Local Students Prove They Have "The Right Stuff" at the Optimist Oratorical Contest

The Optimist Club of Manchester is proud to announce the winners of the Optimist Oratorical Contest held on Monday, March 14, at Emanuel Church. The winner of the boys division is Joe Tobias, 2nd is Eli Bragg, 3rd is James Fuerstnau. In the girls division 1st place is Jennifer Nosbisch, 2nd is Ahja Zang, 3rd is Katie Roberts. Also competing were Randy Burkhardt, Rebekah Jackowski, and Alexis Panches.

This contest, open to students under the age of sixteen, is conducted annually in Optimist Clubs all over the world. Everyone delivered an outstanding speech on this year's topic, "The Right Stuff." Contestants, speaking between four and five minutes were judged on personal qualities, material organization, delivery, presentation, and overall effectiveness.

Jennifer Nosbisch and Joe Tobias will now progress to the second step of this world-wide competition: the district competition in Flint on April 16, awards a $1,500 scholarship in both the boys and girls division. If either or both of our youth win the district contest, our club will add an additional $1,000 scholarship. Worthy of note is that this is Jennifer Nosbisch's fifth consecutive first place Oratorical. Let anyone think that the contest may be "rigged", be aware that the judges are new each year and are people who have no "local connections" - most especially to the school system. Jennifer has also placed third at Regional competition on two separate occasions.

Our local Optimist Club has sponsored this contest since 1966. For over twenty years Dacia Daniels, an English teacher at the middle school, has helped our students prepare for this event. To honor Mrs. Daniels for her long term efforts in making our contest a success, Ted Tapping, on behalf of our Club, presented her with a gift certificate to her favorite store. All present followed with a standing ovation of gratitude. Ms. Daniels graciously thanked her students, past and present, for giving her the opportunity to work with them.

Optimist International is one of the world's largest and most active service organizations with over 160,000 members in 4,200 Clubs in the world. Carrying the motto, "Friend of Youth," Optimist Clubs support services to more than five million youth each year.

School Board Takes A Stand

Manchester's Board of Education took the initiative Monday night with Board Treasurer, Paul Kluewe's motion: "That the Board of Education instruct the superintendent to: Make Proposals and action plans that will:

1. Conduct a review of the code of conduct for student athletes, and propose comprehensive changes that fo-
2. Compile a code of conduct for spectators at all athletic events, and
3. Compile a coaches' handbook to further these goals of our athletic programs."

The motion passed unanimously. Not one single voice of dissent was heard.

Emotions were just under the surface after Superintendent Niedzwiecki reported his preliminary investigation of the incident. Niedzwiecki said that some players, unidentified, were suspended after the game and that an ongoing investigation was being conducted. "Pushing and shoving between Manchester and Hanover-Horton ensued with just over two minutes were remaining in the game. Players from both teams' benches converged upon the floor and the coaching staff and administrators restored order. The officials terminated the contest at that time."

Wayne Winzenz, School Board Member, said; "I was the only Board member at the game and it was not good." Winzenz went on to explain that in previous games with Hanover-Horton emotions ran high. He felt that with Manchester football team's success against them, Hanover-Horton's emotions ran high, too.

Board member John Hochstetler was visibly upset with the incident. After reviewing the tape of the game he said, "there is no reason for this kind of thing to happen." Hochstetler related one of the coaches, who was not identified, used profanity in dealing with student athletes on the Board and said there is no place for a teacher-coach to leave the stands and become part of a fiasco on the floor. If it were up to her, that person would no longer be a coach in the school system.

Ann Arbor Flower & Garden Show

A breath of springs past will waft through Ann Arbor when the 1994 Ann Arbor Flower & Garden Show unveils gardens fashioned from history books, fairy tales and grandparents' memories.

The University of Michigan Matthei Botanical Gardens will present the best of the old and new in gardening March 24-27 at the Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds. This flower show calls upon the worlds of history and fantasy to convey the theme "Once Upon A Time".

As always, the show will feature an acre of professionally designed landscapes and more than 500 horticultural and floral design exhibits. New features include French parterre garden pathways between buildings, and an antique garden furniture and accessories market, in addition to the regular Marketplace.

Inspired by Marshall, Michigan's town square, the entryway will take visitors past brick pillars, down a path leading to a gazebo and fountain. Sumi crabapple trees, dogwood trees, hollyhocks and coral bells will bloom among stately English oaks.

The entryway leads visitors to the show's major exhibit section, in which eight fully landscaped gardens, designed and prepared by nurseries and landscape designers, continue the theme of classic and enduring gardening styles.

Advance adult tickets are $7, children $3 and children 3 and under are free. Parking at the show is $2 per car.

"Once Upon a Time" is a fundraiser for the U of M Matthei Botanical Gardens. Proceeds will help fund completion of the new Gateway and Herb Knot Gardens.

The Enterprise has been informed that among the Flower Show entrants is Patricia A. Rickelmann of Manchester who is doing a windowsill; and Teresa Benedict of Calamity Jane's will be an exhibitor.

The Community Calendar is a regular feature of the Enterprise. If your group would like their regular meetings printed here, please let us know at 428-8173.

They'll be the Grandest Ladies in the Easter Parade!

When Triscia and Tegan Lantis get dressed up for Easter this year, they'll be custom dressed by their mom, Dawn, in Daisy Kingdom clothing.

Dawn, who's been sewing ever since she was a child, says, "When I see a piece of material I like, I have to make something from it!" Looking at clothes for her kids, especially dresses for the girls, in a store always frustrated her. She admits, "I look at a price tag and figure I could make it so much cheaper and it would look nicer, too." She also makes the dresses tea length, a little longer than those you can purchase in a store.

Dawn is now making her clothing for a wider audience and it is on display at Antiques, etc. on the corner of Main Street and M-52. It's interesting that Dawn's commercial sewing career is starting in this location, as she started out there over 20 years ago when her father, Jay, owned the IGA. "I used to make little stuffed animals and sell them in cardboard boxes at the store when I was about 12."

The detail and design on Dawn's creations are a reflection of her perfectionist attitude. Sometimes, she says, she will pull out inside seams just because they don't look right to her. When she uses a border fabric, the sashes match the border. The petticoats which are sewed right into the dresses are color-matched to the dress fabric. She double-stitches her seams, as she doesn't have a fancy machine that does serging - just regular sewing.

Besides sewing dresses, Dawn will also make rompers, coveralls, wild shorts, crafts, doll clothes and dolls. "I like to do this and it doesn't feel like work. I have plenty to do, and I want to keep it as something fun." Although Dawn does not make clothing "to order", it is likely that most little girls (and big ones too) would be thrilled with her creations.

Tegan can't resist a giggle when people admire her dress, made by Mom

Dawn's interest and instruction in sewing came from her mother, who is also a seamstress. She says she drives her family crazy by keeping all hours on a sewing project once she gets started! Her work table is a pool table, and her work area is a small one, but you'd never know it to look at the completed product.

Plans for the future include making Precious Moments designs - with pinafores - as well as continuing with Daisy Kingdom patterns. Dawn is also enjoying making dolls with dresses to match a little girl's wardrobe.

If you're in the market for some Easter frills, check out what Dawn has to offer at Antiques, etc. Her prices are competitive with those of the "finer stores", and your daughters will be pleased to receive all the compliments that Tegan and Triscia are used to hearing whenever they wear their dresses, too!

Editorial / Opinion

Dear Residents of Manchester School District:

Now that Proposal A has been passed, I hope that we can assume that the school millage will be reduced to six mills, the loss of revenue to the schools to be compensated for by the additional 2% increase in sales tax. The alternate plan to Proposal A would provide for a school millage of 12 mills and a reduction in the state income tax.

Both plans supposedly were to provide the same revenues to schools that they are now receiving. If this is true, which I hope it is, then I don't want to see our school district ask for an increase in school millage. I have no argument if in the future the school needs more revenue within the increase of inflation.

I hope that any request for an increase in school millage must be voted on by the citizens in the school districts. If we don't put a brake on this school millage, we're going to end up with as high a school millage as we had before Proposal A and still be saddled with the extra 2% increase in sales tax.

I'm sure that all the citizens in our school districts have to live within their means. Is it too much to expect that our schools do the same?

Signed,
Victor Dettling

Dear Editor,

In my opinion one of the outstanding Gazebo concerts was the Community Choir presentation in 1991. Community churches, some choral groups outside our community and local individuals enjoyed singing together in concert at the Gazebo on Thursday evening. Each choir prepared their own selections, combined group sang some well known melodies and the finale was joint singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

I personally enjoyed the community sing as a participant and as a listener.

Other Gazebo concert favorites feature our local Community Band and Community Orchestra, Barbershop Quartets, Sweet Adelines, dancers, dulcimers, etc.

There is interest in a community choir for the 1994 summer season. The greatest challenge is to find someone interested in directing the program.

I take this opportunity to seek out people in the community who have talents that haven't been identified at the right time or place. Sometimes people have shared an interest that has not been recorded.

As Director of the Community Resource Center, I am always ready to explore ideas for recreation, education and other ideas that would benefit our community.

I can be contacted in person at the Community Resource Center, 122 W. Main (Downstairs) or by phone 428-7722.

Dianne Schwab.

To the Editor:

MANNERS: Going through the dictionary I couldn't find a real good definition of the word manners, but I would define it as being polite, considerate and thoughtful. As we look at the world around us and wonder why children now days are mannerless, just think where they learn it or should I say not learn it!

How things have changed since we were small kids and it was expected that we said "please", "thank you", "no, thank you", "excuse me", and other polite things! Was it so bad for us being polite? Do you remember to say those small but significant things every day; especially to your children? Is it so gut-wrenching to say "please" when we ask things of our children? How can the youth of today learn what is "proper" if they have no teacher?

While at a school function at Christmas time, I truly was disgusted at the overall RUDENESS of the audience! This audience was made up of parents, grandparents, and siblings. I could not hear the children's program over the noise of the crowd! I am under the impression that one should visit with friends after the program, not during! What an awful way to show your appreciation for all the hard work Mrs. Miller has done!

At a recent scouting function, "QUIET" signs were held up during each performance to remind the crowd to politely "shut up"! Believe it or not, these signs actually worked! But, how embarrassing for us as adults to have to be reminded by our own children to be quiet while others are talking! What an awful way to show your appreciation for all the hard work the scout leaders and scouts have done!

The quote "Do unto others" comes to mind while writing this. "Listen to your sister or when it's your turn she won't listen to you"! Does this sound familiar? Imagine yourself in front of a crowd of hundreds. All alone! And you have something vitally important to say, and while you are speaking, all that you say is drowned out by the audience's chatter! Now imagine your child in this very same situation. How proud is your child going to be when her part wasn't heard because everyone was talking?

If we are to educate today's youth on the "ways of politeness", I believe we should be taking a refresher course first! Please, think about this, and not just until you put the paper down today. Cut this article out and tape it to the refrigerator. Outline the areas where you think you need improvement. Show this to your child, please. Thank you.

Sincerely,
A Concerned Parent

Last week we wrote about Manchester's last regular season games of the basketball season. The last game ended on a sour note when the game was called with about 2 & 1/2 minutes remaining in the game. I reviewed the game film after we printed the edition. The game with Hanover - Horton was not a good one; and worse yet was the conclusion, when the pushing contest erupted. Many people from the stands rushed to the floor and spectators pelted the players with advertising balls the cheer leaders had distributed.

In fairness to the team, the submarine play that was reported to the Enterprise did not exist. What the film revealed was Manchester getting off to a good start and early lead. After that the shots did not fall and we were soundly trounced. Evident was frustration, physical contact, questionable calls, lack of control of and by our players.

As a result of the last game's outcome, three players were suspended and a fourth quit the team for the playoffs.

A much bigger question looms in my mind however. What kind of a game are we promoting and what message are we giving our players and students?

Is it OK, as Wolverine Bobby Crawford states, "If someone goes in for a lay-up, we're going to knock them on there ass. Then we'll help them up and brush them off. But if they come in again, we'll knock them down again. But it's nothing personal. It's just taking care of business." Maybe that's what mighty Michigan believes in their infinite arrogance, but is that what high school basketball is about?

No, not to my way of thinking and to many other members of our community. Let us teach the skills of teamwork, play making, moving the ball, shooting, defense and sportsmanship. Most importantly, however, let us learn how to win with honor and lose with dignity.

TRANSPORTATION GRANTS PROMOTE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Governor John Engler announced that a $207,060 state transportation grant for road improvements helped create 67 new jobs at Johnson Controls, Inc., Plastics Division in Manchester.

The money is part of a $17 million investment statewide in roads and infrastructure to retain and create jobs by supporting industry expansion. The grants, part of the Transportation Economic Development Fund (TEDF) are funded by driver license and vehicle registration fees.

Governor Engler said nearly 11,000 jobs would be created statewide in 30 communities from the combination of site and local support, and $764 million in private investment.

"The TEDF has shown once again that it is an important tool in promoting economic growth and job creation," he said.

The project entails widening and reconstructing gravel roads and new acceleration and deceleration lanes for the new facility. Johnson Controls, Inc., manufactures plastic containers for the soft drink industry.

COMMUNITY GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE

It has been the tradition in Manchester over the years to hold a community Good Friday Service and often the pastors spoke on "The Seven Last Words of Christ." For many years the stores in the community closed for the hours of 1:00-3:00 p.m. in recognition of the crucifixion of Christ.

This year's community Good Friday Service will be held at the Sharon United Methodist Church on Friday, April 1, at 1:30 p.m., with the organ prelude beginning at 1:15 for meditation. The Rev. Marsha Woolley, pastor at the Manchester United Methodist Church, will speak. The Sharon Chancel Choir will sing "In Pilate's Hall," by Beall/Carter. Four area pastors will be taking part in the service.

All are welcome to attend this community service. The Sharon United Methodist Church is located on the corner of M-52 and Pleasant Lake Roads. Parking is available in the lot north of the church, along the road west of the church, and in Wacker's parking lot. The church is handicap accessible.

CARDBOARD RECYCLING IN MANCHESTER AND BRIDGEWATER

New cardboard bins for recycling are arriving this week. The Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority's drop-off stations at Walco Foods in Manchester and the General Store in Bridgewater will have separate bins for corrugated cardboard. Village of Manchester residents can put their cardboard at the curb on their regular recycling days, the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month.

Cardboard should be flattened. For curbside pick-up, fold cardboard into 2' by 2' pieces and bundle it with tape or twine. Brown paper bags can also be mixed in. Grey paper board is not accepted, just brown, corrugated boxes commonly used for shipping.

Other materials accepted by the WWRRA include: newspaper, glass (clear, green and brown), tin cans and #2 plastic (milk jugs). Look for detailed preparation guidelines in a future article. The basic guidelines are to clean and sort all materials.

For more information, contact the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority P. O. Box 149 Chelsea, Michigan 48118 313-475-6160 Jerry Satterthwait, Mgr.

CHRISTMAS IN APRIL - DATE CORRECTION

In 1992, the Christmas - In-April project was April 25th. In 1993, April 24th. Somehow, it made sense that in 1994 the date would be Saturday April 23rd. Not so. Thus, Christmas In April *Washtenaw will happen on Saturday, April 30th.

Nine homes were referred to the Christmas-In-April committee. These homes will be checked by skilled tradespeople. Recommendation for home repair and maintenance will be presented to the committee during the next group meeting on April 6th.

Volunteer registration and release of liability forms will be mailed the week of April 4th to all volunteers who worked in previous years. New volunteers should contact the Community Resource Center - 428-7722 to receive volunteer information.

Community Resource Center Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Community Resource Center Board has been changed from Wednesday, March 23 to Thursday, March 24 at 7:30 at the Community Resource Center.

The Agenda includes election of new board members and election of officers.

The work of the Community Resource Center staff is based on needs of the community. When the staff at the CRC does not have the resources necessary to meet the needs, others contacts in the county and area are used as the sources of information and referral.

The Community Resource Center offers the "walk in" opportunity for people looking for work, food, housing, transportation, counseling, recreation and business information.

A community summer activity that began to take root with the seed that was planted by two volunteers who walked into the Community Resource Center are the summer concerts at the Gazebo.

The Community Resource Center Board meetings are open to the public. Program ideas that benefit our community are always welcome.

Community Resource Center hours are Mon.-Fri., 9:00 - 4:00. The CRC phone number is 428-7722.

Ella Sharp Museum hosts Festival

Celebrate the arrival of Spring at Ella Sharp Museum's "Sugaring and Shearing Festival" Sunday, March 27th from Noon to 5 p.m. Walk the nature trail, watch the tapping of maple trees, see the boiling of sap into syrup and taste the fresh results.

Learn about American Indian maple sugaring, pioneer syrup making and modern Michigan maple syrup production from Naturalist Mark Jenness of Western Michigan University in a slide presentation and guided trail tour hourly from 1 to 4 p.m. Singer/Songwriter Michael Deren will entertain as he sings and tells stories about life as a railroad engineer at 1 and 3 p.m. Sheep shearing demonstrations will take place throughout the day.

Watch the Jackson Handweavers Guild weavers transform sheep fleece into yarn for shawls, coverlets and cloth. Learn to make your own authentic maple sugar candy in a "make and take" workshop complete with recipes to take home. Also, kids, plant your own spring seedlings to take home with you. Enjoy a hearty meal in the Museum's Granary Restaurant from Noon to 5 p.m., with maple syrup ice cream sundaes served in the ice cream parlor throughout the afternoon.

Join us for an afternoon of family fun and entertainment as we bid farewell to Winter and celebrate the arrival of Spring on the farm!

Community Resource Center hours are Mon.-Fri., 9:00 - 4:00. The CRC phone number is 428-7722.

Manchester Historical Society

The Manchester Area Historical Society met on Tuesday, March 15, at the Blacksmith Shop. In recognition of Women's History Month, Deb Havens presented an interesting and informative program on Women's Suffrage. Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton started the movement and were the biggest influences on it. Stanton was born in 1815, and Anthony, in 1820.

In the early 1800s we had an agrarian society and factories were starting to pop up. Some women worked in factories, but they had no rights. Men had control of their wives, children and property. Women were allowed to have opinions on slavery and temperance and discuss them because they were moral issues. Women were not allowed to have an opinion or speak in public on other issues. Stanton and Anthony spoke on these issues in the beginning, but soon realized that women would not be listened to unless they had the vote. The straw that broke the camel's back was when black men were given the right to vote. Most of them were slaves and they were illiterate.

It took 72 years to convince men that women should be allowed to vote. Stanton and Anthony did not live to see the 19th amendment to the Constitution passed in 1920, which finally gave women the right to vote.

The Manchester Girl Scouts held their annual family pot luck dinner on March 15 and WOW! Due to the well thought out plans of the directors, Lynn Green and Julie Mester, and all of the troops and leaders, this year's program was the best ever!

Our theme this year was camping. During this dinner, each (11 this year) troop did a song and skit production for their parents and guests. One troop even played their musical instruments for their part in the program. We have many talented people in this town and the Girl Scouts are no exception!

In the past, these troops could not be seen or heard very well during their performances due to lack of space. But, thanks to the Manchester High School for lending us their risers to stand on, each and every troop could be seen. The sound problem was taken care of by the nice sound system that the Palms family graciously loaned to us for this particular use! If you can imagine 135 Girl Scouts and their families all in The American Legion, can you imagine just how crowded we were! But, with closeness there is also togetherness!

Thank you to everyone who helped us out for this program, the American Legion of Manchester for the use of their building, and to everyone who came and enjoyed our productions! Just wait until next year. We'll be even better!

Unsung Heroes - Election Officials

Freedom Township's crew, from the left to right Jim Kress, Clerk Julie Schaible, Sara Frakes; pictured below is Lorena Wenk taking the completed ballots.

Area Township Voting Results

Area Townships turned out to voice their tax choice in the recent election.

Bridgewater Township had 54% of their 900 voters appear at the polls. 376 said yes to Proposal A and 114 nay's. Total 490 voted with no spoiled ballots. 76% yes, 24% no.

Freedom Township recorded a 58% turnout with 466 yes votes and 122 no's. Additionally 5 ballots were rejected because they were marked improperly. 79% yes, 21% no.

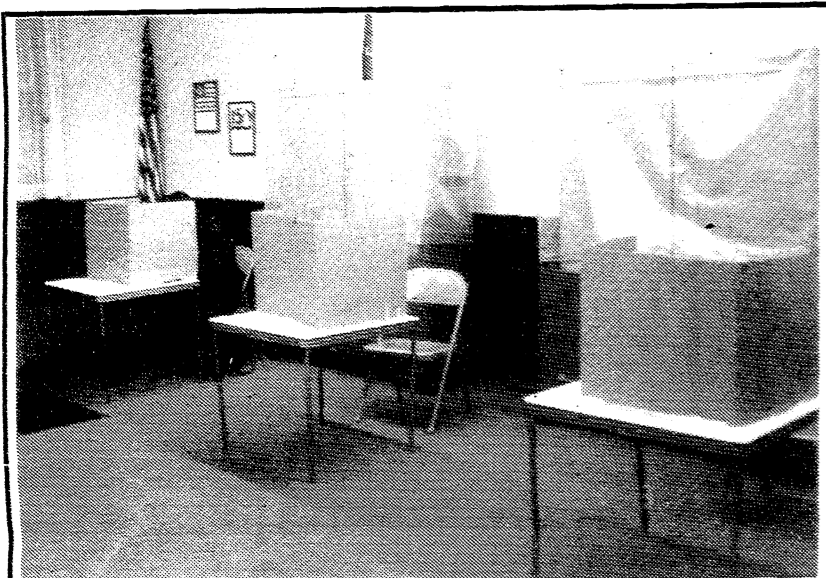

Manchester Township with 2337 registered voters recorded a 50% vote count. 870 yes, 297 no's. 74% yes, 26% no.

Sharon Township with 980 registered voters counted 426 yes votes and 115 no votes. One ballot was spoiled. 78% yes, 22% no.

Overall, the four townships recorded a 76% yes and 24% no tally.

All four Townships together have 5229 registered voters. 2793 persons cast ballots in this election for a 53% voter turnout. A point of interest: 2,138 yes ballots, or 40% of the total registered voters, determined the outcome.

Very unique voting booths for single issue ballots, saves time & space

FORMER MAYOR, JOHN
HINKLEY, ARRESTED

Former Manchester Village President John Hinkley was arrested by the State Police at his place of employment on March 2nd.

John was arrested on behalf of the American Cancer Society to raise pledges, which he was able to do in quite a short amount of time, in order to be bailed out of "Jail" at Busch's Valu-Land on Ann Arbor Saline Road. His bail was set by the Judge at $1,550. Within a couple of hours, he was out of jail and received a limousine ride back to his office, where he was able to resume his work day.

It was a tip by Marley Pagel which led the State Troopers to John. Last year she had been "arrested" by her office staff and raised $1,500. "I needed to challenge John to raise more than I had, so I had bail set at $1,550," reported Marley.
Probably more than one Manchester resident was hit up by John on that day; but if you still wish to make a pledge to the American Cancer Society you may do so by calling their office at 971-4300.

Marine Private Brian K.
Harper, son of Keith D.
Harper of Noggles Road, recently completed recruit training.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical daily military routine, and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

Pvt. Harper joined the Marine Corps in October,

News

by Howard Parr

I guess we all find ourselves wondering at times why we do things the way we do them. We went to Ann Arbor Friday expressly to get concert tickets for a Glee Club concert on April 9th. Everything went fine on the way over—found a good restaurant, had lunch, found the ticket booth in the basement of the Michigan Union. Got no parking tickets or moving violations and thought we were home free.
Half way home Lenora asked me if we had included four tickets for one of our daughter's family. Neither of us had thought of them so we had to call back and luckily could get four more tickets with the others we had bought. Why do we do things like that?

in a dead Maple tree branch, but he didn't stay. They have only used our new bluebird boxes once the last few years.
I haven't decided whether or not to take them to town. Maybe bluebirds would like that meadow behind us on Schaffer Ct.

On to the activities of the coming week for Seniors. On the 24th we start off with Craft Class at the Center at 9:30.
Lunch will be Chicken Curry to be followed at 12:30 with Bingo at the Center. At 6:00 p.m. pickup starts for our Senior Card Party at the Freedom Town Hall. Playing begins at 7:30 for those of you who might be driving on your own.

On Friday the 25th we have a full bus scheduled to leave the Center at 9:30 for a trip to Bordine's Greenhouse near Clarkston. We'll go through Holly so we may eat there and stop at their fresh fruit and vegetable market along the way. May find a new restaurant in Clarkston. If you want to go, call Erma Alber at 428-8707 to get on the waiting list—someone might cancel at the last minute and we'd sure like to take as many as we can.

Zion Lutheran Church Fun Night is re-scheduled to the 26th as I told you last week.
We will start pickup for this trip at 6:30. As usual Erma Alber will take your calls for bus service. On the 29th the menu is Jan's excellent meat loaf followed by activities at the Center for those interested in spending some time on volunteer work. The Church Women United of Manchester will sponsor a Lenten Breakfast at Bethel Church at 9:30 on Wednesday, March 30th.
Many of our membership enjoy attending these breakfasts, so I have included it in the column.

In closing, I am pleased to announce the woodchuck population of Sharon is down by one. One down and counting!

Valley Forge Stories

By Klager Kids

Dear Love,

How you doing? How are you doing with the kids? I hope you guys are all right and I hope nobody is sick. Well, I just arrived at Valley Forge. When we walked around the British we tricked them and walked around the town twice. I have no shoes, no shirts, and I am starving.

Valley Forge February, 1777

Dear Dad and Mom,

The conditions here are horrible. Everybody including me have no shoes, shirts, or food. Lots of soldiers are dying of starvation. The temperature is 21 below 0. We get water and flour for meals. My feet are frostbitten and they are bleeding.

Baron Von Steuben, our new trainer is really helping out. He is a great trainer. We know how to march, shoot, and defend ourselves. Even if he trains us well we are still dying.

So far 147 men have died. I am lucky, I'm still alive. I almost beat my best friend just for a drink of water or a bite of food. I don't know when the revolution will end. I hope soon.

Love, Justin (Justin Tinkle)

Local Students Compete in Regional Skills Competition

Students in the Career & Technical Education programs of the South & West Washtenaw Consortium recently competed in regional level VICA (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America) competition.

1. In the Precision Machining Skills Competition Gary Fritts (Saline) and Toby St. Charles (Manchester) placed 2nd and 3rd.

2. In the Cosmetology VICA Competition, Vanessa Green (Dexter) and her model Amy Saffold (Saline) placed first in the stylist competition.

3. From the Welding and Fabrication class taught at Saline High School, Robert London (Saline) placed 2nd in tungsten inert gas welding (TIG) and Doug Mayher (Milan) placed 3rd in shielded metal arc welding (STICK).

Contestants are required to demonstrate their skills by taking written technical tests, reading blueprints, measuring and demonstrating the ability to construct a weldment from prints in the horizontal, vertical and overhead position.

4. In the Automotive Technology Competitions eight students competed at Washtenaw Community College in four areas. The contests reflect the requirements of the Michigan Auto Mechanic Certification Tests.

In the Master Technician contest Jeff Shoemaker and Scott Peterson (Both from Chelsea) placed 1st and 2nd. Eric Kalmbach (Saline) and Chuck Alexander (Chelsea) placed 1st and 4th respectively in the Brake Technician category.

Local Students Attend State FFA Convention

Agriscience teacher Nancy Defever for Manchester and Saline accompanied several FFA students to the state Conference held at Michigan State University March 7-9, 1994.

Manchester FFA Chapter participants: Justin Porter and John Schiel were delegates. Andrea Clark took the proficiency award in the Specialty Animal competition.

Saline FFA Chapter: Amy Rentschler and Jason Jedele were delegates. Steven Rothfuss took proficiency award in Sheep competition. The Parliamentary Procedure team captured a Silver Award and included Jeff Feldkamp, Mandi Phillips, Mike Finkbeiner, Troy Gordon, Kyle Weidmayer and Brian Corbitt.

Outstanding Juniors were Jeff Feldkamp and Nate Girbach and Brian Corbitt received the State FFA Degree Recognition.

School Board President, Patricia Sahakian, said that an Athletic Policy was to have been developed several years ago and because of the changes in personnel it has never been accomplished.

Board Member Joe Turk thought that Hanover - Horton had some responsibility in the melee and that Niedzwiecki should contact Hanover - Horton's administration to see if they were going to do anything about their part in the incident. Superintendent Niedzwiecki stated that no Hanover - Horton players had been suspended.

Sahakian said the Board could not discuss any issue of individuals without them being present, and any discussion with staff members would have to be conducted in closed door session due to union contract.

No timetable was established for the completion of Kluwe's motion. The board then met with Niedzwiecki in closed session for his personal performance evaluation.

Patrick Grady at Manchester High School

Patrick Grady's presentation to the High School students included activities for those students who serve in leadership positions.

Student evaluations indicated that students received information that will help them develop skills which can be used to make good decisions.

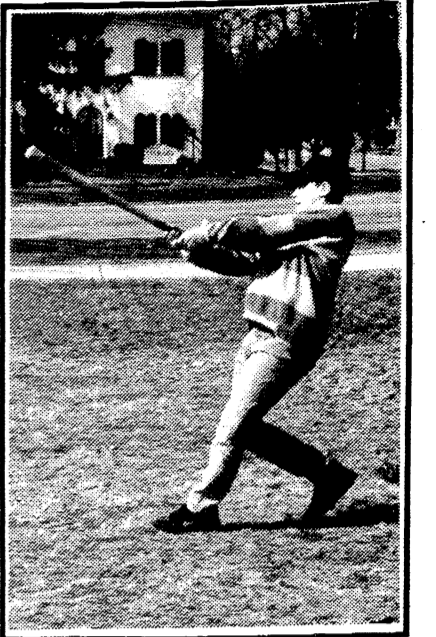

Approximately 70 adults attended the evening presentations. Sixteen organizations prepared booths which provided useful materials for parents. Parents rated the program presentation as good to excellent. Using humor, Patrick maintained a captive audience. As one person expressed, "Sometimes things become so warped out of perspective with work, family, chores, and trying to fulfill basic personal needs. This helped bring things back on line".

Going to Dacotah
Dec. 1879
by John Emory Irwin
John Emory Irwin's Cousin Sam Raue moved to Dacotah territory in 1879 and JEI wrote the following in his ledger book, of 1873 to 1906. John Emory Irwin's father and Sam Raue's father married sisters of the Hunter family and thus were cousins by marriage and apparently good friends.

And so we shall go to Dacota
Old Sharon's been a good place to stay
While Father & Mother lived over the way
And we'll cherish still the staid old town
With its barren hillsides rugged & brown
And its willing hands & nimble feet
And blue jean jackets where true hearts beat
But we'll say good bye for our joy's complete
If only we get to Dacotah

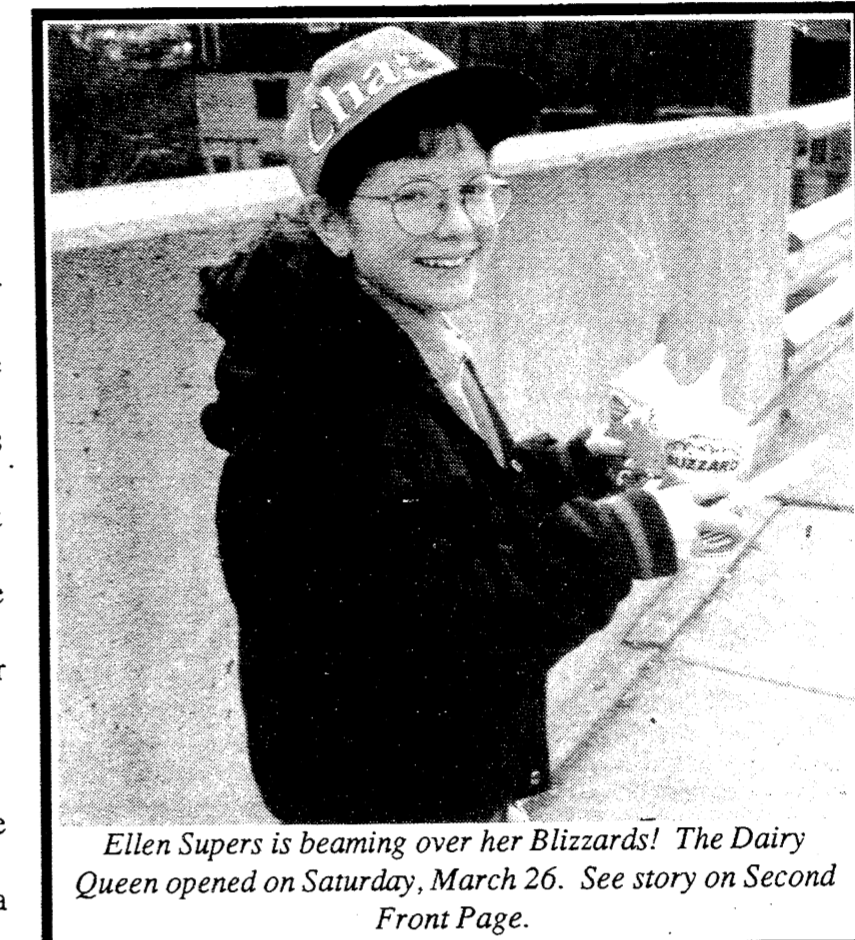

John Emory Irwin, 1917

We'll take the cars by the early train
And sing a glad song with a gay refrain
For Sharon is sending its quota
We'll build us a home on the prairie sweet
And plow a great field & sow it with wheat
We'll harvest the grain & burn the straw
And we'll get us a wife if we can; but pshaw!
They come back for that from Dacotah

For the North Sharon Echo
There's a gray old house on the brow of the hill
That savors of home from eave to sill
There are cherry trees here and apple trees there And billows of blossoms every where
Where the spring time comes with its balmy air
But its quiet & dull on the dear old farm
And were going out west with Mel & Carm

In an early day our fathers came
To the Michigan woods in search of Fame!
It must have been that for it couldn't have been
They expected to live, & thrive & win,
On these rugged hills and heap up the "Tin",
But the fences are old & the buildings too,
And we are going out west & have them all new,
And so we shall go to Dacotah.

And when we get there with Mel & Carm
We'll gather us in a beautiful farm,
And build us a cottage cozy & warm
We'll build it wide with a big front door,
For when we get riches a wonderful store,
And legal tenders a bushel or more
Were coming back with a coach & four
And take you all there to Dacotah.

MHS Key Club Rock-a-thon

Manchester High School Key Club is sponsoring their second Rock-A-thon, to raise funds for CPR Training for Manchester Community School Bus drivers. The Key Club sponsored CPR Training in October, 1993 for School educators.

The Rock-A-Thon will be held at MHS on Saturday evening, April 9, beginning at 8:00. Key Clubbers and their guests will rock until 8:00 Sunday morning.

1993 Rock-A-Thon was very successful and lots of fun for Key Clubbers and their sponsor, the Manchester Kiwanis Club.

Chairman Pat Steele is inviting people in the community to make donations to sponsor students so those rocking chairs keep on rocking all night.

To make the project less time consuming, Key Clubbers will accept the donations at the time sponsors sign the Rock-a-thon sponsor form.

In addition, Key Clubbers are raffling a new rocking chair to be given away April 10. The chair is on display at Great Lakes Bancorp and tickets are available there for a $2.00 donation.

For more information, contact Pat Steele at 428-7319 or the CRC, 428-7722.
