

Glasgow Corporation is planning a 400 acres recreation area at Bishoploch near Easterhouse. Football, putting, bowling and sailing are planned to accompany an 18-hole golf course. The Parks Department is also modernising clubhouses at the City's eight municipal courses. The new pavilion at Lethamhill with 720 lockers for men and 79 for women has already been opened. It cost £52,000. Littlehill municipal course is next in line for improvement.

Malvern golf course may be going back to 18 holes. It has been reduced to nine since the War when the Ministry of Defence took a large section for Woodfarm Camp. Now the Ministry wishes to dispose of fourteen acres.

When all others have gone home there is still work to be done for the Ransomes Auto-Certes mower on the Centre Court at Wimbledon, coaxing the grass into shape.

CHANGES AT WIMBLEDON

Things are changing a bit this year at Wimbledon—new tennis by professionals, a new head groundsman, Mr R. Twyman, and a new motor mower, the Ransomes 18" Auto-Certes.

For many years, under the former head groundsman, the late Mr Eddie Fuller, a Ransomes hand Certes was used to keep the grass in perfect trim.

Wimbledon will never be the same again—but the grass will still be perfect.
