Nearly sixty of these signs were distributed throughout the Village Sunday evening and recovered by Sheriff's Deputies on Monday morning. ## BREAKOUT Program Coming to Manchester Schools

On May 2, at 6:30 PM in the high school band room, Manchester Schools and the Community Resource Center will sponsor the Breakout Drug Prevention parent outreach program. Breakout is a non-profit agency which presents drug education seminars to southern Michigan schools.

This presentation to all parents in the Manchester area will focus on these four topics:

- high risk behaviors
- communication with your teen
- setting effective limits
- keeping families healthy

On Friday, May 3, the Breakout program will perform a morning assembly at the Middle School. The assembly focuses on peer pressure, decision making and drug prevention issues.

Following the assembly, Breakout will divide into classroom panel discussions which focus on choices and consequences of drug use, health issues relating to its use, and drug prevention.

That evening, Breakout will sponsor a dance at the Middle School for 7th and 8th graders from 7:00-9:00 PM. During the dance there will be a "Quiz Show" related to topics presented in the panel discussions. Prizes will be awarded, so be sure your Middle School student attends this fun evening.

The following week, Breakout will travel to the high school on May 6, 7 & 8th to present three days of classroom panel discussions. The topics include health issues related to drug/alcohol use, choices and consequences and mixed messages from society regarding alcohol use.

A pre- and post-survey will be conducted with the kids. What values do the kids bring into this program? And what will they take home afterwards?

BREAKOUT has a real commitment to helping people with these issues which goes well beyond the day of the initial program. "The last time Breakout came to Manchester a few years ago," recalls Kindt, "one of the speakers returned each Friday for six months to help me present a workshop to a small group here."

Speakers are recovering abusers, young people who have been there, keeping the focus young. With increasing drug use evident in surrounding communities, the Breakout team will be able to answer questions parents bring in on how Manchester students' use compares to that in other areas.

All parents are invited to attend the free parenting seminar and further questions can be answered by calling Bill Kindt, school social worker, at 428-7333.

It's Not Too Early...

We at the Manchester Enterprise not only have spring fever - we are already thinking about the Manchester Fair!

This year a new company is providing the rides. Crown

Amusements, Inc. from Belleville will be bringing a new assortment of rides to the fair this July. The fair will be held July 9 - July 13.

The Sunday before the fair starts Manchester will be in for a special treat. "Bull-Mania" will invade our town on Sunday, July 7, at 2 PM. This will feature bull riding; an event similar to the ones performed at rodeos. The show will be held at the Athletic Field, rain or shine. The fair board is hoping that this may become a yearly event. Along with the cowboys riding the bulls, the ever famous clowns will be there working their magic to protect the cowboys and entertain the crowd.

There will be advance ticket sales; $6 for adults age 13 and over, $4 for age 6 through 12 and the "5 and under" crowd will be free. At the gate, prices will be $7 for adults and $5 for the 6-12 age group.

The fair board is still in the process of scheduling evening entertainment for the fair. There is a yearly convention where performers can showcase their acts. Manchester is almost certain that Theresa Langworthy, a singer based in Nashville, will be scheduled for a night at the fair.

The kids' steers, pigs and lambs are being raised for the fair. The fair board is scheduling events. We can't wait for the Manchester Fair!

Parenting Workshop at MHS

Strategies for Effective Parents Explored

Our lives certainly are busy! Who has time to add going to another meeting to an already long list of priorities? However, if you missed the Manchester Parents Conference on Saturday April 20th, you missed a wonderful program!

Around 50 Manchester parents took advantage of a free program featuring people who specialize in dealing with children and adolescents. This program was provided by the "At Risk" grant from the state of Michigan.

Superintendent Ron Niedzwiecki welcomed all who attended. He then thanked the school personnel who made this event possible: Mr. Bill Kindt, Ms Sandra Dunn, Ms Randi Friedman, and Ms Cheryl Henderson.

The keynote speaker was John VerHeek, the director of the Family and Community Network Center. He is a former school teacher who went back to Western Michigan University for his Masters and then on to the University of Michigan for his Ph D. His address for the morning was "Motivating Your Child for School Success." If you think you have a child who is of "normal" IQ, but gets bad grades, or won't do school work, this is the man to talk to. John VerHeek said, "all kids are motivated; it's just what are they motivated to do."

VerHeek also talked of time. Not just time spent with each other but specifics of time spent together. There is "me time;" that is time spent alone. There is "we time;" that is time the whole family spends together. Then there is "us time;" that is one on one time spent between a parent and a child. There also needs to be "protected time." This time is child focused and there is no accountability. Also protected time should not be taken away as a punishment. He also suggested that families should have one meal time together at least five times a week.

After the keynote address the group had the choice of two workshop sessions. With such interesting topics it was hard to choose. One topic featured John VerHeek with the topic being "Helping your Adolescent Succeed in School." It was interesting to hear some of the motivational strategies that might work. He also focused on some of the outside forces which may have led to this child giving up on his/her school work.

The other group met in the library to hear Judith Wentz PhD., Executive Director of WISE Mothers, Inc. Her topic was "Communicating without Criticism: Strengthening your Relationship with your Elementary-Aged Child." I realize that different parents have different subjects that they wanted discussed, but they all sounded so good I wanted to attend all of them.

The last hour of the conference, once again gave us two workshop choices. One topic was "Communicating with your Adolescent - Enhancing Responsibility." The speaker was Dan Nolan, Clinical Psychologist, Sullivan & Nolan and Associates. The other topic, with the group meeting in the library, was "Working with and Supporting the Social and Moral Development of Elementary - Aged Children." The speaker was Sylvia Jones, PhD., Assistant Professor of Educational Psychology, College of Education, Eastern Michigan University.

I stayed to hear Dan Nolan. I was impressed as this psychologist enlisted the participation of the audience. He was also fully aware that there may not be a "right" or "wrong" answer when it comes to kids. Mostly he stressed communication with your kids. Now you may think this is not a new idea and it may not be. But sometimes parents try to talk to their kids and when they get no response they quit trying.

Some of Nolan's main points were: Tell your children what you expect of them. Set an example. Create opportunities to talk to your children. Sit down and talk with your children at non-stressful times. For behavior and consequences let the children help decide what house rules can be and what punishment would be. Also during "brainstorming" sessions do not throw out any ideas and do not make any judgments on ideas at that time. Of course children need to know that for some things parents have the final say.

It was interesting to have the audience participation. Sometimes one may feel that they are the only parents with a difficult child. Or some may want to do something different for the child, but not know how or if it would be a good idea. Listening to these parents one realizes that they are not alone and that there are other parents out there wanting and needing a different approach to certain behaviors. Also after listening to these parents, believe me you are not the only parent with a student that may not be living up to his/her potential.

As I said all of these subjects were good. It was too bad you had to decide between different workshops. I heard only good comments from all the workshop groups.

Special thanks to Bill Kindt, Sandra Dunn, Randi Friedman and Cheryl Henderson for bringing this all together. The topics were of interest to all. The speakers were interesting, easy to follow and offered many practical ideas. Thanks also to the parents who took the time to show up on a Saturday morning. The number of parents who came showed an interest in this type of event and I believe we all came away with a little new piece of knowledge to take back to our families.

Out & About

- by gar.

Have you seen the new one hundred dollar bill that has been placed in circulation? Ben Franklin's picture has been enlarged and is now off center on the bill. It is in the left half of the front to be exact. Still looks like the same old Ben to me, except the lines on his face seem to be more deeply etched. Guess that is because he has grown older since the last issue of this denomination. Then again he did die in 1790.

If you look directly at the bill the 100 on the right portion shows as green in color. Turn the bill so it is at an oblique angle and the green color turns to black. If you hold the bill up to a bright light, a smaller portrait of Old Ben becomes visible as the light passes through the paper. This engraving of Ben appears like a deceased Ben Franklin peering from the grave. Not a flattering likeness but one that would be hard to duplicate. Some other fine points are of the type of paper used and the inclusion of certain fibers that can only be observed with a trained eye or electronic scanning equipment.

It is amazing that our modern technology has given us the ability to produce paper, printing abilities and scanning techniques to prevent forgery. It has been widely reported that Iran was printing hundred dollar bills as fast as their printing presses could go. Before the Shah of Iran was overthrown, he imported printing presses and developed the paper making process to print money. Supposedly our government knew all about this equipment and paper making ability and if they did not sanction his action they were apparently not too worried about the Shah's holdings.

The change in Iran's leadership has apparently lead to the printing of billions, if not trillions, of bogus dollars in circulation throughout the world. Some financial experts, both here and abroad, have expressed concern that should this bogus paper money be redeemed, (or attempted to be redeemed) the world economy could collapse.

Other experts have opined that as long as this bogus money is used as barter exchange, nothing will happen...except maybe a little higher world inflation rate.

Oh well, we have been printing money for years without backing of silver or gold, increasing our national debt without rhyme nor reason, so why worry. We can always print new bills with Ben's engraving on the right side next time.

The Manchester Enterprise welcomes letters to the Editor, Guest Editorials, and your comments, suggestions and opinions.

We ask that all letters submitted for publication be signed! Should there be extenuating circumstances for withholding your name, we will give that full consideration.

Dear Editor:

My husband and I whole heartily applaud Karen Smith's letter in the April 18, 1996 issue. She hit every nail on the head that we have been discussing. Tolerance is the basis for human existence and there are few places where this is more important than where teens are concerned. They are growing and stretching their wings, testing their world and they will make mistakes along the way. They need guidance, support, love, discipline and tolerance. A community of intolerance will only serve to shove our young people further from us and any good influence we may have.

Annual Meeting
March 30, 1996

The meeting was called to order with 13 electors present. The minutes from the 1995 annual meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer read the 1995/96 financial report. Questions were called for and after some discussion the report was approved.

Under old business, the electors discussed equitable funding of libraries, cable TV franchises and natural gas franchises.

New business included: The Manchester Township Library report given by Laura Sutton (it was pointed out that the library can be designated in United Way donations), approval of the electors to leave the official depository designation to the discretion of the Board, approval to retain Keusch and Flintoft as the township legal counsel, setting the regular Board meeting date and time as the second Tuesday of each month at 8:00 PM; and holding one evening meeting in addition to the statutory meetings of the Board of Review. The proposed 1996/97 budget was gone through line by line and approved. Discussion concerning dust layer on the roads, state revenue sharing and road matching funds ensued.

Additional discussion, generally centering on gravel operations, enforcement of permits, and township roads, was heard. The meeting was adjourned at 3:10 PM.

Manchester High School Accreditation Renewed

John Korican, Principal of Manchester High School announced today that the school's North Central Association (NCA) accreditation has been extended through the 1995-1996 school year. This action was taken at the NCA's Annual Meeting in Chicago, Illinois, on March 27, 1996.

"Along with hosting periodic on-site evaluations by a visiting team of educators, each NCA school is accredited on the basis of an annual report on conditions in the school and on such supplementary information as the Commission on Schools requests," Principal, John Korican explained. "The continued accreditation means that the conditions for effective education exist in the school. We have been accredited since 1987 and we are working with the Middle and Klager Schools for a K-12 North Central Outcome Accreditation."

The North Central Association is the largest of the country's regional accrediting agencies. It is a voluntary coalition of over 7,000 schools and over 1,000 colleges and universities in the nineteen-state region of the central United States. The Association works with schools to improve the quality of education through a continuous process of accreditation and evaluation. NCA currently accredits 959 schools in Michigan.

Youth Plan "Kick-Off Dance" Before "Christmas In April"

This coming Friday is the night before "Christmas in April." On this night, the youth of Manchester and surrounding areas are invited to get "fired up" for the big day by coming to the "St. Nick in April" Dance! There will be a live band plus a DJ, pop, munchies, and lotsa good friends!!!

The St. Mary Youth Group is sponsoring the event which will be held at the Parish Center (old K of C Hall) on Friday, April 26, from 8 PM until 11 PM.

You can choose how much to pay for admission: either pay $3 at the door, the customary price of admission—or just $1 plus make a donation of three cans of food. Students are encouraged to choose the $1 + 3 cans of food, which will be given to the needy. Any cash profit after expenses will also be donated by the Youth Group—to "Christmas in April."

You don't have to be taking part in "Christmas in April" to come to the dance. . . but it is hoped that the dance will inspire students with the fact that many of them will be working together on this worthy cause the next morning! (And for those who absolutely can't help on Saturday and even have a really good excuse, their coming to the dance and paying admission will be a little bit of help and make a little bit of difference for the less-fortunate in the community.)

THE MUSIC AT THE DANCE WILL BE GREAT!!! Along with the DJ music, the local band, "hiq" will play a set of original tunes. "hiq" is made up of Vida Shurtliff on guitar and lead vocals, Dustin Williams on bass, and Keenan Shurtliff on drums. The band is donating their music for the dance in support of "Christmas in April."

So all Manchester youth, grades 7-12, are urged to make the night before "Christmas in April" a fun evening of getting energized for the next day's effort to lend a hand to those in need.

Be at the St. Mary Parish Center on Friday evening, April 26, from 8-11 PM for an evening of music, dancing, and fun—all for a good cause!

Fusilier's Family Farm and Greenhouse

One of the pleasures of living in a rural area like Manchester is being able to know your neighbors and the people with whom you do business. Another new local business has opened up and wants to let the community know what's happening.

Mike and Kathy Fusilier and their family have built a greenhouse at their family farm, and are planning to open this weekend. Right now they are stocked with an array of flowers in flats, baskets and pots, vegetable plants are on the way, and they will soon increase their variety of plants, as well as accommodate your special needs.

"We'll see what sells here," says Kathy of their new venture. For this year, they will be importing plants to sell. Next year Kathy plans to grow her own in the greenhouse. "With all the growth and development in the Manchester area, our greenhouse is an opportunity for residents to shop locally."

"We think people will find that we are selling a quality product," Kathy and Mike say. This is also truly a family enterprise which is a logical extension of their farming interests. Mike and Kathy farm 1300-1400 acres locally. And as if Kathy needs more to keep her busy with a growing and active family of four children, she'll be taking primary responsibility for the greenhouse and its business. "Mike will give me Sunday mornings off so I can teach my Sunday School class," Kathy acknowledges.

How do they feel about starting something new? "Well, it's sort of like just another crop. We already grow corn and soybeans. We could plant potatoes or alfalfa; instead we're growing flowers," explains Kathy. "There are many similarities. You still have to fertilize and there are insects and other pests which can affect your crop. The advantage is that you can probably control the elements in a greenhouse a little better than in the fields!"

When you stop out at Fusiliers you will not only find flowers and vegetable plants, but also have the opportunity to visit the family's fair pigs and their other farm animals, and stop for a chat with Kathy or Mike. Take a look at their unique 30x48 greenhouse which they built especially tall; it has a bright and airy look. The wind has been their nemesis the past couple of weeks as they tried to get the cover on the greenhouse; but it's done now, and they're ready to get to work.

The greenhouse will start with annuals and probably specialize in some varieties. Perennials may come later, or can be obtained by special order from their suppliers. Come fall, the Fusiliers hope to have mums and a pumpkin patch, and are thinking of poinsettias as they look toward the holiday season. And then it will be time to start next year's crop in the greenhouse.

Here's another opportunity to keep your shopping local. Stop out at 16400 Herman Road this weekend and catch a glimpse of springtime as the Fusilier Family Farm and Greenhouse opens for business.

Students from Eastern Michigan University exit the river after checking for parasites. Professor Barbara Shields said that the river is dirtier than in previous years due to the cutting of trees. Shields said that despite the tree cutting, the river is still cleaner than most in southern Michigan. Shields also said that the river is home to the "silver shiner," a rare and highly endangered minnow. Samples are taken from the river, photographed and released. The findings are turned over to the state Department of Natural Resources.

All of a sudden, overnight, the grass was green again and have you seen the violets blooming in the lawn? Neighbors have the first daffodils blooming as usual and I stand and remember Sophia Johnson who planted all of them. What a green thumb she had! I once told her she could put a stick in the ground and it would grow. What pleasant memories we have of our departed friends, this is how it should be.

And to continue your fun day, be ready at 6 PM for bus pickup to go to Freedom Township hall for the senior sponsored monthly card party—just call Erma Alber first at 428-8707. The party begins at 7:30.

Friday, April 26: Senior bus departs the Center at 10:00 for the Hands On Museum in AA. An additional trip will be made to Tecumseh Civic Theater for the Fiddler's Philharmonic to hear its 8 PM performance. Time of departure will be announced. Call Erma to go along.

Monday, April 29: The senior bus leaves the Center at 10:45 on a trip to Reddeman Farms out of AA, but will make a stop to eat at 11:30 (who loves to eat more than our generation?). Give Erma a ring to go along.

Tuesday, April 30: Ham loaf is on the lunch menu and you must try this!

Here it is already—May 1st (Wednesday) and seniors plan to leave the Center by bus at 10:45 for Stockbridge where they will enjoy lunch at the restaurant there. Then they plan to deliver the lap robes they have worked so hard on to shut-ins there before going to Gees' Greenhouse too. Call Erma to ride along on this trip.

Thursday, May 2: A long awaited super fun exercise program is here at last with Pat Patrick back again at the helm. She will be coming from AA each Thursday thru June 6 to gently push and pull our muscles back into shape.

We hope all you seniors will come to Emanuel's gym at 10:30 for an hour of super senior exercise. The class requires a minimum of ten people, so come on out! We will be celebrating the May Birthday Bash at noon to honor all you who were born in 'the merry month of May.' Get your reservations in and come enjoy your party. Birthday folks pay half-price and are treated to candles, corsage, special table and song and isn't it fun to visit with others who were born in your birth sign?

We are hard at work getting the May-June Trumpeter 'to bed' and you may pick up your copy at a senior meal or at the Center when it is open. You may contact Rubena Boelter to get a copy, too.

Arbor Day is April 26. Let's plant a tree! I was told by a salesgirl when I bought a small blue spruce that she had planted 300 trees last year (a record?). My small red maple out on terrace was brutalized recently and destroyed and I am sad.

McGruff - the Crime Dog - Visits Kindergarten

Ninety-five kindergarten students in Manchester received copies of a book starring themselves and McGruff the crime dog in "McGruff and Me: Be Smart, Be Safe". The students will learn to "Be Smart, Be Safe" with McGruff, the popular trench-coated crime prevention symbol who is the subject of a Create-A-Book.

The personalized story books include the child's name, his/her community and the names of friends and relatives to make the story more inviting and meaningful to young readers.

The Give A Book Program is sponsored for the Kindergartners by the Washtenaw County

Sheriff's Department, Washtenaw County Command Officers Assoc., and the following local businesses; Johnson Controls, The Manchester Optimist

Club, Pilot Metal Products, Pinnacle Engineering, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck King, and the All About Me Adventures.

Washtenaw County's Crime Prevention Officer Deputy Lisa King and McGruff the Crime dog himself, greeted the kindergartners and gave them their books and learned how to "Be Smart, Be Safe".

Ryan Lannom looks pleased with his book from McGruff

Earth Day Programs at Klager

For 26 years now people have gathered to celebrate the Earth. This April 22nd was no exception. Mrs. Vickie Bolan presented a talk about wetlands to Mrs. Raus' fourth grade class.

She described what makes a wetland. She also talked about the vegetation and the animals that might inhabit wetlands. The kids really enjoyed the idiosyncrasies about some of the animals. Turtles have a homing device to find water. You could put them down any place in your lawn and they will head for water.

Mrs. Bolan encouraged the kids to take nature walks, and told them what to look for. She brought some samples of the vegetation that could be seen.

Wetlands are places where there is shallow water or soggy soil at least part of the year. In addition to providing a home to plants and animals, wetlands are also important to people. They act like sponges soaking up water; this can help prevent flooding. They can act like a huge filtration system, cleaning polluted water. When chemicals and other pollutants wash off streets and lawns into the wetlands; by the time it seeps through the wetlands and into the ground water it is clean.

Then it was on to Mrs. Spensley's and Miss Hanson's Team Room. There Mrs. Bolan talked about recycling. Almost all of the kids in the room said their families recycled.

Some of the facts she gave to the kids were: recycled plastic can be used in many items including carpeting and T shirts! They also learned that 115 pounds of white paper is equal to one tree.

By way of a flip chart, Mrs. Bolan took the kids on a tour of a recycling plant and what happens to the things we do recycle.

The students were very attentive and each signed a pledge card to help "Save the Earth".

Dog Sledding

By Julianna Swaney

Ever since I read the book Wood Song, by Gary Paulsen, I've wanted to dog sled. Through a news letter my mom found out about a three day dog sledding course in the upper peninsula. Of course she signed me up!

The Barker family owns a cabin in the upper peninsula. The daughter Maggie Barker competes in races all over the state. She would be the one teaching the class.

On New Years Eve, my family and I drove up to Pellston, MI. The next day we went to the airport where Mr. Barker picked me and eight other kids up. We crossed the Mackinac Bridge and drove two more hours into the wilderness to the Barkers cabin.

When we arrived we had to walk the last half mile to the cabin with twenty degrees below zero temperature and three feet of snow. We left our luggage in the van. On the way we met all the dogs in their compound. They have about twenty or thirty mixed breeds of dogs. Mr. Barker showed us around our cabin and we met Maggie. She demonstrated how to put a harness on a dog. We hooked seven of them up to the sled and one by one we went back for our luggage. We didn't get to drive them yet; Maggie did that.

Our cabin was separate from the Barkers. It was one big room heated by a wood stove, a table for eating and a small room for changing. We found our bunks, laid out our sleeping bags, and put away our gear. After we were all settled in Mr. Barker showed us how to put on and use snow shoes.

The next morning after breakfast we went dog sledding. There were three sleds so we went in groups of three. As the first group went out the rest of us snow shoed to a place in the woods where we were going to build a snow house and eat lunch outside.

Soon it was my turn to drive the sled.

Dog sledding is hard to explain. The dogs are so excited to go that all you have to say is "OK let's go". In dog sledding you don't use reins like you would with a horse. That makes it different but not too difficult to control the dogs. The lead dogs are taught to turn right when you say "gee" and left when you say "haw".

At first Ben Barker, my instructor (we couldn't all go with Maggie!), drove the sled and I rode in it. After a few minutes we stopped and Ben and I switched places. Almost before I was on we took off!

For awhile we went along a back road, but soon we turned off the road and onto a trail. Little branches kept hitting me in the face so I crouched down, and the whole sled tipped over! Luckily the dogs couldn't pull it lying on it's side, so they stopped!

We tipped over like that several times for different reasons. We went over some pretty rough terrain; lots of small steep hills. I had to push the dogs up hills and out of snow drifts many times. Once we almost tipped over into a stream! But we made it home in one piece.

The next day we all packed for the trip home. The adventure was very short, only one day of dog sledding, but it was really fun.

I am definitely going back next year. I say if anyone ever has a chance to go dog sledding take it!

Julianna Swaney, 13, is the daughter of Pat and Bill Swaney of Manchester.

Ed. Note: In case you, too would like to be inspired to try dog sledding, as Juli did, you will find that Wood Song by Gary Paulsen is available at the Manchester Township Library.

And, just for the record - we hope you don't have an opportunity to act on your inspiration until next winter!

Parent Contributions to the Education Plan

Parents have one BIG advantage over school staff when it comes to making a plan for their child's education - HISTORY. We know our children. We know how they were before they started school, and we have been with them as they have gone through every grade. We know how they react when school is going good, and we have know how they respond when school is not going so well. All of these things are HISTORY. We need to be sure that we relay this history to the school staff during an IEPC (Individual Education Planning Committee) or 504 meeting and to be sure we contribute to the written IEP or 504 plan.

Many of the parents P.A.S.S. has talked with during this last year are not aware that they can contribute to the meeting and plan. Among the many changes purposed for IDEA (special education law) is a part which states that parents must contribute a page to the IEP plan.

Many of you may ask the question, what should I put in the plan? During the next few weeks P.A.S.S. will be giving examples.

Example 1: Student with a learning disability - in this case dyslexia.

1. Written expression - goal is for student to learn new material at the same pace as other students.

- Disability involves writing the correct spelling of words and using the correct sentence mechanics when writing.

- Accommodations - don't count spelling or sentence mechanic as part of the grade for subject areas. Instead encourage "tools" such as a Franklin speller or a spell checker in word processing software. Have student dictate homework or test answers which require answers to be in sentence form to another person who writes it down or have the student use a tape recorder.

- Remediation - spelling and vocabulary lists will be multiple choice to develop skills needed to use a spell checker quickly and accurately.

2. Reading and speech - goal is for student to be exposed to new material at the current grade level despite the fact that the student's reading abilities may be several years behind. Student will have taped test books through the Reading for the Blind and Dyslexic program (arranged by parents).

- Disability prohibits a quick and concise verbal answer to a question or a comment about a discussion topic and also prohibits student's ability to pronounce words that the student knows and can pronounce in his/her head while reading silently. Reading aloud often poises tremendous anxiety.

- Inform student ahead of time of what passage the student will read aloud and what question the student will be asked.

- Ideally the student's reading level could be improved through novel teaching approaches (phonetic reading does not seem to work).

NEXT WEEK'S ARTICLE WILL LIST MORE EXAMPLES. Remember that parents should be monitoring that all parts of the IEP or 504 plan are being followed. Reminders to teachers and principals are gratefully appreciated since they are keeping track of many students. Parents working together with the school for the success of their child yield the best outcome!

If you want more information about IEP or 504 plans or if you would like other parents to review your child's plan, come to a PASS meeting or call (428-0738) to make an appointment. This is totally volunteer group, there is no charge. Next meetings are April 24 and May 1 at 7 PM at the Emanuel Church.

Baseball, Softball and Track ... Here We Go!

JV Dutchmen Get Off to a Rough Start

Ruth VanBogelen

After their first two games were canceled, the JV baseball team met their first opponents on Thursday, April 18 in Manchester. In the first inning Onsted scored three runs. Our Dutchmen came right back and scored two in the bottom of the first on a two-run homer by Eric VanBogelen. However, this was the end of the Dutchmen scoring. Onsted scored eight more runs in the second inning and went on to score nine more runs for a final score of 20-2. Despite the lack of runs, the Dutchmen did hit the ball. Herb Mahony got 2 hits, James Fuerstnau, Jacob Klein, and Mike Meranuck each got 1 hit. Pitchers for Manchester were Jacob Klein, James Fuerstnau, Carl Maki and Herb Mahony. All of the Dutchmen saw playing time in this game, except Justin Turk, who is injured.

Our boys played again on Friday at Grass Lake. During the first 4 inning Manchester played competitively. The score at the end of the 4th was 6-6 with Dennis Wickham pitching. Mike Meranuck led the team offensively with 3 hits, Jacob Klein and Eric VanBogelen each had 2 hits and Chris Kemner had one. Manchester had 9 stolen bases. The fifth inning did not go as well, Grass Lake scored 10 runs to end the game 16-6. The Manchester team has a lot of potential with many talented players. With a little more work on defense (they had 5 errors in the first game and 8 in the second), the rest of the season should be pretty exciting. April 24 find Manchester hosting Vandercook Lake, April 26 Manchester hosts Napoleon and April 29th finds them on the road to Addison. All games start at 4:30.

Conference at the mound. Manchester loses to Grass Lake, 11-4

Amy Gall pitches a win. Manchester 6, Grass Lake 5

Middle School Track Begins

The Middle School Track team is having a tough time this year. Our first track meet at Concord, April 12th was canceled due to bad weather. Our next track meet, April 15th, was also canceled due to bad weather, but this time it was canceled half way through the meet. Finally, we had our first full track meet on Wednesday, April 17th.

We had great weather and ran well. The boys placed second against Addison and North Adams. The girls also placed second. We tried our hardest but Addison came out on top. Two records were broken at this track meet. Pat DuRussel beat Shane Goodell's record of 5'5", by jumping 5'6" at the high jump. Holly Horodeczny beat Jessica Weber's record time of 42.07 seconds by running 36.7 seconds in the 200 hurdles.

Even though the track team had a horrible start due to the awful weather, our first track meet was a success! Hopefully we will have many, many more records broken! We are looking forward to a great season!

The Middle School's next home track meet will be Monday April 29th at 4:30 against Springport.

The Fund raising Committee will look into this. b.) Laurie Carey showed off the new cooking cart. The cart is a mobile kitchen with an oven and other cooking appliances and utensils. It is already being used on a daily basis by Klager teachers and students. Laurie did a great job on this, (along with husband Mike) and came in $500 under budget. The PTO and Klager teachers thanked Laurie for her effort. c.) The popcorn machine is still not repaired. Lisa Brinkman will be contacting Frankenmuth about options for repair or replacement. d.) The Wiggle Works literary skills teaching program, which was fully funded by the PTO (approximately $5,200) was ordered, but the company has had some software problems. We will be getting a demo disc in the next few weeks to begin introducing the program to teachers and students.

7. New business: a.) Yvonne Henry asked if the PTO would purchase journal notebooks for students to record their impressions of the new building project. A motion was made to allocate a maximum of $300 for purchase of notebooks. This was defeated. We will look into the possibility of getting complimentary notebooks from local stores or companies and present at the next meeting. b.) Bruce Thomson noted that annual election of PTO officers will take place in May, and nominations will be requested at the April meeting. c.) Some of the classroom computers have degenerated "mouses". Bruce Thomson will look into how replacements can be acquired.

Meeting adjourned at 7:50 pm. Next meeting: Tuesday April 23rd at 6:30 pm.

Local Student Earns Caddie Scholarship

Marcus J. McNamara, of Manchester, will begin his freshman year at the University of Michigan with a full tuition and housing scholarship from the Evans Scholars Foundation.

McNamara earned the scholarship by caddying at Barton Hills Country club. He is one of more than 860 caddies nationwide who will be attending college on an Evans Scholarship in 1996/97.

"These young people have demonstrated their abilities and dedication in the classroom and as caddies on the Golf course," said the Evans Scholars educational director. Among requirements for the scholarship, candidates must caddie at least two years and rank in the upper 25% of their high school class.

WWRA MARKS FIFTH YEAR OF OPERATION

The Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority (WWRA) formed in 1991 to address waste and recycling issues, consists of eight municipalities: six townships and two villages located in western Washtenaw County. Each has an appointed delegate and alternate to serve on the board of trustees.

The townships and its delegates include: Bridge water Township, Doug Parr; Dexter Township, Julie Knight; Lima Township, Ed Gunther; Lyndon Township, Duane Noah; Manchester Township, Sybil Kolon; and Sylvan Township, represented by Bob Lange. The Village of Chelsea is represented by Steve Daut and Manchester Village by Robert Vought. These delegates volunteer their time for meetings held the fourth Wednesday of each month at various sites within the authority district. The public is invited and encouraged to participate in these meetings.

The WWRA board has initiated recycling activity through state grant money and special assessments levied throughout the district on its 7614 households. Township households are assessed $17 per year while homes in the village pay $30 per year which includes curb-side pick up service.

Land has been leased for $1 per a 99 year agreement. A 60' x 70' building at 8025 Werkner Rd., Chelsea, houses the processing of materials collected and is in full time operation. The phone number for the facility is (313) 475-6160.

In addition to the building other equipment owned by the authority includes: a 1989 Mack truck to service the roll off bins, a 1995 Chevrolet pick up truck and a curb side trailer, 13 recycle bins, 5 cardboard bins, 10 forty yard roll off bins, 3 semi-trailers, a semi-tractor, a Kramer loader, a fork lift and a Selco baler which is used to bundle the raw materials for resale.

The full time staff consists of: manager Bob Reding, recycling coordinator, Gina Van Riper, and driver Dan Grau. The sorting, processing and baling of the materials for resale is supplemented by 5-10 trainees per day from the Cassidy Lake SAI Boot Camp.

WWRA provides weekly curb side recycling service to each of the villages: Chelsea on Wednesdays and Manchester on Tuesdays in addition to pick ups at the local schools. Drop-off bins are located throughout the six townships for those areas not serviced by curb side pick up.

Materials currently accepted for recycling include: newspapers, phone books, brown paper bags, and cardboard, tin and aluminum. Number 1 clear plastic, #2 milk jugs, and #2 colored plastics are also accepted. Green, brown, and clear glass are recyclable items. Recently added items include: magazines, pizza boxes, office paper, cereal, and cookie boxes. Aerosol cans may also be recycled.

Educational programs include slide presentations and literature are offered by the staff for school and civic organizations. Appointments may be scheduled with Gina Van Riper at (313) 475-6160.

Reducing waste and increasing the incidence of recycling is a high priority for WWRA members. Although this project is currently funded by special assessments and the sale of raw materials, the value of these materials is not sufficient to cover all program costs at this time.

The WWRA, in conjunction with the Washtenaw County Dept. of Public Works, will soon hold public hearings explaining the need to continue the current special assessment to ensure the WWRA's operation and future growth. Additional information on the WWRA will be presented in the coming months.

Village Receives Grant from State

The village of Manchester is receiving $50,000 in assistance from the Michigan Jobs Commission to make infrastructure improvements for a local business, state Rep. Bev Hammerstrom announced today.

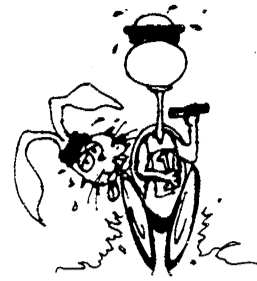

The economic development grant supports a location for SGF Corp. of America. Improvements include the extension of water and sewer services to the site.

"This grant lifts a significant financial burden off local officials while creating employment opportunities," said Hammerstrom, R-Temperance. "It is because of support like this that Michigan is experiencing its lowest unemployment rate in 26 years."

It is estimated that 17 full-time manufacturing jobs will be created as a result of the new construction.

"We are pleased to be able to provide the necessary support to projects such as this which result in job opportunities for Michigan residents," said Doug Rothwell, Jobs Commission chief executive officer and department director.

SGF is a 50-year-old business originating in Germany. It produces, warehouses and sells controlled response rate couplings for use in cars and trucks. Although it owns a warehousing operation in Ohio, the Manchester facility will be the corporation's first venture into manufacturing in the United States. The grant is funded through the Michigan Community Development Block Grant program.

Volunteers Needed for 24 Hour Relay

After all you've heard and read about the Second Annual 24 Hour Relay Challenge, you may be wondering just how you can "Take the Challenge." There are as many different ways to help as there are individuals who want to participate. You don't have to be a marathon runner (or walker) to be part of this terrific event.

You want to be part of a team, but you don't know of anyone? Call Wes Gall at 428-7333 to find out if there are teams which would love to have YOU as one of their members. Teams are being formed with all ages and interests of individuals...there will probably be a perfect fit for you!

You just don't think you're up to being at the track for 24 Hours straight? It is a tough challenge! The volunteer committee is seeking help NOW. Cheryl Smail, who is coordinating the volunteer effort, would appreciate hearing from you. Call her at 428-9368 to offer your services and see what jobs are available. You can even choose your level of activity! If you like to walk, you can volunteer to be a track monitor. If you'd rather sit down, you can help keep track of miles tallied. Perhaps breakfast is your forte...you early risers can stop down and help prepare and serve breakfast to an appreciative crowd. There are lots more ways to help - just call Cheryl and she'll line you up with a job which suits your abilities.

The recognition and awards committee would like to pass out goodie bags to each team. If you have items to donate which would go along with the theme for the relay, please feel free to call Joanna VanRaden at 428-8321.

The Entertainment Committee is planning to have lots of activities to fill up the day and evening hours. Do you have a talent you'd like to share? Call Bill Kindt at 428-7333 or Sandee Sheats at 428-8321.

Cash donations are still being accepted for team and individual sponsorships, from businesses and citizens who would like to make a contribution in this way. Contact Cynthia Sewell at Central Administration office 428-9711 to make an undesignated donation.

But don't forget that your friends and neighbors might be forming a team and looking for a few sponsors. Ask the students you know - and their parents. Chances are, you'll find a team to sponsor right in your own back yard!

Where will you be on Memorial Day Weekend? Make it a point to be part of the 24 Hour Relay Challenge. -MJC
