FEBRUARY 1996

Contents

BTME: another success story

With attendance figures up a massive 22.6%, the 1996 BTME continues the trend of its predecessors in breaking yet more records, as BIGGA's top show goes from strength to strength. Reports and pictures tell the full story.....Pages 20-26

From blizzards to broken legs

Outgoing BIGGA Chairman Barry Heaney looks back on an eventful – and occasionally painful – 12 months of holding the Association's top jobPages 8-9

...And then the great man said, let us spray

Hugh Tilley examines a selection of sprayers for the golf course, breaking down some of the mysticism which surrounds this essential, but not particularly enjoyable, taskPages 12-15

Horses for courses at Newbury

When Mark Anderson, Head Greenkeeper at Newbury Race Course Golf Club, talks about "flexibility", he brings a new meaning to the word. Pages 31-34

Regular features

BIGGA in focus Neil Thomas's diary of BTME week paints a picture of busy behind-the-scenes activity. Plus a tribute to Geof HillsPage 4

News You chance to play an important role in this year's Open Championship, plus a round-up of all that's going on.....Pages 5, 7

Education Back at work after BTME and a busy programme ahead. Ken Richardson gives details of what's coming up on Page 16. Health and Safety at Work issues are raised in our new Learning Experience sectionPage 37
