BRITISH AND INTERNATIONAL GOLF GREENKEEPERS ASSOCIATION EDUCATION OFFICER

This is a new post established to meet the current and future education and training needs of greenkeepers. In line with the anticipated growth and development of greenkeeper education in the next few years, the appointed officer will have a key role in both the co-ordination and review of current college-based courses as well as the development of new and advanced courses.

The postholder will have wide-ranging responsibilities in relation to all aspects of greenkeeper training including administration of a number of committees; development of in-house training courses; organisation of conferences/seminars; liaison with national education bodies.

Applicants for the post should be able to demonstrate excellent communicative and administrative skills, and, whilst the Association will be seeking to appoint a person with experience of education and training in general, it will be advantageous if candidates can demonstrate a knowledge and background of specific relevance to greenkeeper education.
