Sharon Hollow/ W. Austin Intersection Claims another life

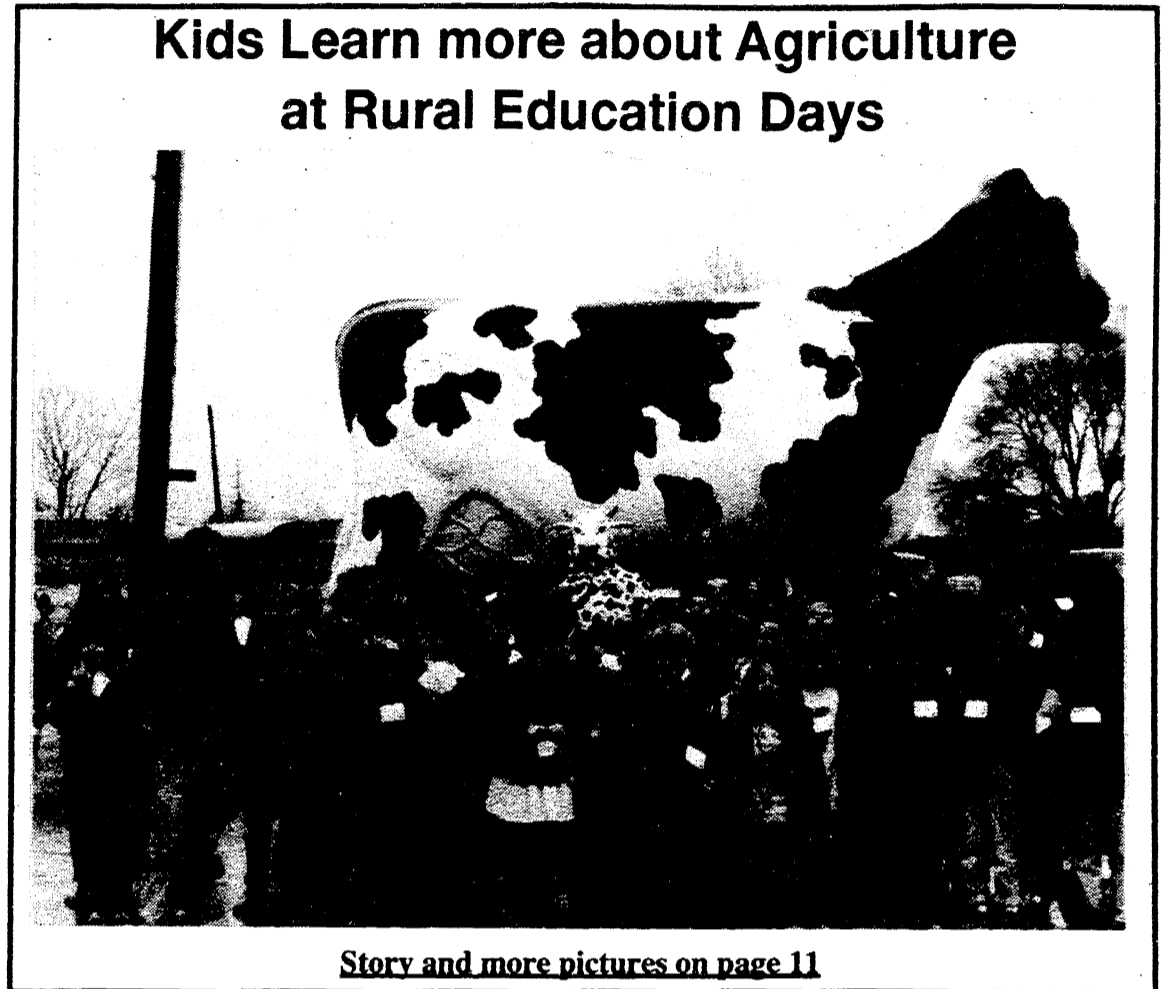

Tuesday, May 2 at 1:45 PM, a three-vehicle collision occurred at the intersection of Sharon Hollow Road and West Austin Road that resulted in the death of Vincas Gaivelis, 16151 Herman Rd, Manchester, a passenger in a 1987 Chrysler driven by his wife Brone Gaivelis.

According to witnesses at the scene the Gaivelis vehicle was southbound on Sharon Hollow Road. Apparently the vehicle stopped, or partially stopped, at the intersection and then proceeded to cross West Austin, whereupon the Gaivelis vehicle was struck by a second, west bound vehicle on Austin, driven by Irenne Pelfrey, of Brooklyn. Irenne's four year old daughter was also riding in the 1994 Ford Pickup. The Gaivelis vehicle proceeded into the field at the North west corner of the intersection. The Pelfrey vehicle spun clockwise and struck a third vehicle that was approaching the intersection from the north, on Sharon Hollow. The third vehicle, a 1987 Ford Ranger Pickup, was operated by Ray Wurster of Manchester.

Both Brone and Vincas Gaivelis were air lifted by Medi-Vac Survival Helicopter from the U of M. Vincas was pronounced dead at the U of M. His wife remains there with multiple injuries. Brone may have suffered a stroke at the time of the accident.

Sixteen accidents have happened in the past three years, with two fatalities. Many of the crashes involved only one car. Why is the intersection so dangerous?

Washtenaw County Highway Department and WCSO cannot put a specific finger on the cause. Last October the setting sun obscured the vision of a driver and a life was lost then. It has been noted that westbound vehicles have a tendency to accelerate beyond the posted 55 MPH speed limit. Perhaps vehicles exiting Sharon Hollow Road tend to underestimate the speed of oncoming cars.

Authorities say the traffic studies do not warrant a four way stop at the intersection. The possibility of additional advance warning signs or lights has been discussed by Washtenaw County Road Commission. -EWG

Fire rescue personnel attempt to remove the Gaivelis couple from their vehicle.

Fatal Apartment Fire at Aura Inn

Wednesday, May 3 at 3 A.M: Manchester Township Fire Department was called to the Aura Inn at Pleasant Lake. An apartment on the lower level burst into flames, apparently after a lighted cigarette was dropped on the bed by the occupant, Walter Vacek. The Fire Department was summoned by the victim's brother who occupied another apartment within the building.

Chief Scully said that Walter apparently awoke and almost made it out of the apartment before being overcome by smoke. His brother dragged him from the apartment and the Fire Rescue team used both oxygen and the Heart Start unit to no avail.

Walter, 33 years old, was severely burned from the waist up and smoke inhalation was determined as the cause of death.

Washtenaw County Health Department deemed that all open containers of both food and liquid must be disposed of before the restaurant could re-open. There was no structural damage to the main portion of the building. The apartment unit was extensively damaged. Drywall's fire-stopping properties saved the building.

Local Students to play in Concert

These local students will perform with the Siena Heights College Youth Symphony in the Spring Concert to be held at Lumen Chapel, Siena Heights College on Monday, May 15th at 7:00 PM.

Under the direction of conductor Todd Barnhart, the orchestra will begin with the 'finale' from Tschaiikovsky's Symphony No. 2, and will finish the program with Franz Liszt's 'Les Presludes.' In addition to the full orchestra, a chamber orchestra has been formed, which will perform Mozart's 'Eine Kleine Nacht Musik' and will accompany guest artist and concertmaster Greg Parkhurst in his senior performance of 'The Rondo of DeBeriot Concerto no. 9 for violin and orchestra, op. 104.'

In its sixth year, the Youth Symphony has grown to include music students from Lenawee, Monroe, Hillsdale, and Washtenaw Counties and Fulton County in Ohio. Under the dynamic leadership of maestro/educator Barnhart, these young people have worked hard to meet the challenge of the music to be performed on May 15.

Tickets will be available at the door 1/2 hour prior to the performance. Lumen Chapel is on Siena Heights Drive across from the Field House at Siena Heights College in Adrian. Join them!

Second Front Page: Mothers Day

A Tribute to Moms Everywhere

My Mother's Hands

Such beautiful, beautiful hands!
They're neither white nor small;
And you, I know, would scarcely think
That they were fair at all.
I've looked on hands whose form and hue
A sculptor's dream might be;
Yet are those wrinkled, aged hands
Most beautiful to me.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands!
Though heart were weary and sad,
These patient hands kept toiling on,
That the children might be glad;
I always weep, as looking back
To childhood's distant day,
I think how those hands rested not,
When mine were at their play.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands!
They're growing feeble now,
For time and pain have left their mark

On hands, and heart, and brow.
Alas! Alas! the nearing time,
And the sad, sad day to me,
When 'neath the daisies, out of sight,
These hands will folded be.

But oh, beyond this shadow land,
Where all is bright and fair,
I know full well these dear old hands
Will palms of victory bear;
Where crystal streams through endless years

Flow over golden sands,
And where the old grow young again,
I'll clasp my mother's hands
-copyright 1895 by Ellen M.H. Gates

A one hundred year old poem, found in a book loaned by a friend. It is very true - the one thing probably most of us recall most clearly about our mothers and grandmothers, is their hands. Although the poem is a century old, its message is timeless.

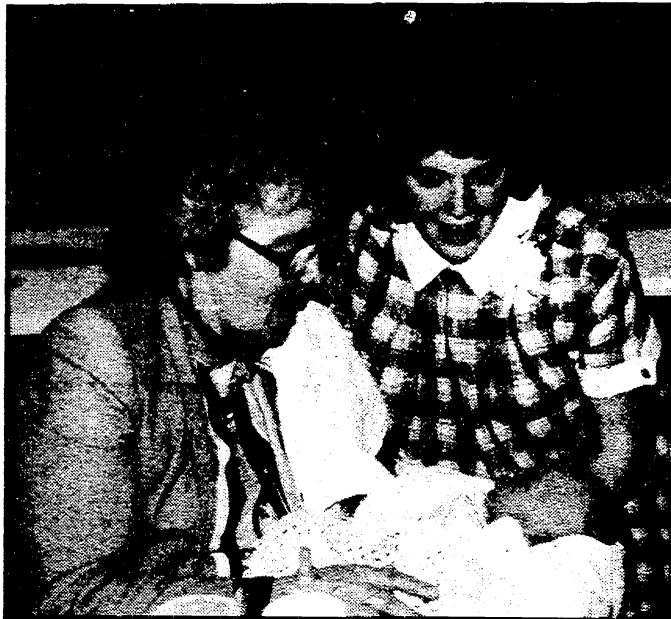

Mothering itself is a truly timeless tradition whose beauty cannot be matched. What a mother does is so important, yet so intangible. The caring administered by a mother's hands can comfort an infant, a toddler, a child, a teen, and an adult.

Those of us who are mothers realize that what we have learned in our "on the job training" can prepare us for so many situations. Often the hands which tended infants, toddlers, children and teens, end up tending elderly parents, a sick spouse or friend, or even a pet, with similarly tender gestures.

It's a myth that only babies need their mothers. In fact, the older we get, we often find to our surprise, how much smarter our mothers get and how much we need their advice. In many cultures the "wise women" are revered and sought out. These women, now beyond their childbearing years, are respected for the knowledge and wisdom they have gained as mothers and as women. Although our culture may tell us otherwise, our hearts know that some of the wisest women on earth are our mothers.

Modern science has been able to bottle infant formula, hormones and drugs. Technology has provided us with information, play pens, and television to replace a parent's care. Psychology has provided us with self-help books to make us feel better. But no one so far has been able to can or substitute the nurturing provided by a mother, and probably no one ever will.

An old custom which seems to have fallen by the wayside in recent years, was to wear a red carnation to honor a living mother on Mother's Day, while a white carnation was worn in memory of a mother who has died. This very simple tradition has been replaced by elaborate floral arrangements and expensive and elegant gifts and gadgets "for mom". Sometimes, though, the simplest things are the most effective. Have you told your mom, "I love you" recently?

However you choose to honor your mother this Mother's Day, remember always her caring, her works and her wisdom - all of which are embodied in a mother's hands. -MJC

Editorial / Opinion

The Manchester Enterprise welcomes letters to the Editor, Guest Editorials, and your comments, suggestions and opinions.
 We ask that all letters submitted for publication be signed.
 Should there be extenuating circumstances for withholding your name, we will give that full consideration.

Dear Emory:
 I was delighted to read on the front page of the May 4th edition that I have been placed on MOST WANTED list of The Enterprise. I consider myself to be in very good company with Pat Sahakian and the other people on the list. You are quite correct when you say that I have consistently supported the superintendent. But, make no mistake, I have not done so "blindly" as you stated. This school district is fortunate to have a very capable and dedicated superintendent and I support excellence when I see it.

I don't mean to imply that I have not had concerns about issues in the school district, but I have always felt that it is more effective for the board to work with the superintendent as a team to resolve issues.

Thanks again for the free press. It should be an interesting campaign for school board this year!

Dear Editor,
 The May 4 issue of the Manchester Enterprise featured a nice display of pictures concerning a very successful Christmas-in-April*Washtenaw, Manchester unit project.

I need to clarify some information. The Community Resource Center acts as the coordinating agency for Manchester's project; however, Bill and Dianne Schwab did not lead "the gang." A Coordinating committee, using the teamwork of Martha Mackres, John Hinkley and myself plus house captains, Marty Way, Richard Tucker, Doug Parr, Charlotte Major, Vinc Carroll, Bill Weber, John Minier, Jeff Wallace, Larry Benedict, Laura Sutton, as Secretary, Lunch coordinator, Pam Green, electricians Dennis Kittle, Mike Lowery, Rick Graustein and plumber Tom Lavender, as a group, are responsible for preliminary work in preparation for the one day project. Approximately 60 volunteers joined the coordinating group on Saturday.

FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION

Editorial

Emory Garlick

The Gary Moeller drinking incident for the U of M was unfortunate to say the least, but the resignation by Moeller and the stand President Duderstadt made by placing him on indefinite suspension, was admirable. I only wish MSU, my alma mater, had been as professional in the past.

Athletics, after all, is a privilege and an educational experience that not all students are able to participate in or enjoy. Athletics therefore should be on a higher plane and treated as such.

We at the Enterprise received a story lead, February 11th this year, about an athlete drinking during the past football season. I questioned our Superintendent of Schools and our Athletic Director about that episode. I investigated that incident extensively, obtained the police report, interviewed all the Officers involved, the Athletic Director and the Superintendent of Schools.

In a nutshell, here is what happened:

Our local Washtenaw County Sheriff's Deputy, Kevin Deacons, informed the A.D. about the drinking episode and what Deputy Cook had uncovered. Deputy Cook was never contacted by our administration. When I interviewed the A.D. on March 24, he denied any knowledge of the incident and couldn't remember talking to either Deputy Deacons or Sgt. Haensler.

On March 25, I hand carried a copy of my findings to Supt. Niedzwiecki and sent a copy to Board President Kluwe who, in turn, sent copies to the other board members.

My QUESTION: Where is our professionalism? Our Sheriff's Department personnel are concerned about our students welfare as are all the members of the community. I would think that our administration would bend over backward for that kind of concern and appreciate the Sheriff's action. But do they? It certainly does not appear that way.

It makes me more appreciative of the conservative element of the board who we quoted last week when they said: "All we would like to do is make the school board and the superintendent more professional and accountable to the taxpayers through more open communication and understanding with the community. The superintendent often feels threatened by those suggestions and thus too often, decisions are made without public or even board of education knowledge."

Out & About

by gar

I called him "Poppa" Steele, not because we were related in any way but because he was my friend and I respected him highly. We spent many hours on church council together and shared many lighter moments during some of the services.

Poppa said he liked his sermons to be short, sweet and to the point but that is the way he was in life. No phoney-baloney about the man, just short, sweet and to the point. Poppa ran the Thursday, Manchester golf league at Ella Sharp Park for many years. One of his favorite things was to badger me about golf and how he was going to clean my clock. Every now and then he would palm a couple of the playing cards that were used to draw partners. Most of the time when he did that, it was with the comment that, "Today is the day I'm going to beat your

A...!" Funny part of that was that many times he did just as he said he would.

Poppa played golf just as he did life. He put his heart and soul into every shot. He told a person what he thought in no uncertain terms and I appreciated that about him. Several times he gave me some advice that I wish I had followed, but as Poppa put it, "You are so damn hard headed that you won't pay attention."

It's not going to be the same, going into the Bakers Dozen and not seeing him sitting there drinking a cup of coffee, or going into the flower shop and not seeing him sitting in the corner awaiting on a delivery of flowers.

We will miss you, "Poppa" Steele, we love you and know that you will be rewarded in Heaven. God Bless You Poppa.

A Good Mother Is Always There When She Is Needed

*A mother must do many things
To solve the problems childhood brings:
She's always there to dry their tears
And bandage cuts and calm their fears.
She taught the meaning of good deeds
And how to care for someone's needs;
Preparing for the teenage years
And helping choose their life's careers.
She taught them how to do things right,
And always keep their goals in sight.
And meanwhile, hoping they've acquired
Character to be desired.
Faith will illustrate the worth
Of motherhood from time of birth.
She showed her love in every way,
So honor her on Mother's Day.*

MANCHESTER AREA SENIOR CITIZENS
News

by T.V. Ludwick

Our loyal leader, Rubena Boelter, was named the 1995 "Volunteer of the Year" for the Manchester area On May 3 at the CRC Banquet at Chelsea Community Hospital. We are so happy for her and wish to congratulate her from all of us. A friend at the 'coffee shop' stated, "There's a celebrity among us" and how true, it is quite an honor. Good for you!

I came across a letter written to our folks from brother Clyde Nichols 'somewhere in England' in 1944. (We are very proud of our surname even through all the publicity of the other two, 'tho have taken some kidding from friends.) We, at home, thought rationing of goods was a little unfair at times and watched that issued book and red tokens very closely. Clyde stated: "Stopped in at a chip shop; a plate of 'French fries' for 3 pence (5 to 6 cents). Civilians get 1 egg (fresh) monthly; 1 lb. butter monthly. To elucidate on the pubs—they are usually small, cheerful firelit rooms (2 or 3 in a house) where whole families may gather. To add further to the food situation here: a child gets a pint of milk a day, adults very little and they received their first orange in over 4 years recently. Many children here have never seen a banana, Coca-Cola or ice cream, for there is none in the whole British Isle." There is more and will try to finish this letter before Memorial Day.

Thursday, May 11: We are so glad to have Pat Patrick back to lead us on at exercise class which begins at 10:30 at the Center. We invite you to come join us. Then, to Emanuel's Dining room for noon lunch of "Some Stew in Battercrust". Bingo is played each Thursday at 12:30 back at the Center.

Friday, May 12: Seniors will leave the Center at 9:30 for Gee's Market and the Stockbridge Market. They will also deliver lap robes, etc. to the Stockbridge Nursing Home. You may go along by calling Erma Alber at 428-8707.

Sunday, May 14 is your chance to honor your own Mom by a visit, if possible. Moms are the most special people, but we who are Moms think our kids are.

Monday, May 16: Change in schedule on calendar—it is Mayor's Day and they plan to use the bus. The shopping trip will take place on Monday, May 22 instead.

Tuesday, May 16: Clergy presentation begins at 11:15 and these are interesting. Jan and crew will serve Salisbury steak at noon for all who are 55 or older in our area. The meal program is growing—there were about 60 enjoying the great Birthday Bash May 4. Imagine, broccoli soup before the rest of the goodies! On to the Center at 12:30 for Center activities.

Wednesday, May 17: A tour of Hidden Lake Gardens ($1.00 admission price) is on the agenda today. Senior bus will leave the Center at 9:30, call Erma to ride along for all this spring beauty.

Thursday, May 18: Come exercise at the Center at 10:30. Macaroni & cheese will be enjoyed by all us hungry eaters. Thanks, Jan and Grandma Gillow—Happy Mother's Day!

Country calendar says the 14th is a full moon and calls it a 'flower moon', what's that?

Happy Birthday, Seniors!

RACING ON THE RIVER RAISIN

by Patty Swaney

It is fifteen minutes to 12:00 at the Fellows Bridge on the River Raisin. Anticipation is rising. Racers that have registered and received their numbers gather their equipment and partner near the starting point to plan their strategies. Late comers try to locate the registration table, unload their canoe, park their vehicle and ask encouraging on-lookers how much time they have before launch time.

Activity peaks. Ten minutes till starting time on the day of the Annual Manchester Amateur Canoe Race. Bill Schwab, canoe race committee chairman is in great demand. He has coordinated all registrants with numbers for their canoes depending on what class they have entered. Last minute sign ups must be given numbers and added to lists at the end as well as the beginning of the race. The sheriff's police radio takes care of the task of getting messages to Dick Kuntz, time keeper, at the finishing line.

The pressure mounts. It's up to Chris Brooks to help get the canoes into the river at the starting point. Rain or shine Chris is wading in the chilling water, shouting out numbers for the next canoes to enter the river and getting them ready to advance to the official starting line.

There you'll find Bill Swaney and Ron Zang with the official roster. Their watch has been synchronized with time-keepers at the finish line. Nervous racers crash their boats into the banks of the river the challenge to steady their canoe and wait their turn is a difficult task in the swift flowing water even for the most expert of paddlers. Every two minutes Bill calls up a numbered canoe to approach the heavy rope strung across the river. On the mark, cheers and whoops rise up from the crowd as their friends or family begin their voyage down the river.

In about thirty minutes the first racers are spotted by the fans on the Main Street bridge. It takes nearly an hour and a half for all of the challengers to be sent down the river. Chris Brooks with his son Joe officially shove off for their leisurely trip down the course as they are traditionally the last canoe in the race.

The Manchester Recreational Task Force under Bill Schwab mobilizes the committee that runs the canoe race. On May 21, 1995 for the 29th Annual Manchester Amateur Canoe Race there are 7 classes. Included are: Women, Man and Woman, Choose Partner, Adult and Child, Competition, Single and Sprint. You don't even have to have your own canoe, since Manchester has its own Sharon Hollow Acres Canoe Livery which can supply you with one.

Entry forms for the race are available at: Manchester Pharmacy, Pyramid Office Supply, Movieland, and the Community Resource Center. You can call 428-7722 for specific information. Rules have changed over the 29 years but still remain simple. Come join the fun or the challenge along the banks of Manchester's River Raisin!

Learning About Agriculture - the fun way

The Assistants' View

The Manchester High School Leadership class, along with several members of the National Honor Society, recently participated in Rural Education Days at the Saline Farm Council Grounds. This project gave third graders from across Washtenaw County the opportunity to learn about farming and related areas.

The participating third grad-

After a fun-filled day of animals and snacks, the students were photographed by "Daisy" the cow.

Many volunteers were needed to make Rural Education Days successful. Thank you to the Manchester High School students and adults who volunteered their time and energy to make this project possible!

The Chaperone's View

On the last Tuesday and Wednesday of April, over one thousand third graders from twenty-one schools, including those from Klager Elementary in Manchester, along with their teachers and some parents, converged on the Washtenaw County Farm Council Grounds for the fifth annual "Project R.E.D."-Rural Education Days. Through the combined efforts of the Washtenaw County M.S.U. Extension, the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau and the Washtenaw County Farm Council, these children, many from completely urban areas, were lead though a series of agricultural workshops.

The children started their tour as guests of Abe Lincoln who walked them through the State of Michigan and it's farm commodities. They saw a wool spinning demonstration, a Dairy exhibit entitled "From MOO to You", and had the opportunity to get up close and personal with several farm animals. From there, programs on water quality and soil conservation were presented, and the children saw first hand the huge equipment and investment necessary to harvest a crop of corn.

Next, they went through the "Commodity Showcase", munching on Michigan grown products including; honey, blueberries, cherries, apples, milk and ice cream, potatoes and popcorn. A hands-on tree and shrub exhibit and a cheese making demonstration awaited them as they finished their tasty samples.

Each child was sent home with a goody bag loaded with recipes, activity books, fact sheets and a tree seedling donated by the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District.

More than 160 volunteers from the agri-business and surrounding farm community made these two days possible. Many, many donations and sponsorships kept the cost to a minimum so that the children could come free of charge.

In addition to a fun-filled day away from the classroom, the children and the adults present came away with a better understanding of rural issues and Michigan farm commodities.

Darci Hock was one of the MHS Leadership volunteers

ers were accompanied by group leaders (high school students) throughout their stay. The younger students, who were typically from urban areas, saw cows, sheep, horses, pigs, rabbits, and goats, up close, many for the first time.

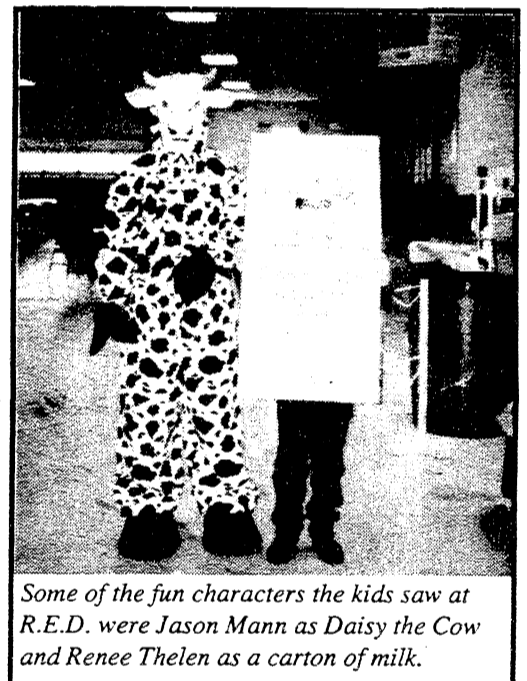

In addition to seeing the live-stock, both morning and afternoon sessions toured the commodities booths. Here, the students were able to learn about and sample many great Michigan products such as, dried cherries, ice cream, apples, honey butter, and chocolate milk. This tour proved to be the favorite of many of the third graders.

Some of the fun characters the kids saw at R.E.D. were Jason Mann as Daisy the Cow and Renee Thelen as a carton of milk.

P.A.S.S.

Positive Accommodations Stimulate Success

P.A.S.S. is a committee formed to provide support to parents and students with special needs.

Our goal as a committee is to provide parents, students, teachers and administrators with information so they can work together to strengthen the services provided within our school system.

We feel we have many services offered in grades K-4, but there seems to be a breakdown in grades 5-12. With added resources and support for faculty in these grades we feel this situation can be improved.

The frustration our students feel is also being felt by our parents and school personnel.

At this time we are currently working with our Director of Special Education and Superintendent Niedzwiecki. We hope that these meetings will facilitate positive changes within our school system.

If you, too, are feeling frustrated and need information, please call 428-0738 and leave a message. We will contact you.

Random Acts of Kindness Week at Klager

Essays by Mr. K's and Mrs. V's fourth graders

I think Random Acts of Kindness is a wonderful idea because it lets all of the kids at Klager Elementary know how nice they can be to each other and the same goes for the rest of you. I don't think random acts of kindness should be just one week, it should be every day that kids show how nice they are but without rewards because then they just try to do nice things to the teachers just to get a reward. Like if somebody gets out in lightning [a basketball game] all you have to say is "Don't worry, just try again the next game but harder. It's just like super heroes." I've got a card where a girl was about to be eaten by a dinosaur, but then her friend comes and saves her because he doesn't want her to get hurt. So, the lesson is: be a friend!

- by Ryan Holt (a very nice person)

I feel happy about Random Acts of Kindness because it helps all the kids in the school to show that they care for each other. It helps new kids to get to know some friends in school. If they have a hard time you could help cheer them up by letting them play in your games. I know how it feels to be a new kid in school - but don't be shy, be a friend.

- by Joshua Reeter

A Week of Random Kindness

I think that random acts of kindness is good even though it's only for one week, kids might get in the habit of being kind to everyone they see. Kids could help each other by holding a door open, picking something up and helping each other with their problems.

When you help someone it makes you feel very good about yourself. People like it when you help them, it makes them feel good too. If you would like someone to treat you nice, then you should treat them nice also. You should always remember to say please, thank you and you are welcome. With this advice, I guarantee that you will be highly respected in your town.

- by Joshua McCalla

Random acts of kindness is terrific! I like it because it raises people's self of esteem. I think that Random Acts of Kindness should be every day so everybody could be happy every day.

Andrew Schook Wins Spanish Club Essay Contest

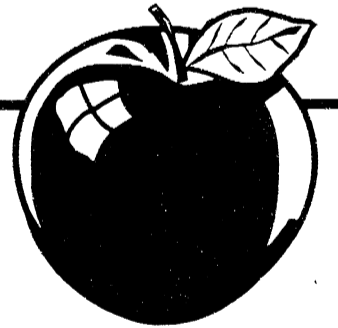

There is one main reason why I feel that I should receive this financial scholarship. That reason is because of how much this summer's Mexico experience will benefit me and my future. As most of you know, money does not grow on trees. My family's budget is becoming a little limited because of house repairs and other miscellaneous repairs, so any easing of a financial burden will be welcomed with open arms. I could have easily not gone on the upcoming trip because of its cost. But I have been determined for two years to go on this trip because I feel it will be a very important experience in my life. Since I got a job last August, I have been putting in as many hours as possible to earn money, with paying for the Mexico trip as my main objective. This scholarship would greatly help me so that I might have some time to relax, and not have my life until June being constant job, work and then homework. Another problem I have is where most of my money is coming from. It is coming from my one and only savings account (in which more money is coming out than going in), which was supposed to be for my college education. So any financial help will help me in the long run.

As I said earlier, this experience will greatly affect me. It will give me exposure to another culture, which I have not had. Although I am from Colombia, I was too young to remember a single thing about it. While on the subject of my origin, I think that the Mexico trip will get me more acquainted with the type of culture I came from. Although Colombia is a South American country, it is a Spanish-speaking country and does have many similarities to the Mexican culture. Someday I hope to return to my homeland, and this trip may help me be able to use the Spanish language more effectively and accept their customs more readily. Overall, I think the trip will make me think differently about how I view other cultures and will broaden my horizons.

The number of benefits from this trip is innumerable. I will get to see how an average day in a Mexican family's life compares to one of our own. I will get to experience new foods and see how their eating schedule differs from ours. Also, I will get to see what Mexican youth do for fun in their spare time, and will get some more experience with the Spanish language. Another important thing is that I will get to see the family structure of Mexicans. For example, how the family members interact with each other as opposed to how American families interact with each other. I think this whole experience will be something I will never forget and will help me in future endeavors should I go back to Mexico or South America. I am sincerely looking forward to it (and my first plane trip that I can remember), and I hope I receive this scholarship so that I can rest a little easier not having to worry about lack of money. This great experience should not be ruined by going broke in the process of paying for it.

Honoring those who help us learn

A special day is set aside each year in communities throughout the nation to recognize the contributions made by all school employees to our society.

It is an appropriate time to reemphasize the fundamental importance of America's schools. Our nation's democracy is rooted in a free system of public education. Classroom teachers and other school employees are the dedicated professionals who make that free system work.

School Family Day is sponsored by the Yourtown Education Association and the Michigan Education Association.

School Bus Delivery Update

We were interested in when the School System might expect to receive delivery of the new Wayne "Transit" school buses. We called T.E.S.C.O., Transportation Equipment Sales Corp. in Livonia and talked to salesman Denny Dunsmore. Denny wasn't sure, so he had us contact Bud Graham in Toledo.

Bud told us that the buses were in the process of being finished now. They were scheduled to come from the Manufacturer's production line on May 19th, at which time the buses would be delivered to Toledo for final checking and prep work. That process takes about a week so the units may be delivered to Manchester sometime around the 29th or 30th of May.

Additional work will have to be accomplished when they reach Manchester. Installation of radios and checking out probably will take a week or two. It appears at this time that the buses will be available for the fall '95 school year.

The manufacturer, Wayne Bus Company, is going out of business and parts for the body components may prove to be a problem in the future. Bud Graham said such main components as the Cummins diesel engine and Allison transmission would be warranted by those two companies and the nearest dealer.

It could be a problem for the availability of some parts however, according to Bud. "We will try our best and hope that everything is available from the original suppliers if they can be located."

Student Advocacy Committee Formed

Emory Garlick

We have received word from Robert Cook and Richard Boatwright that a group of interested parents and community members have formed a Committee to assist and support the Manchester Community Schools with a Student Advocacy Committee. According to Mr. Cook, high school principal Russell LeBlanc has recently viewed their A.D.D. (Attention Deficit Disorder) Video several times and sees value in their objectives.

We at The Enterprise heartily endorse the goals as outlined, and this editor is in full agreement with their objectives.

Their Goals are as follows; and will be presented to the Board of Education at their May 15th meeting.

- 1. To see that all students are treated with dignity and respect at all times, regarding any situation.
- 2. To see that all personnel having any contact with students emphasize positive attitudes.
- 3. To see that there is better communications between administration, teachers, students and parents, and to assure that any conference needed involve all the above.
- 4. To see that all students are treated equally and fairly in all matters.
- 5. To see that the Manchester School System promote, encourage and nourish the student's self-esteem and intellectual well being.
- 6. To support the administration and teaching staff who demonstrate quality instruction and good interpersonal relationships with students.
- 7. To see that the school respect and protect the confidentiality of students and parents.
- 8. To see that the school provide for the specific needs of students (i.e. A.D.D.)
- 9. To see that students study and learn in a positive atmosphere, free from verbal and physical threats from staff and other students.
- 10. To see that accusations are not leveled at students without sufficient proof to support them.

The Student Advocacy Committee has been conducting informal group meetings and researching the A.D.D. syndrome. The committee has gathered a great deal of help and information from the Ann Arbor school system and from the Ann Arbor Advocacy committee.

Freestyle Wrestling

Coached by Jim Roberts, with assistance from Mark Roberts and Ron Ellison, this fifth grade boys basketball team participated in the Ann Arbor Recreational Basketball Program. The program, which ran from January to March, consisted of ten games played at Tappan Middle School with referees, whistles and a time clock. It gave the boys a real sense of the game, and while only out-scoring their opponents twice, all the games were well played, and everyone came out winners. The season was capped off by an after game brunch, hosted by the Loud's and a very competitive Moms versus Sons game. The season would not have been possible without the dedication of the coaches, the parents, and players. Great Job Guys!

Holt Junior High School was the site for the 1995 Freestyle Wrestling Regional Tournament. Over 574 wrestlers came from three districts, to take part in the day's event including 8 of our own of which 4 brought home medals. From Group One James Tobias placed First and Ryan Smolinski placed Second. Group One does not compete past the regional level. From Group Two, Noah Kuhn placed Fourth and from Group Four Jeremiah Tobias placed first.

Dan Fleck, Joshua Tobias and Will Slocum all wrestled well but unfortunately did not qualify for the State Tournament. A job well done goes out to these wrestlers for reaching this level. Qualifying for the 1995 State Freestyle Wrestling Tournament held in the East Kentwood High School in Grand Rapids this weekend are Noah Kuhn from Group Two and Jeremiah Tobias from Group Four, we all would like to wish these wrestlers good luck this weekend.

Monday Night the Freestyle club held an Award Ceremony to honor all the kids for having such a great year. Coach James Suggs had this to say " We have made tremendous strides as a club this year and I am very proud of each and every wrestler. These kids did great things this year and hopefully we can make next year as productive as this year has been. I am already looking forward to the 1996 Freestyle Wrestling season and I would like to thank everyone who made this season possible." Each child received a certificate and a job well done from the whole club.

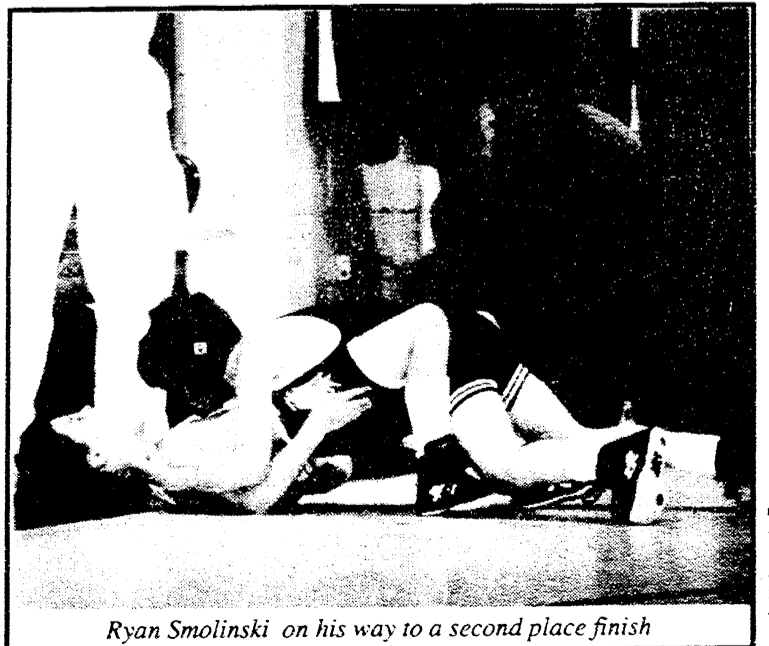

A great big Thank You was sent out to all the folks at Manchester Plastics and Tower Automotive for supporting the club this year. We would also like to Thank all of you who helped support us through the Candy Bar sales and the Bottle drives. Through everybody's generous support we were able to purchase team singlets for the kids to wear.

Linda Simkiss to retire

After over 22 years of dedicated service, Linda Simkiss will depart Emanuel Church. Linda and her husband will both retire to Missouri. There they intend to build a new home, involve themselves in their new community and enjoy the fruits of nearby Branson and its ascending reputation as a country music capital of mid-America.

Linda's husband grew up and has family nearby, so they will never be far from "home." The congregation of Emanuel Church is truly indebted to her for these two plus decades of service. She has not only supervised the church office, but in many ways acted as an assistant pastor.

Linda has provided long ranging guidance with regard to scheduling and administration to special groups utilizing the church facility. While shifting between roles as a receptionist, office manager and guidance counselor, her most notable asset has been the ability to work successfully with the numerous volunteers who make Emanuel run so smoothly.

Linda, we will miss you as will the thousands of people who have passed through the church doors these past 22 years. Please join us on Sunday, May 28 for a farewell to Linda and her husband as they begin another journey in their life. Good luck and God Bless!

Historical Society to dedicate Swainson Room

The May meeting of the Manchester Area Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, May 16 at 7:30 PM at the Blacksmith Shop, 324 E. Main Street, Manchester. The John Swainson room at the Blacksmith Shop will be dedicated at this meeting. All members and non-members are welcome to attend.

Manchester Area Historical Society

I hope plenty of residents have noticed the posters around town inviting you to "Boost the Bunting" (Howard Parr's great phrase) for the 4th of July. The Manchester Area Historical Society and the Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce are in on this together, but we're not doing it to profit our organizations' treasuries. It's just that decorating Manchester homes and store fronts during America's birthday party fits us.

For one thing, Manchester is one of the few towns where you can still see fireworks to celebrate our Independence Day, thanks to the generosity of our Men's Club. People come from all over to spread a blanket in Carr Park and enjoy the kind of celebration that has died out in many communities. My family travels from as far away as Chicago and Florida to Manchester because they say this town celebrates the 4th the way they remember. Here, people can see the best of the "Good Old Days" alive and well. Here, people are neighborly, even when numbering in the thousands.

The town itself stirs memories of a younger America. If you've been past Woodbrook and April Victoria, you can see how our beautiful old buildings seem to have been made to show off an American's pride in the red, white and blue. So, it fits us to deck out the town in a way that would make our ancestors proud.

In fact, Dave Fox, owner of Fox Tent and Awning in Ann Arbor remembers many a trip out here when his kids were growing up. He even offered on his own to give us a discount on the price as he said, "for the 4th of July and for Manchester." That savings gets passed on to everyone who buys one of the fans. They come in two sizes, with printed stars and stripes, 100% cotton fabric, ready to hang: size 3'x6' normally $36.50 apiece, now $30; size 4'x8' normally $56.60 apiece, now $50.

If you move fast, you can buy a smaller sized one and take it home right away for Memorial Day - the Chamber of Commerce has two dozen 3'x6' size fans for sale right now at Woodbrook and April Victoria.

If you want the larger size, or if you get there late, you can place an order there or at The 18th Century Shoppe and Comerica Bank, all on downtown Main Street. Payment is due with your order, and you can use a credit card at Woodbrook/April Victoria and The 18th Century Shoppe. The historical society will collect the order forms and money on May 27. The order goes in the next week to give us plenty of time to get the fans back for the 4th. Fans can be picked up at the store where you placed the order.

Members of the Manchester Area Historical Society and Chamber of Commerce hope you will truly enjoy the upcoming national holiday. You most certainly don't have to buy anything to do that, but if you feel like dressing up a little there's nothing better than the colors of Old Glory.

WE ARE IN NEED OF ADULT VOLUNTEERS!

Will You Wear A Poppy, Please?

This question will be asked again and again during poppy days, May 14 & 15. Since the 1920's, offering our memorial flower to the public has been part of the rich heritage of the American Legion Auxiliary's Poppy Program. We ask everyone to wear the red crepe paper poppy as a symbol and national tribute to those veterans who sacrificed their lives and health so that we might live in freedom.

For over 70 years, the American Legion Auxiliary has sponsored Poppy Day to remind America that millions have sacrificed their lives and health to keep our nation strong and free.

The poppy which grew wild on the battlefields of Flanders became, in the minds of the doughboys of World War I, a symbol of the sacrifice which they had endured. It had flourished among the shelled buildings and bomb-scarred landscape. Its brilliant red bloom, so much like the blood which had been shed there, became a sign of hope and renewal for those who lived and walked away. For those who would never leave, those who had sacrificed their lives, it was a perpetual memorial to their bravery.

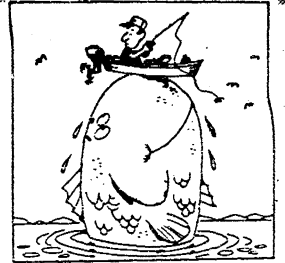

American veterans brought home that image and planted it with the Auxiliary where it has bloomed every year for the benefit of those who served America. The Memorial Poppy contributions are devoted entirely to rehabilitation and assistance for veterans and their families.

On behalf of America's veterans, thank you for caring.

St. Jude, may the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and perserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, helper of the hopeless, pray for us. Amen. Say the prayer nine times a day. By the eight day, your prayer will be answered. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised.

THANK YOU

In Loving Memory of Verna M. Bowers on Mothers Day. You have only one Mother, patient, kind and true, no other friend in the world would be so kind to you. For all her loving kindness she asks nothing in return. If all the world deserted us to our mother we could turn. To those who have a mother, treasure her with care for you never know her value till you see her vacant chair.

Sadly missed and deeply loved by all her family.

I would like to thank everyone who has been praying for me throughout my illness. So many have sent flowers and cards and food.

Without all the support from friends, church family and family, I could not have made it through.

Special thanks to Ada Arnold for her assistance and friendship.

Alma Arnett.

To my Mother Jeanette (Witkowski) Garlick and to my Grandmother, and Dads Mother, Minnie Mae (Tabor) Garlick.

Dad and I dedicate the poem from Lord Tennyson's play The Princess.

ONE Not learned, save in gracious household ways;

Not perfect, nay, but full of tender wants;

No angel, but a dearer being, all dipt

In angel instinct, breathing Paradise,

Interpreter between the gods and man,

Who looked all native to her place, and yet

On tiptoe seemed to tread, and all male minds per force

Swayed to her from their orbits as they moved,

And girdled her with music. Happy he

With such a mother! faith in womankind

Beats with his blood, and trust in all things high

Comes easy to him, and though he trip and fall

He shall not blind his soul with clay.

We love you both, Wayne and Emory Garlick
