Autumn Tournament

Apart from the weather we had a very successful meeting on Wednesday, the 4th at Walton Heath with an entry of 86. Thanks to the directors of the club we had both the old and new courses to play on. The Tournament was 36 holes, four ball, better ball Stableford, $\frac{3}{4}$ of individual handicap with competitors changing courses in the afternoon.

The first prize aggregate was won by D. Place and Partner with 80 points; 2nd, A. M. Cooke and Partner, 75; 3rd, E. Folkes and Partner, 74; 4th, J. Rennie and Partner, 74. Best morning round—1st Prize, G. Hitchcock and Partner, 39 points; 2nd, E. James and Partner, 39. Best afternoon—1st Prize, A. Fordham and Partner, 41 points; 2nd Prize, D. Kirkpatrick and Partner, 41. Messrs. J. K. Glass and D. Craig took over for the prize-giving, and Miss Paul, the Lady Secretary very kindly presented them. After the usual thanks given to all concerned, Mr. Glass suggested the next best place was the nineteenth.
