "allegations were not correct". Owning a newspaper certainly enables you to express your opinion at will, but if you expect to be believed you'll have to do better.

Lastly, your recommendation to have Pat step aside because she "borders upon being dishonest" is unconvincing. If she IS dishonest, then follow the established procedures; if not, then oppose her as an legitimate adversary. She has voter mandate to act as president, enjoys strong community support and is a skilled leader capable of compromise.

— Bill Kwolek

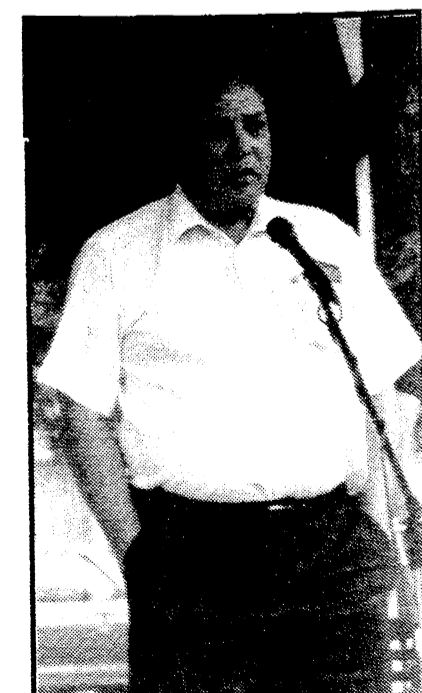

Paul Harvey apologized last week for the Perseid meteor shower, advertised by the media prior to its Wednesday scheduled appearance as going to be "spectacular", "the best celestial show of the year", "worth waiting up for", etc. Isn't that just like Mr Harvey to assume personal responsibility when the sightings of fire-tailed comets were few. No apologies needed, Mr. Harvey, it was enough that the odds were greatly increased of seeing a falling star to wish upon.

On Good Morning, America there were interviews of young people attending the Pope's visit in Denver Friday. Many of the youngsters interviewed exclaimed with enthusiasm about the messages of hope, brotherly love and good will. Their joy and eagerness were inspiring and infectious. These young people's desire for spirituality seemed to be affirmed. Then another young woman was interviewed and she said she didn't agree with all the attention the pope was getting, that after all "he's just another old man". How sad to have missed the point, the message.

CLUB NEWS/ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cub Scout Pack 421 Update

What a busy summer we've all had. The graduation ceremony at the beginning of the summer was highlighted by a very imaginative "Home Improvement" skit performed by Den 10 (they even had Wilson's fence!)

For the Memorial Day parade we had 21 cubs march in the parade from the bridge on down to the cemetery. The American Legion gave us flags which we used to wave while we marched and some of the boys also got the empty gun shells from the 21 gun salute as souvenirs. In June Joe Donnelon, Jeff Panches, Derek Panches and Joshua Tobias went on Safari to Camp Munhackle through their Summer Day Camp Program.

The Chicken Broil was a very hot day but Webelos Dave DuRussel, Jack Smail and Mike Kennedy from Den 7, along with Bear Derik Dwyer from Den 8, were on hand to help people carry trays, (Manchester's version of a scout helping little old ladies to cross the street).

The beginning of August 8 Webelos went to resident camp and enjoyed the "out west" program by panning for gold, branding, mining for gold, fishing, shooting and swimming at the Lazy L campsite.

We will be ending our summer program with a tour of Rosettie's Airport Saturday, August 28 at 1:00 p.m. The Rosetties give a wonderful tour with a plane ride at its conclusion for which reservations and permission slips are needed.

Cub scouting is a non-profit organization which is designed to bring a boy and his family closer together in the last critical years before he expands his awareness to a larger community. Please join us. On Monday, August 23 at 7:30 p.m. there will be a registration night planning meeting in the Scout Room at Emanuel Church. All who attend will receive free instructions to "The Happy Song".

Annual Volleyball Tournament announced by Kiwanis

Get your team together for the fourth annual Kiwanis Volleyball Tournament on September 12, 1993.

There were four teams the first year and twenty the third year.

It only costs $30 for a five or six person co-ed team, any age. The profits go to Mott's Children's Hospital.

There will be two double elimination tournaments (novice and competitive) with two traveling trophies - so everyone has a good chance to win and a most excellent chance to have a fantastic fun-filled Sunday afternoon.

Get your application filled out and signed and bring it and your check to the captain's meeting at the Community Resource Center, Tuesday, August 24 at 7:30 where there will be a discussion about rules and all the myriad items to be arranged.

The final date to turn in your application is Tuesday, September 7.

If you have any questions, please call the Community Resource Center 428-772 or Bill Schwab 428-8976.

Senior Citizens News

— T. V. Ludwick

It's so nice to have a summer break; thanks, Howard, once again. Makes these volunteer jobs so much easier with willing help. It's always, "Sure, I'll do it for you". We didn't help move, but did move our car around the outer edges of our beautiful "God's Country" of the upper peninsula (nearly 1800 miles altogether). And what a week! Weather was warm and sunny and saw folks in the waters of both Lake Superior and Michigan. Hubby drove all the way and enjoyed it. He says that job is like sitting at home in his easy chair, maybe I ought to "rent him out" for trips. Ask him if he is tired and wants you to drive!

Thursday, August 19: Blueberrying again by senior bus and you'll leave the Center at 8:30. There will be a breakfast stop first and you may make bus reservation by calling Erma Alber at 428-8707.

Friday, August 20: The senior bus leaves the Center at 10:00 for Wiard's Orchard to attend the Bluegrass and Peach Festival out of Saline. Pickup for the Saline Senior Citizens' Card Party begins at 6:00 p.m. and you may go along both (or either) times this day by giving Erma a ring.

Thursday, August 26: The Michigan Women's Historical Center and Hall of Fame will be visited in Lansing today. Our senior bus plans to leave the Center at 10:00 and you are welcomed to go along by first calling Erma. At 6:15, pickup by bus begins at 6:15 to travel to Pleasant Lake and the senior sponsored monthly public card party at Freedom Township Hall. We welcome any age group to come and enjoy euchre and play with the masters of the game. Action begins at 8:00 p.m. and you may call Erma for your ride, if you wish.

Boy, is it getting close to Labor Day. Ready for another meal season with Jan and those good meals? I am.

Sunday, August 22: The bus leaves the Center for Walled Lake at 12 noon to first enjoy a ride on the Coe Rail Scenic Train with a lunch break following. Then, it's on to the West Bloomfield Bird Sanctuary and Woodpecker Lake. This should make your day with all this activity which is so enjoyable on our air-conditioned senior bus. Call Erma to go along.

Bamboo In Winter

The Devils Lake Drive In will show the feature length film, "Bamboo in Winter", this weekend, Saturday, August 21 and Sunday, August 22. The film will begin at dark preceded by a 15-minute musical program.

Based on actual events now happening in China, this dramatic film opens your eyes to dangers in a communist controlled village.

The tragedy of Tiananmen Square was still fresh. A man who was considered dangerous and subversive by government officials brings a life-changing message to a small village and a girl from the university faces a new kind of revolution, a revolution of the soul.

The Devils Lake Drive-In is located at the south end of Devils Lake on Manitou Road in Manitou Beach. Admission is free.

A mother asked her son, "Who gave you that black eye?" "Nobody gave it to me, Mom," he answered. "You gotta fight for it."

The Christian life isn't a picnic. It's a pitched battle. There's a foe - sin. There's a Captain - the Savior. The command is, "Fight the good fight of faith."

You'll have temptations and trials. Expect them. But expect to triumph over them. If you want to sin, you'll sin. If you want to triumph, you'll triumph.

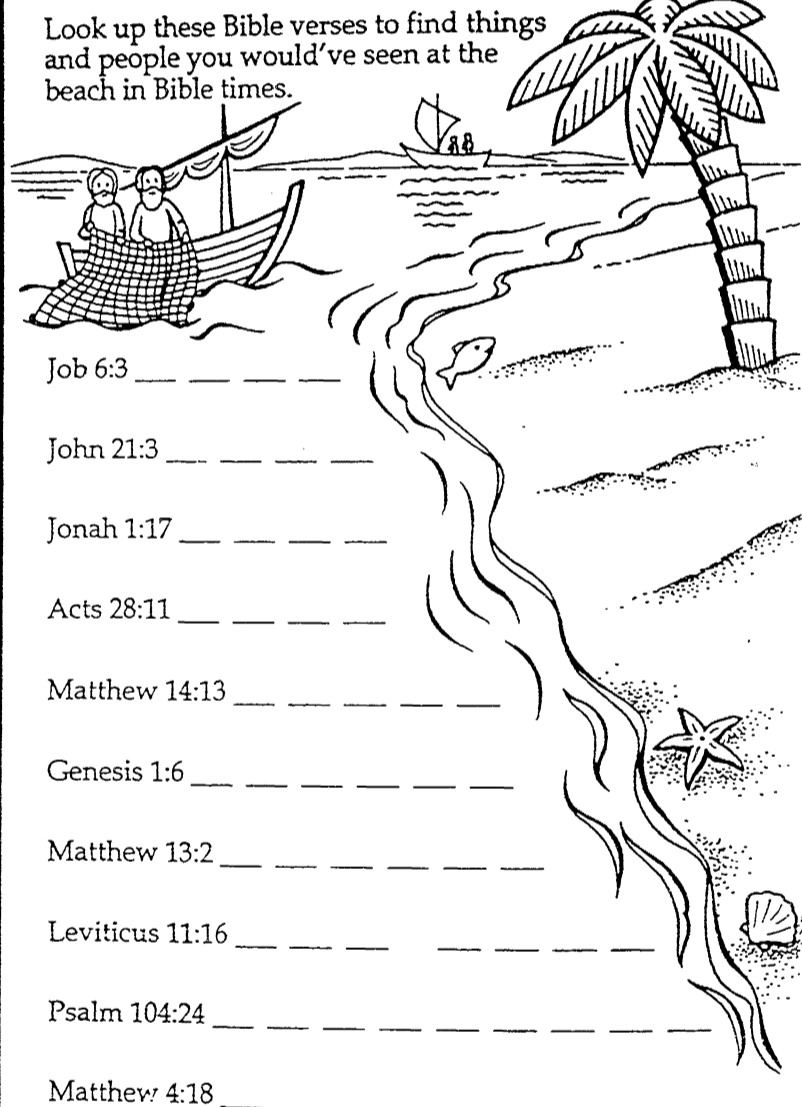

God has never lost a battle with sin, and Paul says, "He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Do you want victory? Trust Christ.

Champion Twirler

Cara Jasiolek, granddaughter of Wayne and Dorothy Willingham, recently won the National Pre-Teen Majorette Queen title from Drum Major-ettes of America.

Twelve-year-old Cara competed in Boiling Springs, North Carolina on August 3rd and 4th along with about 2,000 other twirlers. She had to perform a solo twirl, fancy strut, talent and model to earn the title. She was the only participant in the contest to receive a clean sweep of all first placements. In addition, she won the Junior Grand National Fancy Strutting Championship!

Cara is the student of Derek Skarvi, former Majorette Queen of America. Having taught Cara for the past five years, she says, "Cara has a lot of potential and I knew she was a definite contender for her title. She worked extremely hard this past year in preparation for this national competition."

The proud grandparents, Wayne and Dorothy Willingham reside in Manchester and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, August 15.

Tobacco Banned From Schools

All public school districts, including the Manchester Community School District, will be tobacco-free as of September 1, 1993, as mandated by Public Act 328 of 1993. This law was enacted to protect children, school employees, and visitors from the dangerous effects of secondhand smoke.

The Tobacco-Free Schools Act bans the use of tobacco products - AT ALL TIMES - in all buildings owned or operated by school districts. Additionally, the law bans the use of tobacco products on school grounds, except during weekends, on holidays, and after 6:00 p.m. on school days.

This law is to be enforced by local police departments, and infractions carry a fine of $50.

The Environmental Protection Agency recently classified secondhand smoke as a Group A carcinogen. Tobacco smoke is now considered as lethal as asbestos, benzene, and radon gas. Further, chewing tobacco and snuff are more addictive than smoking and contain higher amounts of nicotine. Additionally, "chew" and snuff are known to cause various types of cancer.

Thus, eliminating the use of tobacco products by persons on school property is expected to do the following: provide a healthier and safer environment in which children can learn, gives the strong message that tobacco is harmful, decreases the social acceptability of the use of tobacco, and promotes healthier behaviors.

For more information contact the superintendent's office at 428-9711.

David Ross made the presentation for Manchester Plastics concerning the proposed addition for the purpose of lunchroom expansion. Little made a motion to recommend adoption of the Site Plan for Manchester Plastics as submitted. Tucker seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote.

Outstanding Business Sign Ordinance Review

It was noted there are conflicting paragraphs in the Sign Ordinance (5.244 (1)(d) and 5.244 (8)). After a great deal of discussion, Gleason made a motion to change the wording of 5.244 (8) so the second sentence reads: "Variances shall be discouraged for any sign..." Tucker seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote.

During the discussion over the Sign Ordinance, concern was expressed over the lack of a Sign Permit Application for the Back Door Party Store. The Commission noted a Sign Permit Application should be included with any Site Plan which would involve any new or revised signage.

ZBA Form Review

Discussion concerned the wording on the Application for Variance Request under "Applicant's Statement", specifically the last sentence. It was suggested the sentence be changed to read, "I also acknowledge that I (or a designated representative) am required to attend the Planning Commission meeting when this variance request is heard, and if I or my designated representative does not attend, I realize I forfeit my rights to a ZBA Hearing." Way made a motion to recommend the above sentence be included in the Application for Variance Request under "Applicant's Statement". Hinkley seconded the motion. The motion passed on a voice vote. The meeting adjourned at 9:18. Susan Gleason, Recording Secretary

PROPOSED SYNOPSIS of a Public Hearing of the Manchester Township Board on "Truth in Taxation" held August 9, 1993:

Meeting opened at 7:32 p.m. with board members Mann, Widmayer, Macomber, and Hakes present. Turk was absent. There were no visitors present.

This hearing was being held to allow public comment on a proposed change in the operating tax millage rate. The millage rate that can be established without this hearing is 1.0112 mills. Holding this hearing will enable the township, in accordance with the law, to decide to levy 1.0243 mills. This action would generate a total of $1057.58 for general operating funds, or an average of 47 cents per property.

As there were no visitors present, there were no public comments. Truth in Taxation will be discussed during the regular board meeting immediately following, and a decision may be made.

The public hearing adjourned at 7:42 p.m.

Submitted by Kathleen M. Hakes, Clerk

Approved by Ronald E. Mann, Supervisor

Proposed Zoning Ordinance.

No reports from the Board of Appeals.

Letter from Arnets, Becker, and Burrill, Monuments was read by the clerk stating they would place, for no charge, a sign at the entrance to township cemeteries offering a $500 reward for information leading to arrest and conviction of anyone responsible for theft or vandalism. Motion made, supported, and carried to accept this service.

The clerk distributed a copy of Farmland Preservation Termination application from Ellery Rouser to each board member. The board will vote on this during the September 2, 1993 regular meeting.

The Clerk stated that Washtenaw County Clerk is attempting to establish a uniform system of voting for all cities and townships in the county. Optical Scan is the recommended system. After an explanation of how it works, price to convert, and the fact that our present voting machines have no resale value, the board and residents present wish for us to retain equipment we have as long as feasible.

There were other discussions by the board and residents not requiring Board action.

Motion made, supported, and carried to pay all outstanding bills as presented.

Motion made, supported, and carried to adjourn the meeting at 10:30 p.m.

Approved by: Willard Blumenauer, Deputy Supervisor

PROPOSED SYNOPSIS of the Regular Meeting of the Manchester Township Board held August 9, 1993:

The meeting was called to order at 7:52 p.m. with members present: Macomber, Widmayer, Mann, Hakes. Absent: Turk. Also present: Fire Chief Keith Johnson, Constable Earl Alber.

After corrections, the Board approved the minutes of the Annual Meeting, Special Meeting, and Regular Meeting and accepted minutes from the Planning Commission and Library Board.

Bills paid since last meeting were reviewed. Treasurer's report was accepted. Bills to be paid totaling $4147.55 were approved.

The Fire Department report was discussed, as was the Constable/Zoning Inspector report for July. The resignation of Sybil Kolon as township representative to the Washtenaw County Consortium for Solid Waste Management was accepted with regret and the township thanked her for her time. It will be necessary to find a new representative to the WCCSWM.

Under old business, the clerk was authorized to advertise for sale of the old copy machine, reserving the right to reject any or all bids. There may be a need for volunteers for various boards and commissions. Supervisor Mann has met with the president of Wolverine Appraisals, the new township assessors.

In new business, a resolution was adopted increasing property taxes from 1.0112 mills to 1.0243 mills. This is less than last year's rate of 1.0831 (this amounts to an average 47 cents per property).

Rates were also set as follows:

	(1992 rate)	1993 rate
General Fund	(1.0831)	1.0243
Road Millage	(.2334)	.2200
Fire Truck Millage	(.3600)	.3400
Fire Hall Millage	(.7500)	.5350

It was also noted that the Fire Hall note will be paid off this year and the Road millage will also expire after this year.

Under other business, attorney James Datsko of the Manchester firm Hendley & Datsko was appointed to continue as township attorney.

There was one item of correspondence requiring no action from the Board. There being no other business, the meeting adjourned at 9:35 P.m.

A step back in time

As the final smoke clears from the muskets and the bugle sounds its last note of taps, you descend down the hill to where the battle was fought. You can almost hear the din cries of soldiers and the roar of the canons as you take a step back in time to visit that tragic yet romantic time in our country's history, the Civil War.

As you wander through the camps and listen to the accounts of the men, women and children you begin to understand and gain a deeper appreciation for the people of this era and what they went through.

Few events in the history of the United States have had as great an impact on our nation as the Civil War. Many of this country's present laws, customs and folklore can be traced back to this tragic event of the 1860's.

Each August, the Cascades Civil War Muster is held as a memorial to this critical period in our history. As the largest Civil War reenactment in the Midwest, the Muster introduces visitors to the Union and Confederate armies, battles and individuals who played instrumental roles in the struggle to save or disband the Union.

This year's Muster will feature two battles. The battle of Shiloh and of Pittsburgh Landing and which will be held on August 28 & 29 at Cascade Falls Park in Jackson, Michigan. The reenactment will also feature daily aspects of the 1860's lifestyle, a church service and school, battalion drills and military and civilian demonstrations.

One of the highlights of your weekend will be the military ball,

Annual Bonsai Show

The Ann Arbor Bonsai Society Annual Bonsai Show will be held on August 28 and 29 at the Matthaei Botanical Gardens. The show will run from 10 am. to 5 pm. both days. Tickets are $3, children 12 years and younger free.

Visitors will stroll through a Japanese Garden enroute to the main exhibit of over a hundred bonsai beautifully displayed in both indoor and outdoor settings. An ongoing demonstration will be in progress for visitors unfamiliar with the process of bonsai and a market area will provide bonsai related items including books, pots, soil, and plants.

A special lecture/demonstration is planned each day at 1 pm. at no extra cost. Saturday's program will be "How I Grow Indoor Bonsai under Fluorescent Lights" presented by Jack Wikle who is considered a pioneer of this manner of growing bonsai. Mr. Wikle has been growing bonsai for over 25 years, is a horticultural educator, consultant for the bonsai collections at both the Hidden Lake Gardens and the Matthaei Botanical Gardens.

Sunday's program will be a demonstration on "Creating a Forest Grove" by Dean Atkinson who is regarded an expert in this style of bonsai. Mr. Atkinson has been growing bonsai for over 30 yrs, has held various positions on the executive boards of several bonsai societies in Michigan.

An Evening With Charlton Heston

Adrian will play host to a Hollywood legend when renowned actor Charlton Heston comes to the Crosswell Opera House in September!

Heston will make a lecture appearance at the Crosswell September 21 at 8pm. Following the lecture, ticket buyers who purchase special Fan Club tickets will have the opportunity to attend a short on-stage reception with the actor and to have their pictures taken with him. Fan Club tickets also entitle the holders to preferred seating in the first eight rows of the center

Heston is a Michigan native, coming from the small town of St. Helen, near Higgins Lake. He learned to amuse himself at an early age by acting out the stories that were read to him by his parents. By the age of five, he knew he wanted to be an actor.

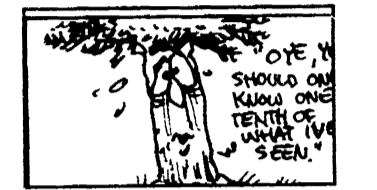

Following college at Northwestern University and a stint in the Army, Heston went to New York and made his Broadway debut in Antony and Cleopatra. His performance caught the eye of directors in the then-new medium of television, and he became one of the first Broadway actors to achieve success on television, playing leads in Studio One and other live dramatic programs.

His performance in David Bradley's widely-acclaimed version of Julius Caesar drew the attention of famed Hollywood director Cecil B. DeMille, who signed him for a role in The Greatest Show on Earth.

Heston has earned a reputation for his historical epics, particularly for Ben Hur, for which he received a Best Actor Oscar, and for his roles in The Ten Commandments and The Greatest Story Ever Told.

Tickets for the September 21 lecture are available now at the Crosswell Opera House. Fan club tickets which include the special seating and reception, are priced at $35 each, while regular tickets are $20 each.

For more information, call the Crosswell at 517-264-SHOW.

Paws With A Cause®

There are two types of dogs that PAWS trains — Hearing Dogs and Service Dogs. Both types of dog training consists of essentially three parts: basic training, advanced training and home placement. We have over 65 trainers in various states to accomplish these tasks.

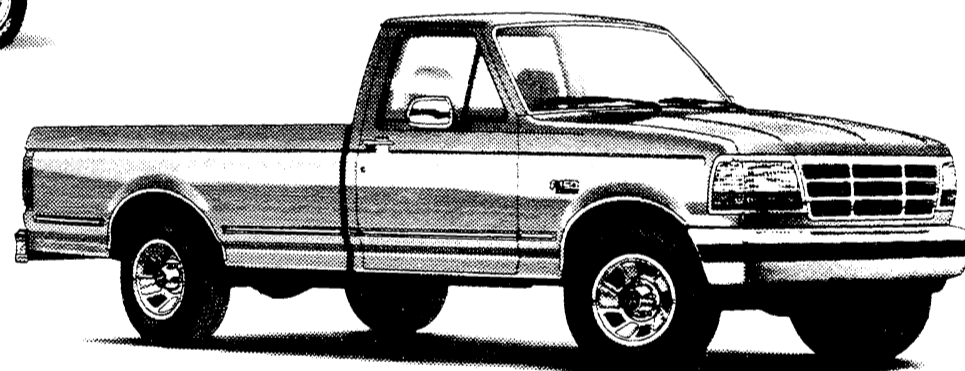

In 1992, 95¢ of every dollar spent by PAWS went into program services. There are plenty of dogs available to serve and a request list of over 1,500 people who need a dog. Ninety-five percent of Hearing Dogs are provided by local animal shelters and the majority of Service Dogs come from national breeders. In some instances the family pet may even be trained to meet the needs of its owner.

Paws With A Cause® is a United Way of Michigan Agency with headquarters at 1235 100th St. SE, Byron Center, MI 49315. Or phone Lynn Hoekstra (313) 693-9789.

It's Been A Busy Summer

—Lois Hansen

Junior Girl Scout Troop #706 has had a very busy summer. We started the summer by marching in the Memorial Day Parade on Monday, May 31. Then we had a fly-up ceremony and camping demonstration at the Gazebo on Monday, June 7, along with Brownie Troop #966. This was in preparation for going to Core Camp at Camp Linden in August.

The end of June, we all decorated the wagon at Hansen's shed for our Girl Scout float which won second place in the fair parade. It was done in patriotic red-white-and blue for the theme: Year of the American Craft. The wagon decorating committee consisted of Wayne Tervo, Katherine Ray and Karen Kozar. Bob Hansen pulled the float in the parade with his 1947 Allis-Chalmers tractor.

Later on in the evening, at the Girl Scout booth, we were very popular with the young people at the fair with our face paintings.

Core Camp was on Wednesday, August 11 through Friday, August 13. We had an Indian theme for our activities of the week. We slept in platform tents, ate at the lodge or cooked lunch at the campfire, tried archery, horseback riding, crafts, night hikes, songs, games, Indian dances and went to a powwow. Brownie Troop 966 was in cabins at the Deerfield site while the Juniors of Troop 706 were at the Tall Timers site.

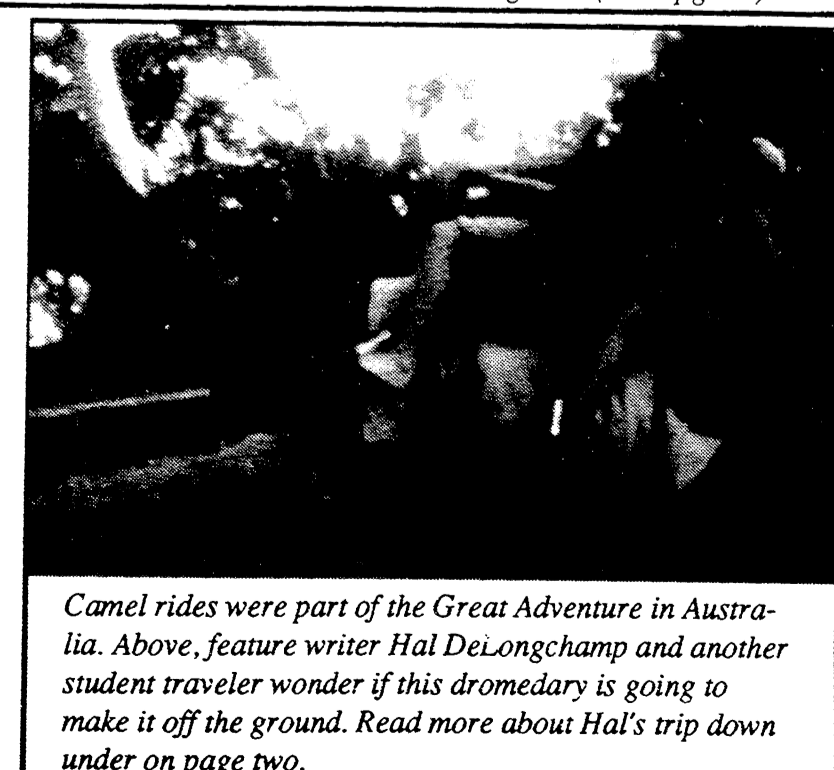

Leaders of Troop 706 are Anita Tyler and Lois Hansen and the girls in the troop are Angela Tyler, Rhonda Johnson, Laura Chapin, Rachel Fleck, Chrissy Abbott, Katie Okey, Molly Thornton, Erin Fox, Erin Wiley and Amanda Coutts. Brownie Troop 966 consists of Susan Wiley and Cindy Lowell as leaders and girls Leslie Jacob, Kylie Gunther, Yvonne Lowell, Katie Keller, Amanda Miller, Crystal Mannor, Cara Calloway, Annie Wiley, Megan Coutts, and Erika Lowell also went along to camp. Core camp was a very enjoyable experience.

Storytime down on the farm

Children and parents were guests last week at Librarian Dorothy Davies' farm in Manchester Township. The picnic at the farm included a visit with author Robin Agnew. (cont. pg. 13)
