It is no secret that the most popular speakers at seminars and conferences are our own greenkeeper members. However, not many members have the confidence or the presentation skills to be able to share their experiences.

The Association, through its new Education and Development Fund, is arranging two-day courses at Aldwark Manor for members willing to gain the necessary confidence and technique.

All you have to do is agree a subject with Education Officer David Golding, and following the training course, we pilot the presentations at Section meetings, prior to national platforms.

Please consider the offer to be trained by the Association and if you wish to discuss the proposed course, contact David at headquarters on 03473 581/2.

In the future the Association would like to develop a "bank" of speakers who could be used on the various platforms around the country, to pass on their particular skill or experience.

It is hoped the course will be very popular - and so early application is recommended.
