WE NEED YOUR OPINION:

How do you feel the recent incidents of Malicious Destruction of Property at the Middle School and High School should be handled by the school board? Should parents be held responsible and accountable for the actions of their children, as well as the juveniles themselves? Please feel free to comment further in writing. Your comments need not be signed. A box will be available at the front desk of the ENTERPRISE. Or call us at 428-8173. We will convey the message to the Board!

SHARON CHURCH SCENE OF MORE VANDALISM

The call came in to Central Dispatch at 4:48 a.m. An unidentified female called from a pay phone at Wacker's on the corner of M-52 and Pleasant Lake Road. Flames were visible at the Sharon United Methodist Church.

When the Fire Department arrived on the scene, they found that a fire had been set at the north door of the kitchen. A large quantity of flammable substance was used and had been spread around the west side of the building as well. There was no evidence of attempted entry.

However, as the firefighters went around the west side of the building to douse the flames, they discovered more than just fire. Black spray paint had been used to desecrate the brick walls and the window sills on that side of the church. Symbols and shocking phrases representing Satan and Nazism were painted on the outside walls of the church.

The fire was quickly put out with little smoke damage to anything outside the kitchen area. A cleaning company spent Saturday removing the offensive graffiti. The hurt and outrage generated by this vicious attack upon a church will not be so easily expurgated.

Investigation centered on malcontents, juveniles and reports of Satanic cult members. All leads are being processed through Sgt. Werner and Lt. Fink at the Zeeb Road Station. At last report, no promising evidence had produced substantial leads.

Manchester's insular status is shaken by the recent wave of malicious destruction towards property both public and private. The questions are being asked, "What is happening in our community?" "How can this happen to us?" "Why is it happening?"

Vigilance on the part of community members as well as demanding accountability from perpetrators will prevent this activity from proliferating. Burying our heads in the sand and saying, "This can't be happening" is an open door to more disorder.

Second Front Page: Repairing the Infra-structure

If you have noticed lately there has been Street pavement patching, sidewalk replacement and new curb added around the Village.

John Schiabele Masonry, under contract with the Village of Manchester has been making those changes. There is a lot more than just pouring new concrete however, The Village has in their current budget the sum total of $8,200.00 set aside for contract services, under the streets and roads section. $4,200.00 for outside contracts and $4,000.00 for in house costs incurred by the Department of Public Works (DPW).

Sidewalk replacement, street patching and curb replacement is determined on a need basis, according to Village Manager Jeff Wallace. Determining factors other than patching replacement are based on, complaints, high traffic areas or residents requesting replacement. Cost sharing with the property owner, on a 50/50 basis, is the most common method of paying for the work accomplished. The total cost of new sidewalk for example is $3.35 per square foot. The property owner pays $ 1.675 and the Village from appropriated funds

$ 1.675. The $3.35/ sq. ft. price has been arrived at as $1.35/ sq. ft. DPW charges and $2.00/ sq. ft. contractor bid price.

DPW work performed; Removal of old sidewalk, grading under the walk, furnishing sand fill if needed, clean-up, topsoil disturbed ground and seeding as needed. This includes necessary equipment, labor and materials.

The concrete contractor is responsible for furnishing all labor, materials and related equipment. In the Village work the contractor must first mobilize and schedule with the DPW. Furnish the sidewalk forms and set them to the proper elevation. Fine grade the earth between the forms, furnish and pour the concrete, finish the surface and provide a membrane cure coating, if weather requires, remove the forms. No easy task!

Tree roots create problems for a lot of sidewalks around town. This year Ron's Tree Service removed roots, by grinding, that were causing the sidewalks to heave. Ron does not think that the grinding will adversely affect the trees longevity. Pavement patching on West Main over the repaired water main break was also accomplished. In addition a raised curb was installed at the corner of Elton and West Main to control traffic. Heavy trucks making the turn had been cutting the corner and encroaching on private property.

Editorial / Opinion

Editor, The Manchester Enterprise:

I would like to take issue with last week's brief editorial on two counts. First, it implied that the fourteen year old miscreants who trashed the Middle School could only be dealt with in one or the other of two opposing ways: suspension or public chastisement. Certainly, their offense is a serious one and requires serious and thoughtful consideration by the wisest among us. But let's think outside the boundaries of these simplistic alternatives in order that compassion not be automatically overruled in the heat of the moment.

Secondly, the editorial fails to acknowledge that we, the community at large, may in various and obscure ways have failed a youth, a family, a generation, and ultimately, ourselves - all of us.

And, while on the subject of vandalism (with pen still in hand), I want to commend my neighbor, Marsha Chartrand, for her historical and close range perspective on the uses and abuses of Kirk Park. I, for one, agree with her sentiment that there are many legitimate uses of the park which can not only be lived with but applauded as beneficial to the community. However, I can - as can other of our neighbors - bear witness to her tales of late night abuses which the largely unused parking area has invited to the park. I can add that on several occasions cars have been driven diagonally across my corner yard, leaving deep ruts in the lawn. The baseball parents and friends still park on the grass and only as a last resort walk the short distance to and from the paved lot. The tennis courts are seldom used for tennis.

Whatever the causes of youth's disregard of property - be it thoughtlessness, carelessness, youthful high spirits, boredom, peer pressures or even willful destruction - the problem is endemic and needs to be addressed at the root level. The problems that grow and flourish above ground in locked school buildings and public parks long after nightfall are symptoms of deeper failures for which we all should feel responsible - even though the park was "paved with good intentions".

The challenge is to everyone; young and old, parent and teacher, old-time and newcomer, rich and poor, to work and plan together and individually for a community that can accommodate its youth - in all phases of its restless bewilderment.

Editorial

Emory Garlick

Manchester Community Schools has developed a policy for dealing with infractions of their code of conduct. I applaud them for the diligence and thought placed into that set of guidelines. However, the Staff, School Board, a preponderance of Students and the Community at large probably could not have conceived of the amount of carnage created by two 14 year olds. I know this editor never expected to view such damage to our school buildings. Nor could I believe that some youngsters could destroy sheep on a neighbor's farm.

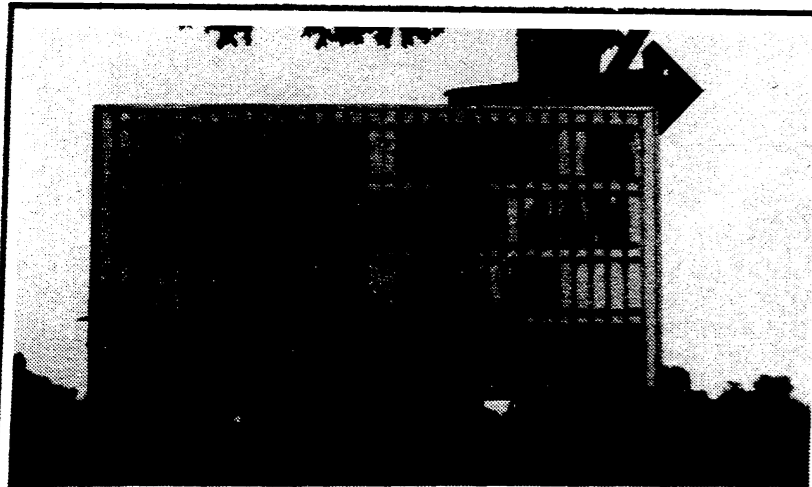

In another, possibly related incident: I could not believe my eyes when observing the desecration of the Sharon United Methodist Church. The spray painted swastika, triple 6's, dig war, Jesus Fags, inverted crosses and attempt to burn the building. There is no way of knowing who the perpetrators were of such damage.

Several people stopped by the Enterprise or talked to us on the street saying that, "More stringent action must be taken by the School Board." The consensus seems to be that we the taxpayers feel, "Prosecute the offenders and hold the parents responsible by what ever legal remedy necessary." Other concerns were that, "If our (school) insurance pays for all the repairs then our premium goes up, without holding students and parents accountable, who pays? We do." Another expressed idea was to have the 14 year old placed with the convict work crews and work off their debt to our society. (I don't agree with that one, as a wayward youth could be exposed to poor influences.)

Something has to be done to set an example! It will take a very creative and understanding Judge to properly discipline the 14 year old's. I do believe the School Board should prosecute with the utmost vigor. What do you think? Let us know at the Enterprise and we will present your thoughts to the Board of Education.

It's a Grand Night for Singing...

It is an idea whose time has come! For several years now the Gazebo Concert organizers have been trying to put together for one of the concerts a "Manchester Community Sing"—a night when amateur but sincere singers in our community could take the stage and both present an evening of enjoyable entertainment for others, plus experience the fun of performing for themselves.

Well, this year it finally has happened. Under the skilled direction of Linda Jones, and with accompanist Janice Clark, Manchester's most sincere singers have been practicing steadily in preparation for this week's performance. Presenting...The Gazebo Singers!!! Come enjoy this one-time-only show, which will combine all the elements of good entertainment: talent, energy, enthusiasm, timing, and taste.

These folks will give it their all starting at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 7th, at the Gazebo on West Main near the corner of Macomb.

On the stage also will be a group known as the Swing Singers. They are from Ann Arbor and have worked with "our" director and accompanist in a process similar to the Gazebo Singers—but with the goal of singing together regularly, not just one-night-only. The evening promises to be great fun and musically enjoyable. Come one, come all!

Remember, Gazebo concerts are sponsored by the Recreation Task Force, a group of folks just like you who volunteer a little of their time and talent to make activities happen in the community. If you are interested in being a part of the Recreation Task Force, call 428-7722.

Rain or shine, Gazebo Concert shows will go on! The rain location is at the K of C Hall. Same time - 7:30 PM - same day.

So grab your lawn chair or blanket and stroll down to the Gazebo this Thursday, July 7th, at 7:30 p.m. You'll be treated to a concert no one will ever have the opportunity to see again: The Gazebo Singers and The Swing Singers, on stage here in Manchester!

Next week there will be no Gazebo Concert because everyone will be busy at the Manchester Community Fair. See you at the Fair. And then see you back at the Gazebo on the night of the Chicken Broil, Thursday July 21st!

Pastor Scott Engelman Journeys On

Another pastor in our midst celebrated his last Sunday with his congregation on July 3. Pastor Scott Engelman is leaving Faith Community Church, and Manchester, to move with his family to Morrison, Colorado where he will be studying at Colorado Christian University under Dr. Larry Crabb.

"Dr. Crabb is a Christian psychologist, and one of the foremost Biblical counselors of our time," explained Engelman. "I will be entering an intensive one-year program and next May will be graduating with a Masters Degree in Biblical Counseling."

Questions about what Pastor Engelman will do after May of next year have certainly occurred to him and to his family. "We have come to realize that we need to take one day at a time; I finally understood that worrying what I would do when I graduate is futile, when I haven't even arrived yet."

One thing they will be doing for the coming year is relying on a great deal on their faith, and the faith that their congregation at Faith Community Church has developed for them and in them. "We will need to trust in God in a new and fresh way. If He is really who we say He is; if He is really capable of taking care of us, we will have the opportunity to see the reality of God at work. It's really quite an exciting prospect for us."

When you look at it that way, it is an exciting prospect. With their four young children, Scott and Joy Engelman will be living without a pay check - which to most families would be a rather frightening prospect. To the Engelmans, it is a challenge: Is God good enough?

Scott & Joy Engelman with Scotty, 8; Chrissa, 6; Kevin, 4; and Kiersten, 3.

They feel fortunate to have the support of their church family and their own families in this new venture in faith, and are trusting that God will, indeed, care for them during the months to come.

"A lot of my own journey is wrapped up in this as I take my family along with me," Engelman commented. "This seems to be the direction in which God is moving me. In my nine years as pastor here, I have counseled many people who are hurting deeply. It is easy to put on a mask, act like everything is OK. You rearrange the furniture on the outside, so to speak, but on the inside you are still the same hurting person." By studying to be a Biblical counselor, Engelman hopes to be able to help others to trust in God. By living out his own faith while attending school, he will have a deeper understanding of what it takes to make a change in your outlook on life.

Meanwhile, Faith Community Church will be testing their own faith and community during the coming months as they search for a new pastor. There is no one "waiting in the wings" to take Pastor Engelman's place. They are likely to be without a pastor for up to a year, as they begin writing to seminaries for likely prospects.

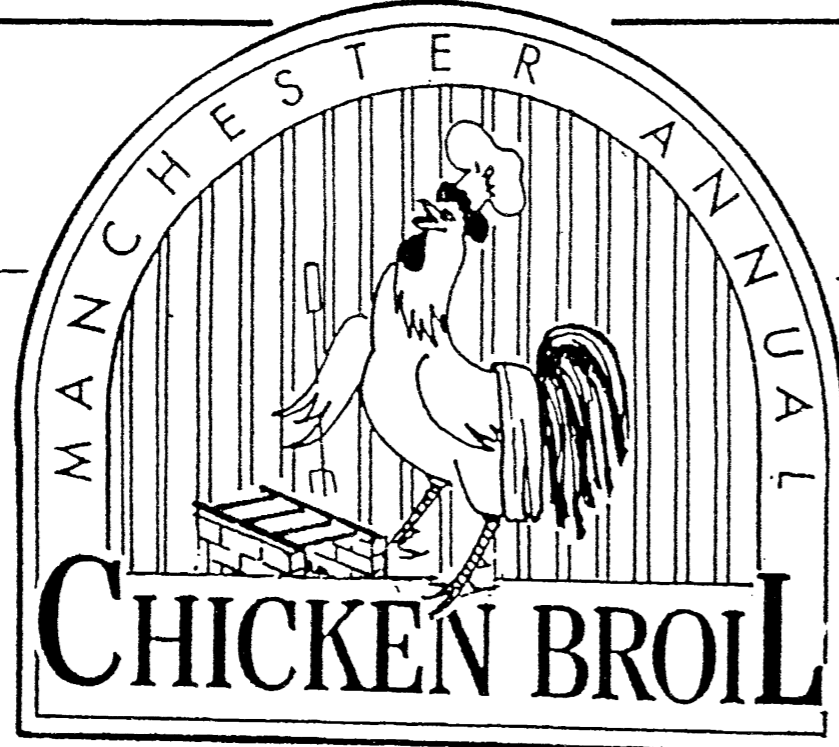

As a church, their ministry has focused strongly on a commitment to youth under Pastor Engelman's leadership. That commitment will continue, in the form of AWANA, and also in outreach to the community. They have a continuing vision for a kids ministry.

The church is also revising their constitution and looking at what the Bible says a church is to be. In these terms, Faith Community Church is formulating a vision of what they will be in the future.

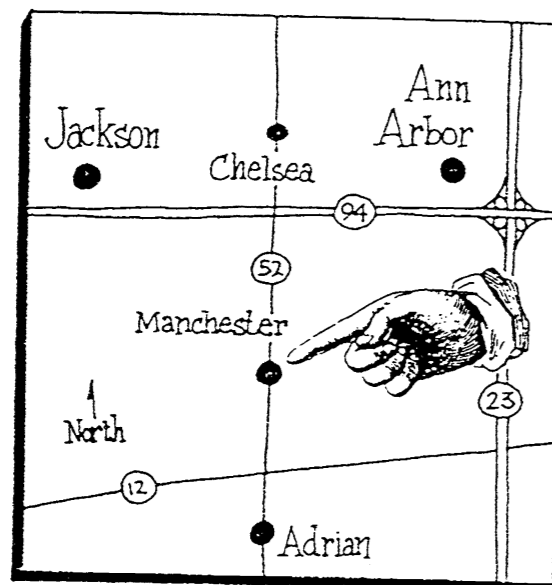

As the Engelmans forge along their "bittersweet path" - bitter because they leave behind not only friends but families as well for an unknown existence; but sweet because they know God has planned great things for them - the community they leave behind, both Faith Community and the community of Manchester, are richer for their presence among us the past nine years, and wish them Godspeed along that path.

-MJC

FIREWORKS A SUCCESS!!

A beautiful night brought out record crowds to watch the Sunday night show of the fireworks. The spectators dug deep into their pockets and made next years a reality. Do to the huge crowd, parking and traffic was a problem, but the excellent work by the sheriff's department kept it moving. How is the Men's Club able to pull off an event this size - the communication and cooperation between the Club, the Fire Department, the Village, the Sheriffs' Department and the residents is great and you don't have to go through 5 people to talk to the person you want. THANKS MANCHESTER FOR MAKING IT A SUCCESS!!

First Place: Iwo Jima Memorial, by the Tom Taddonio family

Third place tie: USS Freedom, by the Curley family

Pirates at sea - The Evans family - tied for fourth place

The Enterprise received many calls over the past week and weekend, asking about Manchester's Fourth of July Parade. No parade on Main Street, as in years gone by; but Manchester did have a parade!

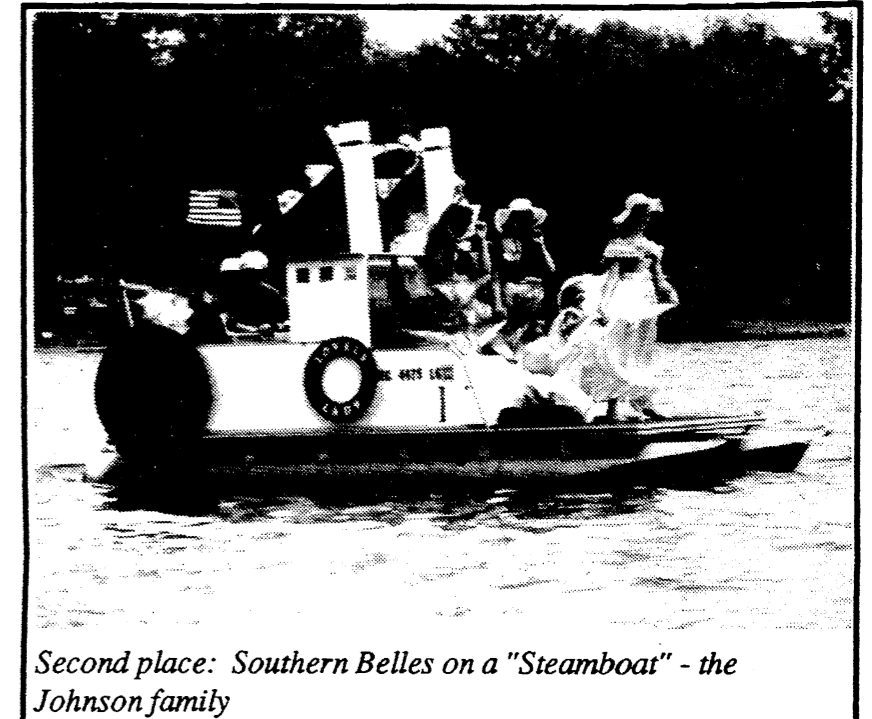

The Pleasant Lake Property Owners Association sponsored their annual Boat Parade on the lake on July 4 with 19 entries. The Boat Parade has been an institution at Pleasant Lake for longer than anyone can remember.

Boats were judged on Patriotic theme, originality, colorfulness, and were ranked from 1-10 by a panel of eight judges. The totals were compiled and results tabulated as follows: First Place, Tom Taddonio family; Second Place, Johnson family; Third Place, Curley family and Goff family tied; and Fourth Place was a tie between the Lusks and the Evans'.

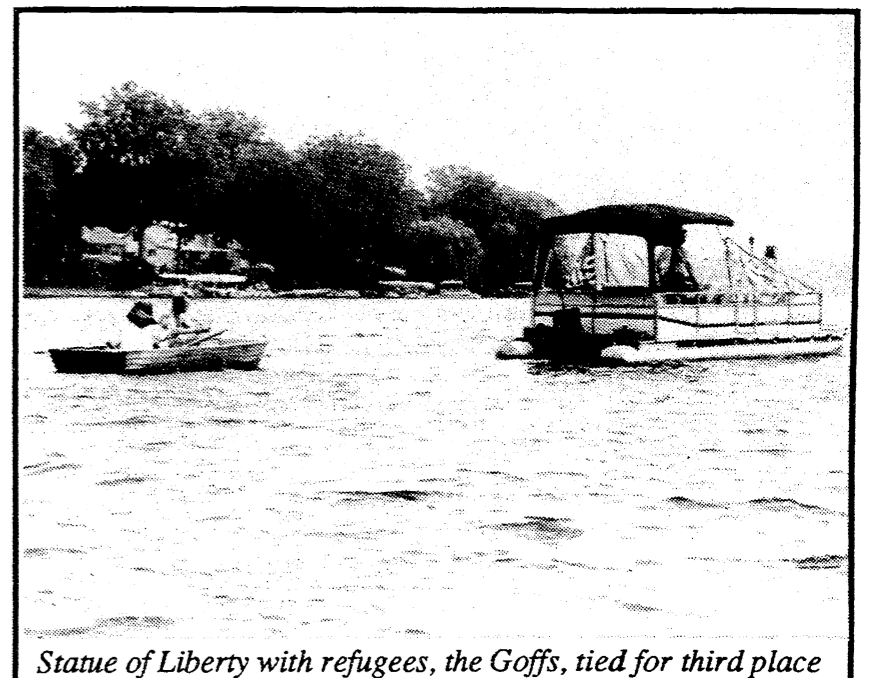

According to Catherine Roberts, lots of prizes were donated by area businesses and private parties. Following the judging, there were prizes and ice cream for all participants, thanks to the generous donations of these area businesses: Back Door Party Store, the Fredonia Store, the Aura Inn, Meijer Thrifty Acres, and Lidell Specialty Products.

The decorated boats made a colorful spectacle on the lake as they cruised slowly around, waving at onlookers and obviously having a great time. Other boats included a Christmas boat, a party boat, and many other patriotic "floats". According to Doris Taddonio, another organizer, this year's boat parade had a very high level of creativity, and the competition gets tougher every year.

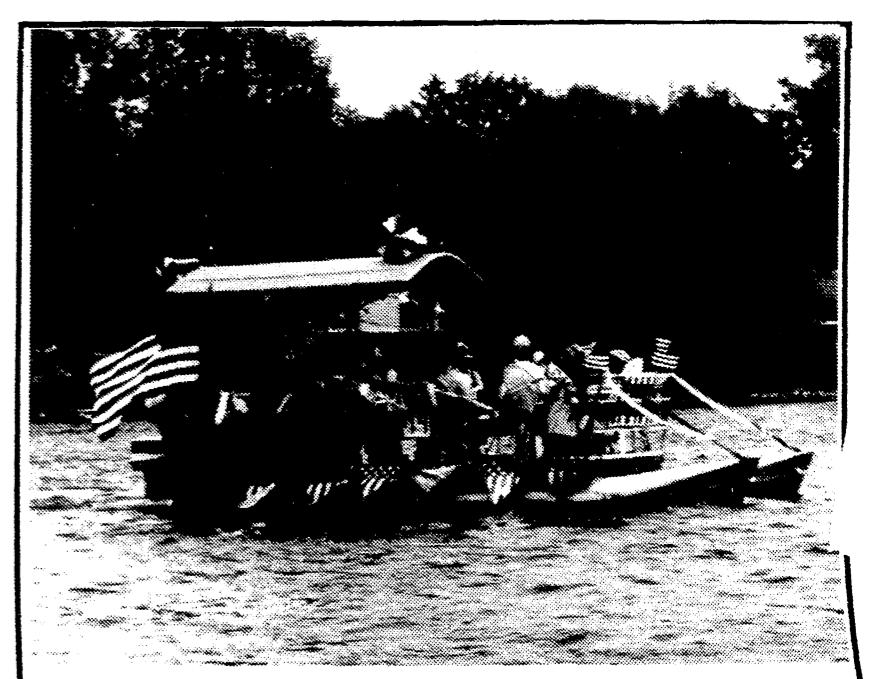

Thanks to the PLPOA for another great parade!

Second place: Southern Belles on a "Steamboat" - the Johnson family

Statue of Liberty with refugees, the Goffs, tied for third place

Happy Fourth of July - the Lusks - fourth place tie

Teen Dance Sponsored by Recreation Task Force a Resounding Success!

About 98 kids in attendance at the Teen Dance on Saturday, July 2, guaranteed that the Recreation Task Force will be planning at least one more dance this summer. "We were really pleased," commented Anita Hosmer. "I was so impressed with these young people and also the commitment that the parent chaperones showed by helping out." Anita said she only had to pick up one paper plate off the street after everyone had left.

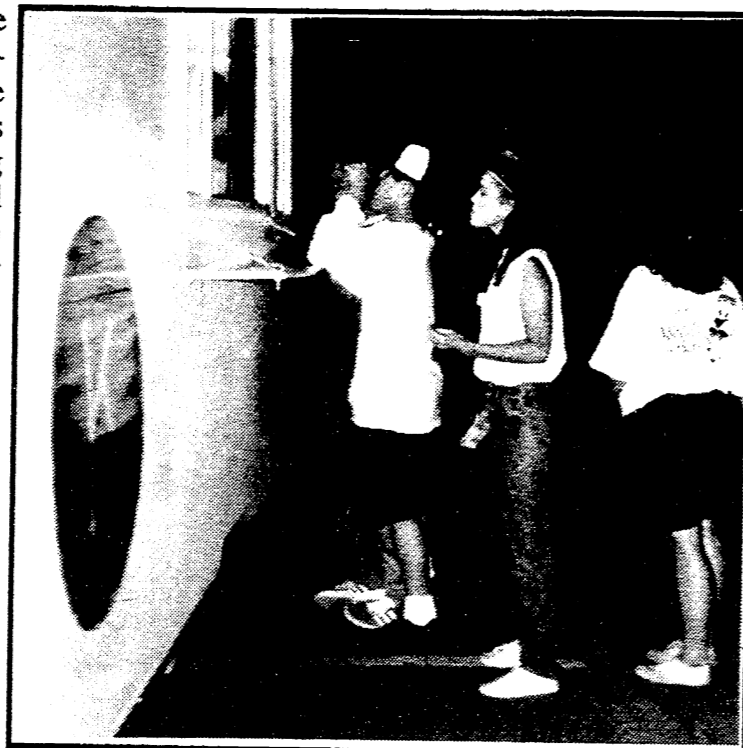

The Recreation Task Force looks forward to an even larger turnout next time and they plan to do a lot more for the kids and give them "something to do in Manchester".

The Kiwanis wagon was there to provide refreshments and Don Limpert allowed the MRTF to use the porch and area surrounding the mill. Electricity for the DJ and the Kiwanis was provided by the mill, and Mr. Limpert's cooperation was much appreciated.

Deputy Angela Hunt, the WCSO officer on duty on mid-night shift, said that the crowd dissipated quickly after the closing and were very well behaved. The cooperation of the Sheriff Department, the Village Council and the DPW crews, especially Gary Wiedmayer, were instrumental to the success of the dance, Anita mentioned.

"The ground rules we set up went real well, so we will continue with the same format next time," she said.

KUDOS to Anita and Sue Gisting for organizing and carrying out a great time for our youth. -MJC

The Manchester Summer Festival is coming!

The Manchester Summer Festival will once again take over Main street on Saturday, July 23 and be filled with lots of fun for the whole family. It will be filled with many artisans and craftspeople from young to not-so-young displaying their wares of all kinds. There will be paintings & quilts, wood crafts & hooked rugs, dried floral arrangements, fabric bunnies & Santas, crocheted afghans & doll clothes, embellished t-shirts & hats, jewelry of all kinds, hand carved birds & canes, porcelain dolls & potpourri, handmade candles, resins & ceramic items & quilting (what's that? - it's the art of paper filigree) and yes, even custom made pool/billiard cues. There is so much to see and choose from you need to plan a full day in Manchester. We have many of our regular crafters back and also a good variety of new to fill Main Street.

And the sidewalks will be filled with great bargains from the local businesses. There will be grab bags, sale items & items specially marked down just for the Summer Fest; be sure to check them all out. Many of the eateries and restaurants will be having lunch and dinner specials and home-made goodies too! You will be able to dine outside in front of many of the establishments.

The children's rides and games will be back this year with a moonwalk & pony rides and we will also have many games on the bridge.

The Fireside Heritage Crafters will once again join us and treat everyone to the crafts which our ancestors did. They will be demonstrating spinning, quilting, weaving and rug hooking. Be sure to stop by and check out their intricate crafting in front of the old Black Sheep.

The Manchester Historical Society will have the Blacksmith Shop open to the public on both Thursday and Saturday. There are lots of interesting Manchester memories and collections in the shop and there will be Historical Society members ready and willing to answer questions on Manchester's history.

This year the Kool Cruisers Custom & Classic Car show join the Summer Fest which we are very excited about. This show is sponsored by Midwest Ford and is in its fifth year. We will line these wonderful cars right down Main Street from Clinton to Macomb to make the Summer Fest that much more enjoyable for all you car buffs. So bring your family along and while someone is looking at all the arts & crafts you can be Cruising up and down Main Street checking out the cars!

Entertainment this year has been expanded thanks to Mark Palms - Manchester's own Raisin Picker. Mark has lined up music to begin at 10:00 A.M. and go right on through the evening with only a break for the Rubber Duckie contest and then we'll be entertained with the Raisin Pickers from 6 - 8 p.m. and from 8 - midnight we have a new surprise - N.E.

This Goz band from Lansing. This group just recently formed from many veteran musicians playing all kinds of music. Be sure to bring your dancing shoes along. This year the street dance will be open to the whole family just as it was last year and is FREE to the entire community!!

As you can see, the Manchester Summer Festival has grown again! This is our way of saying Thank You to our community for supporting Manchester all through the year. Support Manchester and check out all of our advertisers. The Manchester Summer Festival has Something for Everyone to Enjoy. Come Join in the Fun!!

Civil War Scrapbook - by John Emory Irwin

Camp, 20th Mich., Battery No. 9 December 26, 1864

Dear Sister -

I've been threatening to write to you for several days but when I get just ready something would turn up to prevent and I ain't sure now, that I'll write half a dozen consecutive lines. Chaplain Day's Father of Capt. Day of our Regt., came to the Regt. today and brought a large package to the Regt. consisting of tobacco and stationary which he distributed to the Regt. - or rather to the Orderly Sergeants. & this is one of the sheets. It ain't very good but is very acceptable. So is the tobacco, the use of which is very prevalent in the army, hardly a soldier but uses it more or less, generally more, though, and when they get out of quids it's always the first thing provided for.

We had another lively time this forenoon, cannonading. The rebs threw their missiles with more than usual accuracy. Several burst over the fort and some came in without bursting at all and none of them did any injury. It is said we have new men in our front, some of Longstreet's Corps we most always find him where we go. The rebs were deserting every night, like sixty, and I guess they were relieved and sent to some place where desertions were less handy. Seven came in to our Brigade in one night and the same night there came eighteen and one officer into our Div. They say that into Butler's line they came by the dozen. We can see Butler's lookout from here in fair days, looming above the trees. Really, my pen is getting so poor I'll have to have a new one and write with a pencil till I get one and to cap the climax, my portfolio fell off the bunk into the dirt and lay there half the night for ought I know, but I can't afford to throw away this sheet of paper and commence on another. Chapman has a furlough to go home for twenty days. I most wish I had one but I suppose I couldn't get it unless I had some important business, which I haven't, I'm going to send a set of Chess men by Chapman and have him mail them to you from Wayne, where he is going. I meant to send them for a New Year's present but I couldn't do them up to suit me and send them by mail without a little pasteboard box to put them in, and I couldn't get one here very handy, and now this chance is my opportunity. I got a letter from Aunt Olive and a pair of socks, Christmas. Ain't she just the best aunt, though?

John E. Irwin

20th Mich. Vols., Battery No. 9 January 6, 1865

Dear Sister -

I sat down yesterday afternoon with the intention of writing to you and upon finishing the above elaborate sketch I was unceremoniously called upon to go and draw our ration of wood and distribute it in the rain. Oh! I got disgusted with the idea of trying to write and threw it aside. Now I'll pick it up and though I haven't a thing to write I'll just say I'm well and still in the land of the living. I got Mother's last letter the other day, but I haven't got your last one yet.

Mother says you've been sick. I hope you get well again. I'd have given anything to have been home during the holidays but it's no use. Before I can go I have to get Capt's permission and then if the Major says "yes", and the Brigade Commander says "yes", and the Division Commander says "yes", and the Corp. Commander says "yes", and then if Gen. Meade says "yes", too, then I can go. They haven't any of them said "yes" yet, because I haven't asked them, but in seven short months if Providence should spare me so long I can venture home without any furlough. Let me see. What'll I write now? We mustered again the other day and made our Pay rolls and are now patiently waiting for Uncle Samuel to send us our last four months ration of greenbacks. All the boys most, are becoming land-holders. An agent for the State, Minnesota, is Chaplain in a Minnesota Regt. in the 2nd Corps. and Chaplain Jones is a sort of agent for him, and for $20 the soldier gets a duplicate which at the land office draws a deed for 160 acres of land in Martin Co., Minnesota. Four boys of our Co. have taken a whole section; it is the fourth county from the west side and the southern tier of counties in the state. I haven't become a proprietor, yet, but I have thought some about it. You know the dignity of being a landowner would be worth $20, at least. It seemed so at first thought but I don't really know as it would. Tomorrow is the Sabbath and instead of having preaching, as we ought to, we will have inspection. I haven't heard a sermon in two months or more.

I went back to the rear, Christmas, and found the old 3rd Division Hospital where it stood in June. The little head-board stood there unmolested, and the same old pine tree that holds the sign board keeps guard there, still. And of the fifty or more who were buried there in June, only one or two have been removed. I planted fresh cedar boughs by the grave wondering if I should ever see again the spot hallowed by so many sacred memories. It's getting late and I must stop so Good Night.

Affectionately,
John E. Irwin

CALL BOX USED

New arrival refuses to wait for assistance

Jeremiah Isaac Woodward was born virtually on the steps of the Village hall. Actually Jeremiah was born in his parents, Mary and Jerry Woodward, mini-van at approximately 5:45 AM, Thursday, June 30.

Mrs. Woodward went into labor about 4:30 AM. The Woodwards and three of their other children boarded their mini-van and headed for the hospital. It became quickly apparent to Mary Woodward that the baby would not wait until they could get to Chelsea Community Hospital. The Woodwards stopped at the Village Hall, the sub-station for the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. Using the call box at the front door, which reads: IF BUILDING IS LOCKED, PUSH RED BUTTON FOR POLICE ASSISTANCE, the call was made for assistance.

Manchester Assistant Fire Chief Gale Koebbe was summoned by the dispatcher. He stated, "We were out of the fire barn in 90 seconds, within 150 yards of the call box when the dispatcher called and told us the baby had been born".

Paramedics from Huron Valley Ambulance service transported mother and new son to the hospital. Mary Woodward said; "It was a great delivery, it was quick though." At last report the family was doing just fine. THE CALL BOX IS THERE AWAITING THE NEXT EMERGENCY.

The Walker Tavern Historic Complex in Brooklyn will present 19th Century Industries Day on Saturday, July 16, 1994, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Located in Michigan's "Irish Hills" about 35 miles southwest of Ann Arbor, Walker Tavern will feature special activities for children and demonstrations by craftsmenplying their trades. There will be harness makers, quilters, furniture makers, a blacksmith, children's games and kitchen industries.

Of special interest to visitors will be 19th century farm animals brought to the park by members of the American Livestock Breeds Conservancy, a group dedicated to saving rare breeds from extinction.

The Walker Tavern Historic Complex presents the history of Michigan's stagecoach era. At the Visitor Center, exhibits focus on roads and travel in the mid-19th century, pre-Civil War history and the Walker family.

The historic tavern includes period rooms including a parlor, barroom/post office and kitchen that offer hands-on activities. In the barn are exhibits related to travel and surveying.

Located at the junction of US-12 and M-50, the complex is open daily from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. through Labor Day. Admission to the complex, parking and all special events are free.

Hayes State Park is just seven miles away. Lakes, antique shops, hiking trails and restaurants are also within short driving distances. Visitors are encouraged to bring cameras, walking shoes and picnics but are reminded there are no modern services available.

Walker Tavern is one of nine field sites within the Michigan Historical Museum system operated by the Michigan Department of State's Bureau of Michigan History. The Department of State is the official state agency responsible for preserving and interpreting Michigan's past and helping people discover, enjoy and find inspiration in their heritage.

In addition to administering the Michigan Historical Museum system, the bureau administers the State Archives of Michigan, archaeology, historic preservation and publications programs, including Michigan History Magazine.

The bureau is supported in its efforts by the Michigan Historical Commission, the Michigan Historical Center Foundation, the Friends of Michigan History and the Docent Guild.

SUMMER'S HERE!

MANCHESTER COMMUNITY FAIR 12th - 16th

MANCHESTER CHICKEN BROIL 21st

THE MANCHESTER SUMMER FESTIVAL 23rd

Bird's Eye View of the Fair Grounds from the Ferris Wheel

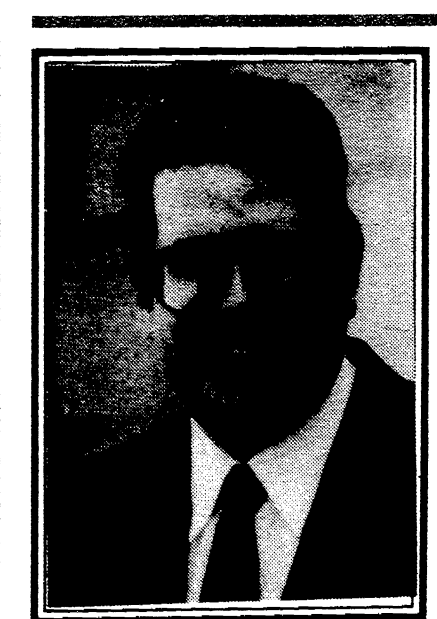

Just can't wait to get a plate full of that finger-lickin' chicken!

John Williams, singing Manchester's Own Song - "It's Paradise"

First comes the Manchester Community Fair!
 It is that magnificent time of year for Manchester residents and guests - that time when the kids, both big and little, get to show their accomplishments. Raising all the wonderful critters, displaying grains, foods, needlework, crafts and hobbies, fine arts, flowers and plants.
 The Fair Queen will be chosen; tractor pulls, mule and pony pulls; pitch some horse shoes; look at the Merchant Tent. Sample some of the foods and the different rides. Enjoy yourself and indulge yourself.
Next in line is the Manchester Chicken Broil Number 41.
 Bring your friends, neighbors and enjoy yourself and be a part of one of Manchester's finest traditions: The One and Only Chicken Broil. The mouth watering taste of the butter drenched chicken is complemented by that tangy taste of the secret recipe cole slaw, capped off with wonderful rolls, radishes, chips and refreshing drink.
Last - but not least - is Manchester's Summer Festival on the 23rd.
 The festival, with a multitude of Arts & Crafters and Local Business merchants, puts on a show unequalled by any other community. Entertainment galore, Children's rides, Waterball contest, Old fashion Tug-of-war, Hula Hoop, Rubber Duckie Contest, Karaoke at the Tap, Midnight Street dance. Added this year is the Classic Car Show and that measures up to outstanding entertainment.
