

Boost for Building Fund

E&S Sportsground Contractors/Kestral Golf Ltd held a football tournament at Motpur Park recently for greenkeepers, groundsmen and trade.

The London English team ended up victorious which was particularly disappointing to the London Scottish team who had to sit and watch Scotland's unlucky defeat to Brazil in the World Cup later in the day.

Richard Veitch, Managing Director of Kestral Golf Ltd, presented George Barr, of BIGGA's Board of Management, with a cheque for £500 towards the Association's Building Fund. E&S will also present a cheque for £250 to the IOG's Education Funds.

Opening of Nicklaus-designed course

Master Greenkeeper Andy Campbell had his hands full on the Monday of Open week with the opening of the new Jack and Steve Nicklaus designed course at Carden Park Hotel, Golf Resort and Spa, near Chester.

Course Manager Andy had to cope with a 3000 strong gallery who had come to watch the inaugural match between the great man Jack Nicklaus himself and former Masters Champion and European number one, Ian Woosnam.

Nicklaus has previously withdrawn from The Open Championship - the first time he had missed it for since 1961 - but was desperate to fulfil his commitment to Carden Park.

He flew into the UK on the morning of the opening and, despite obvious discomfort, thrilled the galleries with a commentary and description of the match and the magnificent new course.

Caddying for the big two where Woosnam's Welsh World Cup of Golf winning partner, David Lewelwyn, who carried Nicklaus' bag and Ian Botham who totted the Woosnam bag.

Carden Park now boasts 192 room hotel, 45 holes, a Jack Nicklaus Golf School and a health spa with swimming pool, gymnasium, aerobic studio, tennis course, and mountain bike trails.

Carden Park, built by Kestral Golf Ltd, has also recently taken delivery of £300,000 worth of John Deere equipment.

From the Chairman's desk...

It is with great regret that due to a lack of support the National Tournament for 1998 has had to be cancelled.

This is certainly no reflection on Scotts, who in partnership with BIGGA staff, were preparing a wonderful event at a superb venue but is purely down to the lack of support from BIGGA members.

However from this major disappointment comes the opportunity for us to bring this event into the 21st century and this we intend to do for 1999.

Details will be announced in the near future.

May I say again how grateful we were for the support so willingly provided by both Scotts and the Letham Grange Resort who were so understanding of the circumstances which prevailed.

I would like to stress that any BIGGA event can only be successful with the support of its members and in this regard, members' views are always welcome.

Gordon Child.

Stateside link for Merrist Wood College

Merrist Wood College, in conjunction with Grass Roots Trading Company and Amenity Solutions Ltd, has created a library based computer link to Michigan State University's "Turfgrass Information File".

Access will be available to all commercial greenkeepers or turf managers as well as students at Merrist Wood.

"We do not have a restricted access policy at Merrist Wood. We want to encourage the industry to come in to the college to look at and use our extensive facilities," said Senior Lecturer in Turf Agronomy, David Rhodes.

The computer link allows readers to source or research information about all aspects of the turf world. Entering a key word will produce a bibliography or abstract list of all published work that makes reference to a chosen subject area. A full copy can then be printed off.

"I have been extremely impressed with Merrist Wood's facilities and their commitment to the future of turf grass training in the UK," said Grass Roots Managing Director, Jamie Bennett.

BIGGA support group

The Midland Region has set up a support group on a trial basis. Because of the many factors involved in forming such a project, it was thought advisable to begin with a trial which would serve as a learning time, allowing us to assess demand and costs before embarking upon further training for support group (members) for other regions.

"The formation of this project comes from the many concerns we have about the high percentage of greenkeepers who are suffering from stress as a result of pressure at work. This often has a knock-on effect, leading to more serious illness, thus affecting families and also places of work," said BIGGA

Past Chairman Paddy McCarron.

"We are also aware that the demands on today's greenkeepers are many and varied and ever-increasing with all-year-round golf. People's expectations at times are too high for the greenkeeper to deal with and because of financial constraints and course limitations and/or poor communications, difficulties build up. It may be that the golf club and the greenkeeper are just not compatible," explained Paddy.

It is also a concern that too many greenkeepers are looking to change their jobs, often for the wrong reasons as many may be suffering from stress during the time that their grievances are developing. What we are saying is: Talk to us first.

"Our desire is to see more greenkeepers happy in their work and more golf clubs happy with their greenkeepers. We do not promise success - that depends on you, but we are there to talk to," said Paddy.

The service will be totally confidential and the only cost to the caller will be that of the telephone call. Appointments will be necessary if someone wishes to talk in person.

Thanks to A.L.S. Amenity Land Services for their financial support of this worthy cause

A Royal occasion for Chris

Christopher Rawlings, (right) who was a runner-up in last year's Toro Student of the Year Award, visited Buckingham Palace recently to receive a silver medal from the Duke of Edinburgh.

Chris (25), of Rodway Hill Golf Complex, Gloucestershire, was voted top Level 3 Sports Turf Maintenance City and Guilds NVQ student in the country after put forward for the award by Hartpury College.

"It was a great honour and quite an experience," explained Chris, who was working at Royal Birkdale with Alan Owen, the other runner-up in last year's Toro Student Award.

"Congratulations to Chris on his wonderful achievement. It really does show that our education system, including NVQs, is working well," said BIGGA Chairman, Gordon Child.

Hayter Harrier is voted "Product of the Decade"

Hayter's enduring Harrier rear roller lawnmower has been voted "Product of the Decade" by readers of Lawn & Garden Equipment.

The poll, which was commissioned by the magazine to celebrate its tenth anniversary, resulted in a clear win for a product that first entered the market in 1970.

Now in its fourth form, the Harrier was the trail-blazer of rotary mowers that make stripes. With thousands of satisfied and loyal users over the past 28 years, this accolade is a fitting tribute to the machine's place in history. Commenting on the announcement of the award, Hayter's Sales & Marketing Director, Kim Macfie, said: "This is tremendous news - very exciting. We have always loved our Harrier model and this acknowledgment is a super vote of confidence for all our staff, our specialist dealers and our customers".

"What is doubly pleasing is that this award comes from the people who really know their products - those that sell them and those that use them. To be recognised for excellence by ones peers, is always very special."

BTME places filling up fast!

Places are filling up fast for the annual trip by the South West and South Wales Region to BTME to the extent that Regional Administrator, Paula Humphries, is considering booking a second coach to travel directly up the M1 to Harrogate from somewhere in Hampshire.

If there is space left this coach facility will be available to members from other Regions at a cost of £25 return. Hotel accommodation may also be available at £32.50 per person per night in a twin room sharing.

All enquiries should be directed to Paula Tel: 01363 82777.

Wentworth sign up big deal with Toro

The Wentworth Club has signed an agreement committing itself to Toro as the exclusive provider of both machinery and irrigation products for the next five years.

It is the latest in a series of "big-name" signings by The Toro Company and its UK distributors Lely and Hydroscape with the next two Open venues Carnoustie and St Andrews, as well as The Oval and Murrayfield becoming Toro users.

Wentworth's 54 holes are already irrigated by Toro and the majority of equipment is also Toro but Director and Course Manager Chris Kennedy said that did not stop Wentworth from speaking with other suppliers before committing to Toro this time.

The machinery side of the contract will see £800,000 worth of Toro kit supplied to Wentworth in two phases this year and next. Phase one comprises a replacement fleet valued at just over £250,000 for the West Course and a further £355,000 worth of other equipment for delivery this year while phase two, to complete the contract, is scheduled for spring '99.

As for irrigation all three courses already have Toro systems so the new contract is for maintenance, repairs and some possible replacement or updating later of control systems.

"We chose Toro for our first job and we've been pleased to keep with them ever since. We felt more comfortable putting both our irrigation and equipment with one manufacturer. It's easier to manage, plus we can get a better deal," explained Chris.

"Toro is the only manufacturer that can provide machinery and irrigation products and Wentworth chose us for both because it makes sound economic sense," said Toro's European Sales Manager, Bob Buckingham.

A familiar Ring for new course?

Ireland's newest golf hole development, Ring of Kerry Golf and Country Club, opened during the week of The Open Championship and lays claim to the title of first quality upland course in the country.

Set in the foothills of the MacGillycuddy Reeks, overlooking the island studded Kenmare Bay the course also has the Caha Mountains serving as a backdrop. Due to a site comprising bogland and rock, the fairways have been constructed entirely with sand, claimed as a first for any inland course in Ireland.

It was designed by Roger Jones, a member of the Professional Golf Architects Association and an Associate member of BIGGA.

Charterhouse extend range

Charterhouse Turf Machinery have continued their programme of UK expansion with the acquisition of Michael Richmond, one of the country's largest mail order suppliers of chainsaws and other forestry tools, clothing and equipment.

"This is an excellent acquisition for us which fits perfectly into our international growth plan. Two years ago we broadened our product range and moved into mail order with a range of environmental tools, clothing and equipment and now, a single stroke, we have acquired probably the largest and certainly one of the most respected companies in the business," said David Jenkins, Managing Director of the Haslemere-based company.

Michael and Shirley Richmond started their business in Haslemere 28 years ago and seen it grow to become a major force in the forestry market.

"We are delighted with the deal. Charterhouse have the vision, management skills and financial backing to take our business to new heights and we are confident that our future is in very capable hands," said Shirley Richmond.

Kubota OAP restored by Evesham College

A 23 year old Kubota B6000 tractor with front loader has been restored "as new" by staff and students from Evesham College in Worcestershire.

When it was acquired by Kubota last year the 12hp four-wheel drive model was the oldest known Kubota tractor in original condition still at work in the UK and once the decision was taken to restore it the College volunteered to carry out the work. The project involved a complete dismantling of the tractor followed by meticulous inspection, overhaul or renovation of all mechanical components and a total respray.

Swan designs first modern Croatian Course

Fresh from the success of the country's footballers and Goran Ivanisovic's excellent performance at Wimbledon this year Croatia's first modern golf course has been opened.

The Dolina Kardinala Golf and Country Club, just outside Zagreb is 6200 metres long and a par 71.

Designed by Howard Swan the course is laid out in open land as well as woodland with mature oaks and beech. The design features sweeping interlinking lakes and ponds throughout which the 8th and 17th greens lie within one large water feature.

"It has been a wonderful experience working in a new golfing country and the enthusiasm of the Croats for sport is immense," said Howard, who is currently the President of the British Institute of Golf Course Architects.
