Written by Lacea Curtis

As you all know, this Saturday, November 18, the annual Christmas in the Village is being held. What you might not know is that this year student clubs and organizations are involved. There are six student groups (Student Council, Cross Country, Art, Key Club, German club, and Spanish Club) who will be raising funds for the benefit of their team. These clubs, mind you, just aren't going to be able to set up a booth for nothing. They've each been assigned to a major job that will help the craft show run smoothly.

Since this is the first year that student clubs have been involved, many tasks of organizing and planning have been underway since last spring. Student Council has been working with the Community Resource Center to plan the Christmas in the Village and everything is going accordingly, so far. Student Council, as a fund-raiser, will be having a booth for children to make ornaments as Christmas presents. This is a great opportunity for you parents who want to look at crafts without having to worry about your kids getting into trouble.

The Cross Country team will wrap gifts that people purchase at the show, selling pine cone fire starters, and selling plates for kids to leave Santa snacks on. The Art class has made natural wreaths and ornaments and will be selling these.

In cooperation with Kiwanis, the Key club will be selling food and T-shirts which promote helping the environment. The German club will also be selling food, but it will be in the form of baked goods. Proceeds will help students to travel to Germany in June. Spanish Club will be selling candy and holiday buttons in which your picture can be taken and placed in the button.

Manchester Athletic Boosters will be selling flags with Manchester logos on them and the Band Boosters will be taking orders for their fruit sale and selling Manchester Dutchmen license plate holders.

All the community support we can get will be a great help in making this first year's project a success. We'll see you at the Christmas in the Village!

Many local crafters will also find a niche at the High School this weekend. The scent of pot-pourri will blend with the aroma of the baked goods sold by the German Club. The gifts you purchase for wrapping by the Cross Country team can range from quilted wall hangings to wood carvings, hand painted jewelry and hand crafted clothing.

St. Mary and the Manchester United Methodist Church have joined their forces and will have a bake sale at the Methodist Church on Ann Arbor Hill. Emanuel Church will host a luncheon as well as a holiday bazaar, so you won't want to miss either location as you start your Christmas shopping. Local restaurants will also offer specials and a spot to "set a spell," relax, and chat with friends who are on the shopping route with you!

Downtown merchants will also welcome visitors to their shops. Homemade cookies, fragrant coffee and the heady aroma of mulled cider will greet you as you enter the holiday-bedecked stores in the downtown area. Many are offering special prices, free gift wrapping and other incentives to shop locally. Check our center section for advertisements detailing their sales and other offerings.

Join us as we celebrate the beginning of the Christmas season in Manchester and support your neighbors, local businesses, school, church and civic groups as they provide the community with this once a year opportunity to get a head start on the holidays.

High Winds Cause Local Power Outage

This past weekend's wintry, windy weather caused an extended power outage when a tree fell on a primary distribution line on Fahey Road in Manchester Township. According to John Hall, spokesman for Consumers Power, "The power interruption began at 1:48 PM on Saturday and affected 106 households. We restored power to 85 customers at 10:19 PM and the remainder were restored at 11:02 PM."

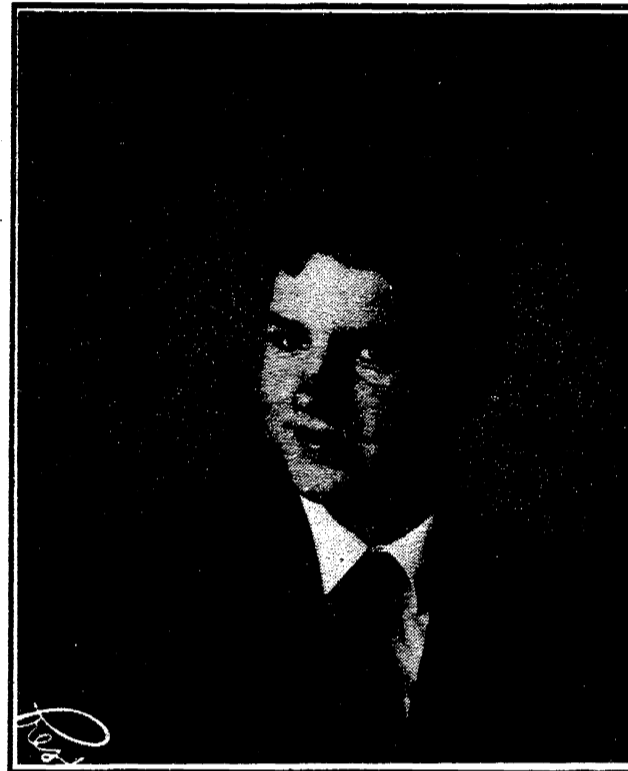

Why was there an eight or nine hour wait for power? "First we have to locate the source of the problem; then call out special weekend crews. On a Saturday we do not have regular crews available and have to call on our emergency staff. Then there is a lot of trimming and clearing to be done before we can effect repairs. And I understand it was a pretty big hunk of tree out there," commented Hall.

This early occurrence will serve as a reminder to local residents to be sure and have emergency sources of heat, light, and (for rural customers) water available this winter in the event of weather-related power interruptions. We often don't realize just how much we rely on our electricity these days!

Mark Harris Chosen as DAR Good Citizen

Manchester High School is very pleased to announce that Mark Harris has been chosen as the high school's Good Citizen of the Year award winner for 1995-96. This award is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mark is the son of Terry and Katherine Harris of 718 Granger Street.

Because our youth hold the future in their hands, the Daughters of the American Revolution established a Good Citizen Contest in high schools in 1934 to recognize and encourage outstanding young people in the pursuit of high ideals. Mark was selected on the basis of leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism. He will advance to State Good Citizen Competition by taking a written examination, submitting a transcript of his grades and letters of recommendation. He will be honored at a Saturday morning brunch in February in Ann Arbor. State award winners will receive educational scholarships and will advance to the National Scholarship Competition.

Mark is a senior at Manchester High School who plans to attend Michigan State University next year and major in business with the goal of becoming an accountant. At the present time Mark is in a tie for first place in his class with a perfect 4.00 grade point average. He is a member of our National Honor Society and our band. Mark is co-captain of our varsity football team and also participates in basketball, baseball, and track. This fall he was chosen as Manchester's Homecoming king. Mark was also the first person in his class to be selected as the Optimist Student of the Month.

New Construction in Manchester

by Emory Garlick

Timber Frame Home begins construction. The home will be occupied by Wayne and Sue Tervo

During the past summer, our area has experienced significant growth with many different building constructions. We will outline a few.

Manchester Township has several houses in progress. One of those is a Timber Frame house. What is timber framing? Simply put, the house is constructed around a frame made of oak or hardwood timbers which support the walls and roof. These framing members are generally exposed so their structural components can be viewed from the inside.

Occasionally the same framing members can be seen from the exterior if desired. Members are joined by a mortise and tenon joint held together with hard wood pegs. (A mortise is a cavity cut into a beam. A tenon is a finger shape in the end of another beam which fits the size of the mortise cavity. Holes are bored through the mortise and tenon, through which a wooden peg is driven and that holds the two together). This method was used to construct many of our local barns and houses in the past.

In the Village several interesting projects have developed. The old apartment building on Washington Street is in the process of being reconstructed and will be sold as condominiums.

Also on Washington Street is a manufactured home located in a vacant lot south of the river. This particular unit used a basic package of two halves delivered to the site and set on a basement. In addition, a stick-built master bedroom and bath was added. The lower basement contains the garage and the finished unit has been very attractively finished.

In Riverbend a very beautiful Ranch style home was constructed by Proctor Contracting. This unit features a walk out basement exposed to the rear of the house. A south facing deck wraps around the main level with an attached two car garage.

In Bridgewater Township, several homes are being built. On Clinton Road a modular home was built using a wood basement. This basement is different than most in that even the basement floor is constructed of treated wood. After the basement excavation a layer of stone is placed on the native soil. An envelope of visqueen, heavy duty, is placed and the treated sills for the basement walls and the floor joists are laid on this plastic barrier. Treated plywood was used for the walls and floor. The modular home was set on this basement. A conventional stick-built garage was added.

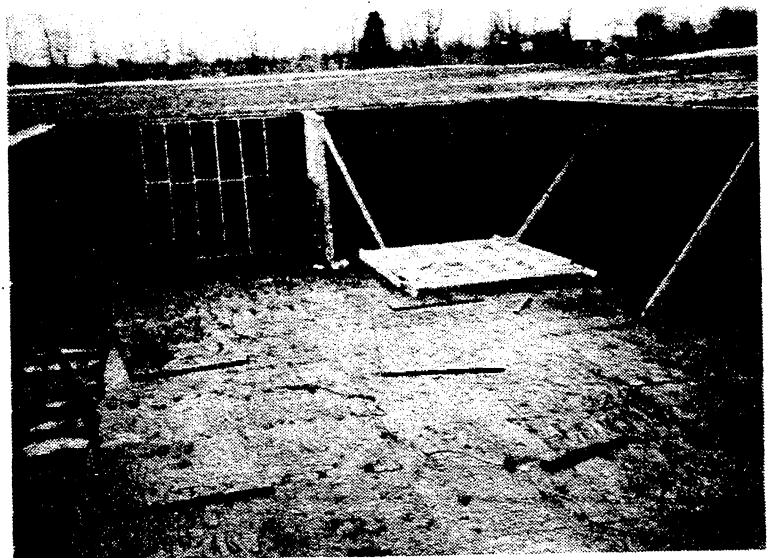

Back in the Village, Tom Ellis is converting the old Black Sheep building into apartments on the second and third floors. The second floor will have two apartments in each building and the third floor will have one apartment in each building. The commercial portion of the building is being rehabilitated. The old dining area and the kitchen area is being converted into a retail area.

Some of the more unique aspects of this building is the fact that the exterior walls are of twelve-inch thick brick construction. The floor joists go from wall to wall; they are of native oak and hard as a rock from age. Ellis has built new walls inside the brick walls, has sound insulated the old ceilings and drywalled them with fire rated materials. The spaces between the sills and the walls are filled with gypsum to prevent fire transference.

Sheet metal has been placed under the strategic walls as a fire stop before the walls are set. All wiring, heating, plumbing and air-conditioning has been removed from the existing building and will be replaced with new. We will keep you up to date on this project as it progresses.

Out & About

- by gar

I have been disturbed by some recent articles in our news papers and on TV about our Nation's and Individuals' financial health. The articles I am referring to have headings and subheads as follows:

Families charge deeper into debt - Easy temptations of credit cards sending consumers deeper in debt. (Detroit Free Press Wednesday November 8, 1995)

What's The big deal about a balanced budget? - 'The reality is that the standard of living in the United States is going down, and everyone is blaming the deficit. That's not only wrong, it's crazy.' The Ann Arbor News, Tuesday, November 7, 1995.

Japanese Bank crisis on horizon - Financial experts fret that collapse could trigger global depression. Bernard D. Kaplan The New York Times, reported in the Ann Arbor News, Sunday, November 12, 1995.

Clinton, GOP refuse to budge - In budget battle, deadline looms for U.S. shutdown of some nonessential ser- vices. Detroit News, Sunday November 12, 1995.

Government on the brink - Budget fight leading to shutdown tonight. USA TODAY, Monday, November 13, 1995.

There appears to be a common thread in each of these stories. That thread is overspending, charging on credit and bad debt! Oh, we can add the baloney about politics between Congress and the President but the simple fact is that the national debt for borrowing is about raising the limit from 4.9 TRILLION DOLLARS TO 4.967 TRILLION DOLLARS.

I am no math wiz but Webster says a trillion is a number followed by twelve zeros. SO that computes to, $4,900,000,000,000.00; interest computed at 5% equals $245,000,000,000 (two hundred forty five billion dollars per year, of taxpayers dollars, that is.)

Now in the case of a credit card user, (that would be you or me), the interest rate is 18% or 3.7 times what the government has to pay. In the case of credit card users 7 out of every 10 households carry an average balance of $3,900. That is up from $3,300 two years ago. The other 30 percent of the users pay in full every month. "Total consumer debt stands at a record 4.8 trillion. That means 92 percent of what income families have after paying taxes is needed to pay debts," according to the American Bankers Association.

What does all this mean to you and me? WE probably are broke and don't know it yet. The politicians sent to Washington and Lansing haven't gotten the voters' message. "Quit your damn bickering, posturing for next year's election and get down to the job of governing, LOGICALLY AND REALISTICALLY.

We are sick and tired of your political crap. Get to work and do the job you were elected to do.

U.S. Treasurer Withrow Explains New Rates for Savings Bonds

What is a "Treasury-based rate of interest"?

TREASURER: The interest rate for Series EE Savings Bonds purchased on or after May 1, 1995 is tied directly to

Mary Ellen Withrow
Treasurer of the United States

the yields of Treasury securities trading in the government securities market.

And Savings Bonds have two kinds of rates?

TREASURER: Yes. Short-term Savings Bond rates apply to Bonds for the first five years. We average six-month Treasury security yields for the three months prior to the announcement dates of May 1 and November 1, then take 85% of that average. Long-term Savings Bond rates are earned on Bonds after five years. We average five-year Treasury security yields for the six months prior to the announcement dates, then take 85% of that average.

Where can Savings Bonds be bought?

TREASURER: You can buy Bonds through most financial institutions and employer-sponsored Payroll Savings Plans. I would recommend asking your employer about saving with the Payroll Savings Plan if you're looking for an affordable, easy way to save money.

And for long-term rates?

TREASURER: Long-term Savings Bond rates are earned on Bonds after five years. The long-term rate is 85% of a five-year Treasury security rate. This becomes the long-term Savings Bond rate for the next six-month earning period.

How long do Savings Bonds earn interest?

TREASURER: Series EE Savings Bonds earn interest for 30 years from the issue date.

What about tax advantages?

TREASURER: The interest Savings Bonds earn is exempt from state and local income taxes, and federal income tax may be deferred until a Bond is cashed or reaches final maturity 30 years after the purchase date. And if Series EE Bonds are exchanged for Series HH Bonds, the deferral can be extended for 20 more years.

Do the new rates signify a risk to the holder's investment?

TREASURER: While we can't control what Treasury-based rates will be, Savings Bonds are guaranteed safe by the United States. This means holders will never lose their initial investment or any interest earned.

(For more information, write U.S. Savings Bonds, Washington, DC 20226.)

to Wayne Garlick, who will celebrate his 90th birthday on Saturday, November 18th. Congratulations!

Bring Me All Your Flowers Now

I would rather have a single rose
From the garden of a friend,
Than have the choicest flowers,
When my stay on earth must end.

I would rather have the kindest words
Which may now be said to me,
Than flattered when my heart is still
And this life has ceased to be.

I would rather have a loving smile
From the friends I know are true,
Than tears shed 'round my casket,
When this world I've bade adieu!

Bring me all your flowers,
Whether pink, or white, or red.
I'd rather have one blossom now

Holiday Travel

Thanksgiving travel expected to equal last year's numbers

The number of Michiganders who hit the roads and the skies during the upcoming 102-hour Thanksgiving holiday weekend will equal or slightly surpass last year's levels, according to AAA Michigan.

"Traditionally, about 20 percent of Michigan residents—or 1.8 million people—take a trip of 50 miles or more during the upcoming holiday weekend," said AAA Michigan Travel Director Bill Best. "That includes residents driving to grandmother's house up north for dinner as well as those flying home for the holiday."

Since Thanksgiving is primarily spent with family and friends, no one destination is surfacing as the only holiday "hot spot," Best said. But airline bookings to most domestic destinations have been brisk.

"For those not visiting relatives, Florida and Caribbean bookings have been high, as they always are during the winter months," Best said. "Las Vegas is also popular destination this holiday because of the inexpensive four-day charters available."

The best airfare deals still available for Thanksgiving may be for those willing to travel during off-peak times, such as Thanksgiving Day or the day after the holiday. Travelers are urged to scan newspapers or online computer services daily for sales or airfare wars and don't forget to check with their travel agent.

Detroit Metropolitan Airport is expected to be congested during the holiday weekend, particularly on the Tuesday and Wednesday before (Nov. 21 and 22), and the following Sunday (Nov. 26). The Auto Club urges travelers to arrive at the airport at least 1 1/2 hours before their flight to find parking and check baggage. Metro Airport maintains a 24-hour parking hotline (1-800-642-1978) and offers updates on radio dial 920 AM when travelers are within three-to-four miles of the airport.

AAA Michigan also offers these tips for holiday fliers:

- Carry a photo I.D. Security has been increased at airports and passengers ages 18 and over should be prepared to present identification at the ticket counter or at the boarding jetway.

- Limit luggage to one suitcase and one carry-on bag. Do not wrap gifts until arriving at your destination, as they may be opened for inspection at the airport. Pack valuables, such as medicine and airline tickets for the return flight, in the carry-on bag.

- To avoid long check-in lines, get a boarding pass from the airline or travel agent ahead of your flight date and check luggage at the curb when you arrive at the airport.

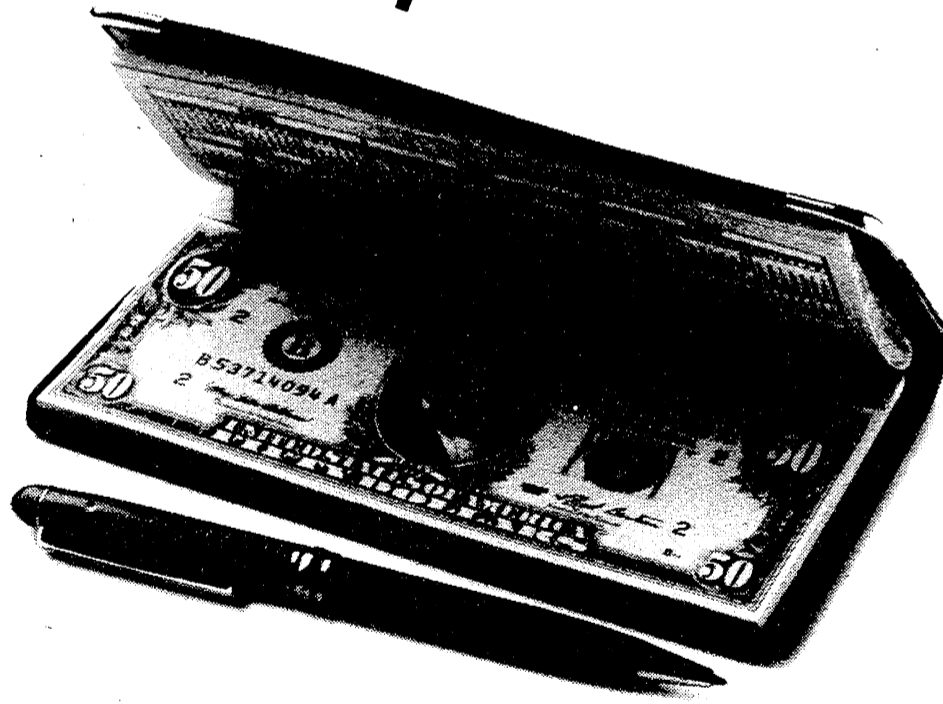

- If picking up or dropping off someone at the airport, park in the short-term or deck lots instead of idling in front of the terminals. Curb congestion backs up traffic and delays everyone.

Thanksgiving Day traffic will also be heavy on the roadways so the Auto Club urges motorists to leave earlier than usual for their destination. During last year's holiday weekend, 21 persons died in 19 crashes on state roads, down from 29 killed in 21 crashes in 1993. Of 17 victims with safety belts available, 12 were not buckled up and five of the deaths were alcohol-related.

Holiday drivers will find gasoline prices lower than they were last Thanksgiving. A gallon of regular self-serve unleaded currently averages $1.076 statewide, compared to $1.107 last year.

Manchester Family Services Annual Christmas Shop, December 13th

Manchester Family Services will hold their annual "Christmas Shop" on Wednesday, December 13 at the St. Mary's Parish Center (formerly the Knights of Columbus Hall), 106 E. Madison St., in Manchester. This "Shop" brings Christmas to families in need in the Manchester community, by the charitable contributions from people in the Manchester area. We invite you to participate in this annual Christmas event.

Families again will have the opportunity to be "adopted" for Christmas by local businesses, organizations, or private families or individuals. A list of adoptive families is available by contacting Joanne Fredal at 428-8010. All names of families are kept confidential but information will be provided on family size, ages, and suggested Christmas ideas.

The "Shop", on Wednesday, December 13, from 9 AM to 2 PM, will also have its traditional toy and gift area for selection of gifts by families who come to the Shop. Donations of gifts (toys, games, and new clothing, especially for teens and adults) can be brought to St. Mary's Parish Center on Tuesday, December 13 between the hours of 10 AM and 8 PM. New or "like new" coats, hats, mittens, gloves and boots for winter are also needed.

Great Lakes Bancorp will have their Gingerbread Christmas Tree this year and an opportunity to do your own shopping for a local family or individual child. The tree will be put up during the week after Thanksgiving to allow time for all of the gingerbread people to be "adopted."

Food packages will also be provided to families. The Cub Scouts and Manchester Community Schools will be collecting canned and non-perishable food items. Sorting of food will be conducted on Tuesday afternoon, December 12. Volunteers are welcome to come help. Other food items are provided through food certificates supported by the Manchester Family Services funds. Optional miscellaneous gift certificates are also available.

In the past, the success of the Shop has been through the generous contributions and help by you the community of Manchester. It brings "Christmas" to families who would not otherwise be able to afford it. We look forward to another successful year in the true spirit of Christmas giving.

*Your life is blessed, as you'll agree,
By living in a land that's free;
A land of opportunity
That cannot be ignored.
If recently you have been ill,
And getting well has been uphill,
Yet due to your physician's skill,
Your health has been restored;
If you can walk and hear and see,
And children in your family
Turned out the way you hoped they'd be,
You have a great reward.
You'll see that at the very least,
The joys you've known have all increased;
And so before you start your feast,
Give thanks unto the Lord.

MANCHESTER AREA SENIOR CITIZENS News

by Howard Parr

One more time. TV needs time to get her strength and get up and go back. I enjoy doing these and was sure surprised that Colin Powell turned out to be so sensitive about what I said about Veterans! I didn't mean for him to quit the race for President. What the heck, we have trained a lot of our presidents while they were generals in the army.

But seriously, I did read Rep. Hammerstrom's letter about Veterans and Veterans Day a lot more thoroughly because of my efforts at talking about it. Yes, it is hard to decide who our heroes are these days.

We have a couple "heroes" in the bus driving ranks these days. Ginny and Howard have flown South already. Thank goodness for Maynard Blossom or I'd have to be doing a lot of driving besides pinch hitting for TV. He has nearly taken over all driving duties. Mike will be back with us after he's through raking leaves at the cemetery on December 1. How fortunate we are to have so many who are willing and able to drive for us.

We are in the process of signing on for another year of government support for the bus program. We do hear rumors of some reduction in funds in the new budget, but nothing earthshaking yet. I go to a meeting about it on the 16th and we should know a little more about it then. Don't expect that much will change this year, yet. We've had a good deal for a long time and can't complain too much if funds do have to be trimmed to help balance the budget.

Here's what the bus will be helping with next week.

Thursday, November 16th: Picnic style meal at noon followed by Bingo at the Center at 12:30. 6:00 PM bus starts pickup for Senior Citizens Card party at Freedom Town Hall-7:30.

Monday, November 20. Bus leaves Center at 9:30 for shopping trip to Brooklyn. Call Erma - 428-8707 for reservations for any of these.

Tuesday, November 21: Clergy Presentation at 11:15 at the Church Hall. Thanksgiving dinner at noon. 5:30 starts pickup for Travelogue.

Thursday, November 23: Thanksgiving Day on your own. Enjoy. We give our cooks this day off. TV - I hope Del or some of your family will be cooking your turkey—you shouldn't be doing that just yet.

Robin Hood: The Next Generation

Students Ready For Fall Production

Someone has some explaining to do. It looks like Matt Laskowski, Peter Schulte and Justin Turk are trying, but Jennifer Clarke and Jessica Smith look doubtful! Robin Hood: The Next Generation runs this weekend at MHS

It is now twenty years after Sir Robin Hood and Lady Marian were married. Their daughter, Robin, has been chosen to succeed to the throne, but she must first marry a man of royal lineage. Robin, however, does not want to marry anyone unless she loves him. She devises a clever plan to control her fate, unaware of the evil plans of one suitor's mother. It is a smart, original comedy that proves the next generation can be as easily entertaining as the first. This is an exciting play for the whole family.

Robin Hood: The Next Generation will be playing November 17th and 18th at 8:00 PM in the high school auditorium. Tickets are $3.00 and are available at 7:30, when doors open. The cast includes thirty-five Manchester High School students.

Come out and support our students. See what other positive activities, besides sports, they have available to them.

Parents - Are You Energizing Yourself?

Parenting is tough job. It doesn't matter if your children are toddlers or if they are teenagers; it takes a lot of energy to do a good job of parenting. Many parents experience "burn out". What can you do to prevent this? Here are three daily activities that you should be doing to keep your energy high:

1. Spend time thinking every day - set aside 30 minutes a day just to think. Some call it meditation, some call it quiet time, either way it is very important. This is a time without the TV and without the radio or stereo. Many people find it is worth getting up early or going to bed later to have some thinking time.
2. Exercise every day - again set aside at least 15 minutes a day to exercise. Take a walk, climb up and down the stairs, dance to your favorite music, take an aerobic class. Exercise is a great way to counteract stress.
3. Keep learning - spend at least 15 minutes a day learning something new. Read a book, take a class, go through some how-to tape, video or book. Your mind needs fresh and new input every day. YOU MAY LAUGH AT THIS AND SAY YOU DON'T HAVE AN HOUR A DAY TO SPEND YOURSELF. There are 24 hours in every day - find the time. Start small if you have to; spend 15 minutes on yourself this week and add 5 minutes every week.

Next: Keep stress under control. Here is a Stress Control Test (from "Coping Resources" by Lyle Miller). The more "yes" answers, the less vulnerable you are to stress:

- Yes NO I eat one hot, balanced meal per day.
- Yes NO I get seven-eight hours sleep at least four days per week.
- Yes NO I give and receive affection regularly
- Yes NO I have at least one relative within 50 miles whom I can rely on.
- Yes NO I exercise to the point of exertion about twice per week.
- Yes NO I smoke less than one pack of cigarettes per day.
- Yes NO I do not drink alcohol to excess.
- Yes NO I am the appropriate weight for my height.
- Yes NO I have an income adequate to meet basic expenses.
- Yes NO I regularly attend church.
- Yes NO I regularly attend club or social activities.
- Yes NO I have a network of friends with whom I am acquainted.
- Yes NO I have one or more friends to confide in about personal matters.
- Yes NO I am in good health (including eyesight, hearing and teeth).
- Yes NO I am able to speak openly about my feelings when angry or worried.
- Yes NO I have regular conversations with the people I live with about domestic issues - that is, chores, money daily living issues.
- Yes NO I do something for fun at least once per week.
- Yes NO I am able to organize my time effectively.
- Yes NO I drink less than three cups of coffee (or tea or cola) per day.
- Yes NO I take adequate quiet time for myself each day.

Women's Basketball

Junior Varsity Ends their Season with a Loss

Tuesday, November 7, the Manchester Women's Junior Varsity Basketball Team ended their season with a loss to Addison Panthers.

The first-place Panthers jumped out ahead with an early lead, 11-6. Amy Gall and Cortney Whitaker scored in the first quarter for the Dutchmen. Manchester was greatly outplayed in the second quarter, ending the half at 10-29, in Addison's favor.

The third quarter was not very good for Manchester either, with Lindsay Hosmer's three-pointer being a lone bright spot. Going into the fourth quarter, Manchester was trailing 15-40. The fourth quarter did not help, and Manchester lost 19-47. Cortney Whitaker and Amy Gall were the scorers for Manchester. Mary Barrett had an excellent blocked shot.

This was not a great ending for the JV season, but then again, most of these girls will be back next year, ready to go!

Varsity's Team Effort Not Quite Enough

Also on November 7, the Manchester Varsity Women's Basketball Team concluded their regular season with a tough loss to the conference champions, the Addison Panthers.

The game began slowly, with Manchester outscored 7-14. Julie Porter scored four, Stacey Mann scored two and had a wonderful blocked shot, and Jennette Branch scored one. Manchester did not get into as much foul trouble in the second quarter. Jessica Porter led the way with a three-pointer. Karen Goodell scored four, Julie Porter two, Michelle Schaible scored one and Jamie Knouase scored one yet Manchester fell a little more behind, 18-26. Katrina Bihlmeyer and Sandi Fielder contributed with excellent passes and defense.

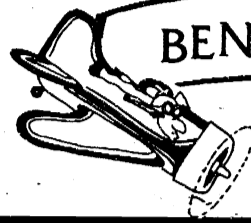

Unfortunately, it seemed like everything went wrong for the Dutch in the third quarter. Manchester's only points came from a Julie Porter lay-up. Going into the fourth quarter, it was Manchester 20, Addison 43. The fourth quarter was a pretty good one for the Dutch, but not nearly good enough. Manchester did outscore Addison by 11-9, thanks to five points by Michelle Schaible, and two each from Karen Goodell, Jennette Branch, and Jessica Porter.

The night's MVP award can't go to just one player. The entire team put forth such a great effort. The team was unselfish, and many players scored several points.

Watch for Manchester to continue to play in the play-offs. The first round takes place this Wednesday, November 15. Good Luck Dutch!

College News

Western Michigan University

Mary C. Lobbestael, daughter of John & Lynda Lobbestael of Manchester, is among the 272 freshmen who are new members of the Carl and Winifred Lee Honors College at Western Michigan University this fall. These students represent one of the largest entering classes in the 33 year history of the honors college.

Students admitted to the Honors College are chosen on the basis of their outstanding high school achievement as measured by their GPA and ACT scores, and also are evaluated by the quality of an essay, their participation in co-curricular and community activities, and academic recommendations. While pursuing their major and minor fields of study at WMU, the new freshmen will join other able students in research projects, internships, volunteer work in the community, and cultural and social activities.

Mary, a 1995 graduate of Manchester High School, is majoring in General Business.

Alma College

Sharon Bihlmeyer, a freshman at Alma College and a 1995 graduate of Manchester High School, has been chosen to the Alma College Women's Basketball team for the 1996-96 season. Sharon is the daughter of John and Nancy Bihlmeyer of Manchester.

The Alma College Scots enter the season with an air of optimism and excitement. A strong group of veterans blends with one of the best recruiting classes in recent years to form a very competitive ball club. Alma hopes to improve on last year's 18-7 record and their third-place finish in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Alma College has established itself as one of the top women's basketball programs in the country. The Scots have won eight MIAA championships in the last 14 years of intercollegiate competition.

Estimate Miscellaneous Deductions Now For Big Tax Breaks Later

(Prepared by the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants)

You may be able to deduct the cost of purchasing work uniforms, obtaining career counseling, or hiring a CPA to assist you with year-end tax planning. The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants explains that these seemingly unrelated costs fall into the category of "miscellaneous expenses," which are deductible to the extent that they exceed 2 percent of your adjusted gross income (AGI), provided you itemize deductions on your tax return.

The only way to determine whether you'll qualify for the miscellaneous-expense deduction on your 1995 tax return is to tally all qualified expenses for the year. Do it now. Here's why: If you're close to the 2-percent threshold, you can move some miscellaneous expenses into 1995 and take full advantage of the deduction. To do so, however, you need to understand what qualifies as a miscellaneous expense.

Employee Business Expenses

What makes such diverse items fall into a single category is the Internal Revenue Service's (IRS) definition of "miscellaneous expenses," that is, employee costs that are "ordinary" and "necessary" to the conduct of your business. These costs include the following:

Work clothes and uniforms— The cost and upkeep of work clothes, including laundering and cleaning, are deductible if the clothing is required as a condition of your job and the clothing is not suitable for street wear or everyday use. This definition prohibits you from deducting items such as suits and jeans that you purchased for your job.

Union and association dues— Membership fees paid to unions and professional societies directly related to your employment are generally deductible. However, you may not deduct dues paid to social or athletic clubs.

Books and publications— Uncle Sam also will help to subsidize your efforts to keep up with information in your line of work. For example, you can deduct the cost of subscriptions to trade journals, professional magazines, and research books.

Job hunting expenses— You may deduct the cost of obtaining job counseling, preparing your resume, and traveling to and from job interviews, even if your job-hunting doesn't result in a new job. To qualify for the deduction, your job search must be limited to your current field of employment.

Educational expenses— The cost of education to maintain or improve skills required in your employment or necessary to meet the expressed requirement of your employer as a condition to retaining your job status are deductible.

Expenses Of Producing Income

Expenses incurred for the production or collection of income or management of property held for the creation of income qualifies as a deductible miscellaneous expense. Since you can control the timing of many of these costs, if you're near the 2-percent threshold, you may want to boost your expenses before the end of the year. Deductions for the following generally have been allowed:

- Safe-deposit box rentals that are used to store taxable income-producing bonds and stock certificates.
- Legal expenses incurred to help you keep your job, produce income, or deal with a tax matter.
- Investment publications or software that help you track and manage your investments.
- Investment management fees.
- Travel and transportation to inspect income-producing property.
- Custodial fees for your individual retirement account and other holdings.

Tax Return Preparation And Assistance

Fees you pay for tax advice and tax-return preparation also may be deductible as miscellaneous expenses. Eligible expenses also include costs for tax-planning books and seminars, as well as fees paid to professionals to help you respond to an IRS audit.

Limitations On Your Deduction

CPAs point out that miscellaneous deductions are subject to certain phase-out rules. All taxpayers with AGIs above $114,700 ($57,350 if married, filing separately), must reduce itemized deductions by 3 percent of the amount by which AGI exceeds this limit, up to 80 percent of otherwise allowable itemized deductions. Be aware, too, that excess miscellaneous itemized deductions may subject you to the Alternative Minimum Tax.

Manchester Area Historical Society

A Special Invitation for You!

The Manchester Area Historical Society invites friends and neighbors to join us on the evening of Tuesday, November 21, 1995, at 7:30 PM in honor of the dedication of the John B. Swainson Room inside our local Blacksmith Shop Museum.

We are honored that Frank Kelley, Attorney General of the State of Michigan, will offer remarks remembering his good friend, John Swainson.

The John B. Swainson Room will be used as a small meeting room and museum to house the many artifacts of John's life as a U.S. Soldier, a Michigan Legislator, State Supreme Court Justice, Governor, and finally, a friend to Manchester.

The planning of the Swainson Room began over a year ago, shortly after John's death. In order to protect his books, scrapbooks, photos and furniture, the Society recently installed new air conditioning and a heating system on the advice of the Bentley Museum in Ann Arbor and the Michigan State University Historical Museum. The room has been repainted and remodeled with new glass-fronted display cases. The John B. Swainson Room will be open to tour groups.

Your attendance is most welcome, as we inaugurate our memorial to John.

Manchester Band Boosters

The Manchester Band Boosters are once again sponsoring their citrus fruit sales for the 1995 holiday season. Band students will be canvassing the village to take fruit orders for oranges, grapefruit, and tangelos. In addition, they will be selling 18" balsam wreaths with red velvet bows. If they miss you, and you would like to order fruit or greenery, use the order form printed in the Enterprise and return it to the High School Office

Sale items will be delivered to the high school band room for pick up on Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8, from 3:00 to 8:00 PM. Please pick up your fruit promptly, as we cannot store it properly. It will deteriorate if left over the weekend.

Many in the community look forward to this annual event as an opportunity to lay in their supply of citrus fruit for the holidays while lending support to the local band students. Proceeds from the sales will help the Boosters sponsor next spring's band trip as well as sending young musicians to summer music camps

PARTNERS IN HEALTH

by Tracy R. MacDonald RN

HOME HEALTHCARE PART III

This is the last of my articles on home healthcare. Once you have started care in the home you should be aware of both your rights and responsibilities. Rights are those actions or services your homecare company must provide legally. Responsibilities are those actions which you must comply with for quality care to take place. All homecare providers should explain rights and responsibilities at the opening interview and should provide a clearly written copy for you. This is your first right.

Patients have a right to have their property treated with respect and have a relationship with their homecare provider based on honest and ethical standards of conduct. You have the right to be informed of care that is to be furnished, the discipline of the employees furnishing the care and the frequency of visits and for this care to be furnished as prescribed by your physician. Any information about your health, social or financial circumstances, and what takes place in your home is confidential and can only be released as required by law or by authorized consent of the patient. If changes are made in this mutually agreed upon care plan, you have the right to be informed in advance. Always remember that patients or their representatives have the right of participation in the planning of care and the right of refusal of care at any time without fear of reprisal or discrimination.

Patients also have the right to receive care of the highest quality. If your first interview reveals to the Case Manager that their agency cannot meet your need they have a responsibility to care for you until an appropriate agency can be found. This issue is to insure safety for you. You have a right to be cared for only by appropriately trained individuals under supervision of a Registered Nurse or other qualified Home Health professional. you also have the right to be informed of what to do in case of an emergency.

When payment is an issue you have the right to be informed of the extent to which Medicare, Medicaid, or any other payor will cover expenses and what expenses you will be liable for. Any changes in charges should be reported to you in writing within two weeks of the company becoming aware of these changes and immediately through oral communication. You also have the right to access to all bills for services received regardless of whether they are paid out-of-pocket or by another party.

Lastly, you have the right to be informed of how to register complaints against your homecare company. They should provide you with a name and number for this purpose. You have a right to know about disposition of the complaint and to voice complaints without fear of reprisal of any kind. It is also mandated that the number for the State of Michigan Hotline to receive complaints of questions about homecare be clearly furnished to each patient. That number is 1-800-882-6006. There is an answering service for complaints 24 hours a day.

Responsibilities are important because they help insure your happiness and the quality of your care. You are responsible for providing all information regarding functional limitations, illnesses past and present, hospitalizations, medications, allergies, and any other facts to the best of your ability. This includes information about any family or friends and their ability and availability to perform support services. It also includes cooperation in adding to the safety of your home and provision of needed utilities to provide adequate healthcare services.

Participation in and compliance with your Plan of Care is a responsibility. If you do not understand your diagnosis, treatment, alternatives, risks, of Plan of Care you should immediately inform the staff. Keep asking questions and repeating them until you feel comfortable. Some things are hard to grasp. Don't ever keep silent because you don't want to appear silly or stupid. You are also expected to keep the Case Manager informed of any changes in medications, treatments, nutritional guidelines or any other changes made by your physician.

Finally, if you have any religious beliefs, ethnic customs or prejudices which might interfere with healthcare or your comfort tell your Case Manager at the first interview. They will make every effort to assign staff and devise a Plan of Care around your comfort. In addition, if you must cancel a scheduled appointment let your homecare company know in advance.

Home healthcare is a positive move toward better and less costly medical care. I believe patients can recover well in a comfortable home environment, take more responsibility for their ongoing healthcare and remain out of long term care facilities longer when appropriate home healthcare is provided. In many cases guidance can be given by the Case Manager in other community services available at little or no cost. Emotional support can be given during difficult personal and family crisis insuring a higher degree of personal dignity and comfort for the patient with long term or terminal illness. Homecare is not just for the aged or handicapped. It is for anyone with an immediate medical need. If you think you may be in need of homecare discuss this with your physician or call me with your questions at 428-1482.
