they were placed on continuing second year probation. Motion was passed without dissent.

Third year probationary status for Kristine Cole, Karin Hanson, Linda Klepaczk, Patricia Merrill and Laura Spensley was recommended by the administration and approved by the board.

Cara Weissman is completing her third year as instrumental music teacher for the middle and high schools and the board approved the administrations recommendation for continuing the fourth year probation. (The fourth year is the last year of probationary status.)

The administration recommended and the board approved that Curt Fielder, Mary Brinker and Denise Cain be granted tenure effective the end of the 1995-96 school year.

Contract extensions were granted to William Kindt and Randi Friedman for social worker for the 1996-1997 school year. Bill has served the district for the past nine years and Randi recently completed her first year.

The Board extended the contracts of Yvonne Henry, elementary principal; John Eisley, Director of Athletics and Student Services; and Brian Schick, Middle School Principal to June 30, 1998. Fall coaching appointments were approved by the board.

A parental leave of absence for the first semester of the 96-97 school year was granted for Linda Klepaczyk.

A report from Mike Truax from O'Neil Construction was read by the superintendent. Additional savings of some $12,000 has been effected in the electrical contract by substitution of materials and sizing. The Superintendent proposed the addition of 325 square feet of storage to the North West corner of the Klager gymnasium. Preliminary cost estimates would be about $19,295.00. It was not disclosed whether the building advisory committee had been consulted in this proposed change. Board member Sahakian questioned the Superintendent about the specific location and if it would alter the appearance of the building.

John Eisley presented the Winter Athletic report. It was noted that about 50% of the athletes have maintained a B average. Mark Harris has been honored by the Cas-

The competition, held the next day, will consist of both team and individual questions. Patrick will compete against individuals and teams from other states with an awards program to follow the contest.

President Kluwe opened the meeting at 7:30 PM with the pledge of allegiance. Minutes of the regular meeting of 3/18, the special meeting of 3/27 and the financial report were approved. (March disbursements of $1,184,084.23 and a cash balance of $1,174,223.66 on 3/31.)

When questioned, Superintendent Niedzwiecki revealed that high school principal John Korican has indicated he will be retiring at the end of this school year and the position of school principal has been posted for next year.

The Board of Education approved the Reproductive Health Curriculum program as presented and approved the implementation for the 1995-96 school year.

Elementary Teacher Advances her Skills

An Extraordinary Opportunity

Mrs. Pat Merrill

First grade teacher Mrs. Pat Merrill, recently had an opportunity to become more intimately acquainted with the skills needed for national certification in her profession. "I was recommended by one of my professors at Eastern Michigan University, Dr. Leah Adams, to be an Assessor for National Board Certification in Early Childhood Education in Ann Arbor last month," explained Mrs. Merrill. This is the first year that National Certification has been offered in Early Childhood, a specialty in which Merrill has much experience and for which she has a lot of love.

Early childhood is the period of time from birth to eight years, and Merrill believes that "it is important for early elementary teachers to have a background in early childhood as well. The more research that is done, the more is known about the needs and the development of the young child.

Currently teachers must seek certification within their own state to be able to teach in public or private schools. But a National Certification is an additional option, an extensive (and expensive) process in which the teacher is awarded the title of "Master Teacher."

Merrill was honored to be recommended as an assessor for this process. As an assessor, she was required to be part of a team scoring 198 profiles from teachers on "Introducing Your Classroom Community," a demonstration of their writing skills. In other areas of assessment, other media are required. "Each profile needed to be read through 2-3 times," explained Merrill, "so it was a very intense experience."

The orientation period for the assessors began on a Friday evening and on Saturday and Sunday the assessors were taught how to score their particular area. Monday through Wednesday they were actually scoring the entries. "Some of the teachers continued with pre-scored 'practice' entries on Monday morning, but I was able to go right to scoring actual tests," Merrill said with pride.

This is Merrill's second year in the Manchester Community Schools. Last year she taught kindergarten in the Klager kindergarten room. This year she has moved to first grade. With her background in Early Childhood, she feels she is moving right up the scale. Previously, she worked with mentally and physically impaired pre-schoolers "in my other life."

Having a background in teaching pre-schoolers with special needs has helped in teaching in a classroom where all the kids have varied needs. "It has helped me to focus in on their needs as individuals," comments Merrill.

Almost at the point of receiving her Masters in Early Childhood (just two weeks away!), Mrs. Merrill says that her recent experience with assessing the Master Teacher candidates has "philosophically, validated my belief in Early Childhood education. It makes me want to go ahead and do it myself...in three or four years." She went on to note that this experience has made her realize she needs a few more years of teaching under her belt to be successful as a Master Teacher candidate.

Because even after you make the investment of time, effort and money to enter the testing process, there is no guarantee you'll make it the first time. "I will have a better understanding of what they are looking for when I do decide to pursue this certification; and there are a few teachers here at Klager who are also interested in pursuing it. I now have a knowledge base to share with them, as well."

And an advantage she has brought back to her own classroom is "realizing there's a lot more I want to do; it is possible!" There were so many ideas articulated from the many teachers whose classroom communities which Merrill "visited" through the assessment process, that she laughs, "I had to take notes as I was reading them. I would never have remembered them all!"

So Merrill's students, this year and in the years to come, have a great deal to look forward to - as a teacher with her Masters makes the journey to becoming a Master Teacher and applying all she has learned from those who have perfected their craft.

Day of Mourning

It is altogether fitting and proper that April 15, of every year should be declared a day of MOURNING. A day in which all functions of government should take a holiday, without pay, so they might look at all the grief and sorrow being imposed on the populace of this great country of ours. This would also give the procrastinators, who wait until the last day to file with IRS, another day, in which to procrastinate.

The politicians and administrators could pontificate on the pork barrel projects enacted over the past year. This would allow them to laugh at us poor taxpayers who have paid for all their boondoggles and pork. The failed Savings and Loans, the five hundred dollar tools bought when the local hardware store could sell the same item for less than a double saw buck.

Politicians would have a day to invent more elaborate and deceiving schemes to delude us into believing they will cut the costs of government, provide a balanced budget, increase all entitlement programs of welfare, education and so on. This day could be used to provide them the opportunity to invent more lies and mis-directed statements.

Really, April 15, has become a day of reckoning for the filing taxpayers of this country. When will our Politicians have a day of reckoning?

Letter to the Editor:

I am concerned about our community. There is a movement here toward creating an environment of intolerance. I've recently been thrust into this spirit of intolerance as the parent of adolescents. I've uncovered attitudes that are harmful to our teens and our country.

To understand an adolescent is to know that the struggle for identity is a major issue. This struggle involves testing values and trying them out. Handling teenagers using authoritative methods is important. These methods blend respect for the child's individuality with an effort to instill social values. The use of discipline is important. Discipline is a word from Latin meaning "knowledge" or "instruction."

We are using ineffective methods in this community. They are authoritarian methods that emphasize values of control and obedience. Forceful punishment is used to make children conform to a set standard of conduct.

My message is this: unless this community changes its method of child-rearing, we are headed for disaster. Should kids be punished by the school system for activities performed off school grounds and after school hours? Is our school system privy to information obtained regarding such activity? Does takin away athletic privileges from kids related to non-school activities solve the problem? Should our teens be led to believe that they have no civil rights?

My plea goes out to parents, community, educators, policemen and government. Let's become authoritative as a village. We need to raise our children using respect, understanding, knowledge and guidance as our tools. We need to remember our struggle for freedom and civil rights, teaching kids by living the example.

Sincerely,

Karen Smith

Washtenaw Community College Holds Special Meeting in Manchester

On April 9, Washtenaw Community College held a special meeting in the High School Library; following that they hosted a reception and dinner for representatives of the Manchester School District and the surrounding community.

Manchester Community School District Superintendent Mr. Ronald Niedzwiecki, welcomed the WCC representatives.

In attendance from WCC were board members, Mary Claire Anhut, Ruth H. Moorman, James W. Anderson, President of the Board, William J. Davis Jr., Richard Bailey and Dianna McKnight-Morton. Mr. Gunder A. Myran, President of the College and Staff were also in attendance.

The upcoming Millage/Bonding Campaign was discussed and an update was given by Mr. Bill Holmes of WCC. The plans for a -YES- campaign are being developed in order to support WCC needs.

A discussion of possible reduction of fees for Senior Citizens and scholarships for needy was entertained without resolution, and referred to administration for review and recommendation. Fourteen employees have taken advantage of the early retirement offer presented to them by WCC.

A discussion of the future auto industry work force needs was discussed. The auto industry has projected the need for some 200,000 employees to replace those who will be retiring. WCC's role in helping to prepare potential employees was discussed. Vocational Education and Vo/Tech programs are potential sources of employees.

WCC instituted a hiring freeze on all full time vacant positions last November. The freeze was in response to potential retirement liability contribution that was determined by a ruling of the Musselman case. As a result of the Supreme Court's decision, reserved funds became available and the WCC board authorized the one time expenditure of some $300,000 for faculty computers, distance education classroom, student academic assessment initiative and basic classroom improvement.

1996/1997 Tuition and Fees schedule was approved.

WCC President Gunder A. Myran commented that by moving the special meetings around to each of the school districts they are better able to communicate with local district representatives and citizens.

Oak Grove Cemetery in need of YOUR Help!

There is an urgent need at our beautiful town cemetery. According to members of the Cemetery Board, it was reported at the April 11 meeting that Oak Grove's Perpetual Care Fund currently does not generate enough interest to pay for routine maintenance at the cemetery. By its charter, the Cemetery Board is allowed to use only the interest on their Perpetual Care Fund in order to provide for ongoing care of the cemetery. With interest rates at low ebb the past few years, the Board has been hard pressed to meet the community's needs.

Already, services have been cut to the bare minimum. Much work needs to be done to maintain the beauty and peaceful atmosphere at the cemetery. Just basic mowing, trimming, and care is costing more than the budget provides, according to Board members Karen Tucker and Mary Smith. Upgrading the lanes and other needs which have been expressed in the recent past are impossible considering the current crunch.

Options are being discussed with the Village, Township, and other avenues in the community for continued support for the cemetery's care. Citizens who are interested in maintaining the charm of our village cemetery are urged to contact the President, John Schaible at 428-9541.

When is the DQ Opening?

That question has been asked several times around the Enterprise office of late, by those of us here and people calling and coming in. According to Judy Fahey there has been a new water filtration system installed and they are waiting for the go ahead that the system is okay to use. "We hope to be open this weekend."

Those of us anxiously awaiting for that first DQ might get a lick soon, even with the weather being uncooperative lately. Can't wait for that first Chocolate cone!

MANCHESTER AREA SENIOR CITIZENS News

by T.V. Ludwick

Guess I'll have to get a fumigator in here to rid us of the tiny black ants which have invaded our household. These varmints must have an army of ten thousand and I think they might be saving the ornagest for the final invasion. I could scream while we wait for them to carry ant poison back to the nest or to finally reach the flour and sugar cabinet. Determined they are as I see them headed for the kitchen which they have only recently discovered. How did they eat before? I will never know—

Thursday, April 18: No meal today as the kitchen and dining room will be in use for the sauerkraut supper.

Friday, April 19: The senior bus begins pickup at 6 PM for you who wish to attend the Saline Senior Citizens Card Party. Call Erma at 428-8707 if you wish to go along.

Tuesday, April 23: A local volunteer nurse will be on hand beginning at 11 to take your blood pressure. Pork roast is at its best when put on the table by Jan, Minnie and Grandma in Emanuel's Fellowship Hall promptly at 12 noon. We are seeing new faces at our tables and love it! Why don't you come, too? You must be 55 or older and call in a reservation to either Sharman ahead at 428-8359, or to Jan before 10:30 on meal days at 428-7630. Have we thanked the church ladies who help with our senior meals each Tuesday and Thursday? You are appreciated! Today at 12:30, A talk will be given and "The Use of Hearing Aids" and we can all learn a thing or two about this subject, huh?

Thursday, April 25: Salisbury steak today by our experts and it is tender and good. If our friend Jan tries to give you too much and you make a sassy statement, you will always get a sassy answer from her as her mind is sharp! Stick to your guns, friends—do not let her pile it on (your plate, that is).

After all that, come to the Center at 12:30 for a rousing game or two of bingo. This is the evening for all to come to Freedom Township Hall for the monthly senior sponsored public card party beginning at 7:30 PM. Euchre begins and the fun begins. Who is more fun to beat at their own game than these seniors who have played this game for many, many years? Wouldn't you younger ones like to come on out and try? Bus pickup starts at 6 and you may call Erma to be picked up.

Our busy trip chairperson, Marion Ahrens has the following trips and events planned for your pleasure (by senior bus): Friday, April 26: The Ann Arbor Hands On Museum, which is four floors of fun for all; and Thursday, June 13: The Bavarian Festival in Frankenmuth, deadline for reservations is April 24, 1996.

Special note: Anyone interested in going to Holland Tulip Festival! Senior bus will drive to Holland on Thursday late afternoon and attend Tulip Festival on Friday. A tentative date could be May 16 & 17th. If interested, call Marion Ahrens at 428-7865 as soon as possible, please.

Happy Birthday!

Ground Breaking Ceremonies at Klager

Thursday April 11 was a wonderful spring day for ground breaking ceremonies.

At 1:30 the ground breaking ceremony began at Klager. There, all of Klager got to be involved. The classes came out one at a time and two representatives from each class got to dig a shovel full of dirt. The representatives were chosen by putting all the class names into a hat and drawn at random.

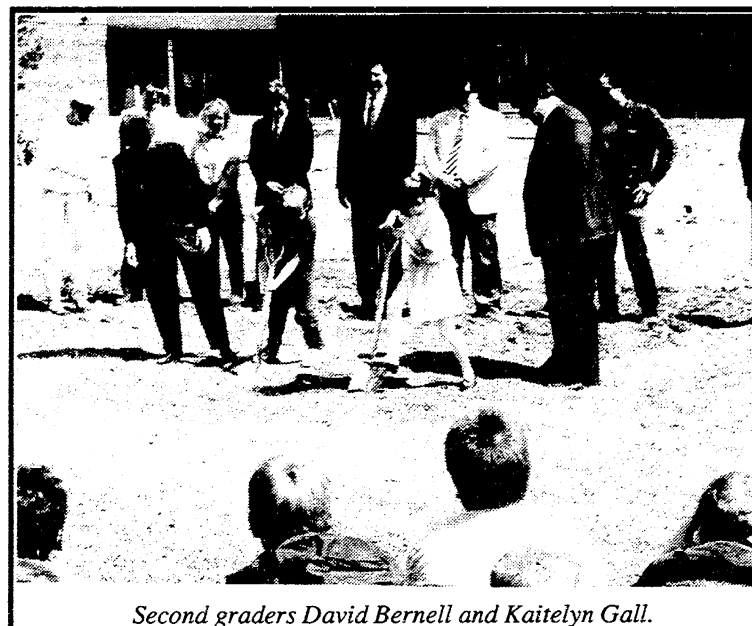

Each class was attentive and impressed. Superintendent Niedzwiecki introduced the men that had something to do with this building project. From TMP the architect Mr. Dave Larson, from O'Neal Construction Mr. Mike Truax and Mr. Gary Elling. The superintendent of construction for the on site work Mr. Dean Kokkales was there and Mr. John Mooneyam from Manchester Schools. Also present were some of the School Board members, Mrs. Pat Sahakian and Mr. John Hochstetler. School Board President, Mr. Paul Kluwe also gave an opening speech to each class. He encouraged them to watch and learn, and then when they are in high school they can look back and say that they were there when ground was broken for this new addition.

One of the shiny new shovels will be on display at Klager and the other one will be at Nellie Ackerson Middle School.

Next it was on to Nellie Ackerson Middle School where some digging had already begun. There the Middle School Student Council members took part in the ceremony.

It was a beautiful day and a lovely beginning for the addition to our schools. We look forward to watching the continuing construction.

What Should Parents Write in the Education Plan for Their Children?

The IEP (Individualized Educational Plan) written for each student with, for example, a learning disability, physical disability, speech and language, or emotional impairment is completed on a form used by all schools in this county and also many other counties in this state. Some school districts have formulated their own form. Some of the teachers in our school district have made forms which they attach to the IEPs. Often parents attach pages they have written which specify strengths and weakness of the students and also the necessary accommodations.

Why doesn't everyone just use the form as it is?

• First, the form is quite technical and thus parents often do not understand the different parts of the form.

• Second, the form does not include specific accommodations that are needed by each student to allow them to be successful in the classroom.

In the Holland school district, the IEP form includes a checklist of accommodations in nine different areas listed below.

1. Pacing: extend time requirement, vary activity often, allow breaks, omit assignments requiring copy in timed situations, school texts send home for summer preview, home set of texts/materials for preview/review.

2. Environment: Preferential seating, planned seating (on the bus, lunchroom, classroom and auditorium), alter physical room arrangement, define areas concretely, reduce/minimize distractions (visual, spatial, auditory, movement), teach positive rules for use of space.

3. Presentation of subject matter: teach to student's learning style (visual, tactile, auditory and experimental learning), individual small group instruction, utilize specialized curriculum, Tape lectures/discussion for replay, provide notes, functional application of academic skills, present demonstrations (models), utilize manipulative, emphasize critical information, pre-teach vocabulary, make/use vocabulary files, reduce language level or reading level of assignment, use total communication/interpreter, use facilitated communication, share activities, use visual sequences.

4. Materials: arrangements of material on page, note-taking assistance (carbonless or Xerox copy of notes of regular), highlighted texts/study guides, use supplementary material, taped texts and/or class materials, type teacher material, large print, special equipment (electric typewriter, calculator, computer, video recorder, AAC device, telephone adaptations, etc.).

5. Assignments: give directions in small, distinct steps (written/picture/verbal), use written backup for oral directions, lower difficulty level, shorten assignments, reduce paper and pencil tasks, read or tape record directions to student, give extra cues and prompts, allow student to record or type assignment, adapt worksheets, packets, utilize compensatory procedures by providing alternative assignment strategy when demands of class conflict with student capabilities, avoid penalizing for spelling errors/sloppy paper/penmanship.

6. Self management/follow through: Visual daily schedule, calendars, check often for understanding/review, request parent reinforcement, have student repeat directions, teach study skills, use study sheets to organize material, design/write/use long term assignment timelines, review and practice in real situations, plan for generalization, teach skill in several settings/environment

7. Testing adaptations: oral, taped, read test to student, preview language to test, application in real setting, administered by resource person, extended time frame, short answer, multiple choice, modify format, shorten length questions.

8. Social interaction supports: peer advocacy, peer tutoring, greetings, sharing, structure activities to create opportunities of social interaction, focus on social process rather than activity/end product, structured, shared experiences in school, extracurricular, partial participation, cooperative learning groups, use multiple/rotating peers, teach friendship skills/negotiations., teach social communicate skills, conversation turn taking, negotiation.

9. Motivation and reinforcement: verbal, non-verbal, positive reinforcement, Behavior management Plan, planned motivating sequences of activities, reinforce initiation, offer choices, use strengths/interest often. Obviously each student will get a special set of items which address their situation.

Students with 504 plans, for example, all students with ADD (who do not qualify for special education) can use any of the suggestions for accommodations and modifications listed here. Next week's article will list examples of items parents have added to IEP and 504 plans. Remember, parents have the right to change the IEP or 504 plan at anytime by requesting a new IEP or 504 meeting. Remember that parents should be monitoring that all parts of the IEP or 504 plan are being followed. Reminders to teachers and principals are gratefully appreciated since they are keeping track of many students. Parents working together with the school for the success of their child yield the best outcome!

If you want more information about IEP or 504 plans or if you would like other parents to review you child's plan, come to a PASS meeting or call (428-0738) to make an appointment. This is totally voluntary group, there is no charge. Next meetings are April 24 and May 1 at 7 PM at the Emanuel Church.

Kindergarten Pre-Registration

Please call Klager Elementary School at 428-8321 to pre-register your child for the 1996-97 Kindergarten class. Your child must be 5 on or before December 1, 1996 to be eligible to attend Kindergarten. Those children who pre-register will be notified of Kindergarten Round Up.

8th Grade Students Turn in 4 Year Plan

Yes, we finally did it! The 8th graders are finally going up to the High School and leaving the Middle School behind. For some, filling out their four year plan was no big deal. For others, it was the most important decision of their adolescent lives.

During the two weeks before spring break, students had the fun task of completing their four year plan. Mr. Parson from the High School came in twice to help with this difficult job, and Mrs. Monk met with every eighth grader. Finally, we finished.

While some of the students pondered what to do with the rest of their lives, others just filled in what they thought would be fun. Now the only question is, "Did we make good choices?" Hopefully, the answer is...yes!

T.E.E.M. Holds Oratorical Contest

All fifth and sixth grade T.E.E.M. members participated in our second oratorical contest. The topic this year was, "Now Is The Time." The children did very well this year and came up with many creative ideas.

The judging was tough, and ten semi finalists were chosen from the fifth and sixth grades. In the final round, these sixth graders placed:

Third Place, Adam Knapp; Second place Sara Johnson; and our first place winner was Annie Wiley.

• Our fifth graders also made a fine showing with third place going to Amy Hough; second place to Adam DeConick, and our first place winner was Graham Parker-Finger. Thanks to Ted Tapping, Mary Ann Fielder, and Jane Lee Sellers for judging.

5th Grade: Graham, Adam and Amy

Equations Teams Score High

by Mary Ann Fielder

On Wednesday, April 10, 1996, five teams (two middle school and three high school) participated in the annual Equations Super Tournament at Lenawee VoTech in Adrian. Everyone played extremely well and Manchester came home with four first place trophies and one third place. "We had a bus load of trophies," said Mary Ann Fielder, Equations coach.

Several competitions were occurring at the same time. Manchester had two teams in the 7th/8th grade contest and three in the high school contest. Divisions are established in order to allow more students to participate without competing with any team from their own school.

Placing first in their 7th/8th divisions were:

Ultimate V - with two perfect team scores of 30 points each, in three rounds, and a total of 87 out of 90 points. Team members are Erin Wiley, Amber Reed, Dan

Johnson, Kyle Harris, and Emily Parr

The Equators - Nick Pieske, Kristen Taddonio, Tracy Brooks, Kevin Sahakian, and Amanda Coutts.

Placing first in their High school Divisions were:

Manchester Team 1 - with one perfect team score of 30, consisting of Pat Chapin, Angelo Petrino, Brad Kemner, Justin Porter, and Sean Clifford.

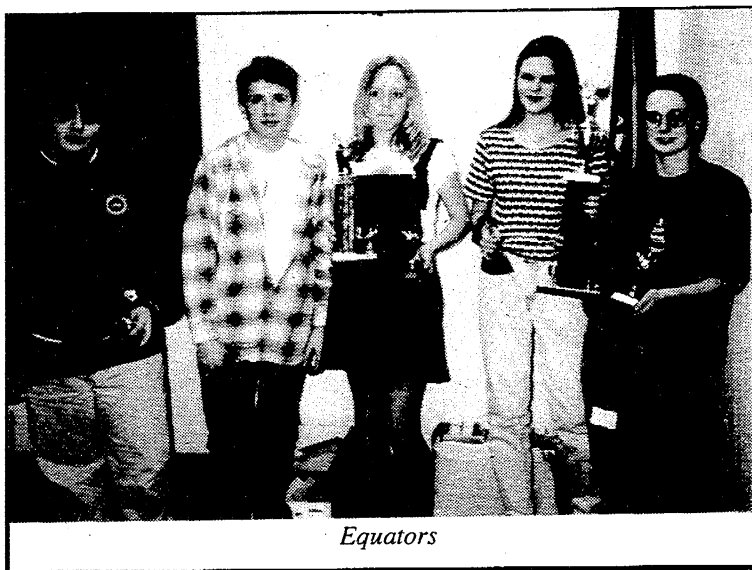

Manchester Team 3 - Erika Kornow, Rebekah Jackowski, Tim Hollosy, Chris Gilbert and Joe Funk.

Placing third in their High School Division was Manchester Team 2. Team members were Lacea Curtis, Katie Tolen, Rebecca Koffman, Katie Roberts and Hydy Paige.

Each school also chooses their own Most Valuable Players. The Middle School's MVP was Amber Reed and High School's was Brad Kemner.

Amber Reed Runner-Up at State Spelling Bee

8th grader, Amber Reed, was runner up at the Sate Spelling Bee held March 26, 1996 at Lawrence Technological University. Lucy Jin of Boulan Park Middle School in Troy finished first. Amber missed the word, "marotte," a French word meaning a pet idea or notion.

This bee was the 71st annual Detroit News Spelling Bee. There were 25 competitors from regions in southeastern Michigan. In order to represent Manchester in the competition, Amber had to win three other Spelling bees. First, she had to place in the top five in her grade, and then win the school-wide bee. Then it was on to the regionals where she placed first and earned the opportunity to participate in the state competition.

In an era when correct spellings are just a computer or typewriter keystroke away, kids like Lucy and Amber are becoming a rarity. Even in the age of spell check, you have to know how to use a word.

The Day the Bunny Wagon Came to Town

An outpouring of good will from some of the community's service organizations helped make 1996 a happy Easter holiday for several Manchester families through Manchester Family Services.

Joanne Fredal, president of MFS, stopped by the Enterprise office on Maundy Thursday to show us the 25 Easter baskets and other assorted goodies donated by local sororities and church groups.

The Xi Epsilon Iota sorority prepared and donated 21 Easter Baskets for children, plus $50 in groceries for an adopted family. They also included two $10 gift certificates to Meijers to help other families in need.

The Manchester United Methodist Church donated four Easter Baskets for youngsters in the Manchester area; Preceptor Gamma Theta sorority donated a $50 gift certificate to Manchester Market for a family to purchase holiday groceries; and Lambda Nu sorority also donated $50 in groceries for an adopted family.

"I am always so impressed by the generosity of these groups," commented Fredal. And the "bushels of baskets" are always much appreciated by their recipients.

The Manchester Family Service provides temporary aid to hardship cases and is a source of reference and assistance to social agencies for persons and families in the Manchester area including the four surrounding townships: Manchester, Sharon, Freedom and Bridgewater.

If you are interested in helping Manchester Family Service or know of persons in need, please call 428-8852. Assistance from community members enables Manchester Family Service to help others in need.

- President Walkowe solicited Nominating Committee of Helen Hosmer and Helen Popkey who will be contacting members for establishing Unit officers for upcoming year. Joyce Stein will serve as Installation Officer.

- Shirley Roller & Joyce Scott reported on their contacts for furnishing clothing for the upcoming Fashion Show. Food Committee, Maggie Tapping and Mary Blossom were established to assist in the event. Publicity Committee will be established as soon as dates and further pertinent information is determined.

- Discussion was held regarding plans for the upcoming Auxiliary/Post Combo Installation Meeting to be held on Friday, June 14, 1996. Membership is urged to attend this meeting.

Shakespeare Reading Club

Michigan's "Evergreen Trees" was Annette van der Schalie's topic for the Shakespeare Reading Club when it met on April 9th at her home on Buss Road where the characteristic shapes & coloring of many of trees mentioned could be observed from the windows. However, labeled mountings showing the cones and needle clusters were available to be passed hand to hand around the room.

The trees described were grouped under their better known labels: Pines, Spruces, Firs, Cedars and Yews. Each genus was credited with its particular commercial uses, its ornamental value or its importance as food for wildlife and environmental preservation and diversity.

This program was a sequel to one Annette presented early last spring on the deciduous trees of our Southern Michigan area.

GIRL SCOUTS

SCOUTING FOR FOOD

On Saturday, April 20, the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and the Cub Scouts will be "Scouting for Food." These students are looking for donations of canned goods to donate to our local Community Resource Center food pantry, in the basement of the former Methodist Church on Main Street. The Scouts will be collecting all day, beginning at 8:00 a.m. Please give generously, and if you have a bag left at your door on April 13 (the previous Saturday), please fill it with such things as soups, stews, chili, baby food, canned meats, vegetables, fruit or milk, or diapers or personal care items.

We cannot accept perishable or frozen foods, or anything in glass containers. We are replenishing the Food Cupboard, so that we will have the resources to meet the needs of people in the Manchester Community in case of emergency. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Agency Recognizes Volunteer Achievements

Burning Up the Roads - and the Track!

Ruthanne Hanss of Manchester has been an Arbor Hospice patient volunteer for three years. Hanss was drawn to hospice over thirty years ago when she started reading about hospice care in England. Hanss said, "Something inside me compelled me to respond to the needs of the dying. I was drawn to the hospice philosophy of care — it approaches death with integrity." Arbor Hospice volunteers are an intricate part of the hospice team.

Hanss said that each patient and family needs are different. "I often take patients for rides. This is a time for me to listen and a time for patients just to talk — about whatever is on their minds. Often the talk is about end-of-life issues. It is also a time to reflect and reminisce. A volunteer has the time to listen while asking for nothing in return from the patient. These are special outings for me and precious time spent with the patient. I go where the family or patient takes me. This is their journey and I am privileged to share this time with them."

Hanss, a wife of 35 years, a mother, grandmother and part-time chaplain at the University of Michigan Hospital; finds her volunteer work is an important part of her life. When asked what was the most rewarding aspect of this work, Hanss responded, "This work gives my life purpose and meaning. What I see in hospice is the full circle of life. Hospice speaks of wholeness. It respects and values life and provides closure and dignity to the seriously ill."

During the annual volunteer luncheon, being held on April 27, 1996 at the Fox Country Club in Plymouth, Arbor Hospice will honor the hundreds of volunteers who gave over 11,000 hours in volunteer work to Arbor Hospice in 1995. Presently, 60 Arbor Hospice volunteers focus primarily on patient care. All of these volunteers have made a significant difference to the care of Arbor hospice patients and the overall running of the agency.

The Manchester 24 Hour Relay Challenge is building steam for their second annual event to be held Memorial Day Weekend.

Last year's Relay proved that rain or shine, the dedicated participants were ready and willing to make the commitment to building a drug-free community. The proceeds from the 24 Hour Relay Challenge will benefit D.A.R.E. programs at Klager, Middle School and High School. Last year, over $3,000 was raised to support these and other substance abuse resistance activities in Manchester.

Be a part of this year's 24 Hour Relay Challenge. Call the Central Administration office at 428-9711 and ask for Cynthia to see how you can participate in this year's event.

TREASURER LARRY GASS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

On April 15, 1996, Lawrence A Gass announced that he would be running for the office of Washtenaw County Treasurer. Larry has been serving as the Washtenaw County Treasurer since he was appointed in January, 1995, following the resignation of the previously elected Treasurer.

The County Treasurer accounts for and invests all the revenue received by the County, including monies collected from the operating millage and special millages, and fees collected by County departments for services. The Treasurer also collects delinquent property taxes, certifies deeds, and conducts the annual tax sale for the Department of Treasury.

The Treasurer's job is vitally important to the citizens of Washtenaw County. By insuring that County funds are always properly invested, the Treasurer earns the County money which can be used for various county programs. This income helps keep our millage rates and taxes lower

Larry has a strong background in the management of money, both in the private sector and as an employee of the County Most importantly, he has straightened around the Treasurer's office since his appointment. Since he was appointed,

- Washtenaw County investment income is up over 100% from the earnings levels under his predecessor.

- The number of County bank accounts has been reduced from an unmanageable 167 to a necessary 24.

- The Treasurer's office returned nearly $90,000.00 of budgeted money to the County general fund.

- 75% of the County's funds are now invested locally.

- The Treasurer's office has a new commitment to public service and is a much more helpful and efficient place to do business.

- The Treasurer's office has been restructured with the hiring of needed specialists, the elimination of unnecessary positions, and the flattening of the organization, eliminating bureaucracy.

- Technology has been upgraded.

- Integrity has been restored to the Treasurer's office. All monies are accounted for, all checks are deposited, and monies are invested, and all records are accurate and reliable.

Larry is married with four children, including triplet daughters, Anna, Carolyn and Katie, and son Christopher He has been a resident of Washtenaw County since 1975, and is a member of St. Thomas parish in Ann Arbor

At his announcement, Larry concluded "I have worked diligently to restore the public trust in the Treasurer's office, while producing strong investment earnings and accountability I pledge to continue to work for you, maintaining these high standards."

grades Conference for having a better than 3 point average for seven semesters. Mark has actually had a 4 point average for those seven semesters and will graduate with a perfect all A grade average if his last term is a four point. A student participation analysis was included in Easley's report.

Superintendent Niedzwiecki reported that a review of school closing procedures has been made in view of the problems encountered during the last snow storm. Several buses were stuck and some roads were not open because of the storm. Niedzwiecki said that he will use additional staff members beside himself, Howard Poley and John Mooneyham to ascertain road conditions. He suggested that Diane Turner transportation coordinator, and Cynthia and Gwen from his office will be utilized. Niedzwiecki did not state if Washtenaw County Road Commission District Foreman Larry Luckhardt has ever been consulted about road conditions.

Board Secretary, Mr. John Hochstetler asked why the minority students' pictures and names were placed last in each of the class pictorial layouts in the Klager Elementary School Book. Mr. Hochstetler said, "I do not want to see a repeat of this next year."

Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 PM by unanimous consent.

When Was The Last Time Your Children Had A Professional Eye Exam?

Like most parents, you probably take your children to the pediatrician for an annual school physical and you'd never miss those twice yearly visits to the dentist to make sure their teeth stay healthy. But what about their eyes?

The ABC's of eyecare

But, did you know that those in-school screenings detect only 20 to 30 percent of vision problems in children? Young children can pass that test and still have an undiagnosed eye problem that can cause learning difficulties.

Chances are you're leaving it up to the school nurse to use the "Big E" eye chart to find any vision problems.

According to the Better Vision Institute, a child's eyesight accounts for 80 percent of his or her learning ability in the first 12 years of life. A child who doesn't see clearly can suffer academically, athletically, even emotionally and socially.

Your children are growing and changing every day. So are their eyes. That's why it is important for them to have a professional Annual Back-to-School Checkup.

By ensuring your children are free of vision problems, you'll give them the best chance to perform to their fullest potential. It's as simple as ABC!
