

meeting in September and we sincerely hope that the co-operation of all the Golf Unions will enable a scheme to be set up shortly.

The Sports Turf Research Institute

Advisory Service—The Committee continues to urge on Members the wisdom of frequent contact with the Institute to which a part of their Annual Subscription entitles them.

(a) Greenkeepers attached to Clubs who subscribe to the Research Fund are entitled to the following:—

1. Journal free to their home address.
2. Identification of grasses, weeds, etc., by direct private correspondence with the Research Institute.
3. Report on soil; but not expensive analysis.
4. All services to which Club is entitled, including detailed advice on treatment of Greens and Fairways; elimination of pests, etc.

(b) Greenkeepers attached to non-subscribing Clubs will be entitled to the following:—

1. Journal free to their home address.
2. Identification of grasses, weeds, etc., by direct private correspondence with the Research Institute.
3. Report on soil; but not expensive analysis.
4. Advice on treatment of Greens and Fairways; elimination of pests, etc. at the discretion of the Director of Research.

Members are requested to make every use of the Research Institute Lending Library.
