Finally some thoughts for 1988. Whilst there is much cause for optimism, there is a need for a concerted effort by all members to fully project the Association on a national basis as the professional body for greenkeepers. Not everything can be done from headquarters - there is a need for a real impact to be made at local level. Reflecting on the last six months, I would hope for a greater sense of urgency from greenkeepers in 1988 in responding to Association needs and requests - it is after all YOUR Association. Too often there is much chasing to be done to elicit responses on various matters. Again greenkeeper contributions to the magazine have been rather disappointing. The magazine sub-committee will welcome all ideas and contributions - what about letters to the editor for example - either commenting on greenkeeping matters or seeking advice? This would make for good reading.

To end on a positive note, I have met many greenkeepers and been involved in numerous discussions. The enthusiasm for BIGGA and the future is heartening and there are many ideas and aspirations from members for the years ahead. I need to know the views of members and these can be forwarded to my office as well as conveyed to me at the various meetings around the country. We are in an evolving situation and each month of 1988 will bring new developments.

I can rely on members to provide the positive support and backing BIGGA will need to become a pre-eminent force within the world of golf.

JOIN BIGGA IN '88

BIGGA is the professional body for greenkeepers in this country and also offers membership benefits to greenkeepers on an international basis. Already the Association has members in America, France, Sweden, Germany, Holland, Spain, Portugal and as far afield as Japan. BIGGA aims to promote and advance all aspects of greenkeeping, as well as assisting and encouraging the proficiency of members.

For 1988, a wide range of member benefits have been made available, particularly in terms of legal and insurance cover, designed to protect the greenkeeper both in his employment and in his life in general. As well as full members, associate and trade members will be welcomed and they will be encouraged to play a constructive part in the Association's future.

As far as the growth of BIGGA is concerned, there will be strength in numbers and new members will assist in establishing a sound base for the ongoing development of the Association. As a priority, BIGGA will be concentrating on the future education and training needs of greenkeepers. Plans are underway for national events in 1989.

Greenkeepers can now identify with their own National Association and Headquarters office. With its own uniform, logo, and personalised member benefits, there is already an increasing awareness of BIGGA within the golfing world where the views and aspirations of greenkeepers can now be projected.

Now is the time to join BIGGA and be a part of the exciting developments which lie ahead as the Association establishes an organised, professional approach to greenkeeping in all its many aspects.
