Contents

A night at the 'Oscars'

Most industries have their own night of nights – and BIGGA is no exception. And for the first time, our very own 'Oscars' take the form of 'The Toros', with the presentation of two major awards for excellence and achievement Pages 38-42

In at the deep end

Graham Chambers, Course Manager at Longhirst Hall Golf Course, Morpeth, came to his job from outside the industry. Graham explains how he has coped Pages 16-17

BTME 98... we're nearly there

After a year of preparation, Harrogate week is now only days away. We look ahead to what's coming up and announce the star names booked for the banquet Pages 18-26

Spreading the word

Hugh Tilley looks at several distinct types of fertiliser spreader and talks to the people most qualified to pass judgement on them – working greenkeepers Pages 43-44

Regular features

News The double triumphs at Hankley Common Golf Club... a new Internet site... Jacobsen's parent company to buy Ransomes... a greenkeeping stalwart is set to retire... all the news from our world Pages 5, 7, 9, 10, 11

Education Ken Richardson looks back on a hectic year for greenkeeper education and makes some important announcements regarding workshop bookings and change of date for one of the top speakers Page 14

Letters The agonies of temporary greens... an outstanding management training course... a big thank you from Denmark – it's the page you write Page 15
