New Bus Arrives!

Easter Bunny Brings Smiles - And a Few Prize Eggs!

Prize eggs went to (no particular order): Tyler Mester, Kaitlyn Coby, Nicole Helfrich, Jake Lacross, Cody Adams, Kimberly Tichenor, Heather Walter, Megan Cornell, Cole Walter, Cortney White, Jesse Gibbons, Zach Benedict, Nicholas Benedict, Corey Lynn Bondy (youngest winner at 10-1/2 months), and Brian Harvey.

Manchester Community Schools received their newest school bus last week. This beauty is a 1995, 71 passenger Wayne Lifeguard Bus Body on a 1995 "Navistar" 3800, 276" W.B. Chassis. This particular unit was an in-stock model with a $42,310 price tag.

on its side or the horizontal exits are blocked.

The bus is powered by a T444E, 210 H.P. Diesel engine with an automatic transmission. The undercarriage has a 10,000 lb. front axle and springs and a 19,800 lb. rear axle and springs. Hydraulic disc brakes, 65 gallon fuel tank, 2 -12 Volt batteries and a 1000 watt block heater.

In addition to the main front entrance, the bus has three additional emergency exits. The standard rear-door emergency exit; a side door emergency exit with escape handle (the seat at this location has a spring loaded lift, so that when the seat is not in use the seat bottom is upright and out of the way of the exit); and a third emergency exit is located in the roof and could be used if the bus tipped

This unit is about $23,000 less costly than the two Wayne 84 passenger transit buses now on order, according to Denny Dunsmore of Transportation Equipment Sales Corp. The new Transit busses should be delivered some in mid-May, perhaps before the end of the current school year.

Second Front Page: The Mayor of Pleasant Lake

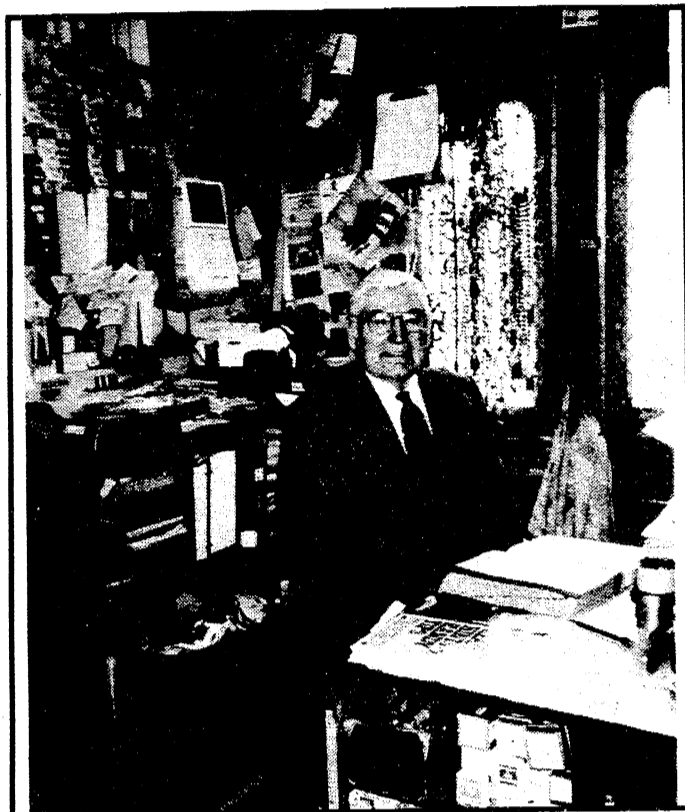

Haab Brothers Hardware

- by Marsha Johnson Chartrand

They do say life was simpler back then. And certainly it must have been a lot simpler for two brothers in 1954 who decided to open a hardware store in Freedom Township. One brother, Wally, was a carpenter. The other, Erwin, worked for an ice cream company. Together with their young families they began a venture which is today a local institution - Haab Brothers Hardware.

As you enter the hardware is a lot like stepping into the recent past. Haab's has not changed a lot since its opening 41 years ago. Not many concessions to the '90s have made their way through the door. "The cash register works even when the lights go off," chuckles Erwin. Stock is on the shelves instead of in bins, but otherwise you could be even further steeped in local history.

And well you might be. Haab's building has an interesting past. Constructed in 1852, it sat for at least 70 years at the opposite end of Lima Center Road, on Ellsworth. Travelling the two miles down the dirt road, you'll still see a cemetery which belonged to the Methodist Church. Look a little further and you'll notice the steps which used to be the church entrance.

Head on back to Pleasant Lake Road, and you'll find the church - which is now Haab's

Hardware. In the late 20's or early 30's, the building was moved to its present location, and for many years was used to raise chickens which were served at Haab's Restaurant in Ypsilanti.

Local wisdom has it that if you can't find it anywhere else, Haab's is the place to go. Erwin probably has it. "If I've got a call for it, I'll stock it," says Erwin. It seems he's had a call for quite a lot over the last 40+ years. Not only does he have it, he will find it for you.

Haab's is not a store with "departments" for different varieties of hardware. It seems the departments are all in Erwin's head. You might find what you're looking for by browsing, but it's often easier to walk in and say, "Erwin, I'm looking for..." "Sometimes I wonder myself how I remember where everything is," Erwin admits.

Haab's is not just a hardware, though. It's a gathering place for the area. An anonymously-placed plaque can be found on the front door: "Mayor's Office". If you want information about hunting, fishing, licensing, the local area, hardware, or anything related to any of the above, Erwin knows. He's Fredonia's own Chamber of Commerce.

People come not just from Manchester, but Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Dexter and Saline to have repairs on lawn mowers or chain saws, or get something special they can't find anywhere else. People restoring an older home are particularly grateful apples. In late fall, he has Christmas trees. Year round, he'll sharpen your lawn mower blades, chain saws, or ice skates.

Wally remains a carpenter, but he's still an active partner in the store, helping Erwin out. Not that Erwin takes many breaks. "Sometimes I wish I had more free time, but this gives me a challenge and a reason to get up every morning."

A third generation of farmers and local residents bring their kids to Haab's to browse over the candy counter and hear the words of wisdom dispensed by Erwin from the Farmer's Almanac.

How long does he plan to keep at it? "I don't know. I guess the good Lord'll tell us what to for the eclectic selection of merchandise Erwin has on hand.

In spring, Erwin sells seeds and bedding plants for gardeners. Summer, he sells bait for fishermen. In fall he presses apples for cider from a tree grafted with several kinds of

do. He usually does." One thing is for certain. Whether someone else takes over the hardware store, or not, Freedom Township will never be quite the same once Erwin and Wally retire. We wish them many more years of business together!

Editorial / Opinion

Dear Emory:

As prom season comes back around, so does an increase in the number of drunk driving fatalities involving underage drinkers.

Last year, we (Jim Daniels and Karen Dalessandro) received an anonymous fax which really struck a chord with our listeners. The fax was "The Prom Poem," and after only one on-air reading, WYCD had received thousands of requests for the poem by day's end.

We would like to ask that you share this poem with your readers. After reading the poem we're sure you'll agree that the message behind it is important. Our goal is simply to lower the number of teens who drink and drive, and we hope you'll be able to help.

Feel free to call us if you need any more information at (810) 799-0600.

Very truly yours,

Karen Dalessandro and Jim Daniels (J.D.) Morning Moo Crew, 99.5 WYCD FM

Editor's Note: The Prom Poem will be found on the School Page (p. 12) this week.

Dear Editor:

During National Volunteer Week, April 23-29, and throughout the month of April, the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Center, Ann Arbor, will honor local volunteers who have contributed more than 94,000 hours of service to America's veterans during 1994.

For more than 40 years we have received generous volunteer support from the Washtenaw, Monroe, Jackson, and Wayne County areas. The number of volunteer hours at our VA Medical Center has risen from 68,000 in 1979 to 94,216 in 1994, with total hours of service last year equaling 46 full-time staff positions.

Today, 34 national veterans service, civic, and fraternal organizations serve the Ann Arbor VA Medical Center. Our volunteers perform various duties; their roles range from traditional ones, such as escorting patients and reading and writing letters, to creative activities, such as teaching crafts and assisting with administrative work.

We invite you to join our volunteer ranks by contacting Peter Oestreicher, Chief, Voluntary Service, at 769-7100, ext. 7995.

Please join us in saluting our volunteers!

Sincerely,

Edward L. Gamache, Director

To The Editor:

I am writing to make the community aware of a little known state law passed in the spring of 94 that enables high school students in Michigan to attend colleges on a part time basis during their senior year with tuition paid from tax money already received from the student "head count". This is an excellent program that allows students additional educational challenge, stimulation and experience in their last year of high school. This program also affords a transition period from high school to full time college.

I would hope as more parents and students become aware of this opportunity—additional students will be encouraged to participate in this extended learning program. This transition period may also allow some students the opportunity to decide whether college is for them, rather than automatically assuming it is not.

I would ask that the Manchester Board of Education and the MHS Administration evaluate our current mechanism of providing credit for such college classes, which was developed in excess of ten years ago (primarily for use with Vo Tech classes). The level of class experience and requirements continues to increase significantly. At best, it seems outdated to give students 1/2 credit for a 3 - 4 college credit class, which is being taught at a higher level than many high school classes. I would anticipate that a re-evaluation would occur for each individual class, based on it's own merit for the level of challenge and education provided.

As we re-examine this program to provide the much needed update, it would be beneficial, if our students were supported and encouraged by parents, educators and the community to take advantage of this educational opportunity!

The Manchester Enterprise welcomes letters to the Editor, Guest Editorials, and your comments, suggestions and opinions.

We ask that all letters submitted for publication be signed.

Should there be extenuating circumstances for withholding your name, we will give that full consideration.

Dear Ms. Chartrand:

We are very glad to read your newspapers. The picture on the paper shows as well as we were there. We had a very nice time to spend in Manchester. we were very happy to meet friendly people. If I have a chance to visit your Manchester, I think I should come on July. Because the chicken BBQ party opens, doesn't it? Several times I visited to Michigan, it was the first time to have such a exciting day.

I appreciate very much, if you send me some copies (5 copies) of the Manchester Enterprise issued on March 23rd. Of course, Mr. Howard Parr kindly sent me one copy of it, but my father and a friend want to have copies for their memories.

We used to be in Maryland for one and half year. When my wife, Takako and I read the Manchester Enterprise, I remembered the days in the USA. We spent good time with your papers. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Yasumasa Fukase

The Agenda was approved as amended. Motion by Marshall, support by Vought to approve as amended. Vote: Ayes-all.

LETTER OF SUPPORT FOR SUMMER RECREATION - Motion by Becktel, support by Vought to adopt the letter of support to the Manchester Area Summer Recreation Program as presented, providing facilities as possible in conjunction with the program and assign a representative to help with the direction of the program. Motion by Becktel, support by Schaffer to adjourn as Council and convene as the Zoning Board of Appeals at 7:15 PM. Vote: Ayes-all.

ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS - PUBLIC HEARING - GEBHARDT VARIANCE. There was no public comment at this hearing. The Public Hearing was closed at 7:18 PM.

Becktel read the recommendation from the Planning Commission to approve the variance request with conditions. Motion by Schaffer, support by Marshall to approve the variance request of Al Gebhardt, for the following reasons: 1- dimensional zoning requirements cannot be met on the existing lot due to the natural condition of the lot. 2- the problem creates a practical difficulty which is unique and does not require rezoning or amending the ordinance. 3- the problem was not created by the applicant. 4- a) the variance will be contrary to the intent of the zoning ordinance which is why they are requesting the variance. b) the variance will not cause an adverse affect on adjacent properties and no complaints were received from neighbors. c) the variance will relate only to the property under the control of the applicant d) the variance will not essentially alter the character of the surrounding area e) the variance will slightly increase the fire hazard due to the close proximity of the house (4') f) it will not increase traffic congestion 5- the variance is the minimum necessary, useful addition to the property, and based on the recommendation of the Planning Commission to approve the request. Vote: Ayes-all.

Motion by Becktel, support by Taepke to adjourn as ZBA and reconvene as the Village Council at 7:30 PM. Vote: Ayes-all.

DPW REPORT - Council discussed the quote from Adrian Communications in the amount of $660 for the tornado siren. Roll Call Vote: Ayes-all.

SUMMER FESTIVAL - The Clerk read a memo from Sgt. Haensler that stated that he had no objection to a two day street fair. The car show will be for one day only (Saturday). Marshall stated his objection to closing Main Street and having a two day street fair. He provided Council with a list of people and businesses that he had contacted. Marvin provided Council with a list of people that he contacted and the majority were not opposed to having the car show on Main Street. Teresa Benedict, Manchester Merchants Business Association, provided Council with a list of businesses contacted concerning a two day street fair. Out of the 40 asked, only one was not in favor of a two day event. Marshall left his seat at Council at 8:00 PM. so that it would not appear to be a conflict of interest. Marshall sat back at the council table at 8:13 PM. Motion by Schaffer, support by Taepke to approve a two day craft show, July 21 and 22 and a one day car show, July 22nd, as requested, with the stipulations listed: - no parking of vendors downtown, on

Clinton Street or in the bank area on north side of Ockrow - allow places for postal employees during post office hours (village will provide barricades and the police will patrol) - permit mail customers to park by post office for collection and drop-off of mail - car show must stop by Union Street (east of Walco entrance) to allow traffic to get in and out of Walco and Manchester Plastics - semi traffic will be diverted to Territorial St. - vehicles on trailers will not park them on Main Street, the DPW yard will be available for them to park in as long as the doors are not blocked Roll Call Vote: abstain-Marshall, yes-Becktel, Schaffer, Taepke, No-Vought. Motion by Becktel, support by Vought to add Joe Marshall to the Solid Waste & Recycling Committee and leave the others as listed. Vote: Ayes-all.

Motion by Becktel, support by Taepke to go into closed session to discuss possible litigation, at 8:45 PM. Vote: Ayes-all.

Council met back in regular session at 8:58 PM.

Motion by Becktel, support by Schaffer to proceed into circuit court on the Briggs case, subject to the failure of the ongoing negotiation with a mediator so that it will not seem like a delay to Mr. Briggs. The meeting will be set up as soon as possible. Emory will meet with Deputy Deacons, Wallace and Sgt. Haensler. He will talk with Briggs until the meeting can be set up. Roll Call Vote: Ayes-all.

Smith Holds Hearings on 1995 Farm Bill

Local farmers Michael Fusilier and Mike DuRussel met with Congressman Nick Smith to discuss issues relating to the 1995 Farm Bill

On April 11, Representative Nick Smith (R-MI) met with Michigan's agriculture leaders in Lansing and Jackson to discuss the 1995 Farm Bill, which is only rewritten every five years.

Smith, who has a dairy and cash crop farm in Addison and is a former USDA administrator, has formed the 1995 Michigan Agricultural Advisory Council to give the state's farmers a voice in the farm bill debate. Smith appointed Washtenaw County farmers Mike DuRussel, of Manchester, a Washtenaw County Commissioner and vegetable farmer, and Michael Fusilier of Manchester, to the statewide study group.

"Our group reached a consensus that it is extremely important for Michigan's farmers that Congress reconcile the differences between the House and Senate and produce a workable bill that will replace government control of agriculture with more reliance on the free market," Smith said after the meeting.

"As we restructure government and cut spending, there is no question that farm programs will be scaled back. I believe farmers expect that - and they're willing to do their part. But, cutting back on farm programs needs to be done in such a way that does not jeopardize America's consistent food supplies and stable prices," added Smith.

Rural Education Days Planned

On April 25 and 26, the Washtenaw County MSU Extension office and the Farm Bureau Promotion and Education Committee, along with the Washtenaw Farm Council, are sponsoring the fifth annual Rural Education Days. The purpose of PROJECT R.E.D. is to educate third grade students about local agriculture and natural resources.

More than 1150 students and 200 adults from twenty-one different schools throughout the county are registered to participate in Rural Education Days. All activities will be held at the Washtenaw County Farm Council Grounds, 5055 Ann Arbor-Saline Road.

Many local agriculture and natural resources organizations, businesses, county offices and interested volunteers will be assisting with the program. Each day is split into two sessions and will include seven learning centers, and a commodity showcase featuring samples of agricultural products. The Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District will also provide a tree seedling for each student. In addition, participating teachers receive an informative activity packet on agriculture and natural resources that they can use in their classroom.

For more information on this activity, contact Nancy Thelen, Washtenaw County Extension Director at 971-0079.

Paul & the Pacers Take First Place In the 1995 NWBA

After a long day at work for Dad, Tom Schulte, and a long day of anticipation for Son, Paul Schulte, the journey to Whitewater, Wisconsin began Thursday evening, April 6. Destination - the 1995 NWBA Junior National Wheelchair Basketball Championship. Arriving near midnight, it was difficult to concentrate on sleep. The other members of the Kentwood Junior Pacers Team had already assembled in one room at the hotel and game strategies interspersed with life philosophies were being dictated by the coach, Lee Montgomery.

This was the year. The Pacers had not fared well last year at the Nationals - Paul had fouled out in a crucial game in last year's "sweet sixteen" Championship and the memory of that game's loss was still on his mind. Many of the same teams were in this year's 16 team field and the Pacers were ranked fourth.

Friday morning was the first test of the Pacers' abilities as they went up against their opponent, Madison Wisconsin's Madison City Bombers. The test was easy, as the Pacers rolled to a 63-28 victory. Paul Schulte was high scorer with 28 points. The second game, Friday evening, was against the Tulsa Jammers and proved to add fuel to the Pacers' hopes for a National Title. Paul shot the lights out, scoring 30 points in the 61-31 win. Saturday night was the semi-final match against the Wisconsin Junior Horizons. This was a test of the Pacers' abilities, but after the dust settled the Pacers moved on to beat the Horizons 50-40; once again be-was ready for the showdown: Pacers vs. the Spaulding Bulldogs of Chicago. Last year's crucial loss was to these same Spaulding Bulldogs.

Both teams were a year older in experience and confidence, but this would ing led by Paul Schulte with 19 points.

The championship game was held Sunday afternoon. The TV cameras were there, the various University coaches were in attendance, and the crowd be the Junior Pacers' turn to claim victory. The first 20 minutes went as a defensive game with the Pacers 10 points in the lead at the half.

Things went back and forth until the unthinkable happened: with 6 minutes left to play, Pacers up by 13 points, deja vu hit. Paul Schulte commits his 4th foul and is pulled from the game. The Bulldogs struck fast and coach Montgomery put Paul back on the court with little more than two minutes of play. Paul did his thing and scored 6 of his 16 points in the last two minutes to help win the Junior Pacers first National Championship with a final score of 48-47.

Congratulations to Paul and the rest of the Kentwood Junior Pacers. Best of luck in the future!

A young man fell in love with his beautiful neighbor, but he was too timid to tell her. One day he admitted to a friend, "I've been slipping love notes into her milk bottles every morning."

"Did she know you were the one who wrote them?" came the question.

"I guess not," he confessed. "She eloped with the milkman this morning."

As in love, so in leading one to the Lord; tact is good, but contact is better. Andrew not only said to his brother, "We have found the Messiah," but "he brought him to Jesus."

When something happens to you, something will happen through you. If you really believe, you'll bring others to the Lord.

Begin today. Bring someone to the Lord, won't you?

MANCHESTER AREA SENIOR CITIZENS News
by T.V. Ludwick

According to the Country Calendar, this is National Humor Month! We do indeed need more of this in our daily lives. The Lockhorns give me a boost with quips like this: Mr. says to marriage counselor "Loretta gave me her youth...it's only right that someone else should get her old age".

Also in this month beginning with April Fool is BarbershopQUARTETDAY on the 11th and what group of folks has more fun than they? To get to be national champions, their imaginations have to run wild with not only glorious song but hilarious antics. It is all good, clean fun to match those marvelous voices.

That must be what choir directors mean when they say "Put a smile in your voice" and what most of us can't quite comprehend. A former church choir director, Anthony Gaines, implored us 'to put more soul in our singing'. That also was an impossibility for his all-white choir members and I asked him to teach us how. That is something you need to be born with, I think, as we never quite got it right. So, let's smile, sing and enjoy these gloomy days of rain, sleet, snow, wind and cool weather—we will soon be outside again!

Thursday, April 20: No senior meal today as kitchen will be in use.

Friday, April 21: Senior bus will begin pickup for the trip to Saline for their Senior Citizens Card Party. To go along, call Erma Alber at 428-8707.

Tuesday, April 25: Jo

Simmons, our volunteer nurse, will be present at 11 AM to take your blood pressure. Then, at 12 noon in Emanuel's Fellowship Hall, we give our cook, Jan Barbour free reign with the menu once again to surprise us with Chef's Choice. All of you out there who are 55 or older are urged to attend these great senior meals by first calling either Linda (ahead) at 428-8359, or Jan (before 10:30 AM on meal days) at 428-7630. At 12:30, a speaker from Chelsea Hospital will explain "The In's & Outs of Diabetes" and answer questions you may have. To finish off another busy senior day, bus will start pickup at 5:30 for travelogue entitled 'Europe Wonders'.

Wednesday, April 26: Note change of activity on calendar. Go along on a Mystery Trip instead and get your bus reservation in to Erma if you'd like to go along. Don't we all like surprises?

Thursday, April 27: Ham loaf is planned by our loyal chefs for our pleasure (it is good!). Bingo will be enjoyed at the Center if there are six of you who are ready to shout out that magic word. Beginning at 6:30, pickup by senior bus will transport you to Freedom Township Hall for the monthly senior sponsored public card party. They are thoroughly enjoyed by all area folks and you don't need to be a senior citizen to participate (any age are welcome). Light refreshments will also be enjoyed, come one and all.

Think spring while you are smiling!

"The Prom Poem"

I went to a party, Mom.
I remembered what you said.
You told me not to drink, Mom,
So I drank soda instead.

I felt really proud inside, Mom,
The way you said I would.
I didn't drink and drive, Mom,
Even though the others said I should.

I know I did the right thing,
Mom,
I know you're always right.
Now the party is finally ending,
Mom,
As everyone drives out of sight.

As I got into my car, Mom,
I knew I'd get home in one piece.
Because of the way you raised me,
Mom,
So responsible and sweet.

I started to drive away, Mom,
But as I pulled onto the road,
The other car didn't see me,
Mom,
And it hit me like a load

As I lie here on the pavement,
Mom,
I hear the policeman say,
The other guy is drunk, Mom,
And now I'm the one who'll pay.

I'm lying here dying, Mom,
I wish you'd get here soon.
How come this happened to me,
Mom?
My life burst like a balloon.

There is blood all around me,
Mom,
Most of it is mine.
I hear the paramedic say, Mom,
I'll be dead in a short time.

I just wanted to tell you, Mom,
I swear I didn't drink.
It was the others, Mom,
The others didn't think.

He didn't know where he was going,
Mom,
He was probably at the same party as I.
The only difference is, Mom,
He drank, and I will die.

The guy who hit me is walking,
Mom,
I don't think it's fair.
I'm lying here dying, Mom,
While all he can do is stare.

Tell my brother not to cry,
Mom,
Tell Daddy to be brave.
And when I get to heaven,
Mom,
Write "Daddy's Girl" on my grave.

Someone should have told him,
Mom,
Not to drink and drive.
If only they'd taken the time,
Mom,
I would still be alive.

My breath is getting shorter,
Mom,
I'm becoming very scared.
Please don't cry for me, Mom,
Because when I needed you,
you were there.

I have one last question, Mom,
Before I say good-bye.
I didn't ever drink, Mom,
So why am I to die?

This is the end, Mom,
I wish I could look you in the eye.
To say these final words, Mom,
I love you, and good-bye.

Manchester Community School Board elects Construction Manager concept for new building

Emory Garlick

T.M.P. Associates' Eric Ginsley outlined for the Board two possible ways of constructing the new building project. At issue was whether to let a total contract to a General Contractor who would encompass all trades, or to let individual contracts through a Construction Manager.

A General Contractor would provide a traditional method, utilizing a single contract and the General then would choose his own subcontractors. A general contractor would have to await final plans and specifications. This would result in a single price with the contract awarded to the lowest bidder. Many generals have alliances with favorite subcontractors which might negate use of local subcontracting trades.

The CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT approach would allow a fast-track construction sequence. Plans would not have to be finalized prior to letting of contracts for such things as site work or foundations. According to TMP Associates, getting the project started as early as possible would allow "fast tracking", and could possibly allow the building to progress faster so that inclement winter weather would not have a negative influence on the overall construction. The Board will be given a number of potential Construction Management companies to review. From that list it was suggested three or four would be interviewed and one will be selected for the job at hand.

TMP felt this would be a catalyst to encourage local contractors to become part of the team constructing the new facilities.

In other reports Mrs. Laura Spensley and Miss Karen Hanson gave a very spirited and enthusiastic presentation of the Team Room Concept for the 1995 - 1996 School year. The goal of the team room is to combine the expertise of two teachers to create a collaborative environment for first and second grade students. They intend to review the first and second grade curriculum in order to determine appropriate themes for further development.

They will have activities with teachers for a family potluck in August. A September Parents night. October Fall festival, November Harvest Dinner, December Multi-Cultural Night. January Parent Night, February Valentine's night, March Parent Teacher Conferences, April 'Scientist in the Making' Night, May a 'Three Piggy Opera' production and a June Picnic in the Park.

On a much more somber note, the Community Resource Center provided the findings and the hopes of using their Task Force to address issues relating to Alcohol, Tobacco, inhalants and other drugs in the school. Reverend Cooper pointed out some very somber facts: An Adult may take up to five years to develop a chemical dependency while a child could become chemically dependent in five months. We apparently have more kids doing more things than we know about. We have a lot of use in this Community; higher than the National Average.

The Task Force presented

a Video, titled, Stones Throw that they want to share with the community. A very scary presentation and one that needs to be addressed by all facets of the community from parents, educators and community members.

A report was submitted for the cost of moving the Leslie School portables. The units are 24 feet wide and 36 feet long. Approximately 25 years old and have been unused for the past 11 years, the units cannot be dismantled into sections and must be moved in their present size. The units would need new windows, siding, roofing, heating systems, toilets and doors. The approximate cost to move one unit could be in excess of $15,000 and the useful life expectancy could be very short.

It was suggested the portables we already own, when moved from their present location at Klager, be positioned so they might be used for administrative offices for the school superintendent and board. Moving the units once to accommodate a temporary use at Klager and then to the High School would be duplication of expense and could be detrimental to the portables condition. It was recommended the possible solution be referred to TMP Associates for viability.

The Annual School Election Resolution listing candidates Bruce Abbott, Emory Garlick and Wayne Winzenz was passed for the June 12th election for two seats on the Board of Education.

The Enterprise informed the Board that two letters were submitted to the Superintendent of Schools and the Board President. The letter of March 15th indicated the possibility of a violation of the Student Athletic Policy last October. The letter of April 10th outlined a problem that originated in the early 1980's with the transportation department. The problem has not been resolved since the current administration came on board in 1986. The Enterprise stands behind the good, honest, hard working members of that department and will support them 100%.

A Bushel of Baskets

Last week was an eventful one for Manchester Family Services. "Family Services does not just help people at Christmas," emphasized Joanne Fredal. That was evident when viewing the number of baskets donated by local organizations and individuals to Family Service for the benefit of local families.

Xi Epsilon Iota sorority donated 15 assorted Easter baskets filled for kids; they also adopted a family with three children and filled baskets for each member of the family besides donating a $50 gift certificate to Meijers.

Preceptor Gamma Theta sorority donated three Easter Baskets and many bags of groceries, including a turkey.

Lambda Nu sorority donated over $100 worth of groceries, including a large quantity of meats for one special family.

High School students got into the act, with the National Honor Society donating an Easter Basket for a MFS family.

"Manchester Family Services realizes that people have needs not only at the holidays, but all year long. We certainly appreciate the organizations who are remembering these families during the Easter season as well," comments Fredal. "Family Services assists people year round with rent, utilities, fuel, emergency groceries, and other needs."

If you have needs or know of a family who needs the services of MFS, please contact the MFS answering service at 428-8852 or Joanne Fredal at 428-8010.

- by Marsha Johnson Chartrand

Baskets filled the garage of MFS coordinator Mary Frances Fielder as Family Services prepared for Easter deliveries.

Joanne Fredal exclaims over the quantity and variety of groceries donated to Family Services for their Easter baskets this year.

Benefit contributors are recognized in the Banquet program and through the local media as Friends (0-$75.00), Patron ($100-$299) and Major Sponsors ($300 or more). A dinner reservation/donation form is included in the Enterprise (see below).

Theme for the event is "Parenting in the 90's". It takes an entire village to raise a child.

Speaker for the evening will be Mary Jo Desprez, EMU Health Educator.

The program is the annual recognition of volunteers who serve our community.

You may ask, why does a non-profit need to host fundraising events? 501(c)3 non-profit, tax exempt organizations are totally dependent on United Way, Business, Industry, Grants, Organization donations and Individual contributions. Think in terms of business. Their survival is based on selling general merchandise or specific products. The product is visible and will be valuable to the consumer.

In terms of contributions to the Community Resource Center, the investor may not be the direct beneficiary of service. The spirit of giving, so that someone less fortunate can benefit from less tangible human service, such as counseling, employment, food, transportation, home health care, home maintenance, or information and referral concerning other needs, is the product - a product that cannot be held in your hand.

As you decide upon your contribution amount, keep in mind the need for a strong local support to enable the community Resource Center to continue providing much needed service to the community. Please send your donation to the Community Resource Center, PO Box 433, Manchester, MI 48158.

Questions or concerns can be addressed by calling the Community Resource Center, 428-7722.

Manpower Offers Scholarships!

Manpower Temporary Services is offering college students the opportunity to win a scholarship, while earning money. Two of Manpower's Michigan offices will join together to award one $500 scholarship and three $100 textbook certificates to eligible students. One entry form can be filled out for every 30 hours worked from May 1 through August 11, 1995. Winners will be drawn from the pool of entries in late August.

"Not only do students have the opportunity to receive money for school, they also have a chance to gain valuable work experience," says Manpower Office Manager Laurie Miller. "Working for a temporary help firm allows students to try different work environments and discover what kind of work they enjoy. It is also a way to gain experience in the field they plan to enter after graduation."

The company also provides free training in highly marketable computer skills to temporary employees. Manpower's automated computer training program, called Skillware, offers hands-on, self-paced training on all of today's popular software and hardware. Ninety percent of the Fortune 100 companies have turned to Manpower for computer training for their permanent employees.

The Ann Arbor and Monroe offices of Manpower are participating in this college scholarship program. To learn more about Manpower's employment services or college scholarship program, please contact your local Manpower office.

WIC can Work Wonders
for you!

WIC is going strong! Despite rumors to the contrary, the Washtenaw County Special Supplemental Food Program for Women, Infants and Children, (known as WIC), is growing.

WIC provides coupons for free nutritious food to pregnant and postpartum women, infants and children up to age 5. We have offices in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Manchester. WIC also provides nutrition education and health care referrals, including immunizations, to over 4 million lower-income women and children across the United States.

There is no formal application for WIC - just call either of our offices, Ypsilanti 484-6770 or Ann Arbor 971-1300, for information. WIC staff can determine eligibility over the phone and give you the first available appointment.
