

Keeping Michigan Informed

150 Years of United States Government
Information in Michigan Libraries
1860-2010

Government Documents Round Table of Michigan

Library of Michigan

Published in 2010 by Godort of Michigan and the Public Libraries of Saginaw Printed by Keystone Printing Group,
Lansing, Michigan

Written by Ann Marie Sanders ; edited by Ann Marie Sanders, Anne Birkam, and Christina Holubowicz.

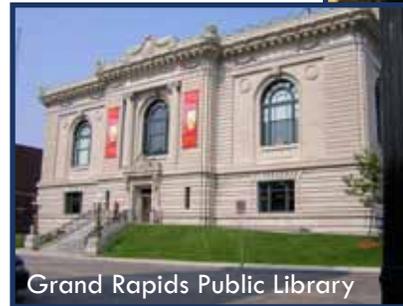

We would like to acknowledge the following for the photographs included in this book: Ann Marie Sanders, The Archives of Michigan, Mathew Bohan Illustration, Paula Kaczmarek and Detroit Public Library, Rhianna Williams and Michigan Technological University, David Smith and St. Clair County Library, Kate Hawkins and Grand Rapids Public Library, Hatcher Library at the University of Michigan, Anne Birkam and the Hoyt Library of the Public Libraries of Saginaw, Jocelyn Shaw and the Hackley Library of Muskegon Michigan, Jill Rauh and Benton Harbor Public Library, Christine Hahn and Kalamazoo Public Library, Louis Villafranca, Hui Hua Chua and Michigan State University, Monique Andrews and Wayne State University, David Shirley and Central Michigan University, Kim Fournier and Schoolcraft College, Eunice Teel and North Central Michigan College, Anne Wooden and Delta College, Doug Way and Grand Valley State University, Bruce C. Sarjeant and Lydia Olson M. Library of Northern Michigan University, Michael McDonnell, Rachael C. Zimmerman and Western Michigan University, Ann Swaney and Osterlin Library of Northwestern Michigan College, Jocelyn Baldwin and Oakland University, Nadia El Anani, Deborah Sears and Jackson Public Library, Diane Vander Pol and Calvin College, Nadja Springer-Ali and King Library of Oakland Community College, Nyama Marsh and Flint Public Library, Jennifer Senger, Colleen Welsch and Southwestern Michigan College, Margot Parmeter Zieske and Monroe County Library System, Ruth Neveu, John R. Shibley and Lake Superior State University, Godort and John A. Stevenson, Deborah Jakubiec and Livonia Civic Center Library, Paul Kammerdiner and Ferris State University, F. Anne Diamond, Grace York and the Government Printing Office.

Congressional designation of Michigan State Library in 1860 by Representative D. C. Leach, a former state librarian.

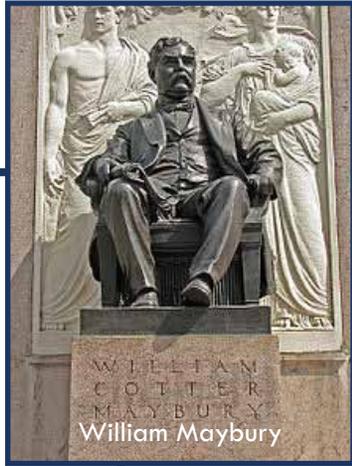

Congress establishes the United States Government Printing Office, 1860 and opens for business March, 1861.

Michigan Mining School (now Michigan Technological University), the Port Huron Public Library (now St. Clair County Library) and the Grand Rapids Public Library are designated depository libraries by Representatives Jay Hubbell, Omar Conger and William B. Williams, respectively, 1876.

Detroit Public Library is designated a depository library by Senator Zachariah Chandler, 1868.

Willard Library, Battle Creek is designated a depository library by Representative Jonas McGowan and serves the public 1876-1972.

Hackley Library of Muskegon is designated a depository library by Representative John W. Moon, 1894.

Hoyt Library, Saginaw is designated a depository library by Representative Aaron T. Bliss, 1890.

University of Michigan Hatcher Library

Detroit College (now University of Detroit/Mercy) and the University of Michigan are designated depository libraries by Representatives William Maybury and N. B. Eldridge, respectively, 1884.

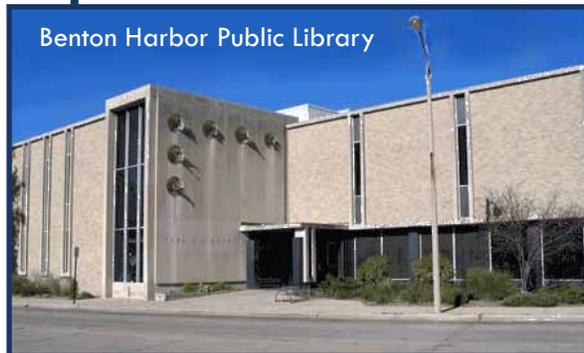

State Librarian Mary C. Spencer compiles and publishes the Documentary Catalogue of the Michigan State Library including all United States documents, state documents, and foreign exchanges received by the State Library from 1828 through June 1, 1898.

Michigan State University Library

Marjorie E. Hazard is appointed Michigan State Library's first Head of the Documents Division and serves from 1928-1951.

Depository libraries are offered the opportunity to "select" groups and titles of federal documents for receipt, 1922. The Detroit Public Library chooses to continue to receive 100% of available titles.

Benton Harbor Public Library

Benton Harbor Public Library, Kalamazoo Public Library, and the State Agricultural College (now Michigan State University) are designated depository libraries by Representative Edward L. Hamilton, Senator Julius Burrows and as a land-grant institution, respectively, 1907.

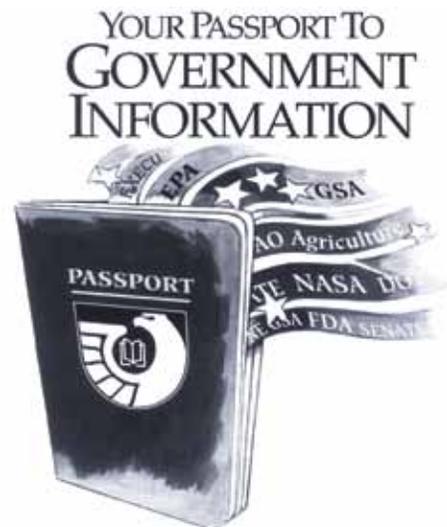

Kalamazoo Public Library

Wayne University (now Wayne State University) is designated a depository library by Representative George O'Brien, 1937.

Ruth Hardin is appointed head of the Documents Division, Michigan State Library and serves 1951-1952.

Cranbrook Institute of Science is designated a depository library by Representative George Dondero, and serves the public 1940-1991.

Rae Elizabeth Rips (Detroit Public Library) revises Anne Morris Boyd's seminal work on documents librarianship United States Government Publications, 1949.

State Office Building fire causes extensive damage to the Michigan State Library, 1951.

Mary Armstrong is appointed head of the Documents Division, Michigan State Library and serves 1952-1970.

Wayne County Public Library (later WOLF -- Wayne-Oakland Library Federation) is designated a depository library by Representative Martha Griffiths and serves the public 1957-1987.

Henry Ford Community College is designated a depository library by Representative John Lesinski, 1957.

North Central Michigan College and Schoolcraft College are designated depository libraries by Representatives Victor Knox and Martha Griffiths, respectively, 1962.

Flint Junior College (now University of Michigan – Flint) is designated a depository library by Representative Charles Chamberlain and serves the public 1959-2004.

Central Michigan College of Education (now Central Michigan University) is designated a depository library by Representative Elford Cederberg, 1958.

Alma College is designated a depository library by Representative James Harvey and serves the public 1963-2001.

Northern Michigan University

Grand Valley State University

Delta College

Delta College, Grand Valley State University, Northern Michigan University and Western Michigan University are designated depository libraries by Representative Elford Cederberg, Representative Gerald R. Ford, Senator Philip Hart and Senator Patrick McNamara, respectively, 1963.

Western Michigan University

Northwestern Michigan College

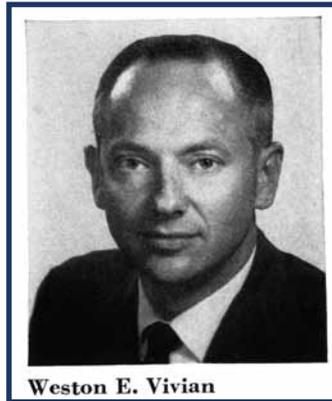

Michigan State Library (now Library of Michigan) is designated a regional depository library by Senator Patrick McNamara, 1964, and once again receives 100% of available federal documents.

Northwestern Michigan College and Oakland University are designated depository libraries by Representatives Robert P. Griffin and William Broomfield, respectively, 1964.

Michigan State Library, Upper Peninsula Branch is designated a depository library by Representative Victor Knox and serves the public 1964-1982.

Oakland University

Weston E. Vivian

Marygrove College is designated a depository library by Representative Martha Griffiths and serves the public 1965-1998.

Mercy College of Detroit is designated a depository library by Representative Martha Griffiths and serves the public 1965-1993.

Eastern Michigan University and Jackson Carnegie Library (now Jackson District Library) are designated depository libraries by Representatives Weston Vivian and Charles Chamberlain, respectively, 1965.

Sen. Philip A. Hart

Detroit Public Library is designated a regional depository library by Senator Philip Hart and serves the public as a regional library 1964-2000.

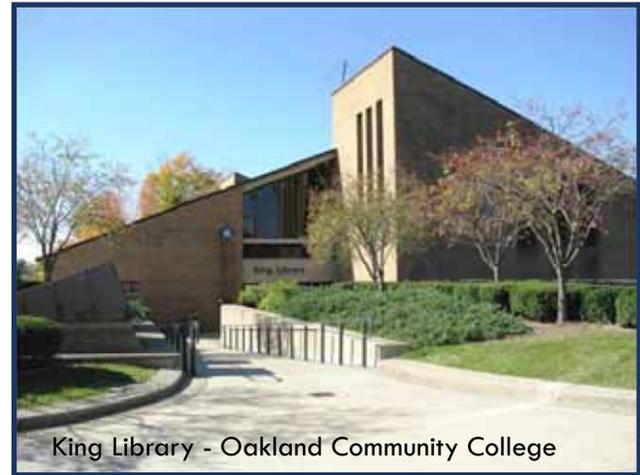

Jackson Carnegie Library

Albion College is designated a depository library by Representative Paul Todd Jr., 1966.

Paul H. Todd, Jr.

Macomb County Library is designated a depository library by Representative James O'Hara, 1968-2008.

King Library - Oakland Community College

Oakland Community College is designated a depository library by Representative Jack McDonald, 1968.

Calvin College

Calvin College and Theological Seminary and the Flint Public Library are designated depository libraries by Representatives Gerald R. Ford and Donald Riegle, respectively, 1967.

Flint Public Library

John D. Dingell

Henry Ford Centennial Library, Dearborn is designated a depository library by Representative John Dingell and serves the public 1969-1991.

Robert J. Huber

Warren Public Library is designated a depository library by Representative Robert Huber, 1973.

Martha Wyeth Eger is appointed Head, Documents Center, Michigan State Library and serves 1970-1975.

Southwestern Michigan College

Southwestern Michigan College, the Arthur Neef Law Library, and Wayne State University, are designated depository libraries by Representatives Edward Hutchinson and Charles Diggs, Jr., respectively, 1971.

Francis Buckley serves as the depository specialist at Detroit Public Library, 1972-1980.

Jean E. Lowrie (Western Michigan University) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1973.

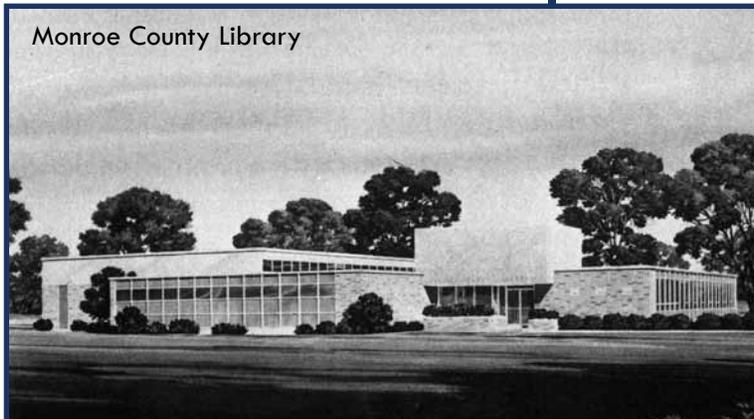

Gerald Malling is appointed Head, Government Center Branch of the Michigan State Library and serves 1975-1978.

Monroe County Library is designated a depository library by Representative Marvin Esch, 1974.

Monroe County Library

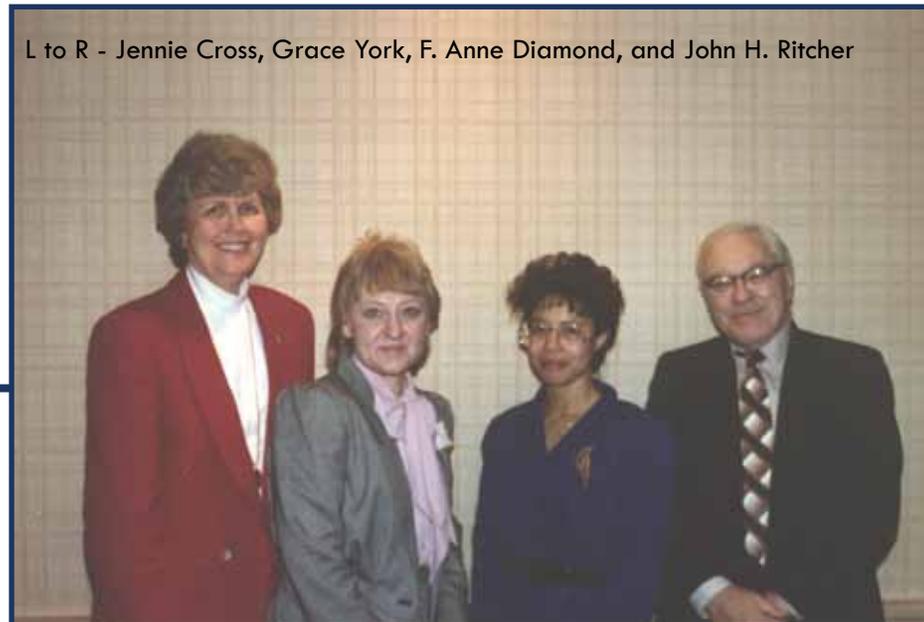

Olivet College is designated a depository library by Representative Garry Brown and serves the public 1974-1988.

Francis Buckley (Detroit Public Library) chairs the Government Documents Round Table of the American Library Association, 1978-1980.

Francis Buckley (Detroit Public Library) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1976-1979; chair, 1977-1979.

L to R - Jennie Cross, Grace York, F. Anne Diamond, and John H. Richter

John H. Richter (University of Michigan) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1978-1981.

F. Anne Diamond is promoted to Head, Government Documents Center, Michigan State Library and serves 1979-1995.

Detroit College of Law (now Michigan State University College of Law) is designated a depository library, 1979.

F. Anne Diamond (Library of Michigan) chairs committee to compile first edition of the Superseded List, 1981.

Lake Superior State University

Paul Thurston serves as depository coordinator at Detroit Public Library, 1980-1983.

Lake Superior State University and Madison Heights Public Library are designated depository libraries by Representatives Robert Davis and James Blanchard, respectively, 1982.

Madison Heights Public Library receives its designation.

Thomas E. Brennan Law Library, Thomas M. Cooley Law School, Kresge Law Library, University of Detroit, and the Law Library, University of Michigan are designated depository libraries, 1978.

Jennie B. Cross (WOLF – Wayne-Oakland County Library Federation) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1983-1986; chair, 1985-1986.

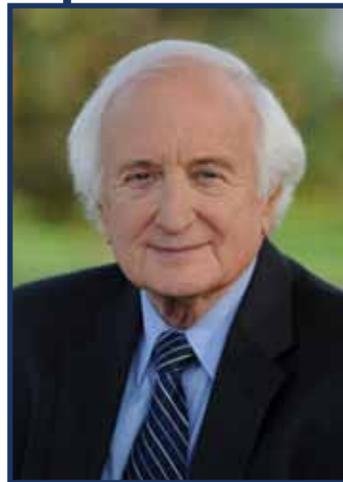

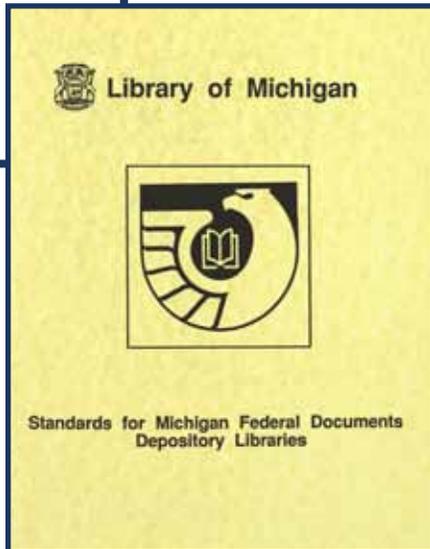

WiNners of the Jennie B. Cross Award: Paul Thurston 1983, Fran Buckley 1985, Anne Diamond 1987, Barbara Hulyk 1990, Jon Harrison 1995, Paula Kaczmarek and Anne Sanders 2003, Diane VanderPol 2009, and Charley Pelkey 2010.

Martha King Crockett serves as depository coordinator at Detroit Public Library, 1983-1985.

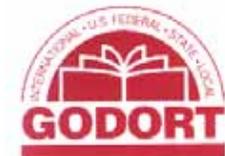

Francis Buckley (Detroit Public Library) awarded James Bennett Childs award for lifetime distinguished contribution to documents librarianship by the Government Documents Round Table of the American Library Association, 1986.

Michigan is first state in nation to write and approve state plan governing federal government documents, 1982-1983.

Barbara Hulyk serves as depository coordinator at Detroit Public Library, 1985-1991.

Royal Oak Public Library is designated a depository library by Representative Sander Levin, 1984.

Laurel Minot (Michigan State University) contributor to new edition of the Superseded List, 1992.

Paul Thurston appointed to Depository Library Council, 1986. Godart of Michigan institutes the "Paul Thurston Award" to commemorate him on his early death.

Charlie Pelkey, Anne Diamond, Cindy Krueger, Rich Lucas, and Dennis Cullinane, Library of Michigan documents staff circa 1990.

Livonia Civic Center Library

Livonia Civic Center Library is designated a depository library by Representative William Ford, 1987.

Pioneering use of Internet in delivering government information (Grace York, University of Michigan, 1991, Jill Rauh, Benton Harbor Public Library, 1996).

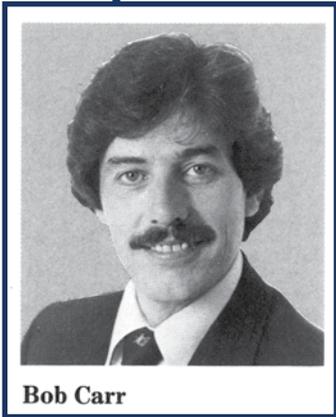

F. Anne Diamond (Library of Michigan) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1989-1991.

Grace York

Lifetime Achievement Award winners: Eleanor Boyles 1991, June Hawthorne and Richard Hathaway 1994, Anne Diamond 1995, Grace York 2003, Jon Harrison 2009.

Oakland County Research Library is designated a depository library by Representative Bob Carr, 1992.

Bob Carr

Cassandra Hartnett serves as depository coordinator at Detroit Public Library, 1992-1996.

Federal Depository Library Manual compiled and edited at the Library of Michigan, for approval by Depository Library Council and subsequent printing by GPO, 1993.

Ann Marie Sanders appointed Head of Government Documents at the Library of Michigan, 1995.

Barbara Hulyk (Detroit Public Library) section editor for new edition of Federal Depository Library Manual, 1993.

Library of Michigan/Michigan Electronic Library offers local gateway to GPO Access, 1996.

Francis Buckley, former Detroit Public Library regional librarian named Superintendent of Documents, 1997-2008 (first professionally trained librarian to serve).

Paula Kaczmarek (Detroit Public Library) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 1998-2001.

Michael McDonnell (Western Michigan University) contributor to new edition of the Superseded List, 1996.

Paula Kaczmarek serves as depository coordinator at Detroit Public Library, 1996. Detroit Public Library relinquishes regional status and continues as a selective depository, 2000.

Grace York (University of Michigan) selected by US Department of State to represent US government documents librarians at the International Conference on Government Information and Democracy in St. Petersburg, Russia, 2000.

Ferris State University is designated a depository library by Representative Dave Camp, 2001.

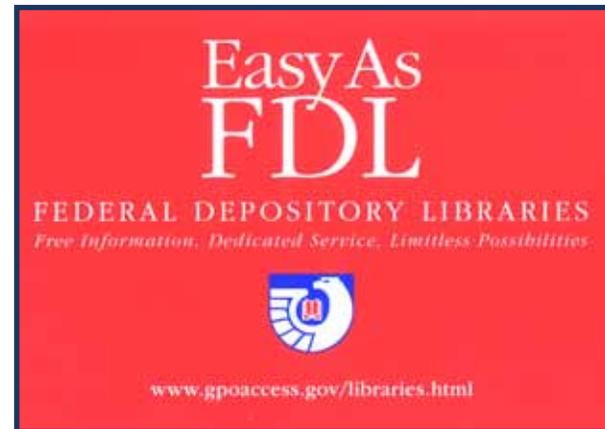

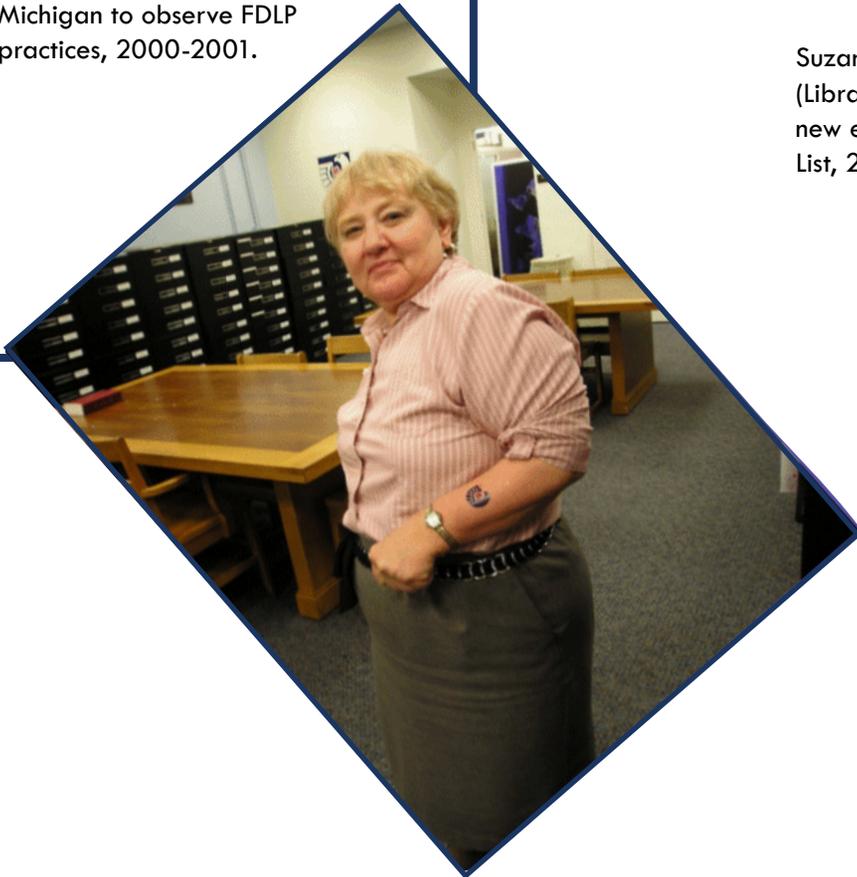

Ferris State University

Suzanne Vyse Schneiderman (Library of Michigan), contributor, new edition of the Superseded List, 2002.

Participant in Government Information Online (pilot, Library of Michigan and Detroit Public Library 2004-2006, ongoing service, Michigan State University Library, 2006-).

Grace York (University of Michigan) hosts reciprocal visits by Russian librarians to Michigan to observe FDL practices, 2000-2001.

Easy As FDL
FEDERAL DEPOSITORY LIBRARIES
Free Information. Dedicated Service. Limitless Possibilities.

www.gpoaccess.gov/libraries.html

Mark Sandler (University of Michigan) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 2005-2008.

Library of Michigan pilots GPO Consultant project, 2005.

Ann Marie Sanders and Bernadine Abbott Hoduski

Ann Marie Sanders (Library of Michigan) awarded Bernadine Abbott Hoduski Founders award for contributions to the profession by the Government Documents Round Table of the American Library Association, 2006.

Benton Harbor Public Library awarded Depository Library of the Year Award by the U.S. Government Printing Office, 2006.

Grace Ann York (University of Michigan) awarded James Bennett Childs award for lifetime distinguished contribution to documents librarianship by the Government Documents Round Table of the American Library Association, 2006.

Hui Hua Chua (Michigan State University), Ann Marie Sanders (Library of Michigan), Anne Wooden (Delta College), and Grace York (University of Michigan), contributors and/or section editors to first edition of Federal Depository Library Handbook, 2008.

Charlie Pelkey receives Jennie Cross Award 2010

Ann Marie Sanders (Library of Michigan) appointed to Depository Library Council to the Public Printer, 2009-2011).

