Village Council Leaves the Burning Issue Behind

After much discussion, public input and work sessions devoted to the issue of What To Do With Leaves This Fall, the Village Council has come to a conclusion on the leaf burning issue: we won't do it.

Health concerns by about 30% of the respondents were certainly a consideration in the decision, but the deciding factor was that burning will be prohibited by the Federal Clean Air Act within a few years anyway, so the solution would only be delayed at best by allowing Village residents to burn their leaves, according to Village Manager Jeff Wallace.

Approximately 70% of the responses, when asked "for or against" burning, were pro-burning. Wallace attributes that response to the large number of senior citizens for whom bagging would be an expense and more physical effort than raking and burning leaves. About 20% of Village residents are Seniors. "The bottom line was, no one wanted to bag leaves," Wallace explained.

The solution? At this point, the status quo will hold. Residents are asked to rake their leaves to the roadside and they will be picked up by the vac-all as has been done for the past several years, since burning was banned in the first place.

"Doing the job ourselves is only a little more expensive than the ultimate cost of bagging and having BFI pick them up," Wallace indicated. "We will try the vac-all and see how it holds up. We have checked with other communities who have used Sweepster machines and many seem to be really happy with them. We can get a demo and try it for a few weeks, to see if it is a viable option for Manchester."

Wallace's discussions with other communities have elicited at least one consensus. There is no good way, no magic solution, to the Leaf Issue. The Village Council is trying to come up with the best possible way, for now and for the future.

And what will the Village do with all those leaves they pick up? "If there's a farmer who might take them, we would be glad to talk with him. Otherwise, there's still the industrial park where we can compost them for one more year," Wallace indicates.

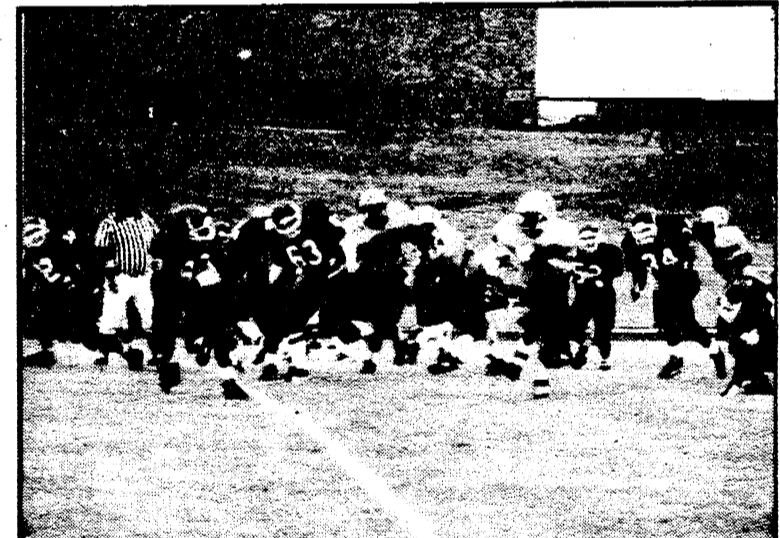

Other private solutions are still an option. Home composting and bagging are still available to residents who wish to dispose of their leaves in a more ecologically sound manner. The Village will also pick up bagged leaves (in kraft bags) if they are left at curbside.

This issue is at rest for now. But as the world struggles for a better way to dispose of the many types of refuse generated in our society, more issues will present themselves to federal, state and local governments. Be part of the solution - get involved in the decision making processes. -MJC

Food Gatherers & Manchester Family Service

WORKING TOGETHER TO SERVE LOW-INCOME FAMILIES IN MANCHESTER

In May, the final month for receiving Federal Food Commodities, Walt Brown, from Washtenaw Human Services Department, came to my home with papers to be filled out and submitted to "Food Gatherers" so that Manchester Family Service could become one of the participating social service agencies for distribution of the food they collect.

Food Gatherers, self-described as "The not-for-profit food rescue program serving Washtenaw County," was founded in November, 1988 by Paul Saginaw and Ari Weinzweig, the owners of Zingerman's Deli in Ann Arbor. They were motivated by the realization that as they had food over and above what was needed for the day, other stores probably did also. Today many businesses are willing contributors to filling the Food Gatherers truck with surplus vegetables, dairy products, breads and meats.

The first Director was

L i s a DeYoung and the Agency Coordinator is now Angela Taylor. When Angela called me in June and asked to meet at the facility where food would be distributed, we set a date. Angela and Amy Small joined me at Manchester United Methodist Church kitchen, the site where Family Service has distributed Federal Commodities for many years.

Their response was to ask if there was a larger kitchen with more refrigerator capacity as they would be bringing out a truckload. We next went first delivery would be the middle of July.

Family Service volunteer, Ann Fowler, helps unload foods from the Food Gatherers Truck at St. Mary Parish Hall

Since July we have been receiving deliveries from Food Gatherers on the third Wednesday of the month. In August, meat was delivered which had to be cut and packaged. Manchester Family Service asked Steve Popkey at the Manchester Market if he would do the job. He agreed, so we arranged to deliver the meat to him on Wednesday with pickup the afternoon of the following day, Thursday.

Manchester Family Service is now scheduling food distribution to Manchester low-income families to coincide with our arrangement with Food Gatherers and Manchester Market. Next distribution day will be Thursday, September 21, 1995 between the hours of 5:00 and 7:00 PM at St. Mary's Parish Hall at 106 E. Madison St., Manchester.

We are very grateful to the Food Gatherers for including us in their program. As we have not been notified if the government Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) will resume in the fall we are still able to provide food assistance, thanks to the Food Gatherers.

Out & About

- by gar

Ever wonder why you get some of that junk mail advertising in your mail box? Well, wonder no more. Businesses use computer research data.

Saturday's News and Free Press edition had a front page article titled "You're stamped by your ZIP code." Each ZIP code listed in the article garnered information from census, IRS data, and other sources with postal ZIP's. The compilation of this information has become possible through the use of computers coordinating the data from many sources, all public information.

If you remember a few years ago the hoopla was; "BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING YOU!" Perhaps we should modify that somewhat with a new cliché, "YOUR PC HAS ITS EYE ON YOU!"

For the 48158 ZIP code what do we know about ourselves in Manchester?

1994 population 6,815, which is a 9% increase over 1990. The population is 98% white, 0% black. Our median income was $44,377 and 33% of the families had three cars. Not published in the article was that many other facts are contained in the compiled data: number of children, average age of residents, education, home ownership, and more. All this information was prepared by the Michigan Metropolitan Information Center, Center for Urban Studies, at Wayne State University.

What's next? Will they compile data on your love life? Will it be on how much pocket change you carry, when you blow your nose and to what extent? Are we losing some of our privacy, or is this just a method of targeting our income and selling us merchandise?

The Manchester Enterprise welcomes letters to the Editor, Guest Editorials, and your comments, suggestions and opinions.

We ask that all letters submitted for publication be signed! Should there be extenuating circumstances for withholding your name, we will give that full consideration.

REV. RICHARD HARDY TO BE INSTALLED AT BETHEL CHURCH

The Reverend Dr. Richard Horn will present the major address at the installation service for Reverend Richard Hardy sponsored by the Covenant Association at Bethel United Church of Christ on Sunday, September 17, at 3 PM.

Horn is the Executive Director of the Samaritan Counseling Center in Gainesville, Florida, a graduate from American University in Washington D.C. where he studied to enter the U.S. State Department but instead transferred into the Christian ministry. Seminary was completed at Colgate Rochester Theological School. Work for his doctorate was completed at the Blanton-Peale Graduate Institute of New York City and Andover Newton Theological School in Boston. Horn has been in his present position since November, 1989. Before that he helped establish the family counseling and ministry program at the Center for Pastoral Counseling and Human Development in Fort Lauderdale from 1975 - 1989.

Born in Columbus, Ohio, Reverend Richard Hardy was called to ministry at Bethel United Church of Christ by congregational vote in March, 1995. His previous twenty-six years of Christian ministry includes service in juvenile court, general and psychiatric hospital, community mental health, and parish settings. A graduate of Indiana University and the Andover Newton School, Hardy is active in the Manchester Ministerial Association, CROP Walk, and on the Samaritan Counseling Board of Washtenaw County. Daughter, Diana attends the University of Chicago as a junior and, Christina is a senior at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor.

The United Church of Christ recognizes installation as a covenant between local church, minister, and a regional association of UCC churches; making solemn the mutual purpose of ministry from a spiritual calling. The minister is called by the local church and holds professional standing with the association.

Hardy and Horn served together in junior and senior high youth ministries at First Community Church, a 5,200 member church in Columbus, Ohio, from 1968-1972. Hardy is the fourteenth clergy at Bethel since the church was founded in 1840. He was ordained in 1969, and served parishes in Columbus, Ohio; Piqua, Ohio; and St. Joseph, Michigan.

Other participants in the installation include clergy from the Covenant Association of the United Church of Christ and clergy from Manchester and Saline. Baby sitting is provided and a reception follows the service. The church is located on the corner of Schneider and Bethel Church Roads.

Manchester FFA

Last spring, the Manchester FFA sent two delegates, Mary Ann Fillyaw and Marie Haeussler, one alternate delegate, Jon Hochstetler and their reporter, Shane Neigebauer, to the 67th FFA Convention.

The convention was held on the Michigan State University Campus in East Lansing.

The first day, the group arrived at their hotel and changed into our official dress for the opening session on Monday night. At the session they handed out awards for various topics and had some clips and movies to show us. After the session, the FFA held a dance and pizza party.

On Tuesday morning, the Manchester FFA held a meeting. Immediately following was a business meeting where the delegates voted on the FFA Constitution. At this meeting, the Manchester FFA received a plaque for having ten more members this year than last year.

After this meeting we attended the second session. They showed movies of men and women receiving various awards and what they did to receive that award. When the second session was over, we broke for lunch and then went to the third session. At the third session, Nate Girbach from Saline won the Michigan Star Farmer Award.

On our last day, Wednesday, we went to the fourth session which included more awards and a band. Throughout the session, the state officers introduced their closing song. We voted on it and they all passed. They also had talent shows and a band played for the crowd.

We thank all who made the FFA Convention worth while and especially the Manchester FFA for sending the four of us to that convention.

Harold Joseph Settles

Harold Joseph Settles, age 57, of Empire, MI, died Saturday September 2 at his home. He was born in Whitmore Lake on November 5, 1937 to Harold K. and Alina Settles. He was married in 1963 to Patricia Irene Hummel, who survives. He was employed by the Ann Arbor Public Schools as a Maintenance/Custodial supervisor until his retirement in 1981.

Also surviving are two sons, Geoffrey Scott Settles of Empire and Christopher Steven Settles of Toledo; a daughter, Robin Elizabeth Settles of Toledo; step mother Lillie Settles of Clinton; five brothers, Phillip Settles of Kalamazoo, Charles Flamez of Roseville; George Settles of Onsted, William Settles of Belleville and Peter Settles of Milan; five sisters, Delores Blankenship of Roseville, Carol Moldenhaur of Mt. Clemens, Linda Schmitt of Jeddo, MI, Vicki Grammatico of Roseville, and Laura Bohnett of Saline. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Over the years, Hal's love for children and young people has been central to his life. It was the exception not to see him attending a school function involving kids, whether sports, theatre or musical. Of several groups the Glen Lake wrestlers held a special place in his heart. Being there for "his kids," whether cheering them on, sharing the thrill of a win, or the agony of defeat, was what life was all about. He believed in the good in all kids.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, September 6 from Grace Episcopal Church in Traverse City, with Rev. Edward D. Emenheiser officiating. Memorials are suggested to The Association for Children's Mental Health of Northwest Michigan, Chapter Camp Scholarship Fund, or the Empire Area Heritage Group. Cross Country: Gaining Experience, Having Fun

Cross Country women

Manchester is fortunate to have someone with Vitale's credentials and history to be our team's inaugural coach. He has coached at Cross Country camps, ran in high school for four years and was team captain for two years. He coached Middle School track last spring and has been a cross country and track official for six years. A graduate of Eastern Michigan University, he student taught in Manchester Community Schools under June Weiland during the 1994/95 school year.

Vitale's deep dark secret is that he is a graduate of Napoleon High School. Does imply: across the country-side. Manchester is not hosting any meets this fall because we don't yet have a course charted. "We are exploring a few possibilities: Carr Park and the property between the high school and Klager are two of them," Vitale relates. "The course needs to be rolling and meet certain other criteria. Many schools hold their meets on golf courses: Napoleon's course is on the state land out on Sharon Valley Road." So you needn't travel too far to attend a cross country meet and support these students who are literally forging a path for others to follow.

Cross Country men

Imagine running a mile at 7:30 AM, whatever the weather. Then imagine adding another mile...and another. Have a full day of school...and then start running some more.

Manchester's Cross Country Team is beginning their first season. Coach Craig Vitale indicated that this is "a season of learning" for the team which consists of 8 girls and 5 guys.

Yes, co-ed sports have come to Manchester!

Cross Country events consist of a 3.1 mile (5K) race. All entrants begin at the same time and, as in any race, attempt to finish as fast as they can. To win a meet, a team has as many entrants as possible finish toward the front of the race. Since points are awarded by place (1 point for first place, 5 points for fifth place, etc.), the team with the lowest overall score wins. Five runners compete on each team.

In a dual meet, two school's teams compete. An invitational will attract 20-30 teams, and guys and girls run separately.

At their first Invitational Meet, the East Jackson Invitational, the varsity girls team had a respectable showing with finishes by Pam Preston in 12th, Rebecca Koffman in 16th and Jennie Sahakian in 29th place. JV Girls charted a 13th place by Jill Weidmayer, Ahja Zang with 17th, Dana Richards in 32nd place, and Marie Haeussler with 34th.

Freshman & Sophomore guys had a proud finish with Eli Bragg in 19th place. Junior and Senior guys Nick Weidmayer (17th), Art Gleason (25th) and Lin Harris (33rd) also did well against stiff competition from other schools.

Middle School coach John Leonard is assisting Vitale and training three eighth-grade guys for next year's team. "Those guys are getting acclimated to running, and learning what's expected of them," explains Vitale. "And they help our prospects look good for the future." With just two seniors on this year's team, captains Jennie Sahakian and Art Gleason, the team is well poised for a bright future. "Jennie and Art do a good job of being leaders; doing things to teach younger kids how to act and how to work."

Last spring, 11 guys and 10 girls petitioned the Board of Education for a cross country team at MHS. "We were the only school in the Conference who didn't have Cross Country," admits Vitale. But by the time Vitale was hired, just before practices were to start, some of the students had signed up for other fall sports.

he feel a little bit of rivalry? "Well, my coach and mentor, Keith Schultz, has been very successful there for over 20 years. I'm sure I'll feel competitive.

"Our success will not necessarily come this year. But I expect to be building the program over the next three to four years, and then we will be consistently competing for the Conference Championship."

Cross Country meets are held exactly as their name

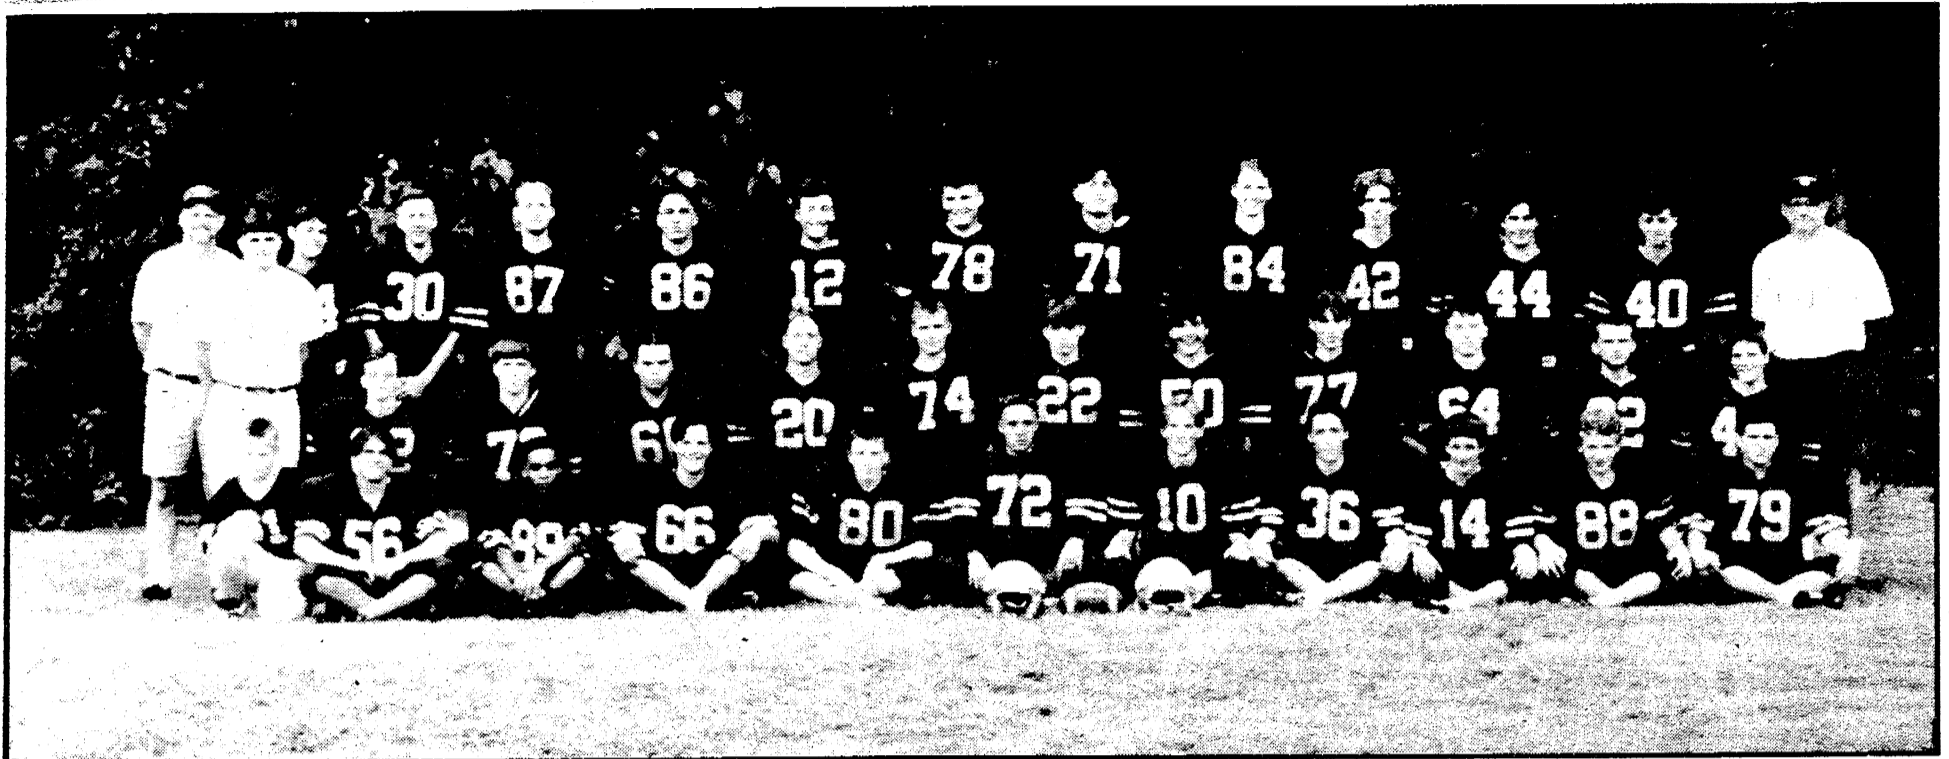

Another way in which the team asks for your support is in their upcoming fund raising drive. The Cross Country teams will be selling phone calling cards which make great gifts for yourself and others!

"You have to see a meet to appreciate it," Vitale says. Call the school for directions to the next meet. It will be worth your while to see our young trekkers in action.

JV Dutch Show Their Strength but Come Up Short

The weather turned cold Thursday September 7, but the Addison Panthers turned up the heat and beat the Dutchmen JV's 28 to 19.

It did take both teams a while to warm up as the first score for Addison came after 10 minutes had elapsed. The Panthers 2 point conversion was foiled when #66 Jon Hochstetler broke through the line and tackled the ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage.

The Dutch came right back when #89 Terry Coleman not only ran in from the 21 yard line for the Manchester touchdown, but also kicked the extra point. At the end of the first quarter the Dutch led 7-6.

The Panthers scored again in the second quarter and once again the 2 point conversion was thwarted, this time by #87 Keith Dettling. Addison now led 12-7 and for the rest of the second quarter it seemed that Manchester could not come up with any significant drive. Addison scored again before the half and this time the 2 point conversion was good. The half time score was 20-7 Addison.

The third quarter started off with a bang as #89 Terry Coleman took the kick off and ran it all the way back to the 9 yard line. Two plays later #10 Mike Meranuck ran in for the touchdown. The kicked extra point was blocked so the score was 20-13 still Addison.

The third quarter and most of the fourth quarter was dominated by the "Dangerous Dutch Defense". Players making play disrupting tackles included: #66 Jon Hochstetler, #82 Shane Neigebauer, #72 Chris Kemner, #64 Eric Flint, #87 Keith Dettling and #88 Kreg Norgaard. The Panthers made one final touchdown late in the fourth quarter with a successful 2 point conversion.

The score now was 28-13 Addison.

The Dutchmen would not give up. With 7 seconds left on the clock #44 Kirk Horodeczny ran 48 yards for a Manchester touchdown and the final play of the game. The final score was Addison 28 Manchester 19. The J.V. Dutch will travel to Napoleon this Thursday September 14. Come cheer them on!

After last week's loss to rival Clinton, Manchester rebounded with a convincing win against Cascades Conference rival Addison. Addison kicked off to Manchester, Jason Mann received on the Dutch 32, the fun began. The very first play of the game saw Quarter back Zach Maghes throwing for a completion. On the third play Maghes connected with Nick Davis for a 56 yard pass for a TD. Trevor Schleicher kicked the extra point and with 10:41 left on the clock in the first quarter, Manchester was on the way to their first victory of the 1995 season.

Addison returned the ensuing kickoff 25 yards and moved the ball on their first possession making a first down by inches. Two penalties forced Addison to kick which was received on Manchester's 10 yard line. Maghes ran for 8 yards. Nick Davis took Maghes hand off and ripped up the left side for 80 yards and Manchester's second touchdown. The extra point try was wide and with 5:47 remaining in the first quarter the Dutchmen led 13 to 0. Justin Porter, Offensive/Defensive lineman, had a slight shoulder pointer that put him on the sidelines for a series of plays.

Addison was held to three plays after the ensuing kick off. Their punt resulted in a short possession and with 4 and 11 we were forced to punt. Unable to move the ball again, Addison kicked to Manchester's 35 yard line. With Maghes handing off to Davis, Nick swept the left side for a 65 yard jaunt for his second running touchdown and third of the game. Schleicher ran the extra point play and with 11:50 remaining in the second quarter Manchester lead 21 to 0.

Manchester scored a 19 yard field goal by Schleicher, after some nifty running and passing by Maghes who hit Harris, Garret, Woods and Davis for short gainers. At the end of the first half we lead 24 to 0.

The third quarter saw the ball going back and forth between the two teams without a score. The fourth quarter's scoring was by Schleicher on another field goal of 22 yards.

Manchester's total yardage 360 to Addison's 106.

Coach Gall said he was "pleased with the team's improvement, but we face a much tougher team in Napoleon this week. Napoleon is bigger than we are and they are a very sound, good blocking team that is very physical. Napoleon and Manchester could be playing for the Cascades Blue Conference title this week."

It appeared that Mark Harris and Mike Mann were the most improved on the defensive team. Zach Maghes was poised and Nick Davis was very quick. The receivers were much improved and the offensive line looked better. However, we will have to improve even more if we are to defeat Napoleon.

JV Girls Start off with a Bang!

The Manchester JV Girls Basketball Team opened the year three for four, with wins against Saline, Milan, and Clinton.

The Dutchwomen started their season off against Clinton in an excellent debut, especially considering that the team has only three sophomores and six freshmen. Thanks to great leadership by the sophomores, and strong team spirit, the final score was Manchester 28 and Clinton

19. Amy Gall was the team's MVP for the game with fourteen points and a rebound. Courtney Whitaker had seven points and three rebounds, Jennette Branch scored six points while tearing down five rebounds, Cheryl Pfaus scored and grabbed a rebound, Tracy Staples and Lindsay Hosmer both helped out greatly with strong defense and three rebounds apiece, and Marie Haeussler and Melissa Hoefft each helped out on the boards with rebounds.

The second opponent to stray in the way of the Lady Dutch was Milan. Once again, Manchester dominated the game with a final score of 25-16. Amy Gall took on the MVP role again, scoring thirteen points and grabbing five rebounds. J. Branch scored nine and had five rebounds as well. C. Whitaker scored three and had two rebounds. Lindsay Hosmer grabbed four rebounds and made a few excellent passes. T. Staples snagged a pair of rebounds. M. Hoefft and C. Pfaus each had a rebound. Go Dutch!

Manchester's third offering was Saline, but Saline didn't offer the Dutch many opportunities. The game was a long hard fought out pulse-pounder whose victor could not be determined until the final buzzer cried out. Manchester 39, Saline 38. Jennette Branch went on a rampage, scoring twenty points and ripping down ten rebounds, earning her the MVP award for the evening! Amy Gall provided eight points and four rebounds along with a stunning defensive performance. C. Whitaker and C. Pfaus each sunk a pair of baskets and grabbed three boards. Lindsay Hosmer scored three and helped out with a pair of rebounds. M. Hoefft grabbed four rebounds and played great defense.

Thursday, The Lady Dutch went up against their steepest competition yet: the Chelsea Bulldogs. The game began well, with the Dutchwomen up 8-7 after the first quarter, but Chelsea's huge players and rock-hard defense was unrelenting. The second quarter began with Lindsay Hosmer making a wonderful drive. Her leadership skills shone through with nice passing and teamwork. After Amy Gall sunk a couple of free-throws, Lindsay made an amazing steal which resulted in a flurry of passes, ending up at Amy Gall, who was fouled and sunk another free-throw. After a Blitz offense by the Bulldogs, Lindsay ended the half with a pair of free-throws.

The third quarter was not good for the Dutch and ended 23-32. The final quarter was bleak and Manchester fell 26 to Chelsea's 44. Manchester's scorers were Lindsay Hosmer, the game's MVP, with 8, Amy Gall with thirteen, Jennette Branch with three, and Courtney Whitaker with two. Great job so far, Dutch.

Keep up the hard work!

Varsity Girls Work Hard to Improve

Manchester's first game of the year was against the strong Clinton team. The game was rough and tough and the Lady Dutch ended up with the short end of the stick, 27-55. The night's MVP, Jamie Knouase, led the team with a dozen points and a rebound. Sandie Fielder scored four and grabbed four rebounds. Michelle Schaible scored four and grabbed a rebound. Julie Porter scored three in her first game with a couple of rebounds as well. Erin Binder was all over the floor with excellent passes and defensive plays along with two points and five rebounds. Katrina Bihlmeyer scored two and had two rebounds. Stacy Mann and Karen Goodell helped out with rebounds, four and three respectively.

Milan was the next opponent. Careless mistakes cost Manchester the game, with a final score of 26-47. Erin Binder, the game's MVP scored eight and had three rebounds. Julie Porter had a fine outing with seven points and a rebound; Jamie Knouase scored four and snagged a couple of rebounds. Sandie Fielder scored three, and Karen Goodell scored two while grabbing a rebound. Michelle Schaible scored two, and Stacy Mann reached for three rebounds.

The Dutchwomen pulled themselves closer together and worked in unison against a powerful Saline Varsity, but fell short 47-54. It was a very good game, but turnovers were the Dutch undoing. Erin Binder proved herself a MVP by playing perfect defense, scoring 17 and grabbing three rebounds. Jamie Knouase scored eight and had a rebound. Julie Porter played very well, scoring seven and pulling down five rebounds. Stacy Mann had a wonderful game with airtight defense, nice passing, six points, and half-a-dozen boards. Karen Goodell scored three and had five rebounds. Michelle Schaible scored two and had five rebounds. Sandie Fielder scored two and grabbed a pair of rebounds, and Katrina Bihlmeyer scored a pair.

Last Thursday's game against the monstrous Chelsea team was very hard on the Dutch. The first quarter was almost a shutout with the score 1-9 in Chelsea's favor. Erin Binder scored the only point on a free-throw. The second quarter was better offensively, and they started to turn things around. It began as Erin scored Manchester's only field-goal in the first half. Michelle Schaible then sunk a pair of free-throws after a long Chelsea scoring streak. Things heated up as the game got rough with fouls galore. Sandie Fielder sunk a pair of free-throws, as did Michelle Schaible.

The crowd fell silent as it was apparent Erin Binder was seriously injured. The game stopped as medical help raced in. She had injured her right knee. It was obvious that she was out for the game, but how much longer is anyone's guess. Erin received a long round of applause as she was helped off of the court.

Things went downhill from there. The third quarter brought only one basket for Manchester, a jumper by Julie Porter. Going into the fourth quarter, the score was a gloomy 13-36. Manchester finished with what little they could muster against the Bulldogs. The game ended 21-54.

Hopefully, the Lady Dutch will improve and play as powerfully as they did against Saline. If they keep improving and continue as a close team, they will begin to turn the season around.

Notes from the parents of an LD student:

My second child struggles with reading and writing in grade school. The CAT scores are always in the "Below Average" range in reading comprehension and writing categories.

The general education teachers say my child is a little behind - but such a nice, pleasant child. Chapter I and private tutoring will help. They do, somewhat. My child makes it through grade school.

In early middle school conferences, the general education teachers say my child appears to be below average. Test scores are low. "But such a nice child. Work harder at home, study harder for tests." WE DO! I say. My child can't read! Shouldn't we do something?

"Your child's so nice, and fun; we enjoy your child," they say. "Your child needs to try harder. It's not as easy for this child as it was for your first."

Middle School progresses. I hear it again. "You have such a nice friendly child. But getting behind in assignments. Work Harder."

The school system gets new text books. The reading level of these new books is higher than the old ones. My child falls further behind. My child can't read. "But you have such a nice child. Tell your child to study harder."

But my child isn't nice at home. My child is frustrated, and I am mad. TRY HARDER, I say. The grades fall lower - but my child makes it through middle school.

High School Freshman year: At fall conferences, "Your child is nice, your child is friendly. Your child participates in class discussions. You child has trouble on tests and written assignments. Tell your child to study harder." WE DO! My child can't read!

Mid marks, second marking period: Teacher, "Every day we take notes in class. First marking period the notes were OK. Now the notes are terrible. Your child is faking it and not trying! Your child isn't so nice!" I ask, where was the information coming from in the first marking period?

"The first marking period's notes were mostly from lectures; now we're using the book." I say, My child is faking the notes. MY CHILD CAN'T READ!

Second teacher, "Your child needs to try harder. Why, just the other day your child turned in an A+ paper. Your child can do it!" I know, my child was proud; my child showed me the paper. Where did she get the information for the assignment? "We watched a movie in class; they had to analyze the movie." MY CHILD CAN'T READ! But my child isn't dumb!

My child is finally tested! My child is learning disabled. As parents, we're glad there's finally a diagnosis. As a student, my child is mortified to be labeled! My child says she's dumb!

What is LD? It's a person with higher than average intelligence who processes information differently than a "normal" person. As a high school student my child has a hard time accepting this. Younger children, diagnosed early, usually fare much better.

Hearing and sight impaired children obviously have to process information differently. LD children don't have an obvious handicap. But they also Learn Differently. The schools must accommodate this just as they do sight and hearing impaired children.

If your child is struggling and not a behavior problem (which usually results in testing) your child can slip through the system!

Navy Hometown News

Navy Petty Officer 1st Class Gary L. Daniels, a 1980 graduate of Manchester High School, has returned from a four-month overseas deployment to the Northern Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea aboard the guided missile frigate USS Aubrey Fitch.

Daniels is one of 215 sailors aboard the frigate who departed Mayport, FL, to make the more than 20,000 mile journey. While on deployment, Daniels and fellow sailors participated in several exercises with foreign naval units. Daniels's involvement in the deployment is an example of how US Sailors are serving around the world from the Persian Gulf and western Pacific Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea.

Whether projecting power or delivering humanitarian assistance from the sea, these highly trained naval forces provide a unique forward presence and crisis-response option, which can be withdrawn quickly when no longer needed. Daniels joined the Navy in August, 1981.

MANCHESTER AREA SENIOR CITIZENS News

by T.V. Ludwick

Have you noticed how many times 'you know' is spoken in conversations? I hear this and wonder how the speaker could assume that I know beforehand what he (or she) is planning to tell me. 'You know, someone pulled out in front of me' makes more sense as it emphasizes a fact, but just sticking it in the middle of a sentence does not make sense to me. I sincerely hope I don't have the habit, but am sure I have worse ones!

Since hubby retired, I don't have to answer the phone much anymore (what a relief from salesmen, etc.). There are times when he has visited with family members for some time and I ask "Well, what did they say?" Talk about brief responses which results in not being aware of an event 'til it's about to happen. "I told you that two weeks ago", I'm told. "You did?", I ask while remembering that my mind isn't what it used to be.

I recently read that those who used the earliest of telephones shouted a lot. Alexander Graham Bell did. As did his assistant Thomas Watson, whose landlady complained mightily about the noise. Therefore, Watson made a cave of blankets around the phone in his room and crawled into it to make calls. Didn't help much, she said. So he invented the telephone booth. Note: At times, we still have to shout to be heard, huh?

Thursday, September 14: Stuffed peppers are on the menu for today at senior lunch in Emanuel's dining room at noon. Jan is already feeling frisky by pulling apron strings but am sure she will prepare some insides for those of you who don't like the taste of green peppers. So come and enjoy—first call in reservations to Sharman (ahead) at 428-8359, or to Jan (before 10:30 on meal days) at 428-7630. Thanks, Sharman Pfaus, for taking these calls for reservations!

Friday, September 15: Senior bus pickup begins at 6 PM to go to the Saline Seniors' Card Party. Call Erma Alber for your spot on the bus at 428-8707.

Saturday, September 16: A trip to Coldwater and their Apple Festival & Craft Show will be made and enjoyed. The bus will leave the Center at 9 AM and you may call Erma for your bus reservation.

Monday, September 18: The bus will leave the Center at 8 AM for Cantorberry Village which is called Little Frankenmuth. To get your name on the list to go along, call Erma.

Tuesday, September 19: At 11:15, Pastor Cooper will give the clergy presentation and these monthly programs are worthwhile and enlightening. Then, we eager eaters at senior lunch will be treated to Salisbury steak. How great it is—so tender and delicious!

Wednesday, September 20: The ladies usually enjoy most of our trips, but here is one for the men to enjoy, too. Senior bus leaves the Center at 8:30 for a tour of the BFI Recycling Center at 10 AM.

Thursday, September 21: Whee, baked fish today, goody! Come and enjoy and stay for bingo at the Center at 12:30.

Looking ahead: The trip scheduled for the 29th to the Clinton Fall Festival will be taken today, the 22nd as this is the time for their festival fun. Anyway, the bus leaves the Center at 11 AM and you may call Erma. And, to confuse you some more, the Kensington Park trip scheduled for the 23rd has been cancelled (just think, you can stay home one day this week, you busy seniors!)

Happy Birthday, Seniors!

Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce

Chamber to discuss recycling on Wednesday, September 20

The Manchester Area Chamber of Commerce announces their Annual Meeting will take place on Wednesday, September 20 at 11:30 AM at Haarer's Meeting Place. The meeting will focus on recycling in the Manchester Area.

The City of Ann Arbor has obtained a state grant for the Washtenaw County area on educating the public on how to "Buy Recycled Products." They have developed a 10-15 minute program on the topic, which closes the recycling loop by increasing the demand for products that have a recycled content.

Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority will also be present. WWRA has recently expanded recycling opportunities in the Manchester Area in two ways. First, the curbside pickups in the village have been expanded to every Tuesday. Second, they now accept more materials, including magazines, office paper, and aerosol cans. These new materials, in addition to newspaper, cardboard, glass, cans, and milk bottles can be left at curbside on Tuesday mornings in the Village or in the drop off containers at Manchester Market and the Bridgewater General Store in Manchester and Bridgewater Townships.

Come to the Chamber meeting at Haarer's at 11:30 on September 20 to hear about recycling in Manchester. For more information, call Chamber President Jim Achtenberg at Woodbrook at 428-7011.

Manchester Area Historical Society

The September meeting of the Manchester Area Historical Society will be held on Tuesday, September 19 at 7:30 PM at the Blacksmith Shop, East Main Street in Manchester.

Farm Land Use Meeting

Every hour since 1982, an average of 10 acres of farmland has been lost to other uses.

More than 40 percent of that lost farmland has been in the eight southeastern counties of Michigan, including Washtenaw, Livingston, and Wayne counties. County commissioners, township officials, supervisors, planning and zoning committees, farmers and the public are all welcome. We will be reviewing our options with experts on farmland preservation.

To learn more about what tools are available to save farmland, you are invited to a Land Use Development Meeting on Wednesday, September 20 at 7:30 PM at the Farm Council Grounds in Ann Arbor.

Options to be discussed will be the Transfer of Development Rights, Purchase of Development Rights, and Zoning and Planning Techniques.

Sponsored by the Washtenaw County Ag Land Committee, MSU Extension of Washtenaw County, and the Washtenaw County Farm Bureau, the program will include speakers Thomas Daniels, Director of the Agricultural Preserve Board of Lancaster County, PA; Jeff Frye, Sheep and beef farmer from Pennsylvania and Lancaster County Farmland Trust; Dr. David Skjaerlund, Michigan Department of Agriculture; and Bob Wagner, American Farmland Trust.

"We hope to agree on whether to do something and then look at what we are going to do," explained Washtenaw County Farm Bureau President Steve Solowczuk. "The main thing we need to do is to get the agricultural people out on this." If you are interested in protecting our area farmland, please attend this meeting and learn what you can do.

CONGRESSMAN SMITH OFFERS COLLEGE OPPORTUNITIES

LeGrand Smith Scholarships to be Awarded to Outstanding 7th District High School Students

Representative Nick Smith (R-MI) today announced that applications for the LeGrand Smith Scholarship honoring outstanding high school seniors in the 7th Congressional District are now available from high school counselors.

Rep. Smith has declined pay raises for the past 15 years of his legislative career and has, instead, used the money to establish a trust fund for local high school student in memory of his father, LeGrand Smith.

All high school seniors in the 7th Congressional District are eligible to apply. The 7th Congressional District covers Branch, Calhoun, Eaton, Lenawee, Jackson, and Hillsdale Counties, plus parts of Barry and Washtenaw Counties.

Awards are granted on the basis of academic accomplishments and leadership. The award selection does not consider the student's financial situation. A scholarship committee will select semifinalists representing all schools from which student have applied. These students will be asked to write an essay on a given subject. Winners will then be selected on the basis of the essay, academic and leadership qualifications and personal recommendations. Semifinalists will receive a resolution honoring their academic and leadership accomplishments.

Approximately ten winners will receive a framed tribute and a monetary award.

Completed applications must be postmarked by January 20, 1996 and sent to Representative Nick Smith, 121 South Cochran St., Charlotte, MI 48813.

SMITH ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR NOMINATION TO U.S. SERVICE ACADEMIES

Representative Smith also announced that he is now accepting applications for nominations to America's service academies. Applicants interested in 1996 admission to the United States Military Academy, Naval Academy, Air Force Academy or Merchant Marine Academy, are encouraged to request information from his office.

"Last year, many of the outstanding students I nominated were accepted into each of the United States service academies. These academies have a well established and greatly deserved reputation for producing great leaders," said Smith.

Information about applications can be obtained by calling Representative Nick Smith's Charlotte office at 517/543-0055 or by writing:
