Contents

Open triumph for everyone

The Open Championship was another glittering golfing highlight – and yet again BIGGA was in the thick of it, with our Support Team privy to the inside stories. Scott MacCallum compiles the snippets and we have three pages of pictures Pages 13-15

Sheds heaven at St Andrews

It was a day of celebration when the greenkeeping staff at St Andrews moved from their 40-year-old sheds into their new greenkeeping centre. And what a difference! Pages 11-12

The bunker rakes' progress

The upkeep of bunkers can be a real chore for many greenkeepers. Hugh Tilley reports on the machines designed to make the task more bearable Pages 19-21

This course is just too difficult

Dutch golf course architect and R&A member Joan Dudok Van Heel describes the best way to make a course more challenging and reveals some pet hates in course design Pages 43-44

Regular features

News The Jack Nicklaus connection in East Sussex, relocation of an international site for Toro, success in Scottish Championships, the European dimension for students, college principal retires... all the industry news is here .. Pages 5, 7, 9

Education There's an extensive guide to the 1997 BIGGA Supervisory Management Courses, which have won many plaudits from greenkeepers who have attended them. Plus a round-up of other educational activities Pages 26-27

Letters The despair of a greenkeeper being ground down by his employer, an appeal for a '30s tractor – and tee marker rule changes questioned Pages 28-29

Cover

Royal Troon, plus the BIGGA support team, in the midst of Open excitement.
