Rep. Bev Hammerstrom to be in Manchester

Rep. Beverly Hammerstrom reminds property owners they must file a homestead exemption form by March 1 to take advantage of the impending millage rate cut. "Homeowners failing to file will be assessed at the 24-mill general rate," the Temperance Republican explained.

Completed affidavits must be mailed to township or city assessors. Anyone not receiving a form by Feb. 7 should call their local assessor immediately. "Everyone should file without delay," Hammerstrom said. "Taxpayers are responsible for claiming the lower homestead millage rate offered by the Legislature's school funding initiative and the savings are well worth the few minutes it takes to complete the form and mail it." Only one homestead can be claimed for the exemption, and owners of eligible agricultural property must file separate affidavits for each parcel.

"Michigan property owners have asked for this tax relief for decades," Hammerstrom said. "It would be a shame for anyone to forfeit it because of an oversight."

Manchester residents will have two opportunities to discuss the March 15 school ballot proposal and homestead exemption tax forms with state Rep. Beverly Hammerstrom next week.

The Temperance Republican will hold office hours Monday, Feb. 7 at Manchester Township Hall, 275 S. Macomb, from 4-5 p.m. and a town meeting in the Manchester High School study auditorium at 710 E. Main St. from 7-8 p.m.

Taxayers will have an opportunity to question their state representative. For more information, please contact Hammerstrom's Lansing office at (517)373-0828.

Homestead Exemption tax forms will be available at the meeting.

It's Coming! The Manchester Winter Festival

Quick! What comes to mind when you hear the word "February?" OK, now eliminate "Valentine's Day" and "Cabin Fever" and what's left? Cold, winter, slow business...but wait! We can change that with two simple words: Winter Festival in the Victorian Village!

The Manchester Chamber of Commerce would like to invite you to participate in the first, but hopefully not the last, Winter Festival in Manchester scheduled for Saturday, February 12.

The Winter Festival follows the tradition set by the tried-and-true Summer Festival (only this time "on ice"). We want to spark business during a traditionally slow time by giving new visitors to our town a reason to stop by, and for all of us who already know and love Manchester shops, a new reason to visit downtown and around.

The Chamber of Commerce board decided to promote the Winter Festival with a Victorian theme, since our lovely, unspoiled village could pose for a Victorian postcard. Activities planned to feature our village will also play off the popular activities Victorians treasured a hundred years ago much as we do today.

Here's a list of activities that are scheduled for the day:

Blacksmith Demonstration at the Blacksmith Shop Tim Armentrout will take us back to the good old days when there were more horses in town

Fran Adler Quilt Accepted at National Juried Exhibition

by Marsha Johnson Chartrand

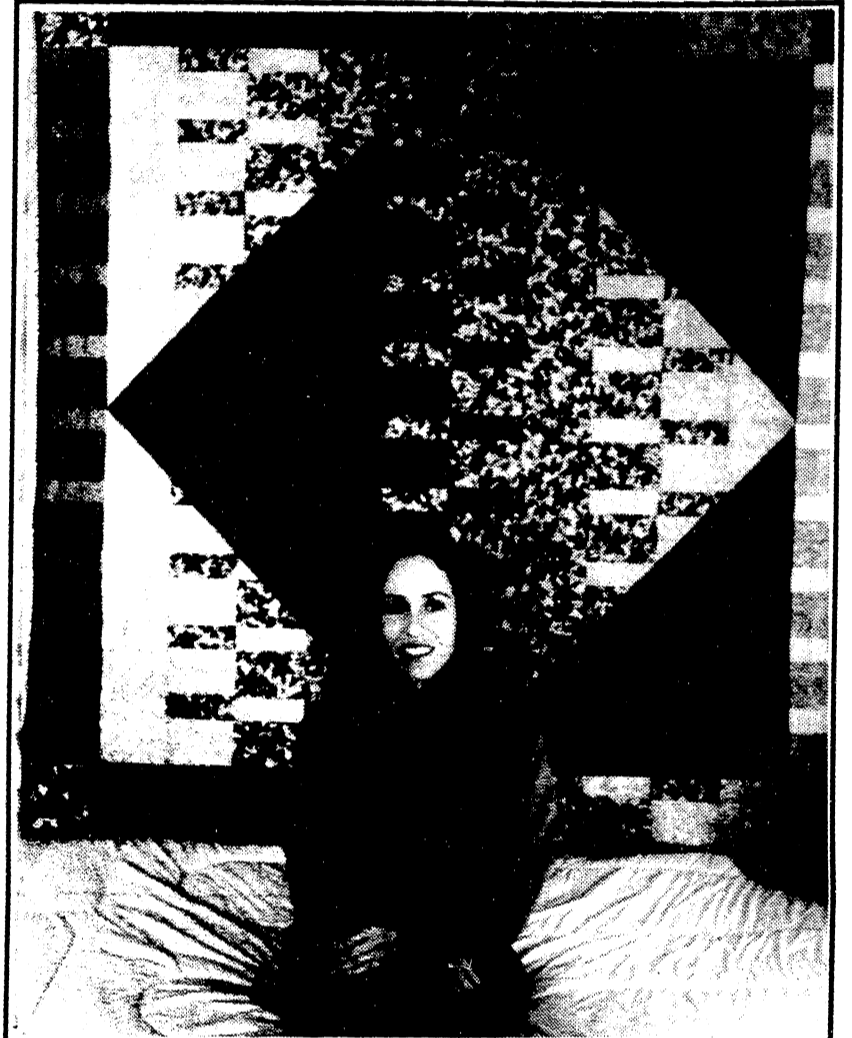

Fran Adler of Manchester will have a quilt on display at The Museums at Stony Brook, on Long Island, New York. This will be the third juried show of its kind; as prior exhibitions were held in 1990 and 1992. The theme of these biennial exhibitions is that contemporary quilters draw from a traditional craft while at the same time they express themselves in new ways.

Fran's 70x70 quilt, "October" is an example of traditional art with a more modern theme. Fran drew her inspiration for the quilt from the Amish design, diamond and square. Her colors are in the autumn colors of magenta and gold, with touches of forest green. The modern theme which she portrays is one of personal growth and change, in a transitional process from one side of the quilt to the other.

"Most of my quilts have reflected my feelings at the time I was making them - although often subconsciously, they seem to emulate what's going on inside of me," commented Fran.

"October" was finished in October of last year, after a process of about three months. It is a simplified pattern after some of the other quilts she has designed, with only 280 pieces. Her most recent quilt before "October", entitled "Hello and Goodbyes" had 2,560 pieces and took nearly a year of work.

Fran feels these are really "first quilts" and is honored to be chosen to be part of this exhibition so soon. She began quilting in 1986, as part of a mother-child play group started by Karen Hinkley, who Fran credits as her "teacher and inspiration." She started small, with pillow tops and small wall hangings, as she worked around her young children, Lauren (now 11) and Grayson (now 9). "With small children, I didn't have time or space for a creative outlet. I had been a Fine Arts major at U of M in Sculpture, but I soon learned that quilting is a valid art form, combining some of the features of both painting (color) and sculpture (a three dimensional object)". It was an artistic outlet that I could do around my kids."

Fran's Quilt, "October", will be displayed from March 6-June 5, 1994 at the Innovative Traditions Quilt Show at The Museums at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, New York.

Fran now has a studio in what used to be a pig barn on her farm. A south-facing wall is filled with windows, providing plenty of light. Comfortable chairs and toys, books and sketch pads welcome visitors, especially Lauren and Grayson, to the studio, where Fran spends a few hours each day, most often when they are in school. "Once I had my studio I found I could be more creative, and my work was very different. It's become my passion."

Quilting has satisfied a desire in Fran. "It's something I will always be able to do - I can't imagine ever not enjoying it." She machine pieces the quilt and then stitches them by hand. Like all good quilters, Fran has a stash of fabric remnants, but when she is going to make something special, she says, she goes to the fabric store to choose just the right fabrics and colors. It takes so long to make one, it isn't worth the compromise - even though the selection is incredible, and sometimes overwhelming.

This fall, Fran also began studies at the U of M to get her

A Flower Garden Blooms In Manchester

by Marsha Johnson-Chartrand

They're hardly a new face on Main Street, but there is always something "fresh" at The Flower Garden.

Whether you want house plants, freshly cut flowers, long-lasting silks or dried arrangements, you're likely to find it without leaving the business district. Owner Deniene Schaible has been "blossoming" on Main Street since September of 1981.

In May, 1982, Deniene moved to her present location, having purchased the business the previous fall from "The Flower Cellar" down by Keith's Barber Shop. She had started out by taking classes from the girls at the Flower Cellar on silk arranging, and then began working for them one day a week.

The opportunity arose for her to purchase the business and she has learned from experience ever since. Deniene's skills have expanded as her business has grown.

She credits her family for helping her to make things work. Her dad and her sister Darlene have the family "green thumb" and have helped her learn about growing plants as well as the correct lighting and watering techniques. All of her sisters with their creative bent have helped over the years, as has Deniene's friend, Marcia Bunney - "I couldn't have done it without them."

They all still come in over the holidays and for weddings, to help her get everything done on a deadline. Dad Lorenzo does the deliveries when he's around; while he is in Florida during the winter, husband John is less busy with his work and can deliver the flowers for her. As Lorenzo says, "The pay's not good, but it's a fun job." It must be fun, to deliver the cheer that flowers can bring - especially on these dark days of winter.

For the past 11 years, Margie Myers has been working with Deniene - like her, starting out working one day a week and now as full-time help. Margie is a floral designer and her touches are evident in much of the work that comes out of the Flower Garden.

While The Flower Garden is busiest over Christmas - "because it's the longest holiday" - they are usually gearing up for some holiday. Right now it happens to be Valentine's Day. As

Editorial / Opinion

To the Editor:

What was the purpose of the enormous pictures of wrecked automobiles on the cover of last week's Enterprise? Were you merely going for the shock value when describing the gory details of both accidents? I feel these families have suffered enough but to be reminded of these events every time they walk into a store in town is preposterous. Grieving families need support from their community not this sort of callous sensationalism.

Thank you,
Amy B. Cline, Manchester

Editor's Response: It was not our intention to impose on grieving families with this article. Our responsibility as a community newspaper is to report the news which happens in and around Manchester. Our policy is not to publish accounts of violence, and we stand by our story as being factual. While our sympathies are with the families affected by these accidents, we also wish to warn others of the dangers of driving in winter weather. If we have saved other lives by providing this awareness, we have succeeded in our purpose.

• "Let the cat out of the bag" — This phrase, meaning to reveal a secret, dates back to ancient times when a dishonest trader would place a cat in a bag instead of a valuable pig.
The buyer learned the truth only after he opened the bag.

To the Editor:

Nearly at the end of a peaceful Saturday morning breakfast, I was startled when my wife began asking just WHAT the Bridgewater Township Planning Commission was doing. Were we really DEFINING GALS at our meetings?

Horrified, I asked what she was talking about. She jabbed a finger at an article in the January 27 Manchester Enterprise titled Bridgewater Township Board Synopsis January 18. THERE IT WAS, "Commission elected new officers, defined gals for the year and desires to fill the vacant seats on the board."

I never though I'd read anything like that in a family publication like the Enterprise! In one little sentence we've apparently indulged in sexual harassment AND political incorrectness. But if that will generate more interest in Planning Commission meetings, it might even be worth the loss of favorable standing at home.

Sincerely,

James Fish, Chairperson
Bridgewater Township
Planning Commission

Editor's Response: "To err is human - to really foul things up requires a computer" - Anonymous. Sorry about our chauvinistic spell-checker, but we hope that the additional interest in Bridgewater Planning Commission meetings will spice things up for a while.

To The Editor:

On Valentine's Day, and throughout the week of February 13-19, 1994, the Ann Arbor Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Center, in conjunction with the 170 other VA facilities, will celebrate the NATIONAL SALUTE TO HOSPITALIZED VETERANS. On behalf of our entire VA staff, I invite our Ann Arbor neighbors and the residents of the surrounding Washtenaw county communities to celebrate with us.

We have scheduled a variety of activities designed to honor our veteran patients' service and sacrifice. Your readers can join in this observance by visiting with hospitalized veterans, many of whom are elderly or far from home, family or friends.

The purpose of the NATIONAL SALUTE is to recognize these hospitalized veterans for their contributions to the Nation, and to show our neighbors what a difference they can make as volunteers at the medical center. A wide variety of vital work is being done by volunteers at the Ann Arbor VA Medical Center and its Nursing Home Care Units.

We hope that your readers will make this Valentine's Day special by bringing a personal thank-you, or by sending a Valentine card (mailed to: Staff Assistant to the Director (00A), VA Medical Center, 2215 Fuller Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48105). For further information or to schedule a visit, we ask that readers contact Voluntary Service at (313) 769-7100, extension 5860.

Out & About

by gar

Kindness ain't dead! Since gar went on the roller skating expedition, fell and broke a leg, I have found that people extend acts of kindness.

In this world we live in today we are exposed to the sensationalism of TV. It often seems that when the area video media has to fill three or four hours of news time, they often fill it with acts of violence, murder, mayhem, muggings or any other act that can entice video viewing. All too often good deeds of the everyday person go unnoticed or unreported.

I for one, plead guilty to not observing good deeds performed. Being on crutches it is nigh impossible to carry anything and still navigate. Going to the Back Door, Hop-In or Bakers Dozen to get a take out cup of coffee is a challenge. Holding on to a cup of coffee, grasping crutches, opening the door and heading back to the office or to my pick up is difficult to say the least. For those people behind the counter, or customers open a door, fetch the coffee or help the incapacitated gar, I really appreciate your assistance.

I was taught as a child that to be independent, self sufficient, productive, courteous, kind and helpful were traits necessary to succeed in life. All of these things, I must confess, I have taken for granted without much thought. It is wonderfully refreshing when people have helped these past two weeks. Thanks!

Editorial

President Clinton's State of the Union address was good listening. He proposed reforms on Health Care, Welfare, Job Retraining and Crime. Many of these have been proposed by other Presidents in the past. Presidents of both parties as a matter of fact.

Crime, according to recent polls of the populace is of primary concern to most of us. The concept of three times and out, (jail incarceration) makes sense. The State of Washington has enacted legislation to this affect.

Some uniformity in crime reporting and recording must be enacted that would correlate all of the States and Federal statute infractions. If a capital crime is committed in another State or under Federal jurisdiction that would be entered on the offenders record. With the third offense the criminal would be incarcerated for life or at least the sum total of all sentenced time without deductions.

NO PLEA BARGAINING! Defense lawyers have found that if they can stall a trial for enough time they can often have their client plead guilty to a lesser offense with a corresponding lighter sentence.

Oakland County has found their court dockets and consequently their public costs have been reduced significantly when they denied plea bargaining.

We should favor that juveniles be held accountable for their actions. By the time a child reaches their teens, they know the difference of right from wrong. Let us then hold them accountable for their actions. Records indicate that juvenile offenders become adult offenders. Type or kind of sentencing could be applied. Parents need also to be accountable for their children.

Let us get tough with capital crime offenders. The cost at the present time is 2.9 cents of our tax dollars to incarcerate convicted offenders. No one has calculated the cost to the victims. What cost can we place on the life of a mother, who leaves behind infant children.

Let us put aside our political differences, philosophical or ideological concepts for the protection of innocent victims of criminals.

Let us call it, 3XO, Three Times and Out.

Your House Of Worship Helps You, So Now It's Your Turn

You probably couldn't count the number of times your House of Worship has helped you through some crisis or state of anxiety. It may have resulted from talks with your clergyman or just attending the services, but in any case your outlook was brightened.

Your House of Worship has been a good friend to you over the years, so now it's your turn to reciprocate in any way you can, according to your abilities or the state of your health.

Women can bake cookies, arrange pot luck dinners, make phone calls, type the bulletin or decorate the place for special occasions. Men can make repairs on the building, paint the walls and the lines on the parking lot, pull the weeds or clean up the trash. These things are little enough to repay all the benefits you have received from your House of Worship throughout the years.

Sometimes give your services for nothing, calling to mind a previous benefactor.

Manchester Area Historical Society

The Manchester Historical Society met on Tuesday, January 25, at the Blacksmith Shop. The Following Resolution was passed:

WHEREAS: Forest Walz has volunteered to manage luminaria operations superbly for the last ten years, and

WHEREAS: Forest has been a sustaining advocate of this program with his interest, drive and encouragement to improve the program each year, and

WHEREAS, this year, Steve Smoliniski has started assisting with this project,

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Manchester Area Historical Society express herewith its sincere gratitude to these men for their services, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to Forest and Steve and that suitable publicity be given this action.

Lenora Parr presented a paper on Laura Smith Haviland 1808-98. This pioneer lady was brought up in the Quaker faith. During much of her active life she lived and worked in Raisin, a small rural settlement between Tecumseh and Adrian.

She started the Raisin Institute on her farmland for the purpose of improving literacy and training teachers. The school opened its doors to all races, which was a first in Michigan. As tensions between North and South increased, in the pre-Civil War years, she became interested in the plight, sufferings, education and spiritual welfare of runaway slaves. One incident recounted events which included Tecumseh, Manchester, the L.D. Watkins' farm and Watkins Station on the Ypsilanti-Hillsdale Railroad. John White was assisted by her and Mr. Watkins as he took the train in time to get to Canada before the authorities came to return him to his owner under provisions of the Fugitive Slave Act. She made numerous trips into Kentucky and other southern areas to investigate and often assist escapees.

As the Civil War broke out and continued, she worked tirelessly to assist Freedmen, prisoners of war and the sick and wounded in various hospitals. She collected huge quantities of clothing and money to assist the needy in these categories.

Often there was the threat of personal violence against her as she traveled about and worked. She remained undaunted in the pursuit of her efforts, sustained by her faith in God. She was responsible for starting the Adrian Industrial School for Girls - the first in Michigan. A statue and drinking fountain honoring her stands in front of the Adrian City Hall - one of the few of that type which honors a woman. She died in Grand Rapids and is buried near her farm at Raisin. A plaque honors her on part of her homestead farm.

Refreshments were served by Lou and Elvira Vogel.

Shakespeare Reading Club

The Shakespeare Reading Club held its January 25th meeting at the Manchester Library in the Claire Reck Historical Room. The program presented by the hostess, Patty Swaney, was planned to familiarize the group with the opportunities for research in the collections preserved there. One can learn about events and organizations in the old issues of the Manchester Enterprise (some on microfilm), Church histories, clipping scrapbooks, and more importantly, in two histories of the Manchester area by local historians - the late Jane Palmer and Annetta English.

Material in these collections does not circulate but a large table and chairs provide an inviting spot to pursue whatever interest one; be it family history, former business operations, clubs, pioneer courage in the face of hardship, social customs, architecture, or the ownership of a piece of property over the years.

The club was particularly interested in pictures and yearbooks of their organization since its founding almost a century ago. It was further noted that copies of local family histories would be welcome additions to collections as genealogists, both professional and hobbyists, come in from considerable distances.

The next meeting will be held at Emanuel Church on February 8 with a program entitled "This and That, Naturally" by Annette van der Schalie.

SLIP-SLIDING AWAY!

The scene on Smythe Road last Friday morning had no less than thirteen cars (nine of which are visible here) on the first mile of ice-covered country road. Many people were stranded trying to get home on Thursday night during the freezing rain which had fallen all day Thursday, closing school and keeping most people at home and indoors - some for the entire weekend! A report was heard that a family had their first outside human contact on Sunday afternoon at a Super Bowl Party.

Back in Sharon Township, Reno Feldkamp commented that the Road Commission did "a heck of a job" getting the roads in condition so people could drive down them. "Fortunately, we didn't have any overnight guests."

Jim Schnearle was good enough to let his neighbors cross through his fields so they could get out to Pleasant Lake Road.

Most people were good-natured about the weather causing some undue inconvenience. Ironically, the warm weather which caused Thursday's ice storm was a direct result of the deep freeze of the previous week. Warm air from the Gulf Coast flowing over the extremely cold temperatures at the surface created the rain which froze us out. Seems like the weather just wouldn't cooperate this January. Maybe February will be better - let's see what the Ground Hog has to say!

Good Tax Records May Save You Time and Money

(Prepared by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants)

Well-organized financial records can make preparing your 1993 tax return less difficult and may also prevent you from overlooking valuable tax deductions, says the Michigan Association of CPAs. Here's some guidance to help you gather the documents you need for your 1993 tax return.

Verify Income

First, locate items that identify sources of income, such as W-2 forms provided by employers. These forms indicate how much you earned during the year and how much of your earnings was withheld for federal income tax, state income tax, FICA (Social Security) and Medicare Tax, among other things.

Also, locate 1099 forms that document interest and dividend income that you received during 1993. These forms are usually sent to you automatically by the bank, financial institution or stock brokerage house handling your investments. Form 1099B is used by brokers to report sales of stocks or bonds made by you during 1993. You should also set aside copies of brokerage confirmation slips and brokerage statements that can verify the amount of any capital gain or capital loss you may be claiming.

Refunds of state and local income tax may also be considered taxable income. Form 1099G and a copy of the income tax return, for the year the tax is refunded, is necessary to verify the taxable amount, if any, of the refund. Other sources of taxable income for which you should locate appropriate documentation include alimony; pensions, Individual Retirement Account (IRA) distributions, and annuities; unemployment compensation; Social Security benefits; gambling income; rent; and income from self-employment, trusts, partnerships, or S corporations.

Support Deductions

As long as you itemize on your tax return, you may be able to claim deductions that can reduce your taxable income. Here is a rundown of what you may be able to deduct and how you can substantiate it to the IRS.

Mortgage interest—If you own your own home, you can generally deduct mortgage interest. Form 1098 or a statement from a bank or other mortgage holder will show how much interest you have paid. Keep this along with your statement of use of loan proceeds, canceled checks, original promissory note, mortgage and contract. Generally, you may also be able to deduct any interest you paid on a home-equity loan.

State and local income taxes/property taxes—To claim deductions for state and local income taxes and property taxes, you'll need Form W-2 for withholding of income tax, as well as canceled checks, Form 1098, a statement from the taxing authority or bank statements that support the amount of property taxes paid on property you own.

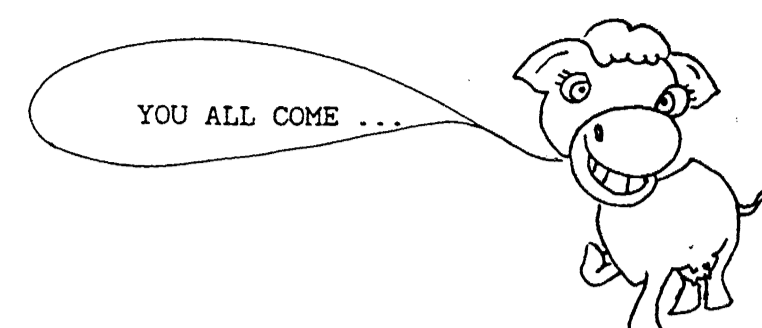

Charitable contributions—Be sure you have a list of the name and location of each charity to which you donated cash or property, and the amount and date of the donation.

For 1993, you can substantiate cash contributions to the IRS with canceled checks or receipts from the charity. (For charitable contributions of $250 or more that you make in 1994, you'll need written proof from the charity.) To support non-cash contributions, you should have a receipt or statement from the recipient organization indicating its name, location, and description of the property donated. You should also have a record of the fair market value on the date the property was donated as well as the amount you paid for the property.

Medical expenses

Medical expenses that exceed 7.5 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI) are deductible. To determine if you meet this threshold, review all canceled checks, receipts and medical reimbursements for medical items and treatments.

CROSWELL

A delightful, witty comedy by Peter Shaffer

Letting & Lovage

February 11-13 & 18-20

The laughs start at once as Lettice Douffet, the tour guide of a musty old English home, fights off boredom by wowing her tourist visitors with increasingly fantastic whoppers about the history of the mansion. As her stories grow more outrageous, so does she! Her superior fires her, but later regrets doing so. The laughs continue when the pair forge a friendship and plan to waken their fellow citizens to the dreariness of architecture around them.

Tiger Cubs

This month Timmy Tyler's parents and Chelsea Lanes were our hosts.

We had eight cubs and one sibling show up to bowl. The boys were divided into two teams: Rodney Posky, Luke Weber, Tyler Mester and Andrew Way on one team and Mark Trinkle, Timmy Tyler, Clint McCalla, Matt Chruich and his brother Travis Chruich.

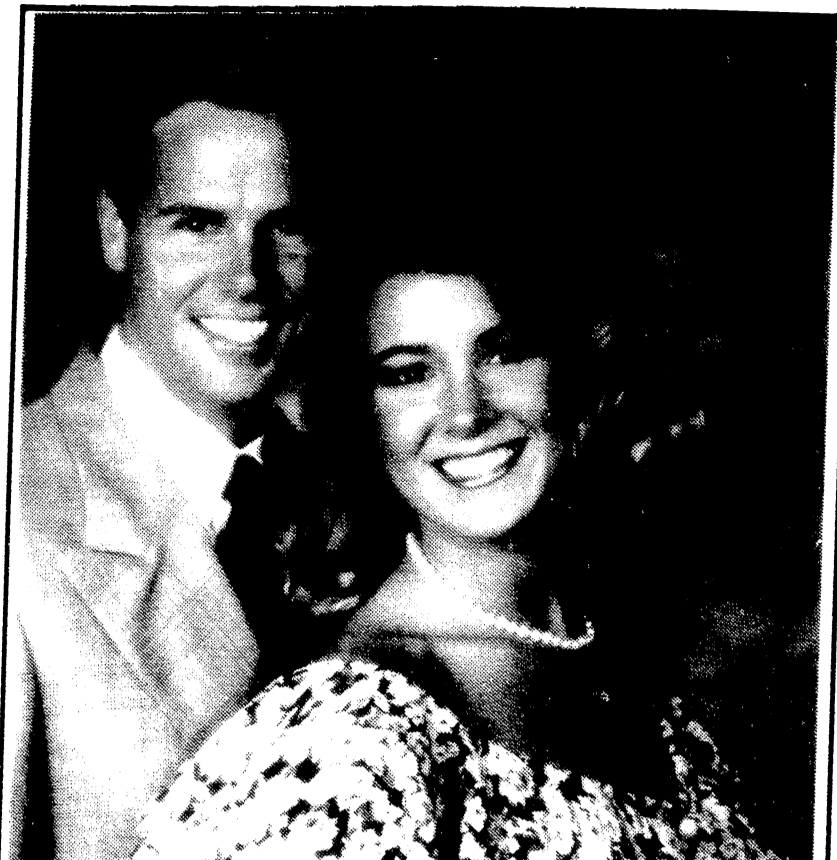

The first game went very smooth, team one's final score was 297, team two's final was 287. The second game, the computer keeping score was being generous, giving strikes and spares at random. To keep things fairly even, we just had each boy bowl twice.

Actual strikes were made by Andrew Way, Rodney Posky, Mark Trinkle and Matt Chruich. If I've missed anyone, let me know - I'll print it next time!

Thanks to Mr. Way for keeping the boys in line and being our official pin resetter. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Mester for also keeping the boys in tow, and to all the parents for their participation, and to Mrs. Tyler for hosting.

Kathryn Rice participates in "TEEN MISSION"

On January 9, 1994, Kathryn Rice, a tenth-grade student at Manchester High, returned from a two-week mission trip to the Dominican Republic. She was part of a 37-member medical mission sponsored by the Michigan Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists Pathfinder Department. Along with Dentists, physicians, nurses and optometrists, she along with 25 other Pathfinders, worked in several remote villages and communities. This was the 13th annual Teen Mission from Michigan.

The Pathfinders were provided an opportunity for actual "hands-on" experience. Their duties and responsibilities included direct patient care such as fitting glasses, dispensing medicines, pulling and cleaning teeth, and assisting the professional staff in many other ways. They held 8 clinics during their stay and treated over 3,200 people.

Pathfinders is a world-wide youth organization sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The purpose is to teach boys and girls in grades 5-10, skills in outdoor living, recreation, arts & crafts, and service to their fellow man.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEWS

Super Bowl is over and the last day of one whole month of snow and an ice storm has come and gone. Now, we can wonder if the groundhog has seen his shadow, so we may look forward to spring.

Looking back, ice of a special kind as in ice boxes in the summer months was important. From our newspaper down home in January of '24, one fellow completed cutting next summer's ice supply by packing 2400 cakes. They were reported to be as clear as glass and were 9" thick. Hubby from his memory claims one cutting of 34" in thickness and stacked the cakes sidewise in the ice house. Anyone top that?

I remember the fun of entering my friend's family owned ice house when her dad would open the door and were allowed to chip off a piece on a hot summer's day. 'Course, we had to take the 'packing' off (sawdust does cling). Weren't those tongs huge to a child? That was also before homogenization of milk—how we loved to lick the frozen cream off the top of the milk bottles. Can still hear the clop, clop of the horse drawn wagon. Life is a lot simpler now, but kids now don't have that to get up for—what a shame, huh?

Thursday, February 3: Craft class gets off to a start at 9:30 at the Center. Then off to Emanuel for the birthday party for all who are 55 or more and born this month. Jan will serve ham (if we don't have more weather problems). The last two Thursdays we've all had to cook at home and missed the fun and fellowship. Patiently, Linda spoke these famous words to me on the phone "No school, no meal!" and I wonder how many times I've reminded others of this in my column—makes me wonder, ha ha. Anyway, get those reservations in to her ahead at 428-8359 or to Jan at 428-7630 before 10:30 on meal days and come to enjoy your February birthday bash.

Friday, February 4: Senior bus leaves the Center at 9 AM for Snowfest in Frankenmuth, Michigan, national and international competition in ice carving and snow sculpting plus other entertainment is being held and there is even a warming tent with entertainment. If you wish to go along, call Erma Alber at 428-8707 for your spot on the bus. Weather permitting is always a factor this year!

Monday, February 7: Seniors plan to leave the Center at 9:30 on a shopping trip to Adrian. Give Erma a ring to go along.

Tuesday, February 8: Council meeting begins at 9:30. Jan and crew will serve veal Italian at senior meal. Then, it's back to the Center for work on the March-April Trumpeter calendar. Come with all your ideas for trips and activities. At 5:30, pickup starts by bus for the travelog at Tecumseh which will feature Jim Cole with topic "Passport to Poland".

Wednesday, February 9: At 10, seniors leave the Center for work on the March-April program entitled: 'Healthy Heart'. There will be a time to eat followed by a visit of our favorite folks who reside at the Saline Home. If you want to hear Manchester news, visit them, love it.

Thursday, February 10: Craft class at 9:30, Valentine party at senior meal (Jan hasn't told us what the menu is) but you can be sure she is always thinking and acting upon delights for us all. Bingo is usually enjoyed at 12:30 at the Center on Thursdays, come and enjoy.

AARP meeting

AARP meets Thursday, February 10 to hear gerontologist Deborah Vincent. Ms. Vincent will discuss health care for seniors—how to stay healthy and what to do when health care needs arise. That's 1:30pm, February 10, at the Pittsfield Township Hall, SW corner of South State and Ellsworth.

MHS Leadership Class

The MHS Leadership Class has been working diligently to ensure that Coming Home will be a success. The festivities will begin with a pep assembly Friday afternoon to get the Dutch fans ready for the basketball game against Napoleon. The pep assembly will be a battle of the sexes, including games such as "lightning" and "shave the balloon". It will be held at 2:30, and community members are welcome to attend.

Directly before the varsity basketball game that night, the winners of the Mr. and Ms. Pretty Legs Contest will be announced. The leadership class will also be selling ribbons saying, "Pulverize the Pirates!"

A raffle will be held during half time for an autographed Gary Moeller Football. Tickets can be purchased from Mr. Gall, at a cost of 5/$1.00 or .25 each, at the High School or during the game.

Following the game, SADD will be sponsoring a semi-formal dance.

MANCHESTER WRESTLING

Wednesday was our parents night, and with that came a lot of close matches and a lot of excitement. We lost our first match to Napoleon in a close one 33-29.

Our JVs came out strong as Jeremy Jones and William Roberts won in Varsity action. Jay and Ryan Eiss started things out right with pins, followed by Joe Tobias beating Justin Vanmeter (who had beaten Joe 2 times earlier in the year). Mike Bunn, dominating his opponent, ran his season record to 8-1. Brent Woods remains undefeated, pinning his foe, while both Bryan Duvall and Mike Croghan won on points.

We couldn't hold off the determined Pirates as they won the next 4 classes for the victory. After the upset, the kids came out strong and won an impressive victory over Morenci 69-6; the most notable matches being Dan Cambell at 160 pinning his opponent, followed by pins from Dustin Williams and Ed Cruz.

On Saturday we traveled to Leslie for their 15 team tournament and knew we had to wrestle well if we expected to place well. As a team we would also be facing a lot of different schools we hadn't seen yet this year. Steve Spurr won his third consecutive tournament, again pinning all of his opponents while run-

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Friday, January 21st Manchester 67 Addison 55

Manchester's front line completely dominated the Panthers of Addison on their way to their fifth victory of the season. They are now 5-3 for the season and have a league record of 3-2. The Dutchmen's front-line made every field goal for their team.

Manchester didn't allow Addison to score a field goal until 4:06 of the first quarter and forced Addison into four 3-second violations. Junior forward Troy Niehaus accounted for 22 points. Coach John Wilkins was pleased with his performance. "Troy had a really nice game. He hit some 'y buckets' all night." Tom Fielder scored 13 points and Chris Fillyaw added 8 for the winners.

Next week we travel to Addison on Wednesday and to the Chelsea Quad on Saturday where wrestling begins at 10:00.

Tuesday, January 25th Manchester 79 Michigan Center 78

Henry Earhart's basket with two seconds remaining in overtime gave the Manchester High School basketball team a thrilling 79-78 victory on this very cold winter night. This game had it all and it epitomized the fun of high school sports. Henry had the best game of his varsity career, scoring 15 points as a replacement for Tom Fielder. Tom sprained an ankle in practice Monday so coach Wilkins utilized Earhart and Troy Niehaus. Both players responded as Niehaus also burned the nets for 15 points.

Earhart's heroics weren't the only key shot for the Dutch. Earhart, Michigan Center had gone ahead, 73-70. With 23 seconds left in regulation, Brandon Woods hit a heart-stopping three-pointer. The ball popped the rim, bounced up and finally dropped in to send the game into overtime. Brandon had a terrific game as he hawked the opponents all night and scored 29 big points, nine assists along with four steals.

"Brandon had a great game, he played the way we needed him to play tonight," stated Wilkins. "We had some people step up for this game. At the end, Henry was one of our two options...fortunately, the shot went down."

Silence is golden. BUT The squeaky wheel gets the grease.

Basketball

This win put the Dutch into a tie with Michigan Center and Napoleon for second place in the Cascades conference Blue Division. They are now 4-2 in league play and 6-4 overall.

Friday, January 28th Manchester 49 Hanover-Horton 93

Tonight's loss pushed them down two third place in league play at 4-3. Michigan Center and Napoleon's Friday wins have them tied for second place at 5-2. Hanover-Horton is at the top of the Cascades Conference Blue division with a 7-0 record half way through the league season. The Cornets are 11-0 overall.

Matt Fielder led Manchester with eight points and seven rebounds, Brandon Woods made five steals and Chris Fillyaw came off the bench to contribute 7 points.

IV BASKETBALL Friday, January 21st Manchester 80 Addison 65

With only one referee to officiate the first quarter, the young Dutchmen had to contend with some very physical play. Manchester kept their composure and scored 48 points to Addison's 31 in the second half. Aaron Garrett hit four 3-pointers to notch a game high 23 points. Mike Mann converted 8 of 9 free throws for 16 points. Zach Maghes and Joe Hollisy had 14 and 10 points respectively.

Tuesday, January 25th Manchester 65 Michigan Center 57

Zach Maghes scored 25 points and Aaron Garrett had 20 as the young Dutchmen kept their home-court record unblemished. Michigan Center led 14-13 at the end of the first quarter. By half-time, Manchester was up 30-26 and never relinquished the lead. This as Michigan Center's J.V.'s first loss of the season as Maghes held their big 6'5" center to a season low two points.

Friday, January 28th Manchester 54 Hanover-Horton 60

Trevor Schleicher burned the nets with three 3-pointers for the Dutch but unfortunately the rest of his team mates were as cold as the weather outside. The JVs are now 7-4 at the half-way point.

MSW. "Although quilting is fulfilling and therapeutic for me, I need this outlet, too, as I continue to grow.

Fran has made so many quilts, she has "run out of wall space", but she will miss "October" while it's gone for three months. "With wall quilts, you feel they aren't functional as bed quilts are; but when you take them down, you realize how they have insulated the room, and sounds seem to bounce off the walls as if the room is empty."

She will be "visiting" her quilt, however. She will make her second trip to the Innovative Traditions show, having been there two years ago on a trip to visit her parents in New York. "I was amazed at the beauty of the quilts I saw there - they were the best quilts I'd ever seen in person. I had seen wonderful quilts in my books, but these were the real thing. It was very inspiring, and I'm honored to have one of my pieces displayed there." She will again visit the show and see her parents during the March 6-June 5 exhibition period.

Fran's beautiful creation is proof that "simplicity can work", and her achievement is certainly a well-deserved honor.

than cars. Back then, farriers like Tim turned cold steel into a hot item over the coals of a blacksmith's forge. Tim's demonstration will run for an hour, starting at 1pm at the Blacksmith Shop, 324 E. Main Street. Some items will be available for sale.

Ice Sculpture Contest on Main Street - Dave Woodring, Head Chef at Chelsea Community Hospital, plus culinary students from Chelsea and Ann Arbor will demonstrate ice-carving techniques that produce beautiful, though temporary, works of art. Blocks of ice measuring 20"x56"x10" will be roughed-out with small chain saws and finished by sculptors working from 10 am to 2 pm.

From 2-4 pm, the blocks of ice will be on display at a location to be announced. The sculptures will be judged and a first prize trip to Toronto or Chicago will be awarded, donated in part by A&J Travel here in Manchester.

All-day Craft Show - Crafters from the surrounding areas will fill the Emanuel Church gymnasium from 10 am - 5 pm. The Women of Emanuel will provide snacks like coffee and cookies for sale all day long.

Special Mystery Guest Hockey Exhibition - We can't say who, but a few people who know hockey pucks almost personally will demonstrate from 2 - 4 pm on the ice-skating rink at the Gazebo Park.

Hot One-Dish Dinner 5-7 PM - The Women of Emanuel Church are cooking up something special for dinner to serve the crafters and anyone else who gets a craving for hot home-cooked specialties, served cafeteria-style in the Emanuel Winter, continued Church Fellowship Hall.

Old-Fashioned Barn Dance - After dinner from 7 - 11 pm, the Dick Gorlitz Band will take over the Emanuel Church gymnasium to get your blood moving with rompin', stompin' good old country music. Dick might even call a square or two. This is a good way to work off all that terrific food you just ate!

If this sounds good to you, please bundle up and join your neighbors as we celebrate the good things about winter at the first Winter Festival in the Victorian Village, Saturday, February 12, 1994. The Winter Festival is a great new reason to visit and shop here, keeping our community economically thriving in February, while honoring the reasons why Manchester is so special. Please join us!

Participating in the Opening Ceremonies and giving these rides to the Special Olympians is the high point of the week for the Warriors.

"The Bird" was all-star pitcher with the Detroit Tigers during his phenomenal rookie 1976 season. His antics—talking to the ball and grooming the pitching mound—

FRIDAY NIGHT FEVER

-as reported by Shane Goodell, Dan O'Dell, and Brandon Woods

In the fall, it's football. Come winter, BASKETBALL is becoming something to cheer about.

On Friday afternoon, the Leadership Class put on a rousing pep rally at the high school for the culmination of "Coming Home Week". There were lots of activities happening with many of the student body participating in the pep assembly games. Some of the games were "spin on the bat" - stand a bat straight up, spin ten times around, then shoot a lay-up. Try again....

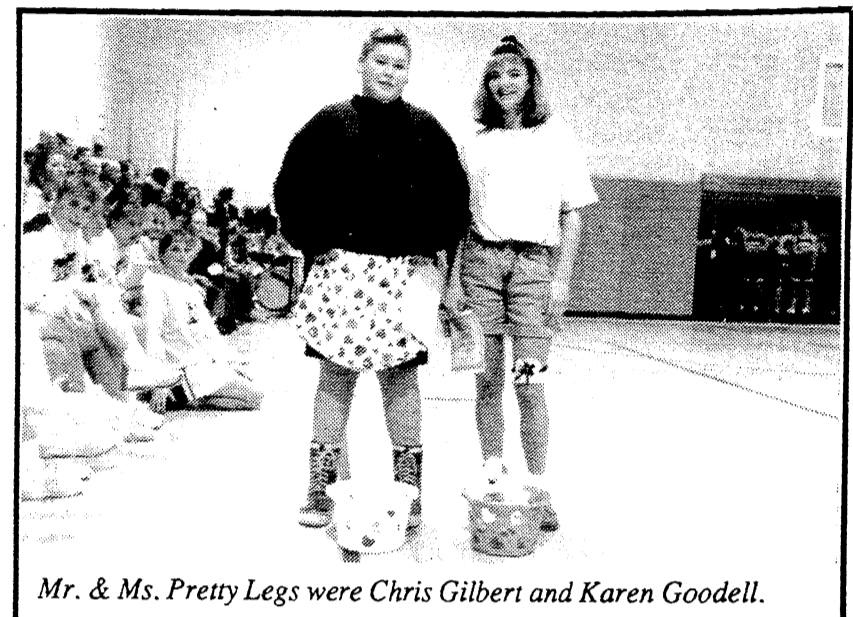

Shaving the balloon was perhaps easier. Shaving cream was spread on a balloon, and participants were given thirty seconds. Whoever had the least amount of shaving cream on their balloon was the winner of this game.

"Toss the Grape" - Partners tossed chocolate-pudding-covered grapes to each other. Winners were the team who caught the most in their MOUTHS in 45 seconds.

The Pie Shoot Out was sort of like the OK Corral. Four pairs of contestants stood in corners. Each pair shot baskets - the one who missed got a shaving cream pie in the face. The battle of the sexes was well matched. Winners were: Chris Gilbert 1, Renee Foster 0, Amanda Erskine 1, Geoff Brooks 0, Andrew Schook 1, Laura Griffin 0, and Kerri Keller 1, Kevin Phelps 0.

At the game that night was the Mr. & Ms. Pretty Legs contest. Two couples from each class participated: Chris Gilbert & Karen Goodell, Ed Cruz and Michelle Schaible, Aaron Novess & Nicole Bisard, Geoff Brooks & Melanie Kapa, Shane Goodell & Amber Burkhardt, Adam Erskine & Kerri Keller and Phillip Leder & April Butterfield. Winners were Chris Gilbert & Karen Goodell. Watch for these legs on Main Street!

To wrap up the Coming Home events, there was a Football Raffle - the football was signed by Gary Moeller and Bo Schembechler. The raffle was won by Nick Rose.

Mr. & Ms. Pretty Legs were Chris Gilbert and Karen Goodell.

THE ART OF ICE SCULPTURING

by Marsha Johnson Chartrand

French chefs began the art of ice sculpturing more than 200 years ago. The first art sculptures were basic designs used as functional food holders to keep food cold during service time for elaborate buffets. Russians learned the art from French chefs at the turn of the eighteenth century.

The first well documented ice palace was built as a setting for a monstrous joke. On the frozen river Neva, in the winter of 1739 through 1740, a shivering bride and groom spent their wedding night in a building of ice. The palace was designed by an architect commissioned by the Empress Ann Ivanovna. The Empress built this palace to express her jealousy for an old lover who had run off with a peasant girl. This was her way of punishing the couple by making them spend their honeymoon night in an ice castle. The palace was complete with ice cannons that actually fired and a bedroom with a vanity, dresser with mirror, table, chairs and a canopy bed all made from ice.

The Japanese chefs picked up the art of ice sculpturing from the French chefs in the last thirty years. Just recently the Japanese have been considered the masters of the art form. In Japan Ice sculpturing is a full time profession, the sculptors carve wood in the summer and ice in the winter. In America ice sculpturing is a relatively young art form helping to revive the dying craft as part of the culinary profession.

Come to the Manchester Winter Festival and see the art of ice sculpturing in person. "Chef Dave", Dave Woodring from Chelsea Community Hospital, will demonstrate the art at Wurster Park on Saturday. He will begin at 10:00. We will also have two apprentices from Maude's restaurant in Ann Arbor.

Ice sculptures are commonly started with chain saws and the fine work is done with a special tool which looks like a five-pointed ice pick. Each sculpture takes approximately two hours to complete.
