FEBRUARY 1997

Contents

Another great week at BTME

Now it's just a memory – but what a memory! The BTME 97 recorded a 27% increase in attendance with almost 5,500 delegates representing 17 nationalities heading for Harrogate. All the news and pictures from the big event are herePages 12-18

Keeping an eye on the detail

It's not just a magnificent overview of your golf course which makes the difference – it's the little things that matter. Our Learning Experience feature delves deeperPages 20-21

Hard disk, floppy disk – soft option?

Bewildered by the computer jargon which is starting to crop up just about everywhere? Not sure of the difference between a mouse and a RAM? Help is at handPages 24-25

At one with nature

Rudding Park in Harrogate is the most environmentally aware golf course in the country. Scott MacCallum walks among the Canada geese to find out more..... Pages 41-43

Regular features

As I see it Pat Murphy hits the ground running following his appointment as BIGGA Chairman, taking over from Dean Cleaver. With BTME 97 only just over, there's hardly time to draw breath before the GCSAA show in Las Vegas....Page 4

News BIGGA's Open invitation to participate in the UK's most prestigious tournament... a welcome for new staff... changes for Jacobsen and Miracle Professional... and two important initiatives are announcedPages 5, 7, 9, 11, 39

Education Ken Richardson looks back on an educational and entertaining week in Harrogate – and starts planning for the 1998 event.....Page 10
