IMPECCABLE SERVICE

EVERYWHERE there is an ATCO Engineer attached to an ATCO owned Branch ready to advise on any problem in connection with grass cutting.

DEMONSTRATIONS OF ANY ATCO CAN BE ARRANGED TO SUIT YOU OR YOUR GREENS COMMITTEE

For a referee in stroke play there is one important difference in his duties: he is not bound to reach a decision on the course as in match play: he can, if necessary, require the player to proceed under Rule 11-5 and complete the hole with two balls and pass the burden of a difficult decision to the Committee in charge of the competition.

When committee members are watching play or assigned to a particular place on the course, but are not acting as referees, their duties are different. In match play without a referee, the players involved in a particular match are there to protect their own interests and there is no reason for a committee member to take any notice of a breach of the Rules that he may observe, unless he is satisfied that the opponent is not in a position to observe the breach. His presence on the course is solely to assist players in the event of a claim (Rule 11-1a and Rule 11-3). His handling of the situation will depend on whether the committee have granted individual members unlimited authority to represent the committee and make final decisions. This is an issue on which a clear decision must be made in advance. However, deferring a decision should be resorted to only in exceptional circumstances, since it is a principle of match play that each side is entitled to know the state of the match at all times.

In stroke play the position of a Committee member on the course is different. Now every competitor has a direct interest in the play of all other competitors. Since only those playing in a particular match can represent the interests of the others, it becomes the duty of every Committee member to represent the interests of the remainder of the field. Thus a Committee member must act on any probable violation of the Rules which he may observe. This may be done by immediately questioning the competitor about his procedure. Also he will be called upon to make decisions on the course and they should be handled as in match play except that the need for an immediate decision is less urgent.

Competitors in a Tournament are keenly conscious of the spirit in which it is conducted and there is no more certain way of injuring the reputation of a Tournament than by slack management. It may be difficult and unpleasant to be punctilious in the enforcement of Rules, but it is a rare golfer who does not prefer to compete in a well run event. Players are quick to recognise the official who makes use of his position to watch the play better or to inflate his own sense of importance. Authority should be exercised for the sole purpose of helping to ensure that an event will be fairly played under sporting conditions.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED

THE 1964 Journal of the Sports Turf Research Institute, issued to Subscribers in March 1965, has taken on a new appearance externally, but still provides the same brand of good, red meat on the inside. A thirty-five page report on the fertiliser trials, which have been a feature of the experimental plots ever since the station began, will be of particular interest to greenkeepers. It bears directly on aspects of fertilising which can be overlooked in reflecting on our own results and the total view which it presents will be invaluable in training our minds to gauge the effects of treatments in the long term as well as for the Captain's Prize next month.

Mr. William Bartle returns with his descriptions and photographs of new machinery and Dr. Noel Jackson evaluates varieties of useful grasses in one article and comments on 1964 turf diseases in another.

A wide range of other papers and features will give the greenkeeper assistance and interest for as long as he cares to study this excellent publication.

Messrs. Carters have sent us the 1965 edition of their Treatment of Golf Courses and Sportsgrounds. This year's booklet has expanded and taken on more colour with great benefit to its usefulness and appearance. Extremely well illustrated, it shows examples of the firm's work all over Europe and pictures of weeds, pests, and machinery in the treatment section complete a useful guide which any greenkeeper can obtain by writing to Messrs. Carters Tested Seeds Ltd., Raynes Park, S.W.20.

BEA have issued their 1965 edition of Golf in the Sun which describes a selection of golf courses throughout Europe within easy reach of airports served by the air line. It is difficult to say much about a golf course in the space of a short column and it is curious that part of this limited space is used in almost every case to state that the clubhouse contains facilities which will surprise nobody. Although their order of mention is varied, their repetition does not add to the force of the descriptions. These seem to have been composed from letters received from the clubs themselves and it is again no surprise to learn that nearly every course is attractively sited and in excellent condition.

Of the twenty-nine French courses listed, two are spelt wrongly and one, set amongst pines and heather is described as a parkland course. In Germany, two 18-hole courses within five miles of the Dusseldorf Airport are not mentioned, nor is another only ten miles farther on, where championships are frequently played. One hopes that other countries have fared better.

There is, nevertheless, a great deal of useful information — Address, Telephone Number, Location, Nearest Airport, Length, Par and Green Fees. The problem starts when we come to "Amenities". For example, "A most picturesque and delightful clubhouse containing changing and locker rooms, restaurant and bar". And in the next column "A pleasant and well furnished clubhouse containing changing and locker rooms, showers, restaurant and bar". On the next page: "There is a very well appointed clubhouse containing changing and locker rooms, bar and restaurant". Next columns: "A well-equipped clubhouse containing. . . . A well-equipped clubhouse that contains. . . . A pleasant clubhouse containing. . . ." Not a lot to choose between any of them.

The "Condition and comments on the course" which follow are reminiscent of an 1890 Golf Handbook. "Although a short course it is by no means an easy one. The greens are well guarded and underhit strokes can be severely penalised." Or "This course should not be missed from any golfing itinerary. The standard of the fairways and greens is good and the hazards are well placed to catch the bad shot."

Better, surely, to stick to facts . . . heather, parkland, seaside, lakeside, wooded or whatever it may be, name the nearest hotel and price, give unusual

Lecture

A very interesting and instructive lecture on Turf Diseases was given by Dr Jackson from the Sports Turf Research Institute on 9th February. I was pleased to see a much improved attendance. With the aid of slides Dr Jackson covered the field of Fungal Diseases and afterwards answered the many questions that were fired at him.

OUR SECTION SPRING TOURNAMENT will take place at the Ealing Golf Club on Tuesday, 11th May and we look forward to a very good entry. The closing date will be Monday, 26th April and the draw will take place on that date at the "News of the World" conference room. Will you please when sending your entries

Once again I am very pleased to say our lecture, 10th February, was well attended. It was given by Mr William Finch and proved most interesting with various questions being asked and answered. In thanking Mr Finch, our Chairman, Mr W. E. Moore, said we shall look forward to seeing him when our lectures start again.

February Meeting

ANOTHER GOOD ATTENDANCE OF about 30 for our February Meeting, it was evident by the number of younger members present that this was a popular subject for them.

It was hoped that a talk on the new Dutch grass seed strains could be arranged but unfortunately this was not possible at the time. However, Mr Croft of Fearnco Ltd., at very short notice fixed us up with some good films on tractors. Mr Furniss, manager of the agricultural section of the same firm came along and gave a very good commentary to a film on tractor maintenance. The other two films illustrating the versatility of the modern range of tractors proved very entertaining as well as instructional.

Appropriate thanks were expressed by our President to Mr Croft and Mr Furniss who in turn offered any help they could give to the section.

Annual Spring Competition

OUR ANNUAL SPRING COMPETITION will be held over the course of Whitburn Golf Club on Thursday, 6th May, by kind permission of the Committee.

Quiz

A Quiz was held at Gosforth Golf Club on the 24th February with a panel of greenkeepers to answer any questions put to them. With our Chairman, Mr J. Simpson, in the chair and a good attendance of Club officials including Mr Alan Thirlwell, ex-English Amateur Golf Champion, it was disappointing to have so few greenkeepers attending, only eight being present. The questions were on golf being an all year round game, many questions were put to the panel and it was agreed by all that frost holes should be used during the frost period although there are some selfish members who have no thought for the greens during this time and would play on them all the year round. I give full marks to Norman Fraser of Chester-le-Street Golf Club for the way he answered the question put to him. Our Chairman thanked the Committee of Gosforth Golf Club for allowing us the use of the Club House and thanked everyone for coming along and making it a very enjoyable evening.

Mr Vaughan

We are all sorry that Mr Vaughan of Ransome, Sims & Jefferies is leaving us and going to the Midlands. On behalf of the North East section I would like to welcome Mr Beveridge from Edinburgh. I am sure he will be just as popular down here as he is in Scotland.

February Lecture

This was held on Tuesday, 19th February, at the White Swan, Leeds, when thirty-five members attended. The Speaker was Mr S. Tyldesdry of Messrs Synchemicals Limited, who took for his subject "Turf Chemicals, New Techniques". Members found this a most interesting subject and many questions were dealt with most ably by the speaker. A vote of thanks was proposed and seconded by Mr S. Bailes and D. Roberts respectively.

Blazer Badges

I have in stock a number of Association Blazer Badges which I would be pleased to supply to members of any section on the receipt of thirty shillings which is their cost.

For many years a staunch supporter of the section and member of the committee, Tommy Wagstaff of Gotts Park Golf Club has now retired. I am sure all members will join with me in wishing him a long and happy retirement. He is succeeded by his assistant Mr A. Cox.

Winter Lecture

THE LAST OF OUR WINTER LECTURES was held on Monday, 8th March, when the speaker was Mr W. H. Bartle from the S.T.R.I. The attendance was not as good as we have had previously but nevertheless up to the average of other years. Mr Bartle gave a very interesting talk enumerating the duties of greenkeepers, their difficulties and some possible remedies. His observations drew some considerable discussion.

I feel that our lectures have been a great success this year, the standard has been very high as always, only people right on top of their jobs come to speak to us. We had two disappointments, one caused by a total fog blackout and the other a misunderstanding between one speaker and the firm he had just left. However we are grateful to those who have given of their time in our interest and the interest of our profession.

Our Spring Tournament will be held at Wilmslow Golf Club on 4th May 1965. We are grateful to the Captain and Council for extending to us the courtesy of their

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Sir,

Change of Title and Address

The lease of our premises expires at the end of March, and as our director Mr. S. H. George, who has been connected with this business for many years has decided to retire from his active interest in the firm, it has been agreed to merge the business with that of our Associate Company, Messrs. Maxwell M. Hart (London) Limited.

On and from 1st April 1965 all communications should be addressed as follows:—

Messrs. Maxwell M. Hart (London) Ltd.
Winnersh
WOKINGHAM, BERKS.

Telephone No. WEST FOREST 4242.

This merger will provide a fuller service to customers as in addition to the usual stocks of Keep's fertilisers, turf dressings, etc., there will be available a complete range of turf maintenance and sports equipment, also that of constructional work in connection with greens, tennis courts, sports grounds, etc., and the relaying of same. We think the amalgamation will be beneficial to customers by such a specialised service, and this should help combat the ever rising cost of commodities and overhead expenses.

We take this opportunity of thanking all our customer friends for their past patronage, and assure them that the same personal attention and service will be maintained.

Yours faithfully,

For Frank Keep (1958) Ltd.

Easter will soon be with us, so it will be Hot Cross Bun time again; and how about some Easter Cookies?

Hot Cross Buns

You require:—1 oz. yeast—1 teaspoonful of sugar—1½ lb. plain flour—3 oz. sultanas—3 oz. currants—6 oz. sugar—½ pint milk—6 oz. margarine—½ teaspoon cinnamon—pinch salt.

Cream the yeast with the spoonful of sugar. Mix the 6 oz. sugar with the 1½ lb. flour and add the dried fruit, salt and cinnamon. When thoroughly mixed make a hole in the centre and pour into it the yeast and the milk heated to blood heat. Mix surrounding flour only with the liquid to a thin paste, sprinkle with dry flour and set the bowl in a warm place for the mixture to rise. When it has risen well (about half an hour) add the 6 oz. margarine and mix in sufficient warm milk to form the mixture into a soft dough. Now let this rise for half an hour, then form the dough into buns, mark with a cross and bake, Brush over with a little syrup made of sugar and water when they are done.

Gas No. 8. Electricity 450 deg. F. Time: 20 minutes.

Easter Cookies

2 oz. Butter or margarine—3 oz. castor sugar—1 egg—4 oz. plain flour.—1 oz. currants—1 tablespoon milk—½ teaspoon rum or brandy.

Cream the butter with 2 oz. castor sugar until it is really soft, stir in the well-beaten egg yolk and the rum or brandy. When all are well blended, work in the flour and a little milk, then currants to form a rather stiff dough. Set it aside for half an hour to settle. Roll out thinly, cut into rounds three inches across with a biscuit cutter. Bake on a well-greased baking sheet until the cookies are firm and lightly coloured. Brush over with the whipped white of egg and sprinkle with the remaining castor sugar. Return to the oven for a minute or two. This will make about 18 cookies, store in an airtight tin.

Gas No. 4 Electricity 375 deg. F. Time: 15 minutes.

A very happy Easter to you all — until May. . . .
