Girls & Boys State Delegates Chosen

Debra Lobbestael, Mike Kessler, Nick Sell and Liz Steele

Four members of Manchester High School's Class of 1997 have been chosen to attend the American Legion Girls State and Boys State this summer. Manchester High School's representatives to Girls State are Debra Lobbestael (sponsored by the Manchester Optimist Club) and Elizabeth Steele (sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary of Manchester). Attending Boys State will be Michael Kessler (sponsored by the Manchester Optimist Club) and Nicholas Sell (sponsored by the American Legion Post 117). The 56th American Legion Girls State will be held from June 15 - 23 on the campus of Central Michigan University. Boys State will be held at Michigan State University from June 16 - 22.

Participants at Boys and Girls State will learn how politics and city, county, and state governments function. They learn the best way possible, by actually setting up their own state with all its governmental bodies, problems and opportunities. It is hoped that the citizens of Boys and Girls State will leave with a mature appreciation of some of the basic strengths and weaknesses of the American system of government. It is further hoped that they will leave with a firm resolution to make government a more effective and responsible servant of the people.

Debbie Lobbestael is the daughter of Lynda and John Lobbestael of 10730 Clinton Road. Debbie is a recent inductee into our National Honor Society. She is a member of the German Club and has been a member of Manchester's softball team. Debbie has also participated in Rural Education Days and Christmas in April. While being on the honor roll every year, Debbie has also won a number of perfect attendance awards.

Liz Steele is the daughter of Cindy and Dennis Steele of 12665 Schleweis Road. While in high school, Liz has been a three year member of the Spanish Club, including treasurer this year. Last summer she visited Mexico with our Spanish Club exchange program and this summer will be hosting a high school student from Mexico. Liz has also participated in softball, volleyball, and basketball as well as being secretary of her class for three years.

Mike Kessler is the son of Mary and Paul Kessler of 11305 Sheridan Road. Mike is also a recent inductee into the National Honor Society. Mike has been in Drama Club for three years and has participated in our school plays each year. In addition Mike has been a member of the Equations team and the English Essay Academic Games team and has won a National Science Academic Games award. This summer Mike has been accepted into the Michigan Summer Institute for the Arts and Sciences. He will spend two weeks at Madonna University studying Japanese language, culture, and traditions.

Nick Sell is the son of Laura and Joseph Sell of 5250 Sylvan Road. While in high school Nick has participated in basketball. Outside of school he is very actively involved in soccer, having participated on teams for the past seven years. In his spare time he also enjoys hunting.

School Board Election Winners

In a "slow day" for elections, with 416 voters (8% of registrants) casting their ballots, Marilyn Knouase and John Ochs were elected as school board members for a four-year term. Knouase received 280 votes, Ochs 227 votes, and John Hochstetler received 184 votes. Last year, 809 votes were cast for a similar contest, where three candidates vied for two positions on the board.

Where are all the concerned voters?

Janice Little Presented "Achievement in Education" Award

Janice Little, second grade teacher at Klager School, has been awarded this year's "Achievement in Education" Award from the Manchester Optimist club. Janice has been

The End of an Era

John & Mary Korican retire from Manchester Community Schools

It seems kind of hard to believe that Mary and John Korican came to Manchester only twenty-nine years ago. They seem as much a part of the school system as the River Raisin does to Manchester. And as all good things, it must come to an end; John and Mary Korican took their leave from Manchester Community Schools just last week during a sentimental retirement luncheon at Manchester High School.

In her time here, Mary has proven to be as diverse as she is dedicated. She has taught kindergarten through eighth grade in some capacity, physical education, vocal class, social studies, and, of course, homeroom. Many will remember her "crazy" in-class antics, which now seem more sincere than anything. Mary has taught two generations of several families, so "before I get to the third, I had better get out."

John, a thirty-five year teaching veteran, has taught at M.H.S. for all twenty-nine years here in Manchester. Many of us remember John as a government and history teacher, a golf coach; and also in the mid seventies an assistant principal, athletic director, and later principal. To bring his time to a close, John took on the challenge as interim principal his final year here at M.H.S.

As retirees, John and Mary will travel to see relatives, rest and relax. Of course, these familiar faces won't be too far from home most of the time. You will be able to see John at the coffee shop in town on early mornings. In the afternoons, you can find the Koricans playing golf or spoiling their grandchild.

No matter where John and Mary are after retirement, they will be missed. They seemed to be a staple in the Manchester Community Schools.

In whichever capacity they served; John and Mary were simply invaluable. After the thousands of students, hundreds of lessons, and the years of devotion, both John and Mary will be missed. Thank you for all of your encouragement and dedication; may you have only the best in retirement.

Editorial / Opinion Page

To the Editor:

I live on Main Street near downtown. For the second time this week, I have pulled into my driveway at approximately 7:15 a.m. only to find the same lady walking the same little black dog and allowing him to "crap" in my yard. Today, however, I complained to the Sheriff's office, and the deputy confronted her in front of the Village Offices (her dog was doing "his business" one door away as I went into the building.)

Subsequent to her meeting with the deputy, she returned to my home and informed me that my 7-year-old had, in fact, been in her yard and, "...keep him the ---- out of my yard or I will call the police."

Well, ma'am, I do not know your name or where you live, but the next time my son dumps in your yard, please feel free to call the police! Of course, I can understand why the kids in the area might prefer your yard to theirs; yours is the only one without your doggy's "do" in it!!

Further, to you and the others who continually use my neighbors' and my yards as a "doggy latrine," please have the common courtesy and decency to carry your scooper and bag with you and clean up after your pooch. I know they have to go somewhere, but I do not want the "prize" in my yard.

We have an ordinance to protect us from such inconsideration, and be assured, I will continue to complain until you comply.

Sincerely,
Marlin Wilson

Manchester Community Fair is Coming!

July
9-13

The Manchester Community Fair is pleased to announce The Grand Marshals for the 1996 Fair Parade will be Bill and Linda Ames.

Over the years, Bill has worked with Ag producers across the county. He was

Washtenaw County Agriculture Extension Agent for 27 years and retired from that position July 1, 1995. He was committed to agriculture producers and businesses in Washtenaw County. Bill has been involved with the Manchester Community fair through the years, sometimes being the voice behind the mike at the tractor pulls.

The fair is approaching fast, so get working on those exhibits. Exhibits in the Exhibit Building will be entered Monday, July 8, 1996, between the hours of 2 PM and 8 PM.

Brenda Bristle is now managing the Merchant's Tent; if you are interested in space in the tent, please call her at 428-0214.

The fair is once again having the "300 Club" Drawing. These tickets are available from most fair board members, the Flower Garden, and Carol's Cut 'n Curl.

Plans are underway for the first Annual Manchester Community Fair Bullmania. That will be held on Sunday, July 7, 1996 at 2:00 PM. Advance tickets will be available at several area stores. The tickets will be $1.00 off gate price if purchased in advance.

The Manchester Community Fair will be held July 9-13, 1996.

IT'S ICE CREAM SOCIAL TIME AGAIN

Would you like to know how to spend some evenings during those lazy, hazy days of summer? Try out the ice cream socials as hosted by our area churches. They begin on June 19th and continue on a nearly weekly basis until August 7th.

With the exception of St. Paul UCC, the socials are always held outside on the church grounds unless the weather is rainy. However, inclement weather never dampens spirits as everything is simply moved inside. Often there is a bake sale and bazaar where you have a chance to buy delicious home baked treats and pretty hand crafted items made by the women of the church. Featured at many socials is a fish pond for the youngsters with prizes that can be "hooked."

When you attend these socials, plan to have not only ice cream and cake, but your dinner as well. Dinner items may include beef or pork barbecue, hot chicken sandwich, ham on a pretzel bun, hot dog, sauerkraut and sausage, macaroni and cheese, German and American Potato salads, slaw, tossed salad and baked beans. Top it off with a generous serving of ice cream and all the cake you can eat, and, at some socials, an ice cream sundae and a piece of fresh homemade pie. Beverages include coffee, iced tea and soft drinks. The delicious foods are prepared by the church cooks using tried and true recipes. You won't go away hungry - guaranteed.

All the socials have one thing in common in addition to the fine meal you receive and that is a chance for fellowship with old friends and new. Invite your friends and neighbors, bring a carload, and plan to meet at the ice cream socials this summer. Listed below are the socials in our area:

Wednesday, June 19 - Sharon United Methodist

Thursday, June 20 - St. Paul UCC, Saline

Wednesday, June 26 - Emanuel UCC

Tuesday, July 2 - St. James UCC

Thursday, July 11 - Bethel UCC

Tuesday, July 16 - Zion Lutheran

Thursday, July 25 - St. Mary's Catholic

Wednesday, August 7 - Manchester United Methodist

Happy Birthday, Seniors!

by T.V. Ludwick

How cold was it? Some-time ago I clipped an article from the AA News by Keith Schneider relating Leelanau County's snowfall and other related items of interest. Their snowfall totaled 231 inches and in Antrim County, a record 245 inches fell, seven feet more than normal. Grand Traverse Bay froze over on February 3, and did not melt until April 20, the longest frozen stretch in 70 years. It was stated that the 35 snow-plow drivers working for the Antrim County Road Commission even got tired of the overtime.

One of these days will send this article to Julie Johnson Murray, an Air Force nurse in Georgia, who loved the years she, husband and kids lived in the Marquette area while getting her college education. Suppose even she would get enough of winter this past one? As far as I'm concerned, they can have it!

Thursday, June 13: The senior bus will leave the Center at 12 noon for Frankenmuth and the Bavarian Festival with those folks who have reservations.

Friday, June 14: Flag Day, let's get it out of the closet and also put up your flag banners. It's so good to see them waving, makes us proud.

Ah, Father's Day on June 16: Do we really make as much fuss on his day as ours? Come on, let's fuss over dear old Dad. That old cliché of "He's not my dad, so I won't buy him anything" is not a good one, they tell me. Even if he has everything, you can be present (instead of presents) to make him sincerely happy. Bless all of them!

Monday, June 17: A trip to shop at Arborland and Frank's Nursery is planned for today with seniors leaving the Center at 9:30. You may call Erma Alber at 428-8707 to reserve your spot on the bus.

Tuesday, June 18: There will be Council Meeting starting at 9:30 today. Come with your ideas and suggestions.

Wednesday, June 19: Hooray! Here comes the weekly ice cream socials! Our first one will be held at Sharon United Methodist Church at Rowe's Corners at 5 PM. Bus begins pickup at 4 PM, you may call Erma for your ride.

The following senior citizens celebrated their June & July birthdays last week: Violet Halme, Mary Diver, Gladys Geer, Alice Sawdey, Viola Poley, Jean Mollenkopf, Norman Halme, Ruby Vansickle, Clayton Frinkel, and Helen Curry.

The Last Week of School

The class of 2000 is finally leaving the Middle School and going up to the High School! After 4 years, this little school feels like home to us. Now we have to leave. Will we be successful at the High School? Only time will tell.

I asked Mr. Schick, "If you could say anything to remember this class by, what would it be?" After he thought about it for a while his reply was, "This class is always up and going, and like a plane ready to take-off." As I can see it, all we need is a way to get off the ground, and the way is the High School.

This last week of school the 8th graders are taking exams, cleaning out their lockers, turning in books, and saying good-bye. We will miss this school. We'll never forget our laughter, and our tears, the good times, and the bad times we've had at this school. Good-bye Middle School, we'll miss you!!

Inappropriate descriptions: interrupts, wild, destructive, uncontrolled.

Say This: "You're over-excited." "I think you are getting too revved up." "You are beginning to lose control."

Do This: Intervene early. Provide quiet distraction. Provide cooling off time/space. Provide space for blowing off steam.

Distractable

Definition: has trouble concentration and paying attention, especially if not interested; doesn't listen

Inappropriate description: forgetful, irresponsible, absent-minded, lazy

Say This (example): "I know it's hard for you to pay attention." "I need to see your eyes when I'm talking to you."

Do This: Establish eye contact, by touch if necessary. Give short instructions. Reduce distractions.

Irregular, unpredictable

Definition: unpredictable needs; child is never hungry or tired at predictable times; mood change suddenly.

Inappropriate description: uncooperative, loner, moody

Say This (example): "I know you are not hungry now. I'll put your plate in the refrigerator and you can eat your meal when you are hungry." "I know you are not sleepy now, but it is time to be in your bedroom."

Do This: Separate mealtime from eating time; bedtime from sleep time. Create routines, even if they are unusual. Be flexible.

Low sensory threshold

Definition: extreme sensitivity to sounds, lights, colors, textures, temperature, pain, smells; clothes have to feel right which makes dressing a problem; doesn't like the way many foods taste; seems to overreact to minor cuts and scraps; feels too warm or too cold when others don't; may tantrum.

Inappropriate description: fussy, picky, particular, hard to please.

Say This (example): "I know that really bothers you." "I know this tastes funny to you." Acknowledge the child's perceptions as valid for the child.

DO This: Recognize that the child is really bothered and not just being contrary. Do not challenge the child's perception. Treat related behavior as relevant. Make the child comfortable. Give the child permission to make himself comfortable.

Negative mood

Definition: child's first reaction to a new stimulus or idea is always negative. May appear cranky or serious. Not happy about very many things. Looks for problems. Glass is always half-empty.

Inappropriate description: complaining, whining, pouting, sulks, gripes, never satisfied.

DON'T Say This: You cannot make things better for this child/person. Keep your reaction neutral and give the person time to adjust or get on with life. To yourself say, "This is the way he/she is; they can't help it. It's not a personal attack on me or my ideas."

DO This: There is nothing you can do to change this child. Recognize that the behavior is the child's temperament and there is nothing wrong with the child. Ignore as much of the negative content as possible. Do not try to make this child happy. It will only make things worse.

Non-persistent

Definition: gives up easily; can not handle delayed gratification; never finishes anything; quits projects before completion; short attention span, especially when not interested.

Inappropriate description: lazy, irresponsible, quitter, doesn't try hard enough.

Say: Only positive things. Encourage, encourage, encourage. Avoid negative feedback and criticism at all costs.

DO This: Break projects down into small steps. Teach in small steps. Provide small successes along the way.

Middle School Track Teams Complete Successful Season

The Manchester's boys Middle School Track team finished the overall season with 9 wins and 2 losses despite the weather. They traveled to Hudson May 11, and brought home a second place trophy and 2 top individual trophies for the day. Individual trophies went to Derick Hanewald in the long jump 16'10-1/2" and Pat DuRussel in the high jump 5'5". Sprint Medley took first with Derick Hanewald, Aaron Wallace, Pat DuRussel and Brandon Lentz. The two mile relay took first, Tyler Breilein, Ryan Witcher, Kyle Harris and Evan Wahl, setting a school record 10:32.2.

They competed on May 15, in the Grass Lake Invitational and brought another second place trophy home, missing first place by 1 point. First place medal winners went to Pole Vault, Kevin Sahakian and Nick Gordon, 800 relay, Derick Hanewald, Pat DuRussel, Brandon Lentz and Aaron Wallace setting a school record of 1:48 and Grass Lake Relay, Derick Hanewald, Pat DuRussel, Jason Schaible and Mark Hollosy. There were many other track members placing 2nd-5th in their relay to help attain the trophies.

The Manchester's girls Middle School Track team finished both invitationals in fourth place. In the Hudson Invitational Manchester placed first in the Distance Medley, Rachel Fleck, Kristen Witcher, Shannon Green and Cassie Clark. They also place first in the mile relay with the team of Cassie Clark, Kristen Taddonio, Shannon Green and Rachel Fleck. In the Grass Lake invitational the girls Grass Lake Relay team took a first place Medal with the team of Rachel Fleck, Cassie Clark, Shannon Green and Erin Wiley. Other track members scored second-fifth in their relay to help gain points for fourth place placement.

Congratulations to both teams on a successful season.

Janice Little Awarded "Achievement in Education"

a successful and valued Manchester teacher for many years.

Janice has made numerous contributions to the school system, her church, and her community. She is the first Klager teacher to receive this prestigious award from the Optimists.

At Klager, Janice has taught under five or more principals, all of whom have regarded her as an excellent educator. She has been a leader at the school in several areas, serving on educational committees, including the Chair of the Building School Improvement Team; Representative to the District School Improvement Team, Chair of Building Self Esteem Improvement; past building representative to the Professional Council; and building chair of the Math Curriculum.

Janice's innovative teaching style was also credited with earning her the Achievement in Education award. She was one of the first in Michigan to use the Math program, "Math Their Way." At one time she was a team teacher in a first, second and Special Education program which was an innovative approach to mainstreaming special education students. She is co-author of a program on "100 Days of School," a book and celebration which is used in other schools across the state. And, she is a most dedicated person to the teaching profession and to each of her students and their education.

Janice is active in Emanuel United Church of Christ as a Church Council Representative, and Council Rep to both the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee, and the Board of Deacons. She is also active in community organizations, including the 20th Century Club.

Congratulations, Janice, on your outstanding career as an educator in Manchester Schools!

Gazebo Concert Season to Begin

The tradition continues this Thursday evening, June 13, at 7:30 PM on the "stage" of the Gazebo on West Main Street. We begin a summer long season of fantastic and varied music at the Gazebo! Bring your lawn chair or blanket and enjoy this benefit of small town living. Join your friends and neighbors for a relaxed and enjoyable evening of music.

You may have to slow down a bit from the frantic pace of the 90s...the lull of soft murmuring between tunes as folks chat and share... You'll delight in watching the little ones tumble and roll and dance to the music...As the summer goes on, the fireflies will join us, twinkling to the beat.

And the music is wonderful!!! Each week a different group, a different sound, a different mood. And yet each week, musical professionalism, experience, and class!

Mark your calendar and make it a habit to stop at the Gazebo on the Village Green, across from the Library and St. Mary's, each Thursday evening during the summer at 7:30 PM. (In case of rain, the show will go on! The rain location will be in St. Mary's Parish Center.)

Gazebo concerts are free to all - although donations are happily accepted! The concerts are organized and presented by the Recreation Task Force.

This Week At the Gazebo

Spirit, fun and camaraderie. What a fun opening night this will be at the Gazebo! This Thursday the Gazebo Concert season will begin with a "Community Choral Concert." The group is being directed by Linda Jones. Joining the community choir on stage will be the St. Joseph, Dexter Choir. Neighbors, to be sure, but you'll see faces in the group who you may recognize from right here in our town!

Seen Around Town...

Manchester High School Key Club Students, along with a couple of Parks Committee members, did a great job weeding the perennial beds at Carr Park. Thanks for taking the time to beautify our Village Parks!

Our Postal Workers were the recipients of an Appreciation Breakfast last week.

Emanuel Church renovations have commenced. Stained glass windows have been removed, and the sanctuary was gutted within an hour and a half last Sunday. The renovations are expected to be completed by October; meanwhile worship services will be held in the Fellowship Hall. Summer schedule has commenced and services are at 9:30 AM
