the Annual Banquet followed. One further assembly took place on Friday followed by a tour of golf courses in the San Francisco area. But by then I was on my way home, grateful for the kindest possible hospitality and an absorbing five days. This is the way to run an association.

Has anyone any ideas about what we ought to do at Skegness?

Next month some of the practical pointers from this conference will be covered. I shall not be covering (and who would want to) the "topless" bars which offer comfort to the man about town in San Francisco from breakfast (and I mean BREAKFAST) until 2.00 a.m. or later (makes quite a long day). But then the day was so long that the Late Night Show on television, round about midnight was the Early Late Night Show. You could also ring up at 1.30 a.m. to borrow $1,000 and would only pay back about $36 a month for three years to service both the loan and its interest. If I had been able to dial the number and had no worries about the April Greenkeeper I might still have been there living on $964 a month for ever. Not that it would have gone very far.
