The Indian Chief carving by Steve Lyos is a memorial to Edna Knauss' husband, Claran

A stately pine tree in front of Edna Knauss' home on Riverside Drive has been dying for several years. Time came for it to be removed, but Edna wasn't willing to see it leave entirely. "I wanted to protect the house from an oncoming car," she explained.

The tree has stood at the corner of Riverside and Beaufort as long as anyone can remember - including Edna. "We've lived in this house for 63 years, and it was an old tree when we moved here. I wouldn't doubt that it's over 100 years old."

Please deliver this copy of THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE to _____

When Gary Widmayer from the Village crew notified Edna that they would be cutting down the tree, she requested they leave 6-10 feet to protect the house. "But I realized it wasn't going to do much good just sitting there," Edna recalls. It was then she decided to contact Steve Lyos, a Manchester resident, to carve a design into the remainder of the tree.

The Indian Chief that is now emerging from the tree trunk is a memorial to Claran Knauss, Edna's husband. "He had a large collection of artifacts and he liked that motif," explains Edna. Their son and his wife now live in Watersmeet during the summer and they had always noticed these Indian carvings during their visits north.

"Steve showed me his album after I had read about him. He has done a lot of smaller works, which he sells at craft sales," Edna relates. "He works strictly freehand and refers to dimensions on a grid. This art is totally natural to Steve." Edna explained that she had suggested the Indian but left the actual design to him.

Turn down Beaufort and park to take a good look at the Chief. We wouldn't want you to get into a crash while admiring the artist's craft.

The Super Sniffer Returns

Last Tuesday morning, May 7, Officer Chuck Gauss and his "full service" dog, Iroc, came back to Manchester High School to search for drugs on the school property. Included in the search were the locker room lockers as well as hallway lockers.

The results of their search proved to be inconclusive. The "full service" dog used in the search hit on two different lockers in MHS's hallway. These lockers were searched by John Korican, MHS Principal. Although no illegal substances were found, residue was detected on a jacket.

Officer Gauss and Iroc were also here during last school year at the request of MHS administration. The results of a fall 1994 search were similar to this year's. But we can only hope that next year, and in the years to follow, such a search will not be needed.

Although the results of this search were positive, in that no substances were found, we must be cautious nonetheless. It's not reason to believe that we can sit back and rest on our laurels.

Iroc "hits" a locker in the MHS hallway. Residue was detected in at least one locker.

Even though we know that drugs are being used by young people in the community, we can be pleased and optimistic that the drugs were not found inside the school. Remain aware that the potential for drug abuse is always threatening to the youth of our community.

What is the purpose of the 24 Hour Relay Challenge? It is to raise money for the preservation of open space in the town of Manchester.

But when you get right down to it, the purpose of the 24 Hour Relay Challenge is to raise money for the preservation of open space in the town of Manchester.

garden has been surprised by how many people have asked her just what the 24 Hour Relay Challenge is all about. She would suggest that those who have questions stop by at the Adams Field just Saturday and see just what's going on.

The 24 Hour Relay Challenge is described as "A Celebration of Community Spirit." That's what 150 team members and dozens of dedicated volunteers discovered in last year's Relay.

Adults and teens, running, walking and working together without benefit of the "generation gap" Middle School and High School students, banded together for a common purpose.

To the Editor: I was glad to read the letter to the editor in a recent Enterprise from Roger Kappler, the Chair of the Sharon Township Planning Commission.

What is the purpose of the 24 Hour Relay Challenge? It is to raise money for the preservation of open space in the town of Manchester.

The 24 Hour Relay Challenge gives team members the opportunity to spread their wings in a safe environment, without using artificial, mind-altering substances.

And the other important purpose of the 24 Hour Relay Challenge is to raise money to support substance-free activities and substance-free education to our young people.

Entertainment will be ongoing during the day on Saturday. EVERYONE is invited and encouraged to stop down any time between 9 AM and 11 PM to see the Relay teams in action.

Where will you be on Memorial Day Weekend? garlene will be at the 24 Hour Relay Challenge. Will you? Come on out and get involved. It will be worth it!

The statement is all the more remarkable when one considers that it holds true for the entire United States, including Michigan. An enormous amount of private land in this country is held by people who are 55 years of age and older.

In 1985, I wrote a book called Preserving Family Lands. The message of the book is simple: if you have a piece of land you care about, you may have a serious estate tax problem.

There was another message in the book. If you are a landowner, and if you care about preserving the quality of life in your neighborhood and your community, you also have tools for dealing with the estate tax problem.

Let's say that John and Mary own Hickory Ridge Farm, a beautiful agricultural property a few miles from the city limits.

Let's also say that John and Mary have invested their money wisely and have a portfolio and savings worth an additional $250,000.

The children, who had assumed all along that they would inherit their beloved Hickory Ridge, are in for a rude awakening, because here is what happens: In most states, the combined federal and state estate tax on the $1.75 million estate (Hickory Ridge plus the other assets) is almost $500,000.

In contrast, what if John and Mary had a successful family business worth $1.75 million? Would John and Mary and their tax advisors have done some sophisticated tax, financial and legal planning to get the family business through the transfer tax system to the children? Absolutely! A whole array of entirely appropriate tools would likely be used to keep that business intact and get it to the kids.

Why haven't they done the same sort of planning for Hickory Ridge? Succession planning for the business owner is an accepted tax and financial planning discipline.

The principle tool in the private landowner's toolbox is the conservation easement, a recorded deed restriction that limits or prevents future development of a property.

A planning strategy may include the use of a family limited partnership, a "generation skipping trust," and possibly annual gifts to children and grandchildren.

The purpose of this article is not to explain these tools. The purpose here is to make three points:

* First, open space is threatened because of an aging population of landowners and the impact of high federal estate taxes.

* Second, this is a problem that landowners can do something about and that land trusts can do something about.

* Third, this is a problem that needs attention now. It is not too late for the educational process to begin, and land trusts can play an important role in that process.

If you would like more information about land trusts, conservation easements, or obtaining a copy of Mr. Small's book, write to Rains Valley Land Trust, PO Box 419, Manchester, MI 48158 or call (517) 456-4901.

Summary Minutes of Special Meeting

The purpose of the special meeting was to continue the process of reviewing draft sections of the updated Township Zoning Ordinance prepared by planning consultants.

A review of the General Provisions, Special Land Uses, and Zoning Board of Appeals articles of the Ordinance was the primary business of the meeting.

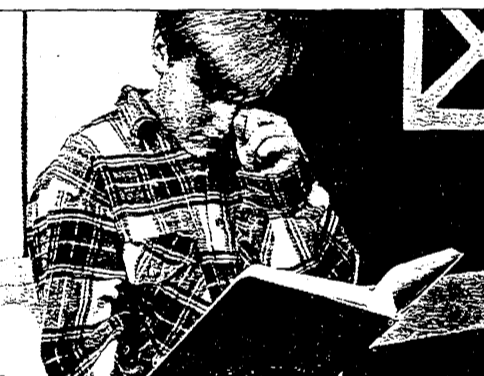

There was a lengthy discussion of private roads and options for clustering residential housing. However, there was no resolution of the issues. Decisions on these two topics must be made, before the balance of the Zoning Ordinance can be completed.

Copies of drafts from previous meetings, are available for public review at the Clinton, Manchester and Saline Public Libraries.

Manchester Area Historical Society

THE CIVIL WAR REVISITED

You may think the Civil War was before our time, but our own Oak Grove Cemetery has buried soldiers who lost their lives in the War Between the States. For our May 21 meeting, the historical society shall be hosting speakers who will take us back to a most tumultuous era in America's history — The Civil War.

Our speakers will include Janet Shurtliff who will share her research findings for our 1997 calendar, Don Limpert imparting some of his vast knowledge on the subject of the Civil War, and George Till to give us a brief overview of the encampment reenactment of the Michigan 24th Regiment, The Iron Brigade, which is planned for the 4th of July.

Start thinking about our program of "adopt a soldier." You would be simply administering to some of his basic needs—a sandwich one day, a few cups of lemonade, and maybe the use of your shower once. Join us for time spent revisiting the Confederacy and the Union on Tuesday, the 21st of May at 7:30 P.M.

County Clerk Announces Candidacy

Peggy M. Haines, Washtenaw County Clerk/Registrar of Deeds, announced her candidacy today for reelection. "Serving the residents of Washtenaw County with prompt, efficient, courteous customer service is the primary goal of our office. Through the use of state-of-the-art computer software, we are able to reduce costs, maintain accuracy, and provide quick accessibility for the retention and retrieval of permanent records."

Haines

When discussing her department's accomplishments since 1992, Haines highlighted four areas: local implementation of the pilot court unification project (a state-wide project to consolidate circuit, district, and probate courts), installation of an advanced, computer imaging system for the Vital Records Division, staff training and development (which increases customer service and accessibility), and effectively and efficiently implement the court unification project, and initiating new marketing efforts such as use of the worldwide web to inform residents of policies, procedures, and campaign filing deadline dates. There are always opportunities for improvement if you stay abreast of technology and training.

"I am proud to serve the residents of Washtenaw County and enjoy attending public events. Some jobs you just never get tired of," Haines said, "and meeting the people you serve is one of them!"

Poppy Days are Coming - May 23-25

On a spring day, we'd like to forget about war and believe that this country will never again be engaged in an armed conflict. God willing, it will be true.

Many would put all memory of war behind us, closing that chapter of history and confining it to a few pages of a history book.

That would be a mistake because we learn from history. If we forget about those four wars and the millions who died while serving their country—whether they volunteered or were drafted—we'd be making a great mistake. Poppy Day reminds America of the sacrifice of millions of lives in war... that the price of war in human life is high. As long as we remember this, we will never, ever rush headlong into a conflict.

Poppy Day simply says: REMEMBER.

The nation's tribute to its war dead began with World War I. While those of us who have never been on a battlefield have no concept of what it is really like—war is hell, living hell. And losing a friend, a comrade takes a greater toll on that soldier than we can ever comprehend. Coming home isn't easy. Putting your life back together isn't easy. That's why it is important today to remember the dead of the battlefields and to honor the living who returned. They earned that honor!

Poppy Day sends a message to America's veterans of all four wars—World Wars I and II, Korea and Vietnam—that they are respected for serving their country—for risking their lives in a way that we at home have never known.

It's a small thing, this poppy with its roots in the battlefields of World War I, but its purpose is great. When it bloomed in the spring of 1918, around shell craters and among the barriers, it became an emblem of tribute never to be forgotten.

Perhaps what makes those young lives lost in World War I so important to remember today is that they still rest on foreign soil. They lie, row upon row, near the battlefields of France where they fell.

It is a small thing to wear a red poppy but the act has great meaning to this nation. As long as America remembers the sacrifice of her sons and daughters, there is hope for the future, hope that one day there will be no more wars.

That makes Poppy Day important to you—and to every individual in America. When you see our American Legion Auxiliary volunteer on Poppy Day, a bouquet of poppies made by a veteran in her hand, pick one, wear it, make a contribution to the day of honoring and supporting American veterans.

They served for you. They died for you. Can you forget them?

Leon Ball receives two Sales Awards

Midwest Ford's Leon Ball is the recipient of two top sales awards presented by two different organizations.

First, Leon received the "Outstanding Sales Consultant of the Year" award from Gold Seal Corporation, a motivational sales consulting firm. He won an engraved plaque among other gifts for this award. In addition, he won the "Legends and Leaders" Customer Satisfaction Leader award from Ford Motor Company. This prize is presented to the top 300 Sales Managers and top 500 Sales persons within Ford Dealerships.

Because only 500 sales consultants worldwide receive this award, it is highly prestigious and based on a combination of sales and customer satisfaction, as based on surveys conducted by Ford Motor Company of their customers.

Due to the exclusive nature of these two awards, it is unusual for one sales person

Greg Marvin, owner of Midwest Ford, congratulates Leon Ball on his successful first year in sales at Midwest. Leon has received two prestigious awards for salesmanship.

in a dealership to receive this award (only one is eligible in any given dealership); but to receive both of them is a very exceptional accomplishment. Sweetening the pot just a little more, is the realization that Leon just began his career in sales in early 1995. These awards were received in his first full year as a sales consultant at Midwest Ford.

As a retiree of Ford Motor Company, Leon really believes in his product which makes him even more effective as a salesman. "But I really appreciate and must thank all of my customers who made this possible. The relationship between a salesman and his customers is based on trust. I have been fortunate to earn that trust over the past year and a half."

Greg Marvin, owner of Midwest Ford, commented that, "Leon's dedication to wanting to serve his customers is the basis of his success. He's trying to become more than just a sales person...he is their friend. That is what makes the difference."

Leon continues: "I sincerely want to continue to strive to serve the Manchester community. I will continue to work to earn their respect."

Marvin concluded, "Leon really enjoys what he's doing. This is a great second career for him. We're very fortunate to have him at Midwest Ford."

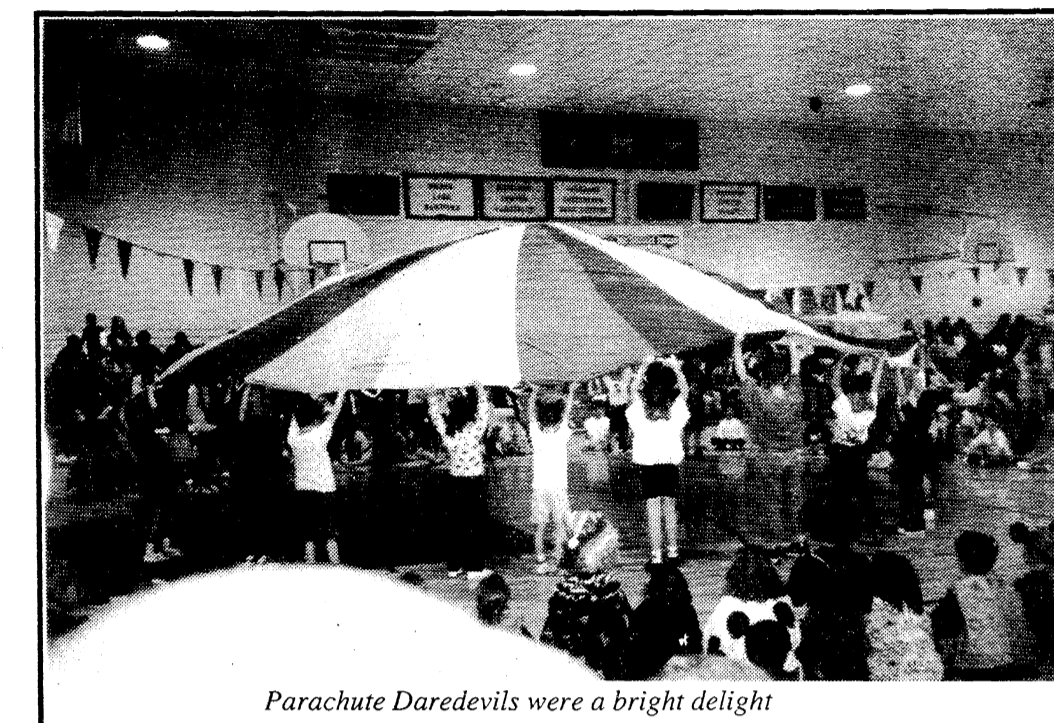

Congratulations, Leon, on the success of your second career!

Parachute Daredevils were a bright delight

What would spring be in Manchester without the Klager Kids Circus? On May 8th the Klager Kids presented "Disney Visits the Circus". The first and second graders had practiced for weeks and the finished production was worthy of "Ringling Brothers".

As with any circus there were animal acts. Kids acted like Leaping Lions with lion tamers Blake Jabkar and Stephanie Mackres, and Silly Seals with Seal trainers are Jeremy Kratz and Seth Wheeler.

Mrs. Merrill's first grade class performed as the Sizzling Streamers and Mrs. Fielder's 2nd Grade Class were the Jazzy Rope Jumpers. Part of Mrs. Fielder's 2nd grade class was the Brawny Body Builders. Mrs. Little's and Ms Rose's 2nd grade class were the Junior Jugglers and the Tightrope Walkers.

Ms Hanson and Mrs. Spensley's Team Room provided the Parachute Daredevils.

And what circus would be complete without clowns? Mrs. Little's and Ms Rose's 2nd grade class performed as the Tumbling Clowns and the Dancing Clowns.

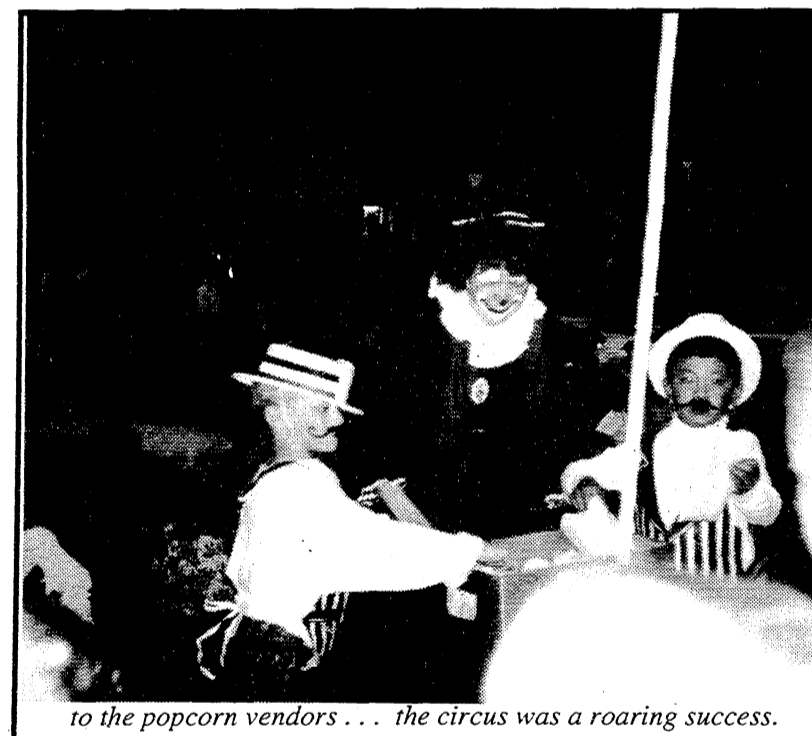

The circus was completed by having popcorn vendors and Ring Master and Ring Mistresses.

The cost to attend the Klager Circus was a donation (foodstuff and toiletries) to the Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor. This "home away from home" provides a home for the families of critically ill or injured children being treated at our area hospitals.

Since opening in 1985 the House has served over 5,000 families. The House needs your donations, ideas, skills, products and services and any time you could give. Help support the Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor.

Local Student wins Competition

During the summer of 1995, an international competition was held to design "The Perfect Chair For Barbie Doll." The competition was sponsored by the Vitra Design Museum in Weil am Rhein, Germany. A local entrant, Miss Ellee Nadzyk of Manchester, was introduced to these wonderful creatures that I adopted one for the Manchester Senior Citizens for the year. We had some fun with Amanda during the winter. My intentions are to finish her story in the future.

The exhibit will open May 18 at the International Contemporary Furniture Fair at the Jacob J. Javits Center in New York City. It will then travel to the Vitra Design Museum in Germany for another exhibition before appearing in Cologne, Germany for an international furniture show. It will continue on to several other venues in Europe through 1998. Miss Kladyk's entry has also been featured prominently in an article in the current issue of Metropolis magazine, a contemporary design publication.

Miss Kladyk is a 1995 graduate of The Manchester Co-op Pre-school and is currently studying in the Pre-K program at the Pleasant Lake School.

Dear Friends,

I have shared just the beginnings of the life of a very interesting Manatee, Amanda. For those of you who don't know when I went to Florida was so amazed when we went to Homosassa State Wildlife Park and was introduced to these wonderful creatures that I adopted one for the Manchester Senior Citizens for the year. We had some fun with Amanda during the winter. My intentions are to finish her story in the future.

Today, I want to tell you all what it has been like for us to be adopted. When I first came to this job, I was told that the most I would ever feed was maybe 23 or 24. The first week on this job we fed 27 the first day and reached somewhere in the 30's the second day and as they say the rest was history. As I worked my way through that first year, we had to make some adjustments, mainly by hiring an extra person and then continuously assessing the needs.

Then in the winter the most wonderful thing happened for us all. In came an angel in human disguise. This angel decided that whether we felt so or not, we needed her set of hands. She began coming each day, learning and sharing. Ministering to those who were very sick. Some who we've entrusted to the creators care. Seeing to special needs. Washing tons of dishes over my time with the seniors, and helping with the takeouts.

In helping with the takeouts there is a lot of items each day that have to be hand packed. Sometimes we get late requests due to illness and emergencies, and still this special little angel lovingly continues on. Nothing made this angel quit. Even the day she slipped and fell and broke her ankle, she still tried to work, and had to be sent home. She has ministered to the staff when we haven't felt so good ourselves. She's come in early on numerous occasions when we've had big plans for the meals. This ministering angel has given to all. Our staff has had the privilege of having wonderful advice, and joyful conversations, with this angel.

I am sure this angel by now would completely disagree with the content of this small token of thanks, and perhaps I might be in trouble for this public display of thought.

I am sure by now those of you who have shared the meals with us would like the privilege of saying a GREAT BIG THANK YOU! Well, go ahead and give Grandma Gillow a thank you for 10 years of constant caring and sharing, for she has certainly given to us all over these years.

God bless you all...Miss Jane.

Children Don't Come With Instructions But Expert Advice Can Make Them User Friendly

Almost every parent who reads those words will sigh and say "Isn't that the truth!" In theory, parenting is easy. You set up simple, straightforward rules. You teach them right from wrong. You effortlessly love them each and every day.

From the sidelines it's a snap. But then we become parents. The rules need to bend a little. The line between right and wrong isn't always so clear. And at the end of a long workday when the house is a mess, the dog is barking and your very special child is doing everything in his power to break your sanity ...you wonder what possessed you to become a parent, let alone glow with love for your little one.

But never fear, when the going gets rough, there is no shortage of experts to help you through the rough spots. Books, support groups, grandparents and a network of friends can help ease the way. We took a look at some of the most popular parenting books, and a quick survey of some parents, and found that most experts agree on these key points.

The first step in raising a positive child is to become a positive parent. This means several things: having a positive attitude about yourself; using positive language when talking to your child; and letting your child know you think they are something special. Put "good stuff" in and you are more apt to get "good stuff" out.

* Remember that everyone involved is a human being subject to human moods, feelings and mistakes. Keeping in mind that sometimes we all just have "bad days" can lead to greater understanding and harmony in your relationship with your children.

* Each parent is unique. Each child is unique. What works for a situation between your sister and your niece, may not be effective for you and your daughter. And vice versa.

* Long lectures often confuse children, but the example we set is crystal clear.

* Teaching children discipline, accountability and how to set boundaries is one of the most loving things a parent can do. As the saying goes, "You can control what you do. You can't control what your children do." Letting children know how to make good decisions and understand the consequences of their actions is something they'll benefit from throughout their life.

Helping a child understand his or her feelings is a wonderful gift parents can give their children. This can be done by talking about your own feelings (for example saying, "It is frustrating to Mommy when you don't pick up your clothes") instead of "Why don't you ever pick up your clothes!?" and by validating their feelings (i.e. "It must be scary to think there's a monster in the closet" instead of "Don't be silly, there are no monsters").

* Children need time with their parents. Quality time, when the parent is focused on being with that child and getting to know him or her, is essential. Children also need time alone to become comfortable with their own company.

* Parents need time to pursue interests outside of their role as a parent. A well-rounded, fulfilling life makes a happier parent. A happier parent equals a happier child.

JV Baseball Team Has Rough Week

The junior varsity baseball team met Michigan Center on Monday, May 6 for a double header. Michigan Center had a hot first inning scoring eight runs. Although the Dutchmen got five hits in the game, they were unable to score losing the game 15-0.

Andrew Hughes and Jacob Klein were the pitchers for Manchester. Jacob Klein lead the team offensively with two hits; Nolan Wescott, Carl Maki and Justin Turk each had one hit.

The second game was a much better ballgame for the Dutchmen. Dennis Wickham pitched the entire game. Manchester had six hits compared to Michigan Center's twelve, but lost 7-2.

Mike Meranuck and Justin Turk each had two hits for the team, Dennis Wickham, Jacob Klein and Eric VanBogelen each had one.

On Wednesday the team met Vandercook Lake. Once again the first inning was a problem for Manchester. There were three errors and three walks allowing Vandercook Lake to score 6 runs.

Defensively Manchester used four pitchers, Bill Alber, Carl Maki, Justin Turk and James Fuerstnau in this game and had only four hits by Justin Turk, Eric VanBogelen, Dennis Wickham and James Fuerstnau. The final score was 13-3.

Friday's game against Grass Lake was postponed due to the rain. This week the team is scheduled to play six games; at Napoleon on Monday, at home against Addison on Wednesday (double-header), at home against Grass Lake on Thursday and at Hanover-Horton on Friday (double-header). - RVB

Keeping Pace With The Track Teams

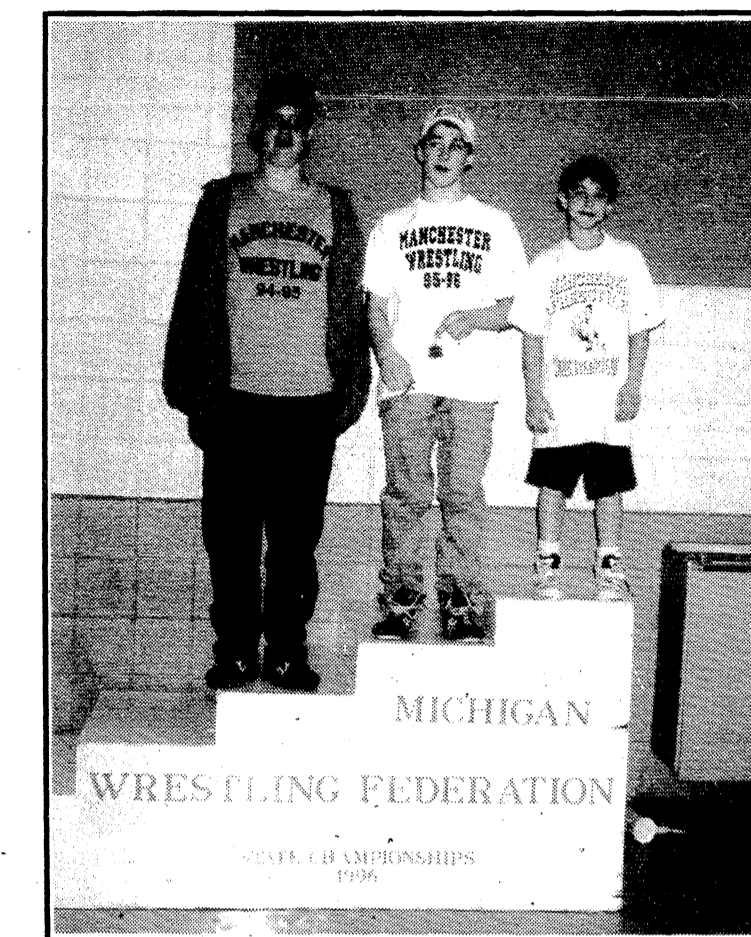

Tuesday May 7th, Manchester traveled to East Jackson. The boys team lost to East Jackson 95 - 42. However the girls track team would come out ahead and beat East Jackson 77 - 46.

In boys track, Nick Davis would place first in the Long Jump and in the 100 Dash. In the 200 Dash Dan Kwolek placed first. The 1600 relay team consisting of Pete Paige, Nick Weidmayer, Art Gleason and Zach Maghes would have the winning team.

The girls track team had a little better success. Stacy Mann placed first in the High Jump, Karen Goodell in the Long Jump. Mary Barrett would place first in the shot put. In the 100 Hurdles, Joanna Dettling came in first and Tracy Staples placed first in the 100 Dash. The team of Maryann Fillyaw, Laura Hauessler, Dana Richards and Sarah Jefferson placed first in the 800 Relay. Pam Preston came in first in the 1600 run. Karen Goodell in the 400 Dash, Tracy Staples 200 Dash and Pam Preston in the 3200 run would all place first. The 1600 relay team of Marie Hauessler, Suzanne Lowery and Emily Tucker and Dana Richards would have the best time.

On Saturday May 11th, Manchester would host the Manchester Relays. I have no results from the relays, but the parents deserve a medal for attending this event in the cold!

Giving It My Best Shot

What a great season the kids from Manchester Freestyle Wrestling Club had. We are proud of them all. The motto for the Club is "Believe and Achieve". They all proved that if you believe in yourself and work hard, you can achieve the goals you set for yourself. This year the motto for the Michigan Wrestling Federation (MWF) was "Giving It My Best Shot" and we believe that our kids did just that.

This year, according to the MWF, the season was the best ever, with 89 clubs registered. During Week 2 of the season, over 3,500 wrestlers competed in tournaments, and during Week 3, over 3,400 wrestlers competed. These are both all time highs for MWF. The sport of wrestling is growing, due to the dedication of the massive volunteer base and the time commitment that they put forth.

Manchester had 14 kids qualify for Regionals at Holt on Saturday May 4. Of these 14 kids; six of them received medals. Group O - Zeke Duke: 1st, Tyler Ritter: 4th, Group I - Ryan Smolenski: 1st, Group II - James Tobias: 2nd, Group II - Andrew Warner: 4th, Cadets - Jeremiah Tobias: 1st.

Group II, III, IV and Cadets went on to the State Finals at Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek on May 10 & 11. On Friday night, Willie Slocum competed in Greco wrestling. Then on Saturday, James & Jeremiah Tobias and David Herman competed in the Freestyle competition. James had 12 kids in the 60 pound class. This was James' first year at state and he left the tournament after 7 long matches with a 4th place. Jeremiah's first time as a Cadet, he took 2nd out of 24 kids in his 121 pound class. Dave had 10 in his 209 pound class and placed 6th. Congratulations for a great year.

The Manchester Freestyle Club would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped with the coaching. You put in many hours of time and dedication for our kids. Without your encouragement and love for the kids as well as the sport we would not have such a Great group. Thanks also to the parents for running the kids to practice and tournaments, and for all the time you gave watching them, encouraging them and supporting the club. Thanks to the kids for all their hard work and commitment to the Club. And last but certainly not least, thanks to all the great people in the Manchester community for their support and encouragement to all of the kids, parents and coaches. Without this support, our organization would not be what it is.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL OF THE WRESTLERS! WE ARE VERY PROUD OF YOU!

A TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND

By Rev. Dr. Vincent Carroll

The last trip Molly and I took from England in preparation for our arrival in Manchester, was to Israel. After three years in Europe we decided that going to the Holy Land would cap off a wonderful twenty-five year tour as a Chaplain in the United States Navy. We were not to be disappointed!

As a pastor and chaplain, my acquaintance with the land of Christ was through study and faith. When we docked at Ashdod (on the Mediterranean) our bus trip to Jerusalem began to reveal the land that I had so intently preached about and dreamed of for nearly 50 years. A lifetime goal was about to be realized.

As we approached Jerusalem, everyone on the bus began to get excited. Then it happened. All of our traveling companions sighed at once as the "walled city" took shape before our eyes. We couldn't wait for the bus to park and for our guide to say, "We will stay together, then follow the flag where our first stop will be the Church of the Holy Sepulchre." I can only report to you that after our visit to Golgotha where Christ was crucified, a stop at the Tomb (all in the area of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre) followed by prayers at the "Wailing Wall,"

Later that afternoon visits to the Mount of Olives and the Dome of the Rock were breathtaking! Our last trip of the day would be to Bethlehem. Bethlehem is only about six miles from Jerusalem (I would have guessed much further). When we arrived there were many Lebanese children playing in the square adjacent to the Church of the Nativity. We all hurried to the small entrance to the left transept of the chapel where we had to bend down, entering the birth place of Christ nearly on our knees.

Once inside, there was a great spiritual silence. Our guide told us that every day in this great Church is like Christmas. Ever the event that changed the world forever. So we (all strangers) had journeyed from every part of the world to stand huddled together in this the most holy of places of our faith. It was truly magnificent. We prayed, sang hymns, and were never the same again. We at Emanuel are gathering for this same journey and much more. In February, 1997 we will pilgrimage to the Holy Land and after that trip you will never be the same again either! Call us if you want your life changed forever 313-428-8359.
